End Time Prophetic Vision

David's Sojourn in the Wilderness

Priscilla Van Sutphin

It is wisdom to understand the ways of God. God refines us through persecution, affliction, rejection and suffering of all kinds. Romans 5: 3-4 says, " And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope.

1 Samuel 18:14 NKJ says, " And David behaved wisely, in all his ways, and the Lord was with him. wisely- Strong's #7919 Hebrew; sakal= primary root; to be (cause, make, act) circumspect, and hence intelligent: consider, expert, instruct, prosper, prudent, skillful, have good success, teach (have, make to) understand, wisdom, wise, guide wittingly.

This is an outline of the progression of David's sojourn in the wilderness. It has much to teach us about the desert experience God puts us in to build our character.

1 Samuel 19 - David escapes from Saul's wrath, let down by his wife Michal. then

1) David goes to Samuel at RAMAH which means "high places" and flees to the prophet who told him he'd be king.

2) Samuel and David go to NAIOTH which means "habitations". Saul sends messengers three times to kill him, but who end up prophesying with the prophets.

3) So then Saul himself goes to SECHU which means "observatory", then to Naioth in Ramah. Saul strips off his clothing under the power of the Holy Spirit and prophesies in the presence of the prophets-lying down naked for 24 hours. (1 Samuel 19:24) David flees to Naioth to consult with Jonathon.

4) At dinner Doeg says to Saul that he saw David go to NOB "city of the priests" which comes from 5011, from 5108, and 5107 - "fruit, produce, germinate, cause to flourish, make cheerful, increase, also re words, to utter, bring forth fruit. Saul sends them to Ahimelech {my brother is king}, son of Ahitub Doeg kills Ahimelech when no one else would follow Saul's command to kill him, and all the other 85 priests are also slaughtered. Note Doeg was not a Hebrew.

5) Saul then goes to Nob and kills the women and children of the priests, infants, and animals with the sword. Abiathar, son of Ahimelech escapes and goes to David, to tell him. David feels responsible because he saw Doeg there that day and knew he'd tell Saul, so keeps Abiathar with him.

6) David at the Lord's instruction goes to KEILAH which means "enclosed" [having gates and bars]. David saves it's inhabitants. (Redemptive act and encourages David- 1 Samuel 23:7) On inquiry, Lord tells David men of Keilah will turn on him, and turn him over to Saul so he leaves.

7) David and his 600 men "went wherever they could go" it says and stayed in the "strongholds in the wilderness", and remained in the mountains in the WILDERNESS OF ZIPH which means "refining place" 2128- >From same as 2203- means flowing - from unused root word meaning to liquify; asphalt, pitch ! From tendency to soften in the sun's rays. [So we too, soften in the rays of the SON] Another name for it is Horesh [forest].

8) Jonathon goes to David in the woods to encourage him & Ziphites report to Saul that David is in HACHILAH which means (dark, gloomy) 2444-from same as 2447- chakiyl; dark, to be dark, darkly flashing eyes; in a good sense-brilliant as stimulated by red wine. South of Jeshimon 3452 from 3456 & 3452- desolation, desert, solitary, wilderness and 3456 means to die waste, desolate.

9) David moves to Wilderness of MAON. Ma-own 4584 means a residence Same as 4583, and compare to 1010. (4583: abode of GOD, the Tabernacle, Temple) men (their home) or animals, (their lair) hence a retreat--(asylum), den, dwelling, habitation. Same as 5772 Ownah - meaning to dwell together, also (sexual) cohabitation-duty of marriage. So this represents intimacy with the Lord.

10) Saul pursues there but has to fight the Philistines David goes to En Gedi (also known as Hazazon Tamar in 2 Chr.20:2) 5872-Eyn-Gediy from fountain of a kid, 1423-gediy says from same as 1415 - which is gadah from unused root meaning to cut off: a border of a river (as cut into by the stream) - bank. Our lives are cut into by the stream of the Holy Spirit. 5869-ayin-an eye (lit. or fig) and 1423 - a young goat & 2688 by analysis: a fountain- as the eye of the landscape; affliction, outward appearance, + before, + think best, color, conceit, + be content, countenance, + displeasure, eye, face, favor, fountain, furrow, humble, knowledge, look, regard, resemblance, sight 2688 - (Chatsasown Tamar)- from 2686 & 8558); division [ie perhaps row] of the palm tree which is symbolic of VICTORY.

11) Saul comes looking again at the Rocks of the Wild Goats (wild goats can climb high mountains.) David is able now to confront his enemy after time alone with God in the wilderness of Maon and being cut by the stream of the Holy Spirit. He goes down now to where Saul is pursuing and cuts off a piece of Saul's robe secretly. Then confronts Saul from up high Saul repents and weeps. David is able to do good to his enemy. Reminds me of Habakkuk 3:19 The Lord God is my strength; He will make my feet like deer's feet, and He will make me to walk on my high hills.

12) Then he goes to CARMEL which means from 3760 fruitful (plentiful) field.. this was where Abigail and Nabal resided. Abigail is a type of the Bride of Christ as intercessor and humble servant. Same as 3759 from 3754; a planted field (garden, orchard, vineyard or park) by implication garden produce ; full (green) ears (If corn), fruitful field, place, plentiful field, 3754-kerem - a garden or vineyard- vines, increase of the vineyard, vintage, see also 1021: Beyth hak-kerem House of the vineyard. Place of increase for David. David marries Abigail later. Nabal the foolish husband of Abigail dies 10 days after David's encounter with Abigail who stood in between her husband and David. Abigail is a good example of a woman who knew how to deal with angry men.

13) Wilderness of Ziph - again David is in the place of refining. Saul comes again to look for David. David again saves him takes his spear and jug of water secretly. Now David is confident in the Lord's dealing with Saul And in Ch. 26 prophesies in verses 9-10. " Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? " David said furthermore, "As the Lord lives, the Lord shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish." Later that is exactly what happens.

14) Again David doubts - "Now I shall someday perish by the hand of Saul" so goes over to the enemy's territory; the Philistines. So David dwelt with Achish at GATH which means winepress for 1 year and 4 months. Then Achish gives ZIKLAG to David . It means winding, to wind i.e.; like a sack tied at the mouth in a circle. David would go out to fight the Amalekites, Girzites, and Geshurites but would tell Achish he attacked southern Judah or Jerahmeelites or Kenites. We are told to be "wise as serpents and innocent as doves" in the New Testament. Killing his enemies in the midst of the enemy camp. God blesses him in the midst of his enemies. Now Achish begins to trust David but the Philistine lords don't so David is spared from going out to fight Saul. To me this seems to comfort us in that even if we go in the wrong direction the Lord goes with us if we stay faithful to Him He will bring us back to the right path.

15) When he and men return to ZIKLAG - Amalekites have attacked and taken their wives, things, etc. but David pursues the enemy and wins against them. His own men want to stone him, and he goes to Brook Besor with 600 men (200 too tired) so goes on with 400. Brook Besor - 1308 from 1319 cheerful, to announce (glad news), messenger, preach, publish, shew forth, (bear, bring, carry, tell, good tidings) 1319 - to be fresh i.e.; full, rosy, cheerful. David finds an Egyptian who can lead them to the enemy's camp. He recovered every- thing (1 Samuel 30:19) Kills the enemy and takes the spoils- and shared with everyone where he had roamed about during stay in the wilderness. Lord restored his inheritance and then some.

16) Saul killed in battle at Mt. Gilboa (Gilboa=bubbling fountain) with his two sons including Jonathon. David mourns 2 Samuel 1:19 -Song of the Bow. There was no joy for David in the death of his enemy just as the word warns us. God takes no pleasure in destroying his enemies.

17) David is anointed king in Hebron which means alliance, in Judah which means PRAISE.

Finally, in summary, in all the circling around in the wilderness, David went through much testing and times of growing in the strength of the Lord. We grow in confidence in the Lord's power to save when we are attacked. It shows us that He has power to save and our hope is renewed, and our trust in the Lord built through such experiences. There is a parallel in the life of the believer who truly surrenders his life to the Lord like in the life of David. We have ups and downs in our growth. Everyone doubts at times or becomes somewhat discouraged in the face of the enemy's attacks and what God is trying to do is to train us to REJOICE and WORSHIP in the face of the enemy. Victory is gained through praise, and obedience to God's will. FAITH is grown, and confidence built through seeing His saving hand in the presence of your enemies. Then we will be able to war with confidence in our heavenly Father's desire to defend us in battle, when we are walking in His will.

Days Of Elijah Linda Royce

(Mal 4:5,6 KJV) Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

(Luke 1:17 KJV) And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

These are the days of the Elijah.

Elijah restores all things (Matthew 17:11; Mark 9:12).

Elijah makes ready a people prepared for the Lord (Luke 1:17).

Elijah turns the heart of the fathers to the children (Malachi 4:6; Luke 1:17).

Elijah turns the heart of the children to the fathers (Malachi 4:6).

Elijah turns the disobedient to the wisdom of the just (Luke 1:17).

Elijah is close to the heart of God and declares God's word boldly.

Elijah demonstrates signs and wonders and walks in the power of God (1 Kings 17:17-24; 1 Kings 18:19-39).

Elijah confronts idolatry (1 Kings 18:18; 21:25,26).

RESTORATION OF ALL THINGS

My people have been robbed of so much. I will restore all things. When I restore all things, there will be joy in the house of the Lord. When I restore all things, it will not be a burden. I will restore all things, and there will be joy and gladness in the house of the Lord.

You have felt like things have been ripped from you. The things that pollute and profane must be removed from you before I can restore My holy ways. My ways of restoration will produce freedom, not bondage.

I have already begun to restore all things. You will see the body of Christ go through many changes very quickly. As these changes come about, I warn you not to judge by what you see. Each person will progress at a different pace. Whether you are being changed or are watching others being changed, I warn you now not to judge your brethren. I am not pleased by the judgment that has been going on My church. Who are you to judge another man's servant? It grieves Me when you do not judge with righteous judgment. I am the only One who knows and I am the only One who is able to judge the thoughts and intents of men's hearts.

(James 4:11,12 KJV) Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

(1 Cor 4:5 KJV) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

(Rom 14:13 KJV) Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

You know from My parable of the tares and the wheat that the wheat and tares grow together. IT IS NOT THE WHEAT'S JOB TO ROOT OUT THE TARES. I speak to all of the wheat. Be the wheat I've called you to be – grow and bear fruit. Too much focus on the tares will hinder what I've called you to do.

I will restore My order, My ways, My love, My compassion... there is so much I will restore in this day. This is the day for the exposing of counterfeits. My ways of exposing are not your ways. Do not get ahead of Me. I will expose all in My time. I have an appointed time for all things.

Be vigilant, sober, watchful in this day, more than you ever have been. I come like a thief in the night. This is the time to be awake as never before. No sleeping!

I am establishing a government that is greater than any government in the entire earth. Through My holy apostles and prophets, I will raise up a government of My order, My power, My justice, and My righteousness. Many earthly governments will look to the government that I establish in this day. My government will have the answers to the questions that are being asked by the earthly governments. I will grant great favor to My government – the governments of this earth will turn to My government for counsel, wisdom, and direction. This will be a foreshadowing of “The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.” Take off all limits, saints of the Most High God.

Many governments and leaders will turn to Yeshua. Entire nations will turn to the Lord Jesus Christ as the only way of salvation. Once a leader turns to the Lord, there is a release of the Holy Spirit and God's holy angels in the entire nation. Satan understands this, which is why he launches some of the most vicious attacks against government leaders. Pray for your leaders as never before. Cover them with My blood and protection. I will draw to Myself the ones you least expect, so ask Me for My vision. This is not the day to look at anyone, especially your leaders, with your natural eyes.

(2 Cor 4:18 KJV) While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Do you know My plan and do you have My vision for your president? Do you know My plan and have My vision for your next president? Intercede, saints. Stand in the gaps. Make up the hedge. Don't give up... this is what the devil is counting on. Don't do it. You will not be disappointed.

TURNING THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS TO THE CHILDREN, AND THE HEARTS OF THE CHILDREN TO THE FATHERS

God will turn hearts in dramatic ways. This word has both natural and spiritual implications. The Lord's ministers in this day will minister first to their homes. Their homes must be in order before they “go.” The Lord has allowed disorder in this area to a degree in the past, but will not allow it any longer. He is intensely interested in what goes on in our homes. It's time to get your house in order. Don't delay any longer, and don't even try to ignore the Lord's warnings and go out and minister. The Lord will not put up with this any longer. Take heed to the last part of Malachi 4:6, “... lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.”

Youth and children will be in the forefront of the move of God in this day. The Lord will turn church leader's hearts to young people. Great wisdom and understanding will be given to the youth. If you want to hear what the Lord is saying, listen to a young person. “He who has ears to hear...”

The spiritual implications of this word are many. The Lord will bring back respect and honor to leadership in the church. Rebellion, insurrection, and disrespect will be rooted out quickly. God’s people will love His order and His ways. He will change our hearts to embrace His order, His ways, and even our true roots. Regarding the church’s true roots, there are some that are called to be forerunners in this movement. They must realize that “this is the Lord’s doing and it is marvelous in our eyes.” He is the Foundation, the Cornerstone, and the Builder. Never forget whose workmanship the church is. The Lord Jesus Christ will bring about the change in the rest of His church in His time. Those with revelation of the changes coming must be very patient, kind, and gentle with the saints of God. There is great temptation to try to bring about change before the appointed time, but the forerunners must recognize their role as being examples. This is a privilege and is given only by the grace of God.

Holiness will be restored. The church will truly embrace the holy things of God. The Lord will do this, like all other restorations, in His time. The church will “worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.” There will be a restoration of the holy things of God. The Lord will restore the holy things of God to and in His people. This will include, but is not limited to, the restoration of:

Deut. 7:6 – God’s people

Lev. 27:30 – tithe

Leviticus 23:2 – convocations (feasts of the Lord)

Ps. 33:21 – name of the Lord

Again, the Spirit of the Lord cautions the people of God not to become impatient or judgmental of their brethren. Each one is My workmanship, saith the Lord of hosts.

GOD’S WORD DECLARED IN BOLDNESS

God’s holy word will be declared boldly in this hour. The time is short and His words will become stronger and stronger. The vessels He uses will be completely broken by the Lord and will be filled with His love and His compassion. Those who are called to deliver strong words will speak these words only out of love and compassion for those they speak to. Love will be the only motive. These holy vessels will be completely broken by the Lord. They will weep for the sins... they will weep for the idolatry... they will weep for the compromise that they see. They will be truly broken. Carrying the word of the Lord will not be an easy task in this day. It will come at a great personal price. The only way the chosen vessels can go the distance with the word of the Lord is to be completely and wholly in love with Yeshua. Only His love will give them the strength that they will need. Much persecution will come to these vessels, but there are great rewards laid up for them as well.

MIRACULOUS SIGNS AND WONDERS

These are days of great harvest, and great signs and wonders. Those desiring to walk in My power must crucify the flesh and walk by My Holy Spirit as never before. There is a price to pay to walk in this to the fullest. The flesh must be put under. Fast and pray. Stop feeding your flesh. The miraculous will not come to those who are not willing to count the cost and pay the price.

CONFRONTATION OF IDOLATRY

Idolatry will be confronted. There will be many “power encounters” in this arena. We have to understand that when the Lord’s time for something to go arrives, all things must go. It’s time for the idols to be destroyed.

(Exo 20:2-6 KJV) I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

The Lord took 4 verses and several sentences to lay out the First Commandment. All gods that the people of God have put before Him will be rooted out. Who or what do you love more than God? (Be honest.) If you want to walk with the Lord in this day, He must come first. He will no longer tolerate His children going after whoredoms (Hosea 5:4). All things that pull on your affections that rightly belong to God must go. His jealousy will be upon and will consume His people. To those who love the Lord with their entire mind, soul, and strength, His jealousy will be protection, preservation, and comfort. Those who have not made Him their first love will experience the opposite.

God will use His prophets to expose and confront idolatry. “Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper” 2 Chron. 20:20b).

These are the days of Elijah. These are glorious days for God’s people. We will walk in great love, power, and authority. The process the Lord takes His people through will not be easy, but in the end it will be glorious, and His people will be glorious. We will truly be “a people prepared for the Lord.”

Remember, our God is the God of the impossible...

Days of Testing

Diane Schultz

DAYS OF TESTING FOR THE BODY OF CHRIST IN AMERICA

During a prayer meeting the day after Election Day a word came forth from the Lord regarding the circumstances surrounding the delay of the decision of who will be the next President of the United States. The Lord said, "I am staying My hand to see what the church will do?"

That evening while crying out to the Lord and weeping He spoke the following word to my spirit:

"Behold the days of my coming are at hand. Even now I press and sift to see who will stand for me. Who will stand for righteousness? Who will stand for holiness? Who will stand for me? Each heart in these days is being tested for where their treasures lie. Do not be deceived. Do not falter for if you do I will not be pleased with you.

Is this not the hour of my coming -- the hour of a visitation of my Holy Spirit? Will you embrace me, or will you shun me? Do not miss the hour of your visitation. Be bold, be courageous. Cry out, cry out, cry out from the depths of your spirit for my Kingdom to come, for my will to be done in this country, in this world. Seek me; seek my face; wrestle with me.

Rise up and be the mighty army I've called you to be. Lay down your agendas, your petty problems and busyness. Can you not give me your time, your heart, your all for such a time as this. The attitudes and intents of men's hearts are being revealed this day, this hour. Judgment will come to each house, to each person as the days ahead unfold the true desires of men's hearts. Are you for me, or are you against me?

Think it not strange that a raging battle is going on over this nation for your very souls. Some will turn against me. But, you, stand firm and see my salvation."

Dead To Sin

Stephen Hanson

DEAD TO SIN, BUT ALIVE UNTO CHRIST July 18, 00

- 16. So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature.
- 17. For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want.
- 18. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law.
- 19. The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery;
- 20. idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions
- 21. and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.
- 22. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
- 23. gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.
- 24. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.
- 25. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. Gal. 5

What I want to talk about here is something I believe, is crucial and important for all of us. That is that we still struggle with sin in our lives, and wonder "why" we still must deal with it. We perhaps attempt, to get rid of it through our own methods and persistence. This will not work; it can only be done through the "inner workings of the Holy Spirit," and us yielding to those workings. Paul mentions in Romans 7 that we have an inner struggle with this very thing. We don't understand what we do, and the very thing that we "want to do," we don't do.

Rom. 7:

- 14. "We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.
- 15. I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do."

Paul goes on saying that it is no longer "us," but it is the "sin" which is living in you or I:

- 16. " And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.
- 17. As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.
- 18. I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.
- 19. For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do--this I keep on doing."

This is then an "inner struggle," and one which seems to go on and on.

- 20. Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.
- 21. So I find this law at work: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me.
- 22. For in my inner being I delight in God's law;
- 23. but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members.
- 24. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?
- 25. Thanks be to God--through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in the sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.

We are told in Galatians 5, to "live by the Spirit," and then we will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. There are nine different "fruits of the Spirit" which are mentioned in this passage. We are also told that "against such things there is no law." We are no longer under the law in order to "perform" these attributes, and somehow, "create" these things in our lives. When we live by the Spirit, then the sinful desires which are in direct opposition to the "fruits of the Spirit," will not become part of us. Now, this is a "process," and a continual one. Perhaps we may have "self control" in some areas of our lives, but are we always patient? Are we always kind? We may obviously not be involved in orgies or in drunkenness, but have we or do we occasionally have selfish ambitions? Is there ever strife or discord in our lives? Perhaps we don't practice witchcraft but are there areas in our lives where some things have become like idolatry? Where do we spend much of our time? You see, it isn't always the most readily seen sin which oftentimes plagues us.

The Lord has shown us in Matt. 5:

- 27. "You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.'
- 28. But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
- 29. If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

So it is not always the "outward appearance of sin" which we must deal with, but it involves the inner workings of our hearts. Here is where we "commit murder," and here is where we "commit adultery." Here is where can be found everything which is contrary to the Spirit of God. But this is not "us," this is our sinful nature, and this is the very thing which we need to know was "crucified" with Christ. Here is where the real battle is fought. Now we must begin to realize that we are dead to sin, and that these desires and actions which happen to us, are as a result of our sinful natures. So that just as we are counted as dead to sin, we are also "alive to God," through his Son, Jesus. Just as we have been "buried with Christ," so we are also "alive to Him." (Rom. 6: 11. In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.)

Our worship of Him needs to be something which is on-going. To be sure, we need periods of time in prayer with Him, listening to His voice, and in a state of "worship." But these times of worship should help us in "transforming" our lives into a more fruitful life. We are told in Rom. 12 to offer our bodies to the Lord, and that this really, is our spiritual worship:

Romans 12

- 1. Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God--this is your spiritual act of worship.
- 2. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is--his good, pleasing and perfect will. "

As we can see here it is the offering of our bodies as living sacrifices that we are then united with the vine. We become a part of it. Now, does an apple or a peach "try" to produce fruit? Of course not. Their fruitfulness depends upon them being infused and a part of the vine or the tree, that they are a part of. This is also true of us; for apart from Him we can do nothing. (John 15: 5. "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.") So that remaining in the vine, offering our bodies as living sacrifices, God then through the work of the Holy Spirit, develops these characteristics of Himself in us. In the Old Testament, bulls and lambs were offered as living sacrifices by the priest. We also know that Christ came as the absolute sacrifice. He came that we might have life and to have it more abundantly. Now just as He was offered as a living sacrifice for us and for our sins, we now, offer ourselves unto Him, so that we may become "more like Him" in every way. So that we may be changed from glory unto glory. We will see Him as He is, and we will then be "like Him."

- 2. Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.
- 3. Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure. I John 3

We know also that if we claim to not sin or to say that sin is not in our lives, that we deceive ourselves. We have an advocate with the Father, and this is through His Son:

- 8. If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
- 9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.
- 10. If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.

I John 1

- 1. My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense--Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

2. He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2

The real "essence of this" is that we will not continue to want to sin. We will sin, but we will desire to please Him, and our nature in Him, our new nature, that is "in Christ," is being renewed daily. So that because of this, we are under His blood, and we are new creatures or creations in Him. It would seem like a contradiction, but it isn't. We are told that if we say that we don't sin, then we are deceiving ourselves. On the other hand, we are told here that anyone born of God does not "continue to sin."

18. We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him. I John 5

To conclude, there are then these two natures within us, and the sinful nature is really not "us." Who we are is being transformed daily, and being made into His image by the workings of His Spirit.

29. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. "

Rom. 8

16. Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

17. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.

18. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. II. Co. 4

Deal With Prophets

Julie Baxter

Background: The Lord woke me at 3:47 a.m. Feb. 25 with a "knock, knock". I heard it in my sleep, awoke and tried for a moment to discern what awoke me. I said "Is that you Lord?" He answered "Yes, get up. I want to teach you." And then sweetly "You may make coffee first if you will". By this I understood He wanted me out of bed, very awake and probably at the computer to receive what He had to teach me. I did as instructed, and the following is the result. Message Follows

A Word Concerning How Pastors Are to Deal With Prophets February 25, 2000 Ejb

It is imperative you listen and learn how to deal with prophets I will be bringing to you, exposing in the midst of your flock and calling you to receive from. Yea, much you know already for some of your life has been wrapped in a prophetic mantle, but there are practical aspects that you do not know because you have been quick to listen, hear and obey. You have not gone through this before, My pastor prophet.

My prophets are strange people, you have said so yourself. That is because they live with one eye and one ear toward the heavnlies. I have used and will use their pasts and their earthly understanding to depict that which I have done and am doing.

They are passionate, intense, and fiery people. They have run the gauntlet of public abuse and opinions and are gunshy because of it. You will remember Elijah went to the cave because of fear. Study it out you will see what I mean.

My prophets are fearful people. They are truly those who fear me in the sense of reverencing me above man. This has been developed in their spirits by virtue of my training. I have submitted them to fire after fire of public scorn for what I have shared with them, and they have learned that wisdom is to fear God.

On the other hand, they are fearful of man. You understand how that occurs; you yourself have walked through this valley of the shadow of death. The abuses, the threats, the absolute lack of understanding in the leadership they have been commanded by Me to submit to have caused them to be jumpy.

You must be compassionate toward them and receive them with understanding. They know they hear Me. They know it is Me. Their love for Me is such that they would never give up what I have given them. But, they know too, that they may not be received, but more, they might put themselves on the firing line to share what I have given them.

Most of the prophets I will bring to you will be what you have decided to call of the "Elijah mentality". This is a good way to explain it and is not derogatory to Me or to them. See that it does not become so in your eyes. Do not touch the anointing on their lives with sarcasm or patronizing. Do not mock their fears. It is good you understand where they come from, but do not think it is your own understanding. I have shown you this revelation and will that you treat it as so.

When they come to you receive them gladly. Receive them into your school of prophets. Most will take some time to recognize who you are in Me, do not rush this with explanations of your stature or understanding. It is imperative they come to this knowledge on their own, so that the witness of their spirit might be the confirmation they need to trust you.

Instruct your team to do likewise. Tell them I will not permit that my prophets be undiscerned in your midst with sarcasm and infantile frustration. I place my prophets in high esteem, you must teach your teams to do likewise.

It is critical that the pastors of this world learn to function alongside the prophets. There must be no rivalry, no competition, and no leaning to one's own understanding. I will do what I will do. The prophets have taken the time in my courts to be my friends, and I allow no one to judge them falsely. They have chosen to be undiscerned in this world, that they might be known by Me, and I will not allow them to remain forever the little brother in the family.

Yea, each of them has matured to some position, some rank, and been promoted from time to time as they have invested their lives in My service. Discern them carefully. They may wear camel's clothes and come from caves and deserts, but they are genuinely your brothers and sisters.

In the beginning of each association let them know that you receive them. Also let them know they too must be in a position of submission. This is not a lower position; this is a working position. They must be able to allow their prophetic input to be judged for if they do not hear my teachers, my pastors, they place themselves in jeopardy of hellfire.

Pride tracks them by virtue of the revelation they receive. Pride seeks to destroy that which fear cannot silence. Their only safety is in hearing my voice. Unfortunately, they are either so set in their minds or eager to obey so often they miss the still quiet voice of my pastors and my teachers. They have been so often unheard or not understood they often will assume the same of everyone they speak to who does not readily acquiesce to their position.

Do not allow their zeal or their folly to cause you to fling them from your midst. Do not allow frustration to silence them. Do not allow yourself to be caught in defending your position. Stand. I will speak to them through your stance and I will cause them to hear My voice when you speak.

Occasionally you will encounter some that are very set in their Elijah mentality. Be peaceful with them. Be slow with them. They must know they can trust you for you to be able to work alongside them and train them to be careful with my Word.

It would be good if they know from the beginning that you understand them. It would be good, but most will not believe it until I have confirmed it within them. This I will do as soon as they will permit themselves to believe that which I am putting into their spirits. It would be good if they know from the beginning that you respect them and love them for that which they have suffered in order to be where they are and who they are in My kingdom. But again, they will most likely be slow to understand and receive you for they've not been discerned nor honored.

Their hearts cry for understanding and that acceptance, for I have made them walk alone. You know this my quicksilver daughter. You have experienced this, as well as the hardening of your heart to the loneliness. You have received my corrections for this very thing, and had me do the surgeries required so that your heart might be strong and well protected.

You must teach them not to receive offenses. You must teach them to stand quietly and not allow the fluttering of those who do not understand them and their zeal to ruffle their feathers. Most I bring to you are but teenagers in their giftings and office. They have not yet matured to the position of quietness and strength in the confidence that I will work all things together for good. Most are angry with me and flaunt their right to be honest with Me, because it is of so little importance in the entire scheme of things I have not corrected them for it. Some I have corrected for this irreverence, but they have not heard it because they have chosen to ignore it by virtue of our friendship.

You must teach them to reverence me in ways that do not offend Me because of their sins of anger and arrogance. Yea, I will allow my friends to speak their minds to me, but not to portray my enemy as they do so. I have winked at this and will continue to do so, but only for a short time. My prophets must be in their places before I am able to reveal many of my strategies to My warrior Bride.

They must not assume that because they have suffered much at the hands of their brethren, that they can be as they will in my courts. For, yea, not one has suffered to the depths that I have suffered and I never railed against My Father. They are only afraid and puffed up in pride. You must receive these and teach them not to offend me.

They have hardened their hearts to the very ones I send them to speak to. They have become so comfortable in prophetic gestures they have forgotten to genuinely love my beloved. They have found such peace from strife in doing what no one understands or knows that they often will resist speaking in love to my own, saying in their minds "they will not understand".

You must teach them to submit their hearts, their giftings and their office to my sheep. You must teach them to be team players not lone rangers. It will not be easy for they trust no man. It has been man that has wounded them, it has been man that has betrayed them, and it has been man that has made it difficult for them to be who I have made them. They must learn to reverence My life that I am living through them. They must learn that if they are going to be like Me, they will go through the same sufferings to learn the obedience. They will go through the same testings.

They must not despise the vessels I send to test them, to prove them, to get them to study out that which I tell them. They must not adopt attitudes of unbelief and insolence. You must teach them to be messengers only, and not to receive anything for that message I give them to deliver. They must not take my glory, neither must they receive hurt or be moved when people do not respond they way they would prefer them to. You must teach them to allow men to dissimulate My word into their spirits in the way that I have trained them. They only put the food on the table. They are the servers. They are not responsible to eat it for those they serve. Teach them humility. Humility is not weakness, but the greatest of My strengths. Humility serves. Humility allows men freedom. Humility places you in first position as you remain covered in last position.

Most of my prophets consider themselves humble and holy. They are not. They are simply out of touch with people. They must learn to be who they are regardless of the way men treat them. You will be able to help them as you have begun to be comfortable in who you are in your prophetic office. They will learn much from your quietness and your reserve as soon as they see it. Unfortunately, my beloved, they will first assume you to be of lesser stature than themselves and that you know nothing of my courts. They will not discern how intimate friends and lovers we have become. Hold steady. They will.

As well, you must teach them respect for the other offices and giftings. You know my prophets. They hear MY voice. It gives them such delight. It gives them such self-esteem, that they forget I speak to all my sheep. They are quick to say they respect each member of My body, but in truth, do not. They esteem themselves higher than they ought and recognize one another quickly. They are full of themselves and do not esteem the ones I died for carefully. They will deny this if you bring it to them. So, do not try. Simply love my sheep, all my sheep, equally in front of them. Honor each member in front of them. Teach them to respect each one for who they are becoming in My kingdom.

Most of my prophets are more concerned with the word, the understanding, and the insights I have given them than they are in the vessels which are to receive these things. You must teach them otherwise. I will not allow My prophets to destroy my family. I will not allow them the discourtesies that they themselves have suffered.

I want you to teach them to wait upon Me for an all-consuming love to flood their very being. This love is the vessel for delivery. Not anger. Not frustration. Not patronizing. Not sarcasm. Not pride. Not even hatred for that which I hate. How can I bless what I call accursed? You must teach them to be holy and to enjoy it.

Your problem will be that most do not esteem the pastors and the teachers. I will give you signs and wonders to astound them and assure you they will hear you. I will cause you to bloom in love in front of them. I will cause you to be discerned, fear not. I am able to do with you as I will because you love me. Yea, I know you do. I receive your love most gladly.

Have I told you lately you do well? I have seen your struggling, your loneliness. I have placed you from one vessel to another with barely a word, and you have sought to make the new vessel your home. You are like the birds that sing outside your window and you seek to make your home where I am. You do well, my beloved, my treasure and my friend.

Stay close to my Word. I am speaking things into your heart that will grow to be great trees of wisdom in the coming months. It is good that you chronicle these things, for your earth mind is not efficient to recall all that I am putting in you. I will help you and bring many things to your memory, but do chronicle My activities.

I am glad you heard my whisper about having your ducks in a row regarding the enemy's devices in your land. You must seek help in these things, for you do not have time to search them all out yourself. You must have these scriptures and understandings ready to give an answer to whoever will pose the question. Do not fear that men will not receive you because of your gender. They will not. Neither will they receive you because of your size or your boldness.

But they will receive you because the mark of my love is upon you, and the signs I send you will demonstrate who I AM to them most assuredly. Fear not. Just continue doing as I have spoken to you.

It is good that your team is being tried. It is good that you see it is My hand. I am calling them to step into your position when I remove you and they will take over this school so they must also understand with understanding. You may share this with them, for they already think it in their hearts and it will confirm some things to them. Teach them to reverence their trials. They do not as yet. They believe they love me, but they are having a hard time loving my correction. It is difficult for them. Tell them to "grow up".

The prophets I send you will be lodged in their homes. Normally I would place them with you, but in this time I will not. I require that you fulfill all my counsel to you and take your writing seriously. I understand you and will give you quiet times such as these. This is both a mark of your office as prophet and the mark of your obedience to my voice in the night.

Teach your team to prefer one another and to submit to one another and not to cling to their own rights. They too, must depict the humility and lowliness of the servant to each prophet I send. Some of these will need nursing back to health. The watchmen have victimized some. Some of these have driven themselves hard in their attempts to serve me and will need the beauty of the place I have given your team.

Teach the prophets not to concentrate so much on the secrecy (which is good) or the importance (which it is) of the message I give them. Teach them to reverence Me, and the vessels to which I lead them to deliver their messages. My word will not go void. But, my people can be hurt. Teach them to focus their efforts in love.

Teach them to be those who seek those who are thirsty without despising those who are not. All men thirst after Me. Teach them to recognize this, as they are clearly seeing those who are to be filled. Teach them I abhor them getting their self-esteem from knowing what others do not. Teach them not to do so. Teach the "Elijahs" to understand they are not alone. Minister to them in their caves by speaking forth the command to "Come forth" as you did the other night. Continue to call, they will hear eventually. Continue to give forth the call, so that in hearing, they know where to come.

Teach other pastors to do likewise. I will use the prophet in line with the pastor in the last days as a testimony to the power I have divested in the union of the spirit and the word. I will use them in tandem to demonstrate that I move in the real and in the supernatural with no conflict whatsoever. I will use this union to bring men to me who see the great divergence between the spiritual and the natural and are bound in unbelief because of it.

You must teach your pastors not to be threatened by the prophet who clings to their right to speak. You must teach your pastors how to receive that which they speak while they work in unity with the prophet. You must teach your pastors they must not be so protective, so territorial that they scare away the prophet. You must teach the prophet to hold the revelation while the pastor makes the way. You must teach the prophet not to blow off the pastor's leading. You must teach your prophets how to not despise the slower revelations of the pastors.

The prophet has food once or twice a month for the sheep; the pastor feeds every day. Both are vital. Both must be given place. The prophet will confirm what the pastor preaches. The pastor will preach the whole counsel of what the prophet delivers. One is daily requirement, one is a supplement. Both hear my voice. Both need to be taught not to fear the other and to love working in harmony. It will not be easy for either of them. But it will get easier as you show them how and demonstrate within your own self how it is to be accomplished.

When you correct a prophet, they will not hear you. You must get their heart first. They will not hear you because they are used to not being heard. It is more normal for them than being heard. Do not grow weary in dealing with them. They need to be led out of this abyss with lovingkindness and much tenderness, or they will bolt from this sheepfold.

Teach your team to look them in the eyes and not to respond quickly trying to shatter the intensity with which they speak. Do not patronize them. They hate it and smell it quickly. It will cause them to regard you as one who does not hear, or worse, some will regard you as a threat. You must give them license for their intensity and demeanor. They are intense and passionate. They must be to forge ahead, as they are required to do, when none seem to be behind them.

Teach your prophets how to come into my presence with singing, and I will teach them how to be my singing prophets. Music makes even difficult doctrine more palatable to some, and I would have you to teach them to do so.

Teach them not to be haughty, or to copy other prophets. I will impart what I will impart. Teach them to seek me, not methods of getting the message across. Teach them that I will use whom I will use and give the giftings severally, as I will. It is their responsibility to invest that which I have given wisely and not to copy that which another does.

Teach them to come to me for their daily needs. They think they do this already because I speak to them. They do not know what treasures I have stored for them that they have not seen. What is worse, they do not know they need the things I have stored, for they are content with the few things I have given them. I am not speaking about earthly riches; I am speaking about treasure in deeds. I long to pour myself out in ways that will make the path of eternal life visible to all men regardless of stature, position or wealth. I need my prophets to live closer to my throne than they have done.

Teach them how to live in my chambers and not to be so much involved with strategies. Yes, the strategies are good, but many of them care more for the warfare and the strategies than they do for the One who spoke all things into existence. Many of them are like the civil militia that near anarchy in some nations today, and this grieves me. Teach them to be lovers. Teach them to do their business in love. Teach them this is the mark of discipleship, that they love one another.

This will be the most difficult of all the tasks I have given you, for they are wary of being loved, giving love and being lovers. They have been badly abused and wounded. But, I tell you, something deep inside them will respond to this love. It will speak to them so deep they make take some time recognizing it as My will for their entire lives. Be patient with them. Be consistent with them. Be careful to do as you tell them you will do. Be true to your word with them, at all costs, for they have been trained to look for lies and betrayal. Love them with an everlasting love. Love them through their determined focus on what I have spoken. Love them as people. Respect their office, but love them as people and minister to them as souls I died for.

Fear not that the task is too large, too difficult or impossible. Did I not knock only twice tonight? Thank you for being so quick to the door, my beloved and my friend. Take your rest. I will return to speak to you of this more and more and help you discern them. It will not be something we cannot accomplish together.

Deep Cries To Deep

Doug Patterson

This day I am calling you forth, for you have tasted the water of salvation. You have received a touch, a fresh new anointing. You have tested Me and proven Me in days gone by. Many of you have come to the River of Life and entered in. It is a day when deep is crying unto deep.

My Spirit is calling you into the deep things of the Lord. This will cause you to decide to come into the fullness of your salvation, the fullness of your healing, the fullness of your deliverance.

My ways shall become your ways. My thoughts shall become your thoughts. Wisdom shall dwell within you, for deep cries unto deep.

Return to the River of Life and dive to the very bottom of the river. Submerge yourself in the glory of the Lord. Enter into the Throne Room of God. There is a new dwelling place.

The Spirit of God will prolong your days and add good success to your activities. Wisdom shall rule and reign in your heart for I will extend Myself through you.

My Body is coming together. Revelation is sobering your soul to line up with My Spirit to fulfill your purpose and your call.

So rejoice! Be strong in the deep riches of the Lord for I hide Myself within you. For I have made Myself available to touch your heart as deep cries out to deep.

Defilement

Angel Howard

We know that the Old Testament is a type and shadow of the new. We also have valuable lessons to be gained. Knowing they are types of - physical realities for spiritual TRUTHS.

The Lord has been speaking to me tremendously about guarding ourselves from defilement.

So I looked it up.

de*file [1] (verb transitive) de*filed; de*fil*ing to make unclean or impure: as a: to corrupt the purity or perfection of: DEBASE <the countryside defiled by billboards>

b : to violate the chastity of : DEFLOWER

c : to make physically unclean esp. with something unpleasant or contaminating <boots defiled with blood>

d: to violate the sanctity of: DESECRATE <~ a sanctuary>

In the old testament cleansing from defilement was a very serious matter!

To put this in terms of the New Testament.

Just as the battles waged in order to TAKE THE LAND show us much as to how to war in the spirit, so too we have things to learn from the laws about defilement.

Various things caused a person to be defiled. There were things a person was required to do in order to be restored to the community after defilement. So too if we fall, stumble we have to be healed, restored back into right standing in God's eyes.

When we stumble and sin such as sexual sin - spirits are picked up and until there is proper healing/deliverance those can be transferred.

Just as colds are passed along by contact so to can spirits be transferred if we put ourselves in positions where we receive from someone who we know has been defiled.

I do believe that we are covered in the grace of God when we may not know but if we have been warned or cautioned about someone we take a chance of us to being defiled.

All we have to do is look at Achan to see how his sin effected the whole camp. His sin was the reason the battle of Ai was lost!

This is a serious matter, one we can't afford to take lightly. It could cost the victory.

34 Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God--I say this to your shame.

American Standard Bible; 1Peter 2:7 and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life of the wicked 2:8 (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed [his] righteous soul from day to day with [their] lawless deeds): 2:9 the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the day of judgment; 2:10 but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, self-willed, they tremble not to rail at dignities: 2:11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgment against them before the Lord.

Jude 1:23 (The New Living Translation) Rescue others by snatching them from the flames of judgment. There are still others to whom you need to show mercy, but be careful that you aren't contaminated by their sins.

*An unclean person in general had to avoid that which was holy and take steps to return to a state of cleanness. Uncleanness placed a person in a "dangerous" condition under threat of divine retribution, even death (Lev 15:31), if the person approached the sanctuary. Uncleanness could lead to expulsion of the land's inhabitants (Lev 18:25) and its peril lingered upon those who did not undergo purification (Lev 17:16; Num 19:12-13).

The Lord then further confirmed that keeping ourselves free from defilement. Prior to writing this I heard clearly to go on a 10 day fast.

I was sharing this with my spiritual Mom who then directed me to read the first chapter of Daniel;

Daniel 1:8 But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.

12 "Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink.

13 Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see."

14 So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food.

19 The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's service.

20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

No defilement!

Ten times better in every manner of wisdom and understanding.

Daniel refused the kings food

REMOVE THE DEFILEMENT FROM THE CAMP THE ALARM IS BEING SOUNDED.

THERE IS DEFILEMENT IN THE CAMP IT MUST BE REMOVED FROM YOUR MIDST

FOR GOD IS BRINGING TOGETHER HIS ARMY

HIS GENERALS HAVE BEEN ALREADY ALERTED AND BROUGHT TOGETHER IT'S TIME TO INSPECT THE TROOPS

"THOSE THAT I HAVE ANOINTED AS GENERALS I WILL TELL AND POINT OUT TO THEM WHERE THE DEFILEMENT LIES. JUST AS I DID TO JOSHUA I WILL MAKE IT KNOWN

THE QUESTION IS WILL YOU HEED THE GENERAL THAT I SEND NOT JUDGING WITH YOUR EYES OR YOUR OWN UNDERSTANDING?

I HAVE ANOINTED THEM AND APPOINTED THEM I WILL CONFIRM THEM IF YOU WILL LISTEN.

THE CAMP HAS BEEN DEFILED REMOVE IT FROM YOUR MIDST.

YOU CAN NOT GAIN THE VICTORY WHILE THERE IS SIN WITHIN THE CAMP"

Destiny Impacted!

Chad Taylor

Anchorage explodes! The youth are intoxicated under the influence of the Holy Ghost, still drunk and on fire Sunday morning as we combined forces with the main adult service at Anchorage Christian Center. Saturday night was a divine appointment with destiny. Destiny Impacted every moving breathing soul! Here is what one young man testified,

"Dude, I went to the last day of Destiny Impact!! (I forgot about it until Sunday man!) IT WAS SO AWESOME.....PRAISE GOD FOR CHAD TAYLOR AND TODD BENTLEY. I saw the miraculous before my eyes and the power of God like in your dreams man.....and I am changed by it too. I will not be the same, I walked away with a new knowledge of God and my victory in Jesus Christ. but the best part is, I have been walking it out, BY CHOICE! praise God." (Mark Stewart).

We started the night with a "tunnel of fire", as a human tunnel of hands and bodies formed a Holy Ghost runway! The children as well as the adults pressed in to be prayed for and go through the "tunnel of fire!" Then the unexpected happened! The Holy Spirit moved on the youth in a unprecedented way. They huddled in groups of four and five for hours laughing and weeping as the Spirit washed over them. One man came addicted to drugs and testified publicly of his deliverance with absolutely NO withdrawals.

Prophetic song began to flow as the Spirit invited the audience into a holy dance, "Could I have this dance? Would you take the chance? Would you dance with Me? Will you let Me set you free? Give you liberty? Could I have this dance?" No one was left in the pew Sunday morning as the youth prayed and released the Spirit of revival to the adults and main congregation. The children line up at the altar to lay hands on the throng of adults desiring a touch from the Lord.

Sunday night exploded with divine healings. One lady born deaf in one ear, began to scream and holler as her ear popped open! Again, the youth were released under the unction of Todd Bentley to pray for the sick and diseased. Another young teen was baffled and could not speak as his left ear that was deaf began to open under the hands of teens praying for him! An older woman with cancer, who not able to stand correctly or more than a few feet unassisted, fell to the floor with cries and sobs and rose up to walk quickly back and forth across the sanctuary! She reported her pain was gone! The doctors had given her very little chance to live. Severe back problems were healed as the youth and Todd Bentley prayed. People moved and jumped after prayer, doing things they were unable to do before. One more testified of God's grace this weekend,

"Saturday night and Sunday night we went into Anchorage to attend a meeting which was really centered around youth but there were a few of us "old" folks there too. My 10 year old son got baptized in the Holy Spirit on Sat. night and sat on the floor in front of the platform for over an hour with his hands raised crying steadily. While we were laying hands on him I was praying that his life would be changed and he would never be the same. I also prayed that he be given the desire to become a preacher. On the way home he told us that he wanted to be like Benny Hinn. My wife, a teacher who has been having some problems with her principal and is in danger of not being retained for next year, was standing up toward the front when the evangelist came and began praying over her. He then said, not knowing anything about her, "Let her continue to teach Lord." Then she went down and stayed down for a long time. He came up to me and prophesied saying that those who I lay hands on and pray over it will be like anointing oil being poured over their heads and running down.

On Sunday night the youth were then told to begin praying for those lined up for their healing. I found my son and told him to stick like glue to the evangelist, to lay hands on everyone he did and ask God for their healing. He stuck like glue the whole evening laying hands on everyone praying for their healing and also got prayed for a couple of times. Toward the end he was sitting on the floor kind of off to the side looking somewhat dazed and I was telling the evangelist what he had said about wanting to be like Benny Hinn. The evangelist went over to him and put his hands on each side of my son's head and prayed, "Lord, bring this boy into the ministry." Over he went, out. Praise God.

During the prayer time I begun working with the kids praying for people. We came to a lady who had one deaf ear, total deafness. I put my hand over her ear and we began praying. Then I prayed, "I bind the spirit of deafness in this ear and rebuke it. Spirit of deafness come out in the Name of Jesus. I loose hearing into this ear in the Name of Jesus." Her ear was opened and she could hear. I was awe struck. My spirit was saying, "Well what do you expect, of course she got her hearing back. Duh!" My flesh was jumping up and down. I have prayed for hurt backs and various other stuff that have been healed but for an ear to open up right under my hand. I'm still awe struck. What a wonderful God we have. I know I didn't have anything to do with it other than pray and that God did it so all honor, praise and glory to Him!!! Still, I can't get over it! Praise be to our God who is our healer!!!! On another lady arthritis pain went away and she said she was feeling good. I also held her ankles which were very swollen and it felt like the swelling went down right as I was holding on and praying. An hour or so later I asked how her ankles were and she said they felt good. Praise be to God again and again and again!!!!"

Yesterday I was dancing, singing and praising all morning. I think I was still slightly drunk on the Holy Spirit when I went to bed. I know I have an anointing for healing and every one also tells me that. I have seen people get up out of wheel chairs, eyes opened and other wonders in meetings so I am not surprised but to actually have it happen under my hands is exciting. I want to shout to the hills what the Lord has done. All praise and honor to our God who made the hills!! (Chris Converse)

Saturday morning we held a training class concerning evangelism and healing. Then we promptly went to the Anchorage Mall and released teams into the crowds! All over the food court you could see Christian youth and adults engaging strangers in deep conversation and prayer. 4 souls were confirmed saved and earnestly prayed for salvation in the Mall! GLORY! It is certainly harvest time! Please pray for us as we launch into another conference May 18th-21st. See more details here: www.consumingfire.com/events.htm

Keep Todd Bentley in your prayers, and consider us a resource to your area in the future, it is our vision to come to certain regions and cities as a team to release and mobilize the church for harvest and revival. Find out more about Todd Bentley at: <http://www.thearc.bc.ca/> And let us all 'press on to the upward call in Christ Jesus...'

Destiny

Don Dodd

Destiny is a big word! I am reminded of Joseph. He was called when he was a teenager to rule over his brothers. He had quite a journey on the way to his destiny. However, he always worked in his calling to rule. He ruled in Pontiper's house. He led in prison and he ruled in Egypt. He did not fulfill his destiny in any of the places, but he was being trained into his destiny.

The Lord took Paul to the wilderness for some 17 years to prepare him for his destiny. The Father trained Jesus for 30 years for three years of ministry. Waiting for our destiny may be painful and we may get impatient, but we must be trained, equipped and experienced before the Lord can trust us with His mighty anointing.

There is an anointing that goes with our calling, like Joseph had in Egypt. There is a greater anointing that comes when our destiny is reached. There is no shortcut to maturity. It comes with information and formation. Destiny is the activation of the sum total of who the Lord created us to be. Few reach their full destiny. Many only work in their callings.

The young lions of the Lord are anxious and so they should be. The old lions of the Lord are more patient and able to wait on the Lord. God will use both in the end times. Just as Moses commanded from the mountain and Joshua fought in the valley, so shall it be in these last days. There are many visions and many prophecies, but there is only one mandate from the Lord.

In the fullness of time the Lord will move with an anointing far beyond what we see today. Just as the Lamb of God went to the River Jordan, so must the Lion of the Tribe of Judah. What the Son of God did from the river to the Cross of Calvary the Son of Man and his Body must do. God always establishes with two witnesses. The Son of God (Lamb) and the Son of Man (the Lion) are the witnesses.

The Lamb had an individual body, the Lion a corporate body (the church). The Lamb had anointing without measure. In the fullness of time, the Lord will anoint His Body without measure. They too will work the greater miracles and will operate in their anointing without measure. THIS IS OUR DESTINY!!

Alaska is very important to the Lord for endtimes. There have been many prophecies spoken. Chuck Pierce spoke this. Alaska will be like a city of refuge. There will be multitudes from all over the earth come to this land for rest, refreshing, training and equipping. From here they will be sent back out to reap the final harvest of this earth. We, indeed, have a destiny. We must, come into a place of respect and unity without loss of identity with one another. As we join hands we will become stronger and stronger.

May the Lord richly bless you!!

Desperate For The Cup

Clyde Flanagan

TIME TO BECOME DESPERATE FOR THE CUP

September 19, 2000

I saw the Lord sitting on His throne. There were many in crowns sitting on smaller thrones around Him. There was a basin of clear water sitting before him.

He took what looked like a cup and dipped it in the basin, filling the cup. He then said,

"Once again it is time to see." And He gave the cup to an Angel standing to His left.

The angel went down to the earth and entered a church. One by one the angel went to individuals, men and women, leaders and followers, and offered the cup of water asking a single question, "Do you want this?"

FROM 40 YEARS AGO

It was at this point that I noticed the clothing of the individuals. I noticed that their clothing was what was worn about 40 years ago. It was then that I knew in the spirit that I had been taken back in time to 40 years ago.

Each person answered that they did indeed want the cup that was offered. When they answered that they did want it the angel said, "It will cost you $10,000 dollars."

The price wasn't the same for each person. The angel seemed to know what amounted to everything the individual owned and then used this amount.

ONLY IF YOU WILL GIVE IT TO ME

Once the price was attached to the cup-- each person studied the cup in a way they had not when it was first offered. Each then gave their apology with things like, "Well, I'd like to have it, but no glass of water is worth all that. If you are willing to give it to me I'd like to have it, but not if it is going to cost me anything.

BACK TO THE PRESENT TIME

At this I was back in the presence of the Lord. The scene was again being played out with the Lord dipping a cup in a basin before him. I suddenly knew in the spirit that I was not in a past time, at this point, but in the present.

THIS TIME, EXPLAIN THE MEANING

This time, after giving the angel the cup the Lord spoke to the angel and said, "This time, before I send you to my Church, explain the meaning."

At this the angel spoke to me and said, "Son of man, every generation of the Church has been offered this cup. With the exception of the 1st generation, none has been willing to pay the price. They see it as a dessert after a meal that they would like to have, but don't really need-- if the cost is too high."

THOSE WHO WOULD RECEIVE THE CUP--AND ITS BLESSINGS

At once I remembered the scripture about the pearl of great price, and the treasure found in a field. Then the angel spoke again and said,

"Behold the ones that will receive the cup and the blessing it brings..."

At this I saw men and women crawling out of a desert parched and panting. When the angel offered the cup to each they began to beg and plead for it. When the angel gave each the price, regardless of what it was, they each answered the same, "YES, ANY PRICE, I MUST HAVE IT!!!"

TOO DESPERATE TO CARE ABOUT THE COST

All at once the event of every desperate person who met Jesus in the Bible was passed before me as if all-at-once. The woman who grabbed the hem of his garment, the man whose daughter was on the verge of death. The lame, the blind, and the dumb. All too desperate to care about the cost.

Then I was back before the Lord. "Go now," he said. And the angel once again departed to the earth and His Church. At once I thought of my own heart as I beheld the cup. I began to repent that my heart was not desperate for it when I first saw it. Make us desperate Lord! I want to be ready. I want to be desperate. Church...it's time to be desperate.

Desolate Generations

Todd Bentley

The Restoration of desolate Generations

By Todd Bentley

For over a month now in several meetings where I have been ministering the Holy Spirit has been speaking to be about Spiritual heritage, roots and Christianity's Generational line. In many places that I have preached I have been led to call out individuals in the crowd who know that they have in there family line great preachers and revivalists, miracle workers, and missionaries, then prophesy over them that what God did with there forefathers and their labors of love they would reap and that they had rights to call on the anointing that was deposited in there family tree. On one such occasion I called out a man and said that in his family line there were ties to Aimee Semple McPherson. He later reported to me that as he was preparing to come to the meeting that night, the Holy Ghost had him take off of his shelf the port folio of his Great Grandfather who was anointed and ordained through Aimee's ministry and bring it to the meeting for me to see. God is going to cause us as a generation to reap in another mans labors a field in which we never sowed.

The bible also declares in {Heb 11:13} that many died not yet receiving the promise. God will visit a generation with the blessing and anointing and purpose he had in the life of those gone on before us. I know it is our time to walk in the mantles of our fathers. Like the word declared to zerrubbbabel, {zech 4:9} The hands of Zerrubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall finish it. So much of what God began and the foundations of what was begun in the last 150 years were not finished. Many did not yet receive the promise, fullness of what God was doing in their lives. The plumb line is in our hands to rebuild what was laid and see it come to completion in our time. Is God finished with the ministries and anointing of those who are gone on before us. Lake, Wigglesworth, Spurgeon, Kuhlman, Livingston, McPherson, booth and on and on the roots of the Charismatic church. Elijah was gone and his mantle remained resting on Elisha and re-visiting John the Baptist in Luke ch 1 The wells of Abraham remained for Isaac to re-dig. The blessing of the Lord is always passed in death. That's why at the end of Jacobs days he released the blessing and died worshipping God on his staff. Elisha remained with Elijah till he was taken and the ministry of Christ in us was released in the death and resurrection of Jesus.

The Coming Anointing of Restoration

Isa 61: 4 declares: And they shall build the old waste places, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. There is coming a generation that walks in such a anointing that they will have the manifestation of what became desolate and void in the generations before us. God will give a Generation the ministries and mantles of our fathers. Its time to build the revival miracle healing anointing of old that shook nations and declares that the Glory of the later house shall be greater than the former. I want to repair the foundations again of what God began in the lives of so many. It is our godly heritage to contend for the fruit and labors of what was sown and begin to ask God to let us carry on with that of which he purposed with our fathers. God always passes the baton. Whether that is Moses and Joshua or John Lake and us!!!!

The Third day Church

We have entered into the third day. a day is as a thousand years to the Lord and we are in the third millennium, resurrection power and miracles and healing. The manifestation of the end time anointing shall be compared to the Sons of fresh oil in Zech 4 and Rev 11. The day and the hour that we are walking in as a church is compared to acts {4:33} And with Great Power gave the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. In verse 34 we see great resources and provision.” Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things sold, 35: And laid them down at the apostles” feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

The first manifestation of the anointing is always power. We will walk in the revelation of the spirit and power of Moses and Elijah and not just heal the sick but speak as often as we desire creative miracles and signs in the heavens and earth { Rev 11:6} When the Holy ghost had the answer to the impossibility of Zerubbabels dilemma to the lack of fiancés and Volunteers to help him restore the temple of Solomon and finish what God had called him to, the Holy Ghost revealed the answer. { Zech 4:6} Its not by power nor by might but by my Spirit {anointing} says the Lord. The power of God is what we need and when we step into a fresh anointing we will see all the provision and resources we need for Gods work. David declares in {Ps 112} that many will volunteer in the day of his power. When you walk in power it will release the wealth of the wicked. We are coming into such a visitation of Glory that we will have the release of Gold for harvest and missions. {Isa 60 }

Favor and provision

God is going to bring us back into such favor that the lost will begin to highly esteem us again and the fear of the Lord will fall on every soul. In the book of Acts the power brought favor and esteem to the disciples from the common people of the day. When we as a church begin to truly function again in the Great commission {Matt 10} Preach the gospel and Heal the sick the world will truly know that we have the words of life. In Aimee Semple McPherson’s day and ministry she walked in such fresh Oil that she had favor and Great provision released into her ministry even from the “mafia” The wealth of the Sinner is stored up for the just.

The first thing you see in Esther chapters 1 and 2 when the new Queen is chosen to rule and reign next to the king. You see that Esther obtained favor and was given an allowance and a room in the kings Palace. What happened? She bathed in the oil and Presence of his spirit, then Power, favor and Great Provision was released.

Church Contend with God every day of your life for a new anointing and never be satisfied with what you have. The Spirit was resting on Jesus without measure and the Apostle Paul prayed we would be filled with the fullness of God, There is a new level of anointing coming on you in Jesus name. More Lord More!!

Dig Up The Wells

Lesley Murphy

I submit this for your testing and discernment....

April 17, 2000

I was at Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship on Sunday morning and during the worship service I had a vision of two men digging a well in the ground. When the well was beginning to get deep, the men stopped digging and began to fill it back up with the dirt!

Over the past few days I have heard the term "and the rains came" or "when the rains came" and it has sparked an awareness within me. As I would think about this term I would see the wells being filled back up with dirt and wonder what would happen when the rains came? The wells wouldn't receive for being filled with the dirt.

The rains are good if received in a properly prepared soil... the soil would soak up the rains and cause the dead seeds to come to life, grow, produce fruit. If the soil is hard and dry, the rains will only run off the soil, causing havoc and destruction, going where they weren't intended to go in the first place. The rains are suppose to be able to soak into the ground. If the ground doesn't receive the rains, then the rain will go elsewhere, looking for the prepared soil. It doesn't even have to be "fertile"... it can be barren (or even be perceived as barren), as long as it's prepared, because the life is in the water, not the soil. Remember, the seeds will lie dormant in the dry, thirsty land and will never come to life until the water reaches them.

"My people have committed two sins: they have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water." (Jeremiah 2:13)

""Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to." (Matthew 23:13)

I feel the Lord is telling us to dig up the cisterns again, and leave them exposed... expose our innermost being to the availability of the rains that are coming. Don't allow men to fill up your well with the dirt of tradition or the ways of the world or the ways of the church. Wait expectantly for the rains. They are coming. And don't be one who would dare to fill up the exposed, expecting cisterns with the dirt of your opinion or the sway of others' opinions. Don't be one who doesn't dare to enter in, or don't want to enter in and keep others back, too. Don't be a taskmaster, keeping God's people in bondage. Dig up the wells again. Keep yourself open to the rains, the coming rains.

"Dig in, My people, dig in! The rains surely are coming, and they will come in an abundance. If you are prepared and waiting for this coming rain, then you will reap a harvest a hundred-fold. If you are not ready, then you will be likened to the five foolish virgins with lamps unprepared. You must stay ready for me. I will not come in the way that

You supposed I would come to you, but I will surely come. Though the vision tarry, wait for it, for it will surely come. I am calling you to wait, wait, wait. And while you are waiting, dig up the wells that you have allowed to be filled. Dig up these wells with joy and anticipation. Encourage one another to keep digging and if you think the well is deep enough, I say to you, keep digging. There will never be a well deep enough to receive all that I long to pour out upon my people. The rains that are coming will be mingled with the tears of the intercessors. Will I find you waiting for the bitter-sweet rains? Will I find you hoping and in anticipation? Are you waiting for me to fill up your wells with my living water? Then look at where you are at and see if there is room to receive the coming rains.

Some of you have allowed the enemy to fill your wells with discouragement and hopelessness. Some of you have allowed your "friends" to fill your wells with aggressiveness against authority. Some of you have covered your wells with hard, impenetrable walls. Now is the time to dig out and break down. Now is the time to root up and root out. Now is the time to allow me to cleans you and purge you, readying you for the coming rains.

If you are willing to be faithful where you are, then I am willing to meet you there. I have an abundance that I am ready to pour out. I AM the abundance! All you need to do is wait for me with an expectant heart. I am not late in answering you. I am not late in coming. I am not short in my reach. I am a keeping God. I am a watchful God. I am more than willing to pour out, but it MY time. Your place is where you are for now. Your time is to wait for me with hearts ready. Ready yourself with a hope and an anticipation and with words of shouts of encouragement to those on your left and on your right. Stand fast with your neighbors. Stand shoulder to shoulder and dig with an enthusiasm that runs as deep as the rains that will come."

Humbly submitted

Divine Illumination

Bobby Conner

Divine Illumination or Demonic Darkness
Bobby Conner

<http://bobbyconner.org/NABA8.HTM>

May, 2000 The command is clear - God is calling us to walk in the “light”! I John 1:5-7 Declares - “This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin”.

This passage clearly declares that in God there is no darkness at all. Absolutely no mixture whatsoever! If we are to maintain true unbroken fellowship with Christ we must seek to walk in obedience to the Word of God.

As we come to the end of the age we are beholding both true and false signs increasing. The question arises how can we discern the difference between what is genuine, flowing forth from the Spirit of God, and what is counterfeit? The deepest desire of our heart should be to walk in authentic indisputable undeniable anointing. None of us would ever set out to be deceived, or misled. In order to assure that we have not drifted off course, our steps must be ordered by the Word of God. The only way to safe guard against being led astray is to yield our will and commit our walk to the Scriptures. (See Psalm 119:130). It is time to hear and heed the warning spoken by the Hosea the Prophet saying, “ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. ...” It is time each of us get to know God!

May this be the continuing cry of our heart - “ Thy Word have I hidden in my heart that I would not sin against God”.

LIVE IN THE LIGHT

As we walk in the light, generated by the Word of God, there is safety. (Psalm 119:105). It is not enough to be one that hears the Word of God; to avoid serious deception each of us must be a doer of the Word. (See James 1:22). We must keep our focus on the Lord and on His Word. (See Isaiah 26:3). Only as we stay focused on the Lord will we be able to walk in true abiding peace, during these changing times. We are instructed to live every day, with goal aim and purpose, especially during these end times. (See Ephesians. 5:14-18).

The Body of Christ cannot afford to shun nor deny the manifestation of signs and wonders. Most certainly the Scriptures confirm that signs and wonders should accompany the ministry of the Holy Spirit. (See Mark 16:16-20). It is a fact we are to operate in mighty signs and wonders in our Fellowships and ministry meetings. However we would do well, to exercise some caution. Having freedom, does not mean we simply allow any and everything to take place in our meeting. We would be extremely unwise to disregard the numerous warnings from the Lord Jesus, as well as His apostles pertaining to these last deceptive days. They warned us that deception, false signs, and lying wonders would be raging. (See Matt. 24:24, and 2 Th. 2:9, Rev. 13:13). To deny and downplay their warnings would be an act of spiritual blindness and extreme presumption.

It is imperative that we get back to the Bible, permitting the Word of God to set the course, for the activity in our meetings. Anyone that is associated with me, and is aware of my ministry, understands that I am not opposed to the moving of the Spirit of God. But we need to be very sure; that it is the Holy Spirit and not some counterfeit, attempting to divert the focus of the people away from the Lord Jesus. The Holy Spirit will always point to Christ. (See John 16:14). One way to detect a counterfeit spirit, is that it attempts to divert the direction away from what the Holy Spirit is doing, causing attention to be focused on someone or something other than Christ Jesus.

I would like to say very confidently that we should not allow anything to take place in our meeting unless we could find it recorded in the Bible. However this seems to be contrary to what the Scripture declare. The Bible does not teach that everything we do must be recorded in the Scripture. However it would be a mistake thinking something is not of God just because we don’t see it recorded in the Scripture. Not every thing Jesus did is recorded. John 20:30-31 - And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

Nevertheless be very sure of this the Holy Spirit will never do something that is contrary to the Word of God. The Spirit of Truth will not act in a contradictory manner conflicting with the Word of God.

Never let something go unquestioned that is in conflict with the revealed Word of God.

THE DYNAMICS OF DECEPTION

What is so frightening and disturbing concerning deception is that, when a person is deceived, he or she does not discern nor have any idea that they are deceived. Spiritual deception is one of the most harmful forms of bondage. The individual, thinking his commitment is to God, in fact zealously devotes themselves to a distortion. Resulting in his faith being falsely placed causing that person to believe a lie. History records how entire Nations, as well as individuals have been operating under the control of a deceptive evil religious spirit. Thus they are responsible for committing terrible atrocities. In many cases these acts of brutality and outrageous horrors have been carried out in the name of religion.

DARK LIGHT

Jesus declares in Matthew 6:22-23 - "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. "But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! (NKJ)

Give close attention to this statement. . . . “If the light that is in you is darkness, how deep and dense is that darkness”!

This is the deepest form of deception, when one has taken the Scriptures and twisted, contorted and distorted them to give license to their perverted desire. Hear this warning again from the lips of our Lord “But if your eye is clouded with evil thoughts and desires, you are in deep spiritual darkness. And oh, how deep that darkness can be”!

DEEPER DARKNESS

The depths of present-day human depravity are too vile for any word in our language to describe. What we are seeing is not ordinary moral corruption, but evil doubled-distilled and compounded into weird, uncanny, and demonic combinations and concoctions of wickedness never heard of a generation ago. Truly we are observing the inventions of evil depraved minds devoid of the grace of God. Paul warned of these days in Romans 1:21 when he stated “ because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

THOSE WALKING IN WICKEDNESS LOVE DARKNESS

Christ Jesus states - "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. "For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. “But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."

Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

Paul encourages us to follow Jesus stating “Therefore be imitators of God as dear children. And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet- smelling aroma. But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, which are not fitting, but rather giving of thanks. For this you know, that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not be partakers with them. For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. Therefore He says: "Awake, you who sleep, arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light." See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

It is time to let our light shine in this dark world. Paul writes in Romans 13:12-13 “The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.

Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy”.

God’s Word states “For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light. But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. You are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

God is demanding that we live in the light. “Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining. He, who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now. He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him. But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes”.

May God grant to each of us the grace to order our steps by the light of His Word.

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them”. Ephesians 5:11

Discerning the Prophetic

Nita Botzenmayer

In the 'mainline' church environment where I minister, the gifts of the spirit and the five-fold ministry are just beginning to be recognized as something for now, instead of something that happened historically in the Bible. The prophetic voice is being heard, and along with it, satan has reared his ugly head and brought in false prophetic voices to deceive. Some have already fallen into deception. Few know how to tell the difference between the false and the true.

To help teach the truth and expose the lies of the enemy, I sought the Lord for some basics. The mindset of many is still to depend on the pastor for teaching and application from the Word, and many simply don't have time to study in depth. Yet they need the protection of God from deception.

So I believe the Lord provided me with this brief "starter kit" on learning to accurately discern the true word of prophecy and the prophet. Perhaps it will be helpful to you to share with others "new" to the prophetic. There will be much to add, I'm sure, but we have to start somewhere!

Nita

DISCERNING THE PROPHETIC

In these days of increased prophetic activity, it is critically important that we be able to discern the true from the false; else we shall be deceived and misled. Many of us have received sound instruction regarding the prophetic, but to many it is a new subject. I asked the Lord for some good 'bottom line' guidelines for discernment - things that can be quickly read and applied in our lives.

Jesus said:

Matt 24:24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. (KJV)

The "if" in this passage is the Greek conditional, which is better translated "since". That means it is possible for us to be deceived! But God's guidelines in His Word, the inner witness of the Holy Spirit (John 16:13) and the gift of discernment from the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:10), provide us with tools to accurate discernment.

Here are 4 "quick" guidelines from the Word to help in discerning the prophetic.

YOU SHALL KNOW THEM BY THEIR FRUIT

First are the words of Jesus:

Matt 7:15-16 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? (KJV)

Notice it is the Fruit, not the Gift, that gives discernment, for the Gifts are without repentance (Rom 11:29). The fruit of the Spirit must be evident in the life of the prophet. Primary fruit - can you feel the love of God from this person and their words? (This does not mean sinless perfection!)

BEWARE OF LABELS

There are congregations which try to recognize the gifts of their individual members and give them titles, such as "evangelist, prophet, etc.". This can be positive, as it recognizes each person as a valuable member of the Body of Christ, and encourages them to walk in their gifts and callings. However, there is a down side.

Mistakes can be made. Pride can enter in. Jealousy and strife can result, which opens the door to every evil work (James 3:16). We are to desire the higher gifts, but not be jealous of someone else who receives them. We can all prophesy (1 Cor. 14:31), but all are not prophets.

Jesus set the example of humility. The majority of the time, he called himself "the Son of Man". He refers to himself as a prophet (in small caps) only twice: (1) see Matt 13:57, Mark 6:4, Luke 4:24, and John 4:44, and (2) Luke 13:33.

The strongest warning about labels is in Revelation 2:20-23:

20 Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols.

21 I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling.

22 So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways.

23 I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds. (NIV)

The Strong's concordance reveals the underlying meaning that this false prophet causes God's servants to stray from the truth, to get off the path.

Jezebel is a witchcraft spirit, and its prophetic insight is NOT from God. The word of knowledge, which may be true, comes from the same source as tarot card readers, palm readers, etc. - from familiar spirits (demons). Note: not all false prophets are women. This passage reveals the spirit in operation behind this particular kind of false prophet.

If you are called to walk in the office of prophet, God himself will establish you. Others will recognize the gift and authority from the Lord. Giving yourself a title, even if it's true, will not do what only God can do.

A PROPHET SUBMITS TO AUTHORITY

Prophets are willing to submit to the authority over them, and to submit their words to other prophets for discernment. Other prophetic voices will confirm a word as being from the Lord, and/or add interpretation and application to it, thereby making it more edifying for the Body, which is the purpose of the prophetic.

1 Cor 14:32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. (KJV)

Anyone who resists submitting to other prophetic voices, or who resists, disdains, or defies authority is not a true prophet of God.

A PROPHET IS AN INTERCESSOR AND PERSON OF PRAYER

A prophetic person will spend much time in prayer. It is key to hearing and recognizing the voice of the Lord. This is another fruit to be examined in the life of a person operating in the prophetic.

EVERY biblical prophet was an intercessor. The scripture below bears witness to this conclusion, as does a quick study of the prophets in the Old Testament, beginning with Abraham.

[Jer 27:18] But if they be prophets, and if the word of the Lord be with them, let them now make intercession to the Lord of hosts that the vessels which are left in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at

Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.]

This is an important characteristic of the true prophetic ministry - another fruit. This is so important to God. For those just beginning to experience giving prophetic words, this is NOT A GAME! It is an awesome responsibility to give the Word of the Lord.

The power of life and death is in the tongue, especially of a prophetic word. For words of correction, there is a BIG difference between the Conviction of the Lord, and the condemnation of the enemy.

Intercession produces the right heart toward others - God's heart. It eliminates judgment and condemnation. It produces compassion for others. It helps keep the Lord's word pure and untainted by the flesh. It helps the prophet to stay humble and prevents him from falling into pride.

Even though Jesus is seated at the right hand of the Father, highly exalted above everything, he also is still humbling himself and "ever lives to make intercession for us" (Hebrews 7:25).

There are those called to intercession who are not prophets, but all prophets bear some intercessory burden.

God does not want us to be led astray - He gives us standards in His Word to help our discernment. These are a start. The Word says we are to test the spirits to see if they be of God, and hold fast to that which is good. (I Thess 5:19-21 & I Jn 4:1)

If you are just realizing you have a prophetic call, this is also a challenge to "examine yourself before the Lord" and ask Him to help you "do it right".

The following principles are additional guidelines for discerning the true prophetic word.

AGREEMENT WITH GOD'S WORD

The Number One guideline in discerning a prophetic word: it will agree with God's recorded Word. God will never prophesy something that opposes His Word.

KNOW YOUR SCRIPTURE

Throughout these guidelines, you see the importance of knowing the Word of God. If you have questions about a word given, search the scriptures for confirmation. Use your knowledge of scripture to "test" the word for accuracy.

You cannot know too much scripture. You cannot study God's Word too much. Remember, Satan used scripture to tempt Jesus in the wilderness, but Jesus knew the "whole counsel of God", and defeated him with scripture (Matthew 4:1-11)!

The trick Satan used was to take a partial scripture and misapply it. It is important to know the "big picture" of scripture, so you won't be tripped up by one scripture taken out of context.

THE INNER WITNESS OF THE SPIRIT

With individual prophecies, determining if a word is accurate and "right on" may be more difficult, unless there is some obvious discrepancy with scripture. Some individual prophetic words are very specific and directional. Some are general and vague, and the interpretation and application may not be evident.

These directional words are potentially life-changing, very important to you and to God. So how do you tell if the word is right?

An accurate individual prophetic word given to you will give an "Inner Witness" by the Holy Spirit within. It will be a confirmation of something you already know in your spirit, even if you have not verbalized it yourself.

As another has said, if it is from the Lord, His Presence will accompany the words. You may even feel His manifest presence in the natural.

If you don't have an inner witness, but think it MAY be from the Lord, and it lines up with scripture, what do you do? Sometimes, the only way to tell is to "put the word on the shelf", pray, and wait for the Lord to reveal it to you.

If the word causes confusion or distress of spirit, it is not from the Lord, as God is not a God of confusion. A word of correction, even if painful, will bear witness to the Spirit within, and your conviction and repentance will bring restoration and healing from the Lord. Do not confuse "Confusion" with the pain of facing the correction brought by the Lord to help you, and miss the word you need.

DON'T GO ON APPEARANCES

The appearance, gender, age, or other outward appearance of the person giving the word is not grounds to receive or reject it. You must weigh the word, not judge the giver of the word.

Speaking of John the Baptist, who wore rough clothing, ate a weird diet, and lived in the wilderness (strange appearance!):

Matt 11:7-11 As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' palaces. Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: "'I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.' I tell you the truth: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. (NIV)

From this scripture, we see that odd appearances cannot be a reason to receive or not receive a word from the Lord. Speaking of odd appearances, can you imagine what Jonah looked like to the Ninevites after spending 3 days in that whale?

It is also important to note that "he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he (John the Baptist)." This means God can use "baby" Christians as well as mature Christians, children, youth, old people, and everyone in between to speak His words of prophecy.

He requires obedience, not a certain appearance or age. I have had prophetic words given to me by children. I almost missed the word of the Lord because I looked at their youth instead of weighing the word given.

IS THIS WORD PROPHESYING TO MY FLESH?

Remember Satan used scripture to tempt Jesus. He will use it against you, too, if he can. If the word lines up with scripture, and sounds good, there is yet another question to ask: Is this word appealing to my flesh?

Example: A man I know had a word given to him promising a large financial blessing, which was supposed to occur within a certain period of time. He received this word joyfully, as it seemed scriptural, and he needed money at the time.

When this word did not come to pass by the appointed time, he became bitter toward God, until the Lord revealed to him that the word spoke only to his fleshly desires. It encouraged him to have faith in money and not in God.

This example does not mean God does not want to bless us financially. It just illustrates how the fleshly desire of greed was spoken to in that word, which caused the receiver to get out of focus with the Lord, and even get angry and bitter toward Him. It shows the subtlety the enemy will use to cause us to go astray.

Scripture says the flesh wars against the spirit (Romans 7:23). A word that appeals to the flesh should automatically be suspect, and carefully examined.

PRAYER

There is no substitute for prayer. The Lord does not play favorites. He speaks to each one of us. He is not insulted when you have questions. In fact, He delights that you ask Him FIRST! As part of your "test" of the words, it is good to submit them to the Lord in prayer.

WISDOM

Ask the Lord for His wisdom in how to receive, interpret or apply the word given to you, or if you are to receive the word at all.

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. (NIV)

THERE IS ALWAYS A CHANCE FOR ERROR

In the Old Testament, a prophet was to be 100% accurate. If one word he spoke was not right, he was declared a false prophet. Thankfully, we are under the law of grace.

We are all human beings, subject to error. We are not sinless perfection. No matter how long we have been used of the Lord to prophesy, we may still "not hear right" occasionally. Our lives may be above reproach, and we still might "miss it".

Every word should be tested, regardless of the reputation of the prophetic voice giving it. A true prophet will not be insulted, he/she will rejoice that you are obeying the command in scripture to do so.

Divination

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Divination - qasam (7080 Strong's - Hebrew) appears 31 times in biblical Hebrew. Divination was a parallel pagan practice to prophesying...in other words a counterfeit. Qasam is a seeking after the will of the gods, in an effort to learn about the future especially their action or "divine" blessing on some future event. (Joshua 13:22)

It is evident that diviners conversed with demons. (1 Cor.10:20) We can see this in modern times in Wicca, Satanism, and Hinduism (not exclusively, but these are the best examples. Hindus will chant the name of a demon "deity" over and over till it comes and takes over them...and they writhe on the floor....they do this to gain "power" from these whom they see as "gods". When Jesus said...."do not pray as the heathen do"...repetitious prayers...I think this is partly what He meant.

(1 Corinthians 10:20 - "But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons ."

This is the reason we are asked to not eat food sacrificed to idols...as it is cursed...and can bring severe consequence to us....causing us to be tormented. Do not eat food sacrificed to idols...ie BUDDHA...if you see a buddha in the restaurant...chances are the food there might be sacrificed to him....and in Hindu restaurants...the same. It is one of the few things new Christians in the new testament were cautioned against even though they were exempt from circumcision....so it must have been important to God.

The practice of divination may involve the offering of sacrifices to the deity on an altar as in Numbers 23:1+. It may also involve the use of a hole in the ground, through which the diviner spoke to the spirits of the dead (1 Samuel 28:8). At other times a diviner would shake arrow, stones, consult with household idols, or study the livers of dead animals. (as the witch in "Robin hood Prince of Thieves") [Ezekiel 21:21 - augury] Divination was one of man's attempts to know and CONTROL the world around him and people, or the future, apart from the true God. It was the opposite of true prophecy, which is essentially submission to God's sovereignty. (Deut. 18:14) The tribe of Dan in Judges 18 and 19 is a good example of people wanting to have their own way apart from God...worshipping idols...the works of their own hands...and for this Dan was blotted from the list of the twelve tribes of Israel....and the tribe of Joseph's son took that tribes place as we see in the new testament list in Revelation. Divination is used of Balaam in Numbers 22, and once his own resolve to make money was replaced with submission, God sent him on his way. There are many today who need to resolve to not practice their gifts for money... In the NEW TESTAMENT the Greek word for divination is puthon (4436 Strong's), which in English is python ! In Greek mythology puthon was the name of the Pythian serpent of dragon, dwelling in Pytho, at the foot of Mt Parnassus, guarding the oracle of Delphi, and slain by apollo. Thence the name was transferred to Apollo himself. Later the word was given to diviners or soothsayers. since Demons are the agents inspiring idolatry, (1 Corinthians 10:20), the young woman in Acts 16 was possessed by a demon instigating the cult of Apollo, and thus had a spirit of divination.

The following is from Zondervan's Bible Encyclopedia on Divination.... "Divination is related to MAGIC, but is distinct from it mainly in that the latter attempts to produce certain effects, while the former seeks knowledge. Nevertheless practitioners of one also might engage in the other. (like Houdini)

Methods a) Chresmology - Prognostication by seers and through oracles may be divination to the extent that information is sought out. Prophets were formerly called seers, and were sought to ascertain God's will. [1 Samuel 9:9] Seers like prophets could be false, and Micah 3:7 links them with diviners, to whom God refuses to answer. Oracles were messages from a deity. The word also signified the person or place who transmitted them. (Ouija boards would be this)

b) Oneiromancy Dreams were thought to convey divine messages. these frequently needed interpretation([ie

Joseph, and Daniel] . In the false interpretation, one would sleep in a temple (incubation) hoping for a dream from the resident deity. The god of healing, Asclepius, was thought especially communicative in this regard. Aelius Aristedes, a hypochondriac orator, has related in his "Sacred Discourses" how Asclepius instructed him regarding treatment.

Edgar Cayce would be a modern day example of such a person... He was appeared to by a beautiful woman (satan disguises himself as an angel of light- and in this case the woman I believe was a spirit of divination) as a child and instantly...he became able to remember things on the pages of books he was studying when before he had much difficulty in learning. Then as an adult, would lay on a couch...fall into a trance....after praying for a sick person...and he would say "WE are going down the street. WE are going up to the house. WE see the liver is diseased." The extras...were demons...he was moving in divination. And anyone who received healing from him received a spirit of divination and familiar spirits most probably even thought they were miraculously healed....He is a good example of what we will see in FALSE signs and wonders in the days ahead of us.

c) Astrology was an ancient means which gained popularity in the Hellenic period. On the assumption that stars and planets were in harmony with earth and mankind, the character and fate of an individual, or even a whole nation, were determined through a horoscope based on the signs of the Zodiac. Reading horoscopes [I call them horriblescopes due to the spirits that come with practicing this] or having anything to do with astrology and psychics is forbidden in Mosaic law.

Isaiah 47:13 NKJ says: "You are wearied in your multitude of your counsels; Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, and the monthly prognosticators stand up and save you from these things that shall come upon you....v. 14...Behold they shall be as stubble, the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; it shall not be a coal to be warmed by, nor a fire to sit before ! " {Hell} d) NECROMANCY - was consultation with the dead. This was done through a medium, who received messages through a "familiar spirit", and was severely condemned.

Modern terms would be attending a seance, practicing ouija board, or practicing "channeling", or "getting in touch with your spirit guide" common in Native Indian religions and Hinduism, Buddhism, and "New Age"; which is really old age Hinduism.

e) Haruspicy - was the study of the entrails of animals and especially hepatoscopy, study of livers, provided a means of impersonal divination used widely from the Babylonians to the Romans. At one time the liver was considered the seat of life and since sacrificial animals were used, hepatoscopy was a religious practice. The Encyclopedia Britannica mentions it as a part of the Etruscan diviners practices. "They also interpreted all portents of unusual phenomena of nature especially thunder and lightening. They were said to have learned it from a being named TAGES. It never became part of the state religion, although augurs were. Later the "art" fell into disrepute. Under the empire, however, there existed a collegium of 60 haruspices; however it was never a state priesthood but a body of salaried expert advisors." PUKE !

f) Augury...Was the analysis of the movement of animals, especially birds. Encyclopedia Britannica states that augur comes from Augustus and "It seems therefore originally to have meant an expert in fertility magic, rather than a diviner...the natural region to look to for signs of the will of Jupiter was the sky, where lightening and the flight of birds seemed directed by him as counsel to men....The mere appearance of certain birds indicated good or ill luck..."It was the singing also and the sounds of birds made that were important to them.

g) Omens and Portents - were of many kinds including e. and f. above. A portent was an omen of great or supernatural character, such as earthquakes or heavenly phenomena (ie an eclipse) Typical omens were involuntary human actions ie; a cough or hiccup, the actions of animals or other impersonal occurrences. Divination by human signs is called cledonancy. Since one who had decided on a course of action would be more affected by a contrary omen, they and especially portents, frequently took on a negative character.

h) mechanical means

a) hydromancy - divination by water

b) pyromancy - the observation of fire as divination

- c) cleromancy - which includes the use of plates or rods drawn at random (sortilege)
- d) rhabdomancy - interpretation of the position of objects ie. sticks, straws, rods or arrows . And in general, any casting of lots, or of dice, drawing straws, etc.

Micah 5: 12-13 NIV I will destroy your witchcraft and you will no longer cast spells. I will destroy your carved images and your sacred stones from among you; you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.

Isaiah 44: 23-26 NKJV
Sing, O heavens, for the Lord has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing, you mountains
O forest, and every tree in it !
For the Lord has redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel .
Thus says the Lord, Your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb;
"I am the Lord, who makes all things,
Who stretches out the heavens all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;
Who frustrates the signs of the babblers, and drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolishness;
Who confirms the word of HIS servant,
and performs the counsel of HIS messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited.'
To the cities of Judah, ' You shall be built.'
And I will raise up her waste places;

We are grafted into the vine...Jerusalem is symbolic of the dwelling place of God and His saints...the Foundation of Peace. GOD IS ABOUT TO LAY WASTE HIS ENEMIES...THERE ARE SO MANY PROMISES OF THIS IN THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT.

Division Word Given

Vicki Camp

12-25-'99, Christmas day afternoon.

I now raise up My Word to divide.

To cut between the joints and marrow.

To separate soul from spirit.....

To divide and reveal and render out the natural, which comes out of the mouth of natural flesh, and to bring to the forefront the Spirit of Truth, even My Word, which comes forth from the spirit of my Prophets, My Proclaimers; Out of their very mouths which will now speak in pure joint function with My Spirit. Sweet and bitter will no longer flow together.....

I bring My Word into the camp now, as a sword of division. Hear the voice of My Spirit once again. My Spirit which will touch down upon the flesh of men who are called out and separated unto Me....those who willingly come, in this hour of My power and new ministration. Receive My strong voice. Come into My wisdom for this hour. Come and be routed of Me, as I tumble my rocks and stones, even you. I will rout out the flesh and cleanse My containers who do both love and honor My presence within. I want you to understand now, that the messenger of My Sword wields life to the one, and death to the other.

My proclaimers shall worship Me in spirit and in truth, and speak My voice forth in Spirit and in Truth, and there will no longer be contaminations or mixture. Hear Me and heed. My Word comes as a mighty instrument of severing to bring life to spirit, and death to the soulish voice of the enemy which has until this time, through My Grace, been allowed to flow through the flesh of men. In this will be revealed My evident truth. It will be most evident. It will be clear of which camp My proclaimers shine from, for My Word will be pure, as white as snow, flowing forth from the mouths of those who have received My sword of division and adjusted to My demands. Receive My strong Word, receive My strong hammer..... unto Life. Receive My proclaimers, who will come as great battle axes to chop the false root and destroy it's malignancy from My Body as I harvest my own, in this hour.

Do not say, 'I have been in the way for many years.....this word is for others to receive.' For I will have many new ones, and some who now are will even be cut off from Me. Heed My Word, submit to My division of soul and spirit. Heed the voice of My proclaimers I send forth with strong Word, as they come hammering. I warn you that you will be tempted to cower, but I say, Come out and be separate and be separated as I put My Word of division in place, and raise up My lively stones. I will build My building, and I will now send forth My Prophets with clear instruction. Heed Me in this hour unto Life. For My Sword of death comes. I speak this to make it clear to you what I bring forth; That my own be forewarned and ready to receive as I will NOT temper My acts of division, as they come appointed of My Right Arm, which I thrust into the earth.

Different Kinds of Prophets

Jim Wies

Kinds of Prophets:

The Seer or Watchman (discerner)

The Visionary (future-teller/motivator)

The Burden-bearer (intercessor)

The Herald (preacher)

The Oracle (prophesier)

As I began to look at the contemporary function of the office of prophet, one of the difficulties I had was what was so commonly called a prophet in certain circles was not at all what others would call a prophet. Some would point to very anointed preachers who carried a strong message to the church or the contemporary culture and call them prophets; while others would say: "Oh, but a prophet should be one who moves in the gift of prophecy".

Others would relish yummy morsels of insight about the times, or "discernments" about the Body of Christ, and call that prophetic; while others would simply open their mouth and gush forth with an ecstatic utterance without giving it any cognitive thought at all.

My first personal exposure to a prophet was a man by whom I was mentored for a time whose "burden" was the abortion issue. While he was every bit a prophet, he sure didn't look like what others commonly called prophets. He rarely "prophesied", but every time he preached you knew you had just heard a fresh word from the "broken heart" of God.

I then discovered John Sanford and his deep insights into the aspect of the prophet as a watchman, intercessor and burden-bearer. Meanwhile I was (and am) married to a woman who had no particular burden for the unborn, nor a strong inclination to intercessory burden-bearing, nor deep insights into the current Body of Christ at large; but she could prophesy in the assembly or to individuals in such a powerful and accurate way that your hair would stand on end.

We then eventually became affiliated with the ministry of Dr. Bill Hamon and the Christian International - Network of Prophetic Ministries; a ministry dedicated to raising up a company of prophets and the equipping, activating and releasing of prophets and believers into the gifting to prophesy. (among other things)

What I have observed in the Church at large in regard to this has been the forming of companies of prophets who seem to have gravitated to one another based on their particular dimension of the prophetic. One potential problem is that every "company" of prophets seems prone to having a hard time relating to, or recognizing the value of the others.

A study of names given to prophets in Scripture reveals a spectrum of ministry that varies within the two primary components of the prophetic; perception and communication. It reveals that there are various functions all of which are prophetic according to Scripture, and all valuable and necessary.

Seer or Watchman In 1 Sam. 9:9 we see reference to the seer. "...when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: 'Come, let us go to the seer'; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer." This word is "ro'eh" or "ra'ah", and refers to a person who sees; an observer; a person endowed with moral and spiritual insight or knowledge. Essentially, the root "ro'eh", means 'to look at' or 'behold.'

The seer is one who has understanding of the times. This person has the ability to perceive and discern the spiritual significance of a situation and can give the Lord's perspective on a given situation. This person's strengths are giftings of illumination and discernment, though they may or may not communicate what they see in any one set or particular manner.

This kind of prophet is extremely valuable as a watchman and intercessor in the midst of the Church. An interesting occurrence of this word in Scripture is in Isaiah 21:8. "Then he cried, "A lion, (ra'ah) my Lord! I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime; I have sat at my post every night."

We see the direct connection here to the watchman ministry and by implication the ministry of spiritual warfare. A contemporary company of prophets, whom I would predominantly call seers, would be the Morningstar group lead by Rick Joyner.

One of the observations I have made is that the manner of perceiving God's thoughts can be different with each individual, but can be seen to follow or parallel our natural means of perception. That is, some "see", others "hear", while others "feel".

For that matter, Scripture even indicates we can have a spiritual aroma (2 Cor. 2:15,16), or that we can "taste and see that the Lord is good." (Psalm 34:8) For instance, I find myself being a visual person and often I will "see" pictures in my mind's eye. Other times I will "feel" the heart of God concerning a matter.

When prophetic inspiration comes in this way, I will know the "thought of God" and then labor to put words to the thoughts. When this is the case, I am often hesitant to express a "first person - as from the Lord " kind of utterance. At other times there is such an unction to prophesy I can speak boldly as from the Lord.

Several of these forms of perception are listed in Numbers 12:6-8. The Lord spoke and said: "Hear now My words: if there is a prophet among you, I, the LORD, make Myself known to him in a vision; I speak to him in a dream. Not so with My servant Moses; he is faithful in all My house. I speak with him face to face, even plainly, and not in dark sayings; and he sees the form of the LORD." (Num 12:6-8) Here we see visions, dreams, dark sayings, and hearing God's words directly.

Contrary to me, my wife Carolyn, is more of an auditory person and has, in fact, "heard" the audible voice of God. She will often "hear" in her heart the exact words to be spoken, and declare them as words from God.

Visionary

In 1 Chr 29:29 we find an occurrence of three different words referring to three different prophets. "Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, (ra'ah) in the book of Nathan the prophet,(nabiy) and in the book of Gad the seer(Chozeh)."

While both Samuel and Gad were referred to as a seer, the actual Hebrew word is different in the second case and carries some broader implications. The word is "chozeh" and is defined as a person of unusually keen foresight; a person who sees visions; or a beholder in vision.

It is interesting that Asaph, David's musical prophet, was called a visionary. The primary root, "chazah", means to gaze at; mentally, to perceive, contemplate; specifically, to have a vision of. This kind of prophet is akin to the other seer, but the implications are that this person goes beyond simply seeing the current spiritual scenarios but has a vision of what God is going to do or wants to do.

A visionary has the unique ability to "envision" people to rally to the cause of the Kingdom. The Lord spoke to the prophet Habakkuk and said: "Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hasteth toward the end, and shall not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay." (Hab. 2:2,3)

It is vision that motivates us to run. Prov. 29:18 states: "Where there is no vision, the people perish by casting off restraint". In other words, vision motivates and controls our action. Without it we wander aimlessly with no purpose or sit in apathy with no motivation. Vision gives us reason to redirect our actions into something productive. Vision is what moves us forward into the purposes of God.

An example of the envisioning work of the prophet is told in the story of Ezra where the work had come to a halt.

Then arose the prophets Haggai and Zechariah. They were successful in stirring the people to arise and fulfill the vision.

In the time of Ezra, the temple that had been torn down was in need of repair. The people though had become apathetic toward the things of God and were content to live in a self-absorbed condition with no thought toward God's house. In the midst of this dilemma the prophets arose declaring what God intended for His glorious temple; and the people, re-envisioned for the work, arose and built.

Ezra 6:14 states: "And the elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel".

The Burden-bearer

There are several places in Scripture where a prophetic message is called a "burden". For example Isaiah 13:1, "The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw." This word "burden" speaks more to the function or message, rather than the person, but is important to examine.

The Hebrew word is "massa", meaning simply "burden", but is used to describe prophetic utterances (Prov. 31:1) and even prophetic musical dirges (1 Chr 15:22). It implies the weightiness of the prophetic message prophets are sometimes called to carry.

One of the first occurrences of the word burden used in conjunction with the prophetic ministry is in Numbers 11:16-17,24-25 where God placed Moses' prophetic mantle upon 70 elders. "So the LORD said to Moses: "Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you. Then I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone. ...So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle. Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders; and it happened, when the Spirit rested upon them, that they prophesied,..."

The deeper implication of this as it pertains to the prophet is seen in the very first occurrence in Scripture where the word prophet is used. Abraham is called a prophet in Gen. 20:7, and there it is said of him that as he prayed, God would spare King Abimelech.

"Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live.."

Prophetic burden-bearers are called to pray. These are the prophetic intercessors. They can feel the grief of the Lord over the things that are not right. These prophets seem to live in the doldrums much of the time, but they are called there to pray "right" again those things that are wrong. God bless them!

The Herald

The last two kinds of prophets can be described by how they communicate more than how they receive communication from God. The "nataph" or "herald" is the prophetically inspired preacher. "Nataph" means as a primary root word; to ooze, i.e. distill gradually; by implication, to fall in drops; to let something soak in gradually, or figuratively, to speak by inspiration.

The word is translated preach in Ezekiel 21:2, "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, preach against the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel;" A herald is defined as a royal or official messenger, esp. one representing a monarch in an ambassadorial capacity during wartime; a person or thing that proclaims or announces. To herald means to give tidings of, announce, proclaim, publicize, to signal the coming of, usher in.

One of the errors of the Pentecostal and Charismatic portion of the Church has been to cast the prophet into the mold that says he/she must be one who exhibits the supernatural gift of the Holy Spirit to prophesy, and thus will often neglect the prophetic voices of men such as Chuck Colson or others who are clearly prophetic voices to our generation.

The content of their message is every bit prophetically inspired, and as their sermons or writings "soak in" you know you have heard from the heart of God on the matter. But their mode of communication is not necessarily ecstatic utterance.

Oracle

The word "nabiy" is the most commonly used word in the Scripture for "prophet" and describes one who "gushes forth with an ecstatic utterance". This word describes one who functions as an oracle.

The oracle is defined as "a person who delivers authoritative and usually influential pronouncements; any utterance regarded as authoritative; a prophesier". The root word is "naba" and means "to speak or sing by inspiration".

A deeper connotation is "to bubble up, to gush forth, to pour forth". This is the word used in Amos 3:8 which states: "the Sovereign Lord has spoken - who can but (naba') prophesy", and Joel 2:28 which says, "...your sons and your daughters will (naba') prophesy."

This is the "ecstatic prophetic utterance" prophet who speaks forth in the name of the Lord with a confident "Thus says the Lord...etc". This particular ministry goes beyond simple inspired insight; beyond prophetically insightful preaching or writing; and actually speaks God's words into a situation.

Prophet/Apostle Bill Hamon gives a simple and direct definition of this manner of prophetic ministry which he simply defines as "God talking." This kind of ministry may often utilize any of the various manners in which we perceive what God has to say, and then with a vocal gifting, speak it forth with power.

Although there are differing opinions across the Body of Christ about direct, "first person" prophesying; it is very clearly the most common mode of prophetic ministry throughout the Bible.

Death Precedes Resurrection Life!

Doug Fortune and Scott Hofstee

The following may be hard reading for some, but at least read through to the last article... there really IS resurrection LIFE! I offer these writings by Scott Hofstee and myself (although written some time back) for your edification and discernment. God is indeed speaking to His people in this hour!

keep listening for His voice!

Embracing Death

Scott Hofstee

The following is something I believe the Lord birthed in me this evening. I have been through a week where the Lord has been purging me. Turning me upside down and ripping open my soul. Exposing things in me that I have not wanted to see and all the while bringing me into a deeper relationship with him. I believe the following to be given by the Spirit of God. You may interpret as you wish. I will leave that to each of you. I can only say this to each of you, prepare yourselves, to see yourselves, as you are. For our God is an all-consuming fire. And nothing will escape that fire.

Embracing Death

As I look into the abyss of my own soul, I see the depravity of myself. I see the vanity and suppose I may never encounter the light that our Lord is. Even so I press forward, not knowing where else I might go. Knowing full well, that to go back, to where I have been, is a death of another kind. A slow painful death. Having my dignity stripped of me as I eat at the waste places of the dragon and all the time being somehow thankful for the food that I have received, because I have been told that there is nothing else. Believing the lie, that this is where all food comes from. From the royalty of the harlot. The self-appointed guides to spiritual enlightenment, who dole out nourishment that won't feed a person enough to cause them to be strengthened. Instead, it causes me to yearn for more. I could never be satisfied with the vomit from the table of the dragon. Knowing all the time, in my soul, that I am dying but not knowing how to stop the death. Only knowing that my Savior loves me and holding onto that fact with the little strength that I have. What else can I do? No! I must look into the faces of those men, in the abyss, that I am. The murderer, the thief, the evil men that I am, and somehow embrace the fact that this is who I am and only because of what my Master has done for me, do I have any hope of finding my way out of this place in my being. And yet, I am somehow liberated by the fact that I can do nothing on my own, by my own hand, to save myself. He must do it. He must save me from the abyss, that is in my soul. I attempt to crawl out and fall back in. And when I have tried it so many times that I can no longer try, He comes and lifts me up, out of the pit and holds me there, only to begin to face another obstacle together. Will I trust Him to help me or will I put My hand to it again? I do not know anymore. My "self" dies hard. Never wanting to be still long enough, on the altar of death, to be thrust through the heart. Always twitching and flinching, only delaying the inevitability of certain death. I pray this time, I will not move and it will be over quickly but suddenly I feel a dull pain in my heart. At first, I grab at it, somehow, trying to control it but I soon realize, I cannot. It is soon followed by a heat, a warmth, it follows the pain and binds it up as a balm. How could I have thought that my Lord would have done anything that was not for my good? How could I have thought that He has not able to kill me with mercy and compassion. I feel the life slipping from me and yet I feel His life, filling me, shortly thereafter. Always on the heels of the pain of the dagger that is being put into my heart. My Master loves me and I know that I do not really love Him. At least not yet, not as He loves. Because I am not willing to kill anything that I love, because it would cause me pain. But He loves me enough to allow me to die before His very eyes. He watches every painful second of the death enveloping me and when death has finished its work, it is then, it is in that split second, that He brings life. He brings resurrection, He brings wholeness. What a paradox! What a mystery! Life from death! It is here beloved of the Most High. Embrace it. Let it envelope you. And as it does, know that "The Life" follows. The resurrection Life!

The Journey Inward

Doug Fortune

I normally do not like to burden others with the details of my life, however the following inner journey may be helpful reading for some. It began with the following word:

"Bread is broken before it is partaken of... the kernel of wheat must die before it can live... and so one must be broken, one must die before they are fit for My use. Have you not read how the 'vessel was marred in the hand of the potter, so He made it again a different vessel...'? My purposes and plans are generally revealed in 'seed form', and though they are God-given they are not immediately fit for their ultimate purpose."

As I received the above word I knew that there was much more to it, but what I didn't know is that it would not come in the form of words, but rather I would be living it out over the next several months. What began as fasting and prayer to awaken the 'sleeping virgins' in our congregation (little did I know I was the one He wanted to deal with!), turned into a steep and treacherous journey into the depths of my own soul. The following tear-soaked letter was written in the midst of this journey at perhaps the lowest point.

Dear Jesus, '...Thou desirest truth in the inward parts...' Ps. 51 Lord I know You are calling me through the veil, into Your inner chamber. And I know that I must first enter my inner chamber before I enter Yours. I know there is a veil that must be rent from top to bottom before I can enter, and that veil is my 'life of the flesh'. The only way that veil is rent is as I enter into my inner chamber. But I don't like what I see in my inner chamber, for it is filled with lies, deceit, lust, selfishness, a veritable host of vile things that I thought had been dealt with... oh, but they're still there just waiting to manifest. "... O, wretched man that I am!, who shall deliver me from this body of death?..." It is so wretched seeing what a 'fraud' I am. Most of what I say I am and I believe is just so much training... cleaning the outside of the cup, but the inside is "full of dead men's bones"! No wonder I'm so guarded and hide behind walls, I can scarcely face what I see in there.

I set out to fast and pray that sleeping virgins be awakened from their slumber... little did I know I was heading down a steep and treacherous path of self-exposition, into the depth of who I am only to find it is filled with self-deception, pride, lust, selfishness, selfish ambition, and the list could go on. O God, I know You didn't bring me here to leave me here, I'm just not sure what to do once I'm here. Yes, I want to repent but I can't even trust my repentance, it might just be remorse over 'getting caught', so to speak. I feel as if I'm at the lowest point of my spiritual life I've ever been at, perhaps 'ignorance' really is bliss. I suppose all this has been in here all along, I just haven't seen it as clearly as I do now. Help me Lord, I feel like I'm going to die... yes, there is a death that needs to happen, not a physical death... I've got to take all this filth and place it and me (because it is me) on the altar of sacrifice. O God, let the fire fall! Consume every last filthy bit I pray! O God, don't let this just be rhetoric and worthless lip service, for my heart is "...deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked, who can know it?..." Lord, I see all this filth and I have to admit that I am really powerless against it... unless You do something I am paralyzed. I think most of what I've learned in the past about spiritual warfare and conquering strongholds of sin is just putting a band-aid over the cancer. I need You... I'm desperate for You... You have got to deal with me. Lord, I thought I had been down this road many times before, but this time the road is absolutely treacherous... it's like walking into a blazing furnace of truth. Help...

The Lord is gracious in that He did not leave me there in that abyss of my 'life of the flesh', but He provided a wonderful release and has taken me deeper in intercession and intimacy than before. Toward the end of this 'ordeal', He spoke the following word to me-

"See, My son, I have had you in the palm of My hand during this difficult time, for no chastening for the present seems to be pleasant, but rather grievous, but know that the end produces the fruit I desire. How can I release My glory upon one who has not known the depth of the depravity of his own soul?... I cannot, for pride would rise up and claim the glory for itself. And what is My ultimate purpose but to clothe you with My glory, that we may be 'one flesh', united as bride and Groom. Know that for you to be 'one flesh' with Me is to enter into My 'life of the flesh', the veil, which was rent from top to bottom, and so too as your 'life of the flesh' becomes My 'life of the flesh' there is a rending that must happen. For it is your 'life of the flesh' that veils My glory from manifesting in your life. There are also other 'veils' that must be rent in the process... 'veils' of self-deception, for indeed I do "...desire truth in the inward parts..". As you accept the truth of your 'true' condition before Me, then I shall make you to 'know wisdom' in your inmost being, for what is wisdom but 'living truth', not abstract or inoperative, but 'truth' being lived out."

THE JOURNEY UPWARD!

Doug Fortune

Sometime back I wrote of the 'Journey Inward' where the Lord took me, over the period of a year and a half or two, on a journey to the depths of the depravity of my own soul... a sort of personal fulfillment of the Feast of Trumpets and Day of Atonement (a time to afflict the soul). Well, as you know, the Feast of Tabernacles proceeds after Atonement... praise God!, the tabernacled manifest presence dwelling in His temple, ME! I'm having some trouble articulating to others exactly what is happening in me, but I will attempt to do so.

I had lived the life of Moses, always climbing the mountain of the Lord, getting filled with His glory and coming back down to try and impart it to others. Thank goodness my occupation and desire allowed me to devote MUCH time in the Holy of Holies, but after some time in the Outer Court the glory would always fade... so back up the mountain I would go. In other words, living my life based in this natural realm, frequently touching the spiritual realm and serving as a conduit of sorts for the spiritual and natural realms to intersect. That is a Godly and powerful existence, in case YOU are there now, the Lord certainly uses that.

The Lord is calling for something different now... rather than a life and ministry originating from the Holy Place where the Illumination of the Candlestick (revelatory ministry), Bread of Presence (ministry of the Word), and the Altar of Incense (ministry of prayer) are external, 'in-part' ministry (...we know in part and we prophesy in part...), or in other words, living and ministering FROM the natural realm and touching the spiritual realm; NOW the call is to a life and ministry originating FROM the Holy of Holies where every bit of 'self' (as symbolized by the contents of the Ark, which was all testimony AGAINST Israel) is covered over with Gold (the divine nature of God) and ONE with the Mercyseat (Christ) manifesting the tabernacled presence of the FULLNESS of God (rather than 'in-part'), or in other words living and ministering FROM the heavenly spiritual realm and touching the natural realm, bringing the heavenly realm to bear upon the natural realm by our very presence. This 'new and living way', life beyond the veil is entered into by means of the 'inward journey' into the depths of the depravity of our own soul, otherwise pride would rise up within us. Most of us assume that this veil or 'life of the flesh' that must be rent in order to enter into this 'new and living way' consists of our many sins, iniquities, strongholds and they must be CONQUERED before we are allowed in... that is exactly where the enemy wants us - fighting the nature of Adam... well, Adam CAN'T be reformed! The 'veil of flesh' that must be rent is the STRONGHOLD of living our life FROM this natural fleshly realm. 2Cor.10:3-5 'For though we walk (live) in the flesh, we DO NOT war after the flesh; for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal (or pertaining to flesh), but mighty through God to the pulling down of STRONGHOLDS... and bringing into captivity every thought (...for as he thinks in his heart so IS he...Pr.23:7) to the obedience (or attentive hearkening) of CHRIST...'. THIS is the KEY!, bringing everything CAPTIVE TO CHRIST! Only Christ can live like Christ!... and that will NEVER happen in Adam or living FROM this natural realm.

I believe that much ministry today, especially in the areas of deliverance and inner healing, although valid, necessary, worthwhile and desirable is still 'in-part' ministry... the FULLNESS comes as we move on to Tabernacles, the Holy of Holies, Christ embodied IN US. The 'journey inward' has to do with who I am in Adam... the 'journey upward' has to do with the Second Adam, CHRIST IN ME... for in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and I am complete IN HIM... WE are Christ in His BODY in the earth today!... I am NOT speaking metaphorically, WE are Christ in His BODY in the earth today! WE are the corporate, many membered man CHRIST of whom Jesus is the HEAD! Smith Wigglesworth said, 'More of me, less of God... less of me, more of God... none of me, ALL OF GOD!' Paul said, 'I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I LIVE...' Jesus said, 'I can of mine own self do NOTHING...' THIS is life and ministry from a totally different realm, a higher realm... Phil.3:20 'But we are citizens of the state (commonwealth, homeland) which is in HEAVEN, and FROM IT also we earnestly and patiently await the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Messiah...' Eph.2:6 'And He raised us up TOGETHER with Him and made us sit down TOGETHER- giving us joint seating with Him- in the HEAVENLY sphere by virtue of our being IN Christ Jesus...' (Amplified Bible) Many of the strongholds and sins I have struggled with for years have all but vanished because I am not living FROM the realm in which they have power over me... my vision from this vantage point sheds a whole new light on the tactics of the enemy. Mind you, I'm NOT saying I have 'arrived', as it is a process... also, I cannot 'arrive' at perfection as an individual, but ONLY as the many membered corporate Man. Eph.4:12-13 'His intention was the perfecting and full equipping of the saints, that they should do the work of ministering toward building up Christ's BODY the CHURCH, that it might develop until we ALL attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the full and ACCURATE knowledge of the Son of God; that WE might arrive at really mature manhood- the completeness of personality which is NOTHING LESS than the standard height of Christ's OWN PERFECTION- the measure of the stature of the fullness of THE CHRIST, and the completeness found IN HIM.' (Amplified Bible) THIS is where we are headed! Isaiah 60:1,3 'Arise from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you; rise to a NEW LIFE! Shine- be radiant with the glory of the Lord; for your light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen UPON YOU!... And nations shall come to YOUR LIGHT, and kings to the brightness of YOUR RISING.' (Amplified Bible)

We MUST move on to Tabernacles, the Holy of Holies, Christ embodied IN US!... less emphasis on trying to deal with who we are in Adam, more emphasis on MANIFESTING CHRIST in the earth! 2Cor.3:4 'And all of us, as with unveiled face continued to behold as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into HIS VERY OWN IMAGE in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord Who is the Spirit.'

The 'journey upward' is the call to a 'higher realm', not just better behavior and more effective ministry. Heb.4:9 'There remaineth therefore a REST to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath CEASED FROM HIS OWN WORKS...' As long as we are living life FROM this natural realm we will not enter into that REST, for everything we need is provided in the heavenly realm. Eph.1:3 '...has blessed us IN CHRIST with every spiritual Holy Spirit given blessing in the HEAVENLY REALM!'

I encourage YOU to take this 'journey upward' and to '...press on toward the goal to win the supreme and HEAVENLY prize to which God in Christ Jesus is calling us UPWARD.' (Phil.3:14) All creation is groaning, waiting in expectation for the manifestation of the sons of God, CHRIST embodied in the earth!

Don't Legislate My Glory!

Debra Westbrook

September 18, 2000

As I have read many words coming forth concerning the apostolic move of the Lord, I have been greatly encouraged by all that God is doing and is getting ready to do. Yet, as I awoke several days ago, I heard the Spirit of the Lord speak these words to me, "Don't legislate my glory!"

Inherent in man's nature is to control. As mere human beings, we forever try to establish ourselves and our agenda on platforms that are built upon our own understanding and wisdom. This day, God is giving to us new measures of His grace to bring us higher in the spirit, to see things from a greater eternal perspective. It is only by His grace that we can step into the newness of what is upon us in these times. This apostolic/prophetic move will not be built by man's hands but by God's hands.

Yet, the Lord would caution every one of us that inherent in the heart of man is the need to legislate that which we can't understand. We long to place a name upon it, to define it, and to provide a structure in which this new move can rest and reside in. Yet, God's word, in Isaiah 66:1-2 says:

"Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool. Where is the house that you will build for me? And where is the place of My rest? For all those things My hand has made, and all those things exist," says the Lord. "But on this one will I look; on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at My word."

The Lord seems to be clearly saying "Do not legislate My glory. " In effect, He says, "Take your hands off!"

Let us not confine God's glory to any prescribed limitations that rise up from the heart of man. Let us never presume that the way that God is moving now will flow forth from what has already been established. A new day requires a new way. Let us humble ourselves before the King to see the plans that reside within His heart for His kingdom.

Legislation flows through regulation - laws enacted by man to govern according to man's rules and ways. Legislation will build upon a platform of our understanding and wisdom. This is so in the natural. This is earthly and rises up from the depths of man's need to legislate and regulate. Yet, the kingdom of God will never be built through legislation but upon revelation.

Release all plans and purposes to God for He is establishing this foundation upon His revelation. All order, all structure, and all purpose reside in the heart of the Father! Those who would build must access His heart receiving a clear revelation of Jesus Christ as revealed by the Spirit of God! Apart from Him, we can do nothing!

What is coming and what is already here will not be built from the ground up but will be constructed as heaven opens and revelation comes down. The foundation has already been laid in Christ Jesus.

In times past, when the Pharisees and the teachers of the law tried to legislate the glory of God who stood in their midst in the person of Jesus Christ, they could not comprehend Him. They did not see that He was the brightness of God's glory and the express image of His person. He would not be contained, regulated, or restrained within the confines of their law. So it is today. The increasing presence of the Son of God in our midst will not be contained within the rules and regulations that exist within our hearts based upon past moves of God, religion, or the traditions of man. He will supercede and rise above all that has been done up to this point for eye has not seen not ear heard all that is coming upon His church.

We are not to run to and fro throughout the land looking for that which already resides within us. Christ is in us, the hope of glory. Jesus rising up within us will bring an ever increasing revelation of Himself to us individually so that He may expand us in corporate unity to contain the measure of glory that He longs to pour into His Body, His church.

Day of Atonement

Jane Clark

A message from Jerusalem on the Day of Atonement
Jane Clark

As I write this the streets of Jerusalem around us are empty of all but pedestrians. On this special day all Jews who are serious about their relationship with God fast and pray the whole day, beating their breasts and weighing the balances of their good and bad deeds, hoping to have their names put in the Book of Life for one more year. It is a visual reminder of our need for repentance and for the atonement of the blood of Christ, for "All have gone astray and have turned every one to his own way" Isaiah 53.

Repentance is on God's heart, for He longs that we should not be burnt with the fire of His of coming judgement, but have the fire of His love burning in our hearts.

The fire of love falls on living sacrifices who are yielding all to him. Sacrifices belong on altars. In the Messianic Congregation service last Sabbath at Christchurch in the Old City a Zimbabwean brother spoke of repairing our altars: the personal, family and Church altars. He explained how a good personal altar is the foundation for the family, and the family for the Church one. This word really burned in my heart and here is what I think God is saying to us.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites: "Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?"

15 He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, He who despises the gain of oppressions, Who gestures with his hands, refusing bribes, Who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed, And shuts his eyes from seeing evil:

16 He will dwell on high; His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks; Bread will be given him, His water will be sure. Isa 33:14-16

Repair your altars, make haste, the time is short, for I am increasing the shaking of the world, extending it to those places that feel themselves secure, as well as in my nation Israel. Be prepared, for trouble shall creep up unexpectedly and overtake you. Rebuild your altars so the fire of my love can fall upon you and you will be a light to all those who are in despair and darkness all around you.

Remember My promises: I am coming to all who will listen and speaking words of comfort and security: store them in your heart as you would hoard food for the day of famine, for these words will indeed be very life to you.

Doctrine Defined

Bill Burns

June 25, 2000:

The Spirit of the Lord has announced that a company of apostles would come forth to establish divine government in the Kingdom of God. There has been much speculation as to what that would mean and how that would look and how that would take place.

If a corporate divine government is to come forth, one thing must first take place, and that is a divine doctrine must be established which will be the foremost work of the apostles.

The word "doctrine" simply means "teaching or that which is taught or the act of teaching--instruction." It is the receiving of what is to be received from God as His instruction (what is heard) and is then taught as being the substance of God. His word is truth.

The early church did not have the problem that we have today with the many different concepts taught within the Body of Christ. The first-century apostles had been taught by Christ Himself, and therefore, they all believed the same thing. They believed what Jesus taught them. After the resurrection, the Risen Christ spent time with His disciples and instructed them in divine doctrine.

Acts 1:2-3--Until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

The apostles then taught what Jesus had taught them and as a result great power and great grace was upon them all.

Acts 2:42-43--And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. Then fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

Doctrine has a lot to do with your position of faith. The early church was not double-minded. They knew what they believed, and they performed many signs and wonders because their faith was not diminished by man's teachings (doctrines of men and devils).

This is why God must at this time raise up apostles who will re-establish a pure doctrine. The truth will set you free! Your level of faith cannot be demonstrated beyond your level of understanding. Even prophecy itself will not transcend the boundaries of one's theology. Theology is established by one's doctrinal position.

Ephesians 2:20 tells us that the church is to be a holy temple, which is built upon the foundation (doctrine) of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the very Cornerstone (beginning place) of that which the apostles and prophets have established, according to that which Jesus taught them.

If one desires to do all of the will of God, a pure doctrine must be established because we will never do what we perceive to be incorrect, even though what we perceive to be incorrect may be present truth, i.e. healing and casting out demons.

The question will be asked, "Who will these apostles be and how can we know that they will establish the truth?" The scriptures warn us that there will be false prophets and false apostles, and there will be.

Those who are truly sent from God as apostles will follow in the footsteps of Jesus. This will be their greatest desire-

-to do all of the will of God.

John 7:15-18--And the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this Man know letters, having never studied?" Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me. If anyone wants to do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God or whether I speak on My own authority. He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him.

2 John 1:9-10--Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him.

I believe that in this third day of Christ, the Master will teach those who want to do the Father's will.

Hosea 6:1-3--Come, and let us return to the LORD; For He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up. After two days He will revive us; On the third day He will raise us up, That we may live in His sight. Let us know, Let us pursue the knowledge of the LORD. His going forth is established as the morning; He will come to us like the rain, Like the latter and former rain to the earth.

Jesus will come to the earth as the former and latter rain. The former rain for the Apostle Paul was his encounter with the resurrected Christ on the Road to Damascus. The latter rain came when Paul was lifted up into heaven itself to be taught the doctrine of Christ.

2 Corinthians 12:1-7--It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord: I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago; whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows; such a one was caught up to the third heaven. And I know such a man; whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows; how he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not boast, except in my infirmities. For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me. And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure.

Those apostles now being called must also be willing to endure the attack of the enemy like Paul did. They will be called to earnestly contend for the faith.

Jude 1:1-4--Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, To those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ: Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you. Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

The faith delivered was the doctrine of the apostles. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word (doctrine) of God.

The Apostle Paul relates the power of obedience to true doctrine in Romans 6:16-18.

Romans 6:16-18--Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

Once the truth is again established, the final separation of wheat and tares within the church will take place.

Romans 16:17-18--Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them. For those who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and by smooth words and flattering speech deceive the hearts of the simple. True doctrine is important, and that which Christ has taught must be re-established for it is the power of His Word that upholds all things.

Hebrews 1:1-3--God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

The writer to the Hebrews begins with these words and finishes in chapter 13:9 with, "Do not be carried about with various and strange doctrines, for it is god that the heart be established by grace." And, I might add, grace has been established in the Master's truth, in His Word, in His teaching. A pure doctrine has been given. May we strive to know the truth and that truth will set us completely free. AMEN.

June 18, 2000:

I am sending for you chariots of fire. Is it not written that I am a God of fire, a consuming fire? It is My purpose to lift you up into heavenly places where you, as My servants, will prophesy by the words of fire within you, by the power of the Spirit. You will pull down the strongholds that are set in heavenly places. You will destroy the works of the enemy that are set over towns, that are set over states and set over countries. Beckon unto My call; make yourself ready for the fire. Is it not written that I have come to baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire? Is it not My purpose for the words that I put in you to become fire that are spoken in judgment against the enemy? The sword of the spirit that comes forth from My mouth is the sword of fire. It is the sword of judgment against all demonic powers. I give unto you this day opportunities. If you will but enter into your prayer closet and move with Me towards heavenly places, the chariots of My fire will transport you even so that you can see the powers that are set and the thrones of principalities, and you will know their names and be given the sword of deliverance by the word of your mouth. I say, rise up people, and tread upon the works of the enemy.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

June 19, 2000:

My people, what is this I see? I see jealousy and competition among My chosen vessels. Instead of coming into unity and one accord where I can manifest Myself in greater glory, I see division caused by envy and strife because you are measuring yourselves and comparing yourselves to one another. I say to you, repent of this evil, and do not allow this pride to bring destruction to My purposes in, around and through you. For surely if you persist in this vanity, I will pluck you up and replace you with one to whom you feel superior.

June 20, 2000:

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for I have laid up great reward for you. Have I not said that you are blessed when people rail against you and subject you to verbal abuse and attack and harass you without cause? I see and hear these attacks against you, and I know their origin and that they are false accusations. I have promised to defend you, for I am your advocate. The enemy has stirred the beggarly element of the earth against you to bring discouragement, but I have made your forehead like flint and have set you on a path to accomplish My purposes. I tell you, that I have created the spoiler to destroy, but NO weapon formed against you shall prosper. The heat of the fire will only serve to purify and strengthen you. Rejoice that you are found worthy of such an attack. Rise up with a shout of great joy for the victory that is assured.

June 21, 2000:

I have sent purifying fires among you, My people. It is not your motives that need purification, but your reactions. You have been faced with fiery opportunities to react either with hostility or kindness, in the flesh or by the Spirit, in defensiveness and anger or in love and forgiveness. You have had prime opportunities to pout or pray, retaliate or turn the other cheek. Today is a new day; choose to forgive and release those who have come against you. Bless those who have cursed you, and pray for those who have set themselves in opposition to you. This is true victory.

June 23, 2000:

You have been struggling against hindering forces that have come like an invisible wall. It has been like walking through thick Jello in the spirit realm. But, today, I have sent My angels to push back the powers of darkness that have hindered your forward progress. There will be breakthrough in a number of areas. Things that should have taken days or weeks but have taken months to complete will now come to completion. Watch and be amazed at how quickly things will begin to move ahead and rejoice in the power and glory of the Lord.

June 24, 2000:

Awaken, you who sleep. Arise from your slumber. The rhythmic sounds and patterns of religious exercise and life as usual have lulled you to drowsiness and complacency. Do not succumb to this languid spiritual condition. Stir yourself to life. Refuse to allow the enemy to steal your spiritual vitality. Get up and be My witness; give testimony of the reality of My existence. Draw out of your personal experience of life in the Spirit and speak and act beyond mundane existence. Keep the fires of revival burning in you; blow the coals and stir the embers, for the smoldering remains of a fire speak of the flame going out. But, I say, it is not too late to be revived. It is not enough to exist on a vague memory of devotion to Me; life in the Spirit must be renewed every morning. Rise up and fan the flame!

Drink of Me

Becky McLendon

Drink of Me

I looked above to azure skies,
While worship music played.
My hands could not stay by my sides,
When His glory was displayed.
I reached toward heaven, mouth opened wide
Singing, "Abba, it's been so LONG."
He said so gently, "Drink of Me"
And sing to Me your song.

I heard my voice melodiously sweet
Lift high above the earth,
The words He formed within my mouth
Told Him of His worth.
I cried, " HOLY HOLY HOLY"
As I looked upon the Lamb
I knew then more than anything,
I was standing in I AM.

"Drink of Me." He said again,
"For My streams never run dry,
There are depths that you have not explored,
Things you've dared not try."
I said to Him, "I am ready now, to Taste more of You,"
He said "Drink of Me and do not fear,
For I will make you new."

In sweet abandon I took Him in,
The Fullness of My God,
"He has come into His temple" I heard,
"The Branch from the Rod."
I felt a smile rise deep inside and knew He smiled in there.
The wonder and the peace I feel
To know I 'm in His care.

AMEN

Drink Of Me

Shelleymae Bartlett

Do you not know that it is not flesh and blood you are fighting? Where is your armor? Where is your faith? I say unto you this day that you have seen it cannot be done in your own strength in the understanding of your carnal thinking.

Repent and walk in Truth. I Am the Truth. I Am the garment in which you are to wear. Is it not written that the True Worshipers are those who worship me in Spirit and Truth? Come out from among them.

Walk ye with Me in the Spirit in the land of the living. For I Am the Life for all who enter in. I Am the Life for all men. You drink from many water pots, yet you have not asked of Me for thy drink. And when you do, you do not suffer patiently, believing that I will give to all men freely when they ask this of me.

What do you believe? What is it that you really seek that you cannot wait for Me? I Am the Living Water, the Living River that flows through out all of life. I Am the One who brings changes, everlasting changes to your soul.

Drink from Me, The True Counsel of Life. Truly drink from Me and you will see that you really have no need of your own watering pots. For no matter how big you think your pots may be and no matter how much you think you may drink from them, you will always be thirsty and thirst again.

The river flows in the wilderness of life where the trials and temptations take place. It is an easy thing to do: to worship Me when all around you is green and pleasant... But the True place of worship comes from the place where Patience is born.

Long suffering brings freedom to those who wait for Me expectantly. Freedom to soar above the cares of this world.

But for those who do not know Me -- who choose there own means and watering pots, their hearts become thirsty and dry and hardened in the trials and temptations in the wilderness and are left alone and desolate because they walk away in unbelief.

The River of Truth cannot flow where it is not welcomed, wanted or desired. Oh My people, My children, How long will you suffer for the little things when you can have it all? Will you not trade your small cup to drink from the river? A River more vast than any ocean?

Worship Me as though you know this.... Draw close to Me with your Hope of Faith. Believe in Me, Delight in My Truth that I may enter in and flow through you, even now in your time of need.

Arise and let Me rise in you. My Hand is not so short that it cannot save you. Not angry that it cannot Love.

Come unto Me all who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest. Drink from Me. I Am the Well Water of Life, the place where all True Fruit is born.

Clothe yourself in Me, round about and in thee. For in that moment with your whole heart seeking Me, while waiting, in due time you will see, truly I Am ALL you will ever need.

For I AM River of Life, The Everlasting Water. It is only in Me where you will drink and thirst no more. I will feed you with the Truth of My Righteousness.

Desire the place of a servant beyond all other positions and let Me be King. Praise Me how you believe. I Am your Everlasting Father loving you from Eternity.

Days Of My Power

October 22, 2000:

These are the days of My power that I have spoken of. Indeed the prophets of old have spoken of these days, but I speak to you today of spiritual reality. My desire today is that My word becomes alive in you, that it becomes a beacon of light that shines through any darkness that may abide in you, that it may disburse that light and bring you forth as a son of glory. Is it not written that the whole earth travails waiting for the manifestation of the sons of glory? If I were to come to you today and say to you that these are those days, would you believe? For indeed this is the hour of the transformation of My people. For, you have seen Christ high and lifted up, and you have watched Him (in the Word) even walk to the top of the Mount of Transfiguration, but I say unto you that in these days even those of you who are like Peter and John shall be transformed with Him as you the servants of the Lord rise up into that place, says the Lord, I will shine My light upon you, and you shall live in a new dimension of time--the time of the empowerment of My people. This is that day that has been written about. This is a day of equipping.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

October 23, 2000:

Stop! Look! Listen! See if you can discern the times and the season that is upon you. For behold, you are in a time of progression and a season of positioning in My kingdom. Push through the gray dawn of shadows where your path is uncertain, and come into the full light of My plans and purposes for you. I have called you out of obscurity into clarity. No longer will you wander through life with your mind filled with questions and doubt about where you belong. I tell you the truth, I will move you with precision and accuracy. But, in order for you to be perceptive to My leading, you must rise above your own reasoning and your own soul desires to live in the Spirit. I urge you to break out of the limitations of the flesh like a butterfly breaks out of its cocoon. It is time for you to walk by faith and no longer be restrained by what you know by your senses. This is a new day and a new time, and it is imperative that you discern the moving of My Spirit.

October 24, 2000:

I speak to those of you who have taken on more responsibility than you can effectively handle. I call you Martha-Martha, for you are running here and there, doing many things. And yet, you have neglected your primary purpose...to have sweet fellowship with Me. You have need of temperance. This is a time for all of you, My people, to re-evaluate your expenditures whether of time or money. If you will yield to My will and purposes in these areas, I will cause you to maximize your resources, and you will see the miracle of multiplication. But, I want to impart the concept of simplicity to you. You are My stewards. Unless you manage My resources by way of obedience to My direction, you will squander what I have put under your management and the result will be great dissipation. Exercise self-control.

October 25, 2000:

I exhort you today to consider your strengths, your giftings, the things you CAN do. The enemy would try to get you to meditate on your shortcomings and failures and the things you cannot do, for he would love to drown you in a sea of despair. But, I have not called you to accomplish what you are unable to do. I do not expect you to walk in shoes that do not fit. I have equipped you for certain tasks in My kingdom, and I tell you assuredly that you have been in training for that which is ahead of you. Believe Me when I say that you have been in training since you were a child for the things that have been prepared for you. Even times in your life that you found difficult to endure became a place of instruction, for truly all things work together for good to those who love Me. I will not ask you to reach beyond your ability to achieve My desired goals, but I will cause you to stretch and go beyond your experience to accomplish more than you ever have. Your destiny is to bring glory to My kingdom.

October 27, 2000:

These are times of great consternation on the earth, but I have not called you to fear or dread. I have positioned you and will continue to position those in My company in places of safety and security. What I require of you is to live in My kingdom without compromising My standards, My word. As the darkness of the world becomes gross darkness, you will shine forth and radiate as beacons of light and truth. Those who have lurked in the shadows of complacency will then be drawn to your light like moths to a flame. But, I tell you the truth, the days are coming and are even now upon you when those who love the darkness will be plunged into pitch-darkness, and those who love the Light will become radiant.

Drinking of the Spirit

Scott Phillips

"And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ." 1 Corinthians 10:4

DRINKING OF THE SPIRIT

by Scott Phillips

sphillip@netdoor.com

This concept seemed to catch fire in my spirit the other day. It seemed the Lord quickened this to me in a very profound way. One of those things that just click, and you wonder why it clicks so powerfully. I believe that we often miss the revelation of what God has provided for us. We live below our privilege and promise that has been provided for us.

I have heard old timers say, "Living for God gets sweeter every day." This happens because people learn how to access and enjoy what is available more and more.

I believe too often we are quenching our thirst that is in our spirit man the wrong ways. I don't believe it is always rebellion or carnality, but simply because we are unfamiliar with drinking of the spirit.

I believe we need to realize that we really do have a spiritual drink available to us, IF we will access it.

The concept of spiritual thirst and the quenching of it is a very popular theme in the Bible. The reality of how important it is for man to drink and have access to a clean water source is lost on us today, because most of us do not drink much water. Water is at our fingertips. But this is not the reality of what man has experienced historically.

We have heard of the story of the Israelites being in the wilderness. The Bible tells us they got thirsty and God told Moses to speak to the rock.

Moses instead struck the Rock, and water came out of this rock. The miracle did not stop there. First of all they had to have enough water to take care of four million people plus animals. That is a minimum of four million gallons of water. This was not a little water fountain.

Imagine the number of people in a large city. Think of the amount of water consumed. That much water came out of a rock! This was not a small rock. It was a LARGE ROCK, and LOTS of WATER came out.

And to make it even more miraculous, this rock followed them everywhere they went. This is an example of how Miraculous or Ridiculous the Bible is. It is either true or a lie. And you and I must believe in The Bible and the God of the Bible is able to do that kind of a miracle, to benefit from this Drink I am talking about.

There are many people wandering around in a wilderness. They are parched and have no way to quench that thirst. These people when they hear the Word of God, it will cleave the Rock of Hardness in their heart and if they will allow it, this Stone of stumbling, this Rock of Offense when broken in the heart of a person will cause them to have a river flowing out of them.

Every person has within them the capacity for this Revelation, because the spirit that gives every man life is from God. Even the unsaved have a body, soul and spirit. A babbling brook is just below the surface ready to spring forth.

The work of God is so great in our lives, that when we Believe on him as the scripture has said, out of our innermost being flows abundant rivers of living water.

That living water is the spiritual drink I speak of. The Bible teaches that we all drink of that same spiritual drink, from that same Rock, that Rock is Christ. When the Word of God is spoken, faith is generated, and a conduit is opened up. A reservoir is made available, and you become a heavenly pumping station to see the River of God flow into the lives and hearts of people around you.

Spiritual Drink

Many people try to Brand their drink. They begin to market "their" spiritual drink. Much like the Soft drink and drinking water market today.

The concept that if your not getting your water from so and so, you are missing the boat.

Hoga Washa

And sadly this is not relegated to the Charismatic world. It is prevalent in almost every place and every person that has some kind of spirit coming out of them. This is an unbiblical and heretical belief that is leading many confused and lost souls to a very dangerous place.

How many people lost their faith when it was found out that their SOURCE of Spiritual drink was visiting prostitutes and stealing money.

They begin to question what they felt, what they heard and the foundation of their faith is revealed that it was in man and not in Christ.

I believe everyone without exception that flows in the anointing has a spiritual drink they are offering. But is the source the same source? Or is it some branded personality driven drink that comes from a different source?

There are many spirits in the world, and we are told not to believe every spirit, but to try the spirits and see if they be of God. The Bible goes further and tells us that every spirit that does not TELL a proper revelation of God is a spirit that is Anti Christ. It's not enough to KNOW, the Devil knows there is one God and trembles.

The Devil appears as an Angel of Light and his ministers do also. I don't believe the false prophets do séances in their basement. They do homage to the Idol of Self. In the Midst of Self Exaltation, they are worshiping at the same alter in which Lucifer first dedicated. They glory in the presence of the Lord.

I believe the source of the spirit that motivates people is not found in what they say when they pray, but what motivates them, animates them and the fruit that comes from their lives.

The Sign is not miracles. The Sign is not good works. The sign is not great crowds. The sign God is looking for is this person a worker of Iniquity? Iniquity is the worship of self. It is the twin sister to Rebellion.

William Braham, is an example of a man that raised a monument to self, and people by the millions still worship this man. They sit around and listen to his tapes because he allowed himself to fall prey to the deception.

Joseph Smith, The Pope, others show that the source of their Spiritual drink. The Exaltation of a self into an equal place of Christ to their followers. Unquestionable, Infallible, and obvious weakness' excused and ignored.

I believe the Bible teaches that we were all baptized with the SAME SPIRIT. And we were all made to drink of that same spirit. When the Water gets to flowing from us, it should all have that clean and pure quality. It should not be flavored, tainted or poisoned with a false perception of self importance.

God is not looking for Bottling Companies that have their various kinds of syrups and flavors from which they have built franchises and have made the people of God a source of enriching themselves. A child of God should not be focused on building barns, reputations, or kingdoms.

We should have one Goal.

Drink from the Spirit and provide a clean source from which thirsty folks can find a way to be connected to the source of refreshment themselves. We should be teaching people how to become a source to others and not enslaving them to an addiction of our flavor or brand.

William Branham was not the first, and sadly millions of folks are following others buying into this same kind of deception on some smaller scale.

I am thirsty. And I know that when I get my Revelation of Jesus in line with the Bible, the water will flow, people will know, the place to go, to find a refreshing drink, even if they are poor.

It is only found

In Him, By Him, Through Him,

THIS IS THE POINT TO FOCUS ON!

" He that BELIEVETH ON ME , as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)" John 7:38-39

" Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price." Isa 55:1

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world." I John 4:1-3

"Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." 1 Cor 12:3

"For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." II Th 2:7-12

Double Or Nothing

Hollie L. Moody

Double Or Nothing

This Sunday (October 1st, 2000), during the evening service in church, I saw the Lord standing before two trees. I sensed in my spirit, that these were olive trees. The Lord was inspecting these olive trees. He peered at them from all angles; from close up and also from far away.

One of the olive trees had the appearance of having been carefully tended and cultivated. There were no protruding branches. The size and shape of the foliage showed that it had been carefully pruned. It was a tree that appeared quite pleasing to the eye.

The other olive tree appeared wild and unkempt. The branches protruded. The foliage was untended and gave the tree a misshapen and lopsided appearance.

Both trees had olives on their branches, but the olives on the well tended, cultivated tree were larger in size than the olives on the wild, unkempt tree.

I watched as the Lord took a small hatchet type ax in His hand and approached the wild, unkempt olive tree. He began to lop off pieces of some of the branches. Other branches, He completely removed and tossed aside. He seemed to be thinning out the wild olive tree, and also cutting the branches down to a uniform size so that there were no longer any branches which protruded.

The Lord took some of the cut off branches from the wild olive tree over to the well cared for olive tree. Very carefully, with the hatchet in His hand, He began to make several cuts in the well cared for olive tree's trunk. He then very carefully inserted the cut off branches from the wild olive tree into the cuts in the trunk of the well cared for olive tree. After a space of time, there was no sign to betray where the wild olive tree branches had been fit into the cultivated olive tree. The fit was perfect, and unnoticeable.

I then saw two people approach the cultivated olive tree. They each carried a large basket. Very carefully, they began to pick the large, ripe olives from the cultivated olive tree until both baskets were filled to overflowing with olives.

Then, the vision ended.

During the day, I pondered the vision and sought the Lord in regard to it. As I did so, I had a vision of a woman in labor. (I was viewing this scene as from a distance, and saw no particulars during it. Having given birth to four children of my own, is why I was so easily able to recognize that this woman was giving birth.)

She was in the final stages of bearing down (or "pushing"). I watched as she gave birth to a beautiful baby. But, she wasn't finished yet! I watched, amazed, as she gave birth to another baby immediately after the birth of the first baby.

I prayed during the day that the Lord would fully open my understanding to these two visions.

Last night, my husband was discussing a situation with me that we needed to pray about as a couple. As my husband was speaking to me, I felt the Lord say to me, "Double or nothing." I waited for my husband to finish talking, then shared with him what I felt the Lord had just said to me.

I felt what the Lord had just spoken to me, was twofold. I felt it was an urging of the Lord for my husband and I to step out by faith, and claim a double blessing for the situation in our life. I also felt these words were for the Body of Christ, and pertained to the olive tree vision I had experienced in church the previous night, and also the vision of the woman who had given birth to twins.

I did a study on olive trees and on the grafting process. While very much of it was beyond my understanding, the parts I found of particular interest are the following:

Grafting means to set firmly or to implant. It was a practice in ancient times, when a cultivated olive tree failed to yield, to graft in a slip of wild olive to give the tree new vigor. It is a process of uniting two closely related plants so that they grow as one.

Grafting is used to increase fruit tree productivity, to grow a plant in an unfamiliar environment by using a stock (the rooted part of a tree or a plant) adapted to that environment, and to combat diseases and pests by using resistant stock.

Olive trees are very tenacious. They survive and fruit well even with considerable neglect. They easily sprout back even when chopped to the ground. They are wind tolerant and are able to survive even in extended dry periods. Thinning the crop will give larger fruit size.

The trees are able to withstand radical pruning. Proper pruning regulates production and shapes the tree for easier harvest. The olive never bears fruit in the same place twice, and usually bears on the previous year's growth. Ripe olives bruise easily and should be handled with care.

I read two major portions of Scripture which dealt with olive trees and the grafting process.

John 15:1-8 ~ (1) I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. (2) Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. (3) Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. (4) Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. (5) I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. (6) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (7) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. (8) Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

Romans 11:16-24 ~ (16) For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. (17) And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; (18) Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. (19) Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. (20) Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: (21) For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. (22) Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. (23) And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. (24) For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

As I continued to pray and ponder over these things, I was reminded of Elisha's words to Elijah ~ "...I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me." (2 Kings 2:9). Elisha received this double portion, and did twice as much in and through his ministry as Elijah had done.

We as individuals, and the Church as a whole, have endured many things. We have been cut, chopped, lopped off, pruned, thinned, and bruised. We have experienced times of dryness and heat, and have felt the storm winds of life blowing fiercely upon us.

In our private lives, we have had loved ones leave (either us or the church). We have suffered financial and health set backs. Many of our churches have experienced times of dryness and drought and have seen little or no growth. It has seemed that the little bit left to us (both privately and in our churches), has been of seemingly poor quality.

But, a refreshing and a restoring has now been birthed. It is easily being felt in the Spirit by many of us (again, not only in our private lives, but in our churches and in our ministries). Not only has it been birthed once, but by seeing it birthed twice, I feel the Lord is saying to us today that a double portion, a double blessing, is now ours.

That which was unproductive, is now bringing forth twice as much as it did formerly. That which was cut off is now reattached. That which was wounded, is now healed. That which was taken away is now restored. That which was led into captivity is now set free.

Joel 2 : 21-26 ~ (21) Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things. (22) Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. (23) Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. (24) And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. (25) And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. (26) And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

Double is now restored to us. It is "double or nothing" time.

In Him, ~ Hollie L. Moody

Divine Realignment

Pat Gregory

Divine Realignment & Changing of the Guards

Yesterday I heard the Holy Spirit say "divine realignment" and "changing of the guards."

This realignment and changing of the guards is going to bring much change. Things are not going to remain as usual. This is a realignment ordained by God to bring about His purposes in these endtimes.

Many will be relocated, to different churches, to different areas, connected to different ministry organizations. God has already strategically placed many of His servants, but there will be more strategic placement of those being launched into service, and many of those that are being promoted, and so on.

Relationships will change. There will be leadership changes in a big way. Some will be promoted and some will be removed.

Divine order will come forth from this realignment.

As this all begins to manifest, a holy fear will once again come upon the church of Jesus Christ. Many miracles will take place, creative miracles, healings, divine provision and supply. What we've read in the word will be a reality, but in greater measure. We have never seen the likes of what's about to take place.

Stand strong, in faith, with boldness and love, and declare my words and I shall guide you and perform my works. I am the Lord God and the world shall know that I am alive, reigning on high, guiding my sheep and so shall I keep. There is nothing, I say nothing, impossible with me, so stretch forth your hands, and you shall see. Marvel not at what I can do, but marvel that I reside in you. The God of the universe, come down to man, redeeming his soul, redeeming the land. I own all things, so ask what you need, I've given you my power and given you the keys. Go forward, press onward, I am by your side, and within you we three reside. Nothing is impossible, to those who believe, so expect dear children, expect, and ye shall receive. Then go, give freely, this is my plan, setting the captives free, restoring man. I shall come quickly, there's much work to do, arise in my glory, I've given it to you.

Glory to your holy name, Lord Jesus! So be it unto us, according to your word.

Drought in the Land

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

There is a convergence between the spiritual and the natural.... It is the THIRD DAY – it is the SEVENTH DAY. It is THE time when heaven and earth shall meet in a mighty explosion of POWER – dunamis POWER!! Time is converging with eternity. My people will “merge” – harmonize as ONE – even as the Father and I are ONE!

Sing forth PRAISES to YOUR KING..... Shout for joy – you who have weeped in Zion – for GREAT – GREAT!! is your reward.

As the days lengthen in daylight hours – the night grows ever shorter, yet I say unto you that SOON it will be so “dark” that no man can work...for I AM will come upon you suddenly and consume ALL that is not of Me – My chosen children. Indeed – “man” will be in hiding, cowering in fear for what is coming upon the earth, yet my “sons and daughters” will go forth valiantly for My Namesake! Do not think of mere tongues of fire –for though they in their time did mighty exploits in My Name – I say unto you the latter SHALL BE greater than the former! As you look up for your redemption drawing nigh, so too am I looking – searching for those who have forsaken ALL for the sake of the Gospel and the love they have for Me - and I will bring them forth from the cloud of MY LIGHT – for MY GLORY. They will be clothed in the splendor of their King – in robes of My righteousness; and they will be crowned with the glory of their GOD!

The day will converge with the night, the eternal will converge with the natural, the real will converge with the surreal, Your God will AGAIN – walk in the “cool of the garden” with His chosen children. The latter rains will converge with a tsunami wave that will carry you along into the things I have prepared for you since before the foundation of the world! Even the least of My own – shall become a giant! And the most wretched – shall become the most “sought after” by those who formerly ridiculed and chided him for his childlike faith! “Come, they will say – TEACH US OF YOUR GOD!” For the world WILL BE FILLED WITH THE GLORY OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE LORD.....and so, they will be without excuse who would turn from Me!

For there has been a drought in the land for the Word of God - just as in Elijah's day there had been a drought.

(at this point in the Spirit I saw what appeared to be "layers" of dust, and gigantic raindrops beginning to fall. The raindrops were large enough that the dust was either beaten down into the ground or blown away by the force of it)

Then the Lord reminded me that Elijah sent his servant seven times to watch the sky as he besought the Lord God so that the drought might end.

And then He said:

It is My will that from the setting of the sun until the rising of the sun, that ALL mankind know of My greatness and majesty - and so the rains will fall. The cloud will not be as the size of a man's fist this time; for the servant - the One who was the servant of all - will go to watch for the cloud and it will not be the size of a man's hand, but the size of God's Hand!

And the rain will fall and with it a torrent of blessings for those who have besought My face. Eye has not seen, ear has not heard - what I have in store for those who love Me! You can not imagine what will transpire in the days ahead.

As it was in the days of the Son of Man when the spirit of Elijah came as John the Baptist; so in this day, in this hour - will the spirit of Elijah again rise up. For did I not say Myself that John had been the "greatest prophet" of all?

And the rain will fall - and the fire will burn.

And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain.

So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, And looked, and said, There is nothing. Elijah said, Go again seven times.

And at the seventh time the servant said, A cloud, small as a man's hand is arising out of the sea. And Elijah said Go up, say to Ahab, Hitch your chariot and go down, lest the rain stop you.

In a little while the heavens were black with wind-swept clouds, and there was a great rain. (1 Kings 18:41-45)

Diamonds Soaked In Oil

Joanne Gavlick

www.keepersofhisgates.com

August 13, 2000

When the Lord spoke "Diamonds Soaked In Oil," He began unfolding a vision of certain nations, and geographical areas within those nations -- "Be blessed, all you inhabitants of the earth."

O Africa

Rise up, you mighty men and women of valor! For some of the greatest, choicest "diamonds" have come from your region of the world. From days of old, you have searched wealth from your gravel of the Orange and Vaal rivers, and the search accelerated following your discovery near Kimberley. O Kimberley, how greatly you were sought in those days, but I seek you for My possession this hour -- for I "dig deep", deeper than flesh, for the true riches of you and your nation. I am digging for "diamonds soaked in oil" -- a chosen people, to humble yourselves and seek My face, that I may heal your land. I am digging deep into your nation, O South Africa, for I am seeking hearts on fire for Me. For I see a great and mighty army, purified by My fire, a fire that burns like the lava, deep within your land. I see an explosion of My fire coming from South Africa, to the nations of the world, with My power and authority to shut the gates of hell; for you are a fearless generation, free in heart! You will take My fire and light fires around the earth. I see a ring of fire fortifying the nations with My Word and Spirit, and the glory of the Lord will be revealed to all. Yes, the knowledge of My glory shall be known by you! O South Africa, Tanzania, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ghana, and Sierra Leone -- gather your stones and build the wall of fire together, for the enemy of your hearts has ruled long enough! You shall dwell in unity, melted together by My fire, and I shall command the blessing!

To Australia, Borneo, Canada, Ural Mountains and Siberia in Russia, Venezuela, and Guyana

You have been desolate and isolated long enough, therefore I will visit and inhabit your gates. Your land will be healed from the harshness of the world, and delivered from them that bind you. My glory will cover you like the waters cover the sea, and My brilliancy and fire shall guard you, O peoples and nations.

I Have Not Forsaken Arkansas, U.S.A.

Isolated stones have been sought and found in various places of your land. I say to Arkansas, I have not forgotten you, for you have "yielded choice diamonds," and although you are few, I will use you to radiate My glory and fire, to kindle fires at the gates of your cities. I will consume those who have come against you. Racism, violence, politics, greed . . . all the ports that have held you captive, I will close before your very eyes!

Dearest India

For centuries, you were the only known source of My "choice diamonds" in the world. Because of the limitations placed by foreign gods, you have been bound long enough. I shall visit Colconda, a city of desolation. I shall pour out My Spirit upon you, and unveil the hidden springs of Living Water to you. Therefore, I will raise the last to be first, and My gates shall stand in your midst. For many gods have taken residence in your land, but My "choice diamonds" shall rise and multiply. Millions, yes millions, shall come to know Me as their One True God, and the present famine of your people will be hunger for Me and My Kingdom. I see a great host rising and taking possession of the gates of hell. You shall be free, dearest India. You shall be free!

A Special Word to Brazil

You have yielded many "choice diamonds" for My Kingdom -- 29 in all. I say to you, O Brazil, I shall multiply even more of you, for your hunger beckons Me. I shall send you to the nations as a brilliant and fiery light that cannot be denied, and you shall light the world with My fire and glory. Know that I have heard the cries of My martyrs from your land, and I will take vengeance! So take heart, dearest Brazil, and know your God intimately, for your refuge is hidden in Me.

Discern The Times

Stephen Hanson

7. Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD. Jer. 8

45. "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? Matt. 24

10. Like the blind we grope along the wall, feeling our way like men without eyes. At midday we stumble as if it were twilight; among the strong, we are like the dead. Is. 59

(As I began worshiping the Lord, He showed me an angel who was blowing a trumpet. I then saw various angels walking on an ascending staircase. As I continued to watch this scene, I again saw this angel who was blowing a horn, and I saw our planet earth as a small globe in the distance. The earth was spinning around very rapidly, but I could still distinguish various land masses, and oceans and bodies of water. The earth seemed to be oblivious to anything going on. It seemed to have a "mind of its own," and just simply, "kept spinning" around and around.)

Then the Lord said:

"They are too busy to even notice."

"Many of the people on earth are so busy with their own affairs. Life goes on, day-in and day-out. They are very much like busy little ants. Man has become so engrossed in his own affairs that he may not even notice when the angels "trumpet their message."

"He may notice natural disasters....He may see the signs of these things upon the earth. He may notice Spring and Summer, and Fall and Winter. He may notice these things in the natural, but he may not know of their spiritual significance. Who then is the wise and faithful servant? I have given many parables concerning my kingdom and my coming. From the five wise and the five foolish virgins, to the parable of the pearl, to the treasure hidden within the field, and yet many go on living their lives as if none of these things really matter. Who then is the one who can discern the times in which we are living?"

(Again the Lord began showing me something, and this time it was a man who was blindfolded, and he was stumbling along while he was walking, seemingly not knowing where at all that he was going. He was walking on stony ground and eventually, he tumbled and fell off of a cliff. It was as if the entire cliff and ground had given way before him.)

Interpretation:

I believe He is saying that there are many who are blind to the things which are going on around them, and that in time, if they continue in their blindness, they will then fall. The ground which was stony speaks of the type of heart soil found in Matt. 13:

"20. The one who received the seed that fell on rocky places is the man who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21. But since he has no root, he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away. "

He then said:

"For trouble will come to all....will you be ready for it when it comes? Be true discerners of the spiritual climate around you. Do not only look at appearances, but look under the surface of things. Then you will see what's in front of you and you will not be misled."

Stephen Hanson

*(If you would like to consider a monthly donation to this ministry, it would be greatly appreciated, but not necessary. Please feel free to pass these messages onto friends or others in the faith. Let me know if in anyway it has blessed, or brought forth "new life" in Him. Any questions may be directed to me. Thank you.)

Due Season

Joni Ames

Due season - the stick is in the window

I recently got home from an extended period away - a two weeks ministry trip across Nebraska, followed by a three day trip to Tulsa Oklahoma for a ministers' conference, and on to Dallas Texas to attend a health seminar. The theme in every area keeps resounding in my head - We are in DUE SEASON.

WHAT IS DUE SEASON? It is the time of harvest - reaping what has been sown; it is the time of birthing.

Galatians 6:9 says, "And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in DUE SEASON we shall reap if we do not lose heart. "

Two nights in a row at the International Charismatic Bible Ministries (ICBM) conference at Oral Roberts University, the Holy Spirit took up a sovereign offering. No one asked for it; all were shocked by it. One thing became VERY clear - the Lord orchestrated it.

FIRST NIGHT It began to happen during the teaching. And the teaching wasn't about finances. The procession was quiet and orderly; the speakers were not disturbed. It started with one person who brought up a folded dollar bill and laid it on the altar; then another, then another. It began during the first speaker's session and continued quietly and in order throughout the next speaker - for three to four hours in all - until (it appeared) all 5,000 people in the auditorium had been up there at least once!

SECOND NIGHT Again, it started quietly during the first speaker's teaching and proceeded over the next three to four hours as again, one by one, each person got up and gave as the Holy Spirit led.

The prophetic words began to come forth: (1) This is a sign that the spirit of greed is being broken off the church; the spirit of poverty is being broken off of ministers and ministries. (2) It is a sign to the wider body of Christ that finances have been released to the Church as a whole. (3) One man saw a vision of the "windows in heaven" - each window had a stick in it - the flow that began that night would NOT stop! THE STICK IS IN THE WINDOW! (4) This was just the beginning. We will begin to see this in other meetings as well. It is a Biblical sign of the financial release that is promised to the last days church. The enemy has tried to tie the hands of the ministers through lack of finances, but God has rebuked the devourer because we pressed on even through our own personal lack!

In just ONE service, the Holy Spirit collected OVER HALF A MILLION DOLLARS!!!

I know there are others who have seemingly had one trauma and drama after another and feel drained of everything, and burdened by expenses of all sorts. You've given up all to minister encouragement to others and yet stand in need yourself. God has NOT forgotten you and your families!

One of the signs of the last day church IS the release of finances, which began that night. Let this be an encouragement to those of you who have labored, are discouraged and maybe even ready to quit. Don't lose heart! - Don't quit giving! - AND DON'T QUIT YOUR MINISTRY! - IT IS DUE SEASON!!! -THE STICK IS IN THE WINDOW!!!

D&V List No. 411

Paula Cavu

Date: Friday 24th march 2000

Topics: 1. GOD'S FUNDAMENTAL MESSAGE AT THIS TIME!

2. Ministers in God's most powerful resurrection power, who will minister in the earth speedily and for just a short time, are just before us.

Contents: * As in the dream, He wants me to feel compassion for them instead of defending myself or retaliating. He wants this of all His children. And His Bride's first priority must be expressing her love for her Groom. In that focus on her love for Him, fear and panic and anger and retaliation will disappear. Self protection will not be important, and love, compassion, and gentleness for people, even those that hurt us, will arise and shine in and through us. The world will truly know we are His because of our love. Dream and excellent interpretation of God's fundamental message to the Church by Bonnie Barbery on 15th March, 2000.

* A few recent dreams have been about high tech air planes that travel very fast. This appears to be a language for the end time apostolic/prophetic ministry that is being raised up presently. The fact that you learned to fly one means that the ministry you represent (prophetic intercession) is very much part of this end time ministry. The end time ministry is going to be fueled by none other than God's resurrection power! (the most powerful fighter jet ever built) Dream by Glenda Portesi on 8th March, 2000.

* This plane was the first of its kind. It's speed would be faster than light and it's landing and taking off was like that of a helicopter or Harrier vertical take off. The interior of this place was furnished like that of the United State President's plane. Dream by Lavinia Taylor on 10th March, 2000 for your interpretation. (received about the same time as Glenda's dream above - hint!)

* The rocket speaks of God's end time apostolic/prophetic ministry. The rocket being made out of dough (bread) is speaking of this end time ministry moving into heavenly places in the Word of the Lord. Following the step by step instructions to complete the door implies progressive circumcision of the heart through the application of the ministry of the Cross as the door to ministry in and from heavenly places. Dream and interpretation by Pam Watson on 22nd Feb. 2000.

AS IN THE DREAM, HE WANTS ME TO FEEL COMPASSION FOR THEM INSTEAD OF DEFENDING MYSELF OR RETALIATING. He wants this of all His children. And His Bride's first priority must be expressing her love for her Groom. In that focus on her love for Him, fear and panic and anger and retaliation will disappear. Self protection will not be important, and love, compassion, and gentleness for people, even those that hurt us, will arise and shine in and through us. A dream and word given to Bonnie Barbey 3-15-00

I had a dream last night. I was on a ship...a very large ship with thousands of people on it. I had a stateroom of my own and the dream began in the stateroom. I looked around the room and realized that this must be a ship I was on, and then I went out the door. This ship had an endless maze of dark corridors and stairs. There seemed to be quite a few hazards in the corridors and plenty of places to get hurt. There were even places where the corridor just ended and you could drop off the edge into what looked like nothingness.

I wandered around for quite a while, looking at the people and trying to find my way to the top without getting hurt. I thought I might recognize a few of the people, but for the most part, didn't seem to know anyone. After a long search and walk, I finally got to the deck of the ship.

It was a cruise ship only the entire deck was covered with tables all set for a big festive dinner. There were enough tables for all of the people on board. Everyone on this ship seemed to know everyone else, except me. I was alone. The sky was clear and filled with bright stars, the air was warm, and everyone seemed to be in the mood for a party. I finally found a place to sit up toward the bow of the ship.

As we waited to order, someone at the table began to talk excitedly about how wonderful it was to be able to be on the Titanic! My heart sank (not to use a pun). I was on the Titanic! And it WAS going to go down, I had no doubts about it.

Now I know the Titanic hit an iceberg, but in this dream in the middle of the festivities the sky suddenly turned black with storm clouds and the perfectly glassy sea turned into a violent, churning ocean trying to suck the ship under. The wind whipped violently as waves over a hundred feet high arose. The ship was racing up and down the waves, plunging and splashing. Everyone on board went into a panic. People were running and screaming and in absolute terror. I was the only one on the ship who knew it's ultimate fate along with most of those on board.

I set off for my stateroom. It was so difficult to get there. There were so many panicking people in the already treacherous hallways, people fighting for lifejackets and clawing for position to get on the lifeboats. But I had a mission, and nothing would deter me. As I searched for my room, it seemed that the mayhem around me and all of the fear, panic, and expressions of and acts of violence going on didn't even exist. Even when they were directed at me, I brushed them off and went on. They just weren't important or worth focusing on. I felt sorry for those people instead of getting angry and retaliating.

After what seemed like forever, I got into my room. It was very calm and quiet in there, despite the chaos outside and the dire situation I knew we were all facing. I opened the desk drawer and got out a pen and paper. I began a letter to my husband explaining that I was on the Titanic, and that, knowing history as he does, he knew it's fate. I just had to let him know how much I loved him and appreciated him, and how blessed I was to have been his wife. Writing this letter was more important to me than getting to the lifeboats, which was where everyone else was heading. He just had to know how much I loved him.

When I had finished the letter, I realized that this ship was going to the bottom and no one would ever get the letter to him. It would be under water forever. I grabbed the only life jacket in the room, and after putting this letter in a leather bag, attached it to the lifejacket so that it would float on the surface and be found. I didn't even think about putting the life jacket on me to try and save my own life. The delivery of that letter was the only thing of importance to me. Once I did all this, I woke up.

A COUPLE OF INTERPRETATIONS

In mulling over this dream, a couple of interpretations or applications came to me. First, the obvious. I realized that with all the storms of life, and the confusion and chaos of daily living, I haven't taken the time to make sure my husband knows just how precious he really is to me. I seem to spend most of my time trying to solve problems, figure out how to be safe and protected from harm and keep others safe from harm, or simply panicking when the storms hit, but not dwelling on what is really important...that being love and appreciation. In the dream, it was well worth sacrificing my life for...giving up any chance of rescue and safety. It wasn't even an option not to get that letter to him. That's how important expressing love and appreciation really is.

And now for the "God" interpretation. The ship we are on is going down. This world is terminally ill and will not recover. Knowing God's word the way we do, we know it's fate. God's word says He Himself will destroy it and He will make a new one. And the storm is here. We are racing up and down the waves and being tossed and plunged beneath the water. People, in their fear and panic, are fighting, saying terrible things to each other, and running over one another to somehow get to safety. But there is a quiet place for us, not found in lifeboats or lifejackets, but found in love...expressing our love for God in the face of the trials and storms of life, and expressing our love for people, even those who hurt us and try to run us over. I have experienced a great deal of this lately myself, and God is trying to get through to me to stay focused on what is important, loving and expressing that love, not responding to or being sidetracked by the cruel and hateful things people are doing around me and to me.

As in the dream, He wants me to feel compassion for them instead of defending myself or retaliating. He wants this of all His children. And His Bride's first priority must be expressing her love for her Groom. In that focus on her love for Him, fear and panic and anger and retaliation will disappear. Self protection will not be important, and love, compassion, and gentleness for people, even those that hurt us, will arise and shine in and through us. The world will truly know we are His because of our love.

"And so, to My children I say, Love! Love as if there is no tomorrow. Love with a passion and a focus that is all consuming. Love in the same way I have loved you, laying down your rights, your pride, your safety, and your very life. With your last ounce of strength cry out "Father , forgive them, for they know not what they do!" Keep your eyes focused on the joy set before you, and as I did, endure the cross, despise the shame, and know that you are seated with Me in the heavenlies. I see your sufferings and when you respond in love, My Father's heart wells up in Me, and I rush to strengthen you and wrap you in My love. And so I say to you, Love. And again, Love! And one more time, Love!" =====

Dear Paula,

This is a dream I had on March 8, 2000. The only thing I can relate it to is the fact that I am a spiritual warfare intercessor and possibly the Lord is saying that it is a warning for the Church to focus intercession on the Middle East. What do you think?

DREAM: The most significant part about this scene, seemed to be about the fighter jet that I had learned to fly. My husband, who had returned, after being gone for a very long time, seemed jealous. He said he was leaving me. I didn't seem too upset at this news, because I knew I would be able to take care of my two children, because I could work as a fighter pilot. I was glad that I had taken the training and learned how to fly what was acclaimed to be the most powerful fighter jet ever built. There was some discussion about my having fought in a recent war in the Middle East.

In the next scene, a discussion took place between some other people and me about the possibility of a nuclear attack coming from Saudi Arabia. I said, "Surely not Saudi Arabia? They are an Ally." Someone else thought that it was a country that was too far away to reach us with any missiles. Then, I found myself in an underground tunnel with my two children. We had taken shelter there when the nuclear explosion occurred in Saudi Arabia. Even though it was very far away, I could see, while in the tunnel, the mushroom cloud rise in the sky and then I could see the shock waves, as they moved toward us. I was amazed and baffled at how fast they traveled and how far they reached. I knew there was nothing we could do except pray and trust God to protect us.

COMMENT BY PAULA

This is one of those dreams where we need to discern whether it has a natural or spiritual application. Mostly, our dreams have spiritual applications because the Lord is more concerned about things that are eternal than the things that are temporal. It does help when we are able to grasp from other dreams what the Spirit is saying to the churches at certain times. A few recent dreams have been about high tech air planes that travel very fast. This appears to be a language for the end time apostolic/prophetic ministry that is being raised up presently. The fact that you learned to fly one means that the ministry you represent (prophetic intercession) is very much part of this end time ministry. The end time ministry is going to be fueled by none other than God's resurrection power! (the most powerful fighter jet ever built)

Your jealous husband speaks of the "old church order" and his departure from you speaks of the separation of the old from the new end time apostolic/prophetic Church order. (Just as well the dream is not literal!) Your two children could portray the apostolic and prophetic anointing and ministries that God has birthed into the Church (you and all believers) in recent time.

The threat of nuclear attack from Saudi Arabia (supposed to be an ally) is most likely warning of a major attack upon God's end time apostolic/prophetic ministry from old order Christendom just as the Jews attacked Jesus who was one of their own.

John 1:11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

John 1:12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

John 1:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Clearly the dream is saying that it is the old order itself which is going to be obliterated by a major judgment of God (nuclear explosion in Saudi Arabia itself).

THIS PLANE WAS THE FIRST OF ITS KIND. IT'S SPEED WOULD BE FASTER THAN LIGHT and it's landing and taking off was like that of a helicopter or Harrier vertical take off. The interior of this place was furnished like that of the United State President's plane. Dream by Lavinia Taylor on 10th March, 2000 for your interpretation. (received about the same time as Glenda's dream above - hint!)

From: Lavinia Taylor <daystar@uq.net.au>

My husband Peter and I were in this plane. This plane was the first of its kind. It's speed would be faster than light and it's landing and taking off was like that of a helicopter or Harrier vertical take off. The interior of this place was furnished like that of the United State President's plane.

As we were about to take off news came that the plane had been sabotaged with a bomb. But everyone on the plane including the pilot was not panicking and neither were they concerned. I knew that what ever happened, it wouldn't matter because my life was in the Lord's hands.

The plane didn't use a runway to take off, it was actually taking off from in the middle of a cleared field. This plane would fly high like a space shuttle, outside the earth's atmosphere.

THE ROCKET SPEAKS OF GOD'S END TIME APOSTOLIC/PROPHETIC MINISTRY. THE ROCKET BEING MADE OUT OF DOUGH (BREAD) is speaking of this end time ministry moving into heavenly places in the Word of the Lord. Following the step by step instructions to complete the door implies progressive circumcision of the heart through the application of the ministry of the Cross as the door to ministry in and from heavenly places. Dream and interpretation by Pam Watson on 22nd Feb. 2000.

Have you ever heard of a space rocket being formed out of dough/pastry?? Unusual dream from this morning.

CIRCUMSTANCE: Before I went to sleep I remembered and dwelt on the experience I had a few years ago. Where after reading the account of Isaiah being caught up to heaven I had felt overcome with sleep. At this point an angel of the Lord had carried me in space towards heaven where I was shown a band of interference in space. The angel then asked me if I trusted him before turning around and bringing me back to earth.

Dream. I was talking to my child (not a natural child) who was standing in a space rocket. The rocket was made out of 3 (I think) layers of dough/ pastry. My child was going to fly the rocket into space. I had doubts in my heart about this but I became aware of her determination to succeed.

The rocket was perfectly formed except for the door which was not made as yet. My child then gave me instructions as to what I had to do to make the door. I followed her instructions perfectly, as I cut the dough into thin strips with silver sizzlers and added the pieces together to fit the exact shape that the door must follow. When I got to the final edge of the door I had to cut a very thick layer of dough away. Once I had done this the door fitted perfectly and the space rocket was complete.

My child/ rocket then moved out of the gate of the property towards the road where it could take off into space.

INTERPRETATION BY PAM Seems to be a follow on of the experience of being taken to heaven whereby heart impurities (interferences) had stopped me from being able to enter heaven. The rocket speaks of God's end time apostolic/prophetic ministry. The rocket being made out of dough (bread) is speaking of this end time ministry moving into heavenly places in the Word of the Lord.

John 6:32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

John 6:33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

John 6:34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

John 6:35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

Following the step by step instructions to complete the door implies progressive circumcision of the heart through the application of the ministry of the Cross as the door to ministry in and from heavenly places.

Don't Walk, RUN

Mark Kaphaem

Last week I sent out a note where I talked about seeing a stop and go light flashing "don't walk" <http://www.rivermail.org/1866.html> while I was in prayer. Please forgive me, I believe I really missed it with that post. Please allow me to share what I believe the Lord was speaking to me.

First of all, I believe the Lord was speaking to me about the time we are in. I use to have a saying that I was reminded of with the picture of this stop and go light. "When the light turns to don't walk, that means run". When the light turns from walk to don't walk it flashes to warn you that your time is running out. Soon it will stop flashing and the light will change to red and you will be in traffic.

The Lord is saying that now is the time to do the "Cross Walk". He has been holding back the traffic but soon the light is going change. It is time to move those who are luke warm to either hot or cold. Do not wait thinking that you will be able to cross when the traffic gets heavy. Now is the time to do the Cross Walk.

I woke up the morning I heard this word to find the power was out. It was still dark out. I heard the Lord say "wake up and find out what time it is". It was six o'clock. Now is the hour of man. Look around you, look at the signs and know the season.

Also this same morning the Lord gave me a song. The words are again as follows:

THE LORD IS HOLY, Come before His Throne
The apostles bow, so low to touch the ground
The prophets dance, as they hear His song
The shepherds come, their heart in hand and all the children sing

Mark us Lord for we are yours
Seal our hearts, for we are yours
Mark us Lord for we are yours
Seal our hearts, for we are yours

The time is now for the body to come before the Throne of Christ and surrender headship of the body to Him.

Apostles, bow down before the Lord and touch the Earth with His power. Do not go to the body, reach out to the world and the body will follow you. Do not spend your time trying to take your place in the body, lead and the body will follow you to it's place.

As you lead the prophets and the shepherds will be free to fulfill the roles the Lord has given them.

The time has come to fill our lamps. For the virgin to come forth in white before the Lord and give herself to the Lord alone. To come out and be separated on to the Lord. (As I was writing this post a friend called with the message of the arrival of their new baby girl. They named her Ya'el Shanah, meaning "Now Is The Time To Go Up To The LORD")!

Please keep me in your prayers,

God Bless you all,

Mark Kaphaem

BTW - A mp3 file of this song can be downloaded from my website. This is not a professional recording. I just wanted to share it with you.

May the Mercy Seat of Christ become our dwelling place. Then we will begin to see beyond the veil what the Father has prepared for those who love Him and follow after His ways.

DWELLING IN THE DESERT

February 3, 2000

A few weeks ago I shared some thoughts under the title “Appointment in the Desert.” They had to do with God taking us into a place of solitude where we can develop attributes for the closing events of earth’s history. Also, this experience will equip us to play our chosen role in those events. It might be helpful to review the previous writing. If you are doing desert time, consider these additional thoughts.

I want to talk about dwelling in this desert place. Time won’t permit us to tarry there for forty years like Moses, but then our future assignment won’t be as weighty as was his. In spite of our understanding that God deliberately has taken us to a quiet place, we’re apt to find that abiding there is difficult. At least at first.

Of course we don’t have to stay; we still have the power of choice. Moses didn’t have to remain in Midian, but he chose to do so. When God sets up a divine appointment it’s unwise to refuse to meet, or to leave early.

THE BEAUTY OF THE DESERT

Years ago I remember being appalled, even confused, when each year my father chose to travel from South Dakota to Arizona just to spend his vacation in the desert. Later I myself settled in the Southwest, and came to understand the beauty of the wilderness—for those who tarry long enough to sense it. I even found Death Valley to be a strangely beautiful place.

Consider the magnitude of change from the lavish courts of mighty Egypt to the stark quiet of the desert. At first the proud young prince of Egypt must have been highly agitated, in a hurry to get back to what was “really important.” But he stuck it out. Little by little the soothing stillness of the desert won him over, and eventually he settled willingly into the humble role of a shepherd. I believe he came to love his stress-free existence, and in the end God had to forcefully pry him loose from his place of exile.

After forty years of desert dwelling, the Moses that exited bore little resemblance to the one who fled there for his life. Since God sets up desert appointments, what is it that he offers those who respond? The benefits are many; here are just a few possibilities.

- Ø Soothing silence
 - Lack of distraction
 - Opportunity to focus
 - Time for self evaluation
 - Developing humility
 - Release from pressure
 - The luxury of being a “nobody”
 - Heightened perception
 - Character development
 - Intimacy with God
 - Learning obedience
 - A new sense of God’s majesty
 - A higher anointing
 - A new ministry potential
 - Preparation for spiritual warfare

With so much to gain, can we afford to miss the appointment? Or to leave before the process is complete? Please note it was God’s timing that determined when Moses should leave his place of solitude. It was God that lit up the bush. If we leave before the process is finished, we will then labor in our own finite strength without his full anointing Properly understood, our desert appointment is not a time of delay or stagnation, but a period of unprecedented spiritual growth. The spiritual desert isn’t a lonely place; it’s here that God will be closer to us than ever before. If you’ve not yet gone to the desert, go. If you’re there, stay. Until God says its time to depart. When you realize the planned blessing, then you’ll leave out of duty rather than desire.

Have you considered how often Moses must have looked back with longing for the “good old days” of desert dwelling? Prior to his lonely sojourn in Midian he was caught up in the hectic life of the palace in Egypt. After Midian he daily suffered perpetual grumbling and rebellion from some two million people. Ah, those wonderful days alone with Jethro’s flocks.

There will be those who try to entice you out of the wilderness prematurely. They’ll present many plausible reasons why you need to get actively involved in this or that obviously good cause. You may even begin to feel guilty that you’re not carrying your share of responsibility, but let God determine that. Like me, you’ve often taken your marching orders from other pilgrims, or set off on your own volition. In the long run such endeavors, at least in God’s sight, are not productive. We need to imitate our Lord in this regard.

Jesus replied, “I assure you, the Son can do nothing by himself. He does only what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does.

John 5:19.

THE BURNING BUSH

Moses’ desert experience culminated when he came upon a mysterious burning bush. One day Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he went deep into the wilderness near Sinai, the mountain of God. Suddenly, the angel of the LORD appeared to him as a blazing fire in a bush. Moses was amazed because the bush was engulfed in flames, but it didn’t burn up. “Amazing!” Moses said to himself. “Why isn’t that bush burning up? I must go over to see this.” Ex. 3:1-3

I think it may be significant that on this particular day Moses went “deep” into the wilderness. The spiritual implication seems to be that while the desert had brought Moses closer and closer to his God, on this day the relationship became particularly intimate. In the desert we have time we never could find in the busyness of life, time to know God as we’ve never known him before. Once you enjoy this wonderful option, you’ll learn to love the desert. The hurts it took to bring you there will be forgotten.

“Suddenly” the angel appeared in the burning bush. After decades of seeming inactivity, God’s hour struck. Our desert task is not to push the envelope, or guess when God is going to call us out, but merely to bask in his presence while the opportunity is ours. He hasn’t forgotten where we are.

COMING OUT OF THE DESERT

Remember that the desert experience isn’t merely a time of idleness, but one of preparation. If you’ve learned your lesson well, your self-confidence will have been shattered. Before the wilderness experience you could handle most anything in your own strength, or so it seemed. Now, you may feel totally inadequate even in the strength of the Lord. Good. Now God can do with you as he wishes.

While in the desert you learned to be a dove, but now God is calling together his eagles.

O Israel, how can you say the LORD does not see your troubles? How can you say God refuses to hear your case? Have you never heard or understood? Don’t you know that the LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of all the earth? He never grows faint or weary. No one can measure the depths of his understanding. He gives power to those who are tired and worn out; he offers strength to the weak. Even youths will become exhausted, and young men will give up. But those who wait on the LORD will find new strength. They will fly high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint. Is. 40:27-31.

It’s vital to note that those who rise high on wings like eagles will be those who have “waited” on the Lord. The wilderness experience is time well spent. In fact, without such intimacy we can never soar to the heights God has in mind.

While we must always have the heart of a dove, we must attain the spirit of an eagle. This fierce bird is a raptor, a bird of war. We are entering the final phase of world history. Christ our Commander is mounting the white steed of Revelation, and the forces of heaven are marshaling for the last great battle. Soon his troops on earth will join ranks. Joel was given a vision of that mighty army.

Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem! Sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let everyone tremble in fear because the day of the LORD is upon us. It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of thick clouds and deep blackness. Suddenly, like dawn spreading across the mountains, a mighty army appears! How great and powerful they are! The likes of them have not been seen before and never will be seen again.

Fire burns in front of them and follows them in every direction! Ahead of them the land lies as fair as the Garden of Eden in all its beauty. Behind them is nothing but desolation; not one thing escapes . . . Look at them as they leap along the mountaintops! Listen to the noise they make—like the rumbling of chariots, like the roar of a fire sweeping across a field, or like a mighty army moving into battle.

Fear grips all the people; every face grows pale with fright. The attackers march like warriors and scale city walls like trained soldiers. Straight forward they march, never breaking rank. They never jostle each other; each moves in exactly the right place. They lunge through the gaps, and no weapon can stop them . . .

The earth quakes as they advance, and the heavens tremble. The sun and moon grow dark, and the stars no longer shine. The LORD leads them with a shout! This is his mighty army, and they follow his orders. The day of the LORD is an awesome, terrible thing. Who can endure it? Joel 2:1-11.

Who can endure it? Only the righteous. The devil and his host are doomed.

ATTENTION!

Have you noticed that with powerful media permeating every corner of our society it's exceedingly difficult to get anyone's attention? As usual, God has a plan.

When the LORD saw that he had caught Moses' attention, God called to him from the bush, "Moses! Moses!" Ex. 3:4.

Why the burning bush? Because God likes to do magic? God set the bush on fire because he wanted Moses' undivided attention. It worked then and it will work again. Before he rings down the final curtain, a just God must command everyone's attention. The final warning must be clear enough for considered decisions.

Only a few weeks ago millions of people were holding their breath in fear or anticipation. However, when the ball dropped in Times Square and nothing dramatic had taken place, everyone exhaled. Now we are in a lull, but it is the proverbial lull before the storm. "Suddenly" the angel of the Lord will appear once again, and this time he will ignite not a single bush, but the whole world.

Cherish the peace of the desert, but be ready for change.

Do You Desire My Glory?

Wendy Twine

Do you desire my glory? Do you desire for me to fill your temple, with my train of glory? Do you desire for my glory to be so heavy and thick (like a fog) that you could not see anything but my glory? Then you must do it my way if you want my glory.

I seek out those who have emptied themselves of their own desires, their own will, their own agenda. And instead, have sought me and worshiped me in spirit and in truth (John 4:23-24).

These are the ones who have poured out themselves to me, and in replace of them pouring out, I will pour back in (John 3:30).

Look at Mary who was willing to break her bottle of perfume to worship me. She came with a humble spirit and was willing to give all for me. For you know the cost (the sacrifice) that she was willing to give. Look at how she unveiled her self or disrobed herself to use her hair to wipe my feet (John 12:3).

What are you willing to unveil or sacrifice for my glory? For those who are willing to sacrifice greatly and unveil or disrobe themselves for me, I will exchange their glory for mine.

What is my glory? My glory is power that conquered death and hell. My glory is beauty for I'm able to make you white as snow. You will no longer recognize those areas in your life that where grotesque. For just as snow covers land that is polluted with trash and you can no longer see the ugliness of it anymore, so does my glory cover your humanness and weaknesses (II Corinthians 12:9). My glory is honor. For those who come humbly before me and worship me and esteem me, I will exalt them (Matthew 23:12).

For those who want my glory they must be willing to sacrifice all as Mary did. And willing to become transparent by disrobing or unveiling yourselves before me and man.

David at Ziklag

September 26, 2000

Ziklag was the last outpost in Judah. It was overrun by the Philistines and under the control of Achish, King of Gath. In Strong's "Ziklag" is described as being of uncertain derivation with no known meaning. IN OTHER WORDS, IT WAS A NO WHERE, NO NAME PLACE THAT NOBODY ELSE WANTED! But for David, it became a base of operation and preparation. Here his family and army lived and prospered and their reputation grew. Enemies were defeated and David's fame spread.

While David and the men were away offering their services to the Philistines, the enemy came and carried away the women children and spoils. At the same time Saul was surrounded by the Philistines (poor David, even the Philistines didn't want his help). Here the sharp contrast between David and Saul was demonstrated. Saul sought help from the medium at Endor for wisdom in the coming battle. David sought the Lord concerning his predicament. David heard from God....SAUL HEARD FROM THE DEAD! David had everything restored, Saul lost it all--including his life.

Ziklag was David's last place of being ostracized before being recognized as the anointed King that he was. It was the launching pad to his destiny. A nowhere, no name place on the fringe. Ziklag.

Many of you have "been there, done that". You could name the place you are now Ziklag. The good news is, the time of Saul is coming to an end in the Church of Jesus Christ. The day of the ruler chosen by the will of the people because he fits the role and who operates in a controlling, manipulative, man-pleasing spirit is over. The time for David's army has arrived! Those who have an understanding of the times, who have been tested in battle, who have not raised their sword against their brothers--THE ANOINTED OF GOD are coming forth. (if you want to find them...look in the "Ziklags"...the nowhere, no name, out of the way places where victory is manifesting!)

Eagles And Vultures

Marcus Simpson

Let every voice give praise, honor and glory to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ who was, is and is to come. Praise the One who has redeemed His people from destruction and saved His children from the enemy. Praise the conquering King of Kings who is a mighty fortress and fights for His people in times of distress. Praise the One who is the lifter of our heads, and leads us into green pastures and provides our needs according to His riches in glory. Praise the One who became a substitute for us and took our weaknesses and infirmities and put His strength, His righteousness, His glory in us because of His unfailing love. Praise the One who is raising up His people for a great revival that the world has never seen, where multitudes will come to know Him and be saved. Praise the Lord of Lords who performs great signs, wonders and miracles through His obedient children that worship and praise His Holy name. Praise the name of the Lord, whose people dwell in unity, loving kindness, peace, joy and strength. Let nothing separate us from the love of God. Let us soar like eagles above the wind and declare boldly the One who is able to save souls from eternal destruction – Jesus Christ.

Woe to those who also soar like eagles, but have taken the form of vultures waiting for a kill. You circle the earth like winged demons eagerly awaiting sudden destruction and calamity to befall mankind. The vultures thirst for stock market crashes, war, disease and whatever event that would steal, kill and destroy precious man from the earth while Jesus longs for mankind's redemption not willing that anyone would perish, but that all would come to know Him. The bloodthirsty vultures love to circle a kill to rip the flesh off of any beast that has been wounded and killed, and gather in great flocks where the stench and death are present. They speak of destruction, not Jesus, they eagerly warn us about calamity instead of encouraging us about revival. They vomit up the regurgitated flesh of confusion, division, strife and contention only to swallow it again. The heads of the vultures are too focused on the flesh of the carcass to even see the Lion of the Tribe of Judah quickly approaching

The Day of the Lord is surely coming, but not before the glorious church experiences maturity, revival, great growth, miracles, signs and wonders and finally the rapture. We are not the children of darkness, but children of the light that know our time, our place, our season and our calling. This is truly harvest time for the body of Christ, a time of great expectation and great proclamation of what our Lord and Savior has done for us! Preach the Good News – Jesus Christ, Savior of the world. Selah

Economics And War Plans

My daughter, I lived in grinding poverty. Yet I did not let that, in any way, deter me from the achievement of my goals. You can not begin to imagine the depths of poverty the world will soon fall into. The depth of poverty in peoples' spirits will soon be equaled by the poverty in their pocketbooks. *

All the great degrees in economics and business will become useless. Those who know how to grow food and "fix things" will be looked at much differently than the lowly places they now assume.

As the waves crash on the shore, but leave no mark, soon the days of great bounty will be nothing but a memory fading and being washed away, as the tide of history changes. The war drums are sounding as nations secretly assemble themselves in unholy alliances. Behind the scenes, under the carpet, behind closed doors, the plans are being made.

Even now plans are being made to lay the lives of millions on the altars of death in order to increase the gain to a small few.

All of it will be played out to the very last note and the very last period. Hence, your thinking must be clear and calm, set apart from the panic and desperation. These will ensue when the stock market and your economy collapse.

Many signs have already been given. Many more are in place now. MY PLAN will prevail, but without me, you will be in CHAOS. You will run hither and thither, but find nothing, accomplish nothing. Even your hysterics will accomplish nothing. You will be as desperate when you finish as when you started. The guns will roll. The seas will roar. The skies will light up—but not with fireworks, but with real fire.

YOU MUST BE HIDDEN IN ME IN THAT DAY. IT IS NOT FAR OFF. IT IS SOON.

Your Jesus

Rev. 6:6-8 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four animals say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see that you do not damage the oil and the wine.*

And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth animal saying, Come and see. And I beheld a green [pale] horse; and the name of him who sat on him was Death and Sheol followed after him. And power was given him over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with death and with the wild beasts of the earth.

A Warning On The Us Economy

Judy Curmi

3-15-00

I am in control. I have always been in control and I will be in control forever. Nothing is outside of my jurisdiction. There is no place in the universe where I do not rule and reign.

Despite the many claims of man, his power is infinitesimal. Men boast loudly and make many claims. They love to give themselves credit and build up their own self-importance. It is all so vain! It is so useless! Man can build on nothing except that which I, the great I AM, have already created.

Boastful claims and vanity will be utterly useless when I bring things down. They will collapse just as everything else collapses around you.

Can you change the weather? Can you create water out of nothing? Can you "turn the heat of the sun" up or down? Can you change the course of a comet? When everything fails, what will you do then? Can you materialize food to feed 5000 people or win a battle with only a handful of men?

I am shaking harder and harder. I will shake until your teeth rattle and chatter together. What will you do then: pretend you are holding onto a pole on a revolving carousal?

As the horses on carousal are pretty and showy, but are only pretend, so all the heat and steam in your US economy has only been pretend.

As soon as the switch is turned off, the carousal stops. Where will your beautiful horse take you then? When I turn off the switch on your economy, it will STOP as dead as the carousal. Again, what will you do then? Ride your horse off into the sunset? What will you do when the beloved bull you worship vaporizes and you are left holding nothing but ashes?

Get ready! Hold on TIGHT! Things will unravel and fall apart faster than you could ever imagine and sooner than you think.

Right now your country is playing a pea and shell game. But when I lift up all the shells simultaneously, you will discover there never was a pea at all, only a BELIEF IN A PEA. It is all so near, and you are so unprepared. Watch and pray for the hour is at hand. If it is not of ME, it will not be standing when I am done.

Love, The Most High God

Eagle Christians

Jim Wies

"But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint." Isa 40:31

Scripture gives us the analogy that we can have some of the characteristics of the eagle who has the ability to soar high in the sky and even to take advantage of the storms in their life to go even higher. Eagle Christians are those who know how to fly, even in the times when the winds of adversity are blowing.

Adversity = Trouble, pressure, chastening, anguish, testing or tribulation.

Adversity can be our greatest motivation for spiritual growth or our deadliest means of discouragement - the difference is in understanding of God's purposes through adversity. When the winds of adversity come, we must be able to perceive God's purposes for adversity in order to rightly respond to it. Adversity, while no one likes it, can actually be a tool in the Lord's hand to bring us to a higher place.

It is important for us to understand that God is even the Lord of the storm. Ps 29:10 states: "The LORD sat as King at the flood; Yes, the LORD sits as King forever." And Jer 23:18-19 goes on to say: "For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD, and has perceived and heard His word? Who has marked His word and heard it? Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury-- a violent whirlwind! It will fall violently on the head of the wicked."

There are various reasons that adversity comes to our lives but God wants us to be able to withstand adversity. Prov 24:10 tells us, "If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small." The following are 5 purposes for adversity and how we can "mount up with wings like eagles" and ride the winds of adversity to higher places.

Five Purposes for Adversity

1. Adversity is sometimes His way of getting our attention. i.e. motivating us to cry out to Him. Psalm 107:23-28 gives us this picture. "Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business on great waters, They see the works of the LORD, and His wonders in the deep. For He commands and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of the sea. They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths; their soul melts because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end. Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distresses.

2. Adversity is sometimes our assurance God loves us. "For whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives." ..Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it." Heb 12:6,11

3. Adversity is sometimes the evidence of spiritual warfare.

Two common errors:

a. Not recognizing adversity as spiritual warfare. Eph 6:12-13 "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

b. Thinking all adversity is spiritual warfare. Prov 28:13 "He who covers his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy."

4. Adversity is sometimes Gods way of increasing our hatred of evil, through reaping what we have sown. Gal 6:7-9 "Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart." Reaping adversity creates a high motivation to sow righteousness instead.

5. Adversity serves as the reminder of the value of the "Fear of the Lord". Prov 1:27-29 "When your terror comes like a storm, and your destruction comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you. "Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but they will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD," Prov 2:3-5 "Yes, if you cry out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding, If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures; Then you will understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God."

When we rightly respond to the trials in our life we will begin to understand God's methods of purifying and perfecting our faith as we learn to soar like an eagle upon the winds of adversity.

"In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials, that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ," 1 Pet 1:6-7

Entering God's Rest

Ching Co

February 10,2000

Beloved Children of God,

THE IMPORTANCE OF REST:

These past days, the Lord has been reminding me about the importance of rest to us. That failing to understand and observe this in our lives will be detrimental to our well-being. However, due to various pressures that God's people are facing in these days, many of us have overlooked this resulting to great harm and confusion overtaking us.

Even Jesus Himself rested often during His ministry and He also encouraged His disciples to rest. In Mark 6:30-32 we will find this story. " The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them. " Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest. So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place."

WHAT IS THE REST OF GOD

Understanding and experiencing God's rest are two different things. Many of us try to rest and do various activities which we construed as resting, but at times we still come out not rested. Our physical body maybe resting, but our mind and spirit are fretting.

True rest in God does not depend on outward circumstances. It is being able to enter into the inner sanctuary of the most High despites the battles and problems that we faced and finding refreshment in Him. This will not be automatic, it will need an abundance of God's grace and also discipline from our part. We must learn to shut out all other voices shouting for our attention during these times.

The coming days will be turbulent days. The day of the Lord will be an exciting time to be living in. It will be full of activities both from God and from the enemy. It is important that God's people learn to access this special provision of the Father. Unless we learn how to rest in God, we will not stand with Him when that day comes.

PERSONAL TESTIMONY

I don't normally like to share personal testimony in public post, but somehow the Lord has impressed upon my heart to share about these particular events for it will help make understanding about God's rest easier to those to whom this message is intended.

Last 1997, what I thought was an ordinary sore in my tongue turned out to be cancerous. In God's perfect timing, we discovered and removed it before it can spread further. The doctor cut away a portion of my tongue and after two weeks of recuperation. He send me to another city to undergo radiation treatment. God has given us a prophetic word in that area before this happened so when all this was happening to me, I was very strong spiritually. The peace of God was much evident and even the joy of the Lord. Many times I will be surprised at the laughter that comes out from within me in the midst of the pain.

So I really felt very strong throughout this whole period. Towards the middle of the radiation treatment, all the physical symptoms began to appear. Destruction of the taste buds, nausea, no saliva, difficulty of swallowing, gasping for breath, pain. And all these began to take its toll on me physically. But I remained strong and high spirited during the whole ordeal. Daily I was confessing to myself, "I can do this. I can take it. I am a child of God. He is with me." However as the days progress the more difficult the physical discomfort becomes.

One day it finally dawned on me that something is very wrong. So instead of the usual positive confession coming out from my mouth- I found myself crying out to God. " Lord, I cannot do it anymore. Unless you come and take over." Then the most amazing realization dawned upon me which comes through a vision.

God showed me that in the past weeks of my ordeal. I was holding on tightly to God. But at this last stage, I let go of my hand and instead of me holding on to God, I found that He is holding my hands. He carried me in His arms. Finally, I have understood what resting in God meant. Not only did I understand it, but I was experiencing it for the first time in the midst of the worst physical circumstances. A well known preacher once described this as resting faith.

For the rest of the treatment time, I entered it from another arena. I was no longer trying but I was totally resting in Him. The Father carried me through day by day and it was the most glorious time of rest that I've ever had. I was not doing anything but He was doing everything for me.

Finally, I was able to understand fully and appreciate better the meaning of these words spoken by our predecessors:

Like Job I cry out to God and mean it from my heart "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I will depart. The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; may the name of the Lord be praised. Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him.....indeed, this will turn out for my deliverance. . . ." Job 1:21, 13:15-16

Like Shadrach, Meshack and Abednego I was able to speak these words back unto the face of my tormentor who was trying to cause me to doubt Father's love for me and to distrust His promises -" O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and he will rescue us from your hand, O king. But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up." Daniel 3:16-18

Like Habakkuk my heart shouts these words "Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Savior. The Sovereign Lord is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, he enables me to go on the heights." Habakkuk 3:17-19

The days and months of my recovery were the most painful moments physically but my spirit was getting stronger day by day. The more I let go, the more rested I became inwardly. I don't have the word to fully explain what was taking place inside of me. But it was real and something beautiful was happening inside my soul. In the midst of my desolation. My soul was resting and it was being refreshed by the Father Himself. Oh what a glorious time that has been.

GOD'S MESSAGE

My people, do not be distracted by the many things taking place in your midst. I am God and I am who I say I am. No one can stand before me. You are my child, and I love you beyond words. Come and give everything to me. Give me your pain and I'll turn it into joy. Give me your dryness and it will be turned into a river. Give me your failures and I will turn it into gold. Give me your fear and I will replace it with my strength. Give me your weary body and I will refresh your soul. Come and do not hold back anymore. I longed to remove the yoke that is upon your shoulder. I desire to take the burden from you. Come and take your rest in me.

MY PRAYER

Father, draw us near by your Spirit. Remove all hindrances that is preventing us from experiencing the fullness of your rest. We come to you now and we enter your rest once more. Thank you for being such a wonderful Father to us.

ROMANS 8: 28 -35,37-38

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified; he also glorified.

What then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all - how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring a charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

BLESSED BE THE NAME OF THE LORD. CHILDREN OF THE MOST HIGH. COME AND LET US ENTER INTO THE REST OF THE FATHER FOR HE IS THERE WAITING FOR US WITH OPEN ARMS.

In His service,

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite, It is only on rare occasions that the residents of the Shomron (Samaria), and others, are allowed to traverse on foot through its hills, ravines and plateaus. Driving on its roads, from one destination to another, is a daily occurrence, but just walking cross country, familiarizing oneself with the terrain, enjoying the spacious views, climbing the hills, taking in the fragrances and discovering hidden treasures at one's leisure, these luxuries are not affordable to those of us who do not happen to be Palestinian Arabs. Most of the country side has already been transferred to the P. A's (the Palestinian Authority) civil control. It appears to be not safe to venture these parts on one's own (or at least this is the impression most are under). However, every now and then one of the local authorities of any Jewish settlement will take it upon itself to organize a special walking tour in a given area. After all the arrangements are undertaken, the different authorities notified, and the Army taking its positions of protecting the would-be marchers, they are set... Now, they - we - can safely peek into our own backyards and find out what is really there!

One such occasion occurred this past Sunday, the 18th day of Aviv (Nissan). If you remember, that is the day that the Tanach enjoins for the waving of the first of the barley harvest before YHVH (the first day after the weekly, "natural", Shabbat which occurs during the week of the Feast of Matzot, Unleavened Bread). It is the day on which Messiah became the first wave offering "so that we may be accepted" (Lev. 23:11). The settlement of Ma'aleh Shomron (the Ascent of Shomron), had arranged for a walking tour along the riverbed of Kanah, which is one of the tributaries of the Yarkon River. This riverbed (which gets filled with water only during the rainy season) was also the designated border between the tribes of Menashe to the north, and Ephraim to the south (ref. Joshua 16:8; 17:9; 19:28).

The first part of the walk was in the ravine itself (and sometimes next to it), while the last part of the trail took us up to a hilltop, which was a natural lookout, allowing an expansive view of the seam line of the Ephraim-Menashe territory. Some spring flowers were still evident; yellow blossoms on bushes along the way lavished us unabashedly with their sweet perfume. Here and there we saw fields, green with growing wheat, which when examined closely often proved to be tares. We were also welcomed by olive trees, as well as by quite a few delightful shady and old Carob trees. Everything about us was (still) green, and from a distance the carpet covering the hills looked very velvety and inviting.

As we were making our way on the riverbed itself, cautiously putting one foot in front of the other so as not to stumble, we suddenly noticed a few primitive stone buildings. "Oh, deserted watchtowers", we thought. But as the path wound, revealing a few more of the same type of constructions, we realized that we were walking alongside a very rustic, yet never-the-less permanently lived-in Beduin village, contrary to the make shift encampments and more nomadic life style which characterizes these people. Right there, in the middle of 'nowhere', hidden in the heart of the countryside (a sight rather rare in urbane and crowded Israel), and without access roads, these people settled the land, planting fields and orchards, growing chickens (which made themselves known), with only donkeys as a means of transportation, should the need even arise to leave this beautiful haven. The houses, if these tiny structures with hardly an opening, indeed deserve such a respectable title, were constructed, it seemed, just about any place their owners felt like 'parking' them on. The cultivated landmass seemed immense. One could not help but admire these folks' ambitious efforts in light of their very limited means. The natural beauty of the small valley, with a knoll of a hill rising in the middle of it, blended so well with the surrounding agricultural efforts. Even the little huts did not interfere with the environment, and were as much as just another pile of indigenous rocks. For fences, around their fields, these farmers very cleverly made use of a spiky bush. Walking in their territory we encountered no hostility. In fact, tiny voices were following us with the cry of, "Shalom, Shalom". I must admit, envy welled up within me. To be so free as to abandon oneself almost recklessly upon the land, in an unmapped no-name settlement, in a country where every inch of land is fought over and so tightly divvied out, is the privilege of very few indeed. Unbeknown to themselves, they are a (mercifully) not much-frequented and known-about showcase, demonstrating the Patriarchs' lives and Heaven-bestowed blessings upon the humble.

By contrast, the Jewish settlements towered above (at some distance), fortress fashion, the homes broken into the hills exposing and scarring them, leaving chalk-white scabs in areas which had previously been covered by shrubbery. This sight made its own unmistakable statement.

Posted along the way were guides, whose job was to relate the history of the area, as well as to inform us of its wild life. In one spot, a Jewish burial cave, dating to the First Temple Period, was pointed to us. On another, the guide told us of the one plant that was very noticeable on these hills, the scrub oak. It is but a faint reminder of its "brother", the mighty oak tree, which used to cover these hills to such an extent that the Ephraimites had to clear the land of its forests (Jos. 17:15,18). However, now the land bears testimony to the truth of prophecy. Here is what the prophet Ezekiel had to say about trees and forests in the land:

Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field; And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched (Ez.20:46-48).

It was not only the south (Negev) which was subjected to this judgment. It had spread, as it says above, "from south to the north." The agents of these flaming fires were the Romans and Ottoman Turks, respectively, who used the trees for fuel, thus systematically clearing the land. Not much different was the lot of the people of the land, as you well know. Strangely enough, the trees that the Jewish National Fund has chosen for its massive forestation projects, for the past decades (even before the era of statehood), had been the pines. Our guide told us that the pine, which is not mentioned in the Bible at all, is not only a recent comer to the land, it also has a short life span (120 years), because of quick upward growth and a short root system. Quite a lesson to be learnt there! And further, protecting itself from insects it secretes resin called "sah'raf" in Hebrew. Ironically, this "sah'raf" (which comes from the root "to burn") is also what makes this tree so susceptible to fires. And when it does go up in flames, it burns all the way, leaving no traces except ashes. By contrast, the indigenous oak, because of the "great investment" it makes into building up an extensive root system and a heavy trunk, comes back to life, even when subjected to the most arduous conditions. The land of Israel has only very few remaining oaks, in spite of this, simply as a testimony to the truth and thoroughness of the Word of God. But there is also a prophecy of hope for the "oaks of righteousness": "...they might be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified" (Is. 61:3).

How are the oaks of righteousness to come back to life and to become the planting of the Lord? This is where the natural oak proves to be such an accurate symbol of the people and of their destiny: "But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree [the scrub oak], and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they are sent forth; so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof" (Is. 6:13).

Oak in Hebrew is "alon". The scrub oak is "ela". Both of these stem from the root "el", which means strong, or powerful. It is also the root for the word Elohim. The might of the Elohim will yet be seen in those who are called by His name and who bear the "holy seed"! The remnant, the tenth, will prevail: YISRA'EL!

Elections & Prophetic Word

Pat Gregory

Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ:

I would like to share what God has been saying to me regarding what's taking place in these elections and what is coming. These are 2 separate posts, noted as such. Please use your discernment to distribute or not.

God bless you,

Pat

1st POST on 11/10/00

The night of the election, the Holy Spirit said to me, a battle is raging in the heavenlies over America.

As He spoke this, I was reminded of the scripture in Daniel where he had prayed, and CONTINUED TO PRAY, and then the angel of the Lord came to Daniel....Then said he unto me, fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

This is what is occurring right now in the heavenlies over America. A battle is raging for this nation.

We must continue to pray, and not only pray, but DECLARE God's word over this nation.

2nd POST 11/11/00

What we are seeing take place in this natural realm, all the confusion and deceit, attacking and threatenings, is the manifestation of what is occurring in the spirit realm.

I am reminded by the Spirit of a word I posted here last year, and it spoke of the church of Jesus Christ, and said something like, OUT OF THE MIDST OF THE CHAOS SHALL ARISE MY CHURCH.

However, before we SEE the MANIFESTATION of the church arising, there must be some changes. I am seeing, as I know many others are as well, many pieces coming together.

We keep hearing the words on the news and in the papers "THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE MUST BE HEARD." And yes, that is what our democracy is all about. However, I am reminded of the scripture in 1 Sam 15....[24] And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words: BECAUSE I FEARED THE PEOPLE, AND OBEYED THEIR VOICE.

We all know our nation has been divided, as has the church, calling good evil and evil good, being man pleasers and not God pleasers.

BUT, THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD IS COMING FORTH. God has already declared it and the battle we are seeing for rulership of our government is a PICTURE of what is occurring in the spirit realm. Again, THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD IS COMING FORTH!!!!

Christians all over this nation have been praying and interceding even prior to the elections, and SATAN'S KINGDOM HAS BEEN RENT FROM HIM over America. He shall not prevail, BUT GOD SHALL ONCE AGAIN PREVAIL IN THIS ELECTION, placing our government in the hands of a man that will hearken unto the voice of God.

Two days ago the Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, A FLOOD IS COMING, A FLOOD IS COMING. No, not an earthly flood, but a SPIRITUAL FLOOD, A FLOOD OF GOD'S GLORY, that is going to WASH OVER THIS NATION, WASH OVER THE CHURCH.

I posted months back a vision the Lord showed me of a large map, and a glowing white forceful RIVER "BURST" onto the map, flooding every street, every roadway, and this river was THE GLORY OF GOD, and it OVERTOOK everything in it's path, either propelling people forward, or to some it was to their demise.

What is this saying? As this next move of God is RELEASED, there is great glory coming forth, great manifestations of the Spirit, multitudes of souls saved, miracles like we've never witnessed before. However, we are also going to see the judgment of God, but with that, and God says, with that, His mercy shall be extended once again. GREAT CHANGE IS COMING!

A FLOOD IS COMING, A FLOOD IS COMING, AND THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD IS COMING FORTH.....AND IN THE MIDST OF THE CHAOS AND EVIL, THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST SHALL ARISE!

Oh Prophets of God, DECLARE GOD'S RULE, DECLARE GOD'S WORD, DECLARE, DECLARE, DECLARE and so shall it be established.

Eagles and Lions

Priscilla Van Sutphin

When the eagle is ready to fly, the parent pushes him off the ledge of the cliff, trees, or wherever the nest is, it is time to strengthen his wings for flight.

This is where many of you who have been hidden are, you have been nourished, and Being strengthened in Me, but it is now time to stretch forth your wings and fly.

It is not just for soaring.

Soaring with Me is for strengthening, but then, once strengthened, It is time to learn to hunt, to take the prey.

At first the young eagle goes for the small prey, the mice, the rodents, the fish, but as He matures in his skills, he can easily take on bigger prey.

The Lamb take the prey, my word says, that is YOU my young eagles, it is time to try Your skills, and like the parent who stays by their young, I will be with you and Teach you as you keep your heart open to learn from Me, and I will assure you the Victory..

Some eagles are very good at eliminating the snakes of the fields, so it is with you, many Of you have been equipped to take on the serpent of the fields of My pastures and of the World. Yes, there are serpents in my sanctuaries, and the Gideon's will step forth now And take down the idols in the Father's house..

Know that if I give you a mission, .that I AM is with you to carry it out!

Listen for the sound of the Master Eagle, alerting you to the prey.

Eagles do not go to scare off the prey, although many are routed by the sound of his cry.

They go to destroy the prey! It is food for them. So it will be with you, the more you rout, the stronger you will feel, for I AM at your side.

Do not be afraid of the face of the enemy my sons and daughters, they are just enraged for They know there is a great battle ahead, and the enemy has gotten confident, just as he Did when they nailed me to the cross, thinking he had won a victory, but it will be his Downfall as pride comes before a fall, do not be dismayed at all the witchcraft and deception. I am here with you, wherever you go at My instruction, I AM with you, and will be until the end Of time, so faint not, do not be discouraged in your hearts, the time for you to shine has come

Is. 60, .Arise and shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord is upon you!

Many of you who are my warriors, the Lion of Judah, has arisen from rest and is actively at work In your life, and My sons will come roaring from the west.

And you will ROAR, and at the sound of His ROAR through you, many will be set free. In the jungle, the ROAR of the lion, sets many to flight, birds, monkeys, and other prey scatter, When they know the lion is on the prowl.

The old enemy, goes about seeking whom he may destroy, but is time for the Lion of Judah to roar, and when he comes out of His lair, WHO CAN WITHSTAND HIM?

AND WITH HIM COMES HIS PRIDE, HIS FEMALES WHO ARE SKILLED IN HUNTING.

It says in Isaiah, and seven women will encompass a man, this is the meaning, A LION and his pride, devouring the prey. The fullness of Almighty God in the women, coming Forth to hunt down the prey.

There are many prey who will be defeated, not expecting what is coming forth through the purity Of worship and prayer in the women.

Just like a lioness rises up out of the bush to attack a young gazelle, will the women come forth into The fullness of what I have set them to do.

Arise and shine, .Arise and shine for Your Light has come , and the GLORY OF THE LORD will be Seen upon you,

Embrace The Lamb

Becky McLendon

Back in August of 1993 I had a very vivid dream. One that has stayed with me clearly all this time.

It was raining and flooding outside. The streets were hip deep in water and the floods were getting greater. I went into a grocery store and found in one aisle a tiny lamb laying there. I immediately went to the lamb; and gathered him in my arms...I noticed he had been sheared. This was odd, since it was very cold outside. He shivered. He was also covered in lumps and bruises all over his body. I stroked him and held him close. Other people gathered around me and murmured:

"What's a lamb doing in here?"

"How can you STAND to touch him, he looks sick?"

"Well I sure don't want to touch him."

"Leave him alone ...he is going to die anyway."

"What are you going to do with a beat up dying lamb, anyway?"

I replied to them, "This was once a beautiful lamb, perfect. He is only half grown.

I examined his skull. It was so beautiful and delicate, I could see blood vessels trying to pump life into his body. I could see his brown eyes There was much pain and anguish in them. I held him closer and told him I would take him home with me.

I carried the lamb outside the store, with people laughing and murmuring behind my back about what a fool I was...I took the lamb upstairs, for my house was built high above the ground so as not to get flooded.

The Lord showed me the gist of the dream: The lamb is Jesus. Not many want to minister to him in this way. To do so would involve sharing in His sufferings. We loudly proclaim that we are partakers in the Divine Nature...but we are not quite as verbal about being sharers in Christs sufferings.

Consider the word of God:

Isaiah 53:3 - 7

If we are JOINT HEIRS with Jesus Christ, Partakers in the divine nature, imitators of Him, etc. We have FELLOWSHIP with what He feels and the works he does. We are to take on His Character, to operate IN HIS NAME....

After all it is the MARRIAGE supper of the LAMB, isn't it?

Emerging Bride / Unity

Michael Bottomly

EMERGING BRIDE

The first seems small and I don't have lots of revelation about what exactly it means, but I saw the church as a body, and it was squirming, and uncomfortable. It was almost itching, and I couldn't really tell why, but as quickly as it began, it was like there was a zipper at the top of her(the Body) and it was quickly unzipped, down like those pajamas that mom used to always make us wear!

Anyhow, I understand that the old "skin" that came off as the new church stepped out is representative of how things are now, and that God is raising up a victorious church and is going to peel away the layers of hardness, impurity, stiffness, and hindrance that have kept the church in it's present state. As this church is stirring it begins to itch, this is happening now, and the old ways, and old anointings, and old giftings, and old revelation, and old traditions begin to be uncomfortable, as God divinely gives us glimpses of WHO is to come, we are stirred to break out!

"Break out church, break out! You no longer are held by the traditions of man, step forward into me, no other thing will ever satisfy you. You will always be restless, and feel held back until you make this step, break out! I am unzipping the veil little by little, and your hunger for me is building, what others have settled for you will refuse, because you will see with my eyes, that burn with passion for man, that burn with passion for you, and your hearts will be so discontented with everything that you now know, that breaking out is the only option!!

Be stirred by what I am showing you, the anointing I have placed upon certain individuals will be placed upon entire teams, and entire churches who will walk in signs and wonders, you will press forward to reach higher than you can even imagine reaching. Stretch, stretch, you will reach me, keep stretching, you are almost there."

I believe that a release will be felt all over the Body of Christ as this uphill battle, which has been long, turns into a furious fight to catch your pedals as your bike races down the other side of the mountain!

If you have ever ridden a bike for very long you understand what I mean. If not, the gears used to go uphill are small gears and one pedal pushes you a very short distance, but it is much easier because of the leverage used, on the other hand when you start to coast down a hill and try to pedal using these gears, it is helpless because your tires are spinning way too fast.

So in order to maintain pressure on the pedals one must shift into higher gears. you are then free to enjoy the breeze in your face, but keep your eyes on the trail for there is liable to be a puddle at the bottom of the hill that you will crash into if you do not maintain stability at these high speeds!

"There are gears upon your bike that you have not used in some time because you have been climbing, but you will have to use them again soon, for the harvest is nigh! Do not give up, for the top is close!"

This breaking out I believe is in preparation for His coming, the establishment of His kingdom here and now on earth, exactly as it is in heaven, so that He can come back and we can have this marriage everybody is talking about!

PUZZLED AS TO WHY THERE IS NO UNITY?

The second vision came as the group of us prayed about unity. John 17 has been buzzing around in my head, please read it. I saw that the Father was putting a puzzle together. He was putting this puzzle together, and the picture was of Jesus.

I saw God take a bottom edge piece and place it in it's rightful place as part of the foot. As quickly as He did, the puzzle piece jumped up, just like if it were a cartoon, and ran, because it wanted to be somewhere else, and was desiring another piece's place in the puzzle.

This I believe to be representative of the Body of Christ... and God is trying to show the world Jesus, through His Body, makes sense, huh (John17)?

Anyhow, there are many people who God has spoken to about ministries they are called to and they have chosen to run from them, for fear that they are getting ripped off by God, and that they are missing something that someone else is enjoying!

Many people these days seem to want to be a Prophet, or an Apostle, or a Pastor. Many people will try to jump from their assignments, and run to another position that does not belong to them.

This causes the world to see a very twisted image of Jesus through His Body. We are ambassadors for Christ, we re-present Him, and need to love each other and the world enough to be obedient to God knowing that He is a lot smarter than we are!

He is building His kingdom, and His ways are not our ways, neither are His thoughts our thoughts! He's not coming back until this happens, this I know!

Embracing Death

Scott Hofstee

February 5,2000 Embracing Death

The following is something I believe the Lord birthed in me this evening. I have been through a week where the Lord has been purging me. Turning me upside down and ripping open my soul. Exposing things in me that I have not wanted to see and all the while bringing me into a deeper relationship with him. I believe the following to be given by the Spirit of God. You may interpret as you wish. I will leave that to each of you. I can only say this to each of you, prepare yourselves, to see yourselves, as you are. For our God is an all-consuming fire. And nothing will escape that fire.

Embracing Death

As I look into the abyss of my own soul, I see the depravity of myself. I see the vanity and suppose I may never encounter the light that our Lord is. Even so I press forward, not knowing where else I might go. Knowing full well, that to go back, to where I have been, is a death of another kind. A slow painful death. Having my dignity stripped of me as I eat at the waste places of the dragon and all the time being somehow thankful for the food that I have received, because I have been told that there is nothing else. Believing the lie, that this is where all food comes from. From the royalty of the harlot. The self-appointed guides to spiritual enlightenment, who dole out nourishment that won't feed a person enough to cause them to be strengthened. Instead, it causes me to yearn for more. I could never be satisfied with the vomit from the table of the dragon. Knowing all the time, in my soul, that I am dying but not knowing how to stop the death. Only knowing that my Savior loves me and holding onto that fact with the little strength that I have. What else can I do? No! I must look into the faces of those men, in the abyss, that I am. The murderer, the thief, the evil men that I am, and somehow embrace the fact that this is who I am and only because of what my Master has done for me, do I have any hope of finding my way out of this place in my being. And yet, I am somehow liberated by the fact that I can do nothing on my own, by my own hand, to save myself. He must do it. He must save me from the abyss, that is in my soul. I attempt to crawl out and fall back in. And when I have tried it so many times that I can no longer try, He comes and lifts me up, out of the pit and holds me there, only to begin to face another obstacle together. Will I trust Him to help me or will I put My hand to it again? I do not know anymore. My "self" dies hard. Never wanting to be still long enough, on the altar of death, to be thrust through the heart. Always twitching and flinching, only delaying the inevitability of certain death. I pray this time, I will not move and it will be over quickly but suddenly I feel a dull pain in my heart. At first, I grab at it, somehow, trying to control it but I soon realize, I cannot. It is soon followed by a heat, a warmth, it follows the pain and binds it up as a balm. How could I have thought that my Lord would have done anything that was not for my good? How could I have thought that He has not able to kill me with mercy and compassion. I feel the life slipping from me and yet I feel His life, filling me, shortly thereafter. Always on the heels of the pain of the dagger that is being put into my heart. My Master loves me and I know that I do not really love Him. At least not yet, not as He loves. Because I am not willing to kill anything that I love, because it would cause me pain. But He loves me enough to allow me to die before His very eyes. He watches every painful second of the death enveloping me and when death has finished its work, it is then, it is in that split second, that He brings life. He brings resurrection, He brings wholeness. What a paradox! What a mystery! Life from death! It is here beloved of the Most High. Embrace it. Let it envelope you. And as it does, know that "The Life" follows. The resurrection Life!

Empty Nests

Cherry Brandstater

TO WOMEN OF THE EMPTY NESTS

During a time of prayer recently God began revealing to me that he is yearning for the women of the empty nests (those whose children have left home, whose husbands have left or died, whose husbands are emotionally absent, and those who have never had husbands or children) to present those empty nests to him so that he can fill them with eggs that he, himself has fertilized. He is needing these women to brood over them and hatch the purposes of God. He is asking them to stop searching all around for things to fill the nests themselves just so that those nests won't be empty.

WOMEN WHO HAVE ROOM TO RECEIVE HIM

He needs and desires to have women who have room to receive him and fill their lives with his own purposes. In fact, he has designed this time for himself.

He is saying, "Let me be your husband, your children. Please, don't just fill up that empty place and try to comfort your loneliness and emptiness with other people and things. I need women with space for me."

"And if you let me use your empty nest I will birth glorious children through you. You look at your life and see emptiness. I see a resting place for my glory."

YOU SEE LONELINESS; I SEE A LOVER

"You see loneliness; I see a lover I can commune with, partner with, to whom I can pour out my heart. I have patiently waited for your nest to become vacant so that I could use it. You have time to listen and a mother's heart to hear."

"If you will let me, I will begin to fill the Earth with our offspring because you have not filled up your life with other distractions. Open your extra time that has been freed from children and husband to me and I will become your reward."

THE KINGDOM NEEDS NESTS

"The Kingdom of God needs nests from which to spring. Give me yours. Stretch wide the edges of your nests for I am about to fill them with more fertile eggs than you have ever dreamed of."

"I have placed within you eggs of promise, waiting for a time of intimacy when I could fertilize those eggs. I have waited for the time when you could wait on me as I hover over you. This is that time. Don't miss it by trying to assuage your emptiness with more empty things."

I ASK THIS GENEROSITY OF YOU

"And if I might ask this generosity I would like to bring the orphaned eggs to your nest; eggs that have been abandoned and neglected; spiritual children that I desire to add to my family who will die without a mother to nurture them. Will you become the mother of my spiritual children? If you will brood over these eggs of promise I, myself, will come and feed you."

"With my own hand I will place the food in your mouth. I will come and give you the waters of Life freely and sit beside you listening to your heart and sharing mine."

Emotions of the Spirit

Teresa Daly-Crews

Recently there have been many emotions manifesting in the Body of Christ. The primary feelings have been sadness, grief, and sorrow. It seems that there is no real reason for the emotions and they are very heavy. Even when there is joy there is an underlying heaviness. Because our society has trained people to focus on self, these emotions have lead people to feel that something is wrong with them. Some have felt that they may be suffering from depression or some imbalance. This is not the case in many of the situations. Over the past 24 hours it seems that the emotions felt have been the heaviest ever. What we are feeling is the HEART of the SPIRIT of GOD. Father is grieved and the Lord is crying out for HIS people to listen to HIM and stop turning away from HIM.

We are all assigned to be intercessors in some fashion or another, some to full time prostrate intercession and others to speak life as the Spirit ordains. There has been a tremendous misunderstanding of the emotions of the Spirit, especially for intercessors. We have tried to categorize the emotions according to fleshly knowledge and have fallen short of the Lords intended desire. This has caused a rift (a cleft fissure, or crack,) in the spirit realm and a breach in the wall has resulted. Many needs have not been answered because we have not understood that it was the Spirits burden and not ours. The enemy has found this doorway to many believers because there has been a lack of unity in the Body. We must stand in the gap allowing the Spirit to close the opening. Many people's lives depend on our obedience in intercession.

It is time that we open our hearts to the HEART of the SPIRIT and allow the anointing to flow outward. This heaviness will be broken as we pray in the Spirit allowing the Lord to push down the wall. Just as King Jehoshaphat was told by the Lord to send the Levites out before the army to worship, we must do the same. Every enemy will be destroyed as we obey and listen to the voice of the Lord. HEAR THE BATTLE CRY OF THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD in unity of the Spirit, heart and mind. WORSHIP!!

Joel 2:11-18 "And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach..."

Encouragement

Deb Cossu

Psalms 65

For the Intercessors

"How blessed is the one whom Thou dost choose and bring near to Thee, to dwell in Thy courts. We will be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house, Thy Holy Temple.....Thou hast crowned the year of Thy goodness, and Thy paths drip with fatness."

VISION:

I was looking at what appeared to be a desert scene. It was hot and dry. The wind began to pick up and as I covered my eyes from the dust blown my way, a soft sound of weeping turned my head southward. The weeping was very soft and almost mingled with the sighs of relief one would have at the end of a long time of deep, uncontrolled crying. I could now see what looked like a wagon train that seemed to have neither a front or back, not a beginning or an end. These wagons were very sturdy and strong, even though there was visible evidence that some, no most, had been broken and damaged at some point in the journey. It was also evident that not one of the wagons were empty, but rather overflowing with the cargo and provision they were caring. Then I saw the Lord approaching..... Rain drops were beginning to fall, The people were getting up WORD:

Surely you shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. The past seasons on your face before Me has prepared you for that which is to come. Look up, stand up, dress up, for I am headed your way. Two distinct, yet interwoven anointings are being released in this hour.

My love in you, and My love upon you. My love has found a resting place in you. As deep calls to deep, so I grant the intimacy for which you were formed. Even in the midst of enlarging fellowship, and the joy of brotherhood, it is My presence you desire. That which is within you is aglow and has been fanned bright, pure, and clear. This deep intimacy with Me, is releasing a return for all you have given. That which you lost through tears, shall come knocking on your door. Even that which you gave away unaware will come with increase in the season ahead. Truly that which you gave not away but was stolen shall be brought back. Seasons do change, and it is time for a fresh start and a new beginning because of where you have come. This love within has sustained you.

My love upon you shall grant rest for those I send. Many are tired of the abundance of this life. As My kingdom rest upon you they will see what they have not known in this world. I grant wisdom, favor, and success upon My own such as the world has never seen. Nothing has been lost or wasted or spoiled that I have asked you to carry. All is well, your work shall be rewarded. There are treasures to be opened, gifts to be dispersed, and promises to be fulfilled. The season has begun, and it is time for a fresh start and a new beginning because of where you must go. This love upon you shall sustain them.

The End of Things / Begin Anew In Him

Becky McLendon

The End of Things Becky McLendon

It has come to me several times that there is coming an "end of things". I have been talking about wilderness living now for some time; and with a tinge of sadness in my heart and a heaviness of witness in my heart, I know that this wilderness walk is ending soon. Several things came to me this past few days.

As for the end of things in the wilderness. I will miss it, for I came to know Him so keenly here. I asked the Lord, What is at the "end of things"?

Isaiah 41:22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

Daniel 12:8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

He showed me the answer, and now I am ready. I saw myself meeting him at the end of the wilderness walk, When I got to Him, He stood before me and poured Himself into me. I saw it happen. He poured HIMSELF into me. I received HIM and He received me. I share this because this is for YOU. If you have been walking in a wilderness whether IN or OUT of the "organized church", seeking HIM and hearing Him and receiving His correction and His provision, then this is for YOU.

I was touched to tears by the whole scene. I then heard the great revelation to us at the end of the wilderness:

Jesus loves me, this I know
For the Bible tells me so,
Little ones to Him belong
They are weak, but He is strong!

I felt the Lord had something to say about what is currently going on amongst his people, concerning the "debating" spirit that is spreading from within the "organized church" and OUT into the wilderness "remnant"

"Come to an End "

My people must come to an end of it.

Straining at gnats,
Striking at rocks,
Shouting at mountains, till they fall down
Trying to remove specks from the eyes of your brothers
Blinded by the log in your own.
Trying to be right, but dressed in filthy rags
Of religion and self-appointed place
That results in disgrace.

I have said it before, and I will say it again,
You are caught in a battle
You never will win.
When you use My word as a sword to wound your brother

I will come as a sword to bring you low.
For he who exalts himself above others
Shall be humbled swiftly,
That he may know
I AM GOD.

Let the focus ALWAYS be CHRIST. Only Christ is "right".

The chorus from a song on a CD album by "Passion" sums up what we are to sing IN the wilderness, or IN the "church building" and as we approach HIM ready to receive HIM fully:

"It's all about you, Jesus.
This all is for You,
For Your glory and your fame.
It's not about me,
And trying to do it my way,
You alone are Lord,
And I surrender to Your name."

Come to Jesus, for the "end of things" is rapidly approaching us.

Becky (wayfarer)

Begin ANEW in Him
Becky McLendon

It is OVER. But it is only the beginning.
There is nothing more to say,
But so much more to BE.
Receive your Inheritance, and enter His rest.

No more having to prove a point, for the point is Christ.
No more having to prove ourselves, for He has already proven us.
No more having to "take a stand" FOR or against things,
In HIM we stand, and HE alone remains standing.

Religion hates this, because it testifies of Him Bringing no fame or recognition for the towers built by man.

Religion will kill because of this, because it takes away their position and takes away their wealth and takes away their significance and takes away their power.

This is the testimony with which we shall overcome...
That we have RECEIVED Christ and He is in us and we in Him, an abiding, a residing an indwelling, a presence, a fullness,
The Perfect will have come,

Doing away with all things except His love,
For LOVE is the weapon of our warfare,
It casts out fear, it brings a rebuke to religion and revelry, rudeness and rivalry.

The Perfect exposes sin and covers our repentant heart with Blood
The Perfect is come, the Inheritance.

The Inheritance! OUR Inheritance! It is given for ALL
Oh what a SLAP that is to the exclusive ones, the sectarians.

Not all will RECEIVE their Inheritance,
Why?
It is too simple. It involves laying down
EVERYTHING
Taking up your cross and following HIM
It might mean you will never preach again...
After ALL,
What more is there to say once you have Received your Inheritance and proclaim it.

It is said. It is done. It is finished.
What can be added? Nothing.
You go on. You meet new ones on the path,
And you tell them: "I have received Christ,
My Inheritance, you receive Him too."

They will look into your eyes and see it all,
and their journey will begin!
That is it.
Amen

Everything is New

Kairos

Gloria Shepherd

Everything is New

August 30, 2000:

I am calling my children into a place that is so much higher than they have IMAGINED they could EVEN GO. I am calling forth those who will heed my voice and step into this new place I have for them. I am birthing in many of you now, seeds of great power and glory that will begin to explode within you.

If you will step into this new place of faith in me, I will begin to release my power in greater and greater measure through you as you move into this new level of faith for this day. Signs, miracles and wonders will soon become the norm on earth instead of the abnorm. I am about to bring many of you into the fullness of what I have called you to for this hour. You are about to see great signs, miracles and wonders take place all over the earth as my power is released through my faithful obedient servants throughout the earth. My power is about to be released in a greater level of faith as those who I have set aside for this work in this hour come into the fullness of what I have called them to. There will no longer be a sprinkling here and there on my earth of this power, but it will begin to blanket the earth as those which have been called to this are obedient to come into this rest where I will begin to teach them and prepare them for what I am about to do here on earth.

As my children who have been called and birthed into this calling will begin to step into all the fullness that which I have for them in this hour, great miracles will begin to take place. You are going to see a greater level of faith to see the dead come back to life, the blind will see, babies that were born without certain brain functions will be made whole. I am bringing those who have been set aside for this time now into the fullness of their calling now. I am removing the obstacles which have been in your way up to now because I have done this thing because the fullness of time had not yet come yet, and that is why you had not been able to walk in all the fullness of this calling until now. I am now removing the barriers that have been in the road to stop you from coming into the fullness of this time and your calling to walk in this. Come into the place which I have for you now. I have set you apart for this purpose, for this time and hour, that my glory will be manifested through each of you on this earth, as you walk in the fullness of what I am about to fully impart in you. Up until now, you have only had a part of it, and have not walked in all the fullness of it. For now is the time and the hour that things will be fulfilled which have been prophesied in days past. I am now bringing you into the fullness of that time which was prophesied before and I am equipping you with all the things you will need to go forth in the fullness of my power for this hour. This is a new time, nothing will be in times past, this will be all new. This will time will require a coming into the rest that I have for you, so I may teach you how to walk in this new time. For this will be like no other time before it. I am calling you into this place even now in this moment, because I want to teach you and show you how to come into this new place. Many of you will want to hold on to the former things, but I say to you right now, if you do not move into this new place, then you will not be able to overcome in this hour coming because of the things which are about to be released upon the earth.

Come into my rest this day. I want to show you the things which are about to happen. I want to teach you how to walk in this place of great power that is being released now on you. As you enter into this place of rest with me, you will begin to see the things what I have called you to do in the coming days. You will no longer see glimpses but I am going to begin to release the full pictures to you, so you may be prepared for what I have for you in this day to do. Listen and heed my voice so that you may walk in obedience to all that I have for you for this hour. Only those whose hearts are fully surrendered to me will know my heart for them in this hour and be released into that fullness of what I have had for them. Many of you are caught in the business of the work, and I will say unto you this day that if you do not hear my voice and heed to what I am calling you into right now, you will miss the fullness of that which I have for you and miss the mark on this time which you are stepping into now. I say unto those who are caught the rushing of the times, stop right now, and put down all that is in your hands which are laboring to do with your flesh, for this is not that time right now.. This is a new time and a new hour, and all which is old will not work in this new hour. Listen to what the spirit is speaking in this hour. All is new and all the lessons are new in this hour.

Kairos
Gloria Shepherd

KAIROS - IN THE FULLNESS OF TIME

This morning, the Lord was speaking to me about the fullness of time - Kairos. For it is not until the fullness of time takes place, will He move in certain areas, over countries, over places. We are just the instruments and vessels He uses for this work.

I felt like the Lord was speaking this to me the fullness of time has to be reached before things are moved spiritually and where we will be able to go forth in this fullness to accomplish what He wants done. He is overseeing the whole thing. Without Him, we are just empty shells. We cannot go forth in the power of His Spirit, until He says, go and do it - otherwise it is the "flesh" moving before the Spirit.

We have to understand this fullness of time and how He is going to move us to do certain things if we are fully given over to the Spirit - THEN we will know when it is time to move.

This has taken me a bit of time to fully comprehend the greatness of this called timing in Him, the times and the seasons, and when He speaks to move. I just felt His Spirit telling me to warn the people that these times we have just moved into are going to be harder to discern. They will require precise movements in the Spirit, because of the intensity of this battle we are moving into now.

We will need to know the exact timing of His movements in these things that we are to move in - in the days to come. Many, many, many false prophets have gone out now. He said this to me today: "It will require great discernment of spirits to see in these coming days."

I know everybody has been talking about this Kairos, but we must wait until we see it in every aspect of what He is speaking to us. I hear some saying that it is in our power to call down the kingdom when we will it. That is not true.. WE can only call certain things forth or down, when He says to us, call it down, then it can be done.

Until that time it cannot be time for the "fullness of time" has not been reached yet. These things are in the hands of the Father, many things are in His hands, and cannot be done until He says okay, do it, then it can be done, and spoken forth into existence.

With the Elijah spirit that has now been birthed forth in so many, there is a tendency to want to leap out and just do, but this is dangerous and will cause many ramifications in the spirit realm, if we go before the Spirit says to go. To move ahead of the Spirit on things - which is the work of our flesh - is really to move against the Holy Spirit in His work upon the earth. Dangerous moves!

We must remember that God is the one moving this, that God is the one that is calling the shots. We cannot "know" anything -unless it is by the Spirit of God which worketh in us. Kairos - the fullness of time in which only He knows. HE sees the whole picture. Only He knows when that time is.

Enmity In My Body

Martin Sayers

Marty@spiritofprophecy.com

March 22, 2000: Jeremiah 2: 32-33 Does a Virgin forget her ornaments, a bride her garment? And yet My people have forgotten me days without number. I am about to pass judgment on you because you say " I have not sinned". Yet the blood of those you murdered with the words of your mouth is still on your hands. And many more are being defiled as you teach those around you your wicked ways.

There shall be no enmity in My body. Do not separate yourselves from Me. Bless those whom you do not understand, those who have a different opinion and those who have a different doctrine. I am doing a work of circumcision of the heart of my people. For the heart is wicked above all things and out of the abundance of the heart does the mouth speak. You have forgotten from whence you came.

Stop. Cleanse your hands, set a watchman over your tongue. I say you are My Judah, My people of Praise and that name I have given thee because it will be your greatest weapon against the enemy of your soul. My strength is sufficient for you and will be made perfect in your weakness. For your help will not come out of Egypt nor will it come from Assyria. But I shall come and inhabit the praises of My people. And I shall have a mighty victory and shall crush mine enemies under your feet.

Rejoice. Rejoice. Break forth into singing shake off that spirit of heaviness and put on the garment of Praise My Judah. Draw nigh unto the Lord with your heart. Praise Him with all that is within you and He shall lift you up and fill you with His presence. Then shall the things of the world grow dim and no longer will they catch your eye and hold your mind.

Entering the Throne Room

Jo Cotter

Hebrews 12:2 (NIV): "Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." There are changes going on in my life right now that I don't think are exclusive to me. I believe the Lord really is doing that new thing that we have talked about, and read about, and hoped for now for a very long time (Isaiah 43:18-19; 2 Chronicles 29:36). I am confident that this is the season of God ushering us in to the Spirit Realm as a living reality, rather than as just a symbolic expression of our Faith.

For many of us it is now time for the Spirit Realm to become every bit as real and substantive as this physical world that we live in. But how is that possible? How do we, literally and in reality, enter into the throne room of God?

Hebrews 4:16 tells us: "Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." And in Hebrews 10:19-20: "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh."

The Word says we enter in by the Blood of Jesus. Does that mean that ever since we accepted the Lord's sacrifice for us and became Saved we have been dwelling in God's holy of holies? I don't think so. I believe we have been on a journey towards that most holy place.

There may be a lot of different ways to get there; I don't know. The one way God is showing me is through Hebrews 12:2. "Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God."

The way to the throne room for the Lord Jesus was via the Cross.

I have heard it said - and perhaps you have too - that the Lord Jesus died upon the Cross so that you and I would not have to. That is true. King Jesus did indeed make a way for us. He is our Salvation. There is no other way by which we may be saved. But that does not mean we are to come to the foot of the Cross and spend the rest of our lives there.

I believe the Lord is revealing that which will open up the throne room to us. The Lord is telling me that it is time for me to crawl up on that Cross right along with Him.

Does that sound blasphemous? The Lord Jesus Himself said that we must take up our Cross and follow Him. (Matthew 16:24, Mark 8:34 and Luke 9:23.) In Luke 14:27 the Lord Jesus states, "And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple" (NIV). And in Matthew 17:25, "Whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it" (NIV).

Going as far as the Cross and staying there will get us Saved. It will get us into Heaven when we die. But it will not get us into the Throne Room, either now or then. Nor will it qualify me as a disciplined learner of my King. To do that, I must lose my life, and crawl right up on that Cross beside Him. "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service" (Romans 12:2).

And in Galatians 2:20: "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me."

Again in Revelation 14:4-5: "These are they who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from among men, the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile; for they are without fault before the throne of God." The Lamb went to the Cross, didn't He? And if I follow Him wherever He goes, that means crawling up on that cross right beside Him.

The Lord Jesus is our example. He has sent (and is sending) us out into the world in the same way that He was sent by the Father (John 17). That means that we must go where He went. If the Lamb went to the Cross for me, then I too must be willing to go to the cross, laying down my life for the benefit of others. I suspect that every time I do that (and I am interested in your thoughts on this) - every time I lay down my life for another - I am actually entering in to the very Throne Room of God.

Rev. 14:5 says that one of the qualities of those found before the throne are that they are "without fault." The Lord began my study of Entering into the Throne Room in John 7:23. "Are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit (completely, throughout, altogether, to the nth degree) whole (sound, restored to health, not deviating from the truth, healthy, true) on the Sabbath day?" (NIV) God is relentless. He isn't satisfied with somewhat free, or partly whole, or even mostly transformed. He wants us totally, completely, absolutely, unconditionally, 100% free, and every whit whole. So He is relentless. He starts a work in us, and He does not quit until that work is done. He molds. He shapes. He challenges. He brings us just the right circumstances so that all that is in need of transformation in us will be exposed.

Ephesians 5:27 tells us He does this, "that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish (blameless and faultless)." Revelation 14:5 tells me He also does this so that I can be found without fault before the throne of God.

God desires to bring us into the most Holy Place even more than we desire it. So He continues to work on us (and in us), perfecting me and perfecting you, so that we can be brought into His very presence.

Therefore, let us allow the Cross to have its perfect work in us - even though it is not the easiest or most desirous place to be - that we may indeed enter boldly into the Most Holy Place with our King.

Eagle Picking Feathers

Cyndee Pillow

February 18, 200 early morning

I had a vision of an Eagle sitting on a high top of a mountain over looking a valley. The eagle was a bald eagle. He was looking down below at what was happening in the valley, it appeared. He was picking out his feathers from his breast bone, until all the feathers were gone and his breast exposed. I got the impression from the eagle that he was discouraged, and had almost lost hope, and some how thought he had failed in life. Then I saw another eagle come and light down beside him. This eagle was solid white. Every time the bald eagle would pick the feathers from the breast, the white eagle would start gently discouraging this, and then would start replacing the feathers with white downy feathers, where the bald eagle had pulled out his own ones. It was as if the white eagle was sent to heal and discourage the bald eagle from picking out his own feathers. He was very gentle and concerned for the bald eagle, and ministered to him gently and lovingly.

February 19, 2000 1:30am

The vision started where the first vision left off. As I watched, a vulture appeared behind the Bald Eagle. He had strong arms and hands of a man coming from under his wings. He was holding the Bald Eagle in one place. He held so tightly that the eagle could not move. All he did was continue to pick his feathers. The vulture hung on in this fashion for the entire vision. Next, an Albatross flew up and lay a fish at the eagles feet. He began to eat the fish. After he had consumed the fish, a dove came up to the eagle and I noticed that the dove had a pearl in his beak. He gently gave the pearl to the eagle and the eagle held it in his beak for the rest of the vision. Then, my eyes focused on the feet of the Bald Eagle. There under his feet was a serpent squirming to get free, but he could not. Suddenly, I looked at the Bald Eagles eyes. They were fixed no longer on the valley below, he had them fixed on a great light. As he kept his eyes fixed, he suddenly was covered in beautiful feathers shining and new. He had grown so strong and large, that he dwarfed the other birds. I noticed the vulture still clung to him, and the white eagle kept touching him, almost getting in front of him, and really seemed in the way and seemed he could have been attempting, without realizing it, to break his attention away from the light. Suddenly, the Bald Eagle broke free from the vulture and the white eagle, and began to fly towards the light. I noticed that the higher he got as he circled, there were more eagles coming in behind him, until the sky was absolute full of Bald Eagles. Then, I noticed that the Bald Eagle had turned to pure dazzling gold. Then the others turned to gold. As they circled, the gold that was on them began to trickle into the valley below. It was like gold dust coming from their wings. This was the end of the 2 visions.

INTERPRETATION

The Bald Eagle represents The prophets of the Lord. They have been concerned with what they have seen happening with the people below in the valley. They have become discouraged and feel hopeless. According to brother Burns, who did a study on Eagles, There is something very significant about the plucking of the feathers from the breast bone. An Eagle, at old age will come to a place, where his beak will freeze shut and he cannot eat. Some who reach this stage die, but some go into seclusion, and break their beaks off, by beating them on a rock. The eagle fasts until the new beak grows in. He molts and picks his feathers off. With his new beak he breaks the oil sack on his breast and the oil spreads over his body and new feathers begin to grow. After he has all new feathers, and a new beak, he is stronger than he has ever been and can fly higher than he ever has. (this was submitted by Sister Burns & brought great insight to this vision). When the Bald Eagle was plucking His feathers it was not a bad thing to do this.

The white eagle, represents those well meaning Christians in the body of Christ, that will try to discourage you from going through the painful process you must take to receive the pure things from God. They do not see what you see, and do not understand your reasonings for doing what you are doing. They are doing it because they love you and their heart is tender for you, as a brother or sister must be, but they are not where you are at. So, their well meaning efforts to discourage you from doing what you must do is really a hindrance. This is also part of the process and the Lord allows it. You are dying to the flesh, and determined to stay put and allow everything to be exposed in your heart (therefore exposing the breast bone) So, that the anointing can once again flow freely from you and bring restoration in a greater fashion. You continue to prepare yourself, by laying bare your heart before the Lord, even in this near hopeless condition. Even while others watch with pity and judgment of your actions. The vulture represents those that have come to prey on your life. They will come in the form of men trying to keep you bound, trapped and unable, it seems to move into what you know you were called into doing. You cannot free yourself at this point, and so you remain there picking feathers. Waiting and allowing the process to take place. The albatross is a splendid creature. He spends most of his time over the open ocean. He represents great strength. During this time, the Lord will send you food that will give you strength to stay alive and grow. It will come in bits and pieces. The albatross will leave for a week or so, his chicks, to bring them back the perfect food for them. So, in this place there will be just enough word to keep you from death. The eagle consumed the fish brought to him. You must consume the bits of word that are brought to you also to survive. Some of this word may come from unlikely sources. As an albatross seems unlikely to feed an eagle. This is of God. The dove represents the Holy Spirit and the pearl represents the precious treasures of the Lord. The pearl of great price. " Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it." Matt. 13:45-46 The Bald Eagle received the pearl, because he endured and sought it out. The serpent under the eagle's feet is self explanatory, I believe. The enemy at this place is put under the feet of those that endure and go through this process, regardless of the hardships that they endure reaching this place. When the Bald Eagle breaks free, there are no more hindrances to him. He is free to soar into the heavens with the Father of lights. He has fixed his eyes on The Lord's face and refused to be distracted. He has risen above it all now, and has broken free and he has turned to pure gold.

Word from the Lord: " Hearken unto the Lord My people. This place is not by accident. This place is not beyond my seeing eye. I have heard your cries of despair, even though some have not uttered with the lips, but groaned from deep within. You have looked and seen you are still undone, and have chosen to stay in this place until all is exposed. You have allowed me to see into your heart and I have shown you the things that must go. Because of this, much opposition has come through those that have good intentions, but the wrong ones. You have kept silent and you are going through the process. Be still and know that I am the Lord your God. I will cause you to rise above the storms again and break free from all that has hindered you. Do not question any longer, " Is this really God doing this?" I say, "Yes, you know that I hold you in the palm of my hands. No man is able to pluck you out of my hand". Trust in me, and know that I am the Lord. Endure this as a good soldier, and you will come out shining like gold. You will be one that will disperse my love to others, and guide them to find their place in me also. So be strong, and be firm in your convictions. Do not be angry with those, your brothers that do not see. I have chosen it this way. They cannot change this, as it is ordained of me . I have a plan, and when you have matured into what I am bringing you into, I will use you to point the way. Then, they shall see also as you have seen, for, I will open their eyes. Be strong, and again I say, Be strong! Cyndee Pillow iclight@tcac.net

Eternal Riches

Terri Ward

My children, Are you listening for My voice? Are you seeking My will for your lives? The vast majority who call themselves Christians do neither. They do not seek My face nor My will, and are far more concerned with the approval of man than that of their God.

Many so called Christian churches are no more than social clubs or places of entertainment. They concern themselves more with pleasing man and filling their own coffers than they do with pleasing Me. They focus more on the riches of this age and that of worldly mammon than they do the spiritual treasures, the eternal riches that I offer. They profess to be rich, and dress and act as though they prosper, but in reality they are poor and miserable and wretched.

Remember that I told you "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth where moth and rust destroys and where thieves break in and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is there will your heart be also."

I have called out to My own for long years now to turn away from your preoccupation with the desires of the carnal nature, and to focus wholly and solely on Me; to seek Me without distraction. And though some have done so, putting far from them that which hampers and hinders them in their pursuit of Me and My will-the vast majority have not given proper heed, nor have they laid aside the sins and weights that so easily beset them.

For the sake of many, in love I will of necessity strip away those earthly snares and props, causing them to more easily seek Me with an undivided heart- to seek Me without distraction.

Oh My people, seek not the treasures of this passing life- seek not the prosperity of the world, but rather seek out for yourselves those eternal riches that I have already made available to you. Those riches that are part and parcel of the inheritance of the true believer, for you are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.

I long to lavish you with My wealth-wealth of wisdom, counsel, compassion and courage. All that is needed in this life has already been made available to the children of God. All you need do is appropriate it. Take Me at My Word and see for yourself that there is an endless supply at your disposal. Oh My people, how you need discernment that you might understand what is truly important and what is not worthy of your time and energy! "And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may surely learn to sense what is vital, and approve and prize what is excellent and of real value-recognizing the highest and the best and distinguishing the moral differences; and that you may be untainted and pure and unerring and blameless, that-with hearts sincere and certain and unsullied-you may approach the day of Christ, not stumbling nor causing others to stumble."

Evangelical Thugs

Bryan Hupperts

From the title of this article (Evangelical Thugs?) you might think I have a stone in each hand, ready to list and denounce the offenders and then slay them according to Old Testament law. Nope. This is a call to disarm, a call to a cease-fire within our own ranks, and a call to use Biblical prescriptions to work out our individual and corporate salvation with fear and trembling before God.

My chosen term Thug is loaded with spiritual imagery. It comes from ancient Hinduism. The Thuggees were worshippers of Kali, the Hindu goddess of destruction. Her followers committed murders and robberies in honor of her, and no wonder, for Satan comes to "steal, kill, and destroy." Evangelical Thuggery abounds in the Western Christian media.

Thuggery occurs when we trumpet the sins of our brothers, real and imagined, before the church and the world. In the 80s when the tele-evangelism scandals were breaking, I got sick watching Dan Rather report that this was the first piece of investigative journalism that the media didn't have to investigate, because the preachers were all coming forth with dirt on each other. It was a bloodbath of scandal and accusation that stripped the church of much of her credibility.

Remember the story of Noah? After spending 120 years being mocked by his neighbors, then who know how long cooped up with his in-laws amid all sorts of animals - who can create the most curious of odors - Noah, the man of God, the man who found grace in the eyes of God, the man who had the rainbow covenant with the Living God, this man grew a vineyard, made some wine and got rip roaring drunk, and passed out naked. And what did one of his sons do? Genesis 9:22 "And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without."

Ham went and "uncovered his father's nakedness." The other two sons walked in backward and covered up their naked (exposed) father. All of his sons recognized his sin but only two dealt with him in mercy.

So are we not to deal with our brothers sin? We are to obey Ephesians 4:15, "speak the truth in love." Yes, we do need to deal with people from time to time - in love. Many people use love as a coward's excuse to avoid conflict. Equally, many use speaking the truth as an excuse to destroy other men. Truth without love creates Phariseism; love without truth creates superficial saints and liberal denominations!

Jesus taught that when we have a conflict, we are to go to our brother gently and privately. If they receive us, then we have won our brother. If they refuse to listen, we are to take a small group of people with us as witnesses. If that fails, then and then only it is to come before the whole church. Bringing it public can sometimes be a good thing because often the offended person is really the person with an issue that needs to be addressed.

A friend of mine came to me on several different occasions with concerns someone we both knew had about my ministry. I was gracious and answered his questions. What bothered me was why this concerned individual refused to come and ask me his concerns personally. I had a sick feeling that sooner or later this man, who was waiting in the wings, was looking for something about me to denounce - and sadly, I wasn't disappointed. People who will not honor their brothers when having personal disagreements have an agenda that usually involves personal destruction.

May the destroyers among us prayerfully consider Galatians 6:1. "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, you who are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering yourself, lest you also be tempted." Remember that Noah was really in sin - but his accuser was the one God cursed.

Cover your brothers nakedness and deal with private issues privately. We are forbidden to ever take our brothers to court, we are to prefer each other, and to esteem each other as greater than ourselves. If we would implement these "spiritual principals," why, we might even earn a new reputation in the world as people who -gasp!- love each other. Why, they might even start calling us disciples of Jesus Christ instead of church-going hypocrites.

If you're seeing the sins of your brothers and sisters through some kind of weaponry target scope, take a cue from Jesus, and go and die for them. Intercede for them until Christ be formed within them. And while your heart is totally open to God, don't be surprised if He takes the opportunity to deal with hidden issues in your life as well.

There are many legitimate functions and offices in the body of Christ - Evangelical Thug, which really means 'accuser of the brethren,' is not one of them.

Embrace the New

Trevor Lourens

The "new" is always a fresh revelation of Him. There will be many "new" revelations of Him before He comes. The revealing of Him will be eternal, He will be eternally revealing His multifaceted glories to us and we will also cry holy, holy, holy along with the host of heaven as we are continually awed and amazed at just who He is.

This present "new," however, is a revelation of the knowledge of the glory of the Lord. We have had the glory with us for 2000 years,...

John 17:22

22 And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: NKJV. Please note that Jesus said that He has GIVEN us the glory, but it is only now, in this time and season that the Lord has chosen to begin to release keys of revelation knowledge that will open the gates of glory.

Ps 24:7-10

7 Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, The LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O you gates! Lift up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory NKJV

Gen 28:17

17 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"

NKJV

Hab 2:14

14 For the earth will be filled With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, As the waters cover the sea.

NKJV

Isa 6:1-3

6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. 2 Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one cried to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; The whole earth is full of His glory!"

NKJV

We have been operating in the gifts and anointing of the Spirit for quite some time and it has been wonderful and good and will continue to be so because it is of the Lord, He surely has given us gifts and anointed us, so as we proceed into the "new", let us use wisdom and retain the old, but we must also embrace the new.

Matt 13:52

52 Then He said to them, "Therefore every scribe instructed concerning the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old." NKJV

The old, is the gifted, sometimes anointed, charismatic "one man show", the gifts in operation by faith, with or without the presence of God, a few individuals being touched by the power of God. The new, is the realm of glory, His glory cloud descending and multitudes being touched, healed and set free. We need faith to enter into the realm of glory, but once there, it's His show, it's Him at work, as we enter into the glory realm we are changed from glory to glory. Once we begin to have a revelation of the glory, this will lead to perception, perceiving that there is more of his glory realm to know, knowing will lead to understanding, understanding will lead to His glory manifesting in and on our lives and throughout the earth. One of the most disappointing failures of the leadership of recent moves of God, has been to confuse the anointing" and the "glory" of God. They are two completely different and distinct manifestations of God's presence.

The ANOINTING of God is the FORCE of God.

The GLORY of God is the FACE of God.

Far too much has been made of the "force" and power of the Spirit of God, to the exclusion of the "face" or character of God. Both manifestations of God are essential for a people to become the mature sons of God.

The following, chart outlines the distinct differences between the "anointing", and the "glory" of God.

ANOINTING.....	GLORY
Hand of God.....	Face of God
Power.....	Person
Charisma.....	Character
Acts of God.....	Ways of God
Rain of Heaven.....	Dew of Heaven
Gifts.....	Fruit
Ministry.....	Maturity
Knowledge of God.....	Wisdom of God
Righteousness.....	Holiness
By faith.....	by faithfulness
Men of Power.....	Men of God
Man controlled.....	God controlled
Seasonal.....	Gradual
Attracts a crowd.....	Builds a church

His glory exists in the realm of eternity, this is why His name is "I AM," because He does not exist in the realm of time. He is "I AM" past, present and future. As we reach into the eternal realm, all of His goodness is available to us. Signs wonders and miracles exist in the glory realm, reach into eternity and bring your miracle into time. We are about to enter times seasons of the Lord such as we have not yet even imagined, this will begin to usher in the restoration of the glory of the Lord. We are coming to the fullness or consummation of time, that is because as His glory (eternity) descends and covers the earth, earth time will be swallowed into the eternal realm of glory. This is why we are changed from glory to glory, so that we can dwell with Him. Can you see Jesus coming to earth in clouds of power and glory, He is not going to conform to our time, time (eternity) exists in Him, time will be consummated at his glorious coming and eternity will reign.

1 Cor 2:7-10

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory,
8 which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
9 But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man The things which God has prepared for those who love Him."
10 But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.
NKJV

The glory is given to make us one with Him, as we partake of His divine nature, and become one with Him, we will then become one with one another. When the world sees our divine unity, they will know that the Father has sent Jesus.

John 17: 23

23 I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.
NKJV

His desire is to dwell with us, (tabernacle) in order to do so, the glory of heaven must invade earth, as once was before the fall. The devils days are coming to a close, no longer are we fooled by his false claims.

Luke 4:5-6

5 Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said to Him, "All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for this has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.
NKJV

The devil can no longer claim this because after the cross Jesus took the keys of authority and glory from this liar and gave them to us. The veils of deception and illegal possession of territories is about to end, because when we KNOW what is ours in Jesus Christ, we will possess what is ours in Him. The light of His truth will dissipate the veils of deception in our minds.

We will not be able to reap the harvest with the gifts and the anointing alone, we need the glory, at a Rhienhard Bonke crusade in Nigeria, Africa, an estimated 1 million people arrived for the meeting, half a million people were baptized in the Holy Spirit at once, this wasn't done by the laying on of hands, the glory cloud of God swept in and filled their hungry hearts. Reports say that it sounded like a train roaring through as they were being filled.

To the church of Australia, this is not the time to start another program to please the people, we are already so stiff with structure, that if we bowed to Him we might crack. Jesus never pleased the people; He only pleased the Father. John 6:66

66 From that time many of His disciples went back and walked with Him no more.

67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?" Did you ever notice that when many of His disciples left Him because the cost was too high, He didn't run after them and say "sorry guys, I was just joking, you don't really have to pay that kind of price to hang with me," no, he let them walk away, and then asked the 12 if they would like to go as well.

We have ministries for youth, ministries for the over 50's, ministries for single mum's, ministries to ministers, the list is endless, but how many churches do you know that have a ministry to the Lord!!!!, where is the worshipping church??? I'm not talking about a five minute praise singalong, I'm talking about touching His heart, and Him coming to the place where He is made welcome, where His glory comes to touch and change us to be more like Him. Where is the place where His glory dwells???

To quote a favorite preacher of mine. It is time to put away the fear of man; it's time to fear God. Most people prefer to be respectable in the house of man, than anointed in the courts of God. Some hide behind the statement, "We want the Holy Spirit but we want balance. We don't want to offend people and lose credibility in our community." This deception is the fear of man masquerading as wisdom. "Unless the Lord builds the house, you labor in vain."

Many leaders are afraid of the manifestations of Holy Spirit and consider them mere emotionalism. They would rather have someone weeping quietly during the service than having them being radically gripped by the love of God. Not wanting to clean up the stall, they lose the "white horse" of visitation and revelation. "

Friends, it's time to embrace the new, it's time to pray for the revelation of the knowledge glory of the Lord to be released and received in Australia.

"I lay sleepless and horrified, greatly vexed in the Spirit. The Lord visited and showed me things that will shortly come to pass. The JUDGMENT and WRATH of God will soon bring disaster and havoc to the world we live in. The DIE is CAST. God's clock is set. TIME is running out.

'In a VISION' I saw: the face of the earth and the changing of the shape of America. It was drastically altered and reduced in size through terrible disasters. Hunger and suffering were every- where. The devastation caused by volcanic eruptions and fires were widespread and horrifying during this terrible holocaust.

I saw Christians clustering together from all walks of life and many church affiliations. They did not care about their sectarian doctrines. The tie that bound them in their desperate hour, was their common faith in Christ. They clung together as though their survival depended upon each other.

After these terrifying cataclysmic events which the Lord showed me, all the evils of sectarianism and apostasy vanished among the Christians desperate struggle to draw strength from one another. Those who had been lukewarm, cast aside besetting sins, and sought identity with the true believers. Cigarettes, pills, social drinkers, marital cheaters; were repented of and amends were made.

A new sense of values gripped the conscience of Believers. The new morality standard and modern license for laxity, was like a remorseful hangover. Most of the Christians in the "visitation" were amazed that WE "were experiencing" the TERRIBLE DAY OF THE LORD !!! and WE were witnessing His WRATH and JUDGMENT !!!

Many social Christians were ill prepared. Their frivolous, unwatchful, imprudent lives had GAMBLED on Mercy & Grace, which they had thought required no reckoning--- ---EVER !!!

I saw hordes (believers) lost among the religious and Christ Jesus rejecters. As I looked, I saw where mountains were flattened. Believers were FLEEING to the desert to take shelter in caves & rocks. The DESOLATION was so terrible that it seemed NO ONE would be spared, (Luke 21:34-36 KJV) Matthew 24:20-22)

All but a few were full of remorse. Lamentations could be heard every- where. It was heartening to observe that during the FEARSOME DISASTERS-----UNSHAKABLE FAITH held like an ANCHOR among the Christians. They knew they would SOON see the SON coming in the clouds of heaven and with Power & Glory!

Eunuchs of Intercession

Chad Taylor

"For there are eunuchs who were born from their mother's womb, and there were eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to accept, let him accept it..." (Matt. 19:12).

CONSECRATION AND SEPARATION

For there are some that I am calling in this hour that will be separated, called out ones, consecrated to the service of intercession. As Hannah, the very life they cried for they will now offer it as to the Lord. They will give Me their bodies as a living sacrifice. They will now give themselves on the altar of prayer. He that is able to receive it, receive it.

For in this hour a grace will be given, a grace of consecration. A grace for salvation. A grace for revelation. A grace for separation. The prayers of My people will open the prison doors that have held nations bound like never before. Intercession will be the key that sets the captives free. Eunuchs of intercession.

SIMEON AND ANNA

Simeons and Annas will habitate the temple of their God day and night. They will sing a new song, a song of deliverance and salvation. The incense of their prayers will fill the temple and the smoke of it will be pleasing to Me says the Lord. My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations again says the Lord.

A supernatural anointing that will sustain my warriors. They will stand in the Holy Place and they will stand in proxy for nations. The voices of a few will move the tide of billions says the Lord. I will hear their cries as I heard the cries of My Son. The words of His mouth will now be completely filled through the prayers of My people. They will hold the Promises of God as Simeon did in his day. They will see these things come to pass.

INTERCESSORS AND WORSHIPER LEADERS

Eunuchs of intercession will stand in the courts of praise. They will enter My gates with thanksgiving. The intercessor and the worshiper will come together as one like David and Jonathan. As Jonathan interceded for David's life, so will the intercessors stand in the gap for My kings and priests, My army. No longer will they be separate, but as one. From their prayers and worship will come David's mighty men. A army that does exploits will emerge from this hollowed place. They will kindle the flame of reformation. A wind of awakening will blow through their midst to the uttermost parts of the earth.

HOLY GROUND

I had Moses remove his shoes in that holy place, because the way he came in would not be the way that he would come out. I was preparing him to walk in My glory. The old would not suffice. Many will be taking the shoes off of the old ways of doing things. I will prepare them to walk in My glory amongst the people, in public places and market places. They will come from the Mt. of Transfiguration with a revelation, now is the time to reveal that glory says the Lord. Now is the time to receive that glory.

THE ARMOR OF EPHESIANS 6

One piece still remains to complete this outfitting, this equipping of My church. It is the foot gear, the preparation of the gospel of peace. One thing still remains, the footgear, "and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace..." I am about to do this says the Lord. I am about to prepare My people to carry this glory into the streets. My people are about to go into Samaria.

MID-WIVES

Eunuchs of intercession, a grace even now is upon you. You will hold the promise as a child in your bosom. You will groan with groanings that cannot be uttered. Like the mid-wives in Moses day, you will take the child to safety, you will hide him in the river, in the river this generation will survive. Harvest will come from the pangs of your intercessions and an army will emerge from its cry.

EAGLES ARISE

I will give you the grace to pay the price. I will give you the grace to give your life. For from this place of prayer now dawns a great light! Eagles of the Most High God ARISE! ARISE! ARISE!

Mark carefully the nations that I put into your heart to pray. Mark well their faces and races and places. I will put nations in your heart and you will wrestle not with flesh and blood, for in this hour I will release a flood, a flood of intercession that will cover the earth like the water covers the sea. I will give the uttermost parts of the earth to those that believe. I will give the nations to those that intercede. WATCH AND SEE! WATCH AND SEE! WATCH AND SEE!

Eunuchs of intercession I will give you My compassion. You will stand over cities and declare their hour of visitation. I will give you My tears. Though the mountains are cast into the sea, you will not fear. You will not fear.

ISAIAH 66

Eunuchs of Intercession, "Hear the word of the Lord, you who tremble at His word. Your brethren you hated you, who cast you out for My name's sake, said, 'Let the Lord be glorified, that we may see your joy.' But they shall be ashamed. The sound of noise from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the Lord, who fully repays His enemies. Before she was in labor, she gave birth, before her pain came she delivered a male child. Who has heard such things? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once?

For as soon as Zion was in labor she gave birth to her children... (Verses 5-8.)

Europe My Dark Bride

Kathleen Pirl

Hello Lovers of Jesus,
In the Fall I will invade the dark continent.
In the Fall I will fell the darkness with strakes of lightning and thunders from my throne!
In the Fall I will dispel the corrupt stand.
Like a Mighty Man of War I will raise the standard of righteousness and holiness.
For I will have a people and call a people out of the darkness called Continental Europe.
You who have been first are last but your reward is the same to whomever calls on My Name.
I will set you as jewels in the tiara of My Bride France!
And Germany will be humbled as jeweled sandals on the Bride's feet!
All will bow before her (the Bride).
She will be an open show to the principalities and powers.
Italy shall be a cup of the Lord's pleasure in the midst of her iniquities.
Greece shall know My Name.
The heart of Europe the dark heart of Europe shall have the heart of God.
But it will be a veiled heart Switzerland and Austria.
Poland shall not be forgotten but a golden sash around the Bride's waist.
And I will cover her with my glory in the midst of the darkness.
And I will rescue her.
And I will be her CHAMPION
The KING of KINGS!
The LORD of LORDS!

Love Kathleen

Extreme Commissioning

Jana Alcorn

This is My time of extreme commissioning. I am going to use those whose names are not known, nor do they desire to be known. Many will be marked with a zeal and a passion that shall bring radical change. I am sending ones that are willing to be sent. I am gathering those that desire to be clothed with an anointing that will break them out of the box of religious creeds. They will not be confined. It is time to loose them and let them go so that the Master can carry them whithersoever He desires. If you hold them, you will lose them. All souls are mine. All sheep are mine. The Kingdom net will be full.

Don't be afraid of the new order. Don't be afraid of the revolutionary ones. Utilize the power of passion and send them forth. Yes, this is my time of extreme commissioning. It is breaking out and it is building! You will stand and exclaim that a move of God is at hand and the nets will break, says the Lord. There shall be a networking that shall come because the harvest is so great. Prepare and prepare now. Prepare for immediate occupancy, says the Lord, for there is a breakout on the horizon!

Expectations and Welfare

Joan Brown

Disappointed Expectations, Welfare And The Poor

Scripture has much to say about the poor, the orphan and the widow, stressing that God cares for them whether they deserve it or not. The Lord has been reminding us about this forgotten aspect of His character, and our responsibility in the matter.

The following revelation came whilst counseling with a single mother of two. After her partner had left her for another woman, Mary became a Christian and made Jesus a promise at that time that she would not enter into any more sexual relationships outside marriage. She made this commitment some 8 years ago, and even though tempted, has kept her promise to the Lord. However, things have not been easy for her. She was lonely at home, and lonely at church where no one spoke to her, asked her for a meal or even enquired how she was managing.

She came, totally disenchanted with the church and feeling desperate to know what to do and where to go. As we shared, it became obvious that she had expectations of those who were part of her life at this time, and also that her life was littered with shattered and disappointed expectations. Everyone seemed to let her down - even her family.

We became aware of the burden these disappointed expectations were. Burdens she carried each day. Burdens which had a power to cause her emotional pain. Hence her desperation.

We encouraged her to forgive those who had disappointed her, to let go these past disappointed expectations, and even her present expectations of those around her. She forgave, let them go, and gave them to the Lord to carry because the burden was too great for her. She realised that she needed to go back into her fellowship, without placing her expectations upon them to discover just how the Lord had set her free.

As we came to the end of the counseling, the Lord gave a word of knowledge. Because of her circumstances over these past 8 years and her dependency on those about her, she had opened herself up to a WELFARE SPIRIT. Instead of reacting, she admitted that this was so and not only that, but she lived in an area which had a welfare spirit over it. She had lived there her whole life and had taken this attitude into all her relationships and also into her local fellowship. Once again it was a relief to identify and deal with this sin and its power over her life and that of her family.

Well, it was like throwing a stone into the middle of a pond and we have progressively had more revelation and understanding since that time. We all have expectations, of ourselves, of those close to us, of those about us and of our fellowships. When these fail, whatever the reasons, we now have the beginnings of our own burdens of disappointed expectations. The Lord has been encouraging us to put off all excess baggage, put off all that hinders us completing His purposes in our lives. We became aware of the huge heap (mountain) of disappointed expectations which were in amongst our baggage and how tired we were of carrying them around - even unknowingly.

We all start with expectations - some of which find their way to our pile of disappointed expectations and because we cannot manage on our own, we look to others to meet our need and open ourselves up to the spirit of welfare. WELFARE Disappointed expectations Mary, as the RECEIVER, became dependent upon welfare - the care of others given to meet her needs, (which were great). This led to a lack of responsibility - personal responsibility, because now others were responsible. And finally, she began to accept and even demand welfare as her "right"

For the GIVER of welfare, because the needs and demands are so great, they harden their hearts as a defense to their inadequacy. Eventually they become overwhelmed and hand their responsibility over to the State or some welfare institution. Welfare does not expect trials. Welfare in the church, come to Jesus and all will be well.....

To have an expectation - to have disappointed expectations means that we or others have not measured up. There has been failure - So we need to look at the expectations and the disappointed expectations in our lives but we also need to move on and forgive the failures involved. It is the heart the Lord looks upon and if that is right, failure can be a means of growth - not stunting. 2 Chron 15.9 For the eyes of the Lord move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His.

One of the first areas the Lord had us address was our disappointed expectations in our relationship with God Himself. Part of coming to maturity is recognising that God's ways are not our ways, and God's thoughts are not our thoughts.

The church is not called to WELFARE but to responsibility in the area of caring for people like Mary, the poor, the alien, the fatherless, the widow.

Deut 26.

12 When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.

13 Then say to the LORD your God: "I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, according to all you commanded. I have not turned aside from your commands nor have I forgotten any of them. (Also Deut 14.29)

There is a blindness which is attached to this spirit of welfare, because we become concerned with our own welfare, with the welfare of the church, the church building etc, and, without realising it, we are robbing the poor.

I could see quite clearly how this applied to Australia and particularly to Tasmania which has been called "The Welfare State", but I wondered if this had a further application for other countries. The next day I read from an article, "A Charge to keep" written by George W Bush and had my answer.

An extract from the article, "a Charge to Keep" by George Bush The changing culture blurred the sharp contrast between right and wrong and created a new standard of conduct: If it feels good, do it and If you've got a problem, blame somebody else. Individuals are not responsible for their actions, the new culture said, we are all victims of forces beyond our control.

We went from a culture of sacrifice and saving to a culture obsessed with grabbing all the gusto. We went from accepting responsibility to assigning blame. As government did more and more, individuals were required to do less and less. The new culture said if people were poor, the government should feed them. If someone had no house, the Government should provide one. If criminals are not responsible for their acts, then the answers are not prisons, but social programs. For our culture to change, it must change one heart, one soul, and one conscience at a time. Government can spend money, but it cannot put hope in our hearts or a sense of purpose in our lives.

There is further revelation on the above which I will post as a second word which deals with the way the spirit of welfare has infiltrated the church and the emotional devastation it leaves in its wake.

Ezekiel's Message to Us.

Jim Johnson

The Lord through the Holy Spirit let me know that the book of Ezekiel was about us. This is only a portion of what the Lord made me understand. To see the rest go to <http://www.gruver.net/jimj/ezekiel.htm>

EZEKIEL IS SENT TO ISRAEL

Ezekiel was a captive in Babylon. In Ezekiel 2:3, God is sending Ezekiel to the Israelites. Israel had been scattered through the world for approximately 127 years before God sent Ezekiel to the Israelites. Some of Israelites must have been in Babylon along with Ezekiel to do this. What Ezekiel said about Judah came true with the destruction of Jerusalem in approximately AD-70. Judah being a sign to Israel lets us know that the Lord is talking about Israel after the fulfillment of the prophecies to Judah in AD-70.

EZEKIEL PROPHECIES TO ISRAEL

There is no 390 year period of time after AD-70 in which many of God's people have had the following: 1) very little persecution 2) have disobeyed God more and more 3) had a vicious siege at the end of it.

Today however we have had the 390 years in which the church has moved more and more into disobedience and -- now the prophets are definitely telling us that the siege is coming soon. The following paragraphs explains a little more.

This 390 year period starts sometime after the establishment of Jamestown in 1607 by the people who settled here for freedom of religious persecution. The first to come to Jamestown were looking for riches and not escaping religious persecution. We do not know exactly when the 390 years began but through His prophets and history, God is telling us that the season of trouble (the siege promised in Ezekiel) for the Israelites is about to begin. Those who put their words and the words of their fathers (traditions) above Gods word will be as they were in AD-70. Those who obey God and prepare as He instructs -- will be taken care of by God as were the followers of Jesus.

Everett Triplett in "Lie on your Left side" gives us the starting date of 1610 and ending date of 2000. This fits God's Word because the year 1610 was when the settlers killed all the people in an Indian village--men, women and children (shedding innocent blood). Judgement was delayed on this and a lot of other things for these 390 years and many prophets of the Lord tell us that judgement is not to be delayed much longer.

The Holy Spirit a few days back made me understand that there was a relationship between the 390 days of Ezekiel and the future of the people of this nation. This relationship can be seen in Ezekiel 4:13 where it says 'The LORD said, "In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them."'. The words "In this way" lets us know that what happened to Ezekiel will happen to the people of Israel among the nations where the Lord has driven them. This agrees with what the Lord told Everett Triplett also.

We know from the prophets of today that we have a war against this nation in which nuclear weapons will be used. One part of nuclear war is fallout. Fallout is created when the weapon goes off close to the ground and makes a radioactive dust cloud. The dust cloud is carried in the upper atmosphere and then around the world. It can stay there for long periods of time before falling to the earth. This dust will cause radiation sickness if it gets on people, is breathed into people, or if it gets into the food chain and eaten by people. The main way the earth is cleansed of fallout is by time and rain.

One prophet tells us that when this happens, we are to go into our houses and stay until the Lord tells us it is safe to come out. The period of time for the atmosphere to clean itself up fits very well with the 390 days of Ezekiel. The staying out of the dust fits what the military taught me in a school where I was trained to be a Chemical-Biological & Radiological Specialist. These instructions are comparable to Noah. When he and his family went into the ark and the rain started they could not go to the corner grocery store to get what they forgot. They prepared ahead of time just as the Lord told them to do. Had they not prepared they would not have been saved. When the war starts we will not be able to start preparation. We must get ready ahead of time as Noah did.

In Ezekiel 4:9 the Holy Spirit gives us the recipe for living in this time. Notice it says to "put them in a storage jar" which is telling us to have our food stored up ahead of time. Water will be the same way as it was rationed to Ezekiel also. Rain water and water from rivers and streams will have fallout dust in it. Those who need electricity to pump their water will have a problem also.

Ezekiel 4:9-11 "Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them in a storage jar and use them to make bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side. Weigh out twenty shekels of food to eat each day and eat it at set times. Also measure out a sixth of a hin of water and drink it at set times.

The Holy Spirit made me understand the reason for cooking the bread with human excrement. If we are in our houses with no gas or electricity, there is just so much cooking that can be done with cutting up furniture and the house before we become exposed to the outside fallout. The only renewable source of fuel is the human excrement.

Ezekiel 4:12-13 Eat the food as you would a barley cake; bake it in the sight of the people, using human excrement for fuel." The LORD said, "In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them."

The Lord through the Holy Spirit in a vision after a dream told me that the events of The Invasion of the Locust (<http://www.gruver.net/jimj/Locust.htm>) of Joel are soon upon this nation. The events in Joel 1 & 2 are pestilence, famine and sword. When we look at the Bible as well as many of the prophets of today we see this same message of pestilence, famine and the sword. Are we being warned? No doubt! Will it happen? YES - Just like the Lord has said.

THE MESSAGE OF EZEKIEL TO US.

Students of history of Judah and Israel have the following saying: "All prophecy is history and all history is prophecy". When we look at the history of Judah and Israel before their captivities, we see a lot of similarities with the church today. The people of Judah and Israel fell further away from obeying God until He punished them according to the promise He gave in Leviticus 26. If He punished Israel and Judah for disobedience, He will punish the church today for doing exactly the same thing.

It is time to repent and walk in the ways of the Lord now and not wait for the time is short. The Lord is telling people how to prepare for the future. He may be telling his people directly or He may be telling them through His prophets.

In the words, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved", believeth means believing what the Lord tells us - not believing what we want to believe.

Is this just about the Americas? No, God's people "Israel" are still scattered throughout the world. God knows where they are so you do not have to worry. Likewise radioactive fallout will be scattered throughout the world. Will the people of other nations have to prepare? Ask the Lord, He knows.

May the Lord be with you,

Jim Johnson

Flight 261

John Hernandez

Friday Fax 2000/16

USA: Pastor's wife prays with passengers before plane crash.

Alaska Airlines Flight 261, en route from Puerto Vallarta to San Francisco, crashed in the Pacific 20 miles from the Californian coast on 31 January 2000. All 83 passengers and 5 crew were killed. According to the NTSB, responsible for investigating the accident, the aircraft suddenly dropped 7,000 feet, then remained stable for 9 minutes before it fell 18,000 feet in the final minute. An Alaska Airlines pilot familiar with the investigation told John Hernandez that he had listened to the recordings of what happened in the cockpit during the flight's last minutes. During that time, Linda Knight, whose husband John is a pastor in Monroe, Washington, explained the gospel to the other passengers via the intercom. Shortly before the crash, she led them in prayer to God for the forgiveness of their sins. The pilot who passed the report on says that there is still no plausible technical explanation for the fact that the aircraft remained relatively stable for those 9 minutes. One thing is clear: it remained in the air long enough for Linda Knight to explain the gospel.

Famine and Sword

Bob Neumann

Sometimes the way THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT gets a point across can be painfully subtle. For years you read the same scripture passage over and over and nothing stands out, nothing grabs your attention. Then one day you read a part of a verse and out of "nowhere" some words suddenly come to life and an "image" is formed. To compound it a memory flow kicks in and similar verses come flowing in and you find yourself looking at an "ISSUE" THE WORD OF GOD had described long ago and established for all to see and to learn of/from. As the sudden "flow" of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT picks you up and carries you wherever HE has chosen to take you I have found myself with two thoughts. First is why? The second is where? The first is simple....WHY had I never "seen" this before?.....and why had no one ever pointed it out to me. The simple answer is GOD does not do things as we do. HE uses men for HIS GLORY and is clearly jealous concerning HIS GLORY. No one "saw" it because it was not yet "time" or just maybe GOD KNEW if man received it and in obedience shared it, others would pick it up, and run with it. Rewrite it, Claim it for there own, Copy write it and Franchise it and Pocket it for themselves.

GOD does not like to be cheated or mocked. The fact that man believes he can "con" a HOLY GOD and "manipulate" GOD to serve the man shows us that there is little or no "FEAR OF THE LORD" among the professional "religious"/"spiritual" that rule the churches today. I guess that is why for 4000 or so years THE WORD has warned us that "HE COME WITH A SWORD...". The problem is that THE WORD usually goes into clearly defined detail with exactly what HE WILL DO WITH THAT SWORD.

That fact takes me to the "second thought"....WHERE is HE taking me with this? What this old dog has learned is that the "journey" itself is as important as the "destination" intended. So with a little explanation I have set a foundation for those whose "spiritual" "eyes" and "ears" are open to what THE SPIRIT OF THE LIVING AND HOLY GOD is saying to HIS CHURCHES today.

One of the funny things is that we are not in a vacuum. We are being "fitted together"...."assembled"....as the author of HEBREWS wrote in 10:25....only GOD WHO IS SOVEREIGN is putting the pieces together. The present journey I am on has been given a push by the WORDS given to and through a number of saints. Bill Burns of Kremmling, Co and Harley Hickley of Virginia are two in particular. But it was John L Moore of the mountains that ABBA used to jump start me and send me on this present roller coaster ride. Just don't blame them for my white knuckles and queezzzzzzyyyy feeling I am working through.

You see, ABBA has the desire to warn people. HE IS FAITHFULL. HE USES images, patterns, and sequences over and over in HIS WORD. HE IS THE SAME....AND HE IS ETERNAL....AND HE IS HOLY. So with the awareness that HIS WARNINGS ARE RARELY HEEDED I will do my best to state what I am hearing and seeing. And pray THE REMNANT will receive.

FAMINE AND SWORD..... Throughout America our "religious leaders" and "professional seers" have been preaching and prophesying REVIVAL and PROSPERITY to a land once blessed and obedient to GOD....to a degree. Like ancient Israel we were brought into "the land" for the right reasons....and for seasons were a GODLY NATION. FEARED GOD...prayed...sent THE GOSPEL out to the farthest corners of the world. But we were not perfect. We sinned and occasionally repented. But somewhere along the line the NATION got caught up with Babylonian "things" and lost sight of our GOD and our heritage. JESUS referred to HIS contemporary "religious institution" as "whited sepulchers". Bryan Hupperts recently had a fine commentary about "whitewash"....find it and read it along with Matthew 23. And while you read the RED LETTERS count the "WOES".... JESUS speaks clearly....and HE ONLY SPOKE WHAT HE HEARD HIS FATHER SAY.....and it would make a whole lot of sense if we keep HIS WORDS in the context that they were given. If we keep everything in strict context there is no way we can miss the meaning that HE wants to get across.....so it seems ABBA is none too happy with mocking and rebellious children. Isaiah 30 delineates that most clearly.

Many have spoken of THE FAMINE IN THE LAND. Amos 8 describes the whole scenario intensely.

Amos 8:11-14

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. 13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst. 14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again. (KJV)

There is no way anyone can miss the fact that GOD sends the famine. Nor can we miss the fact that it is a "spiritual famine". Likewise we can not ignore what it does...people are running "to and fro" looking for "the word" and are not finding it. Now verse 14 is interesting...they swear "by the sin of Samaria". GOD says it so it must mean something. 2Kings 13 mentions the sins of the house of Jeroboam and the grove also in Samaria..... 6Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.)

Now Jesus dealt with the issue briefly when having a theological debate with the woman at the well. The issue is simple, GOD said worship ME in Jerusalem. The sin of Samaria was/is worshipping man's way in man's designated places, like the groves. What we have are other gods...spiritual adultery. In Amos there is a penalty. "even they shall fall, and never rise up again." is not an endorsement for "revival". Nor is what GOD tells us in AMOS 9:1-7

1 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered. 2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down: 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them: 4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. 5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. 6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name. 7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? (KJV)

GOD says something very intense...."and HE said, "Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered".

So if KING JESUS is coming with A SWORD...and HE SAYS HE IS...there is no place to hide and no place to run if you are being targeted for destruction. Moving from the famine in Chapter 8 through THE SWORD at the beginning of Chapter 9 there is a set stage of events that end in one of the great PROPHECIES of all the scripture. THE RESTORATION OF THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID.....Amos 9:11-12

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: 12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this. (KJV)

On 3/12/2000 Bill Burns sent forth this WORD....Prophetic Utterance through Bill Burns:

March 26, 2000: I am looking over all the land, for it is written that I will raise up the tabernacle of David, and I shall establish it in the hearts of those who desire to become mighty men. Not only am I speaking that forth through My word and by My word, for it has already been established in My word, but My eyes are running to and fro and I am looking for the priests who will go and bring back the ark of My covenant, and they shall carry it upon their shoulders. There shall be no ox carts for them, for they shall cast aside the ox carts of religion and tradition and shall lift upon their own shoulders the ark of My covenant and carry it forth into My house. There between the cherubim I shall reveal My glory to My people, to My anointed ones, My David's that I am now calling forth from the whole earth. I am calling from the depth of My heart to the depth of your heart. Will you take up the ark? Will you be a priest in My house? Will you place it upon your shoulders and walk in covenant with Me? Surely if you walk in covenant with Me, you shall receive the benefits, and that which is hidden within it shall become yours. The written word of My promise shall become yours. The revelation of the golden pot of manna shall become yours. The authority of the priesthood shall bud and flower and bring forth fruit, for this is My purpose in all of the earth. This is the work that I am now doing. I say unto you, march to the sound of that which you are hearing. Take up the ark of My covenant and go forth in strength and power, for I shall not fail you. My glory shall be revealed to you, says the Lord God.

THE LORD GOD IS LOOKING FOR PRIESTS WHO WILL SERVE HIM....not themselves....For this wondrous event to take place first must come a famine which we are now in....and then HE COMES WITH A SWORD....Amos 9:8-10 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD. 9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. 10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us. (KJV)

Please reread verse 10 again...10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

THE DAY the unrepentant are slaughtered will be THE DAY THE TABERNACLE WILL BE "RAISED AGAIN".

This does not describe the revivals man alludes to. But THE WORD does not say there will be one. THE WORD clearly states there will be deceptions, strong delusions, waxing wickedness, reprobate minds, major apostasy/falling away. No great move of repentance at all. Now if Amos and Isaiah 51 were the only places where the two IMAGES of FAMINE and SWORD appear in HIS WORD we might be able to ignore it. An OMNISCIENT AND ETERNAL ABBA "knows" us....our stiff necked, less than eager ways and attitudes. Maybe that is why HE placed FAMINE and SWORD together in 40 verses. Amos is not one of them. Amos is the template for us to see GOD'S HANDIWORK in it's fullness.

Interestingly 40 is the number of TRIAL....as in the WILDERNESS. It is the number of the DISPLEASURE of a HOLY GOD AND FATHER when national Israel fear giants more than appreciates the GOD WHO DWELT with them. It is also the number of battle....of fasting and prayer when THE LAMB was tempted and "WITHSTOOD" the enemy. 40 years....40 days....40 verses.....40 days and 40 nights of rain. 40 is the number of DIVINE AND HOLY JUDGEMENT on wickedness.

SO let me start with the oldest "reference" and see if it fits the "sequence" AMOS THE PROPHET gave us.

Job 5:17-27 17 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty: 18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole. 19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee. 20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword. 21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh. 22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth. 23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee. 24 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin. 25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth. 26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season. 27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good. (KJV)

Again we see a clear synopsis of THE GOSPEL....GOD uses TRIAL to awaken wicked man and bring man to "SALVATION". Interestingly FAMINE and SWORD are joined by DESTRUCTION and "the beasts of the earth" so that our "tabernacle shall be in peace". Jeremiah takes it a step farther when he states....Jeremiah 5:10-17

10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD'S. 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. 12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: 13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. 14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. 15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. 16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. 17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword. (KJV)

Here "the prophets" are openly attempting to deceive the people by giving them "words" that deny what GOD is saying. Funny how JOB speaks of obedience and repentance...TESHUVAH...and we have "tabernacles of peace". JEREMIAH speaks of hardened hearts refusing GOD'S TRIALS and we have "open sepulchers". Later he will give us a clearer view of JOB'S FOUR PRONGED JUDGEMENT...Jeremiah 15:1-7

1 Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. 2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. 3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy. 4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. 5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest? 6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. 7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways. (KJV)

Like in AMOS, there is nowhere to run....no place to hide for the rebellious and the wicked.

DEATH....SWORD....FAMINE....CAPTIVITY....all appointed for a "SET TIME".....JESUS HAS CLEARLY CALLED US TO PICK UP OUR CROSSES TO FOLLOW HIM. TO TAKE UP HIS YOKE AND TO LEARN OF HIM. HE BRINGS THE TWO EDGED SWORD OF HIS WORD TO CUT AND DIVIDE US SO WE MIGHT BE SEPARATED FROM A WICKED WORLD AND ABIDE IN HIS TABERNACLE OF PEACE. HE HAS COME TO THIS WORLD WITH HIS SWORD THAT COMES OUT OF HIS MOUTH....THE WORDS HE HAS HEARD ABBA SPEAK. TO BRING DEATH SO WE MAY LIVE AGAIN.

HE SENDS HIS DOGS TO TEAR AND REND THE FALSE FABRIC OF MAN'S ADULTEROUS PARODY OF HIS TABERNACLE.

Hosea 6:4-11

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. 5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. 6 For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. 7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me. 8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood. 9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. 10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled. 11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people. (KJV)

THE FALSE PRIESTS CANNOT CARRY THE ARC, THE FALSE PROPHETS DO NOT PROVOKE A CARNAL PEOPLE TO REPENTANCE. SO THE KING COMES TO JUDGE HIS SERVANTS BOTH GOOD AND FAITHFULL WITH THOSE WHO ARE WICKED AND DRUNKEN.

Amos 2:9-16

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. 11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. 12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not. 13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves. 14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself: 15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself. 16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD. (KJV)

THERE IS NO PLACE TO HIDE....NO PLACE TO RUN....EXCEPT TO THE LORD WHILE HE MAY BE FOUND.

Amos 3:1-8

1 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, 2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. 3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed? 4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? 5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all? 6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it? 7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. 8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy? (KJV)

THE LION ROARS....HE HAS THUNDERED.... YET THE PRIESTS AND PRINCES WILL NOT REPENT FROM THEIR ADULTERIES AND THEIR SORCERIES. THERE IS A POINT WHERE A MOST HOLY GOD SHALL NO LONGER CONTEND WITH MAN.

BUT THE FOOL SAYS IN HIS HEART THAT THERE IS NO GOD. THERE IS NO ONE TO FEAR. NO ONE TO STAND IN TERROR OF SO THERE IS NO NEED TO REPENT.

THE HUMBLER AND CONTRITE WALK OUT THEIR SALVATION BEFORE A HOLY GOD IN FEAR AND TREMBLING. BEING STILL BEFORE HIM WHO COMES WITH A SWORD TO RIGHTEOUSLY MAKE WAR UPON HIS ENEMIES.

Micah 3:1-12

1 And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment? 2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; 3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. 4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. 5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him. 6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. 7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. 9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity. 10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. 11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us. 12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. (KJV)

THE GREAT AND TERRIBLE GOD HAS SPOKEN THROUGH HIS SERVANTS. JUDGEMENT BEGINS IN THE HOUSEHOLD OF GOD AND MOVES THROUGHOUT HIS CITY TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH. THE WHEAT AND THE TARES ARE SEPARATED FOR THE FINAL HARVEST HAS BEGUN.

Zechariah 8:1-23

1 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. 3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. 6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts. 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; 8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. 10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour. 11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. 12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. 13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong. 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not: 15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not. 16 These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: 17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, 19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace. 20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities: 21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also. 22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD. 23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. (KJV)

THE TABERNACLE WILL BE RESTORED. A HOLY PRIESTHOOD SHALL BE ESTABLISHED THAT SERVES THE KING OF GLORY ON HIS MOUNTAIN AND IN HIS PAVILION. A ROYAL PRIESTHOOD ANOINTED AND SEPARATED AND COMMISSIONED IN THEIR SERVICE. ALL NATIONS WILL BOW BEFORE THE KING OF GLORY WHO SHALL ENTER THROUGH THE ANCIENT GATES. THE KING OF GLORY WHO IS MIGHTY IN BATTLE. WHO COMES IN RIGHTEOUSNESS WITH A SWORD TO JUDGE HIS SERVANTS AND TO MAKE WAR UPON THE NATIONS. FAITHFULL AND TRUE IS THE KING OF GLORY.

WHO WILL FEAR HIS NAME? WHO WILL STAND BEFORE HIM?

BLESSED BE THE NAME OF THE LORD

Familiar Spirits

Priscilla Van Sutphin

There are many in the church who when praying against demons speak of familiar spirits as if they were those passed down from family...which is to say they are familiar to us, but this is an error as the definition for a FAMILIAR SPIRIT has to do with those spirits who are called up in seances and other such occultic activity, like playing the ouija board.

They should not be confused with generational spirits inherited from relatives. These are a different type entirely. They appear as ghosts of dead relatives or people we know. They cause havoc in manifesting and drawing great attention to themselves, in order to entice the person away from God or to scare them. I think that the alien stuff is basically the same thing...familiar spirits masquerading as aliens...to entice people away from interest in God...and putting doubt in them about the Bible and God.

Shamans (look at the Maneelock prophecy on the prophecy page) have the power of familiar spirits and can actually through being possessed by these, change their appearance to be like an animal. This is where the gypsy "werewolf" tales come from. There was a show on TV a couple years ago...talk show...can't remember which network aired it... but there was a Catholic charismatic couple called to minister to a man in England who had a werewolf spirit...and they had photos of him in the actual changing process and showed the deliverance changes, and he came on afterwards to testify of the saving power of Jesus Christ from his former state.

The presence of FAMILIAR SPIRITS always signals occultic activity...whether it is handed down from family, or if they are active in a house haunting...or causing ILLNESSES in their victims who are inhabited by them due to past activity of family members in the occult or the person themselves.

One example would be a young woman I met years ago who had scars all over her legs which made her look like she was a drug addict, but in fact her father was a Satanic High Priest and had involved her in satanic rituals as a child. demons inhabited her body and were making her break out in these unsightly sores, and it was a perpetual wounding...even though she had long before given her heart to the LORD...at least two years previous....she did not have the deliverance from them.

In Nehemiah 9 , the children of Israel stood for hours repenting of their sins and those of their fathers and grandfathers, etc For some who have been hurt by such activity in their families...they may not even KNOW what sins to repent of...and even if they do...

THIS KIND COME OUT ONLY BY PRAYER AND FASTING. The deliverance and inner healing minister must have a life that is fully surrendered to God and have a lifestyle of prayer and fasting.... God is great...but great power is conferred only to those who want to walk in holiness. A spirit of pride and control CANNOT drive out witchcraft ! God does not use perfect vessels, and we count on HIS righteousness not just our own, we must put on Christ....but to have an apostolic ministry of miracles of healing and deliverance more is required..."To whom much is given, much is required" Jesus said.

Definition taken from Zondervan Bible Encyclopedia " The spirit of a dead person which a medium, in the form of magic know as necromancy, claimed to summon to consultation. (Deut.18:11) In necromancy (seances), in which the dead were consulted about the future, it was believed that either a spirit dwelt in the controlling medium, (Leviticus 20:27) who was commonly a woman, or that the medium had fellowship with a spirit from whom she could receive information. The word "familiar" in this term has the sense of belonging to one's family, and so to oneself; ready to serve one as a servant." Mediums today are called "clairvoyants" or "spiritists" or "shamans" or "channelers". They do not get revelation, but information from demons, who know your weaknesses and neediness. "Mediums seemed to have deceived their inquirers by speaking in a thin weak voice, as though it came from the ground, or a bottle. (Isaiah 8:19, 19:4) The LXX generally represents them as ventriloquists." "[Nothing is known of their method of procedure]" Zondervan says...but today that is not true. Today it is exposed even in the movies. such as "The Craft" Satan has his revival right now, but we are about to have ours, and his kingdom will be trampled on. "The Mosaic Law forbade the consulting of familiar spirits, and mediums were commanded to be put to death. (Lev. 19:31, 20:6, 27; Deut.18: 11) "King Saul put away the mediums early in his reign, but greatly worried about the outcome of his last battle, he consulted the witch of Endor and asked to speak to the prophet Samuel (1 Samuel 28:3, 7-9) and (1 Chronicles 10:13) It appears that Saul was told by the witch that she saw Samuel, and Saul himself entered into the conversation with the prophet. King Manasseh also fell into the sin of consulting mediums (2 Kings 21:6; 2 Chronicles 33:6) but his grandson JOSIAH put them out of the land. (2 Kings 23:24) "

There is coming a generation of Josiahs, of Moses' of Joshuas, of Jehus etc. a nation of deliverers who will do the same as those of old and rid the world of witchcraft, wherever they go. "Belief in the possibility of communing with the spirit of the dead was common in ancient heathendom. The Gilgamesh epic, Tablet XII gives evidence of it; and Acts 16:16-18 tells of a slave girl who was a medium and brought her owners much gain by her divination." The scriptures give us clues as how to deal with such spirits...read carefully and contemplatively...

SCRIPTURES:

Leviticus 19:31 NKJ "Give no regard to mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek after them, to be defiled by them; I am the Lord Your God." Leviticus 20:6, 27 NKJ "And the person who turns after mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from his people." "A man of woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them." Deuteronomy 18:10-12 AMP "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through the fire, or who uses divination, or is a soothsayer, or an auger, or a sorcerer, or a charmer, or a medium or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all who do these things are an abomination to the Lord; and it is because of these abominable practices that the Lord your God is driving them out from before you." (For more information on what these mean see article on divination) Isaiah 8:19-22 Amplified version " And when the people [instead of putting their trust in God] shall say to you, consult for direction mediums and wizards who chirp and mutter, should not a people seek and consult their GOD? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? [Direct such people] to the teaching and to the testimony; if their teachings are not in accord with this word, it is surely because there is no dawn and no morning for them. And they [who consult mediums and wizards] shall pass through the land, sorely distressed and hungry; and when they shall be hungry, they will fret themselves , and curse by their king an their God; and whether they look upward. or look to the earth, they will behold only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and into thick darkness an widespread, obscure night, they shall be driven away. " You can see from this scripture, there is a curse on those who choose this route, especially when they know God, and turn from Him , like the Israelites.

2 Kings 21:1-6 NKJ "Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; He raised up altars for Baal, and made a wooden image as Ahab king of Israel had done; and he worshipped all the hosts of heaven (the Assyrian gods) and served them. He also built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name." "And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord." " Also he made his son pass through the fire, practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke HIM to anger." 2 Chronicles 33:6 AMP " And he burned his children as an offering [to his god] in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and practiced soothsaying, augury, and sorcery, and dealt with mediums and wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger.

Remember that the good news is that the LIGHT drives out the DARKNESS, the best way to dispel the darkness is to turn on the Light, Worship destroys the power of witchcraft, so turn on your voice, the music and ask for the Holy Spirit to come. You can rebuke a lot and spend yourselves striving, but the LORD OF HOSTS is our rear guard, When HE comes NOTHING can oppose HIM !

Below is Matthew Henry's commentary for the first few verses of 2 Kings 21 and the reign of Manasseh....

"III. He reigned very ill. 1. In general, (1.) He did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and which, having been well educated, he could not but know was so (v. 2): He wrought much wickedness in the sight of the Lord, as if on purpose to provoke him to anger, v. 6.

(2.) He did after the abominations of the heathen (v. 2) and as did Ahab (v. 3), not taking warning by the destruction both of the nations of Canaan and the house of Ahab for their idolatry; nay (v. 9), he did more evil than did the nations whom the Lord destroyed. When the holy seed degenerate, they are commonly worse than the worst of the profane.

2. More particularly, (1.) He rebuilt the high places which his father had destroyed, v. 3. Thus did he trample upon the dust, and affront the memory, of his worthy father, though he knew how much he was favoured of God and honoured of men. He concurred, it is probable, with Rabshakeh's sentiments (2 Kings 18:22), that Hezekiah had done ill in destroying those high places, and pretended the honour of God, and the edification and convenience of the people, in rebuilding them. This he began with, but proceeded to that which was much worse; for,

(2.) He set up other gods, Baal and Ashtarothe (which we translate a grove), and all the host of heaven, the sun and moon, the other planets, and the constellations; these he worshipped and served (v. 3), gave their names to the images he made, and then did homage to them and prayed for help from them. To these he built altars (v. 5), and offered sacrifices, no doubt, on these altars.

(3.) He made his son pass through the fire, by which he dedicated him a votary to Moloch, in contempt of the seal of circumcision by which he had been dedicated to God.

(4.) He made the devil his oracle, and, in contempt both of urim and prophecy, he used enchantments and dealt with familiar spirits (v. 6) like Saul. Conjurers and fortune-tellers (who pretended, by the stars or the clouds, lucky and unlucky days, good and bad omens, the flight of birds, or the entrails of beasts, to foretell things to come) were great men with him, his intimates, his confidants; their arts pleased his fancy, and gained his belief, and his counsels were under their direction.

(5.) We find afterwards (v. 16) that he shed innocent blood very much in gratification of his own passion and revenge; some perhaps were secretly murdered, others taken off by colour of law. Probably much of the blood he shed was theirs that opposed idolatry and witnessed against it, that would not bow the knee to Baal. The blood of the prophets is, in a particular manner, charged upon Jerusalem, and it is probable that he put to death many of them. The tradition of the Jews is that he caused the prophet Isaiah to be sawn asunder; and many think the apostle refers to this in Heb 11:37, where he speaks of those that had so suffered.

3. Three things are here mentioned as aggravations of Manasseh's idolatry:-

(1.) That he set up his images and altars in the house of the Lord (v. 4), in the two courts of the temple (v. 5), in the very house of which God had said to Solomon, Here will I put my name, v. 7. Thus he defied God to his face, and impudently affronted him with his rivals immediately under his eye, as one that was neither afraid of God's wrath nor ashamed of his own folly and wickedness. Thus he desecrated what had been consecrated to God, and did, in effect, turn God out of his own house and put the rebels in possession of it. Thus, when the faithful worshippers of God came to the place he had appointed for the performance of their duty to him, they found, to their great grief and terror, other gods ready to receive their offerings. God had said that here he would record his name, here he would put it for ever, and here it was accordingly preserved, while the idolatrous altars were kept at a distance; but Manasseh, by bringing them into God's house, did what he could to alter the property, and to make the name of the God of Israel to be no more in remembrance.

(2.) That hereby he put a great slight upon the word of God, and his covenant with Israel. Observe the favor he had shown to that people in putting his name among them,-the kindness he intended them, never to make them move out of that good land,-and the reasonableness of his expectations from them, only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, v. 7, 8. Upon these good terms did Israel stand with God, and had as fair a prospect of being happy as any people could have; but they hearkened not, v. 9. They would not be kept close to God either by his precepts or by his promises; both were cast behind their back.

(3.) That hereby he seduced the people of God, debauched them, and drew them into idolatry, v. 9. He caused Judah to sin (v. 11), as Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. His very example was enough to corrupt the generality of unthinking people, who would do as their king did, right or wrong. All that aimed at preferment would do as the court did; and others thought it safest to comply, for fear of making their king their enemy. Thus, one-way or other, the holy city became a harlot, and Manasseh made her so. Those will have a great deal to answer for that not only are wicked themselves, but help to make others so. Family Testaments

Suzin McNeill

My people are far from Me this day, says The LORD. They have sought the gospel for self and not to walk in My ways. You're families are your testaments. Have you loved your own selves above Me? I stand in the spouse that is forced down into despair through circumstances. I stand in the children who have borne much heartache. When will you place your own self aside and come unto Me to learn of My ways?

Your families are crying because you have not sought Me to lead you wholly. Your sons and daughters rebel for the lack of Christ lead actions before them. They see your darkneses and turn away from you. If they had seen My son JESUS and My love through you, they would stay by your side to just be in the presence of one who loves them. Your spouses, your sons, your daughters, see you as you really are. Is there not reason for them to turn away and then turn aside from you?

You call Me, FATHER but have yet to do the simplest things that I request. Have I, The LORD your GOD said to love one another? Have I not set My examples before you of patience and long suffering? You seek to change the world through self-made ministry when you have not ministered unto Me, nor your own families. It is written to train up your children in the way they should go. Your children follow after your own examples. You have conceived and brought forth a rebellious generation because you, your selves have been born of rebellion.

My people, Israel, these things ought not be. I am turning My face towards you. Be zealous and repent. Pray daily with one another within your own homes. Gather around My Word each morning and begin your day with prayer. How I long to abide in your families. How I long to abide in your families... I long for your early prayers. I long for your opened hearts before Me.

Can you change anything for good without Me? Let Me change your families. Give Me room to teach your children. Teach them to love one another as I have loved you. Come bow down. The first step of unity shall come as love stepping within your own home. Do you desire to see unity among My body? Invite Me into your family anew.

Do you love Me? LOVE ONE ANOTHER. Walk in My ways. Come the time is quickly passing. The problems within your temples is a direct result of the problems within your own selves and within your own families. Bow down. Raise up by loving one another. By this, shall all men know that you are My disciples ~ that you love one another as I have loved you. Continue in My love, says The LORD. 2-24-2000

Faith Apart From Works Is Dead

James 2

- 14. What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him?*
- 15. Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food.*
- 16. If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it?*
- 17. In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.*
- 18. But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do.*
- 19. You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that--and shudder.*
- 20. You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless ?*
- 21. Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?*
- 22. You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did.*
- 23. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend.*

"You show Me your faith, and I will show you a person who has put it into action."

(The Lord showed me a hand which was raised as if to say a blessing, and the person said, "Have faith and be made well." The hand was very much like a glove.)

"This is very much like the man who passed by the Samaritan. He said a few things, and then, he went on his way. Was this man then taken care of ? I say that he was not."

(Again the Lord began to show me some things. There was a door or a portal which was an arch which opened-up in front of me. I was in the presence of the Lord, with clouds in front of me. He showed me a very long foot-bridge, the kind that would stretch out over between two mountains, or cliffs. It was very foggy, and I just discern some of the bridge in the distance in front of me. He then said, "This is what faith is like."

As I continued watching this scene, He told me to go back to the bridge, and I saw a figure laying across part of it in the distance, blocking my way. He then said, that "Faith is helping this person, or you can go no further.)

"Was not Abraham ready to sacrifice his own son? Surely, he heard my voice, and put into action what I had told him. So, faith apart from works, is dead. Truly, as it has been said, "The demons even believe and they shudder." Many may well know that I AM the only God that there is. But do you see the evidence of their faith working in their lives?

The road stretches out before you, my servants....and there will be many opportunities to show forth "good works." So, be fruitful in your service to Me. Do not just say "good things," but put into action what is on my heart. Then you will be "living examples" of what I AM in this world. Otherwise, your house will fall into the sea because it was not built upon the rock.

"That is my charge for you this day, my servants."

Fasting in the Fire

Doug Patterson

There is coming a time when I will call My Body to fast in the fire. For I shall gather many together and corporately they shall seek My face. You shall be fasting with the giants, the giants of the Lord. The Daniel anointing is poured over many people, many places, many regions and many countries. Corporately, I will network the ministries together and call forth the fast to birth My kingdom in your life, in your country, in your village and in your town. I am moving in a new dimension, in a new way. I desire that the Spirit of unity come forth to release a new source of power and breakthrough as you are fasting in the fire.

I am the one who is the fire starter. I am the one who is the consuming blaze. I am the one that lets My glory come through the flames. It shall burn with an intense white light. Many people shall stand up across the nations. They shall reach out from region to region and hold the hands of the one next to them by the Spirit. In the left and the right hand shall be golden links of chain. As soon as the two links touch from the person holding the chain on the left and on the right they shall join together and form a line of blessing, a ribbon of life. I will pull the chain and everyone shall be standing in My presence, knowing My glory and My manifested power. If one should be discouraged and fall to his knees in despair, the chain will be jarred across the line and others will know of it and pull tight causing the person that is down trodden to be lifted back up. For the pressure that will be on their left or right hand through with the union of the chains as they embrace hand to hand, link to link, precept upon precept, glory to glory. It shall lift them up and they shall not be down trodden too long but be raised up by the Body of Christ through intercession, through prayer, through a Spirit of unity.

For the glory is about to pour upon your nation, your land and your house. Be encouraged when I call a fast. It is the fasting in the fire.

Father Leadership

Paul Jablonowski

One of my favorite authors, Rick Joyner, writes, "Though the image of the Lord is both male and female, and there is the nature of Him that would gather us as a hen gathers her chicks, God is presented throughout the Scriptures as "Father," and is never called "Mother." To dilute this, is to distort His image with a very thick veil. "Father" means "life giver." The father gives the seed, and the mother nurtures the seed. In Scripture, we see the creation as "a" mother. Both Israel and the church are also referred to in Scripture as "mothers." Just as the woman was taken from Adam so that they would have to come together to be the complete image of God, the Lord will be joined perfectly to His bride to give the creation a true reflection of His glory. However, there can be no joining if we do not see the differences of each. God is the Father, and He is masculine to the uttermost. We must not compromise this basic truth if we are to see His glory and be changed into His image." (excerpted from Rick Joyner's book "50 Days for a Firm Foundation" - page 45)

One of the main ways that God provides leadership in His kingdom is through fathers. This is why the spirit of Elijah must come and restore "the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers." Otherwise the "great and dreadful Day of the Lord" which is coming would consume us and "strike the earth with a curse" (Mal. 4:4-6). These final words in the Older Covenant point to God's "father leadership" in His kingdom. Fathering involves the loving heart attitude displayed in raising children. A father exhorts and comforts and implores and sometimes chastens when necessary (1 Thess. 2:11, Heb. 12:7-11). A father is always around through the thick and thin. A father never leaves you nor forsakes you. A father not only goes with you into battle, he leads the way (Joshua 1:5-9). Fathering is a major leadership method for building the body of Christ.

The most important thing you could ever impart to someone is how to love God, and this does not come by teaching or laying on of hands or any other "quick fix" method. It comes from being loved by a father. It comes by hanging around someone on a consistent basis who has an intimate relationship with The Abba Father. This is why before Jesus came, we never truly knew how to be intimate with God. Jesus started the Fathering mentorship by being a father to twelve men and those twelve men became fathers who had sons who became fathers, and so on and so on. The fathering family of God began.

It is easy to get a "corporation mentality" and try to pump out as many sons and daughters as you can, but the reality is that if you try to father too many children you cease to be a father and start becoming more of a corporation where the intimacy is lost. A father does not even choose his own children, but they are given to him by God, and a child does not get to choose their father either. Much of the disarray in the body of Christ is a result of fathers hand picking their children according to those who "fit their mold" instead of fathering the sons and daughters that God has chosen for them. We need to be "joined and knit together" correctly according to God's will so that "every part does its share, causing growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love" (Eph. 4:16).

The hierarchy of God's kingdom does not look like the typical corporate organizational chart with the president on top and other people branching off of them and other people branching off of them etc. Rather it is like a huge fishing net (network). All members of the body are physically connected to only a FEW parts of the body, but they receive the benefit of the entire body by way of the blood. In the same manner, the blood of Jesus runs through the entire body of Christ to give life for the benefit of all. "The life of the flesh is in the blood" Leviticus 17:11.

1 Corinthians 11:25-30 says, "In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes. Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup. For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep."

If we are not properly joined together to the part of the body of Christ that God has called us, then the blood (life) cannot flow properly. The reason for much of the weakness, sickness and premature death among believers is that we do not "discern the Lord's body" correctly. In other words, we are not discerning where in the body of Christ we should be joined or who are our spiritual fathers and children. This is partly due to the set-up of the current "church institutions" which do not promote family intimacy, but rather a spectator mentality. This is going to change.

God is bringing His people into His order, and fathering (as opposed to the current mega-church corporation mentality) is according to His order. God only asked for His people to gather together in large groups three times a year. Deuteronomy 16:16 says, "Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord your God in the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and they shall not appear before the Lord empty handed." Leviticus 23 tells us that these feasts were given by God to be celebrated "forever" as a memorial and a holy convocation. All of these feasts are Christ centered and point to Jesus as the Messiah. The rest of the year we should be in small "families" as the Lord leads, being fathered and fathering according to our maturity.

I believe that the Lord will use the soon coming 1,000 year reign of Christ (Rev. 20:1-7) to implement this "fathering leadership." The feasts of the Lord will once again be celebrated annually (Lev. 23) and the family will begin to be restored as God's main training ground for His people. Although it will take 1,000 years to perfect, this will cure much of the confusion in the body of Christ, because just the structure of the current church system draws leaders into envy and self-seeking. James 3:16 says, "For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing will be there." But if you have more of a family structure with fathering and mothering continually going on in a smaller group, then real intimacy and "love in action" can take place on a day to day basis, instead of just on Sunday morning.

The words "father" and "fathers" appear in the KJV Bible 1,484 times. Needless to say, the scriptures have much to say about fathers. This article is not for the purpose of studying the entire role of the father, but for showing that fathering is more than just raising children, it is the very plan and order for God's leadership. Of course God is our ultimate Father as 2 Corinthians 6:18 tells us, "I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty." But don't forget that the apostle Paul also considered himself a father, and this fathering leadership has been God's way of maturing His people from the beginning. "For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Therefore, I urge you, imitate me." 1 Corinthians 4:15,16

Fellowship and Association

Cary Goodwin

Dear Brethren,

There is so much the Lord is wanting me to write to you right now. I will be getting a news letter out about the Gathering in Oklahoma and a letter describing the leading I have received from the Lord in the past two months. It is all very important. There were some serious breakthroughs at the third Gathering. I had intended only to get this letter out to the Apostles. However the Lord has convinced me that all need to read this and understand.

On the last day of the Gathering in OKC the Lord had me teaching especially about the intensity of the warfare surrounding the subject of His Apostles. I did speak about the issue addressed in this letter. After it was over I talked to one of our Brothers who had been through a hellish experience with his Church. I wish that he would have called or communicated his problems to me while he was going through it. Our fellowship and association at this point is vital to us all. I believe you will understand more as you read this letter and my responses to it.

I want to encourage each one of you to attend the Apostles Gatherings as they occur. The Lord is definitely doing a work in our midst. You need to be there especially you Apostles. At the last Gathering towards the end I was seeking the Lord as to whether or not we should continue through the night or call it a night. The Lord spoke to me very clearly that we were on course and all was well. This is not just some popular movement that has no far reaching consequence.

A Brother I discerned to be an Apostle before the last Gathering who decided not to go because there was no clear prepared pre-written agenda, called me after the Gathering and began to explain what his Pastor was intending for them. I cautioned him not to buy into it, that he could not return unto Babylon. You all need to understand what is going on right now all around.

This Brothers letter to me, is first and then my response follows in Italics. This is not a game. I want to speak to you again after you read my response.

Cary,

Last week on the phone you cautioned me about "coming back under Babylon" when I mentioned assembling a five-fold team of men and having our senior pastor pray and anoint us with oil for ministry. I got your point and so cancelled the anointing service last Saturday.

This morning, in an emergency meeting, the pastor asked what I meant by Babylon? Where do you see yourself, Larry, in two years? Until we hear from God about the five-fold ministry and how it will change our local government structure, will you stay submitted to the pastor here at _____? W_____ uses Episcopal rule, not congregational rule or presbyters rule, are you okay with that while we consider the plurality of elders rule? I know of only four men I would call apostles, but I am willing to learn about it, are you okay with that, Larry? In the Foursquare denomination we have district supervisors over several churches in a region. Are they to be considered apostles?

The pastor said, "We want to be your home church for when you travel and do whatever God has for you in the future of your ministry. We trust you, Larry, but we need to continue the present chain of authority until God clearly changes it around here."

So, Cary, I have a retreat house with my ministry and I am meeting Friday the thirteenth of this week for the first time with the five-fold team and our two worship leaders. I will pursue unity among this group of men, educate them about the five-fold, express our pastor's feelings, and seek the Lord. We have been chosen to do all of the teaching of the men at _____ at our Saturday morning and Thursday night events.

Dear Brother,

We have to understand that the systems of men in place now make no provision for many of the Callings of God under the Lord's order and ways. It is not the Pastors fault. It is not the fault of any of us that desire to serve the Lord in these days. But the Lord is bringing His Apostles to the forefront in this time. I have received a very formal and direct command from the Lord to Gather His Apostles. The Lord has spoken to me for many years now about Calling His Church to Order. He cannot pour out His Glory on systems of men that are operating under the Spirit of Mystery Babylon, Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the earth.

This spirit is clearly described as the religious systems of men that deceives the nations from the truth of God. It is made clear when we see the Lord cursing the Pharisees and telling them that He will send prophets and Apostles to them and some they will slay and persecute. Then the Lord tells His disciples to beware the Leaven of the Pharisees.

In revelation Chapters 17 and 18 we see that the blood of the saints and of the prophets and apostles was found in her.

In Revelation 18:20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

Men over the centuries have not understood any of this. The Lord declared that the traditions and doctrines of men and devils do make His Word of none effect. Men throughout the centuries have structured the churches according to their discretion and not according to the Order and ways of God. The Order and ways of God were clearly shown on the day of Pentecost when there was no strange doctrine of men to forbid Him. The Apostle Paul more than any other was used of God to teach Order in the Church. Satan has always known that if he could destroy God's structure and Order in the Church he could prevail over a people who had authority over him to cast him out. Satan convinced the Church that Miracles went away with the Apostles. In one fell swoop he destroyed for a time the God Ordained delegated authority and leadership in the Church.

We have come to the time when the Lord is getting ready to prepare His Bride and to show forth His Glory to be seen in His people, before the end of this dispensation. He can't pour it out on doctrines of men and devils and be true to His word that says it does make His Word of none effect. This applies to the traditions and systems of men that pervert His Order. We need to quit using the term five fold ministries. It is a term of men that usually refers to the Prophets and Apostles only. There are five ministries given by the Lord. All are important. If each one is given by the Lord then it is imperative that each one operating in the respective callings be called by the Lord and not birthed and approved of by a system of men.

There is nothing the Pastor can do. He should not in any way feel threatened by the Calling of the Apostle or Prophet. Any Apostle trying to assert authority to change the government structure of a system such as the Four Square Church has no understanding. The district supervisors would in no way be considered Apostles because of their position in a system such as this. The Calling of an Apostle can only be given by the Lord. This is why we have been diligent to have the Apostles submit to the discernment process. It is not an Approval process.

Your Pastor like all of us is going to have to make some hard decisions in the days ahead. It means being willing to do it God's way and no other way. To accept the delegated authority of God, so that the Lord is free and legal to His Word, in pouring out His Spirit in a measure the World has yet to see. So that the World will know God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent.

The Pastors of the present systems of men that do try to hinder those in the Body of Christ from seeking to come out of Babylon will be placing themselves at risk with the Lord. Many Pastors will attack and persecute the Apostles calling them sheep stealers and much worse as the Lord calls His People out of Babylon and Calls His Church to Order. These words have already begun; Revelation Chapter 18 vs. 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. I know that this is not easy to entreat, but unfortunately it is the truth. This is a very serious matter a matter of life and death to God's people in the earth. It would not seem strange if the Lord Called His Apostles out of Babylon first.

All the men who obeyed God in making changes towards God's Order and Truth have always been labeled as goats or rebellious by the systems already in place. It is hard. But we all must seek first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness. We must all strive to obey His Will and Ways. We are not in a time like before. Any man who thinks that we are not drawing very near to the end of this dispensation or that the Lord will not return is fooling himself.

What I am writing here is hard for all of us to accept. Babylon is not just Catholicism as some teach. It is not just America or the financial institutions. It is not the religious system of the Anti Christ. Babylon influences all the religions in the Earth to deceive the Nations from the truth of God.. And it has been in place a long time.

Just because something has been that way a long time does not make it true. Buddhism is older than Christianity but as wrong as wrong can be. And I can assure you they don't like any body telling them that. Some Pastors are trying to embrace this move of God to bring forth His Apostles. It makes for good Church and has the APPEARANCE of righteousness, showing the willingness to embrace the truth of God's Word. But the Pastors are insisting on being the covering and being in complete control over the Apostle or the Apostle must go. This is happening in many places at this time. Again this is just another perversion of the Lords Order and Ways. It will not work. And it displeases the Lord for false doctrine to be taught to His people by example. Trying to adopt God's Order and Ways into the now established systems of men without the systems abandoning their Order and ways, Will not work.

Your Pastor is not going to change the Four square church or their govt. We are all in the same boat. We must do it God's Way in this time coming out of the influence of Mystery Babylon. To reject the Truth because it doesn't fit with your religion is folly.. Believe me I have sought the Lord about this many many times. We just have to abandon the doctrines of men and devils along with their systems. I am not bashing anyone. It's just the way it is.

It sounds like the Pastor is a nice guy.

Cary Goodwin

Approximately two months ago, the Lord spoke clearly to me and told me to begin to move towards the Vision He gave me when He caught me up in the Spirit and took me into the future to show me my work. This was over twenty years ago. On my way to the first Gathering the Lord spoke to me and told me that it was now the time of my vision. At that Gathering I was describing the work and ministry center as a HUB for the Apostles where we could publish the gospel.

Two months ago, He told me that ministry center was to centralize His Apostles. He had warned me several years ago not to go for a 501 C-3 for the ministry. After He told me to move towards the vision the Lord brought me the answer for the second or third time for founding the ministry. I have founded the Apostles Gathering Ministries under a Corporation Sole. This unlike the 501 C-3 does not put you in partnership with and accountable to the Government.

Remember now the main thrust behind the Lord Commanding to Gather His Apostles is to Call His Church to Order. Every minister of the Lord in these times must be licensed or Ordained by men in order to Marry or minister in prisons etc.

I am to Ordain or license men according to their callings under God. Just like it has been necessary to discern the Apostles it is also important that we license or ordain those called by God into their respective Callings, under Ephesians 4:11. We will not license any as a Reverend.

It is important that we do not create a new denomination or fall into the same pitfalls of so many before. But as I said, the Lord has been talking to me and teaching me about Calling His Church to Order for many years now.

I have been following the Lord's leading in this one step at a time and will continue to do so. These are crucial times. It has become very evident that we must take this fellowship and association very seriously. This has been resounding in my spirit with greater strength in this last month or more.

Those who have been discerned as Apostles by this fellowship can be licensed or Ordained by the Apostles Gathering Ministries as an Apostle. As with the Apostles there are many other brethren out there who are called by God for this hour as Prophets, Evangelist, Pastors and Teachers, who are not recognized by the Systems of men and who are coming out of Babylon. These too must be supported and empowered to fulfill their respective roles in this end time hour as the Lord Calls His Remnant Church to His Order and Ways.

You must understand the seriousness of this matter and the intense warfare that we are up against. We must be in fellowship and association with one another. Satan really does want to pick off the Apostles more than any other calling.

Since the Apostles Gathering in Oklahoma the Lord has been dealing with me more intensely about what I am writing here. So much so, that it has been hard to concentrate on getting out the report on the Oklahoma Gathering.

We have Apostles who are Elders here, who have a great deal of experience, from missionary work to building Churches to home fellowships. I have been acutely aware that the Lord has provided everything according to His Will for this fellowship. Again, I say take this seriously.

I do love you all and know what your up against. We have no other choice but to follow our Lord Jesus Christ. If you have any questions call me or write.

Breaking Loose the Fetters

by Linda Lamon

1 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Isaiah 43:1-3

There is fear in the hearts of many these days. Fears of diverse and numerous kinds. We fear the future, the unknown, the wickedness and evil in the world. We fear each other and strangers. We fear our own failures and even successes bring fear. Truly today, men's hearts fail them for fear. Anxiety has become an epidemic in our society. Around the world doctors are treating millions for their illnesses and diseases often brought on by what they like to term "stress". Stress is just a nice word for what used to be called "nerves" but really is a result of the future shock and anxiety of our lives. We live in a constant state of dread because we are uncertain about everything. Life has never seemed more unpredictable or unstable.

Parts of the world are suffering from calamity after calamity. Others are just so caught up in the day to day grind of "earning their daily bread" or "keeping up with the Joneses" that they barely have time to breathe, much less reflect upon their manner of living or quality of life. Most figure all that they really need is a "breather" or a vacation, some minute period of their lives that will be totally out of their normal pattern and will somehow rejuvenate them to return to the daily grind. It never works and so the psychiatrists and counselors treat us for "burn-out".

Those that are called by their name by the Lord God Almighty ought not to be caught up in such a dreadful pattern of living. Yet they most often are on the same treadmill as everyone else. In fact we have a pervasive sense amongst Christians that life and the world are about to undergo tremendous upheaval, change and trouble. Some are even looking forward to it and really want to say, let the world hang itself. They are not lovingly concerned about millions dying in their sins. After all, they are 'saved' and not at risk no matter what happens in this world. Hurray for them. My heart is rent asunder for the loss of life that may occur, for the millions that may die in their sins and the foolishness that prevents us from understanding God's purposes in this world.

Yet this is not what I am going to write to you about tonight. A burden for a lost and dying world can only come upon you as you seek to die to self and put on the mind of Christ. Then you will discover His attitudes are most likely much different than your own where the world is concerned. I am writing because I want to explain that God has an awesome purpose in the things that will soon transpire upon the earth. That purpose is not to condemn the world, their judgment is fully foretold in the Bible. The plan of God has been clearly laid out in the Bible concerning the end of all things....GOD WINS! So those that are trusting in Him have nothing to fear for their future.

The divine purposes are often obscure to our minds. We do not always see clearly the hand of God in developing and maturing the Body of Christ. We are apt to interpret events and 'signs' from our own intelligence or experience. God's purposes are not really hidden we just fail to recognize them. We fail to step outside of the present and clear danger of this life and see through eternal eyes. We think God is like us, and that He thinks like we do. How foolish! God is not a man. His ways are not our ways. We know these statements for truth but ignore them when we try to understand the purposes and ways of God. We fail to ask God to teach us His ways.

Because of this kind of willful ignorance we are about to see the hand of the Lord in a way we have never seen it. When He begins to shake everything that can be shaken men will either find their faith in God is firm or run in fear to hide. I am not addressing the lost and dying world in this statement. I am addressing you, dear Christian brother and sister. I am speaking of God's chosen people, these are the ones He is trying to reach. The ones that are turning a deaf ear to the word and the call of the Holy Spirit to return to Him and learn of Him and know His ways. They are caught in traditions and legalism, in Nicolaitanism, in heresies and spiritual blindness. This in itself is a chastisement from the Father. This blindness is due to their indifference to Him and indifference to His will and His ways. The people perish for lack of knowledge of the Lord. There are divisions and disputes and finger pointing amongst those that Jesus said would be known for their love for each other. Judgmental, pharisaical spirits are ruling many of the redeemed. They are in bondage to their iniquities. The Father cannot abandon them in such a state. He must act to break the fetters that bind His people.

You see the Father loves His people, His chosen and elect. His heart grieves over them because they are turned aside. They have known His love and tasted of His goodness and entered into His grace. They have been given His salvation, but their love has waxed cold and their desires are turned to the world and their ways are self-seeking and folly. Jehovah, the great I AM, is a jealous God and will not allow Himself to be supplanted in the hearts of His chosen ones. He will pour out His Spirit upon all that cry out to Him and upon every open heart. He is gracious and kind to all living things. But His people have not cried unto Him, nor have they called. They are satisfied with the husks of this world and prosperity and the pleasures of life have filled the place that belongs only to the Lord, their heart. Their indifference has displaced the Holy Spirit. Yet the Father loves us. He cries out to us to return to Him and remember our first love for Him.

We seem to have a bunch of Jonah's amongst us these days. Jonah is one that didn't want to go preach a message of repentance to the people of Nineveh because Jonah knew just how wicked these people were. He perhaps had been the victim of their war crimes or at the very least knew of their wicked ways. He thought if I go and preach that God is sending judgment against Nineveh, they will repent and because the Lord is kind and gracious then I will look like a fool when the judgment doesn't happen. So, I will simply escape from this and Jonah took a ship going elsewhere. He wasn't going to hang around for judgment day. God didn't let Jonah escape his responsibility. After being thrown into the sea and swallowed by a fish, lying in the fish's belly for three days and nights, Jonah repented of his rebellion and promised to preach to the Ninevites. God spared Jonah's life and the fish spit him out. Jonah went to Nineveh and preached.

The entire city repented in sackcloth and ashes and the Lord relented and spared them from immediate judgment. Nineveh survived another 70 years. Was Jonah pleased with the results of his hard work and preaching? A very large revival had just taken place. Not Jonah! He is ticked off and says, in essence, 'now I warned them God, I shall just go up on the hillside and wait for you to pour out judgment'. A very sad case-Jonah. He so wants to see these Ninevites get theirs! God again has to deal severely with Jonah and Jonah finally despairs and wants to die. God shows Jonah that it is His prerogative to show mercy where He chooses to show mercy and judgment where He chooses to show judgment. Who is a man to judge another man? God forbids! God forbid that any of us desire the judgment or chastisement of anyone. We need to be interceding for mercy rather than judgment.

I must warn you that judgment begins at the House of the Lord. When trouble comes upon the earth you can be assured that the trouble is primarily directed at those of God's house that are deaf and blind to His call and Spirit. In fact the lost and dying do not stand a snowball's chance in life of receiving a chastening from the Lord. It is those that belong to Him, those that He loves that He chastens, not the heathen. The wrath of God and the chastening of the Lord serve two very different purposes. Wrath has been stored up against the Day of the Lord and is reserved for those that hate and reject the Lord Jesus Christ. The chastening of the Lord serves to cleanse and purge His people. The pruning and purging serve to cause His people to bear more and more fruit. There is not a hint of punishment in the chastening of the Lord. The chastening is from a tender loving hand, that desires to bring the branches to full fruit, healthy and strong, pure and Holy. The Father does His work with tender, loving-kindness.

Jesus said this so plainly in John chapter 15, He is the vine, the Father is the vine-dresser, and we are the branches. He prunes and purges the vines so that they will bear much fruit. By wholly and completely abiding in Him we are able to be productive branches. If we bear no fruit or refuse to abide in Him, we are cast away as a dead branch. Every gardener understands the necessity of cutting away dead wood so that the living branches can bear fruit, all that dead wood does is take from the healthy branches. The whole plant becomes ill if the branches are not pruned and dead wood cut off. So the whole body of Christ would become sick if the branches are not pruned and dead wood cut off. Then in John 15:16 Jesus says: "You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever ye shall ask of the Father, in my name he may give it you."

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. Isaiah 43:10-19

I have heard many say that the Y2k problem is the tool that will be used to set up the world for the Antichrist. There are those that believe that this is the path to the returning of the Lord. I say it is the tool to be used to break the fetters off of God's people. God will shatter their illusions and destroy the idols and purge the dross from their hearts. Those that are His will hear His call and He will unstop their ears. Those who have refused to listen to warnings and missed the grieving of the Holy Spirit and have feasted and surfeited themselves with all that their hearts have desired, are in danger of withering, apart from the vine. The Father will, with a strong hand and a mighty power, bring His people out of their bondages. I fear that some who read this will scoff and laugh and say "well those heretics and people listening to seducing spirits are not about to get delivered". Yet I tell you there is absolutely no doubt that Jesus loves even those that are totally unaware of their plight or Him and He will not lose a single person that belongs to Him. So be careful what you think or say about those that profess Jesus Christ as Lord. If you are inclined to disagree with this remember what message Jesus has for the Laodecean church...

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

Revelation 3:14-22

This is a church that does not even have Jesus inside its doors. Jesus stands outside the door, knocking and waiting for them to let Him in. Yet Jesus says, "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten, be zealous therefore, and repent". He promises to give to any that overcome power to reign with Him. Does this sound like a people that Jesus hates? I see His love for them. I see that He is longing for them to let Him come in and have fellowship with Him. He promises to chasten them because He loves them. So tell me, who are you to despise them?

I could care less if you like their theology or doctrines. Speak against lies and heresies and always preach the truth. You are accountable to God for that. Do not call His servants, servants of the Devil. Do not label them children of the Devil because you disagree with their eschatology or believe they are caught up in a false doctrine or question the signs manifesting in their ministry. Everyone that believes that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh and died for our sins and has been resurrected will be saved. God is able to deliver them from their heresies, clear up their doctrine and He is capable of more miracles than you can imagine. Be careful what you say. You will be accountable for that as well. There is a distinct difference between judgment and discernment. We need discernment of Spirits, we need to have sound doctrine. We need to love those that are in error and contend for the faith in love and peace. Those that have maturity and liberty in the Lord will fully understand these things. These blasphemous things were said against our Lord! We are told not to judge anyone, judgment belongs only to the Father. Be careful what you say!

God has a plan. He plans to take all the redeemed to His house. Jesus is coming for all that believe and have called upon His name. Be ready. What are you trusting in to get you through this next year? You have prepared, perhaps you have done what one person I know has done. You have moved away from big cities, stored food and water, fuel and ammunition. You have retrenched and endeavored to make as secure a haven as possible. This person told me that they could survive six months without any outside help. They have a ton and a half of coal, fuel for their coleman stove, water, food and everything that they need. If the Lord has built this house it will surely stand. Any house that the Lord builds will stand. On the other hand, if the Lord did not build the house, it is built in vain.

1 Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep. Psalms 127:1-2

No matter how many different ways I say this, the message is simple. God will not be second in the life of anyone that professes His name. Please get this message, it might preserve your life! God will not be replaced by things, stuff, common sense, education, intelligence, savings, employment, modern infrastructures, doctors, medicines, husband, wife, children or anyone or anything. If we love any of these things more than we love Jesus they are an idol in our hearts and displace the Holy Spirit. Give it all up now or He will take it anyway, for you are more valuable than you can even imagine. After all, did you think Jesus died for worthless trash?

Just as God brought forth the Children of Israel with a strong and mighty hand out of bondage in Egypt so He will bring forth His church from her bondage to legalism and Nicolaitanism. He will throw off the fetters of false teachings and heresies. The lying spirits that are seducing God's people will not win. His people shall be a free people that shall obey Him and Him alone and will not continue to follow the false shepherds. His people will not labor in vain, in the flesh, producing the straw and stubble of the flesh. They shall walk in newness of life and be renewed and energized by the Holy Spirit. Those that do not have the Spirit of Christ and are not chastened, ARE NOT HIS!

Do not fear nor be dismayed. Trust in the Lord with all your heart. What is coming, though fearful and alarming, is meant for the health of the Body of Christ. It will purge the Body of her love of materialism and the heresies of prosperity and seed sowing, those faith destroying teachings. The Body will rise from the ashes of Y2k a triumphant and radiant Bride that the Son will put on like a Diadem as an adornment. She will be a tangible evidence of His Kingship and victory. I am by no means proclaiming that there will be some sort of universal revival and everyone within the professing sphere of Christianity will be suddenly saved and delivered. Not all are the body. I speak of the Body of Christ, the true born-again, Spirit inhabited Children of God. No matter their condition at this present moment they will be prepared as we all become the Bride of Christ. Be assured that regardless of whether massive blackouts occur or not, whether catastrophes occur January 1 or not, the Father intends to fulfill His purposes and prepare the Body of Christ. His plans are inexorable and expedient, His timing is always perfect. Although the process is unlikely to be instantaneous it will be progressive and the Father will triumph in the life of every born again believer.

Be filled with expectancy. Christ stands very near. He is closer than you have ever imagined. Soon the curtain will be drawn back, the heavens will roll back and the Son of Man will be revealed in Glory and Power. Before that time, He will send out His angels and purge from His church all that causes offense and sin and will present to Himself a spotless and radiant Bride. I pray that your heart sings and resonates with joy at the prospect. Throw off the fetters of this world and embrace the Spirit of Life. Set your affections on things above. Love not the world nor anything in the world, but let all your affections be set upon the Lord God Almighty. Break loose the chains that bind you and casting off all fear, walk in the Holy Spirit in strength and truth.

God willing I will speak again to you after the new year. Shalom!

Frozen Food

Dream From: "Jim Black" <jimblack@wt.net>

With commentary by Paula Cavu

Hey, Paula,

I had this dream last night. It seemed a little unusual so I thought I would send it to you to see what you thought.

I dreamed I had been hired to take care of the Frozen Food section of a very large supermarket. When I looked for the frozen food section, the freezer was missing and the packages were stacked up on the floor in a corner. It was obvious that a lot of the packages had been taken for purchase as there was room for much more stock. I began to look for the warehouse in which the frozen food was stored so I could replenish the stock. I found multiple warehouses connected together with many workers running to and fro. Frozen food was stacked to the ceiling in what looked like miles of warehouses. I took a thermometer from my pocket and checked the temperature of the frozen food. I could not find any that was frozen. I went and told the manager that all of the frozen food was not frozen anymore. He did not seem to be concerned that the freezers were not working. He just said to do as I see fit to get rid of as much of the food as possible before it went bad. I made an announcement over the store loudspeaker that the frozen food section was nearly giving away frozen food come one, come all and quickly, while it lasts. End of dream

If we go along with the meaning of the symbol of frozen food that we have received recently then this dream is saying that much of the prophetic words of Scripture that have been "sealed until the time of the end" are now defrosting in a great time of revelation enlightenment by the Spirit of God. As God's enlightened people we must seize this time of great enlightenment. This is an opened door for the Church to go on unto perfection which has been allowed by God for this generation.

Whosoever will may come into this great time of divine enlightenment and divine enablement!

Heb 6:

- 1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, LET US GO ON UNTO PERFECTION; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
- 2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
- 3 And this will we do, IF GOD PERMIT.

Jim, in that you were in charge, you represented God's end time apostles and prophets!

Father Forgive Them

Teresa Daly-Crews

FATHER FORGIVE THEM-THEY KNOW NOT WHAT THEY DO

The Father is calling forth a time of intercession. Specifically in this hour we must lay between the porch and altar, standing in the gap for our brothers and sisters who have been ensnared by one of the most horrible bondages, religion.

There is not one person in the Kingdom of God who has not been affected by this spirit. We have all battled mindsets and perceptions, which were not the doctrine of God. It matters not the background of denomination is, this tormenting spirit holds no boundaries. It is a spirit that is sent to destroy both the person bound AND the people affected by that person. It is vitally important that we DO NOT fall into the trap set to devour the Brethren. We cannot afford to point fingers at those bound by religion, nor use a false sense of discernment to cast judgment upon them. We must not use the Word of God as a personal weapon against these individuals, as this will bring a backlash of the same bondage upon us. When we operate in the spirit of debate we become equally guilty.

The Fathers heart is grieved over the bondage of His people. He desires for freedom to be attained by those ensnared. This is the beginning of the REVOLUTION against ALL tormenting spirits that are binding the Body. It is time for us to be empowered and move forward in the FULL commission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit is specifically targeting "religion" in this season. He does not want us to destroy the person bound by such torment, but he wants us to lay down our lives and intercede for those who spitefully use us. Bless those who have spoken curses and hateful words against us and show the Love that Jesus demonstrated when He hung on the cross. We must follow the example set out by our Lord and Savior when He lifted His voice to heaven and uttered, " Father, forgive them they know not what they do."

To help a person ensnared with a religious spirit become free it is imperative that we have an understanding of the working of the spirit. First, the person bound HAS NO IDEA that they have become ensnared. Many of Gods chosen have slowly become swallowed up by what they believe to be truth. These individuals in most cases truly love the Lord with their whole heart. They believe they are correct and stand in defense of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Most know the Word of God intensely well and spend much time devoted to fasting and in prayer. If you approach a person with such a spirit they will become defensive and strike out becoming offended. They also have a tendency to offend WITH the Word.

Because of the nature of this spirit it encapsulates the unknowing victim. It causes the person to become offended over and over again, making it even more difficult to overcome without intervention from the Spirit of God. They eventually either shut their selves off under the guise of "just me and you God saying they just don't understand and appreciate my calling and gifts" or they float from church to church wounding and controlling. Their hearts become hardened and they are unable to grow deep roots and bear abundant fruit. We MUST remember, these individuals DO NOT KNOW they are bound. You can cause deep spiritual wounds by casting stones or speaking judgment against them. We must follow the example given by Jesus to bring them into freedom.

When Jesus walked the earth He was repeatedly accosted and condemned by the scribes, Pharisees, and the hypocrites. They plotted against Him in many ways, even having discussions among themselves ways to ensnare Him in His own words. They used the Word of God for their own convenience, in many cases making disciples even more wicked and evil than themselves. They spoke all manner of evil against Jesus and desired the power and anointing He possessed. The jealousy and envy they manifested because of the great following He had was intense. It was for this very reason that Jesus Himself spoke a curse upon them. It was not a curse of damnation, but of blindness. The same curse exists upon those who are caught in the spirit of religion. They are the blind leading the blind and will continue to do so until intercession takes place.

It is the Lords will for none of His to perish. Many people use the godly anger manifested by Jesus as an excuse to condemn those who are "religious". They do not realize by doing so the same spirit has ensnared them. It is a spiritual cancer that has permeated the Body of Christ. Offense breeds offense, breed's offense and so on. It causes a viscous cycle of hurting and being hurt. So often words of judgment are uttered (either openly or secret) which in turn binds both persons even tighter. We must recognize this cycle and allow the Spirit of the Lord to bring freedom to us all. They individuals that have been caught by this trap are unable to be freed on their own. Many are on the verge of spiritual death and need our help to overcome. They are deeply wounded soldiers and in many cases have been faithful to the cause of Jesus Christ they best they could.

The only way we can help our brethren become free is to intercede to the Father, asking Him to remove the curse of blindness spoken by Jesus. Then we are to show the Love of Jesus even when they reject us. It will be the unfeigned love of the brethren that will break the back of this spirit. As we come into unity and stand together without breaking ranks many will become free. We cannot take the persecution and rejection as personal, it is NOT about us but it is about the Lord. We must stand fast in the strength and power of the Lord and use the greatest weapon given to us as Believers, Love.

[Joel 2:11-18] And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach...."

From Glory to Glory

The Cloud and the Fire

Russell Walden

From Glory to Glory

The Father is bringing his people today from Laodicean confusion to the fullness of the Glorious Corporeality of Revelation chapter 12. Many have seen the seven churches in Revelation as being seven ages in the church, of which the last is the Laodicean church. Yet there is a great contradiction in this thinking. If the Laodicean church is the last church before the final corporate epiphany of the people of God, then how does that corrupt politicized monstrosity agree with the “spotless bride” Paul prophesied the Son would present to himself in the last day? This is the “glorious church” in chapter 5:

Eph 5:27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

Now ask yourself this question: Which metaphor better fits the “spotless church” that Christ will return for – the Laodicean church of Rev. 3:14-22 or the Sun Clothed Woman of Rev. 12:1?

Isaiah prophesied of the shortcomings of the seven churches of Revelation 2 and 3:

Isaiah 4:1 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

These are the churches that have no identity in Christ but wish to lay hold on men, and men’s doctrines as their security rather than abiding in Christ Himself. Is this not true of churches that call themselves by the name of Luther, Wesley, Finney, or the modern day groups following after Copeland, Hagin, etc.? At the end of this course of seven churches there is an eight corporeality brought forth, beautiful and glorious, composed of those who have escaped from the corrupt apostate religious system of this day.

Isaiah 4:2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth [shall be] excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul the apostle alluded prophetically to the ultimate purpose of God in his people at the end time:

Eph. 4: 11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:

God is bringing his corporeality to a “perfect man”. This perfect man is defined and measured by “the measure” of the stature of the fullness of Christ. We might conjecture extensively on what this fullness is. Suffice to say that it is the totality of all Christ is on the throne, expressed corporately in his people on the earth.

For this purpose of God to be brought into expression it must manifest at a grass roots level, in the every day life and personal experiences of believers. Jesus prayed that this purpose would find fulfillment in the very intimate relationship of his people with each other and with the Father himself:

John 17:20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; 21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, [art] in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. 22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: 23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

Jesus prayed for us to be ONE. This ONE – ness is measured in his prayer in the phrase, “as thou father art in me and I in thee”. He prayed, (and this prayer will be answered) that we as believers would come into a ONE-ness as mystical and full as the ONE-ness between the Father and the Son when he walked his earth walk. Can you see this?

Why does Jesus desire for us to be one? So we can love each other? So we can sit in a building somewhere and sing lovely songs? So we can propagate a message or gather adherents to a Bible based religion? No, not at all. He desires and prayed for us to be one, “THAT THEY MAY BE ONE IN US”. Becoming one with each other is the only way we can be one with the FATHER AND THE SON. This one – ness with the Father is what the Lord is after, and his chosen path for us to enter into that one – ness is through one – ness with each other (achieved via the pursuit of his glory – his manifest presence, the cloud that descends and manifests when his person is present with us and in us).

Religion proposes a very opposite order. Religion says “become one with God”, or “get right with God” and then we can be one with each other. The mystery of union with Christ and union with the Father is to become one with each other. This is more than coming into agreement. This is more than just working together or going to a building together, or ascribing to a common creed. If you believe Jesus’ prayer, there is a one-ness we can enter into as believers that is as real, and as deep and inscrutable as the person of God himself. To be one with each other in a mystical union as the Father and the Son are one in themselves. Is this not the clear meaning of John 17:20-23?

By what means are we going to enter into this one-ness? We look again to Jesus’ prayer. Read John 17:22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: Jesus gave us his glory, the glory that the father gave him that we might be one. His purpose then is that as we seek his glory we find one-ness with one another. It is when we become one with each other that the glory comes.

The glory is that cloud of his presence that is made manifest when we come together and seek him (Matt. 18:20; Luke 24:32). This has nothing to do with going to church services. More often than not, church services only produce idolatry (De. 4:15; 1 John 5:21), because they propose the dynamic of God’s presence to be in a building, or a service, or a ministry instead of in the mystery of Christ in You the hope of Glory. The dynamic that men seek in a building or a service, or some religious activity is that same dynamic the Father seeks to manifest in our persons – IN US as a continual resource manifest and available at all times, not just occasionally or incidentally.

These things are typified in the scriptures that record the building and dedication of Solomon’s temple, a type of the Millennial Economy of God that is emerging upon our generation right now.

2 Chr 5:1 Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in [all] the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

Seven is the number of completion and God’s number of perfection. With the seven churches, God finishes his work and in a sovereign act is now presenting to himself from the ashes of Laodicean apostasy a “glorious” church, or corporeality with whom he will consummate his union with mankind and bring forth an overcomer, a manchild to sit on his throne. This eighth church typifies a NEW DAY, a NEW BEGINNING for God’s people that will usher us beyond the scriptural record to the unfolding glories of eternity future.

2 Chr. 5:2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which [is] Zion. 3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which [was] in the seventh month.

Jesus, our Solomon is assembling the people of God whose hearts are yearning for the ark of his very throne presence to be manifest in totality in his temple, which we are. When does this gathering take place? In the seventh month, the time of the feast of tabernacles. This is the only feast that has yet to be fulfilled. Passover was fulfilled in the death, burial and resurrection of Christ, when salvation came to whosoever will. Pentecost was fulfilled in Acts 2 when the spirit fell on the 120 and subsequently the baptism of the Holy Ghost was thenceforth available to all who believe. As Passover redeemed our spirits, and Pentecost redeemed our mind, will and emotions, so Tabernacles will be fulfilled in the redemption of our whole spirit, soul and body, the purchased possession of God.

In 1 Chr. 5:4-12 the ark of the Lord's presence is brought into an assembled, set in order temple. This is not the tabernacle of Moses under Judaism, or the Tabernacle of David under the Christian Religious System. This is no temporary dwelling place, but a permanent temple, a type of the eternal corporeality and collective posture the saints will maintain throughout eternity before the Father. And when this took place the cloud that Jesus prayed about in John 17 descended.

1 Chr. 5:13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers [were] as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up [their] voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, [saying], For [he is] good; for his mercy [endureth] for ever: that [then] the house was filled with a cloud, [even] the house of the LORD;

The worshippers and Levites and priests made ONE SOUND, proclaiming the goodness of God and his enduring MERCY. This is the message of the last day corporeality of God – MERCY REJOICES OVER JUDGEMENT. This is typical of the ONE – NESS Jesus prayed for his people to enter into. When that one-ness comes, the cloud descends, and as the two on the road to Emmaus, their heart burned within them as they “walked with him in the way”. Isn't this what compels all true men and women of God to seek out corporeality and connectivity with other believers? It isn't the human aspect, but the divine presence and visitation that takes us beyond our intellect, our capability and knowledge and holds us spellbound, transfixed in the manifestation of his manifest being.

1 Chr. 5:14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

In this rarified atmosphere, the anointing of the old order is brought to silence. It is important to understand the difference between the GLORY and the ANOINTING. The anointing is for service. The glory is for sons. In Heb. 2:5 we don't see Jesus bringing many servants to anointing, but rather many sons to glory. The anointing is a needful and necessary aspect of our experience, but the anointing is temporal and fleeting. It falls upon us and lifts when it is grieved or when its purpose is fulfilled. The GLORY however is an abiding SUBSTANCE intended to endure and maintain and carry us through all our journeys.

This glory is what compels us to seek to be one with others in like faith, for this glory only comes to those who have worked past all the ego, the personal issues, prejudices, pet doctrines, agreements, disagreements, contrariness and foolishness that goes on in the name of Him Who Sits on the Throne.

1 Chr. 6:1 Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

The glory cloud is a dwelling place forever. This is the place that Jesus went to prepare for us. Yet as glorious as this dwelling place is, it is only a foretaste of the fullness ahead. This glory that leads to one – ness is to be compared to John's baptism leading from salvation to the baptism and infilling of the Holy Ghost. This initial glory, stills the old order and gives us pause to expect, pregnantly the greater fullness immediately ahead, not just a baptism of Glory, or entering into the Cloud, but a Baptism of GLORY AND FIRE. This is the climactic epiphany of the saints that many think of as a geographical relocation. But it is not a geographical taking away, but a spiritual positioning with Christ. You aren't going anywhere in the natural, saints, you are however going to be spiritually located with Christ in GLORY AND IN FIRE.

2 Chr 7:1 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house. 2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house.

Can I tell you that there is an end of the intercession of Christ on the throne? There is a place where he will make an end of praying, and stand up to enter again with his saints into the arena of the first heaven to make war and prevail.

When Jesus, our Solomon makes an end of praying, the FIRE and the GLORY together will consume the living sacrifices. Then the OLD ORDER of the Christian Religious System will not only be unable to minister, but WILL BE UNABLE TO EVEN ENTER IN to the NEW ECONOMY of God’s third millennia from Christ, his seventh day.

This will bring great consternation upon the CRS (Christian Religious System). They will gnash their teeth in the outer darkness beyond the cloud, and will call it a cult, the coming of the anti-christ, when in fact they themselves will become the vehicle the anti-christ will use to launch his final blasphemous assault on the purposes of God.

Be – aware beloved this is a day of great transition. Walk in the simplicity of seeking the glory through the pursuit of one – ness with your “cloud mates”. These are those whom the Father has ordained to join you to, as he did the 12. Not because you think alike, or believe alike or have anything in common at all. Your Jonathan, your David will likely be as far removed from you as night from day. But your driving motivation is not compatibility or love, or agreement but rather the hunger and thirst for the CLOUD that manifests when you become one, and the FIRE THAT WILL ULTIMATELY FALL.

What is the FIRE? The fire is what some call the rapture. But the rapturists will brand the true visitation of the Son as a demonic manifestation. They will not understand or comprehend even as the Jews didn’t know the day of their visitation. Because Jesus is coming to restore his people to his purpose, but not to restore the prevailing religious system, be it Judaism or Christianity.

So we see the two clouds and the FIRE that will fall. We see our calling to seek out the members of Christ with whom we will fulfill Jesus’ great intercessory prayer. How do you know if you have found them? By the cloud that will manifest when you become one with them. Follow the cloud, it will lead you. And when the cloud comes, the fire will soon follow.

The Cloud and the Fire

Isa 4:1 (KJS) And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach. This is that day.... the seven churches of Revelation have sought their identity in man, in doctrine, in the Christian religious system. They each ate their own "bread", their own Jesus, but they relied on men to take away their reproach rather than seeking their identity in Christ.

2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth [shall be] excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. But in this day when the seventh and final church of Laodicea has been fulfilled, THE BRANCH OF THE LORD WILL BE GLORIOUS (shining).... the dead branches have been gathered and cast into the fires of their own burning (see John 15:1-8). But the Branch of the Lord for those that are ESCAPED from the apostasized CRS will bloom and bear fruit. The fruit of the EARTH (a type of the heart, and humanity itself) will be COMELY to the LORD, even as the fruit that Jesus bore on the mount of Transfiguration.

3 And it shall come to pass, [that he that is] left in Zion, and [he that] remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, [even] every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: Zion is the highest point in Jerusalem. It is interpreted "a parched place" the dry place, the wilderness. He t hat remaineth SHALL BE HOLY EVEN AS HE IS HOLY. The lukewarm have been spewed out of GOD'S purposes. Those that REMAIN IN THE ECONOMY OF GOD will partake of his fullness!!!

4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. The sin stained and vomit spattered remnant will be cleansed and washed by the Bridegroom and taken to HIS BEDCHAMBER to conceive and bring forth his MANCHILD.

They are cleansed by the SPIRIT OF JUDGEMENT, the spewing out of the lukewarm, and the SPIRIT OF BURNING the BAPTISM OF FIRE that orthodoxy misinterprets as RAPTURE. 5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory [shall be] a defence. There are many dwelling places on ZION, of which this is ONE. And there are many ASSEMBLIES - - not the religious clubs that call themselves "the church", but those groups throughout the world with the DYNAMIC of ASSEMBLY manifests in contrasts to the rabble that confederate themselves in HOUSES OF RELIGION.

And the CLOUD we have spoken of will be our "covert" or refreshing by DAY, and the FIRE OF GOD as it was with the children of Israel in the wilderness will be upon us for a defence. When will this be? Not in the millennia, or the apocalypse for we won't need defense then.... but in this hour when Assyria (anti-christ) and Ephraim (lukewarm religion) confederate together (see the Isaiah chapter 7) to conquer the REMNANT. 6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain. This tabernacle is the tabernacle of DAVID. These Jews this was written to understood this quite well. The ark was in an open air tent on Zion, where David's palace was. Moses tabernacle stood nearby with all her pomp and liturgy and structure, but NO GLORY, NO PRESENCE OF GOD>

But the tabernacle of the Lord is promised to be not just at a GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION, but a place of continual refuge from the STORMS OF LIFE AND THE RAIN THAT BEATS DOWN upon the HOUSES BUILT ON THE ROCK. The cloud is our comfort brothers and sisters, from the criticisms of the vipers who slither from their cockatrice den. When we are bitten, look to him who was LIFTED UP, for if they persecuted him, how much more shall they persecute us. A man's foes will be those of his own household, his immediate fellowship. For he didn't come to bring peace, but a SWORD, to set a man at nought with his brother and those OF HIS OWN "HOUSE".

This List and others like it are the HARPER'S FERRY of the Civil War that Rick Joyner spoke of (the dumb ass speaking, forbading the madness of the prophet). But we are wearing the Kevlar of the Spirit of God, and can take the point blank attacks of the enemy.

REJOICE, REJOICE, REJOICE for that hour we've longed for and cried out for is emerging. We know that by the cohesiveness that is beginning to emerge among the dispersion, those that are the cast offs of the CRS, who have languished in isolation, but are now finding CORPOREALITY in the CLOUD!!!

Signed: Russell E. Walden <http://go.to/Kindrednation> Mal. 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard [it], and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

From God's Perspective

Marsha Allred

As I write this on Wednesday night we are still waiting to know who will be our next President. As for others, last night was a nightmare and today the shock is lifting to reveal (as Dutch Sheets and Doug Fortune have already spoken) we must press in. As I sat in our church prayer room today that was my prayer - "I'm PRESSING IN, Father - I'm pressing in to the pressure and I will not stop. Show me how to speak into this - what is in Your Heart?" First of all He reminded me of a prayer I prayed about a week ago when I complained, "Father, the people don't SEE the battle that you see waged in the spiritual realm - if they could SEE the battle they would be motivated to pray and fight - but they're only human - with human eyes - they don't see as You see." Then I realized - this chaos in the election is a very good picture of the battle in the spiritual realm - the battle that is going on around us day after day. Right now we are saying - Where's the voters? - Where's the common sense? - What's the matter with people? How could this election go like this?" All along, God has been saying, "Where's the intercessors? Where are My Prophets? Where is My righteous Church? How could the people I created allow their nation to become filled with blood?" Can't we see life from His perspective? Of all the nations of the earth that He created - isn't there ONE that can reflect His glory? Do ALL have to turn aside to corruption? Can't ONE nation be an image of His Love, Forgiveness, and Life? Will we all just leave Him alone in the rejection we've heaped upon Him as we've run here and there picking up foolish trinkets we call wealth? Who will stand with Him? Who will stand and answer His prayer?

As I waited for Him to speak this a.m. this is what I heard. "My Heart aches in loneliness - I have waited, I have been patient - how much longer do I need to wait before My own people - the people I brought out of darkness - the people whose chains I have broken and set in a high place - decide to grow up? When will these that I've loved and cared for, begin to live before Me as responsible children of the Living God? You have been foolish children. You have been spoiled with Your many blessings. I called you when morning was fresh and new - I called you to come and walk with Me in the new day. But you would not be roused from your sleep. You have laid in your beds and said, "Don't wake me - I enjoy my sleep." I have called you many times but you would not come - the night is drawing near - even now the shadows are gathering as darkness creeps into your world. You have lost much in the day - should I accept you now?"

(Father, even the last laborers were welcome!) "Should I trust you yet once more?" (Again I prayed, "Let us be the nation You've always longed for.")

He did not give me an answer as to how things will turn out in the election. I believe He is waiting to see if we will press in - will we come against the spirits of confusion? Will we continue to pray as we have already been exhorted strongly to do, or will we go back to sleep or busy ourselves with our trinkets? I do know that if we do press in - if we fight for righteousness - against the spiritual forces of darkness - He will be with our mouths - He will speak His word through us and reveal Himself - He will use us as conduits of His glory - living lanterns filled with the Holy Oil of the Holy Spirit. It is entirely up to us - which way will we go? I cannot leave Him alone in this - He is my Father - His Heart is broken.

Fire of Heaven

Becky McLendon

May 10, 2000

I kept "hearing" the phrase "Fire of Heaven" all day long in my spirit yesterday, and that phrase applied to something that can be seen in the eyes of God's own, His people, in this hour. Many are coming to a place where, having spent much time before Him, bonded to Him, moving in Him, resting in Him and hearing His voice, that there will be seen in them FIRE in their eyes.

What would this fire represent? Purity? Yes, more than likely, there will be evidence of a stepped up process of purification for the saint of God has yielded his members up to God and allowed them to be confronted by His burning truth at the altar of incense. Though they feel a sense of temporal loss, as the Holy Spirit burns out EVEN the hidden things of the heart and says, NO I cannot allow you to have even these little things, they allow Him to take them. They KNOW that to allow even the "little" sins of attitude and thought pattern will keep them from knowing the Father to the fullest. The Bridegroom seeks a BRIDE who is SPOTLESS. She will have FIRE in her eyes because she will have been purified by FIRE. She has found His Word to be faithful and true, and has loved that word.

This fire in the eyes also represents HOLY ZEAL for the House of God. The saint of God has been heading for this tabernacle all his born again days, and his fervent desire is to see those around him headed that same direction. The fire in the eyes of a saint of God is Christ LIFTED UP BEFORE MEN, the ONE who will draw all men unto Himself. Many will seek these fiery eyed ones and inquire of them. JUST WHAT IS IT YOU HAVE ...WE MUST HAVE IT TOO because this mess we are in is NOT working any more.

The fire in the eyes of God's own is perpetual. It cannot be extinguished. It reflects singleness of purpose...THOUGH NONE GO WITH ME, YET I WILL FOLLOW. It reflects a face set like a flint toward a cross of self denial, death to flesh, complete shedding of worldly thoughts and traditions, pressing toward the PRIZE, toward the UPWARD CALLING in Christ Jesus, toward CHRIST IN US THE HOPE OF GLORY.

The Fire of Heaven in the eyes of His people reflects a burning bush on the mountain in the desert. It reflects Zion, a parched place. Those with the fire of heaven in their eyes have met the Lord in the desert and tasted of him there, eaten of His table in the presence of howling enemies, rested by His still waters, and laid down in green pastures ...yes they have found Him to be an oasis in that desert, and they began to BLOOM there. They tend to now prefer the desert place because he is so keenly close to them there.

I believe He would say to us this day: "You will be known by the visible Fire of Heaven in your eyes, for I am allowing it to be seen in this hour. My own people will readily know one another in a way they have not experienced before because of the visible Fire of Heaven in their eyes. They will begin to KNOW as I have known them, thus seeing the complete man of God in each other...this ability to see completeness in one another will do away with all traces of judgmentalism, skepticism, lack of trust, etc. in one another...You will TRULY come to unity for you will have properly discerned My body...You will TRULY commune with them and with Me now for the fire will be so clear. You will TRULY be known as my people because of the LOVE you have one for another...a pure and holy love with no chains of soulishness or uncleanness...you will love one another as you are loved by ME. Welcome the fire, my people!!! WELCOME my truth burning into your lives and give up that which encumbers your walk this very day!!! For LO I stand at the door and knock...Will you let me FULLY IN? You have said you have "Received me as saviour"...but I say this day DO YOU KNOW ME? It is time to cast aside all religion, all cares and thoughts that are not of me and seek me with all you have, for I come to ignite the fire of heaven into your spirit to consume you completely. Open to Me my beloved this day." Amen and AMEN

Fire And Rain

Mary Woolmington

When the physical fire spread through the most beautiful part of our country early this year, I believe God was showing us that He is going to send His fire to spread through His beautiful physical body the church. God will send His fire to purify and refine us, to burn away what is not of Him, to burn away what we hold onto for our security, the distractions that keep us from Him.

When you feel the fire upon you the temptation will be to run and hide, but the Lord would say that the removal of much dross from our life is necessary for us to enter into a more intimate relationship with Him. This is a fire of preparation

Don't withdraw and look for other reasons why things are being removed from your life, know it is me, know it is what I am doing in your life. Stand in full view of the oncoming fire, stretch out your arms and allow the fire to reach every part of your life. You will not be destroyed, destruction will only come upon that which is holding you back from your destiny.

AND THEN WE HAD AN EXTREME CHANGE IN WEATHER PATTERNS. Soft. soaking, penetrating, constant rain began to fall. (Not our normal thunderous heavy rain) Gentle, rain that soaked deeply into everything it touched. It brought change. Change in lifestyle, change in the landscape. This constant rain showed the leaks in what we thought was water-tight, weakness in what we thought was strong. We looked different, we felt different, everything smelt different, felt heavier and thicker. We had to be flexible, we could not make long-terms plans as before, we waited each day to see if the rain would stop so that we could go back to normal - and still it rained. Gentle soaking rain.

So will it be in the days after my preparation of fire says the Lord. "And afterwards I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophecy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. Even upon the menservants and the maidservants in those days I will pour out My Spirit"

Like never before will My Spirit be poured out on ALL FLESH, ALL FLESH. Gentle, soaking, penetrating, constant, a move like never before. Everything my Holy Spirit touches will be changed.

We will feel different, heavy with the Holy Spirit, flexible and soft like a new wineskin, we will have the sweet smell of Jesus on us.

Our foundations will slide and sink, our works will show cracks, our weak areas will be obvious to us. Call out to Me, the Master Builder, sit at My feet, build on My Word. For at this time nothing will be the same, everything will change.

My Spirit will be poured out constantly, gently on all flesh, and we will move into a time of great fruitfulness, and a great harvest.

The Fire in the Forge

Bob Neumann

The Fire Of God

Bob Neumann

For over five weeks now I have struggled with the images I have been shown. In this time I have prayed and waited for answers that have not appeared to come. In this time I "turned off" all the distractions as I could. I have watched no TV....listened to no RADIO.....ignored my E-MAIL.....and left my PC off for long stretches. What I have found is little that makes me feel good. But let me share these two verses....

1 Corinthians 11:31-32

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.
(KJV)

For a long time I believed if I 'judged myself' everything would be okay. How many times have I heard people say that we are not to judge others? Yet Paul taught that we are not to judge each other, then tells us to judge his words. In fact he says in 1 Corinthians 4:3 that he can not judge himself and says it is a "small thing" when others judge him. So how can we judge ourselves? How do we "weigh" ourselves and assess our lives? Man has taught that this can be done. So I have tried to "weigh" myself and I failed because I wanted a "good outcome". Who wouldn't? How many times have I heard preaching about "transparent" Christians...people with nothing to hide? No secrets.....No hidden sin....

Once we reach that "stage" we are "righteous" and above judgement by others who are not supposed to judge us in the first place. It is a wonderful cycle of lies, easy to accept, easy to trust, easy to foster onto others. The only problem is it forgets verse 32 and this is where THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT jumped me. To assume that if I 'judged myself'....no one else would 'judge me'....places me in the "rocking chair" on the HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS. I can coast on in without worry of being "caught" breaking the 'speed' limit. Sure there is "no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit", but that is not what THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT was trying to get me to see. Judgement and Condemnation are not the same. Condemnation is what we have without SALVATION. The images of THE FIRE and THE FORGE do not speak of "condemnation". They speak of being "used"...of having "value" to the KING.

Verse 21 says if we 'judge' ourselves...we will not really be judging anything. Either we will rationalize a "full pardon" or we will do the opposite and self-flagellate ourselves in our own failures and past sins. Paul ties being "judged" with being "chastened of THE LORD". Which means 'going through the FIRE'....and that brings us to a 'new place'...

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

THE SCALES speaks of us to strive for HIS HOLINESS.....something I am trying to do.

So please forgive my 'lack' of civility, of response to your emails, of my failures to do anything that might make sense.....because I have fallen on that narrow and rocky path that leads to HIS MOUNTAIN. You have to understand we were never meant to "coast in". We were meant to fall and struggle and to strain with every breath right to the end. Somewhere along the line "we" have to end. To be broken, and die. But along the way we also must find that everything we are, think, say and do must pass through THE FIRE.

Think about this for a moment. What was the greatest abomination described in the OLD TESTAMENT?

Come on, think about it.....

What did GOD'S PEOPLE do that tore it....that MADE a HOLY GOD say enough is enough?

Maybe each of you have a different answer....there are many sins repeated over and over.....but what I have 'witnessed' is warned against in both Leviticus and Deuteronomy. Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel declare the sin occurring in their time. In fact THE WORD declares Solomon "fell" into the sin himself. It is a parody and counterfeit of what THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT is doing now....

Leviticus 20:1-8

- 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
- 2 Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.
- 3 And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.
- 4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not:
- 5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.
- 6 And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.
- 7 Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.
- 8 And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the LORD which sanctify you. (KJV)

For some reason a MOST HOLY GOD did not want people to throw their children into a fire of another god. In fact Jeremiah shares ABBA'S WORDS with us on this subject most clearly.....

- 29 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.
- 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.
- 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.
- 32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.
- 33 And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.
- 34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

Does anyone notice the last verse? Paul tells us that we will be judged with fire. That nothing remains except the "gold, silver, and precious stones". When you read 1 Corinthians 3 Paul is not talking about SALVATION. Yet how many sermons on HOLINESS or SANCTIFICATION really explained what GOLD means to ABBA? How many exhortations defined SILVER as Y'SHUA wants us to know? Is there any major teaching that shows us what THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT calls PRECIOUS STONES? In Malachi 3:17 it says we are HIS JEWELS when we put GOD FIRST in our thoughts, words, actions.

Now what did JESUS say about "SEEK YE FIRST"? Funny how THE MASTER puts a double whammy out there and we just lump it all together and go our merry ways "cruisin' to GLORY". HE CLEARLY MAKES A DISTINCTION BETWEEN "THE KINGDOM OF GOD" AND THE FATHER'S RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Actually, seriously studying Matthew 6 is a powerful template of THE KINGDOM from THE MASTER'S point of view. Only most of it is ignored and convoluted by "church" tradition and man's doctrines. It is where our "lack" is easily shown when we sit in the fire. When all the garbage and baggage we cling to is converted to ashes because we did not seek first what pleases ABBA. I guess that is what has grieved me most.

Please understand I was given but the briefest glimpses of THE RIGHTEOUS JUDGE and in this moment of PURE JUSTICE I found myself in DANIEL 5 and I walked away with but one WORD.... TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

Wanting....to lack....Lacking....failing to measure up.

Ever wonder about "short changing" GOD? I have.....and that has kept me silent and ashamed. There is a MASTER who expects a "profit" from HIS SERVANTS. HE has given much and much is now expected. If you think I am just "dreaming" this up, please stay away from THE PARABLE OF THE TALENTS. Months ago I was told to share with everyone about "wise" and "faithful" servants....about "meat in due season". Luke takes this image and expands it to include "seeking first THE KINGDOM"....here is some 'meat'

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
33 Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;
36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.
37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.
38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.
39 And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.
40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?
43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;
46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.
49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?
50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!
51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:
52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against

Who would have tied the JUDGEMENT BY FIRE that Paul spoke of with the prophecy of JOHN THE BAPTIST? And once again it is a double whammy. THE MASTER above tells ol' Pete that HE is sending "fire" and the next words are about "baptism".....or should I say "immersion"....or might I place before you an image of being "birthed" by SPIRIT AND FIRE....which JOHN spoke of?

Do you want to talk about ELIJAH ANOINTINGS....ELIJAH PROPHETS....SONS OF THUNDER....????? or is it simply THE SONS OF GOD tried and proven from the FORGE OF GOD?

WEAPONS and TOOLS of THE KINGDOM.....shaped BY THE MASTER....for HIS PLEASURE....like it or not HIS WORD IS TRUE, HIS WORD IS LIFE and HE SAID " To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven".....

You see once again I have had the joy of seeing HIS FORGE and working at THE MASTER'S SIDE. Sure it was a VISION....but GOD has not changed. HE STILL IS GOD. JOB 33....

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;
16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,
17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.
18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

Again the "double whammy".....or if you want me to stay scriptural....THE TWO EDGED SWORD of HIS WORD. For HIS WORDS speak on multiple levels and HIS WORD declares we need to start eating "strong meat"....

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedek.
11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

For if you read JOB 33 we were warned....

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:
20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.
21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.
22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.
23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:
24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.
25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:
26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.
27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;
28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.
29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,
30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.
31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.
32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.
33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

We were given a messenger, an advocate, an interpreter....who showed us HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS and has paid our ransom. HE IS OUR WAY...OUR TRUTH...OUR LIGHT.....

Like JOB I shut my mouth and WATCHED HIM....and I hope I have learned HIS WISDOM for the days ahead.

HIS PEACE to all who read this

The Forge Of God

8/12/2000

Not long ago I wrote on this keyboard the churning of my spirit concerning what the SPIRIT of GOD is doing. It was simply formed from 'night visions' that a HOLY GOD sealed in me, and my search for meaning and understanding of HIS IMAGES. It was simply titled.....

THE FIRE OF GOD

I will grant to you that it was not a "thus say THE LORD", nor was it a long narration of the 'vision'. Once such visions were received with firm dictation of GOD'S INTENT and DESIRES. It seemed to be the pattern and it repeated over and over. This Pattern is seen over and over all around us. Only several weeks/months ago this began to change....at least for me. The IMAGES within the 'night visions' were no less intense and absorbing, but what was missing was the PRESENCE of a "VERBAL DICTATION". In the 'course of time' I have gone from perplexity and doubt to "understanding". It is very sobering. It is also intriguing and interesting. Observation of exactly what THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT is doing is not as important as the "HOW", "WHO", "WHERE", and "WHY" . Not long ago THE LAMB told me to 'take notice' how "interesting" things are going to get. It seems we have got there.

In the past few weeks there have been wonderful images placed before the "congregation of the internet" by many. There have been voices about GOD'S TAPESTRY and "threads", there have been many who shared of rivers and waters, vessels and pourings. But what is most noticed are the "images" of fire, and "immersion in HIS LOVE". All I will say is that every image is for us to learn...to grow...to mature. In simple clear words they were meant to change us and to shape us. To CONFORM US into HIS DESIRES for us. In my spirit I keep hearing very "sobering" insights about the "church" and the "brethren". It seems the warning about ears that hear, and eyes that see have not changed in 2000 years.

So in obedience I will share with whoever has eyes and ears attentive to THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT an image I have seen several times, but has expanded for this time and season. Let it be titled....

THE FORGE OF GOD

Several weeks ago I found myself in a familiar place of intense heat and noise. Ahead of me was an area of "darkness" in the center of which was a "circle" of "brightness". From this "circle" came wave after wave of the most intense heat. As I approached the circle I could hear the "whooshing" sound of a bellows and the more rapid sound of hammer strikes. As I came as close as I could get I felt a hand on my shoulder and saw a finger point at a specific point in the FURNACE OF GOD. Without hesitation I reached out and took a long handle that stuck out from the opening. At the far end of the handle was a crucible that had sat in the heart of THE FIRE OF GOD. I took out the crucible and turned to my left. A few paces away were several molds and I poured molten metal into each and returned the crucible to THE FIRE.

The molten metal glowed with the heat and dulled as the heat slowly dissipated. So it is with us I thought. We shine best when still in HIS FIRE. It was at this point I heard HIS VOICE say "COME" and I turned and saw my MASTER dressed in heavy leather apron and cap. In HIS HAND was a long set of tongues of heavy black iron which he handed me. Turning back to the FORGE I saw in the fire a glowing piece of metal similar to what was in the molds. I reached into the FIRE and took it out and this time turned to my right. Again a step or two and I stood at an immense anvil. Upon setting it on the anvil THE MASTER STRUCK it several powerful blows with a hammer, and taking the tongues in HIS LEFT HAND regripped the metal in the tongues and struck it several times and handed the hammer to me. Somewhere in me there has been a "cadence" for a long, long time. I found this cadence come out as a steady flow of strikes landed....IRON ON IRON...was what I kept hearing THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT say deep within me. I kept striking the metal and THE MASTER turned and moved it beneath THE HAMMER. HE KNEW what HE WAS DOING. I just was doing what I was "told to do". After awhile the metal was longer and wider than when we started and THE MASTER bent it over on itself several times. At the proper time HE took the metal shape and returned it to the FIRE.

Now I had had this "vision" several times in the past and have shared it in previous accounts that have gone out on the internet. It was at this point those others would end....only this vision went on....

THE MASTER walked a short ways away and came back with a long heavy pole with a funny looking curved piece of metal at the end. HE removed a binding and detached the metal from the wood and simply reached into THE FORGE and placed it into the center of THE FIRE. I shuddered because the heat was so intense and sweat poured off me. Calmly HE TURNED TO ME AND SPOKE....

"SOMETIMES YOU HAVE TO RESHAPE YOUR WORK TO GET THE MOST OUT OF IT". Saying that HE pointed to THE FIRE and I took out the now gleaming curve of metal. With fast hard blows THE MASTER straightened the curve in less than a minute and pointed toward THE FIRE where I returned it. I watched as the metal began to glow again. But now I noticed a change. The "bellows sound" I had been hearing had increased in tempo and in volume. THE BREATH OF GOD had increased in power and in cadence around me. With a simple tap on my shoulder I reached in with the tongues and took out the metal and placed it on THE ANVIL, only to watch THE MASTER strike it once, twice and reach down to take the white hot metal in HIS hand. HE RAISED IT TO HIS FACE AND TURNED IT, INSPECTING IT CLOSELY. I watched HIM SMILE and step away from THE FORGE where a trough of flowing water had stood in previous visions. Holding the metal HE PLUNGED it into the stream of cold, clear WATER....

From the intense billows of steam that rose up HE STEPPED out with a smile on HIS FACE. Lifting it towards my face HE turned it so I could see it. "IT IS GOOD, SHEMUEL. IT WILL NOW DO WELL IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION" was HIS DECLARATION to me as HE placed it in a pile of many others....new spear heads..... that awaited to be attached to a wooden pole. Now somewhere inside me ran the verses from Joel about "MULTITUDES in THE VALLEY OF DECISION" and the awareness how long those WORDS/SEEDS had been planted in my being.

This is where I had intended to end this narration. The rest seemed only to apply to me. Yet according to MY MASTER is part and parcel to my purpose in HIS KINGDOM. It is part of my "testimony", according to HIM.

For you see....it was at this point the 'night vision' should have ended. Instead THE MASTER LED me "around a corner" that had never been there in the previous visions. Maybe my eyes were not meant to see....or maybe it was not yet the "time or season" for HIS PURPOSES FOR ME. Whatever the case we stood before another "opening" to the FORGE of GOD and this had a door to it. Here HE opened THE DOOR and the heat was even greater than the FORGE. HE REACHED in and took a large glazed vessel with handle and spout. It was beautiful. Then HE took out a square box like shape and a lid for it. It was a wondrous color of fine porcelain and HE spoke a name....of a person who shares prophetic insights on the internet....and I had to agree....it fit perfectly. Then HE reached in and brought out a large glazed bowl followed by different products of THE KILN OF GOD.

After awhile HE closed the DOOR TO THE KILN and turned another corner and again came to a small opening of great intensity. HE motioned me to the opening and inside was a "pool of light". It is my best description of what I saw. Reaching in HE stirred it with HIS FINGERS. Every color imaginable flowed in HIS HAND. Stepping away from the opening HE took a long black tube and stuck it into the pool and turned it slowly. I say tube because I knew from the natural what I was seeing and then HE SPOKE TO ME.

"NOW YOU UNDERSTAND ONE REASON WHY I HAVE USED YOU". HE SAID QUIETLY as HE stepped back from THE FIRE with a "ball" at the end of the tube. "AND NOW YOU UNDERSTAND THE IMAGES YOU HAVE BEEN GIVEN FROM MY FATHER THROUGH ME AND THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT HAVE HAD A PURPOSE." With those words HE put HIS MOUTH to the tube and BLEW into the "ball" at the end. As if I had done it thousands of times before I began to turn the tube and watched the "motion" give shape to the molten glass at the end. As I watched in fascination as the term "earthen vessels" take on a different aspect. or should I say "facet". And I understood. So many things....so many....

Once again HE brought the "work" of HIS HANDS up so I could expect it. HE TOUCHED THE GLASS with HIS HAND and the glass was elastic and moved with HIM. "I WISHED ALL MY WORK WAS SO EASY TO SHAPE OLD FRIEND, BUT SO MANY LIKE THE FIRE FOR WHAT THEY THINK THEY CAN GET OUT OF IT. THEY KEEP FORGETTING THAT I HAVE A SAY IN WHAT I DO. TOO MANY WILL ONLY HEAR MY VOICE WITH THE LAST WORDS THEY SHALL EVER HEAR." I guess it was HIS DEEP CHUCKLE that gave me a shudder down my spine. And the FIRE IN HIS EYES told me HE WAS DEADLY SERIOUS.

"IT IS NICE TO SEE YOU ARE GATHERING SILVER LIKE I ASKED YOU TO", HE STATED AND TURNED ANOTHER CORNER. We were standing before a large table and THE MASTER took a chair next to the WALL of THE FORGE. Before HIM were blocks of clay with indentations in them. HE reached into THE FIRE and took out an iron "ladle" and poured into the indentations....they were molds. After returning the tool into THE FIRE. After a moment HE opened a mold and an OBJECT of bright GOLD stood on the TABLE. It was still rough yet and I "knew" it would be shaped further in THE MASTER'S HANDS.

and this is where I can end this narration.

now the question is how much "interpretation" does it need?

indeed, how much do I need to do to show the scriptures that hold revelation because of the images within this vision?

let me make this simple. use a couple scriptures and let whoever reads this to seek THE LORD themselves.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and

I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof:

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

1 Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD'S; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

ISAIAH 49.....

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

Job 28:1-28

1 Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.
5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.
7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:
8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.
9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.
10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.
11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.
12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?
13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.
15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.
26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.
(KJV)

Proverbs 3:1-35

1 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:
2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.
3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:
4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.
9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:
10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:
12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.
13 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.
14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.
17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.
18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.
19 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.
20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.
21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:
22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.
23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.
24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.
28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.
29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.
31 Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.
32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous.
33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.
34 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.
35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools. (KJV) so in obedience I withheld nothing that I have been given....except how it applies to me.....nor have I striven with any man without reason or cause.

End Time Prophetic Vision

Firstfruit

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

In this past week's Parasha of "Mishpatim", we find the ordinance of first fruit: "The first of the first fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of YHWH your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk" (Shemot – Exodus - 23:19). In today's world, there is very little significance to first fruit or to firstborn; in some circles separating milk from meat seems to be more the order of the day (if indeed that's what it means). In the eyes of YHWH and in His plan of redemption, the principle of firstborn, or first fruit, is of paramount importance. In his epistle, Ya'acov (James), after addressing the 12 tribes, writes: "Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first fruit of His creatures" (James 1:18). Also Rav Shaul writes: "For if we are in the Messiah we are a first fruit of a new creation order", (ref. 2Cor. 5:17; Rom 8:23). Ya'acov's mention of the twelve tribes is no mere coincidence, for they are the ones who had been designated as first fruit, even before Messiah's redemptive work had been executed. The concept of first fruit already had its beginning in the days of Cain and Abel, and later in the covenant that YHWH made with the line of those chosen for the position of firstborn in humanity: Noah, Shem, Ever, Avraham, Yitzhak, and Ya'acov.

When Moshe was told by YHWH to bring His people out of Egypt, he was sent to Pharaoh with the message that, "Israel is My son, my firstborn" (Shemot 4:22). Later, after killing all the firstborn of Egypt, YHWH announced to Israel: "Consecrate to Me all the firstborn; whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine" (Shemot 13:2). "You shall set apart to YHWH all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be YHWH's" (Shemot 13:12).

The Hebrew word for firstborn, in Shemot 13:12 is "peh'ter", meaning to separate, or first open. Other meanings for the same root are: remove, set free, depart, split, and break through. The injunction to "set apart" or to "dedicate", in this verse, is from the same root as the noun "Hebrew". (Note: generally, the root for to set apart or to consecrate is k.d.sh, and for firstborn it is b.ch.r.) This unusual choice of words, here in Shemot 13:12, seems to highlight the idea of breaking through and passing over, while being given, or recognized as belonging to, YHWH. This makes the Hebrews, whose name is derived from their forefather, Ever, a firstborn nation dedicated and set apart unto YHWH their God.

But what does it actually mean to be a firstborn or a first fruit?

According to the Torah statute it means to belong to YHWH. Those who are His, are identified as His property by being stamped (literally, or figuratively), or marked out through circumcision. This principle of possession is articulated in the oft-occurring expression: "for My namesake". The notion of ownership and possession, commonplace in the world, applies no less to YHWH's relationship with His people. "But YHWH has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His people, an inheritance, as you are this day." (Devarim 4:20); "for YHWH'S portion is His people; Ya'acov is the place of His inheritance." (Devarim 32:9).

We were visiting some friends who have two little boys, 3 and 5, this past week, and were told the following story: When the boys' grandmother had visited them she said to the 3 year old: "Because I love you, you are the apple of my eye". The older brother became indignant, and in defense of his younger sibling said to the grandmother: "If you love someone you don't call him fruit!" YHWH, like that grandmother, calls Israel, as a sign of endearment "the apple of My eye". But whereas in the case of the little boy it was very clear why a dotting grandmother would so call her grandson, it is less clear in the case of Israel, in fact it begs the question: What is so lovable about a stubborn, rebellious, idolatrous, adulterous people, who are actually more like a speck in the eye? Is it for their namesake that YHWH persists in His love, or is it because they are His beloved first born? (See Ez. 36:22-32)

Moshe seemed to understand this Torah ordinance. For when YHWH was about to judge Israel, he reminded Him concerning His own inheritance: "O Adoni YHWH, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.... Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm" (Devarim – Deut.9:26,29). Later Daniel and Ezra interceded for YHWH's people in the same way (see Daniel 9 and Ezra 9). True intercessors for Israel always understood this principle of the firstborn or first fruit. It was the most effective prayer in addressing the Almighty.

It is not only the 'possession' who is marked for the sake of identity, but the 'possessor' too is stamped for the sake of His beloved. In Isaiah, YHWH points out that Zion is engraved on the palm of His hand: "See, I have inscribed, engraved, etched you on the palms of My hands" (Is. 49:16). Is there a more direct illustration of this than Yeshua's "burrowed through" hands, described so graphically by King David in Tehilim – Ps. 22:15-16? YHWH's unalterable love for His possession is seen in the death of the Messiah. May we respond to Him as beautifully as the Shulamite does in the Song of Songs: "Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy as cruel as the grave; its flames are flames of fire, a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly despised. (Song of Songs – Shir Hashirim - 8:6-7).

The Messiah is seen standing on His feet of burnished bronze, as though they had passed through a furnace of fire, and with a winnowing fork in His hand. He has gone out to the nations for the harvest, to bring in and process the first of the first fruit company, which will ultimately be placed in a basket and taken on the 8th day to the place that is called by YHWH's name (Devarim 26:2; Shemot 22:29-30).

Fishers and Worshipers

Tracy Shepherd

Fishers Of Men And Women

Tracy Shepard and Jesus

June 29, 2000

Jesus said "Follow me and I will make you a fisher of man (and woman). Do you realize that every command that Jesus gave us in the Bible He did? When He said "I will make you fishers of men", He was already fishing. When He said "make disciples of all Nations", He had already made disciples of all Nations. God will use us to bear fruit for His Kingdom when we make ourselves available to go fishing!

It takes boldness to just step up to a total stranger and say "Do you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior? Would you like to?" But let me tell you this, the rewards far exceed the risk of looking funny, especially when the Holy Spirit is involved and tells you to witness to someone. Here is an example that happened to me last January. Some of you may remember this story.

I took my son Justin and his friend Nil, his Indian friend I had brought to Jesus last year, to the Los Angeles Arboretum. It was a gorgeous day! The temperature was in the seventies, beautiful blue skies, and puffy white clouds. The trees were flowering, the grass was green and the peacocks and birds were everywhere! We were walking around enjoying the scenery. I had my camera on every flower and bird in the park. But then I ran out of film. That is when God led me to focus on Him and expanding the Kingdom of God.

We went to where a beautiful waterfall is. There are steep stairs that take you to the top and then you can hang on to a rail and look down. What you see is a view of the San Gabriel mountains spread out in the back ground and the park with all its flowering trees and brooks in the foreground.

As I looked down my gaze fell on a couple below on a bench sitting together cuddled up. Not that this was unusual, but the couple was probably in their eighties and the man was stroking his wife's chin and was so gentle with her, I was just mesmerized. I am a romantic, so this was right up my alley!

Well, a young fellow came up the stairs with his camera and giant lens and said, "see anything good?" I said "Oh, yes!" I asked if he had a good telephoto and pointed out the people to him. They were framed by some pine branches that were in the foreground. I said "THAT would make a GREAT picture!" He told me he didn't have the right lens, but his friend probably did. His friend came over and opened his camera bag and pulled out a humongous telephoto lens. I showed him the shot. He took the picture.

Then I gave them a card of our website. I told them it was a Christian website. All of the sudden, God prompted me to say "Are you a Christian?" to the first fellow I met. He said "I am a Catholic." I said "Do you believe in Jesus?" He said "Yes." I said "Well, you are a Christian then, because you believe in Jesus. Besides, the Bible doesn't have any denominations!" He kind of smiled. Then I asked the other fellow if he knew Jesus. He said that his parents were Christians and were always trying to get him to church (he was oriental), but he didn't go, and he was just kind of nothing.

I said, well you can know Jesus right now. All you have to do is say a prayer. Would you like to do that? He said "Yes". (Hallelujah!) So I took his hand and had him repeat the salvation prayer. Then I asked his friend if he had ever done a prayer like that to accept Jesus. He said not really. So we did the same thing. It was SO AWESOME~! I could feel the presence of God all over us!!!

I told them that they had just made the most important decision of their life! I said "Jesus came to visit you on a bridge over the water" (we were standing on a bridge over the water coming down). One man said "Yea, we are on a bridge over troubled water." I said yes and now you have the power to call on Jesus anytime there is trouble and He will come to answer you in a flash. I told them I was very proud of them! I then told the one fellow who's parents were trying to get him to church to tell them what happened today when he got home. It was SO COOL!

Then as we were leaving the park, I just felt led to go down to the water and look for a while. (God's timing had not happened yet). I looked and enjoyed the beautiful view of this small lake with a little red and white cottage in the background surrounded by big palms trees and all kinds of foliage (they used to film Fantasy Island here).

Then I felt the urge to go. As we were walking back, there was a family in front of us. It was a young man, his wife, her friend and their new baby. They looked like they were looking for something (Jesus - although I didn't see that!) and I asked if I could help. They said no, they were just looking at the plants. I then told them a little about the park just to open up some conversation. They said they were leaving because it was cold for their baby.

I showed them Justin, and said, "This is my second baby (he's 15 1/2), and my first baby is 6'4". They said "Wow!" Then I said "The best thing I ever did is bring them up in church so that they would grow up to know Jesus." Then out of my mouth came "Do you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior?" They all said no and I asked if they would like to. They said "Sure!" So I prayed with the Dad first, and then prayed with his wife, her friend, and the baby at one time.

THE FIELD IS RIPE

I am telling you, the field is ripe and the fish are just waiting for you to catch them so they can have the same joy of Jesus that you do! Remember, you are spreading the joy of Jesus' love for you to others when you boldly witness and ask people if they have made a commitment to Him yet. You will be so blessed, not to mention the people. How much more will they be blessed, knowing Jesus will be with them for eternity!

The Angels in Heaven have a party each time someone repents and accepts Jesus as their Lord and Savior! And you can party with them in joy and Spirit. Join me, will you? Be bold, be strong, be confident. You don't know who is waiting on the other side, even tonight, to know Jesus!

Be blessed and you will be a blessing to others! This 4th of July - GO FISHING!!! God bless you and happy fishing! They're biting!!!

Worship In Spirit And In Truth
Tracy Sunshine and Jesus

June 27, 2000

"God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth." John 4:24 Have you read this scripture before? Do you know what it means?

Having moved several times in the past few years, I have been to a number of churches. These churches were deemed "some of the best around". But I have noticed a common thread in all of them. Something missing. They do not know how to worship in Spirit and in Truth.

What I have seen time and time again are mechanical worshippers. The praise leader or pastor says "raise your hands", they raise their hands, which not a bad thing - however, we should already have our hands raised on our OWN accord to our Father in Heaven.

I will be the first to admit, I used to care what people thought of me when I worshipped God. I love to dress up when I come to church. I love to wear my hats. I know I probably look different than most people, but you know what? I don't care.

God knows my heart and He knows my sincerity. When I worship God, I REALLY worship God! My hands are up almost all the time. I shout, I jump, I dance, I play my tambourine. And God blesses me.

I know that there are a lot of people who judge me. They probably think I am just trying to look cute or get attention. Well, if that were the case, then why does God always answer the prayers I pray for the Saints? Why does He do the healings? Why does He bless my heart so? If God is for us, who can be against us? God says "it is mine to avenge and mine to repay." If someone wants to falsely judge us, they will be judged too. And that is not a good thing. I don't want God judging me! Heck, I've already made enough mistakes in my lifetime! Now's time for serious worship! We don't have much time left. We need to see souls saved!

When I gave God my total commitment of my life to Him ten years ago He showed me many things in the church. He showed me the spirits that lurk around. They are subtle, but they are there. A big reason people can't worship in Spirit and in Truth is their sense of pride. Hey, when I cared about how people saw me, that was a sense of pride and God had to rid me of that. It wasn't easy, but I'm glad He did.

One church I know had many evil spirits. God showed them to me and showed me how to pray. That church ended up going through a very serious cleansing. Fortunately, God took me out of there before it happened, as I had already been through my cleansing period. I was just there to say the right prayers.

Now I am praying for several churches. I am praying that they will worship God in Spirit and in Truth and that the evil spirits will flee so that God does not have to cleanse them the hard way.

I am sad when people's eyes are fixed on themselves and not on God. God wants us to fix our eyes on Him so badly and fellowship with Him. After all, that is what He created us for, isn't it?

So, I encourage you, remember to always worship God in Spirit and in Truth. If you don't know how to, just ask Him. Would He not be thrilled to show you the answer? God wants worshippers~! Be one! Be blessed!!!

I pray that everyone on this list will be a great worshipper for God and He will not have to show you the hard way. It's not fun. Just come to Him as a child, and "let 'er rip!" "I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." Luke 18:17 Don't worry about what others think. Worry about what God thinks. Remember, "If God ain't happy, ain't nobody happy!"

Jesus loves you. Worship with Him today!

Love always in the Name of Jesus,

Fatherless

John L. Moore/Jeff Guyett

Fatherless

by John L. Moore, Montana

This elder sitting across from me, does not hear, will not hear me because he has issues of his own about doing it his way, out of his knowledge, his training, his will.

He does not have the seal,
the blessing, the approval of a natural father who ever patted his head or back, but instead, pointed fingers, raised a voice,
or worse yet,
ignored him.

And I sit here the same, a tare
in the fields of the Lord, uncultivated, untended, unwatered, and somehow through all of this we must bond and become one, or separate,
and become nothing at all.
Just something for flames to lick.

Fathers to the Fatherless—Exporting from a Deficit?

by Jeff Guyett

I am struck by the hardness of heart found in most of us, even while asking for tenderness, grace and mercy to flow from our hearts. We might say, "I dare you, Lord." With fists clenched, jaw set, closed-hearted and hard, the sense that we are victims is expressed as a challenge to the Lord Himself—what we believe to be the result of God's—or dad's—lack of contact with us on the inside, in our hearts. The brave will dare Him to come in, while the "bravest" might dare Him to fulfill our sense of victimization.

I dare you—try to come in! The conscious or unconscious statement says, God, if you can't come in, then tell me! Touch me, love me—or leave me alone! The irony is that daring God is not an act of bravery at all, but comes from a foundation of fear—fear of the one we dare!

Yet, He knocks. He stands at the door. His tears flow to the floor. He aches to hold His sons.

A paradox is revealed in this relationship between men and between the individual and God. Is there something just a little too impossible in a ministry of being a father to the fatherless? In some ways, it seems impossible to know and to share, even impossible to do. The impossibility is actually both the pain and the glory of ministering as a father to the fatherless in our American culture today. We are trying to export from a deficit, offering that which has not yet been fully received.

Where are the models, the mentors and the life-giving fathers who "should" have shown us the way? Who has been raised in a functional family, able to provide a model for the dysfunctional? The best, trustworthy model is found in scripture. The psalmists reflect that model of loving compassion, while Jesus did the best kind of mentoring and modeling we can find. And yet, overall, Christian men and women continue to agonize over a strong sense of need—the neglect of the heart and its needs seems crippling. Many see and hear the teachings on the "Father's love" and understand His heart for His sons and daughters on an intellectual level, yet the reality or experience is missing. For most American Christians, it seems nearly impossible to open ourselves in a trusting, appropriately intimate relationship with those to whom we look for leadership, nurture and direction—our "fathers."

It is not surprising to find that the training we have received and that continues to be prevalent today communicates that the heart of a person is less important than the acts of that person—we are still more concerned with "doing" than with "being." We perform for approval, even for self-approval, and are deflated or intimidated when we are sent the message that our performance has not measured up to the standard of another. Intimidation becomes especially overwhelming when the "measuring" is done by someone who is—or represents—the "father" or authority for the individual. That fear, the deeply felt intimidation in the heart of a person, is not from the Lord.

Instead of seeking the Lord's measure, we have bought into lies and repeated curses over our lives that have another source. There is a clear rejection of truth—truth that was bought with His blood—that we are loved, cherished, blameless, without shame and wonderfully made as an expression of His creative delight. Instead of accepting this truth we repeat lies: "I'm unlovable," "I can't," "I'm not appreciated," and "I'm not good enough."

There are even subtler forms of the cursing when we agree too quickly with a critic about our character, or when we strive to be loved by imperfect people. But comparison, whether we believe it or we speak it out, leads only to death. We offend the Holy Spirit and cheapen His saving grace when we allow the judgment of others define who we are.

We need to believe His truth about who we are and let the truth be known about the sinfulness of our actions. Sinfulness is not, by the way, how we define who we are but a way to describe what we have done. The Lord's response to that sinfulness was to redeem us as we recognize the truth of our actions—in fact, even before! As The Message states in Romans 5:8, “But God put His love on the line for us by offering his Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to him.”

So, what does this mean? We may not feel we can father the fatherless—believing we just don’t have the tools—yet the model is obedience. The call is to stand, to bless, to let the Holy Spirit flow. He still offers His Son to us, so we must believe the truth: while we may not have been of any use to him whatever, but He has given us an identity and destiny. Jesus modeled an invitation to “become one” with the identity of the other and to call out the destiny you see in them. Otherwise, becoming something for “flames to lick” might indeed become our destiny.

I believe the Lord has said to me, “As you do this for others I will do this for you.” Does that mean I will feel it, or even feel good about the process? Not necessarily, but in the light of that promise, as I walk in obedience, my own identity and destiny come into a place of truth.

Obedience to this call actually becomes the “calling out,” for it is truly a basic response from our Christian identity. If you are calling others out, you can say, “I see God at work in you, calling you into the fullness of your destiny!” He has created us to say those words, so say them, despite your sense of deficit. For it is in our response to any real or perceived deficit that the Lord can then redeem. We are not to believe the lie of our “lack,” putting responsibility outside of ourselves. Instead, we are to embrace the truth of His call. That is the place from which He can then fill you!

This is a “both/and” calling for obedience: we are filled as we fill others, we are to obey from a sense of deficit and that, in itself, becomes the fulfillment of our destiny. After all, we have nothing to export from outside of His life anyway, so let us cease to export at all, but instead become vessels of His mercy and love, letting Him flow through us to others.

Fear Not – I Call

David Clements

I bring a breaking forth that cannot be contained. I break forth in you.

This is not a ripple but a tidal wave of change!

You are being stretched and torn loose from tradition and form. Fear not, for I Am the one that is doing this stretching. Change makes you uncomfortable but change you must. I have hung you upon the cross of self. It is there that you must die. Die to yourself and come alive to me.

Fear not for I AM able to contain myself.

Fear not for I AM the Head of my Body.

Fear not for your order is not mine.

Fear not for I AM able to build my own house.

My song is no more give me the preeminence for this is my day and I Am preeminent.

Understand this, I AM the Head and you are the Body. Be joined to me and you will be delivered of your doubts and your fears. I AM doing what you have never seen. Remove the limits of time and tradition. I will move and your limits will fall. You have tried to build now I will build. Stand and watch as my hand is revealed.

Revelation is coming to you. I desire to reveal all of my Glory. My Glory is more than you can understand.

I AM not a mental thing. I AM not a thought in your mind. I AM not subject to your opinions.

I AM that I AM.

I AM spirit so stop giving me counsel about what you think. Open your spirit to me and I will fill you with greater Glory than you can think, hear, or imagine. I now choose to pour out glory that you might be equipped. You have felt the calling now I bring the equipping. Power from me is what you lack. I now will equip you to harvest. Before you lies a field of harvest. Receive my Glory that you can do my work.

My work is the harvest. You are the laborer that I prayed for.

I call you to your wives and husbands.

I call you to your children.

I call you to your neighbors.

I call you to your city.

I call you to Nations.

I equip you and clothe you to the calling. Receive me for without me you can do nothing.

You are being separated from everything that will hinder my call and equipping. This then is the ingathering of harvesters. Work while it is light. My Glory will light all. Soon it will be dark so be about my business. Shine with my Glory receive beyond your doubts and fears. Die to yourself and become one with me.

Focus / Vision

Doug Fortune

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth...”(Col.3:2). The word for affection, phroneo in Greek means ‘to exercise the mind, to be mentally disposed in a certain direction’. I have had much opportunity recently to exercise my mind on circumstances concerning members of the Body of Christ manifesting behavior toward each other that is far from Christlike. The irony is that these observations came directly after just having written on the PERFECTION that God is bringing His Body to! Judging from what I was seeing and hearing, the possibility of the perfection I had just written about actually manifesting in His Body seemed pretty remote. This is the predicament that many are in, only the circumstances and subject matter vary greatly... this is “judging after the sight of our eyes and the hearing of our ears”. God is raising up a company of people who do NOT operate that way, though. I KNOW that God IS building a completed perfect temple in the earth, therefore I choose to exercise my mind on His PURPOSE and His ABILITY to perform His will!... it doesn’t matter what I perceive in the natural realm. It’s all about focus or vision... Luke 11:34 tells us that the eye (vision/ focus) is the light (illuminator) of the body (your life). The type of illumination I have determines how I perceive reality, and that ‘perceived’ reality largely determines how I act... my actions then have great impact on my ‘true’ reality.

I see a pitfall that applies both to our vision of the Body of Christ and to our personal lives. That scripture in Luke goes on to tell us that if our eye (vision/ focus) is evil, our whole body will be full of darkness. I don’t believe it requires much discernment or maturity to see the ‘evil’ in others. In fact, I believe that most of our so called ‘discernment’ is nothing more than critical judgmentalism... it is the darkness of our own SOUL identifying the darkness in the SOUL of another, for the most part. Then when we ‘share our concern’ with that person, we are basically just lending a voice of agreement with the accuser of the brethren. The result of this is usually just condemnation and a further strengthening of the stronghold of darkness upon the recipient. If God truly does show you an area of darkness in your brother or sister, it is probably so you can pray for them! Am I saying that there is never a time for confrontation?... certainly NOT! Godly confrontation is sometimes a necessity, especially in areas of FUNCTIONAL authority... just make sure it’s godly and not a lot of ‘self’ mixed in; if you’re looking to get an apology or personal justification, forget it - you are in the flesh!

The true test of discernment and maturity is being able to look past the apparent darkness of another's SOUL and see the deposit of Christ in them... it is to discern the gifting and calling of God in their life and call it forth with words that are Spirit and Life... to activate the Incorruptible Seed resident in them. Do we dispense with ALL confrontation and firmness?... NO, just dispense with the religious condemnation that is often passed off as ‘discernment and concerns’.

Another real pitfall is when our eye (focus/ vision) is evil toward ourselves. If we are always focused in on our faults, shortcomings, striving to drive out sin, then we are probably snared in a form of pride known as false humility... and what a DANGEROUS place this is because it looks and acts very spiritual and humble. If our focus is on our SOUL where sin and iniquity, hurts and wounds, strongholds, the basic baggage of the fallen Adam nature abounds... then we will be filled with darkness. This is such a lie because in fact, our Adam nature HAS BEEN (Rom. 6:6) crucified with Christ!... there is NOTHING more that we can add to His FINISHED work! Luke chapter 11 also tells us that our eye (focus/ vision) must be single... that word, haploose in Greek means ‘as a particle of UNION, folded together’, so our vision or focus must be in UNION with something. Prov. 20:27 says that the spirit of man is the candle, or better translated -the ILLUMINATOR, of the Lord... and we know that according to 1Cor.6:17, he who is joined to the Lord is ONE Spirit with Him.

So our vision or focus must be in UNION or ONE with our spirit, which is one with His Spirit, as it is the accurate ILLUMINATION of the Lord. Then when our focus/ vision is from our SPIRIT, this accurate illumination determines our ‘perceived’ reality.

If, by the SPIRIT within I perceive who I am in Christ, that the old man (fallen Adam nature) was crucified, died and buried, then I will act differently and my ‘true’ reality is impacted tremendously. It doesn’t stop there though... by the SPIRIT within, the Illuminator of the Lord allows me to see who Christ is IN ME; resurrected, ascended and seated at the right hand of the Father (to borrow from Roy Richmond). THIS is the vision/ focus of the overcomer!

For too long our focus has been upon our SOUL, our eye has been evil... not only toward ourselves but toward our brothers and sisters in Christ... it is time to come up higher! “If then you HAVE BEEN (past tense!) raised with Christ to a new life, thus sharing His resurrection from the dead, aim at and seek the rich eternal TREASURES that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God...”(Col.3:1) What are the treasures in Christ at the right hand of God? I believe that a big part of it is, “...He raised US up together with Him and made US sit down together in Christ...”(Eph.2:6); “...we possess this precious TREASURE... in earthen vessels...”(2Cor.4:7). We must look at our brothers and sisters in Christ as the TREASURES ABOVE, at the right hand of God! Our SOULISH mentalities must change... this will transform not only US, but it will bring transformation to our brothers and sisters! Enough of the ‘evil eye’!... let the SPIRIT within illuminate our perception of the Body of Christ AND ourselves as individuals. This will change the way we act toward others and ourselves, and our actions based on SPIRIT illuminated perceptions will impact our reality and our destiny!

Let us come up higher and “set our affection on things above...”(Col.3:2).

For America

Becky McLendon

A FIRE goes before Him, and burns up all His enemies. The hills melt like wax at the presence of the LORD...The LORD REIGNS...Let the earth rejoice. Our God Reigns. What we see in the natural now is being accomplished in the spiritual. Let the states in the west SEE the vengeance of the LORD. Where there is FLOODING, know that when the enemy comes in like a flood the LORD raises up a standard, prepare for the STANDARD of the Lord lifted. Where there is drought know this that HE gives streams in the desert and brings refreshing to a DRY PLACE. Prepare to receive the WATER of the LORD that quenches the thirst for the knowledge of Him. God wants to spare America. We are seeing JUDGMENT for unrepented national SIN. 2 Chronicles 7:14 says "IF MY PEOPLE WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME WILL HUMBLE THEMSELVES, PRAY, SEEK MY FACE AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS THEN WILL I HEAR FROM HEAVEN, I WILL FORGIVE THEIR SINS AND I WILL HEAL THEIR LAND. " AMEN SO BE IT LORD.

To those who pronounce destruction of America. True, this is the tide that comes to America IF SHE DOES NOT REPENT. Do not be angry if she DOES, but rejoice that she has returned to her first Love...and gotten under HIS covering. Are there any righteous found among us who will act on 2 Chronicles 7:14 and then receive His promise? Pray for the leaders IN office and the leaders who will be elected into office. Pray that God in his mercy will GRANT a spirit of grace and supplication to us that we will be spared the national judgment that surely is upon us. AMEN. Becky

For Keeps

Bob Neumann

It has been quiet a long, long time. THE MOST HIGH has been silent, yet the world is in turmoil. The 'prophetic' voices are all over the spectrum and very few seem to fit together. In THE WORD we are warned about 'the trumpet' whose call is unclear, maybe too many people "tooting their own horns", to turn a phrase.....

1 Corinthians 14:8 8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? (KJV)

So when I 'hear', any way, any time, any place: a clear VOICE I stop and listen. Today I heard again the VOICE of THE LORD OF HOSTS. As usual it bothered me and I was more than willing to sit and wait. For a long time I have been "preparing" for battle. Something few of my brothers and sisters see coming as I do. But it is not their fault. If they were "called" and "commissioned" to STAND in the DAY OF BATTLE, that would have been their only focus, their only goal. For them THE DAY OF THE LORD will be a time to flee....to run.

For THE LORD OF HOSTS made it clear to me in a very short statement that brings very intense images.

"THE SEASON HAS CHANGED AND PERILOUS TIMES HAVE JUST BEGUN. TOO MANY ARE STILL CLINGING TO PERSONAL ISSUES AND USELESS AGENDAS. THEY DO NOT KNOW THAT THE HARDER THEY CLING TO THE THINGS THAT OFFEND ME THE TIGHTER THEY SEAL THEIR OWN DESTRUCTION. I OFFERED GRACE AND MERCY AND THEY STILL DEMAND POSITION AND AFFIRMATION FROM MEN. POWER AND WEALTH ARE THEIR HEART'S DESIRE, NOT MY KINGDOM".

"I TOLD YOU ONCE BEFORE THAT THE ONLY PLACES I HAVE IN MY HOUSE ARE FOR SERVANTS AND STEWARDS. I SAID I WILL EXALT MYSELF AS ALL WHO FEAR ME KEEP STILL AND THEY WILL KNOW I AM GOD. FOR EVEN THE HEATHEN SHALL SEE AND BE IN TERROR BEFORE ME FOR I NOW ARISE TO MAKE WAR".

"WHO IS LIKE UNTO ME, SOLDIER! I AM THE GREAT AND TERRIBLE KING OVER ALL THE EARTH. I AM THE MASTER OF ALL WARFARE, EL GAHBOR, WHO WEARS ZEAL AS A CLOAK OVER GARMENTS OF VENGEANCE. I TOLD MY PRECIOUS ONES THAT MY NAME IS JEALOUS. I TAUGHT MY SERVANTS THAT I WILL TREAD THE WINEPRESS YET WHO HAS LEARNED?"

"THE 'CHILDREN' HAVE NOT BEEN FED SOLID FOOD. THEY HAVE NOT LEARNED OF ME. THEY HAVE NOT TAKEN UP THEIR CROSSES AND FOLLOWED ME. THEY CONTINUE TO SPEAK AS CHILDREN, ACT AS CHILDREN. THEY LOOK AT THE APPROACHING STORM AND THINK IT IS BUT ANOTHER DAY. ANOTHER 'EVENT' THAT WILL PASS AND THEY CAN RETURN TO THEIR CHILDISH WAYS. SO WARN THEM FOR ME THAT I DO NOT "PLAY" BY THEIR RULES, FOR THEIR AMUSEMENT. THAT THE GREAT AND DREADFUL DAY OF MY WAR AND MY WRATH IS UNLIKE THEIR GAMES. TELL THEM FOR ME THIS IS "FOR KEEPS""FOR ALL THE MARBLES""FOR ETERNITY".

It seems whenever someone gets a 'word' or 'vision' we have to have a title. I hope you understand why I used "FOR KEEPS"....it jumps out. Since this came I have had many "images" and "scriptures" come to mind. of the sum and total two scripture passages seem to jump out....first is from Isaiah.....

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

for years I have listened to people talking about "repentance" from the WHITE HOUSE, and amerika "returning" to GOD like Ninevah in the book of JONAH. so many today are calling for prayer for all kinds of purposes and agendas. all are nice....I only wished it was ABBA'S call because I "know" what happened to Nineveh.....

Nahum 1:1-9

1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. (KJV)

Fire Over Scotland

Chad Taylor

I see a great fire, a pillar of fire over Scotland. Like a whirlwind it is forming. Over the heads of the youth this fire is burning. Over the heads of this generation. Burning, burning, burning this fire is. Like a forest fire it is burning. And from the tiny villages it can be seen. From the far away hills it can be seen. Old men stand and wonder, mothers leap for joy. The prodigal has come home and the fire leaps from girl and boy!

Governments are changing, leaders are being raised up. A righteous vanguard that will fight for truth and justice. Hid in their heart is a seed of revival. Hidden in their heart is an incorruptible seed. They will remember the ancient paths, they will remember the ancient covenants of generations past. They will be the repairer of the breach.

Yes! A fire is leaping from every boy and girl! A fire of awakening and reformation! Not one fought with sticks and swords, but one fought with righteousness and truth. I see a great revival in the university. In the places of study and learning. I see students of revival emerging from her halls dressed for battle and glory. Wielding weapons not made with mere hands.

I see their heads bowed in school classrooms. Praying to the Lord God Almighty. I see them in the playgrounds, I see them on the streets. Praying, interceding. A great revival of prayer is coming to Scotland! A great move of prayer sweeping up whole regions and cities. Young and old joining together in a great chain of prayer. The wall between generations is crumbling!

I see two old friends reunited. I see two old rivals standing together again. On one is written Scotland, on the other is written Ireland. They are embracing, they are lifting up the sword of righteousness together as one. Like Jonathan and David they are sharing armor and weapons. Fighting for the cause of Christ. Wrestling not with flesh and blood.

I see a great bridge of revival being built. Spanning seas and impacting nations. From Scotland to England, from England to Africa this great bridge is being built. From Scotland to Ireland, from Ireland to America, this great bridge is rising. Partnering with one another, joining forces to see Christ in His full stature. Families reunited, brothers together again. Children walking the soil of their forefathers and breaking curses of long ago. A time of great possessing is upon us. A time of great revival. For the children of Scotland a great light has dawned.

Fruit Of Wisdom

Michael Danforth

"THE FIRST FRUIT OF WISDOM AND KNOWLEDGE"

by Michael Danforth

It has been said, that more prayer has gone up in the last two years, than in the last twenty years. This I believe and rejoice greatly, and boldly declare with much confidence, that we are progressively receiving a new government in this nation as well as in the church of Jesus Christ. God as heard the cry of His people and He is bringing them out because they are heeding to His voice to enter into the kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Earlier in the year I heard these words ring in my spirit, "the fear of God is coming back into the church and then in the earth." I immediately thought of Proverbs 1:7 that says, "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction." The fear of the Lord is the "re'shiyth" of knowledge. The fear of the Lord is also the beginning of wisdom and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. (Prov 9:10) This Hebrew word for beginning is defined as the "first fruit" of knowledge and wisdom. Get ready, because the first fruit of knowledge and wisdom which is the fear of God, is about to become fully manifested in the church. In other words respect and reverence toward God is coming back into the hearts of His people. The first sign of this restoration will be the return of the fear of God. This particular Godly fear will come through various forms. We will begin to see signs of it coming through the government of this nation and other nations, as well as predominately in the church.

We are receiving a leadership that is God seeking rather than self-seeking. His body is giving birth to a new leadership that is determined to leave an inheritance for the children, rather than the children for leaders. No longer will God tolerate His anointed using His people as a means to build their house rather than the house of God. As the affections of these new fathers and mothers become apparent, a new respect and reverence for the divine order of God will return to the hearts of humanity, both partially in the world and fully in His church.

As a people chosen by God, we will respect and reverence faith in God above every doubt and unbelief that has seemingly been prevailing in His Body. We will respect the love of God over every hateful deception that has been warring against us in the earth. We will give more respect and reverence toward forgiveness instead of unforgiveness. We will respect the peace of God more than the restlessness of our own souls. We will fear the one that can destroy the body and soul rather than the one that can destroy just the body.

We will give more respect to the divine nature of Jesus Christ working in these earthly bodies than we will the divination of satan. The restoration of fear of the Lord will be our instruction of Wisdom and will bring us into a humility that will declare many honors to the Lord and His bride. (Prov 15:33) This newly founded fear will lead us to life and he who has it will abide in satisfaction, and we will not be visited with evil, because our fear for God will be greater. (Prov 19:23) Through humility and the fear of the Lord are riches and honor and life. (Prov 22:4) We will be zealous for the fear of the Lord the rest of our days and our hope will not be cut off. (Prov 23:17-18)

The key to getting a hold of this first fruit of knowledge is by entering into the kingdom of God. Jesus said, "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered." (Lk 11:52) We must come out of the old man and enter into the new one. There is a difference between having Christ in us, versus us entering into Him. There is a difference between having the divine nature of Christ, and His divine nature having us. To enter in means that we are to enter into His rest. In this position of rest we no longer see things as being incomplete but we see them as finished. It's time for leaders across this nation to enter into the finished realm of God's kingdom, by not entering in we hinder others from doing the same. In these next few months God is going to deal with those hindrances more severely, especially in the places of government.

And lastly, we are going to begin to see houses of wisdom and understanding rise up in the land. Just like in the days of Solomon people will gather from miles around to remote areas across the country to hear men and women who have taken on the wisdom and understanding of God. As centers of prayer and worship continue to spring up, a fresh new knowledge of God's spirit will run like a mighty river through out the land. The church has been pursuing many gifts of the Spirit and for the most part overlooking two important foundational ingredients, wisdom and knowledge. But no longer will this be the case, for the hidden ones in Christ have been tucked away for such a time as this. Now the invisible is becoming visible, that which has been hidden shall be revealed, not the dark secrets of man, but the treasures of God's kingdom that have been concealed in earthen vessels for these last days. Let us set our hearts to receive the "first fruit" of God's wisdom and knowledge.

Vision For France

Kathie Walters

"Several times I have seen this vision for France. I saw a land that was covered with a layer of ice, like a glacier almost. The ice was thick and blue. Then I saw some women praying and an angel came and began to throw buckets of warm water on the ice and it began to melt. Underneath the ice I saw some precious stones but three very large emeralds stood out.

THE EMERALDS' MEANING

I prayed about the emeralds and talked to Bob Jones about it. He said [and gave permission to quote him] that the large emeralds represented three towns in France and also emeralds represent the leadership. True leadership bringing the revelation word to the Body of Christ in order to prepare and equip.

This year there is grace to learn- grace for real revelation of Jesus and living in His holiness.

This year is a time for us to humble ourselves and be teachable..

PROPHECY IS FOR PRAYER

Pray for the Godly leadership to be raised up -to equip the Body of Christ in France. God is melting the iciness on the hearts - when that happens - watch out - people will want to know the God whom Joan of Arc and other great men and women of God served..

Blessings

Freedom

Debbie Cossu

I was going to hold this word, but today I was handed a brochure that was titled "Church Without Walls". God is not bound by time so I am sharing this with you now. He continues to work while we wait, but it sure is fun to be by His side!!!!

In-Joy

Debbie

Job 28:11; "He tunnels through the rock; his eyes see all its treasures. He searches the sources of the rivers, and brings hidden things to light. " I am about to pour down upon My own a double anointing. The name of this downpour is "FREEDOM". The resulting waves shall be called "Released", "Liberty", "Joy", and "Fellowship. "I am doing a marvelous thing in your midst, individually and corporately. The rain is penetrating the hiding places and will cause a blending of all streams and waters into the ocean of My love. Walls of isolation and bitterness and preservation and hostility are being removed all at once. There has been enough pressure, enough fire, enough time to accomplish My purpose. I come to dig you out and set you in the place prepared and waiting for you. The polishing and refining of that which has occurred in secret shall be accomplished in My house without walls now being formed. Yes it was not just your own idea, or efforts of the enemy that have kept things hidden. This season was necessary for you to be with Me, and even at times apart from Me. Now you can embrace what I have prepared, and one another in spirit and truth. As you respond to my call to come forth, as Liberty resounds thorough land and sky and sea, the sound of mighty rushing waters will spring forth. Where there was just once a trickle of life, now abundant life shall be enjoyed. Small creeks and wide canals, gentle brooks, and cascading waterfalls, fresh and salt water alike shall come together and form a river of love that will grant life wherever it flows.

Psalms 42:7,8 "As deep calls to deep in the roar of the waterfalls, all your waves and breakers have swept over me."

Friends

Stephen Hanson

"I NO LONGER CALL YOU SERVANTS, BUT FRIENDS"

March 24, 00

"I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. " John 15:15

But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD. Ex. 34:34-35

We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at it while the radiance was fading away. 2 Co. 3:13

"Let Me speak unto you as a brother:"

"I have come unto my people to give you the Spirit of "friends." For I no longer call you servants, because the servant does not know the reason why he was sent. He may know the marching orders I give him. He may know the hope to which he was called. He may know the hope of his calling. He may know Me in the obedience to how he has served Me. He may know Me in a lot of different ways; but to know Me intimately is to know Me as a friend. I have called you friends because you have come to know Me. I have called you friends because you have come to know my heart. You have come to know my longings. You have come to know my sorrow. You have looked upon those things that I have shown you. You have seen the grief that I have had for a lost and dying world. You have known of my judgment, and yet of my mercy. For even though my hand has been outstretched and ready for judgment, my mercy has been shown as well. I would want to know you as "face to face." My friend, Moses knew Me in this way. His face shown after he had been in my presence. They had to put a veil over his face because of how it shown. But behold....the veil has been taken off. I speak to you "face to face" and no longer in riddles. Come with Me into the inner court and hear of my longings. There you will know Me and see Me as I AM. Let the veil be lifted off. "

"I have called you my prophets, as my friends. To know Me intimately as a friend and a brother. Sit beside Me beside the still waters and hear my voice. For I will pour forth my speech as the mountains and the streams. The wind blows and no man knows of its origin. You may see the effects of it. You may see a leaf rustle; you may see various things as they are "blown." It is the same way in knowing Me. For behind the wind, and behind the veil, I AM. Know Me as an intimate one would another. For even as I AM one with the Son, I ask you to be one with us. Then will our friendship be as we are. Then you will know my heart. Then we will be one as we were meant to be. This is the generation I long for. This is the type of people I long to be with. Come to know Me in this way. Sit and listen and we will share our hearts. I no longer call you servants, but friends."

Global: Evangelicals are the world's fastest-growing movement "4000 years ago, God promised Abraham to bless all peoples through him," write mission strategists Ralph Winter and Bruce Koch in their article 'Finishing the Task'. "Today, this promise is being fulfilled before our very eyes, and with an almost unbelievable speed. Biblical faith is spreading as never before." The magazine 'Missions Frontiers', published by the US Center for World Mission, presented the following new figures, based on their own research and David Barrett and Patrick Johnstone's statistics:

Annual growth
Global population	1.6%
Pentecostal and charismatic churches	7.3%
Evangelical churches	5.6%
Protestant churches	2.9%
Roman Catholic church	1.2% (approx.)
Christianity	2.6%
In comparison: Islam	2.7%

"Evangelical Christianity is growing 3.5 times as fast as the world population," (Pentecostal and Charismatic churches 4.5 times as fast). "That makes Evangelical Christianity, with 645 million members or 11% of the population, the fastest-growing major religious group, and the only movement growing significantly through conversion," says Johnstone.

Unreached peoples: not so unreached!

Of the world's 24,000 people groups, some 10,000, with a total population of around 2.1 billion, are unreached. An 'unreached people group' is a numerically significant population which shares a language, religion, race, locality, trade, class, caste or other identifying element in which there is no indigenous group of Christians which are able to reach the people group with the gospel (the AD2000 and Beyond movement's definition: less than 2% of the group are evangelical, or less than 5% are active Christians). "Of the world's 6 billion inhabitants, around one third are Christians, another third lives in people groups which have been reached with the gospel, and the remaining third lives in unreached groups. That is a great step forward from the situation in 1974, when around half of the non-Christians lived in unreached people groups; today, it is only one third. For the first time in history, there are fewer non-Christians in unreached people groups than in evangelised groups," the report continues. Winter and Koch conclude: "We are clearly in the final era of world mission. For the first time in history, we can see that the task of establishing a church-planting movement in the language and social structure of every people group can be completed."

Half the world population has seen the Jesus film In 1989, the Jesus Film, based on the gospel of Luke, had been translated into 134 languages, and 30 million of the 330 million who had seen it had decided to follow Jesus. By 1999, the film had been translated into 547 languages, had been seen by 2.9 billion people (almost half of the world population) and 106.5 million people had shown interest in following Jesus, according to a statement made by the Jesus Film movement on 14 January 2000.

Tatarstan: Law or love, which is the greater? The eternal story of Schamyl, the Chechen prince "During a visit to Perm, a town in the Ural mountains, last summer, we had a couple of hours to spare, and decided to visit the local mosque," reports Swiss evangelist Florian Bärtsch. "The Mullah approached us immediately, and asked us 'Will Jesus come again?' 'Yes', we answered, 'he will return, just as described in the Bible.' He asked another question, and gave his answer: 'What is most important in life? Keeping the law!' 'No,' we replied, 'love is most important.' I then told him the story of Schamyl, a long-dead Chechen prince, which I had heard from Roscher, an economist in the Caucasus area. Prince Schamyl had made a law that anyone who took any of the spoils of their many wars would receive 100 lashes. Then, a theft was discovered - the thief was the Prince's weak old mother! Schamyl then faced the question of whether the law should be fulfilled, and he had to consider it for a number of days before concluding that the law must be fulfilled. He ordered that his mother be bound to a post and whipped. Just before the first lash, he threw himself in front of his mother, ordering the soldier to continue, and to count the lashes exactly. 'He had found the solution: he had saved his mother, but the law had been fulfilled. That is exactly what Jesus did with our guilt on the cross,' we told the astonished Mullah, who had become very quiet while listening to the story. 'Whenever you return, please come to the mosque!' he said as we left."

Find The Pillars And Push!

Deborah Kerekes

Friday afternoon the Lord came to me in such sweetness of presence I almost couldn't stand it. It was one of those times when you can't help but worship Him and lavish praise on Him.

HE WAS ASKING MY PERMISSION

Then I had the incredible awareness that He was asking my permission for something, and I suddenly knew that this powerful visit of grace was there for a reason; it was to carry me through the testing to come.

I STARTED CRYING

I wish I could say I bolted forward with my hand raised, ready to volunteer for anything, but I didn't. I just started crying like a baby, and begged Him to understand...that I've been through so much, I don't think I can face more. I begged Him to let me go a while longer with no more testings or fires.

I HAD REALLY HURT HIM

You know what the worst part was? He was so quiet. No argument, no struggle; He was just so sad...I had really hurt Him. Do you know, I actually sensed a bewilderment in HIM?---The same kind of mystified pain that a small child might have when someone they love is mean to them.

His presence started to lift from me, and I just cracked, I couldn't do it, I couldn't stand the thought of hurting Him; not like that. I repented so fast and so loud, I just thank God a million times it wasn't an object lesson from Song of Songs chap.5,-- and He DID come back to me.

I don't deserve such mercy.

WHAT KIND OF GRACE?

I don't know what kind of grace came to me at that point, but I knew I'd rather face "whatever" than to grieve Him like that again. He is so innocent, so pure, it's almost, (if I may be so crude as to attribute such a weakness to Him) as though He doesn't UNDERSTAND how or why we would ever, COULD ever recoil from Him.

Then, as if my heart wasn't broken enough, He spoke to me, and said He had only come to bless me. All I could do was tell Him how foolish and sorry I was.

It was utterly useless for me to try to articulate to someone as Holy as that why I would even think of withholding from Him. At any rate, with that behind me, I will attempt to tell you what He's been showing me.

VISION OF SAMSON

For several weeks now, I have been seeing a vision of Samson, toiling at the mill stone, going 'round and 'round. The Lord spoke to me and said that the church has, for the most part, been in this place for a few years now. (5-6?)

Whether or not we got blinded from our own foolishness or not is incidental, and most of us wouldn't remember any way as it's been too long. What matters is, the enemy did it, we have been somewhat blind (not a lot of clear vision) and we have been going in circles.

OUR HAIR HAS BEEN GROWING THE WHOLE TIME

What we didn't know, and neither did the enemy, is that our "hair" has been growing this whole time! God has been strengthening our inner-man and doing such a thing that we will know it is Him and not us. That is why so MANY of us are being asked to do things we don't feel qualified to do!

Don't be proud, just say, "YES!"

GOD WANTS TO USE THE "UNQUALIFIED"

In fact, God wants to use a lot of "unqualified" people, just to reveal the pride and blindness of others who would sit there and judge us.

Are we willing to be used like that?

So back to Samson...

I saw a lot of "Samson's" going around in circles, full of self-pity, some saying they were just going to trust God for deliverance, (SO spiritual), some just dazed with the rut they were in.

Then I saw another Samson.

THE STRONGHOLD BEGAN TO COME DOWN

He called to a child, (no big deal) and asked him to put his hands on the supporting pillars.

Then he pushed!

He pushed with all his new-found might, and the temple of the enemy, that stronghold, began to come down. And that's where the analogy ends, because in my vision, Samson didn't die, (although a lot of our "self" may die before we're done) and his sight was restored to him.

HE WAS HEALED AS HE PUSHED

He didn't wait until he could see to begin pushing, he was HEALED AS he pushed.

I feel God is saying, "So what are YOU gonna do about it?"

It's YOUR turn to push. See, in the beginning years of this stuff, we all pushed like crazy! We tried to "see", tried to get out of the rut and the "captivity" we were in. (Lots of restless activism) We pushed to exhaustion and got no where, because we had been rendered WEAK.

And guess what?

It took the heart right out of a lot of people and they became just plain PASSIVE. The mind that ends up saying, "I've tried till I dropped and got no where, so I guess if God wants me out of this, He'll have to do it Himself."

Well, that's not how it is.

GET UP AND SHOVE THOSE PILLARS!

And I'm telling you, if you'll get up and shove on those pillars with a steady strength, and don't stop, they are comin' down.

Each one of us has our own blind spots and our own "pillars" to push against, and that will be revealed as we pray. Trust me, He is eager to show us what they are, or at least lead us into the truth of it.

But don't be surprised if He starts putting His finger on touchy issues, like the food we eat, the hours we keep, the TV time we burn up, etc. He's fixin' to meddle with us!)

Now is the season of OPPORTUNITY! Dare to believe for old promises and dreams that were from Him, and dare to see and believe for others. Don't judge in the natural whether or not you think you or someone else is qualified; Did you ever think you WERE!?

A lot of people with strong calls have recently been disqualified due to self and sin. Some know it, some don't,--- most wouldn't care if you told them.

And a lot of closet "faithfuls" have been targeted for promotion, if they will just get off that wheel, find the pillars and PUSH! DO IT!

It may cost you a little, but in eternity, it is SO little.

God bless you,

Debbie email: debinramah@hotmail.com

First the test, then the Testimony.

It isn't the size of the dog that is in the fight but the size of the fight that is in the dog. We can be more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

May 27, 2000

Thus saith the Lord;

Discipline, discipline, discipline; this is imperative for each one of you. Search your own hearts and discover how much discipline you have in your own lives.

In the difficult times it will be your trust in Me and your self discipline that will carry you through.

Remember I have said that it is important to always be calm.

Regardless of circumstances you will be calm IF YOU TRUST IN ME:

You will be calm IF YOU ARE DISCIPLINED:

You will be calm IF I AM ALWAYS FIRST IN YOUR LIVES:

And you will be calm IF YOU HAVE LEARNED TO WALK IN THE SPIRIT AND NOT IN THE FLESH.

Oh My beloved, you still have much work to do to get your eyes off the world and let go of the world. Many of you are still trying to walk with one foot in either path. You cannot do that for it will cause you to fall.

My people, keep your eyes on Me and lean hard on Me for strength, FOR I WILL NEVER FAIL YOU. I AM YOUR LIFE AND YOUR STRENGTH!

Fullness of Time

Jim Rinker

In these last days all of the spiritual seeds that have been sown by the Lord will come to fullness and maturity. Surly none of His words will not return to Him void but will return to Him bearing much fruit. It will be in this last hour that we will see the fruit of seeds that were sown hundreds, maybe thousands of years ago. Because of this, there is a great danger in this last generation to be puffed up and think more highly of ourselves because of the culmination of all things.

Matthew 13:16 But blessed [are] your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. 17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous [men] have desired to see [those things] which ye see, and have not seen [them]; and to hear [those things] which ye hear, and have not heard [them].

We will reap a harvest of that which was sown by the Lord through saints throughout the ages. As the Lord has said:

Amos 9:13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

These RIGHTEOUS men and woman earnestly sought to see the culmination of all things but it was not to come to pass in their generation. They have sown but in their generation they have not reaped. But in our generation all these things will come to pass. Is it because of our righteousness? Have they fallen short?

NO!

It wasn't TIME!

Deuteronomy 9:
3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God [is] he which goeth over before thee; [as] a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.
4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.
5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou [art] a stiffnecked people.

The Lord wants to remind us in this hour of the foundation that we stand upon and of His plans and purposes. That foundation is made up of all of the saints who have preceded us up until this point and have paved a way through the wilderness. They are referred to as the great cloud of witnesses. These saints are a cloud because they are nameless and faceless, indistinguishable if you will. You will never read about most of them in a history book nor will their names ever be referred to in conversation but it is through their faithfulness to complete their course that the light of the gospel has been handed down from generation to generation and added to.

Isaiah 28:
9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? [them that are] weaned from the milk, [and] drawn from the breasts.
10 For precept [must be] upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, [and] there a little

For all that we have has been added to by each generation, line upon line, precept upon precept. These saints of God did not see those things which we will see not because of their unrighteousness but because it was not time. All that the Lord has sown was meant to come to maturity right now for a specific purpose, which is to drive out of His kingdom all things that offend while not loosing a single grain of wheat.

Amos 9:9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as [corn] is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

Matthew 13:

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

The Lord needs to bring all things to maturity first that He may pass full sentence upon all that was sown by the enemy so that through the church He may confound the principalities and powers by having His wisdom displayed through the church.

Ephesians 3:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly [places] might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

This is extremely important, we must understand God's sovereignty, His ways, plans and purposes.

Say not within ourselves "it is because of our righteousness" that we have crossed Jordan and entered into the promised land.

Say not within ourselves "it is because we prayed for revival" that revival has come.

Say not within ourselves "it is because we earnestly sought God" that miracles are happening.

Say not within ourselves "we are the chosen generation" when all of these things come to pass.

We will see the culmination of all things come to pass for one reason, the Lord has brought it to pass. Not because we were special or more righteous or we prayed it in or we had more faith but rather because it is the season to see all these things come to pass. Do you pray for revival, it is only because the Lord has called you to prayer and has placed it in your heart. It is the Lord who places in us the desire both to will and to do His good pleasure.

If our prayer for revival is answered it will be because He has made us active participants in what He has already destined to take place and not because we have in some way caused Him to move. In this we will find His sovereignty. Let us be wise and humble ourselves and consider the foundation upon which the Lord is building His church in this hour. It is not just for our sakes or those who went before us that the Lord is about to do mighty things but rather it is that He may receive the increase on all that he has sown and destroy all that He has not.

Fulfilling Vision

Bret Wade

KEYS TO FULFILLING VISION -

Part 1 FOCUS

Dear Friend,

Our spiritual growth depends on our faithfulness in our discipline of the basic things like prayer, study of the Scriptures and assembling with other believers. These things must be done to in order to have individual growth. God is progressive and so are the things of the spirit. What we do on a daily basis determines our growth and progression on a personal level. Personal growth lends itself to the corporate growth of any ministry or people.

There are several keys that we must work in order to advance in the kingdom of God. We must have FOCUS, POSITIONING and PACE. I would like to discuss FOCUS in this first segment. Focus is primary in moving forward in the kingdom. It's a matter of where we place our eyes.

Habakkuk 2:1-2 (NKJV) I will stand my watch And set myself on the rampart, And watch to see what He will say to me, And what I will answer when I am corrected. {2} Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision And make it plain on tablets, That he may run who reads it.

Focus comes as we are flexible enough to allow God to speak to us about what He wants us to do. Flexible people don't get bent out of shape! Flexibility allows us to let Him bring plainness to our purpose. Our response determines the clarity with which we will see. Clarity is the definition to any direction. But in order to see with clarity, we must first define the direction by writing the vision. What is our purpose? Where are we headed? Who will God send to assist? How do we accomplish it?

These things make our direction plain. Simplicity is necessary to bring any direction from the Lord to pass. Simple things simply done. This allows those whom God sends to assist us to be able to run also.

The Lord spoke to me recently and said, "The horizon is expanding! Where are you looking? At the horizon or at the hindrances?" It's time to put on horizon eyes. If we will place our sight on the direction we are to go in, continue focusing unto clarity comes, and keep our focus from distraction, then we will have one major key taken care of.

Gideon's army had horizon eyes! They knew where to look! They saw the next realm and kept their eyes there. We must see the next realm of God's glory for us and stay focused on it as we progress toward it.

Proverbs 29:18a (KJV) Where there is no vision, the people perish: Focus must be maintained! Do not lose it! Where it diminishes, forward momentum is lost. It is kept through sustained focus and relationship with those involved. Focus must constantly be checked and sharpened. Horizon eyes are yours! You can make it further today than you could yesterday! Your horizon is expanding! Go further in Him!

Part 2 POSITIONING

In the first part of this series, we stated that there are several keys that we must work in order to advance in the kingdom of God. We must have FOCUS, POSITIONING and PACE. I would like to discuss POSITIONING, secondly. Habakkuk 2:1-2 (NKJV) I will stand my watch And set myself on the rampart, And watch to see what He will say to me, And what I will answer when I am corrected. {2} Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision And make it plain on tablets, That he may run who reads it.

Our positioning in the kingdom of God does not come according to the doctrines of men, our individual ideas or good intentions. It comes as we hear the voice of God and obey His directives. Notice in Habakkuk 2:1 it says..."I will stand my watch. And set myself" indicating a determination of will and firmness of decision.

Positioning is only achieved through willing obedience. Isaiah 1:19 reads, "If you are willing and obedient, You shall eat the good of the land." We can be willing and not obey. We can also obey and not be willing. Willingness is an attitude of heart. As we enter into willing obedience, our hearts are in a receptive mode with God.

Again, in verse one of Habakkuk two, we read..."And watch to see what He will say to me, And what I will answer when I am corrected." Can we put ourselves in a position to receive correction to "our vision" or "our ministry"? After all, it is His vision that we hold in our hearts that He must bring to pass.

Joshua 3:5 (NKJV) And Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

Positioning is a time of strategic preparation and placement. At times, it looks as if nothing is happening. But in reality, patience is outlasting our plans and our enemies' distractions from fulfilling vision.

We need the spirit of wisdom and revelation to see beyond our natural situation into the wisdom of the spiritual adjustments of the Lord. As we allow the adjustments, we can't help but arrive in the proper position.

Allow the Lord to speak His positioning to you! He's realigning and redefining our roles and positions in the kingdom!

Part 3 PACE

In the first part of this series, we stated that there are several keys that we must work in order to advance in the kingdom of God. We must have FOCUS, POSITIONING and PACE. I would like to discuss PACE, thirdly.

Habakkuk 2:1-2 (NKJV) I will stand my watch And set myself on the rampart, And watch to see what He will say to me, And what I will answer when I am corrected. {2} Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision And make it plain on tablets, That he may run who reads it.

Notice here that the latter part of verse two says to write the vision and make it plain. The vision of God is plain or simple. When it is conveyed so that others can catch it, they will then begin to strive to achieve it. In achieving a goal of any type, steps must be taken in reaching for it's fulfillment. They must be strategic steps that bring about the desired results.

Proverbs 4:18 But the path of the just is like the shining sun, That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day. Until the time of fulfillment, the process is progressive. God is progressive. We can see in the creation that he planned out what He would do. Then He went through the successive steps from the first day until the day of rest. He set the pace.

Hebrews 12:1-3 (KJV) Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, {2} Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. {3} For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

In Scripture, we find that not only does our Lord serve as our example, but He also sets the pace for us. The pace is patience. Patience is a peaceful continuing endurance. It's with faith and patience that promises are obtained (Hebrews 6:12). We must continue at the right pace. To do otherwise, would be to go forward in assumption.

Without patience, faith is inadequate. Patience sees the end result before the first step is taken. It remains consistently the same regardless of what comes or goes. We are running a marathon. Sprinters do not run with pace, long distance runners do! Galatians 6:9 (NKJV) And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.

Until we meet again, we are...

For Those Who Are "Unsung"

Steve Shultz

A Word to Intercessors --Through Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST Steve's email: steve@elijahlist.com

The Lord gave me a potent word---and hopefully an encouragement (via a dream) last night --- FOR INTERCESSORS. As it turned out, we had just finished the most awesome prophetic conference I've ever been part of this weekend. Amazing. I know there were intercessors there praying, but I had not made time to go seek them out--though they were giving themselves for this conference, as were many all over the world, because of the Internet.

I was dog-tired after the 4-day conference last night. And after I went to sleep in that same state, I had a dream. In the dream, I was finishing this conference, feeling dog-tired and I was leaving to go home and rest.

I WAS DOG-TIRED BUT THE INTERCESSORS WERE STILL GOING

As I walked past a large room, I noticed that it was full of intercessors, STILL PRAYING, even though the conference was already over. They invited me in and I protested that I was "so tired and I just needed to go home."

"We hear that you encourage people," one of the intercessors said to me specifically.

After that, I really had to go in, because I've often identified myself as one who loves to encourage others. So I did go in, and I began to prophesy encouragement to these intercessors, from my very exhausted spirit.

I prophesied, "YOU INTERCESSORS ARE THE MOST UNSUNG HERO'S IN THE BODY OF CHRIST. . . " (knowing I was speaking of intercessors worldwide as being unsung hero's).

I started to go on speaking but they stopped and asked me to repeat what I'd just said. They all had quickly taken out note pads and were scribbling down these words I had just said, as if the very words were life to them!!

"YOU ARE THE MOST UNSUNG HERO'S IN THE BODY OF CHRIST," I repeated. They intensely continued transcribing every word I had just said--as I said it one more time ---"You are the most unsung hero's in the Body of Christ."

NO ONE EVER TELLS US THAT!

Then two of the intercessors walked up to me and said, "No one EVER tells us that." And then the second person said it again, "NO ONE EVER TELLS US THAT!" I somehow knew that this was a true statement to the core--and they were saying it from their heart, with gratitude on their lips for my one prophetic word to them.

They were clearly very encouraged and built up, edified and comforted--which of course, is the main purpose of prophesying. (I Cor. 14: 1-3)

APOLOGY TO INTERCESSORS

We speak a lot these days of identificational repentance. We are to identify with the sins of our forefathers and our brothers and sisters--and we are to include ourselves in this repentance, as Daniel did when he said, "Lord, WE have sinned." And it's easier to include ourselves, when we PERSONALLY have this sin in our lives.

With this in mind, I want to stand in as an ambassador of the Body of Christ and say to every intercessor out there--those who have sacrificed time and energy,(and many have paid a horrible price--having been attacked by the enemy repeatedly for their intercessions)---those who have forgotten themselves-- so that they might remember others in prayer:

WE HAVE SINNED AGAINST THE INTERCESSORS

"We, the church have sinned against you. We have allowed you to pray and intercede for us, often without so much as a "thank you" in return for what you have sacrificially done (and yet in many ways, you were willing to be faceless-- and you did not seek attention). You have given selflessly to the Lord---and to those in the Body who needed your prayers--for as it has been said, "The Lord does NOTHING without prayer!"

Will you intercessors please forgive us for not saying THANK YOU! Forgive us for not preferring you. And forgive us for not honoring you. Would you forgive us for ignoring you, when it was in our power NOT to ignore you? Please pray now, that the Lord would forgive US, the very beneficiaries of your intercessions--for our oversight in this. And we thank you again, and again, and again, for lifting the Body of Christ up in prayer--and for lifting us up as individuals in prayer. How little we understand, that we would not be where we are, had you not done, what you have done!

Please keep praying for the Body and for us ALL --Apostles, prophets, pastors, evangelists, teachers, and the rest of us sheep-- and we will seek to remember to show you our gratitude!

In Christ,

Furnace Of Affliction

Katie Jordan

October 12, 2000

My people, I weep as I look upon your nation and I weep as I look upon My people in your nation. There is very little difference in the pride, arrogance, and complacency between those who know Me and those who do not know Me.

Oh My beloved people, draw closer and closer to Me and spend more and more time in My presence. Only from My presence will you draw strength and courage. FORSAKE ALL ELSE BUT ME!

Help any you see that are still in the valley of decision for there is so little time left before disaster strikes. Those who do not truly love TRUTH will, and are already believing a lie. If any do not hunger for TRUTH, but want to be deceived, I will do just as My Word says and send strong delusion until they are damned. Soon you will see more and more of those who have been leaders in My church turning to the enemy for power. Do not even wonder as you see them practicing weird, occult actions, for many have wanted THE APPLAUSE OF MEN RATHER THAN THE TRUTH OF GOD.

Too often My people have been very selective in what they choose to believe in My Word. Oh beloved, you either believe My Word and believe all of it or you believe none of it. You cannot take some happy passages and say this is what God says and then deny all the rest.

My servant Amos said, "Woe unto you who desire the DAY OF THE LORD! To what end is it for you? The DAY OF THE LORD is darkness and not light." And My servant Isaiah warned that, "THE DAY OF THE LORD COMES AS A DESTRUCTION FROM THE ALMIGHTY." Never forget that vengeance is Mine saith the Lord.

Remember Isaiah also quoted Me as saying, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity and cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease." I have also warned that I will lay the land desolate and destroy the sinners out of it.

If you are fully MINE THEN I AM ABLE TO SAVE YOU OUT OF THE FURNACE OF AFFLICTION JUST AS I DID MESHACH, SHADRACH AND ABEDNEGO.

Fruit Which Will Last

FRUIT WHICH WILL LAST FOREVER, OR FRUIT WHICH WILL DECAY"

8. Then he sent out a dove to see if the water had receded from the surface of the ground.
9. But the dove could find no place to set its feet because there was water over all the surface of the earth; so it returned to Noah in the ark. He reached out his hand and took the dove and brought it back to himself in the ark.
10. He waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark.
11. When the dove returned to him in the evening, there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf! Then Noah knew that the water had receded from the earth. Gen. 8

1. I will sing for the one I love a song about his vineyard: My loved one had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
2. He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in it and cut out a winepress as well. Then he looked for a crop of good grapes, but it yielded only bad fruit.
3. "Now you dwellers in Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.
4. What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it? When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad? Isaiah 5

(The Lord showed me a dove which was flying overhead, and it had a branch with some leaves on it.)

Then He said: "A dove was sent out from the ark to search for land, and a dove is now being sent out unto the ends of the earth to search for fruit. My Holy Spirit has been searching for fruit, and I have found little of it. All I see is barrenness and emptiness. I AM sending out my dove again, and I AM asking it to return unto Me with something."

(The Lord now showed me an apple which was on a tree. At a first glance this apple appeared to be beautiful and fully ripe and good. But as I continued to look at it, I was shown what it looked like on the other side. Here it was very ugly and decaying. This side of the apple was brown and was rotting. Then I was shown an entire section of an apple tree. I noticed that the inside of each of the apples was "cored-out." Insects had eaten out the inside and had left the outer shell of the fruit. I was also shown a grape vine. Here as well, the grapes were very damaged. There were insects crawling around the grapes and the leaves, eating the fruit. I noticed several large ants crawling around them, as well as spiders and other insects. It was not a beautiful thing to look at.)

"This is the state that much of my body is in. You have been given much in the way of spiritual gifts and anointing, but much of it has been for show, and your fruit has been found wanting. "

(Again the Lord showed me some fruit, and this time it was of some very luscious grapes. They were dark purple and were fully ripe and were beautiful. There were large clusters of them, and their vines had wrapped around a fence post.)

He then said again:

"There are some of you who have produced fruit and it is very beautiful to behold. I ask you to produce fruit after your kind. I asked Adam to be fruitful and to multiply upon the earth. This applied to repopulating and to bringing people upon the earth. But even more important than that in being fruitful and multiplying, is to yield fruit in your lives and to show good character because of this."

(Lastly, the Lord showed me a banqueting table which had all kinds of fruit on it set upon various platters. There were people sitting on either side who were ready to eat.)

"At the marriage supper of the Lamb I will have fruit which will abide and will last forever."

From Ziklag to the Throne

Joseph Herrin

(8-20-2000)

Much has been written and prophesied of late about the soon fulfillment of the sign in the heavens spoken of in Revelation chapter 12. This prophecy speaks of the coming forth of a man child who will rule the world with a rod of iron. Some have interpreted this man child as signifying the restoration of the office of the apostle, others have understood it to mean that the full stature sons of God whom all creation anticipates with groaning and travail are to be unveiled. Whatever the interpretation of this event, one thing is clear, this son will be caught up to the throne of God, the seat of all authority, and he will be given authority to rule and reign.

Revelation 12:1_5

1 And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

2 and she was with child; and she cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

3 And another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven diadems.

4 And his tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven, and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

(NAS)

Many people who are anticipating being counted worthy to be identified with this man child are finding that things have become very difficult for them as they wait on the soon appearing of the Lord. Many of these saints have been in wilderness places for quite some period of time, and not a few have found themselves outside the camp of the Christian religious system, bearing the reproaches of Christ. For many whom I have talked to recently, the attacks of the enemy have intensified of late, and many are looking at situations that would be considered hopeless, save for the divine intervention of an almighty God. This corresponds quite well with the image of the dragon who waits to devour the man child as it is birthed.

This man child is destined for the throne, but the way to the throne seemingly goes through the valley of death. David in many ways typified this man child who is destined to rule and David found that his darkest day was right before he saw a fulfillment of the anointing that had been placed upon him years earlier to rule the people of God. David had to go through Ziklag to get to the throne.

A recent word that was sent to me had this to say:

Many today are feeling that they have gone as far as they can go. They are so worn out that they are considering giving up. Little do they realize that only now are they ready to begin an effective ministry--if they will but turn aside into His presence and wait before the Lord.

I believe that many of God's faithful remnant who have followed Him obediently into wilderness places are experiencing what this author has written. When they have anticipated an end to struggles, they find that the most difficult of struggles is upon them. One such precious saint of God in the midst of struggle was led by God to this scripture from Isaiah.

Isaiah 35:3_4

3 Encourage the exhausted, and strengthen the feeble.

4 Say to those with anxious heart, "Take courage, fear not. Behold, your God will come with vengeance; the recompense of God will come, but He will save you."

(NAS)

The previous quote and these scriptures fit together perfectly. In one it is being stated that many are feeling that they have gone as far as they can and they are considering giving up. The scripture says that those who are exhausted and feeling weak and feeble are to be encouraged, for God comes to deliver them. I too have experienced these feelings, but as David at Ziklag we must press into the Lord and encourage ourselves in Him. Right after David's experience at Ziklag, the low point in David's life, he was made king. This corresponds to Revelation 12 where it says the man child was "caught up to the throne of God." From our moment of greatest vulnerability and weakness, where despair threatens to overwhelm us, we are brought to a position of ruling and reigning.

I Samuel 30:1_6

1 Then it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev and on Ziklag, and had overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire;

2 and they took captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great, without killing anyone, and carried them off and went their way.

3 And when David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted their voices and wept until there was no strength in them to weep.

5 Now David's two wives had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 Moreover David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for all the people were embittered, each one because of his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

(NAS)

There is no shame to being brought to a point of emotional weakness and distress. It would only become a real problem if we stayed in such a place. David did the only thing he knew to do, and this is also our only recourse. We must strengthen ourselves in the Lord our God.

I have thought a good bit on what David actually did to strengthen himself in God, for this scripture is one that the Lord has ministered to me for a number of years now. I am confident that what David did was to begin speaking to himself of the faithfulness of God and how God had delivered him from one tough spot after another. I am sure that he remembered the Lord's mercy and compassion toward him. I am sure that he reminded himself of the promises that God had spoken to him, including the anointing years earlier at the hands of Samuel and the promise that the kingdom would one day be his.

Having reminded himself of the Lord's promises to him and remembering the Lord's mercy and compassion toward His children, David then was ready to hear from God and ask Him what God would have them do about their present circumstances. This is revealed in the next verses.

I Samuel 30:7_8

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?" And He said to him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them, and you shall surely rescue all. "

(NAS)

David went from the initial response of bitter weeping and despair to strengthening himself in the Lord. He was then ready to hear from the Lord and respond to the word of the Lord. David was not disappointed in his confidence in God, for God told Him that he would surely overtake the band that had raided Ziklag and he would recover everything.

An interesting fact about this story that I had not noticed until now is this statement, "Then it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day..." All of this transpired on the third day. The Spirit tells me that this is not a coincidental mention of the third day here. This is a prophetic indication of the distress that God's remnant that has wandered in the wilderness, cast out from brothers and sisters, will encounter just before they are raised to a place of ruling and reigning with God.

Many of us are in this day even now. We have been assaulted by the terror of circumstances that we find ourselves in and we have been brought to the brink of despair, but as we strengthen ourselves in the Lord we are put in a position where we can hear God's promise of complete deliverance. We are at the end of our wilderness wanderings and crowns and thrones await us. Consider as you read this scripture which foretells of events that happened shortly after this trial at Ziklag.

II Samuel 2:1_4

1 Then it came about afterwards that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." So David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron."

2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

3 And David brought up his men who were with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hebron.

4 Then the men of Judah came and there anointed David king over the house of Judah.

(NAS)

David went from tragedy to triumph. The fear that assailed him at Ziklag was turned to rejoicing as everything that was stolen was recovered. God then moved David to a new home and he crowned him king over Judah.

The road to the throne is the same for us. The enemy has come in with a sneak attack at the last moment and has sought to plunder us and steal that which is ours, but God says he will not prevail. We will plunder the plunderers and we will have the victory.

Yes, Isaiah 35:3, 4 is for us at this time. "Encourage the exhausted, and strengthen the feeble. Say to those with anxious heart, "Take courage, fear not. Behold, your God will come with vengeance; the recompense of God will come, but He will save you."" We are at Ziklag and even as Ziklag begins with the last letter of the alphabet, so we are at the last stage of our journey to the throne. What remains is a fulfillment of the prophecy of Revelation 12.

Revelation 12:5

And she gave birth to a son, a male child who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

G-8 Summit

Joseph Celona

Asian Christians pray for G-8 Summit in Japan

Summary: Christians throughout Asia are praying for the upcoming G-8 Summit occurring July 21-23 in Okinawa, Japan. This summit hosts world leaders and will be the first time that it has been held in a nation that does not have Christian roots.

Text: As the nine G-8 leaders gather in Okinawa they will be discussing what they must do in order to achieve greater prosperity, peace of mind and world stability in the 21st century. Leaders will focus on how to develop and spread information technology, how to stop the spread of infectious diseases, and focus on food safety.

- The G-8 leaders are:
- Prime Minister Yoshiro Mori, Japan
 - President Jacques Chirac, French Republic
 - President Vladimir Putin, Russian Federation
 - President William Clinton, United States of America
 - Prime Minister Jean Chretien, Canada
 - Federal Chancellor Gerhard Schroeder, Federal Republic of Germany
 - President Romano Prodi, European Commission
 - Prime Minister Anthony Blair, United Kingdom
 - President Guiliانو Amato, Republic of Italy

Christian leaders of intercession will be gathering together as well. Strategic prayer meetings have been occurring throughout Japan and will continue throughout the summit meetings that were July 8 for the Finance ministers, July 12-13, for the Foreign Ministers, and July 21-23 for the Heads of State and Government. Intercessors have targeted ancient sites of worship as well as hotels and meeting sites for the world's most powerful leaders.

Of key importance will be the Foreign Ministers meeting in Miyazaki, the spiritual home of Japanese culture and is called the land of the gods. Also of significance is the evening of July 22nd when a banquet is scheduled for the world leaders. This year in Japanese history is considered the Year of the Dragon, and Okinawa is called the Little dragon.

The banquet will be held at Shuri, which is called the dragon's head which is the center for many ancient spiritual roots on the island. During the week of July 12-13, intercessors are gathering at the 12 worship sites surrounding Shuri and are asking for God to move upon the nation of Japan. Pray for the Lord Jesus' covering and protection for these on-site intercessors during this crucial and dangerous mission.

THE CLIMATE TOWARDS CHRISTIANITY IN OKINAWA Many non-Christian nations view Christianity in light of American actions. Distrust and frustration of Okinawan people against the American military has never been higher, according to one Okinawan official. Near the end of World War II, Okinawa was the scene of a fierce battle between Japanese and American soldiers in which more than 200,000 people, including civilians, were killed. This battle was the only battle that Japan lost on home soil during the war.

Okinawan Christians believe that what occurred on their island during this period is representative of the spirit realm as well. Intercessors have been shown that Okinawa is representative as being the crack in Japan's spiritual armor. There is much healing that needs to occur among the Okinawan people. Christians praying throughout Japan believe that the summit has propelled intercessors together with a divine strategy for spiritual breakthrough.

For the first time in the post-WWII history of Japan, an American military official publicly asked forgiveness for a sex crime committed by an American soldier against a Japanese citizen. Since World War II there has been widespread fear and concern over violent crimes by American troops. More than 4,600 violent crimes have occurred by American soldiers since American occupation of Okinawa ended in 1972. This display of remorse by Marine Corps Lt. Gen. Earl B. Hailston was an attempt to smooth relations with the people of Okinawa and prevent any embarrassment to President Clinton who will be attending the summit. Regardless of any political motives behind the apology, this action may have been the open door for Japanese citizens to begin viewing American Christianity in a different light.

Desired Results: God has called Christians in Japan to move forward in a spirit of confession, repentance, and forgiveness. Also to reassign the desolate inheritance of this land, (Isa. 49:8). Christians in Okinawa and Japan are praying and need to be supported by believers worldwide. Pray that the Lord will cause genuine breakthrough to occur for all the nations represented at the G-8 summit.

Please pray for this time. Next week from 21st to 23rd of July, there will be Summit Conference here in Okinawa Japan. Presidents from U.S. Germany, France, Italy, England, Russia, Canada, Japan will meet to decide major decisions of the world.

These men might be wicked men but chosen to represent their Nation. By them coming to Okinawa, each of the country that they represent also come with them and the decisions that they will make will change and effect the whole world.

Okinawa will definitely becomes the Gate way to the Nations, and I believe that it will continue to play this role in the future to release blessing of the world to the other side of the world.

Okinawa is located in the very south of Japan, it is little islands just above Taiwan. During the World War, Okinawa was forsaken by Japan and was handed over to U.S. So many had committed suicide and also was killed. Finally during the 70's Okinawa was returned to Japan from U.S. but still now majority of this land is use by U.S. Military. Relationship between Okinawa and U.S. military has been always bad and recently it is getting worse by crimes that U.S. solders commit against Okinawan. Okinawan are so angry at this moment.

President Clinton of U.S. will give a speech at the Cornerstones of Peace at the Peace Prayer Park, on which are inscribed the names of more than 230,000 people who died during the Battle of Okinawa.

Please pray that Okinawa Gate way will be Gate that releases the spirit of reconciliation to the Nations, and to Japan to be reconcile to the world including Okinawa.

I am here in Okinawa for this time to pray and to see what God is doing here and the world. I am right now facing challenge to make my personal reconciliation with my friends. Please pray for me also so that this little reconciliation that I will make here will be prayer to the big reconciliation in here.

If you have any comments or feel any thing regarding to Okinawa Gate way, Please let me know.

In His Hands,
Joseph Celona

Grace and Faith

Mark MacPhail

I dreamed I was driving through a residential area of Seattle. It was in the morning around 7:30 or 8:00. I was driving fairly slowly because there was a lot of traffic and pedestrian activity. Because I was moving slowly I began to observe all the people on the sidewalk heading for their destinations. There was all manner of folks. Kids walking to school, college students on bicycles, different sorts walking to work or to the bus stop, people going to the store, etc., etc., etc. It was a picture of hustle and bustle on a busy, weekday morning.

As I was enjoying being amazed at how many people God has created and how different they all are, I suddenly noticed one little girl that stood out from this steady stream of people. Her appearance was striking both inward and outward. She was wearing a brilliant, blue dress and she had red hair. She had no coat, only the dress. She also was not carrying any books or a backpack as were the other kids. Inwardly, she absolutely glowed and that inward light was apparent from without. Her expression and demeanor were that of a normal, happy little girl and of someone who had a GREAT purpose. She had a destination and a mission and she was not going to stop until she got where she was going and did what she was sent to do. It sounds a little contradictory, a happy, little girl with a mission, but looking at her, she was right at home with herself.

I stopped to stare at her for several minutes because I was so taken with her unusual appearance. Suddenly, from the back seat someone leaned forward and spoke to me. It was Jesus and He said, "That is Grace and she is going to my church." After He spoke, I began looking at the stream of people behind Grace and I suddenly became aware of another person. This time it was a businessman. He was six feet tall, normal build and impeccably dressed. He looked perfect from head to toe. I noticed that he was not carrying a briefcase or any of the other implements a businessman normally keeps with him. He had no cell phone, no daytimer, no pens or even a wallet. Absolutely nothing a businessman would have to carry on his business. Only himself. He also had a mission. He walked resolutely and his steps were perfectly measured. Almost keeping time to an unheard beat. His expression was neither happy or sad. His eyes were fixed straight ahead and he also was not going to stop until his destination was reached. Then Jesus again spoke from behind me and, "That's FAITH and he will arrive at my church shortly after Grace. Grace has a work to do and then Faith will arrive at just the right time."

I asked the Lord the meaning of this was and this is what came to me. God's people have only touched the surface of His grace. We are still trying to earn our way to heaven. We're still trying to be good enough, have enough faith, pray enough, go to church enough, believe enough, minister enough, study enough, etc.

There is of course nothing wrong with these things, but these are not what get us to where He wants us to be. ONLY GOD'S ABSOLUTELY UNMERITED FAVOR WILL CAUSE US TO BE WHAT HE WANTS US TO BE. Everything we get from Him is a free gift because He loves us. We don't care for our children because they do enough. We act on their behalf because we love them. How much more does God do this! When we experience the fullness of His Grace, we will fall on our faces and say, "its all you God, nothing in me, its all you!"

This is a necessary preparatory work to what faith will bring. The faith that is coming is going to bring about miracles that have never even been imagined. Instantaneous miracles of great power, healing and deliverance. No hesitation, no hours and hours of praying and hoping. All manner of demonic hindrance will fall at a word and even a look. Those who will receive and walk in this faith will have to know that they are nothing in themselves. If they have not learned from grace that this power is not because of anything they have done, THEY WILL FALL. The man representing faith had nothing with Him because faith doesn't need man's ways and tools to work. The gift of faith will raise us to where we can operate in God's ways. Not trying to do things with our own strength and ideas. Faith is keeping a constant distance behind Grace. He is not too close and not too far. He know that Grace must arrive first and do her work before he gets there.

I've recounted this from memory because I had this dream about a year ago.

Gods Banqueting Table

Todd Bentley

God is bringing the church up out of the desert to the wedding of Cana the feast. Those of you who have been in the desert, He releases rivers in the desert and turns wilderness into pools. I believe that right now God has opened the heavens and the fragrance and Glory is falling.

Below is a prophetic experience that I had of the dining room and a prophetic dream by a pastors wife of the Lords table.

The Dining Room

There is a dining room! The Lord brought me out of the kitchen and into the dining room. When the Lord opened the door into the dining room I saw this in an open vision; there was a large table prepared by God (Ps.23:5 “God shall prepare a table before you, in the presence of his enemies.”). I saw this table with two thrones, one at each end. Jesus was at one end of this table in one throne and I was being ushered into the other throne at the other end of the table. At first this troubled me that I was to sit in an equal place as Jesus. Then I felt like the Lord said to me, “I have this seat for My children because I did not come to be served but to serve. I still serve and I have made you a joint heir with Me. All that is Mine is yours, I have made you to sit in heavenly realms with Me. I want to dine with you and you with Me. Lets look into each others eyes”. There was a seat for Jesus and a seat for me. You’d think there would be many many chairs around the table like the chairs in the knights of the round table; but, no, there was a seat for me and a seat for Jesus. In the dining room of the Father’s House it’s intimate and personal. Though there are lots of people in the room, and all there at the same time, there is a seat just for you and a seat for Jesus.

I saw on this table many things, including a big, hot, fresh loaf of bread right in the middle of the table along with a big bowl of honey. “God shall satisfy us with honey from the rock” (Ps. 81:16). I also saw that there was crystal wine glasses filled with new wine and living water. The table was full of the Kings delicacies and the good things of God. There was jam and fresh manna biscuits; the meat and milk of the word. On one side of the table there was a fountain that would spring up with living water and I could dip my glass in and take a drink any time I was thirsty. On the other side of the table was a large tree that went up over the table. The branches stretched across the table and I was sitting in the shade of the tree. There was also much fruit of all kinds on the branches and, from where I was sitting, you could reach up and eat the fruit. In the garden of Eden, Adam and Eve were allowed to eat freely of the fruit of the tree. When they sinned they were cut off. In Jesus we have been freed from the power of sin and death and the tree has been restored. We can eat freely, the fruit is experiencing the life of God. "Taste and see that the Lord is good!" The dining room is the place where we dine with each other, and where we eat and drink of Him. It's the place where we sit down and have the Bread of Life, Living Water and New Wine. We take some of the honey and put it on the bread. The dining room is the room of experience where God touches us. Just as you must eat and drink in the natural everyday, so we need to in the Spirit. But we can't live on experiences alone.

Dream (Silvia Schroeder Jan 24, 2000)

I was in a large house with quite a few people in it. This is where we were having church. We were having a buffet lunch. I was very hungry and decided to choose some boneless chicken meat. The meat was choice. It was piled high on a platter. As I was serving myself, an older gentleman and a couple of his friends were sitting at the table and were discouraging me from eating this meat. He insisted I try the fish. He said it was so delicious and nutritious even though it had bones. This is what he and his friends were eating. I told him "no" . I told him I was too hungry to pick through bones. I wanted the boneless chicken that I knew would fill me up quicker and satisfy my pangs. Finally, to be nice, I told him I would try a small piece and popped it into my mouth. It was tasty, but sure enough, I had bones in my mouth.

The Lord is spreading his banquet table out for the hungry. He has laid out every kind of food. In this dream the choicest of meat was piled high with enough for everyone. The old timers who discouraged her in choosing the choice meat are ones who are content to pick away at the fish full of bones or the things they have always known to be tasty but a lot of work(s). It is true that the fish is healthy and tasty , but only through great effort can you enjoy its reward. The Father is saying here , don't be content to pick through the bones to satisfy your hunger for me. Come and eat of me, the choicest of meats. Come and eat extravagantly of my presence and you will be satisfied.

Giving Birth in God

Shelly Danks

A couple of weeks ago the Lord gave me a word/message that I felt led to share at our church. His instructions were to start the message by saying one word, "PUSH!" This entire message was centered around not only the "birthing process" (the state we are in), but the difficult and trying developmental stages the church has been going through!

The next morning after I preached this message, I felt an anointing to submit this word to the Elijah List, but God didn't tell me when. Today, I read the word by Catherine Brown (Vision of the Sons of Glory) and when I saw "PUSH CHURCH, PUSH!", I felt the Lord nudging me to submit this.

I pray that everyone that reads this will take every word I have written to the Lord for confirmation. Here is the word/message:

I HEARD THE WORD "PUSH"

When the Lord spoke to me I heard the word "PUSH!" I thought, push what? The Lord said, "The church is about to give birth!" Again I thought, give birth to what? The Lord said, "TRUE REVIVAL!" It was very clear to me at that moment that what the Lord meant by PUSH, wasn't what people would expect. When a woman is about to give birth, she must push with all HER might to bring forth the child she has longed to meet. This is not the kind of pushing God is talking about! God is calling us to PUSH, but not to push with all OUR might! We are to push toward Him and He will give us the strength to deliver! The Lord was also showing me that nobody can give birth to this ENORMOUS child in their own strength!

The church has gone through several phases in the last decade. These phases paralleled that of a woman going through the process of carrying and birthing a baby (from conception to birth). Her body must go through several changes and some of them can be quite unpleasant!

PRIOR TO CONCEPTION: DOUBT AND UNBELIEF

Prior to conception- the church went through a long period of doubt and unbelief before becoming pregnant with revival. This state was quite similar to that of Sarah (Genesis 18: 9-15) when she not only doubted that she could conceive a child, but even laughed! The church was burned out on the word 'revival' and secretly laughed at the thought of true revival coming through 'the body' considering the state it was in. The church appeared to be barren!

1st trimester-

The church first became pregnant with revival! Much like a woman who conceives her first child, there was much excitement, joy and hope in the church regarding what was happening and there was a great deal of anticipation regarding what was to come.

Unfortunately, similar to a woman with morning sickness, there was also a lot of vomiting! There were many changes taking place within the body and because of the purity flowing through it, the impurities had to be omitted. As a result, there was a great deal of healing and freedom.

2nd trimester-

Much like a woman entering her 2nd trimester, the church began to GROW and the body was being s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-d! The body began to feel a little tired, slightly uncomfortable, but still hopeful and full of anticipation of what was to come. Many had willingly given up their old garments for new.

3rd trimester-

This is definitely the last stretch of the pregnancy, but far from delivery. During this time there was much growth and the body was feeling quite uncomfortable! Some were feeling unappealing and quite ineffective. Great concern of ever making it flooded the church. Some reverted back to the first trimester and were quite content to stay there..it was more fun and definitely not as uncomfortable! Unfortunately, by reverting back, they missed a lot of CRITICAL development!

FIRST STAGE OF LABOR

1st stage of labor- Labor pains began and the body began to HURT! The pain would come and go but never-the-less, the pain would seem to increase in frequency and intensity. Worry and panic seemed to be a constant battle! Feelings of total insecurity swarmed in the minds of many. Those that shifted their focus from the Lord to themselves would undoubtedly make the pain harder to deal with. This was a time of INTENSE focus with short periods of relief.

TRANSITION

Transition- PAIN!!!!!! There was a great shift in the church. Something was different and there was no denying it! Similar to a woman in the phase of transition, (when the baby is coming down the birth canal) the body began to feel intense pain and an unbearable amount of PRESSURE! Some gave up, it was simply too hard! I believe the Lord was showing me that those who chose to quit during this transition phase would not only NOT give birth, but they would remain uncomfortable and in pain!

"I COULD FEEL THAT SADNESS THAT THE LORD FELT"

Tears came to my eyes and I could barely speak when I was sharing this part of the word because I could feel the sadness that the Lord felt for those that had quit and never returned. What I felt was (and is) very hard to put into words...it's a very deep, deep sadness. They had labored for so long and all the pain was about to have some meaning, but instead they chose to abandon the very child they were called to carry. As a result, they would now have to experience others' cradling the baby they so desperately longed for!

2ND STAGE OF LABOR -WHERE THE CHURCH IS TODAY

2nd stage of labor- I strongly believe this is where the church is at! The baby's head is crowning and it's time to push! This is the time of most doubt, but there is no turning back, no time to abort, no time for a c-section...THIS IS IT! "BE ENCOURAGED MY BELOVED BODY! KEEP YOUR FOCUS ON ME AND BE STRONG AND COURAGEOUS! YOU ARE ABOUT BIRTH SOMETHING THAT HUMAN EYES HAVE NOT YET SEEN!"

We may be facing the most difficult stage of labor, but the Lord has given us labor support. In the world, a woman chooses her labor support system, but in the Kingdom...God chooses! A labor support person is one who helps the mother channel her energies toward her goal. Our goal (or focus) needs to be on Jesus, not ourselves, our church, our ministries or even what we are about to give birth to! We must be sure we are surrounded by those that God has chosen to support us regardless of how much pain we are in! We need to stop running from people (and pain) and push toward the Lord so we can deliver!

MANY HAVE BEEN DISCOURAGED

Many have suffered great discouragement and have traveled a long road of battling overwhelming doubts of others. But soon our doubts and sorrow shall turn to joy for we are about to experience a laughter unlike one we've ever experienced before! God's people may be feeling old and tired, but like Sarah, soon we will laugh (Genesis 21: 1-7)! We will laugh with a DEEP joy when the Lord fulfills His long awaited promises!

A WORD FOR THE FUTURE

I believe the Lord was also giving me a word for the future and it is this:

"After the birth, some will be called to give up the very thing that they have waited so long for. As Abraham was tested by God (Genesis 22) and asked to give up his one and only son, so shall many others. Why? During this time of great exuberance many will lose their fear of God! Some will view this test as a punishment, but God intends to test the heart! The preciousness of this beautiful new baby simply cannot (and will not be allowed) to take the place of the Father!"

In Him, Shelly Danks

God's Calendar and Transition

Jim Weis

It is significant that many are hearing "change", "sifting", "separation" etc., across the Body of Christ, as that is exactly what I believe God is doing in direct correlation with the "time clock" of the Jewish calendar. In studying the Jewish calendar and the feasts and events that were instituted by God for the Jewish people I have been struck by the significance of this particular time on God's calendar.

Several significant things come out of Scripture and Jewish tradition that I believe serve as shadows of spiritual realities we are in right now as the church. While we are not to be superstitious or legalistic regarding days and calendars, we should be prophetically discerning as to what God is doing in certain times and seasons and cognizant of the fact that He will often use His natural clock of feasts and events to parallel an event in the spiritual realm.

Of course New Testament scripture states: "One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. He who observes the day, observes it unto the Lord; and he who does not, to the Lord he does not observe it..." Rom 14:5,6

So here are some significant insights I am convinced are shadows of a spiritual reality we are in right now. We are at this very time, at the end of a 30 day period leading up to Rosh Hashanah (which begins Friday night Sept 29th at sundown)

THIRTY DAYS OF EXAMINATION

In the thirty days leading up to Rosh Hashanah there is a blast of the shofar each day, which serves as a call to self examination. It is meant to be a time when individuals 'make things right' not only with God, but with one another. It is intended to be a time of preparation for the time when God assessed us according to our deeds and made determinations about blessings or discipline in our lives.

Some people don't like the thought of God giving us tests but He certainly does; not for the purpose of fundamental redemption, but for the sake of discipline and promotion. Based on this, we need to examine ourselves and prepare for the "opening of the books"

ROSH HASHANAH - THE OPENING OF THE BOOKS

The 29th - 30th of September marks the beginning of the Jewish new year called Rosh Hashanah. (Not to be confused with the "ceremonial" new year which starts with Passover) Rosh Hashanah literally means "head of the year" and has two distinct names: 1.) The Day of Remembrance, and 2.) The Day of The Blast (of the shofar).

It is a time of awakening, remembrance of the past years deeds (good or bad) and a time for fresh beginnings. It was the time God opens the books and looks at "our record", so to speak. It was considered to be the time in which God accessed us with view toward blessing or discipline, promotion or demotion, prosperity or leanness; much like the shepherd passing each individual sheep under his rod at the end of the summer season for personal examination and sorting. The shofar blast is a type, as well, of prophetic proclamation from God. - And wow, God has been speaking to us many things about the significance of the transition we are in; an invitation to enter in; and that those who fully repent and fully surrender will go on into the next wave of God's purposes in these end times.

THE TEN DAYS OF AWE

It is also significant that the blowing of the shofar on the night of Rosh Hashanah begins what are called the "10 Days of Awe" looking toward the holiest day of the year on the Jewish calendar - Yom Kippur - The great Day of Atonement.

The "Ten Days of Awe" were meant to be a time of focus upon the Lord, repentance of sins and preparation for God's blessing and favor based on how earnestly and sincerely we repent. It is sort of like "ten days of grace", in case you had not gotten serious about "making things right" BEFORE God looked at the records. The reality is, none of us have fully deserved His blessing and promotion, but this examination quite readily prepares us for the reality behind the Day of Atonement, that is, Jesus who's blood is for our atonement. This is all very sobering, but the fact is, the only sins we are forgiven for are the ones we repent of. <hummm>.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

Yom Kippur: "The Day of Atonement" was the one day a year in which the holiest man in the world, the high priest of that year, would enter into the holiest place in the world - the Holy of Holies - to place blood on the mercy seat before God's presence to make atonement for our sins.

Of course we see in this a powerful type and picture of Jesus, our eternal High Priest, who presented His own blood for an eternal atonement for our sins, providing forgiveness through His cross.

It is very important to note that in this "New Covenant"; God's basis for blessing, promotion and prosperity is based not on the "record book" but upon our faith in His Son. If you love His Son, and put your confidence (faith) in Him, God likes you. He's blessing is to all those who love His Son.

A TIME TO CELEBRATE

Immediately after Yom Kippur, preparations were begun for a 7 day party that begins five days later called the Feast of Tabernacles or the "Feast of the In-gathering". Are we headed for an in-gathering? A major harvest of souls is happening in many parts of the world, and many believe this is the time of the harvest.

The harvest is ripe in the earth and God is saying it is time to pray that He might send laborers into His harvest. God is desiring to recover the backsliders and bring the lost into His kingdom of grace. It is a time of joy and celebration as we behold God's mercy, grace & provision.

Generation Miraculous

Todd Bentley

This is a prophetic article, much of what I have seen and wrote came out of three months of burning and the inspiration of the Holy Ghost

There will be a generation that grows up in the promise land and their destiny is the miraculous. we are crossing the river Jordan and we will take the land. God has promised revival and these are some prophetic insights to where I believe we are and where we are going.

The church in the wilderness, Gen x and y What is this? I believe that the church in the wilderness speaks of the absence of Gods manifest presence which is the spirit of revival and I believe the promised land of abundance, fruitfulness milk and honey speaks of revival.

I believe that Generation X is a parallel to Joshua and Caleb who tasted of the fruit of the vine and were no longer satisfied with unbelief but wanted the full destiny of God. The church needs revival and in what God has done and is doing in Toronto, Smithton ,Pensacola ,Argentina and many other places is the fruit of the vine to make us hungry and desperate to push past the giants in the land of unbelief religion and a form of Godliness and go for the full land of fruitfulness. When you are in the Spirit of revival and moving with God you will declare like Caleb in Joshua 14:11 "As yet I am as strong this day as I was on the day Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, for both going out and coming in."

It was in this move of the river that many X'ers were greatly impacted and saved to be hungry for Gods power and not just religion. So many words were spoken that they would be the revival generation and that God would have a great youth movement. There has been a few of this generation X to really abandon themselves completely to God and be a voice of revival but for whatever the reason we only have the first fruits and not a whole generation of radicals, many voices like Nolan Clark, Todd Atkinson, Judah smith, Chad Taylor and many, many more I have not named like Elijah there were seven thousand more.

The next generation of youth which they call Y when I was praying into their destiny and asking God why? he said their purpose is the gospel with power miraculous. Y is Generation miraculous! What X had will come on them double portion and though those of the revival generation may not be in full revival and many of us still remember the desert, we will cross the Jordan, stir the church out of unbelief and make them hungry for what we tasted. There will be a generation that grows up in Revival, all they will ever know is being raised in the Glory [promised land] and miracles will be supernaturally normal.

We are at Jordan

In Joshua 3:1-4 its says that the children of Israel were lodged {camped} at the Jordan. I believe prophetically that is where we sit. Jordan is the new level where the heavens open and you step in to something fresh. We are at the Jordan we see and have a sense of what's coming and where we are going but how do we get there? Verse three declares this phrase [Go after it} were talking about the arc when it was moving upon the shoulders of the priests they were told to go after it. God is moving us deeper to another level and is calling us to desperation. Now is the time to seek Gods face with fasting and prayer like you haven't done before because he is moving us deeper and he wants us to go after his face not his hand. In verse 4 of this passage the word of God declares you have not gone this way before and where God is taking us in revival we have never been and will never be if we don't go after the arc now.

The New Oil

In Ps 133 it declares that the oil was upon the head of Aaron running down the beard and on to the garments. God is commanding the blessing and I believe that the new oil is about to not just be on the head [leadership] and the rest of the church be entertained but the head and God is putting the oil on the body {garments} the body of Christ will save souls, heal the sick, move in apostolic oil and prophesy not just the pastors, prophets, teachers, apostles, and evangelists.

What is the new oil and how is it coming?

Fresh oil and new oil are different. Fresh oil is when God re- anoints a ministry or gifting but new oil is exactly that-- new. New ministries and anointings, God power on the flesh enabling us to do what we can't. There will be revivalists as young as 13 and 14 in the mantles of Jonathan Edwards and Charles Finney. God will release a healing anointing that will be as it was with Peter his shadow healed the sick. The sick will be healed across the nation walking by churches and in there homes as healing services are conducted. We have seen this many times recently a lady healed at the altar in one of our meetings at quarter to a eleven at that same time her daughter called to say at that same moment she was healed of the same condition 60 miles from the services. Another lady was healed of diabetes hundreds of miles from our service and many more.

God will release new preaching anointing music with new songs being birthed out of heavenly experiences. The new anointing will cause those ministries that have died for whatever the reason to resurrect and cause there to be a great release of the saints for the work of the ministry. New oil means new wells-- not just the wells of our fathers but there are well deep wells we have not even dug-- new anointings.

Be encouraged all you who have and are laboring fervently. We are crossing the Jordan into a new day. In no way do we forget about all those Moses's out there and your faithful training-- you will see the promised land and God has said that those of the spirit of Joshua and Caleb despite the age in the natural will taste revival too and receive a great inheritance. A revival generation is one of [with] the spirit of Joshua and Caleb--Let's not be satisfied with the dust of the desert when [instead] there is a vine full of the new wine of heaven. The old men will run with the young.

A Word for Germany

Chad Taylor

A Word for Germany

We stand with you for the heart of Germany to be set free under the weight of His glory. It will start with Germany's youth. Watch the youth with great care, for from their ranks will come revival says the Lord. For from the hearts of the youth will come a cry for holy justice and reformation. They will take the Message of His great love to the streets, great public meetings will take place in the most unusual places. As the youth and the people of Germany arise to shine. Open air meetings will bring in thousands to His Kingdom.

Signs and wonders will explode in your midst as I declare these things says the Lord. I will put My people in high places as I did Joseph in Egypt. They will rule with My hand and quit the hand of the enemy. Prepare yourself O church of Germany for a great shaking. I will shake all of your traditions, and only the branches that bear fruit will remain. The rest will I cast into the fire to be burned. For in this hour the children shall lead them, and a child shall feed them.

I will give you an ally that you thought would never stand with you. They will stand with you and stay the hand of darkness. The anti-christ spirit that has reigned in you will now stumble and falter. Your prayers and intercessions will route the enemies advances. Great intercession will be heard from Germany in this hour. From this soil I will cause the hordes of hell to be scattered for a season. From this ancient place I will cause my intercessors and prophets to declare a nations destiny. From Germany great mountains will be cast into the sea says the Lord. From Germany reformation will sweep the land. For in this hour old mantles that once roused the youth from their slumber will walk the land again. Ones steeped in tradition and ritual will burn with a heavenly zeal that will cause a nation to shake and tremble.

Prepare yourself O remnant of Germany! Your diligence is about to be rewarded! Your prayers even now are setting a holy standard against the flood of wickedness. A great voice will rise up in your political arena, one that will speak my heart, My mind. Like a John the Baptist it will shine for a moment to break open the hearts of many. This will ignite a revaluation says the Lord. The winds of revival will blow in the streets of Germany says the Lord. The winds of revival will blow in the streets of Germany again. And the dry bones of the slain of Israel shall assemble to march into the land. They will come together and I will breath life into them, a great and mighty army says the Lord.

I will assemble the saints in your borders. They will come from all corners of the earth to rally for revival. A bridge of revival will be built between Germany and the United States. Many ministries will hear the call to Germany to stage large gatherings and conference. To equip and mobilize this great army. A great bridge of revival will span the Atlantic ocean and the anointing will come to and fro. A cross pollination between nations will occur. I will secure your borders. Ireland and Scotland will be in the line of fire between this great bridge of revival. Many will go to Ireland and Scotland then Europe and Germany. I will open 'a great door of utterance' and they will come to stand in it's fire.

Now is your day of visitation. I will avenge the blood of the fallen with the souls of the living. I will give you souls says the Lord. A great harvest, a great catch is upon you O Europe. Poland, Romania, Ukraine, Hungary, and France. From Germany this shaking will be felt. I will upset the ancient high places, and I will give you the high places says the Lord. Like Daniel, I will give you the high places. For now is your day of visitation.

Getting Disentangled / Come to Me

Becky McLendon

Getting Disentangled Becky McLendon

The Lord is working in His people at this time to get us rooted in Him and His purpose. To do so, He is getting us disentangled from every thing that is hindering His perfect calling on our lives. This disentangling will involve His stripping away all "NOTIONS" that we may have about our careers, our "church" or "theology", "family" and "friends". For some time now many Christians have been going through a stripping of religious traditions and man made doctrines that have hindered their walk with God, but now He is 'infiltrating' our "jobs" and our associations with other human beings and disentangling us in those arenas also. Job disentanglements are swinging from one end of the spectrum where the job actually ends and appears to be "taken away" to the other end of the spectrum where the job ceases to be done to please man, but only to please God. thus taking on a new perspective.

"Church" disentanglements go from one's being led completely out of an organized institution in order to be stripped of "religion and doctrines of man" to the other end where one's service ceases to be "serving an organization" to serving God. Man made organizations in both extremes cease to be the focus...ONLY GOD's PURPOSE. Many "called to the ministry" are laying down their "credentials" given by MAN and subject to MAN'S approval or disapproval. They are taking up their GOD-given ordainment and walking in it. They may not be "allowed" to serve inside the religious organization but are dynamic servants of God out in the mainstream of life, having a powerful impact wherever they go.

God's servant is going to be disentangled from "human relationships." I am talking here of "bad soul ties" ...such as "spiritual incest", where we want to hang out only with our "own kind" and not come into the flow of God's river. "Spiritual unions" that take on a codependency nature or even a sexual nature either in thought life or in actuality, will be severed in order to disentangle God's servants from binding relationships, thus hindering their forward and upward progress in Him. We will cleave ONLY to Him and not to people. THIS in turn will make our relationships with others wholesome and strong.

The disentangling process comes first to those who have answered His call with an earnestness and zeal that sparks His passion for them. THEN it will come to the household of those whom He has called and chosen. He says, "I will deal with their distrust and misunderstanding. A restoration will take place. For what you have said is impossible, I will make it possible, by my spirit, for them to turn to Me and behold My purposes." These words come very strongly to my spirit at this time. " I AM CEMENTING THE FAMILY UNIT."

I feel the Lord would say to those who are being shaped into His beaten silver trumpets:

"I am working a new depth into you that you have never seen before or experienced. It is the ability to weather ALL, no matter how hard the blows. This is the beaten silver that I require for My beaten silver trumpets. It is a preparation for My service. No longer will you work to please man, whether in secular or "sacred" roles. You will co-labor WITH your brothers and sisters for ME and ME alone. Your life is about to become an INSTRUMENT OF WORSHIP. Worship is living here on this earth with all its trials and temptations, but playing the song to ME. Whatever you lay your hand to, it will be WORSHIP. I, your Lord, teach your hands to do warfare with WORSHIP; I teach your hands to PROSPER. When I say you have a "Midas Touch", where all that you touch turns to GOLD, I DO NOT mean you are going to "GET STUFF" to show off before men. The Brass Trumpets did that. But YOU will prosper and succeed in your worship of Me, to declare: 'PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD! COME TO HIM AND WALK IN THE WAY, FOR HE SURELY COMETH!' You will say these things because surely I DO COME." AMEN

Psalms 24:3 - 6 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

Job 22: 21 - 29 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart. If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles. Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks. Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defense, and thou shalt have plenty of silver. For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God. Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows. Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person. LET THE DISENTANGLING BEGIN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Love you all.

Come to Me.
Becky McLendon

We live in a generation that cries, "Give it to me; bring it to me; send it to me; come to me." But we do not make a practice of rising up and giving to, taking to, sending to, and coming to. Perhaps in the things of God, we need to look at the latter practices. We are so accustomed to plugging in our quarters and "getting" the candy. We are used to "fast foods" where we do the ordering and they do the bringing. We plug in commands to a microwave oven and get "instant" results. Tragedy is, we expect the same from our Father. For a couple of generations we have stroked our Bibles and decreed, "Now, give it to me, Daddy,. for we are your deserving children." We have cried like hungry infants, "Bring revival Lord. Bring it to US. Send your RAIN Lord. Bring your RIVER Lord. Send the GLORY down on US."

But the Father is calling to His own...COME TO ME, and I will give you rest. A mature son RISES UP and GOES to his Father's house to co labor with him. He is not lying in his cradle crying, "I'm not getting FED. BRING revival to ME. Send your GIFTS to ME. What are you going to do for ME?.." He is rising up and chasing after the father saying, "Here I am!!! Lord what would you have me to do?" The Lord DOES say seek His face, but begging for "stuff" which is perishable, and begging for a life of ease which does NOT produce fruit, and wanting to be "free" to do whatever without consequences is NOT seeking His face. Seeking His face involves repentance and a forward progressing walk toward him. A pressing on towards the MARK!!!

To seek His face is to continually rise up and answer His "COME TO ME." The Bride of Christ joins the Spirit of God in saying COME. That is a two way "come"...both a groaning for Christ to come in His fullness to His church (which is the fullness of indwelling in believers) and also a groaning for those still floundering in their neo natal state of squalling demands to COME TO HIM. shake off the baby clothes and the need for MILK and come to the maturity He so desires for each of us. COME TO HIM and partake of what He has prepared for us. AMEN and AMEN.
Shalom

WE'VE NOT SEEN ANYTHING YET

Eye has Not seen nor has ear heard what God has in store for HIS CHILDREN.

The TRUE MANIFEST SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE ONE AND ONLY LIVING GOD ARE ABOUT TO BE RELEASED UPON THE EARTH. They shall walk in More authority in both the Spiritual and the Natural. Men will quake in their presence - and like in Finney's' day, much the same thing. Only THIS TIME THERE SHALL BE 1,000'S AND 1,000'S COMING FORTH all over AND THIS SHALL BRING FORTH THE HARVEST. GET READY, GET READY - THE CHURCHES THAT ARE NOT IN ORDER SHALL CRUMBLE.

WE SHALL BE SO BUSY WE WILL HARDLY HAVE A CHANCE TO REST.

Gathering, restoring and preparing.

People will come into their paths that would never before consider talking to them but they shall see the Glory of the Lord upon them and inquire and seek them out. They shall see through men - direct into their hearts and as they learn to quietly listen and guard their words, HIS words of Life will pierce through the darkness and cut to the core of men's' beings. THEN MANY SHALL ENTER INTO THE VALLEY OF DECISION -- AND MANY WILL KNOW w/out a word being spoken THAT GOD ALMIGHTY HAS LOOKED UPON THEM AND HAS AND SHALL BRING JUDGMENT AND IT WILL BE NOW OR NEVER. They will become paralyzed and UNABLE To RUN

The JUDGES that He has been raising up, the true Apostles shall not only reestablish truth and righteousness but also shall speak forth direct judgments of God.

I see a remnant invading the corporate churches' speaking forth what needs to be set where - and reclaiming what had been stolen and tossed out of order. This remnant, (I'm seeing a picture of my old church) and a group of like 6-10 walking in - pointing to things saying things and quickly things get moved - and they take it over and the power of God is so strong NO ONE CAN STOP THEM.

Hebrews 1:7 In speaking of the angels he says, "He makes his angels winds, his servants flames of fire." May we all burn with a passion fire for Jesus and set the world a blaze!

Get Ready

"GET READY -- --GET READY!! THEY ARE COMING!!

Saturday, September 02, 2000

Every morning we have intercessory prayer meetings. Last week while we were all praying the Pastor started praying about the sectional meeting he recently attended and for all the pastors there who's prayer request was their inability to reach the youth and no-one who was able to play music that will touch their hearts.

MAYBE THE MAN IN THE BAR

Then pastor started to pray for the ones out there who were able to come out of where they were to minister to youth. "Maybe the man in a bar who is in there getting drunk day after day".

As soon as pastor started praying for those other pastors the Holy Spirit overcame me and I started to agree with everything he was saying.

But when he started Praying about the drunk guy I got a picture of people in their homes just sitting around in the dark, depressed.

Then I started to see them searching for a church. Then the Lord brought to my memory all of the various churches who reject people who are searching based on their appearance. People giving dirty [or uncomfortable] looks and whispering because of the way people look. The make up, the earrings, the filthy clothes, weird hair. Then these people left to try somewhere else, but no church would accept them.

REPENTANCE ON BEHALF OF THE CHURCH

The Lord started having me pray aloud repentance for all the church in general for our rejecting His lost children. He is distressed about the attitude of His bride toward His lost children, he wants them--- but we aren't letting them in. We are just as much in need of the cleansing blood of Jesus as the multitudes. We are no better.

GET READY!--GET READY!--GET READY!!

Then the Lord started using my mouth to say urgently: "GET READY- GET READY- GET READY- GET READY..." over and over many times. Then "THEY'RE COMING- THEY'RE COMING...." over and over many times. Then He showed me a picture of the multitudes of people who are seeking Him and they were filthy dirty with black sweaty soot all over them. He again used my mouth to say: "THEY ARE COMING, GET READY, LOVE THEM- LOVE THEM- LOVE THEM-..."

LORD, GIVE US YOUR LOVE FOR THEM!

Then He had me pray for repentance for the church and for pastors who have been afraid to preach the words that the Lord is giving them to prepare His Church for these lost children (all ages) of His. Pastors who are afraid of losing tithes because of the fear of offending the congregation. Then I prayed " Lord give us Your love for them and keep us humble. " I rebuked Pride and False Religion and Fear.

"FOR I WAS HUNGRY"

My addition of verses to back up the word. "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: "for I was hungry and you gave Me food" I was thirsty and you gave Me drink: I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.' Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, "Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?"

And the King will answer and say to them, "Assuredly, I say to you inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me'

You know the rest of this passage read the whole thing in Matt 25:31-46.

Church get ready!

Get Wisdom

Becky McLendon

Putting together the Puzzle

Becky McLendon

God has given you the vision. You are excited by it but suddenly you cannot see "IT" as clearly as at the beginning. You frantically begin to search for HOW to make it happen and the scenario gets more and more grandiose until you sink back in despair...HOW can you make this all fit together?

Many visions are cast aside, aborted, or launched prematurely because of a missing ingredient. WISDOM. Consider the vision God gives as a puzzle. a jigsaw puzzle. You have a box with the full picture on it. you can see what it looks like, but when you open the box you see it is full of tiny pieces. You look up to God and say. "I can't begin to fit all these pieces together" . But He says back to you. "Get wisdom."

He has you pick up one piece and hold it up to him. Ok God, here is THIS situation. Show me how to operate in this situation because WISDOM will lead me to the NEXT piece.

The key here is to seek Him daily. ASK wisdom from above concerning each small detail of the vision ONE DETAIL AT A TIME.

Like the puzzle. Keep the picture on the box lid ever before you. That is your guide. Wisdom will help you put the pieces together.

God would have us not sit idly staring at the pile of pieces . He WOULD have us to lift each piece before Him and seek his guidance. THEN the vision will become reality.

Lord we ask your WISDOM this day. Give us the measure we need for today, knowing tomorrow we will be in need of more.

Amen

Wisdom And The Inheritance

Becky McLendon

Proverbs 4:7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. 8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. 9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. I have been thinking MUCH about Wisdom and the widespread lack of it in society as a whole. For example, I have a college degree. I teach school, am married and have raised three children. I am almost finished with a degree in biblical studies. I recently scored 125 on an I Q test (down 20 points from college days). But does that make me a WISE person? No.

In the things of God I can KNOW all theology and be quick to hop on the band wagon of doctrinal solidity and correctness of interpretation, and STILL lack wisdom.

God, through Jesus Christ wants us to get wisdom. Wisdom is part of our Inheritance.

Ephesians 3:10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, 11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

James 1:5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. Wisdom is an aspect of God, one of the Seven Spirits of God.

Isaiah 11:1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: 2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;

Human beings tend to act and react out of knowledge in our thick skulls rather than in Wisdom and understanding. Wisdom based on "head knowledge" alone produces mighty bad fruit. Much hurt, offense and division comes from our verbal assaults for the sake of what we KNOW. Knowledge is dangerous without wisdom.

James 3:14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. 15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. 16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

When we truly receive our Inheritance, we receive Wisdom as part of that Inheritance and we operate in it. Paul exhorts us in his letter to Colossians:

Colossians 4:5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

Jesus refers to us as being SALT, a preservative of the "good".

Matthew 5:13 ¶Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

Wise people are the salt that preserves all. Wise people walk in the Wisdom of the Spirit. Walking strictly in knowledge brings swift and wrong reactions to things. Head knowledge rejects what it does not "know." Head knowledge says...YOU are wrong. I am right. Wisdom, on the other hand studies a matter through, asking of God who grants us all wisdom. This person knows how to walk "toward those who are "on the outside" with grace and salt, knowing how to "answer each one." Wisdom discerns a matter until God by his spirit says yea or nay.

When we hear something taught or read something written, we need to be like Gamaliel over the matter. He discouraged the Pharisees from REACTING out of their head knowledge. I mean, they wanted to KILL the Apostles for preaching this Jesus. this Inheritance. Gamaliel used wisdom . We should be so wise, instead of hauling out our head knowledge, our commentaries and documents and beating each other up with them.

Acts 5:34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; 35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: 39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

Romans 12 and 1 Cor. 13 and vivid pictures of the Wisdom walk. The walk of one who has received his/her Inheritance.

Amen.

Generation Yes!

Bobby Conner

- January 12, 2000

"I will die for my God. I will die for my faith. It's the least I can do for Christ dying for me." — Cassie Bernall

These were the words 16-year-old Cassie Bernall wrote to one of her friends in 1998. How often have we made similar strong declarations, which, fortunately for us, are never tested to see what they are really made of. For Cassie, however, they were tried and tested less than one year later.

When she walked into the library of her suburban high school, around 11:00 on the morning of April 20, 1999, she had little more on her mind than completing her latest English assignment. By the end of that hour, two classmates would storm into the school with guns blazing and kill as many people as they could. With a loaded handgun in his hand, one of these madmen confronted her with the question, "Do you believe in God?" She answered "Yes." She said yes even though she knew it would inflame the gunman and endanger her life. And in the end it was an answer that cost her life. The gunman put the gun to her head and pulled the trigger, ending her young and passionate life.

Modern-Day Martyr

By any true definition of the word, Cassie was a martyr. According to the dictionary the word "martyr" comes from the Greek "martyria," which means "witness," and refers to someone who refuses, in the face of terror and torture, to deny his or her faith.

Reporting on this tragedy, the Miami Herald concluded, "For Christian youth across the country, Cassie Bernall has become a modern-day martyr, but her story is one of redemption rather than perfection, her legacy: believe in yourself." They missed the whole point of this tragedy: Cassie had not just learned to believe in herself, she had come to believe in something far beyond herself. Earlier on the morning of this tragedy she had handed her friend a note that ended "P.S. Honestly, I want to live completely for God. It's hard and scary, but totally worth it."

Part of the problem is that we have grown to think of martyrs with a "Stained-glass" mentality, not as a teenager who carries a backpack and worries about how much she weighs and if she will pass her finals. The very word martyr conjures up thoughts of ancient days and distant lands. When we look at Cassie's "yes" on April 20, 1999, we want to make a memorial or shrine—to make her some special, sanctified saint so we will not be held to the same standard.

Cassie struggled like everyone struggles, but she knew what she had to do to let Christ live in her, and she was willing to do it! It's called dying to self, and it has to be done daily. Paul told us that this was a part of the Christian walk when he affirmed "I die daily" (1 Corinthians 15:31). Martin Luther King once said "If a man hasn't discovered something he will die for, he isn't fit to live." Dying daily means learning to break out of our natural, selfish life. Dying daily is not some warped death-wish that has been Christianized. In fact it is not a negative thing at all. It is the only way of freeing us to live life fully for Christ. Only a person who "dies daily" can truly live each day for the Lord. To understand Cassie's ability to say "yes" to her assailants, we need to look at the daily "yes" she was learning to say day after day, month after month long before that final "yes." Through this she was living life in such a way that she was able to face eternity at any time.

The Yes Generation

God is raising up a whole generation like Cassie. They live life "full-bore" with nothing held back. They are unwilling to do anything superficially. With them it is all or nothing. The Church will be amazed and uncomfortably challenged by this upcoming generation. The selflessness of this next generation is going to cause much of the Church to be discomforted and, unfortunately, some will declare their action too radical.

Many teen-age boys and girls will be stronger in their faith than their parents. They are not going to appease their conscious and excuse their actions by claiming that they can remain silent about Jesus and let their "lifestyle" do the talking. They will boldly speak out the truth about the great love of God to a lost world who doesn't want to hear their message. God has been speaking to this generation over and over again, like He did to Joshua, "Be strong and courageous!" (Joshua 1:6).

This end-times generation will live life passionately with an all-or-nothing attitude. Like David they will not run from the battle—but to it! They will be ready and willing to lay their lives down for the cause of Christ; willing to die for what they believe. Our generation didn't find God worth living for, while this next generation will find God worth dying for!

The last generation has been called by many Generation "X," which has led some to refer to this next generation as Generation "Y." This is a sign—for the "Y" stands for YES. They will be able to say yes to the downgrading and mocking questions of the world because they will first give an abandoned yes to God. They will not give a guarded, holding-something-back yes, but a full and hearty yes; the yes of someone who truly believes they have found something worth living for. They will say yes to God with a zeal that amazes older believers and overcomes the world. God is releasing upon this upcoming generation a "passion" for the presence of the Lord. It is this passion that will allow them to be filled with such a resolve.

It will be the wise church leaders who will begin now to help prepare for the training of these leaders. The Spirit of God is releasing an urgency in the hearts of the true intercessors to begin to pray for these youth on a new level. None of us can truly finish our course if we have not helped the next generation to accomplish more than we have. The question for many of us is this "Will we heartily say 'yes' to the Yes Generation?"

God's FEASTS and LAW

Paul Jablonowski

Dear friends, I believe the Lord's "feast days" and "law" are a very important part of restoring divine ORDER to the church. Below is a discussion between me and a friend (Matt - matthewwp@msn.com) about this subject. Matt and I exchanged several e-mails and I have pieced together our discussion in a more readable format. Feel free to comment as the Spirit leads. Grace and Peace, paul j.

Matt: There are a lot of folks who are performing Jewish feasts, Passover, etc etc and this is all well and good for educational purposes. It is a kind of Sunday School lesson...

Paul: I don't think the Lord put things in His Word just for Sunday school lessons to give us a good teaching. God declares in Lev. 23 that these feasts are "MY" feasts to be celebrated "forever." They are not the feasts of the Jews, they are the Feasts of the LORD which he set aside as appointed times for His purposes to be fulfilled. All of these feasts honor and point to JESUS. When we celebrate Passover we are honoring the Passover Lamb Jesus. Zechariah 14 declares that during the millennium all of the earth will keep the Feast of Tabernacles or else they will not get any rain! This is the feast that celebrates the 2nd coming of Jesus. They are all about HIM, and my family and I have found it a joy to celebrate HIS feasts and honor HIS Son Jesus. There is no bondage whatsoever.

Matt: We are getting into a miscommunication, probably because I rif off e-mails too fast without really thinking. I am not "against" any keeping of feasts; I am warning against imbalance as I see it, or have seen it. Jesus said that one of the errors of the Pharisees was exact correctness in law; tithing mint and cummin for instance, yet ignoring the weightier matters; mercy, righteousness etc. He was getting to the heart of God as a loving Father in the Spirit as opposed to the religious alternative of keeping rules, rituals etc.

So, I am all for feasts, etc, any of this activity that illumines us more to Jesus, who is the fulfillment of it all, and we individuals joining together as the church should be becoming Jesus. As long as feast keeping, etc etc is fulfilling this greater purpose and not being a ritual which people use to attain (or sustain) righteousness we're OK. My prophetic "spidey sense" only tingles when I see ONE IOTA of self-righteousness raise it's ugly head in folks who keep the feasts and start to look down their noses at those who don't...

However, we are under a NEW and better covenant. Jesus came to fulfill all that was done by the Jews in the O.T. as types and shadows of LIFE in Him. He DID fulfill it, and the apostles teaching His message turned the "world" upside down.

Paul: That is right, and if we are to be like Jesus, then we will be a fulfillment of the law too, and His feasts are part of His eternal law. The Scriptures are neither Old nor New, they are Eternal, and although the manifestations of His law have changed (ie. sacrifices) the law of God is eternal. The first century apostles joyously celebrated the feasts. (see 1 Cor. 5:7, Acts 18:21, 1 Cor. 16:8, Acts 20:16).

Matt: Now we are getting farther apart. I am 180 degrees opposite to this bro; the covenant of grace and liberty is a better covenant. The OT scriptures reveal God's righteousness but mercy and truth and grace came thru Jesus. Otherwise you'd be stoned to death for that prophecy you gave that was a little off! (LOL)

I do not see the church as having to fulfill any law at all. Jesus did it. We are to be the bride; we are to love God (worship) and love our fellow man; that's it. That's the extent of the law I'm under as a New Covenant believer. Anything I do is an expression of love, grace, liberty in the Holy Spirit towards God and man. I see those references to keeping the feasts as being spoken TO JEWS in a time and to a culture when they were 100% geared towards that anyway; not as a legalistic requirement for me, or to a group of bikers I'm preaching to, or say a tribe in Africa I am evangelizing!

Again I do not deny any of your revelation, and I would love to keep any feasts with you, etc etc, but as I said what I see too often is a religious spirit (the most deceptive of princes) coming as an angel of light (notice the relationship to false apostles) leading groups into an inward mode of religiosity and NOT to the streets with the good news.

Paul: That is the problem with people's perspective of "the law." A better translation of torah is "instruction." What are you going to do after you get those bikers and tribal African's saved? You have to teach or instruct them. And God's law is instruction, not some legalistic mumbo jumbo that people MUST follow. Once you have the indwelling of the Holy Spirit you WANT to follow God's instruction not because you have to, but because you want to love Him who first loved you. The problem is that the early church has been so removed from her Jewish roots that when instruction is given and it sounds "Jewish" people reject it as legalistic, but in reality this order will bring us into liberty when we follow it after the Spirit.

Matt: I have seen imbalance come in. One of the problems of "churchianity" has always been a tendency to perform religious activities and neglect the weightier matters; visiting sick, caring for the poor, preaching and ACTING OUT the good news to the lost. Simply living life immersed in Jesus and the Holy Spirit. True Christianity fits any culture; it just purges the sin. Jesus and the apostles did NOT come to Judaize the world. This starts with the tithe and goes right down to every feast, sabbath etc. God open our eyes!

Paul: Amen to the weightier matter of the Law, but Matt 23:23 says, "these you ought to have done (justice, mercy and faith) WITHOUT LEAVING THE OTHERS UNDONE (tithe). The feasts and the sabbath should at least be "remembered" as the scriptures admonish, and they WILL be celebrated during the millennium and all of eternity. Forever, means forever (Lev. 23:21,31,41, Ex. 12:17)

Matt: Yes but again WHO was Jesus speaking to? Jews. Who was he speaking about: Jews UNDER THE OLD COVENANT! The lamb had not been slain yet; to be accurate about THEM Jesus had to say this, but do not strain at the gnat and miss the camel! The weightier matters of God's heart! Am I getting thru?

Paul: I understand your point about the weightier matters, but none of God's covenants will be "done away with." THEY ARE ETERNAL, and if He gave instructions to the Jews, then that means me and you too. According to Gal 3:29 - "If ye are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." You are a new testament spiritual Jew. The natural Jews were given the correct order for God's kingdom, but they did not have the right heart attitude, so God looked to the Gentiles (see Rom 9-11). The true church since Jesus (spiritual Jews) have been given the right Spirit (heart attitude) but we totally lack the proper order. This is due mostly because the early church severed herself from her Jewish roots in order to compromise with the pagan traditions and bring in more converts.

Matt: The minute I get in a meeting where people start bragging about what a "blessing" they got from doing some Hebrew ritual, I rebuke the religious demon trying to clamp onto my mind. This is a danger zone as is ANY RITUAL which men create to replace the Life of Liberty in Christ thru the Spirit.

Paul: Rituals in themselves are not bad, it is when we start putting our trust in the rituals that it becomes sin. Any time you meet together with more than just a few other believers, there will have to be some kind of structure (ritual) as to how you will share and worship. Why not follow the order for meeting that the scriptures give? The Jews were given the divine order of worship not Constantine and the Catholic church from which most of the modern day church derives its order of worship.

Matt: My prayer is that when God has individuals studying the O.T. feasts, tithe, rituals, sacrifice, etc. they will receive the revelation and NOT try and make a doctrine, or religious exercise out of it putting people into bondage. Some of us have just too much free time, or should be using our time finding out who needs help in our congregations and giving them a hand (service) or a prayer or a prophetic encouragement. We have way too much religion and not nearly enough LIVING. The Life in Jesus is expressed in brothers doing business together, sisters helping each other out in the home, praying together, singing praise, true fellowship is lost today in Sunday-anity! We come together in our churches and don't know each other in our homes. We need to sell our sanctuaries, give the money to the poor (among US) and go; follow Jesus! Jesus took men camping; He didn't form a group, incorporate, and preach doing Old Covenant rituals.

Paul: You celebrate birthday's and the 4th of July and Thanksgiving don't you? How much more should we celebrate days that are special to God. Far from a waste of time, it is the best way to honor God with your time. Matt, You may not be able to receive all of this, and that is OK, it will not hurt my feelings at all. I've been given a revelation of the joy of honoring God's feast days and I don't push it on anyone. It is not a matter of salvation, but it is a matter of maturity. One day the whole earth will be celebrating these days, why not get a head start on everyone :-)

Matt: Well said and in the right spirit. That is why I like you; you are sincere, accurate and not trying to control or profit off of God's people as are many leaders today. The Lord has shown Mary that you have great authority in the true sense of Godliness as a servant. My prayer for you is that you stay that way and don't become what many leaders in the religious world would mold you into. I hope you enjoy these fine tuning debates as much as I do. Do you? I ask you to forgive me if I have spoken the truth not in love. I respect your revelation and would like to get as much of heaven here as I can, I just have had too much negative experiences with "feast keepers" in the past in the areas I have mentioned. We all know in part. If you respect my part and warnings in the sincerity of my heart, we together, with other brothers, will find the will of the Lord and hopefully be leaders like Jesus was.

I send CC's to Sal because I respect his input also. Feel free to CC anything I say (like this - not personal confessions!) to other brothers also. I am fully convinced that it takes multiplicity of us humans to find God's balance in these things.

Paul: Amen! I couldn't agree more. This "Jewish Roots" issue is really going to be a stumbling block for many believers in our generation, just like allowing the Gentiles to come into the church in the first century was a stumbling block for their generation. But I really believe that we need to start talking about these issues because this is part of God restoring ORDER to His body. Like you said, it is going to take a company of views to bring further light on this subject.

God's Foundation

Rosanne Harney

I received this vision and Word from the Lord on 12/26/99

I saw an older gentleman taking a midnight walk. The air is cool and crisp and there is a rustling of the wind through the trees. I can see leaves falling to the ground and I can hear the crunching of leaves under his shoes. I can see that he is walking on a path that has been well worn and in his right hand there is a flashlight to help him see.

I can see that he is heavy in thought. I can see a distant look across his face concerning what the future holds. He is talking to God, as he walks through down a path filled with trees. I can hear him, as he is bearing his soul to the Lord and tears are streaming down his face. He is asking God, to give him more strength and courage to hold on...

So much has happened, he is reflecting and remembering all that has taken place around the world this past year. Earthquakes, floods and many people that were close to him have died others' have disappeared from his life. Changes and shakings, so many changes. Yet, he is experiencing a new kind of strength that can be found only through seeking the Father has been given to him.

Walls of rejection that had held him captive for most of his entire life had been broken through and fear was gone. Pain was gone, now he could walk close with God.

As he walked down the path with God, he was receiving God's love. Past failures and shame were gone. In there place was a man transformed, by the love of God. He now ran to the Father to seek His face. Now he was seeking God to redeem his time on earth to serve the King. He was thankful, and it showed as he talked and praised God. I could see the light of the moon shining down upon his face and watched him raise his arms, I could feel God's grace over his life.

I then heard the Holy Spirit say, For those who have had walls that have been built around them of wood, stone and clay. You have allowed the enemy to build these walls that have separated you and Me. Some of your houses were built, brick by brick while others' were built all at once. The enemy has stolen, killed and destroyed dreams, friendships, and lives (John 10:10). I am asking you to breakthrough the barriers that have been established in your lives. The strongholds that have reaped death and destruction release them to Me.

I am asking that you press in and begin to understand that your home, your house can be rebuilt as you lay down My foundation for your lives. Lay hold of My Truth, lay hold of My Word and repent of your sins. Turn to Me. Understand, that as you give me your hurts and wounds and unforgiveness, as you give me your lives the walls that have been built up around you will begin to come down.

I desire to walk with you through the day and in the midnight hours, I desire a people that hunger and thirst for My presence. Wanting to build their lives with My help and opening their hearts to receive My love which will change there lives.

Psalms 63:1-7(NIV) O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for in a dry and weary land where there is no water. I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands. My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you. On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night. Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings. My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.

Great Grace and Faith

William Hawkins

January 11th, 2000

For the past 6 months the Lord has spoke little to me that does not relate to Holiness within the Body of Christ and now He is speaking relative to the time we live in.

"This is the Hour of Great Grace."

"The hour of the beginning of Great Faith, a time when I shall do wonders in your midst that before now you have only dreamed of."

As evil abounds, Great Grace will much more abound.

As Faith rises in your hearts, the miracles will grow in corresponding greatness.

Go forth and proclaim My Love, My Mercy, My Grace and My soon coming for those who are mine.

My Father sought a family when Adam was created and a serpent separated Him from them.

I and I alone have accomplished all that is necessary to join My Father and you together again.

He loves you very much, so much more than any can comprehend in your present state.

Do not fear the days ahead, but rejoice, for they have been foretold by My Prophets in My word.

I am about to gather my children to myself, but before I do, I will use all of them that are willing to do Great Exploits in this land. These things will be done for two reasons, neither of which relate to those being so used.

1. To bring GLORY to the Father thru the Power of His Spirit, released thru men for Healing of the sick, Delivering of the depressed and for setting free all those held in Bondage.
2. To Leave ONE LAST statement of Faith, Love and Mercy for all to see, before the Wrath begins upon this earth and those I love are caught up to myself.

Because of the humanism that has been plied upon so man, many will NOT believe, even when the dead are raised. I said in My word that most would not believe even though one were returned from the dead.

This I did and still most do not believe. It grieves my Fathers heart, that I suffered so for all of mankind and yet so few really relate to me as a person, one who loves them.

OH yes, many relate to religious ideas and forms, but so precious few relate to me as a very real, live person, who needs love and care even as you do.

Arise o Sleeper, awaken from your lethargy and seek me now while there is still yet time.

Seek not the pleasures of this world, which are fleeting, but seek eternal rewards with me.

I will pray my Father for one last great move of His Spirit, before the wrath comes.

Pray with me for the Father to grant this to all those who truly seek to love me and Him.

Pray that all the mighty deeds will be spoken of during the time of wrath, for a testimony of His Love, My devotion and the Spirits power to overcome the evil of this present world.

Pray and seek my face and I shall surely give you a sign of the anointing that will come.

Go and tell them, do not hold back even one word.

Amen Lord.

God's Gideon Army

Frank Sandford

FrankSandford@hotmail.com

I am indeed looking for servants who will stand and not quaver, who will not blink in the face of the enemy. I am looking for those who will be a handful, as was Gideon's army, to stand in My strength, in My assurance, in My love, and in My salvation. With a handful of such servants the enemy can be and WILL BE defeated.

This handful will be people who have come to realize that I am their sustenance, I am their only strength, and that I will supply their needs at the appropriate time. This handful of servants will have learned not to have allowed rituals to replace Me as their God. Yes, things of Me can become ritualistic and in so doing lose Me in them.

It is important to put on the armor of God - but if it becomes ritualistic in putting it on, it loses ME. I seek a people who want Me more than anything else; even more than My word; even more than My church. When My people have Me, My word becomes part of them and My church becomes their body.

I am seeking this handful of Gideon-like servants. I am building a small army that I will use to bring down the greatest strongholds of the enemy - ALL TO MY GLORY.

This army is building and many who expect to be part of it will not be and most who will serve do not yet know that they have been called. Do not refuse the call when it comes, be prepared, and know Me, KNOW ME, KNOW ME.

Personal word from Frank: By the way, the Lord informs me I am a recruiter and might not serve in this army. Whatever He has for Me is wonderful - either on the front lines or in support of those who are.

Gypsy Girl Raised

J Conrad Lampan

Argentina: Gypsy girl raised from the dead and dies again

You might be thinking: What kind of testimony is this? If she was raised from the dead why die again?

I can only say God moves in mysterious ways and fulfill His purposes using sometimes rather strange methods. The one thing I am learning is not to ask God why He does this or that or why He does it this way or the other.

Usher Jesus in and let Him be God

This Gypsy girl was saved some months ago and in a few weeks she got sick and die. Before she died she was giving testimony of her conversion to her family and friends and others in the Gypsy community. You know that the Gypsy community live together as a group, mostly separated from the rest a society. This girl had a hard time with them because they could not accept that she "despised" their religion and converted to another religion.

The fact is that she died. She was just 12 years old. These people were having the funeral in their manner, with the casket open for all to see and people staying all night around it. People would come and say their condolences to the family, and say good bye to the dead person.

In the middle of the night the girl suddenly sat on her casket, alive! Great was the joy of these Gypsy people so they began to jump and dance and to immediately dismantle the funeral setup.

The girl said to them "Do not dismantle anything. Jesus told me to come back only to tell you that He loves you and that you have to accept Him if you want to be saved. That is the only reason I am here. At 10:00 AM Jesus will come back for me, so leave everything just setup so you can continue with the funeral." At 10:00 AM she died again!

As a result the Gypsy community is in some kind of spiritual turmoil and they are being saved in bundles!!!

Is not our God an awesome God? Let Him do it His way! Praise Him!

Giant Unknown Warriors

Dan Root

This testimony was forwarded to me (Dan Root) but was written by Bill Yount. Unsuccessful attempts have been made to reach Bill about this message he received from the LORD but the truth in this revelation is too important to withhold from the rest of the Body of Christ. Thus I am forwarding it as it was forwarded to me from Sue Andal, one of our ministry partners. Please enjoy what you read below and challenge your partners in the Household of Faith as well!.

It was late and I was tired, wanting to go to sleep, God wanted to talk. It was about midnight, but it dawned on me that God does not sleep. His question made me restless, "Bill, where on earth does man keep his most priceless treasures and valuables?" I said, "Lord, usually these treasures like gold, silver, diamonds and precious jewels are kept locked up somewhere out of sight with usually guards and security to keep them under lock and key."

God spoke. "Like man, My most valuable treasures on earth are also locked up."

I then saw Jesus standing in front of seemingly thousands of prisons and jails. The Lord said, "These have almost been destroyed by the enemy, but these individuals have the greatest potential to be used and to bring forth glory to My name. Tell MY people, I am going this hour to the prisons to activate the gifts and callings that lie dormant in these lives that were given before the foundation of the earth."

"Out from these walls will come forth an Army of Spiritual Giants who will have power to literally kick down the gates of Hell and overcome satanic powers that are holding many of My own people bound in My own house. Tell my people that great treasure is behind these walls in these forgotten vessels. My people must come forth and touch these ones, for a mighty anointing will be unleashed upon these for future victory in My kingdom. THEY MUST BE RESTORED."

Like slow motion they began to grow into what appeared to be giant knights in armor. They looked like warriors. They had on the entire armor of God and every piece was solid and pure gold! Even golden shields! When I saw the golden shields, I heard God say to these warriors: "Now go and take what Satan has taught you and use it against him. Go and pull down the strongholds coming against MY church."

The spiritual giants then started stepping over the prison walls with no one to resist them, and they went immediately to the very front line of the battle with the enemy. I saw them walk right past the Church and big-name ministers known for their power with God. They were surpassed by the giant warriors like David going after Goliath! They crossed the enemy's line and started delivering many of God's people from the clutches of Satan while demons trembled and fled out of sight at their presence.

No one, not even the Church seemed to know who these spiritual giants were or where they came from. All you could see was the armor, the golden armor of God, from head to foot, and the shields of gold were there. The shields were restored to God's House and there was great victory and rejoicing.

I also saw silver, precious treasures, and vessels being brought in. Beneath the gold and silver were the people that nobody knew: REJECTS OF SOCIETY, STREET PEOPLE, THE OUT-CASTS, THE POOR and the DESPISED. These were the treasures that were missing from His House.

In closing the LORD said, If My people want to know where they are needed, tell them they are needed in the STREETS, the HOSPITALS, the MISSIONS, and PRISONS. When they come there they will find Me and the next move of My Spirit. They will be judged by My Word in Matthew 25:42. "For I was hungry and you gave me not meat; I was thirsty and you gave me no drink; I was a stranger and you took me not in; naked and you clothed me not; Sick and in prison and you visited me not."

Gideons

Priscilla Van Sutphin

A few years ago the Lord spoke to me that this end-time generation would be like “Gideons in His hands”. He prompted me to read about Gideon at the time, and although, at the time I saw some things, that showed what He meant, through the last few years, He has made the vision clearer and confirmed it through the words of other prophets, and seers.

Judges 6:1 to 6:6 paints the picture of what was going on in the land at Gideon’s time. There had been 40 years of peace and rest after Deborah’s reign, but again Israel began idolatry to Baal, so the Lord had them under judgement by giving them into the hands of Midian. Starvation (representing blight of their spiritual poverty), was the judgement on Israel. “The Midianites would encamp against them”, verse 4 says, and “destroy the produce of the earth....and leave no sustenance for Israel”. Our own country’s spiritual blight would seem obvious. Many in our land, and in the church have bowed down to the gods of New Age-Hinduism, and to Baal, or Satanism.

So it says, the Israelites cried out to the Lord, and as a result, God sent a no-name prophet, (as He is about to do in this age). The prophets will be a faceless people, devoid of fame, to speak truth to this generation and ours and to convict us of our disobedience, like John the Baptist. Just as John came before the first coming, the spirit of Elijah (John was called the Elijah to come by Jesus) will be poured out on them to turn the children’s heart to our heavenly Father, and His heart to us, via their prayers and worship. The Zondervan Bible Encyclopedia says there was DISUNITY in Israel at the time of Gideon, and so there is NOW in today’s body of Christ. The Lord has called this younger generation (generation X-which is NOT x’d out by God) “HIS SHOWBREAD”.

In Judges 6:11, it says, “Now the angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon (which means cutter of trees) threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites.

So Gideon was in the winepress, threshing wheat. Have you ever pictured that? Something about that went beyond what I’ve ever heard preached, and then it finally came through the Lord, and Conner’s book on “Interpreting Symbols and Types”. As stated before the winepress is where proper study of the word brings forth true doctrine...so God has had today’s Gideons, in the word...releasing illumination of scripture...separating the bread of the Word getting into the deeper roots of the Word of God, seeking God for understanding...not just what man has told them. So when it is time to come forth, like David, they will be filled up with the Word, just as Gideon had his sword. (Although he didn’t have to use it at FIRST.) They will be filled with God’s wisdom to help others apply it to their lives. Several are already on the scene causing a stir...tearing down idols. Those steeped in tradition may not like the looks of these when they come forth like a John the Baptist...but they will bend I believe, because of the MANIFEST power of God on them.

John the Baptist sure did not look like the average guy in Jerusalem at the time. And both he and Elijah stirred things up real good. They really angered a lot of unbelievers. Note that the priests who had been hidden at Elijah’s time were in caves....like David...hiding. John the Baptist was definitely a “wave-maker”? He shouted, he was not shy about declaring the TRUTH to those who were walking in darkness.

You cannot be complacent and be in this army ! In Zephaniah 1:12 NKJ it says... “And it shall come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled in complacency, who say in their heart, 'The Lord will not do good, nor will He do evil'."

The first chapter talks about cutting off the idolatrous PRIESTS, and those who have not sought Him. This is not an army for the fearful —as shown in the history of Gideon in Judges.

According to Kevin Conner "Interpreting the Symbols and Types in the Bible" ,

THRESHING – symbol of separation, trampling under foot, chastening, and judgement

(see Is.41:15, Micah 4:13, Hab 3:12, Amos 1:3, Is 21:10 and Jer. 51:33, 2Ki 13:7)

WINEPRESS – is symbolic of that place where true doctrine is produced from proper study of God's Word. (other scriptures : Nu 18:27-30, Deut 15:14, Is 5:2, Matt.2: [However if evil wine...then false doctrines pressed out of God's Word.]

So the Lord is calling these Gideons, and commissioning them for HIS work. In Judges 6:12, it says, "And the angel of the Lord appeared to him, and said to him, 'The Lord is with you, you mighty man of valor!'" Gideon was startled at the words of the angel of the Lord, after all, he was hiding ! Gideon's reaction here , is a lot like Moses. He proclaims his unfittedness for such a title. He also says that if God is with us, where is He ? Where are His works of old, the miracles and healings ? Today's teens have been wondering the same thing.

The Gideons God is raising up will be thought by the "churched" to be the "least likely" To lead in revival by the more "sophisticated" and "educated" church members. They will proclaim to be the least in their Father's House; the rebellious, and the discarded, the weak and afflicted. And so this is not a new idea of the Lord, as He sent His own Son in the humility of a stable birth, and out of the town of Bethlehem, which was thought to be the least in the kingdom of Israel. They may come to us with tattoos and earrings in their noses.

And then there are the testimonies of great heroes of the past like Hudson Taylor and David Brainerd, who were weak and sickly much of their time of service. And like Gideon, God will make today's army of men and women, boys and girls what HE wants them to be by HIS GRACE and the POWER of the Holy Spirit. The LORD will affirm them. "Surely I will be with you" He told Gideon. (Judges 6:16) In verse 17, Gideon asks for a sign that it is the Lord who came to him. So, this generation will know to test the Spirit of the Lord who talks to them. (Those who are His chosen Gideons)

In Judges 6:22, it says "Now Gideon perceived that He was the Angel of the Lord. So Gideon said, "Alas, O lord God ! For I have seen the Angel of the Lord face to face." This generation of Gideons will also see the Lord face-to-face. In verse 24 it says that Gideon built an altar in that place and called it after the Lord Who is our Peace (Jehovah Shalom).

One summer a young man and his mom stayed with me for the teen conference at our church, and the last night of the conference, he had a vision of JACOB preaching in that church, and the Lord was saying, " In this place..." , then he had the vision again, later the same evening and this time there was more detail. Jacob (Jesus is called the Portion of Jacob in Jeremiah) was preaching in the church, and he instinctively knew there was an attack of the enemy on that church, but God's light was shining in the side windows of the sanctuary and would drive out the attack. Also the Lord was saying, " In this place, I will.." [like a ticker -tape going across the screen] Two weeks later, I was reading in Haggai, and the Lord quickened this as the verse from Haggai 2:9 which says "And in this place I will bring peace, says the Lord."

Haggai 2:6-7 NKJ says, "For thus says the Lord of Hosts: 'Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land; and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this temple with glory.'" says the Lord of Hosts."

Now I realize this was a vision not just for our church, but for the Church in America.

These 'Gideons' will proclaim and impart the Lords' peace. Jesus is known as the Prince of Peace, and his peace is not like 'world peace', but the peace which passed all understanding, an inner peace which made Paul able to say “To live is Christ, to die is gain”, a peace which brings ability to forbear, and perservere and to love which endures and never fails.

The first commission the Lord gave Gideon was to tear down the idol in his father’s house, and so these modern ‘Gideons’ will be instumental in bringing down the idolatry in our churches, through prayer, worship, and preaching the TRUTH of the Word of God. It says, and in it’s place, Gideon built an altar to the TRUE God. And so these ‘Gideons’ will do this, by God’s grace, and our hearts will be the altar. Where will His resting place be? In the hearts of men, not in buildings made of clay or stone, said the Lord.

In Judges 6:27 it says , that Gideon tore down the idol in the night (in hiddeness) because he was afraid of retribution from the men of the city which also speaks of his awareness of the wicked nature of idolaters, and his ability to discern. While others are in the church, busy planning, or being distracted, these Gideons will be giving their hearts to the lord in prayer or praise to bring down the powers of darkness and rulers of darkness in heavenly places. Rulers, and terrors are also brought down by worship that is represented in the one anothers. By that I mean working in the opposite of the prevailing spirit. For example...if greed is a prevailing spirit...then they would sow seeds of righteousness, by doing things for no pay. It is the nature of spiritual warfare to work in the opposites...another example would be, where there is driveness, to rest and be like Mary and not Martha.

Verse 6:30 of judges shows the attitude we have when our idols are smashed;

- a)we are angry at first
- b)we have prideful, murderous attitudes sometimes towards those who convict us or correct us. [they wanted to kill Gideon – the MY way, not God’s way gang]

But the true fathers in spiritual Israel will stand up for the TRUTH and REPENT. And they will be protective of these sons of Israel.

Malachi says that the spirit of Elijah will return the fathers’ heart to the children and the children’s hearts to the father. Just as Elijah slaughtered the prophets of Baal and removed the evil in Israel, so did Gideon. And just as Elijah was up against Jezebel, and Ahab, so it is also with the “Gideons” of today. They are battling these spirits in the church, and in their own lives, on their knees and in WORSHIP, and with the Word of the Lord. The spirit of witchcraft has entered into the church today in many forms; control, domination, Wicca, New-Age/Hinduism, and satanism by mixing it all up with Christianity which is called syncretism. And it MUST BE REMOVED FROM THE CHURCH SO THAT GOD WILL BE THE ONLY ONE IN CONTROL.

Just as Joash (means: God has given) changed Gideon’s name to Jerubaal (let Baal contend), so when these spiritual ‘Gideons’ are anointed, God will give them a new name...which is symbolic for the release of revelation, according to Conner. The church will quickly change her attitudes towards these ‘Gideons’ when they are anointed, for they will be like Gideon in their God-given ability to deliver those held in “spiritual starvation.” And like Elijah they are up against tremendous witchcraft in these end-times and God is now in a process of training them and pre-

Paring them for service. Look at Micah 4:6-7 NKJ

“In that day,” says the Lord, “ I will assemble the LAME, I will gather the outcast, and those whom I HAVE AFFLICTED; I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcast a strong nation; So the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even forever.”

He is training them in spiritual warfare, and He will give them great authority over demons, and over all manner of sicknesses and disease. There will be no question that God has ordained them when the glory comes upon them. NO ONE will doubt the authority given them by God Almighty. Isaiah 60: 1-2 NKJ says....Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold great darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; But the Lord will arise over you, and His glory will be SEEN upon you.”

In Luke 9: 1-6 , the Lord commissioned the 12 apostles, and gave them authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. When the glory of the Lord comes upon the Gideons, (to it’s fullest), the apostolic anointing will be restored to the church of Jesus Christ. These Gideons will be fully submitted to the will of the Lord Jesus, NOT to mans traditions, once the Lord has brought them through the 'fire' of His purging. He will encompass them about with His power, in LOVE, HUMILITY, and FORGIVENESS. He will have FULL POSSESSION of their lives. (Judges 6:34)

Judges 6:36-37 shows Gideon testing the Lord's word to him. The Lord said the end-times would be a time of great apostasy, as shown in 2 Tim 3:1-3;

"But know this, that in the last days, perilous times will come: for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, PROUD, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, UNHOLY, UNLOVING, UNFORGIVING, SLANDERERS, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traiters, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure, rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness, but denying its power. And from such people, TURN AWAY !

This end-times army will also want to be sure of who they are following. And God has and will be patient with them, as He was with Gideon. He is building their faith, to do the greater things, as with Gideon, who thought himself incapable to do anything noble...they will be humble when God gets through with their training.

Many of today's 'Gideons', here in the U.S.A. have a great deal to overcome of the world, because of the affluence and pride of the U.S. and the conditions of this nation. So God has been training them in the SCHOOL of REJECTION, PERSECUTION, and AFFLICTION, AND MAKING THEM OF NO REPUTATION LIKE JESUS. They are in the process of dying to SELF. The church needs to be patient with God's 'Gideons', just as He is. We need to pray for discernment to even be able to recognize the calling on them, and to have the same love for them which God has and help to nurture, heal and uphold them.

In Judges 7:2 NKJ it says: "And the Lord said to Gideon, 'The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel CLAIM GLORY FOR ITSELF against ME, saying ' My own hand has saved me.' " This is critical with us too, in that many think by their many prayers, or their special worship, or intellect and insight, they have affected change in the spirit, when everything we do is enabled by the Lord, and without HIM we could do nothing. Much of the church today is steeped in PRIDE. We even have the gall to boast of our knowledge of the Word...which...if you read Job...it should deter that kind of thinking. And, many who boast of knowing the word...don't know the LIVING WORD: know not the sweet communion Jesus, the Father and Holy Spirit. God is looking for those who will not take the glory for themselves.

God is also weeding out those who would be too fearful for the job. At Gideon's time, this conformed to the Mosaic laws for military exemption (Deuteronomy 20:1-8). And just as God made it clear in Gideon's time that the victory was HIS, and not one of superior might in Israel, so again this end-times battle belongs to the Lord. Zechariah 4:6 NKJ.... "Not by might, not by power, but by My Spirit says the Lord ! " Over two-thirds of the army left Gideon because of their fear. This is also significant and representative, I believe of the great "falling away" of the church in end-times. They will succumb to the fear of man especially with the persecution and rejection that is coming.

Judges 7:5-7 has always been a puzzle to many, but I believe that those who lapped (only 300) putting their hands to their mouths, remaining upright, alert to danger and ready for action, represent those who don't give in to carnality, especially to the accuser. There is a possibility here that comes to mind as I type this out, and that is...the MOUTH is symbolic of our testimony, these drink water, in this case it may be the water of adversity, and they remain upright...in right standing with God, not giving in to the accuser, alert to the wiles of the enemy, not sinning with their mouths....In Rick Joyner's book, the Final Quest...the enemy's troops ride in on the backs of those who are professing Christians. The war in the church has already started. Some have been deluded into thinking they are supposed to be the judges dividing who are sheep and who are goats, but Jesus said, the ANGELS would come and separate them....and the Word says HE is the only JUDGE. Yet there are those who have already aligned themselves with the accuser...like in the Spanish Inquisition...full of pride, bitterness, fear, and suspicion. Most of these brothers and sisters are UNHEALED people who think they are doing God a favor, doing HIS service...like Paul did when it was his fervor to persecute Christians.

The rest of those who drank, lapping with their mouth to the water like an animal may represent those too carnal for the Lord to use, for His glory. The Lord knew they would end up in the position of taking the glory for themselves, as He indicated in what He said..."lest Israel claim glory for itself.." Many in the past have done this as many in the present do now. The Lord said, "BE HOLY AS I AM HOLY !" David knew his fleshly nature, when he said, "I am but a beast before you".

God is looking for vessels willing to empty themselves of all flesh to do HIS work – those committed to walking in holiness and to HIM alone. He has called the youth of this nation (in a word to me) " A HOLY NATION UNTO GOD!" and His "SHOWBREAD". The showbread was in His presence on the table all the time. And there were 12 loaves... representing the 12 tribes...which represents the UNITY that should be in the church. It will come through the youth. I have seen it in my son and his friends...how they hold each other up, how they stick together and help each other financially, emotionally, whatever...as most of them come from homes with some form of neglect or abuse...very wounded...yet they are supportive to each other. God is looking for those who will not compromise His Word and who will give Him ALL the glory.

Matthew 7:13-14 NKJ "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and Difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it."

Just as in the time of Deborah, God used a woman to lead an army, and with Gideon and others, used the "least" to confound the wise in their own opinion, today, God is assembling an army of those thought to be the least likely by the formal church to lead an army. He's spoken to me that these will be LIKE GIDEONS, not skilled orators, with a bunch of educational degrees, but those humble ones, that never had any such ambitions, such as to lead an army. (It is not that He only uses non-educated people, but that knowledge has a tendency to puff-up...and the proud He will NOT use). God delights in using the weak to confound the strong, and the foolish ones to shame the wise.

He has done it so many times before in such forms as David Brainerd, Smith Wigglesworth, Kathryn Kuhlman, Aimee Semple MacPherson, Madame Guyon, King David, Peter, James and John, etc.

These were people who died to self, who lived only to serve HIM. His Majesty does not look at people like the bulk of humanity looks at people, Praise God ! He looks at the heart of man. Just as David spent years in the caves and running from Saul, today's Davids and Gideons, etc. have also been in running from the spirit of Saul in the church, which has tried to stomp out their gifting and their very lives in some cases. We do know Saul had a spirit of MURDER, right ?

The fearful were excluded, then,

Judges 7:9-11, the Lord sends Gideon into the enemy's camp to spy out the land, and cautions him, if he is afraid to also take Purah, his servant and tells him that in doing so, "his hands will be strengthened to go down against the camp." Purah means BRANCH. Whose name is also the Branch of David? Jesus, the Branch, the Mighty Warrior will go down with the end-times warriors as well. He will be with them to strengthen and protect them. He will be their invincible army as it says in Habbakuk 3:19 Amplified.....

" The Lord God is my strength, my personal bravery and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make spiritual progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering,or responsibility] !

Judges 7:13-14 shows that a dream is revealed in the enemy's camp that indicates Gideon will defeat them. And so God will pour out fear in the camp of the enemy in these end-times as well. Daniel 12:4 Amp states:

"But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book until the time of the end. [Then] many shall run to and fro and search anxiously [through the Book], and knowledge [of God's purposes as revealed by His prophets] shall be increased and become great. "

God has promised, as stated in Daniel and Joel to pour out His Spirit on all people.

“Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions, even on My servants both men and women, will I pour out My Spirit in those days.” Joel 2:28-29 NIV

God has already given many congregations a foretaste of what is to come. Kansas City fellowship , several years ago now, had the power of God fall on the children with manifestations of praise and prophecy. In Benny Hinn’s church in Florida, the Holy Spirit fell on the children and they were praising the Lord, and among those who were sick and cripples, many were healed.

When Gideon heard the dream in the camp of the enemy and their interpretation, it says he worshipped. This also will be the response of the Gideon generation to revelation and the presence of their Lord. They will worship Him in Spirit and in truth. Worship is a valuable method of offensive and defensive standing. Satan has been busy with this generation, diverting their worship to himself. In Dean Sherman’s book, “Spiritual Warfare for Every Christian” he recounts the word of the Lord to him about Papua, New Guinea, after days of fasting and prayer, because their usual methods of prayer walking and witnessing had failed to bring the usual fruit. The Lord told him “PRAISE is the key to breaking down the forces of darkness which have held this city since the beginning of time! These forces have never been challenged.” There were strong forces of witchcraft over this city just as there is over our cities today.

The true army of God will be loyal to the Lord Jesus Christ, and to the Gideons who will lead them. They will be obedient to God and to their true spiritual leaders. In Joel again,

It says, “They will not break ranks when they plunge through defenses .” They will be orderly

And UNIFIED in heart and purpose. They will NOT be divisive (A house divided against itself cannot stand) or yield to the competition in the church . They will be perfectly submitted to the Lord Jesus Christ, forbearing and loving people and counter to all the spirits of Jezebel , Ahab, and witchcraft control stand for. God is about to blow all divisiveness, and competition, hesitation, doubt, and disobedience away by the wind of His Spirit. We had better be willing to put our face to the wind of the Holy Spirit’s healing, if we want to receive the glory that comes after that.

In Judges 7:16-18, it describes the weaponry of Gideon. Verse 16 says, “Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.”

a) The trumpet is a symbol of gathering together, and the coming of Christ. In Revelation, it is representative of prophetic utterance. These Gideons will be a prophetic company of peoples. They will be careful how they use their words. The Bible says life and death are in the power of the tongue. They will speak only what the Father is saying. They will NOT move out of impulse to have a word, or other fleshly ways, and certainly NOT to satisfy titillating ears. Like their Father in heaven, they will NOT show partiality.

b) The empty pitchers – represent the human body, or vessels with pure motives; void of flesh, void of selfish motives, void of seeking the approval of man. They will be only concerned with doing the will of the Father. They will be moved by love and compassion, not power, greed, or recognition, or money. They will not compete with one another. They will walk in unity, and with respect for one another out of that love and compassion. The awakening that is coming will remove the dissension in the true church, and the fear of being left out and overlooked that undergirds it.

c) The torches inside the pitchers – Fire represents the Holy Spirit. Because they will have removed their outer garments of attachment to this world, and all flesh will have been burnt off through His FIRE, and through persecution, affliction and rejection. They will, like Gideon, be filled with the Holy Spirit that He might move through them at HIS will. Knowing the Word of God, they will be intimate with their Savior, and depend solely on the Holy Spirit’s guidance; (Not in psychology, methods, or theology)

As the army drops the pitchers to break on the ground, so our flesh needs to be broken, to fall off and die. Here we have a beautiful representation of the will of the Father to fill us with His light, the light of His Spirit. If we will only be willing to count the cost of discipleship, and die to our flesh and the world, we will be eligible for this army of Gideons. Some think that somehow they have to work at it in their own self-reliance, and that they can accomplish this through their own ways, but this is impossible. The only thing we can rely on is God to change us....But the requirement for us is to sit at His feet and ask for the inner healing and deliverance we need to be ready for what He wants us to do. We cannot abandon our first love. We need to be like Ruth, sitting at the feet of Boaz...and HE will GUIDE US in all HIS ways. Jesus said, “Unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.” Matt 18:3 NKJ Little children need to be told what to do. They have to have willing hearts, ears and hands, and to be taught and led. The Lord does the rest.

Can you imagine the paradigm shift Gideon’s men had to adjust to? First God sends 90 percent of the army away, then, another large percent of what was left, then Gideon takes away their shields and gives them a trumpet and a pitcher with a torch instead, and if that isn’t enough, then he sends them down with this stuff to surround the enemy’s camp and says you won’t have to fight...just blow the horns and drop the pitchers....wonder what was going through their heads ? God delights to do the same in every generation...He is always doing a new thing and those too INFLEXIBLE for the new thing are set aside. He is always ready to pour wine into NEW WINESKINS. The wind blows where IT wills.

Gideon’s warriors wore their swords at their sides. It was only after having to pursue the enemy’s army, that they had to use them. The main battle was won for them by the Lord. The Lord and His armies will again fight for us, if we will just worship Him. Our sword is the Word of God !

The Bible says “Desire the pure milk of the word.” 1 Peter 2:2 It is strength to our bones. Well, I used to be an OB clinical nurse specialist, and there is an alignment in the spirit to that in the physical right? Mother’s natural milk contains immune bodies, not obtained in any other way except through nursing. They strengthen the infant against diseases. And while the infant is nursing, he is also getting nurturing, being held by mother. God’s name is El Shaddai, the many breasted One. These immune bodies strengthen the infant against diseases the mother has had. And they decrease their susceptibility to colds and other viruses, while they are nursing. Mother’s milk also contains the largest number of white cells of any other body fluid. White cells are produced in the marrow of the bone, and are used in the body to fight germs and foreign bodies: invaders. Like mother’s milk, the Word of God strengthens our defense system spiritually against the enemy. The IGA (an immune globulin) is significantly greater in those who are breastfed. Mother’s milk also contains LYSOZYME which is 300 times more abundant in human milk than in cow’s milk. Lactoperoxidase is an enzyme which aids in killing streptococcal infection. This is also in mother’s milk and NOT in formulas. The incidence of infection and extent of allergy is decreased in those infants who are breastfed for at least one year.

So....the Word of God implanted in us is our defense system against the enemy of our souls as well....and as we dwell and meditate on the word...it is like the infant who nurses...we not only get strength to our bodies, but to our emotions from the nurturing truth of the word of God.

Paul chided the Corinthian church for still requiring milk, instead of having moved on in maturity to the meat of the word. I believe this is true for many churches today as well. It is every believer’s responsibility to read, study, meditate on, search, and dwell on the Word of God. In many churches I’ve attended the word is barely taught, man’s opinions seem to be of greater concern. Joshua 1:7-8 NKJ says “Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.”

It is not only in the reading of it, but the doing of it, as James cautions us, that there is the blessing. Many today lift up the Word up as the pharisees did, who Jesus chastized saying,

“You search the scriptures, for IN THEM you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life. “It is in the coming to HIM that we learn how to apply what we read, and to drive strength for service from His Holy Spirit, as well as direction and guidance. In coming to Him, He pours out His love in our hearts, by the Spirit. THAT is our life-giving strength. Without Him we are nothing. With him we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. And in dying to our own selfishness, we will be able to say like Paul, “To live is Christ, to die is gain.” JESUS bids us come. and says to us like to Peter, when he stepped out of the boat onto the water, “It is I, do not be afraid.”

The Lord has said to me that just like the birth of babies, there are some that come out on their own, and then some require a C-section. So there are intercessors, who cry out night and day to catalyze the birth of those who won't or are unable due to the depth of their woundedness to come on their own. Either way, the only route to healing is to be nurtured at His breast. To come unto Him....the Lover of our souls....and be made new. This is a long process for some of us who have gone through such violence in our lives. But it is worth the pressing into Him, to get the prize of fellowship with Him forever. Remember, no pain, no gain. Our pain is our GAIN in the spiritual kingdom.

Gather In The Harvest!

Rose Everett

Oh Yes! I AM coming again very soon! Have I not given you signs that tell you this is so? Just look around you...what do you really think?

When you read MY WORD, how does the world line up with it? You cannot always trust what man says, but you can always trust MY WORD, THE HOLY BIBLE!

Therefore, knowing the truth about the near future, why are you sitting around just blessing yourselves and your fellow Christian brothers and sisters?

When I gave you the gift of Salvation, I did not just give it to you to keep to yourself. Nothing that I give to you do I expect you to keep unto yourself! I expect you to share it all with others. If I have given you something, and your neighbor has need of it, I expect you to share with him, so that both of you may have your needs met.

I have chosen, among other ways, to use you...MY filled vessels, to bring about MY Will in the world. Because this is true, the future of many lives is in your hands.

You have read in MY WORD how I have commissioned MY Children to go out into the world and minister to the needs of others, and you have read MY principle of sowing and reaping. Why then, when you know this to be the case, do you choose to ignore it? If I have it in MY Word, you can be sure that it is important, and not something to be overlooked. When you choose to ignore my principles, you not only do yourself a big disservice, but you keep others from receiving and enjoying MY abundance.

I tell you now, that I will not hold you guiltless of failing to share MY free gift of Salvation with the world around you. You, Yourself will be saved, but you will lose much reward in Heaven.

Yes, I AM coming quickly, and millions of people are going to find themselves left behind if you do not go out and gather the harvest. The harvest is ripe and ready for the picking. Many souls are just waiting for someone to show them how to come to ME. They literally do not know how to do this. I have done the hard part...all you have to do is open MY Plan of Salvation to Them, and lead them to ME through Prayer.

MY Children, you can believe ME when I tell you that I AM coming soon. Please do not listen to those who say that the world has gone on just like it is since the beginning of creation...and it always will. I have a perfect timeline, and it will not be altered, but many should be glad that I have been so long-suffering, else they would not have this opportunity to repent and receive MY free gift of Salvation.

Be about MY Work, Children. Go out and gather-in the lost sheep, and do it quickly!

End Time Prophetic Vision

GOD’S JUDGMENT ON AMERICA - I

(Visions—Dreams—Prophecies—Sermons—Articles)

by Celia R. Okhuysen (USA) July 17, 1998

"Apocalypse." Apocalypse? "Apocalypse." So I typed out the word as I heard it in my spirit and then clicked on "Search." Lo and behold! Internet websites galore on the subject sprang forth onto the monitor screen. Much to my astonishment, the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth and The Samuel Company (watchmen—prophets) also unfolded right before my eyes with links, links and more links over many months. And so began a search during extensive time periods throughout, and up to exactly a year, as I researched the subject of endtime prophecy using a string of related terms throughout each search. I utilized several search engines and clicked away on many links.

Initially, I had no foreknowledge or understanding of what the Lord was calling me to do. Furthermore, I had no idea where I was going with this search, but the Holy Spirit’s strong prompting kept me surfing the Web on the subject. I became thoroughly caught up in this long and exhaustive search while bookmarking, downloading (printing) and assembling much material on the subject of the endtime. (Saints, beware of the tares in the midst of the wheat, and be vigilant in the Spirit of the Lord! "For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them," says the Lord. (Jer. 29:9) KNOW the Word—do NOT be deceived—for prophecy MUST line up with Scripture. "Try the spirits." (1 Jn. 4:1)

In March, the Holy Spirit’s stronger prompting came upon me to set apart "judgment of America" visions, dreams and prophecies. I promptly became immersed in the undertaking with even greater zeal and interest as I backtracked and searched all my bookmarked folders and files. Once I separated all such files, I continued my search with a different string of related terms. (At this point, I hasten to add that I am not a research analyst—just a former secretary—and have never done this kind of work before. However, I was called by the Lord to yield myself and my energy to the Holy Spirit. I became willing, and He did the rest. I read everything unceasingly as I progressed in my search.)

After much reading and indexing the subject of America’s judgment—her approaching sudden nuclear attack and invasion by outside forces—(with much prayer for the Holy Spirit’s help and guidance for discernment of material context), the following alphabetized index of website visions, dreams and prophecies—with a brief description of each—and sermons, as well as articles, are hereby listed. (Exception: I have singled out background information on Dumitru Duduman as well as his prophecies, and have placed them at the beginning of the list. A "must read" revelation is "America will Burn.")

I must also add that I received further visions, dreams and prophecies in abbreviated format on the same subject by e-mail which unfortunately are not posted on the Web. One particular e-mail was on a brief excerpt of a book entitled "Destiny of America" by Timothy G. Snodgrass (Prophetic Intelligence Network, P. O. Box 1242, Bend, OR 97709). He outlines one particular vision in which he saw a nuclear attack on America. He details the ensuing death, by radiation, of many people while many others "wandered aimlessly, having a look of hopelessness and death written on their faces." Famine and poverty were everywhere. He was carried in the Spirit throughout the country to witness America’s post-nuclear attack and destruction, particularly California. He also speaks of the "war in the heavens." There were "many clashes and dogfights with the Chinese in the air." He also saw Chinese troops "landing on our shores and gathering people into camps." (See ARTICLES—"The Coming American Holocaust") He gives a strong, graphic account of everything shown him which lines up with many of the visions and dreams referred to here.

Love, grace and mercy precede judgment. God is urgently speaking to His Church by His Spirit through His prophets in visions, dreams and prophecies about the severity of what He is about to do. Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. (Amos 3:7) This is an extremely crucial and urgent message! Alerting others through e-mail is in great order. If the Holy Spirit leads other websites to post or link "God’s Judgment on America - I & II" onto their Web pages, PERMISSION IS HEREBY GRANTED TO DOWNLOAD AND LINK ONTO OTHER WEBSITES WITHOUT ANY CHANGES OR ALTERATIONS, EXCEPT IN CHANGING BOTH DOCUMENTS' WEBSITE ADDRESSES AS WELL AS WEBSITE ADDRESSES WITHIN THE TEXTS (not the Index) TO CONFORM WITH THEIR WEBSITE ADDRESSES. [NOTE: THE PRINTED MATERIAL HEREBY INDEXED IS NOT FOR SALE OR FOR PROFIT IN ANY FORM OR MANNER BY ANYONE, ANYWHERE. Printer copy rates should apply as desired, however, when sharing with others as there is much to share with many, and those many with many, many others, and it will certainly run into material and printing expenses. DO share gratuitously with those pastors and missionaries who have no access to the Internet.]

Much prayer that the Lord’s Spirit quickly get the word out to the whole Church in America before judgment arrives is urgently needed! Sound the alarm! Download, copy, and share with those who have no access to the Web, and as the Spirit of the Lord leads you. (Commercial printer rates should also apply for personal home copiers, as toner/ink, paper and printer use employ to the same end.) I exhort the saints to magnify and exalt the Lord for His glory so that His Church in America enters the judgment informed, prayed up and prepared. Those whose hearts are right with the Lord Jesus when God's wrath strikes America will go through the fire without burning. Those whose hearts are not—make haste into the presence of the Lord, repenting (turning away) and returning to Him now! Search your hearts in His presence, confess your sins, and seek mercy and cleansing of your sins by His Blood. Do not delay! See "God's Judgment on America - II" <http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/gjoa-2.html>

Assuredly, there is more on the Web on this prophetic subject which I probably overlooked unintentionally, as I limited my search. And without a doubt, there is an unimaginable volume of unwritten and unprinted visions, dreams and prophecies as received by The Samuel Company in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth here in the U.S. and in other cultures about this imminent and horrendous approaching event. (I now call upon those brothers and sisters in Christ outside our nation to begin to pray for the Church in America once they have also had the opportunity to read through the indexed visions, dreams and prophecies on what God is about to do here soon.) However, I am to redeem the time as one year is long enough to gather sufficient material on the endtime as well as on America's approaching nuclear attack and invasion, which is clearly and incredibly described, and cross-confirmed, in much of the following indexed material.

Undoubtedly, many in The Samuel Company are not on the Web and do not even own a computer. They have no way to release to the Church through the Web what the Lord is also revealing to them about America's imminent attack. But verbal revelations and witnessing should not be withheld, and should come forth. "To whom much is given, much is required." (Lk. 12:48) I quote the phrase "The Samuel Company" as used by Reverend David Wilkerson of the Times Square Church in New York City in his article, "God's Hidden Last Days Army!" (see SERMONS) in which he identifies the watchmen (prophets) of God as such. (Excellent! A "must read.")

The Holy Spirit has prompted me to include several of Reverend Wilkerson's sermons as I came across them on the Web during my time of search. His prophetic, spiritual and dynamic perspective on America's moral decline and approaching collapse strongly articulates the sovereignty, authority and power of God's prophetic Word about America at the time of her visitation—God's judgment and wrath.

Thus says the Lord: "Stand ... and speak ... all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word. Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings. And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord: "If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, to heed (pay attention to) the words of My servants the prophets ... then I will make ... this city (nation) a curse to all the nations of the earth.'" ... Now therefore, amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; then the Lord will relent concerning the doom that He has pronounced against you. (Jer. 26:2-6,13—NKJV)

"And it shall come to pass ... that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions." (Joel 2:28)

"I have also spoken by the prophets, and have multiplied visions; ... (Hosea 12:10)

"If there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, make Myself known to him in a vision, and I speak to him in a dream." (Num 12:6)

"The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has My word let him speak My word faithfully. ... Is not My word like a fire?" says the Lord ... (Jer. 23:28,29)

"Write the vision and make it plain ... that he may run who reads it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries (delays) ... it will surely come, it will not tarry." (Hab. 2:2-3)

Yes, and all the prophets, from Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have also foretold these days. (Acts 3:24)

WOE, WOE, WOE!

"A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. How the hammer (America) of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken! How Babylon (America) has become a desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for you; you have indeed been trapped, O Babylon, and you were not aware; you have been found and also caught, because you have contended against the Lord. The Lord has opened His armory, and has brought out the weapons of His indignation; for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts ...

"Call together the archers against Babylon. ... Repay her according to her work; according to all she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel. Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the Lord. "Behold I am against you, O you most proud!" says the Lord God of hosts; "for your day has come, the time that I will punish you. The most proud shall stumble and fall, and no one will raise him up; I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all around him." ... Therefore hear the counsel of the Lord that He has taken against Babylon, ... At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations. (Jer. 50:22-25, 29-32, 45,46)

Flee from the midst of Babylon, and every one save his life! Do not be cut off in her iniquity, for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; He shall recompense (reward) her. Babylon was a golden cup in the Lord's hand, that (through corruption) made all the earth drunk. The nations drank her wine; therefore the nations are deranged (misguided). Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed. Wail for her! Take balm for her pain; perhaps she may be healed. ... Forsake her, and let us go everyone to his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies. ...

O you (America) who dwell by many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. The Lord of hosts has sworn by Himself: "Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts, and they shall lift up a shout against you." ... For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: "... Babylon is like a threshing floor when it is time to thresh her; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come." ... "Oh, how (Babylon) is taken! Oh, how the praise of the whole earth is seized! How Babylon has become desolate among the nations! The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. Her cities are a desolation, ... My people, go out of the midst of her! (Be separate, and come out of her adulteries!) And let everyone deliver himself from the fierce anger of the Lord. And lest (for fear that) your heart faint, and you fear the rumor that will be heard in the land (a rumor will come one year, and after that, in another year a rumor will come, and violence in the land, ruler (enemy) against ruler (America)), therefore behold, the days are coming that I will bring judgment ... her whole land shall be ashamed, and all her slain shall fall in her midst. ...

"Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the Lord, "that I will bring judgment on her carved images (idols), and throughout all her land the wounded shall groan. Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven, and though she were to fortify the height of her strength, yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the Lord. The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great destruction ... because the Lord is plundering Babylon and silencing her loud voice, though her waves roar like great waters, and the noise of their voice is uttered, because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon, and her mighty men are taken. Every one of their bows is broken; for the Lord is the God of recompense, He will surely repay. ... Thus Babylon shall sink (fall) and not rise from the catastrophe that I will bring upon her." (Jer. 51:6-9,13,14,33,41-43,45-47,52-56,64)

"I will utter My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, because they have forsaken Me ... and worshiped the works of their own hands." (Jer 1:16)

I bring this grievous message to the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ with a heavy and painful heart. What at first was an adventure in assembling all this endtime and judgment material this past year has turned into a deep silent grief in my heart for rebellious America (which I have loved and honored all my life) as she crescendos into God's judgment and wrath because of her apostasy. I particularly have a painful heart for my unsaved family members, friends, acquaintances and many others. Yet I have now set and immersed my heart, mind and will in the Lord Jesus Christ, knowing that through it all He will be with His Church, never leaving nor forsaking us. Daily now, my cry to the Lord is that He supernaturally impart this, His message, to His Church in America quickly, strengthening us to walk in His paths of righteousness every moment from now on, and boldly warn others. My further cry is for all our loved ones whom we have prayed for, covered with the Blood of Jesus and encamped with God's angels, and have dedicated and sanctified to the Lord for salvation—that they be saved, protected and enter into glory with us. And finally, that God permit His angels to appear to His Church (just as they did to Lot and his family) before He strikes to warn and unite us with our Bibles and families, and to move us out of harm's way to safe and protected ground. The full outpouring of the Holy Spirit shall be upon us with a supernatural faith, strength, boldness and power to go forward. Food will be supernaturally available to us. I shall disclose that dream to the Church on the Web later.

(There are "approximately" ONE HUNDRED VISIONS, DREAMS and PROPHECIES combined together, as well as SIX SERMONS, and TWENTY ARTICLES about America's bleak and dismal future. Websites hereby indexed were "proofed," and logged onto July 3, 1998—the day I ended my search. They were all present and accounted for on that date. I have no further instruction from the Lord on what to do with the rest of the endtime files.

A 3-hole punch and a 3-inch binder, or smaller, are in order if you decide to download the entire file or just part of it. Four Index Dividers will help to organize the four categories of 1) Dumitru Duduman; 2) Visions, Dreams and Prophecies; 3) Sermons, and 4) Articles. It will be of great help to you to keep the alphabetized indexed list at the front of the binder in page protectors to prevent dog-eared, ripped pages. Caution: don't try to download everything all at once! Be kind to your printer. When downloading long documents, print ten pages at a time. Half a ream (250 pgs of 500 pgs) of printing paper or more will be needed for the entire file, depending on whether you download (print) in 10pt. or 12pt., and depending on your margin adjustments. I've set my margins at L-30, R-25, T-38, B-37, and the font size at 10 pt. in Netscape to reduce page volume.

Incidentally, to print a document from a multi-window screen press on the left mouse click with the pointer at the top left of the document window which is to be printed. Keeping the left click pressed down, slowly bring the pointer down over that particular window—text will hi-light—and bring mouse pointer to just beneath the bottom of that particular window. Keeping the left click pressed down, slightly move the mouse pointer right-left-right, etc. as hi-lighted screen continues to scroll to end of document. Or move mouse pointer back "up" over text not wanted to download. Hi-lighting will disappear from unwanted text portion. Release the left click, aim pointer at "Print," and click. After much frustration and much, much pleading to the Holy Spirit for help in printing a document from a multi-window screen, He finally taught me that "trick" a few months ago! NOW THEN! Life doesn't have to be so complicated after all, does it?)

End Time Prophetic Vision

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON AMERICA - II

(Commentary and Dream)

by Celia R. Okhuysen (USA) July 17, 1998

[Revised August 29, 1998. See NOTE at end of document.]

While in prayer at the beginning of June, I sought the Lord for mental, emotional and physical rest from all the spiritual battles, trials, troubles, confusions, temptations and ongoing stresses that have been a way of life for me throughout much of my life. I pleaded for time off where I could just rest from encroaching weariness. After I finished my plea, I heard the Lord say in my spirit, "I am qualifying you for the times ahead." A sound of thunder instantly exploded in my spirit which finally opened my understanding. Then I understood that I have been going through a series of lifelong extensive boot camp training exercises since childhood—sometimes through many fires. They have prepared me for God's use for His glory—a strengthened, a qualified and a willing vessel that will be available for use at His appointed time.

During the second week of June, I was interceding for America and crying out to God to spare this nation from total destruction for the sake of His Word and His glory. I kept in remembrance before Him all His servants who throughout America's history have gone forth from these shores throughout the world to take God's Light to nations dwelling in darkness, and to feed them the Bread of Life, God's Word. I also kept in remembrance before Him, the many, many missionaries that have been martyred in foreign fields for the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ—His Word. And I continued to furthermore keep in remembrance before Him the God-fearing founding fathers who sacrificed their fortunes and lives for this nation, as well as their sons who in later generations also sacrificed their lives and shed their blood on foreign battlefields while also giving up their lives in the air and in the oceans throughout the world to preserve our religious liberty and heritage, our peace, and the freedom He so abundantly and graciously has blessed us with. I cried out and pleaded with Him to be merciful to America: "Have mercy, Father God, have mercy on America!"

What happened next was just like the loving and merciful Lord Jesus—still wanting to save more souls and desiring others to embrace Him as their Savior during a time of sorrow, woe and tragedy. I distinctly heard Him speak these following words in my spirit: "MY CHURCH WILL BE KEPT HERE TO PRESERVE THIS NATION DURING ITS JUDGMENT." Needless to say, I was stunned. I now bring His word to His Church in America. We will be kept here as salt throughout God's judgment on this nation. "You are the salt of the earth." (Mat. 5:13—NKJV) If Jesus doesn't keep His Church here throughout God's judgment, I truly believe that this entire nation would be completely destroyed.

"Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing ...?" ... And Abraham ... said, "Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Suppose there were fifty righteous ... forty-five ... forty ... thirty ... twenty ... ten ...?" And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten." (Gen. 18:17,23-32)

(Read the full account of the total destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah from Gen. 18:16 to Gen. 19:29)

Not even Sodom and Gomorrah could have been as decadent and corrupt as America has become. Note that angels led Lot and his family out of Sodom and Gomorrah before total destruction struck. Jesus had no presence there, and no abominable and obscene vulgarities were spoken about or done against the Son of God at that time. Yet, observe what its final end was. The evil and corrupt climate was the same during Noah's days—therefore, the flood. But God saved Noah and His family from the total destruction of the earth by a flood. (Genesis, Chaps. 6-9) This time, God's judgment will be seasoned with grace because of His Son, Jesus. America will not be totally "destroyed," but severely "judged" through God's wrath: "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten." (Gen. 18:32) I believe this will be in response to all the prayers of the Church in America that are currently going up before God's throne in response to His admonition: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (2 Chr. 7:14) "Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you." (Jer. 29:12) Although some life and some land will be destroyed, America will survive. God is going to perform major surgery on this nation and deliver it from the evil cancer of rejecting God's love and sovereignty—the cancer of sin, idolatry, murdering unborn babies, abominations and corruption. Perhaps America will repent and be healed. The Church of Jesus Christ will be His postsurgery "healing balm" for bringing God's message of love, mercy, comfort and hope to a spiritually dying nation during its time of judgment and wrath. If surgery isn't performed soon, then the soul of this nation will surely die. God personally nuked Sodom and Gomorrah directly from heaven with fire, as neither they nor the earth during Noah's time had the Blood covering of His Son, Jesus.

Our continued focus has been on what the obvious is, while we have missed out on the deep spiritual reality on what has been—the longsuffering and enduring pain, blasphemy, and abominable offenses against God and His Son. They have carried much pain in their heart far too long, yet denying themselves because of the love and mercy in their compassionate heart for sinful and lost man. If this is not love for man at its zenith, what is? Sadly, to my recollection as a Born Again Christian, no strong unceasing focus has been placed on this naked reality: the endless pain and sorrow that pierces God's heart because of man's sin, his cursing Him, slandering His Word and rejecting Him as his Creator and Savior. We have been concerned with our longsuffering pain in our hearts, but what about God's longsuffering pain in His heart which He has been enduring? He, too, has emotions! He may be God, but He also suffers pain! (How often I find myself asking the Father and/or the Lord as well as the Holy Spirit to forgive me for hurting and offending them! How often!!!) Therefore, what shall be the end of this nation as it continues to display its abominable, vulgar acts of obscenities with despicable words of profanity and behavior, while openly rejecting and blaspheming the Son of God as well as God Himself? How much longer can a nation shake its fist at God as it prances its rejection of Him, His holiness and His righteousness while decrying, "IN YOUR FACE, GOD!" How much longer? Be not deceived—patience has its limits. Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach (rebuke—reprimand) to any people. (Pr. 14:34)

The only way God can spare this nation is to see the Blood of His Son covering the Church throughout the land. "For in My wrath I struck you but in My favor (grace) I have had mercy on you." (Isa. 60:10) For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness ... (Rom. 1:18) "Now the blood shall be a sign for you (the Church) ... And when I see the blood, I will pass over you ... when I strike" (Ex. 12:13) This is a crucial and important point for every true Born Again Christian to remember: the Blood of the sacrificial Lamb—Jesus Christ, the Son of God—which He shed on the cross at Calvary when He died for the sins of the world, has not only cleansed us of all our sins, but the Blood of Jesus covers us, His Church, at all times! (Treasure Gem: Everyday, I acknowledge and recite that reality by verbally covering myself with the Blood of Jesus anew before my day starts and when I go to sleep. I continuously claim the Blood over myself—"I cover myself with the Blood of Jesus. Thank you, Jesus."—periodically throughout the day. I also cover my husband, families, etc. with the Blood, including personal concerns, the cat, our home and the car. I take NOTHING for granted, knowing who and what I am in Christ—redeemed and victorious, yet understanding what Satan is in the world—a liar and destructive.) Nonetheless, when God finally releases His wrath, it will be with a vengeful fury through His designated foreign agents. Without being or sounding insensitive to the loss of sacrificial lives during the Pearl Harbor attack, it will appear minuscule—firecrackers—in comparison to the launched nuclear missiles upon this nation, and their devastation of much life. A nation in love with fireworks shall see fireworks as never before.

Take a long hard look at what God is showing His prophets and what He is about to unleash upon America. Meditate on some of the scenes listed in the Visions, Dreams and Prophecies Index in ["God's Judgment on America - I" \[http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/gjoa-1.html\]](http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/gjoa-1.html) and then take a long hard look at the decadent, immoral and spiritually corrupt climate of this nation. What do you see? How do you understand? Is the Creator of this earth justified in what He is about to do? But if our unrighteousness (evil works; sinfulness; immorality; wickedness; injustices) demonstrates the righteousness (holiness; moral right; absolute truth; just character) of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? ... Certainly not! For then how will God judge the world? ... for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. (Rom. 3:5,6,23) Here is truth: God is a divine being—a moral force, and man is a sinner. Is the love of God for the world justified by keeping the Church here as a preservative upon America? God sacrificed His Son on the cross at Calvary to save—preserve—the world from eternal condemnation. Jesus will keep His Church here to preserve America from her total extinction through God's wrath. "You are the salt of the earth." (Mat. 5:13) The Blood of Jesus will cover and protect—preserve—His Church during the judgment. ... having now been justified (absolved from sin) by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. (Rom. 5:9) Jesus already took God's wrath upon Himself for six hours as He hung on the cross with nails through His wrists/hands and feet at Calvary, suffering excruciating pain and agony so that His redeemed—His precious Church—will never ever have to suffer God's wrath. He also suffered all of God's wrath for all those who will come to Him, confess that they have sinned against God, ask for His forgiveness, embrace Him as their Savior, give Him their hearts and lives, and ask for cleansing of all their sins by His Blood.

Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, ... and I prayed to the Lord my God, and made confession, and said, "O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments, we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments. Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness (moral right and a just character) belongs to You, ... O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You. To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him. We have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets. ... Therefore the Lord has kept the disaster in mind, and brought it upon us; for the Lord our God is righteous (morally right) in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice.

"O Lord, according to all Your righteousness (truth and justice), I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away ... for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and for the Lord's sake cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate. O my God, incline Your ear and hear, open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city (nation) which is called by Your name; for we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies. O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name." (Dan. 9:3-10,14,16-19)

IN GOD WE TRUST

America is more accountable to God than any other nation on earth because of her spiritual roots and her scriptural foundation. (In God I have put my trust.—Ps. 56:4,11) This is a nation founded on Almighty God's Word—the Bible! I believe that her judgment is not connected to the Tribulation although it will probably initiate it once the world overcomes the frightening shock of her attack and loss of influence as the superpower in the world who championed defending peace, liberty and life at great cost. (What an irony! She is now LEGALLY championing the DESTRUCTION of the lives of helpless, innocent unborn and partial born babies, and "justifiably" hanging her dirty laundry out on her front lawn! Where is our nation's Pledge of Allegiance of "liberty and justice for ALL" on behalf of these innocent unborn and partial born human beings? Where is the moral outrage?)

The Antichrist will arrive on the scene shortly thereafter to bring some kind of order to the world during the financial chaos that will follow America's judgment—therefore, 666! How will the attack blend with another approaching world calamity, Y2K (Year 2000)? Could the Y2K factor affect missile launches? Perhaps the experts could address this issue, and explain how this approaching Y2K chaos could possibly, and perhaps soon, accelerate any intended attack upon America by Russia and China as depicted in the indexed dreams and visions in "God's Judgment on America - I."

The Lord told Dumitru Duduman ("America Will Burn") that California, Las Vegas, New York and Florida are Sodom and Gomorrah. As God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah with fire, so will He again destroy today's comparable cesspools through nuclear strikes—with fire! (The tragedy is that many fine and decent law abiding citizens who do NOT know Jesus Christ as Savior will perish along with the wicked.) Financially speaking, California, New York and Florida probably have the highest concentration of Jewish population outside of Israel to whom Israel looks to for financial aid and support. With America attacked, invaded and crippled, this will leave Israel without a military and financial umbrella. Once God has personally dealt with America, He will then proceed to deal next with

Israel. (Ezekiel, Chaps. 37-39)

Jesus said that the gates of hell would not prevail against His Church. (Mat. 16:18) Jesus will be with His Church throughout this whole conflict. "I will never leave you nor forsake (abandon) you." (Heb. 13:5) "Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Mat. 28:20) What is urgently needed now in the lives of each saint in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth in America is deep heart searching in the presence of the Lord, with humble acknowledgment of hidden sin and repentance, as well as much intercession for families, the Church, and others. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ ... Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. (2 Cor. 5:18,20) Just as urgent is the need for each saint to immerse him or herself in the Word of God to be equipped for the times ahead. For starters: Psalm 51, the Books of John, Colossians, Romans, James, 1,2 Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, 1,2 Peter, 1,2 John and Psalm 91 are a good place to begin hiding in the Lord. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (2 Tim. 2:15—KJV) We, the Church, will be kept here to minister to the backslidden saints (Jesus will not abandon them) as well as to the lost—to be a strength and hope in the midst of calamity. Saints in America, GOD IS ON THE MOVE! The cry of "Jesus is coming—look busy!" should now give way to a new outcry: "Judgment is coming! Repent, and warn others!"

(An excellent witness aid of the coming judgment is an 8 1/2" x 11" tri-folded, double-sided printed flyer of Dumitru Duduman's "Wake Up America!" with the "America Will Burn" revelation printed text. A chronology of five dates depicting the approximate time frame leading to the coming attack and invasion, and at what strategic border/coastal locations of America the invasion will take place, follows the message. Although the flyers are given out free, I ordered one hundred and sent in a contribution of $10.00 for printing, handling and postage expenses for the late Dumitru Duduman's volunteer staff foundation. It is well worth it, and it is a great support when warning others. The flyer is provided by mail from HAND OF HELP, P. O. Box 550, Mineola, TX 75773, (903)569-6187. Writing down the website addresses of "God's Judgment on America - I & II" on the flyer gives many the opportunity to log onto the Web and read for themselves all the compiled prophetic warnings posted, and quickly bring further contact with many others who have access to the Internet, who in turn will help to get the message out to others. Time is of essence and URGENT!)

"But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand. ... therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them for Me. When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die!' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. ... Say to them: 'As I live,' says the Lord God, 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his (sinful) way and live. Turn, turn (repent, repent—turn away) from your evil ways! For why should you die, ...?'

"... 'The righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor shall the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.' When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works shall be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has committed, he shall die." (Ezek. 33:6-9,11-13) [See Acts 5:1-11 — Study vs. 4 & 11 Why the fear?] "The soul who sins shall die." (Ezek. 18:4)

To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Indeed their ear is uncircumcised (unclean), and they cannot give heed (pay attention). Behold, the word of the Lord is a reproach to them; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the Lord. I am weary of holding it in. (Jer. 6:10,11) and neither does God's Word! GOD'S WORD IS TRUTH (Jn. 17:17), and GOD IS NOT MOCKED. (Gal. 6:7) Time is almost up, and whatsoever America has sown, she shall soon reap. Her epitaph of woe and tragedy knocks at her door: "ICHABOD, AMERICA, ICHABOD!" (Your glory has departed, America, your glory has departed! — [Ichabod: 1 Sam. 4:21]) "What will you do in the day of punishment, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory?" (Isa. 10:3) Come back to your spiritual roots, America, come back! Repent! Your outcry is, "Separation of church and state," but look about you! Soon it shall be, "Separation of God and country!" Discern! (Understand! Check out!) Discern the times! GOD BLESSES AMERICA AS AMERICA BLESSES GOD!!!

Your hands drip with the blood of the unborn innocent! Also on your skirts is found the blood of the lives of the poor innocents. (Jer. 2:34) ... In the secret places he (the abortionist) murders the innocent; his eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless. ... So he crouches, he lies low, that the helpless may fall by his strength. He has said in his heart, "God has forgotten; He hides His face; He will never see it." (Ps. 10:8,10,11) REPENT! The fool has said in his heart "There is no God." They are corrupt (degenerate), and have done abominable iniquity; there is none who does good. God looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any who understand, who seek God. Every one of them has turned aside; they have together become corrupt; there is none who does good, no, not one. (Ps. 53:1-3) "Turn, turn (repent, repent) from your evil ways!" (Ezek. 33:11) "And My name is blasphemed continually every day." (Isa. 52:5) "So I will make My holy name known ... and I will not let them profane My holy name anymore. Then the nations shall know that I am the Lord ..." (Ez. 39:7)

And so, the good times are rolling; prosperity abounds; the music is loud; the party is boisterous; golf clubs are swinging; abomination, corruption and decadence abound, and BABIES ARE BUTCHERED EVERY MINUTE as King William (who with his hand ON THE BIBLE took Oath of Office) has blatantly decreed, "Kill babies!" with a stroke of his pen, therefore defiantly declaring, "IN YOUR FACE, GOD!" against the sixth commandment of God in the Bible where He commands, "You shall not murder." (Ex. 20:13—NKJV; Mat. 19:18—KJV) Woe to those who call evil good and good evil ... (Isa. 5:20) Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb is His reward. (Ps. 127:3) A baby is God's decree that life is to go on. All souls belong to God, in and out of the womb! "Behold, all souls are Mine." (Ezek. 18:4) Nowhere in God's Holy Word does He grant man the divine right to commit infanticide and destroy what belongs to God. ... for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. (Rom 12:19) With the mother's consent, man uses his hands to hold butcher instruments with which to tear apart the limbs, head and torso of the innocent unborn baby while still alive in the womb, as well as suck out the brains of the partial-born baby as it emerges from the womb. But God, in His sovereign righteousness, shall hold His sword of wrath in His hand to execute judgment upon America because of her national sin and all her abominations. Contrary to popular opinion, God does have a few limitations, and one of them is that He cannot lie! (He also does not change!—Mal. 3:6) His Word is truth, and His truth condemns unrighteousness: evil works; sinfulness; murder; immorality; injustice; racism and wickedness. ... for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God ... (Rom. 3:23) "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways," says the Lord. "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts (higher) than your thoughts." (Isa. 55:8,9)

Thus says the Lord: "Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good." And they said, "That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart." (Jer. 18:11,12)

"Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backslidings will reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing that you have forsaken the Lord your God, and the fear of Me is not in you," says the Lord God of hosts. (Jer. 2:19)

"I will utter My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, because they have forsaken Me, ... and worshiped the works of their own hands." (Jer. 1:16)

"And they shall know that I am the Lord (Sovereign God), and that I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them." (Ezek. 6:10)

"I will surely consume them," says the Lord. ... "And the things I have given them shall pass away from them." (Jer. 8:13)

"Now the end has come upon you, and I will send My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways, and I will repay you for all your abominations. ... Then you shall know that I am the Lord!" (Ezek. 7:3,4)

"Indeed I have spoken it; I will also bring it to pass. I have purposed it; I will also do it." (Isa. 46:11)

"For I am the Lord, I do not change; ..." (Mal. 3:6)

If He takes away, who can hinder Him? Who can say to Him, "What are You doing?" God will not withdraw His anger, ... (Job. 9:12,13)

No one can restrain His hand or say to Him, "What have You done?" (Dan. 4:35)

The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved! (Jer. 8:20)

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 Jn. 1:9)

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." (Jn. 3:16-18)

For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord (Jesus Christ) shall be saved. (Rom. 10:13)

Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (Acts 4:12)

You are God—ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in kindness ... (Neh. 9:17)

In the third week of June, I sat outdoors on the lawn at sunset, keeping my cat company. A storm with dark clouds was quickly approaching my way as I heard the thunder and saw lightning in the not too far distance. I walked out to the wide lawn, looked up and studied the fast approaching storm from the north. As I scanned the threatening skies and cloud formations, I spoke and said, " Lord, years ago in many dreams I used to soar at will through the clouds, over houses, places and towns, and would feel so free! However, I haven't done that for a long time. I would like to soar through the skies again in my dreams just to feel free for sheer delight as before. I've read in some of the judgment visions and dreams that some of the saints have been taken up to great heights and shown your wrath coming down upon America. But then, Lord, each one of us now has his/her own call and commission, and it's not that important. I'll be thankful and content with what you call me to do." At that precise moment, a sudden strong gust of wind swept through as the storm was upon me. I quickly picked up the cat with one arm and grabbed the lawn chair with the other hand, and ran inside as it began to rain.

Next morning (June 18), I fed my 6:30 "alarm clock" cat and returned to bed remembering that it was my birthday. As I laid in bed strangely alert instead of sleepy, I softly said, "Lord, every birthday I ask You to supply a certain need, or even fulfill a desire. You've always answered my birthday requests. This time, I do not want anything for myself but for Your glory. I feel so ill-equipped for the judgment that lies ahead. It's almost here, and what I would like for my birthday this time is Your mind and Your heart with the Spirit's fired up faith, strength, power and boldness. Otherwise I'm going to be weak and ineffective to minister to the backslidden saints and to the lost souls during the time of judgment on this nation. You always provide what is needful, and I trust You to equip me now for the times ahead. I need full equipping of all of You—The Word." Then I fell sleep again.

DREAM: I was outside again, standing on the same spot on the lawn where I stood the previous evening. It was a bright day, and I was with my husband. Once again I was looking up at the sky. A beautiful colossal mass of white clouds against a brilliant blue sky was approaching our way. As I began to study the clouds, I quickly made out several superimposed figures (similar to a dotted pattern of cut-out paper dolls) of two still angels in flowing robes with what seemed like wide ribbons tied around their waists and flowing streamers blowing in midair. Their curly hair fell down to their shoulders and they had beautifully shaped spread out wings. Standing between them was a lamb. I was surprised at what I saw in the clouds, and exclaimed to my husband, "Look at the angels in the clouds!" As I spoke the word "angels," they began moving, as did the the lamb and its mouth, within the massive drifting clouds. Next, a fast moving STUNNING COLOSSAL JESUS suddenly appeared out of the north, rushing past the angels and the lamb in the cloud mass as He approached us! As he came closer, His size began to diminish to an exacting dimension all through his quick descent to meet with us, and by the time He touched ground, he was in exact body proportion size to ours. UHNBELEEEVABLE!

He took wide strides toward us, in a somewhat rushed manner. I quickly ran to Him and threw my arms around Him! I repeatedly cried out, "Jesus, I love You, I love You, I love You!" All the while I was clinging to Him with a tight embrace, I was excitedly aware that I was actually holding Him in my arms as I said to myself, "I'm touching the Lord! I can feel Him! I'm actually touching Jesus!" (I almost exploded!) There are no words to describe my feelings and emotions at this encounter with the Lord, except to exclaim that I felt and had an immense excitement with UNSPEAKABLE JOY!!! It was as real as I clasp my hands and hold them tightly together before me at this moment. IT WAS SO-O-O REAL! Also, as I held Him tightly, I was just as aware of how awesome the moment of my embracing Him was, and what His garment felt to the touch. This is the best description I can give about His garment: vibrant, living freshness, soft, and airy to the touch—with a faint, faint hint of a soft gentle moist sponge. However, His body was strong and firm. Jesus was real, real, REAL!

What happened next flabbergasted me! As I opened my eyes and sought to look into Jesus' face, I found myself tightly embracing His legs! He had instantly become approximately ten feet tall! (I am 5'2.) While still embracing Him, I looked straight up to see Him looking straight down at me with a soft smile as He gently responded, "Yes, I know." (Oh-h-h my!) I released Him and stepped back a few feet to see Him better, but He instantly returned to His 5'11 (?) height. (Gasp!) As I stood there further stunned, He and my husband spoke a few words together, and then He turned around and walked toward a crowd of perhaps thirty or more people that had suddenly appeared. They were dressed in today's western style, pastel color, light weight clothing. They stood quietly, and were spread out, about thirty feet away in groups of two's, three's or just a few alone. He walked over to them, and slowly strolled in their midst as He stopped and spoke to each one of them individually. The crowd instantly struck me as a flock of sheep ... which He purchased with His own blood (Acts 20:28) out on a green pasture with their Shepherd." ... the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice." (Jn. 10:3,4) We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. (Ps. 100:3)

I watched Him for a while, taking His appearance, fashion of dress and demeanor into account. How I admired the Lord! He was so unassuming and just plain natural! His hair was slightly damp and of a medium auburn color which hung down to just above His shoulders. It was windblown and tossed. He wore a close cropped beard of the same color, and He also had a healthy ruddy complexion. He was gentle but strong as well as masculine. He was attentive to each one He spoke with. All the while, He kept a gentle smile on His slender, strong featured face, and His body movement was lively but graceful. His body frame was slender and strong. His ivory colored dress garment, with a narrow band wrapped around His waist, had the appearance of having been actively worn, as though He just came from the labor fields. He also wore a separate large ivory colored cloth draped over His right shoulder that cascaded down His body as it draped itself around the left side of His waist over His dress garment. He wore sandals.

I was so excited at seeing Jesus, and at being in His presence! No past event in my life, or in the world—not even the moon landing—could ever be compared to what I was now experiencing and witnessing. It was more than miraculous. I was in the presence of the Son of God whom I had just held in my arms! It was the sacrificial Lamb of God that was slain on the cross at Calvary for my sins and the sins of the whole world! It was the Holiness, the Glory, the Love, the Grace, the Mercy, the Peace, the Word, the Light, the Truth, the Righteousness and the Strength of Almighty God—the Joy of the living—in the flesh—on two feet—before me! It was the Savior and Lord of the whole earth! IT WAS

THE KING OF GLORY!!! (I had asked the Lord the previous night if I could once again soar through the clouds in my dreams, but now my heart, mind and spirit are soaring nonstop.)

While Jesus remained with the crowd, I turned and stepped away another thirty feet and entered a small white latticed darkened enclosure that sat on a small concrete slab. Within it was a small animal crouched under a table. It was the size of a large overweight mature cat, and dark brown in color. Its ears were narrow and pointy, and it had no whiskers. Its face was puggish and nasty looking. The animal appeared to be a cat, but it wasn't. Its front paws firmly held a small piece of raw meat it was busy biting into. Although it didn't look up to acknowledge me, I excitedly approached and bent over it, saying, "Isn't it nice having Jesus for company?" It looked up and instantly drew its head back with a haughty attitude as it responded with a firm rebuttal, "No!" It furled its forehead as its eyes instantly creased into slits. I immediately sensed a hostility on its part toward me, and withdrew a few feet back as it continued to glare at me through its narrow slit eyes while making piercing eye contact with me. (That animal was ugly to look at!) After a long moment of staring at each other, it then resumed biting on the piece of meat it had continued to hold firmly between its paws. I woke up a few hours later at 9:40 with a palpitating and excited heart.

INTERPRETATION: Jesus personally made haste to bring me an immediate response to my request. (I believe this confirms how little time is left before God's wrath strikes America. I discern that judgment has already begun.) His sudden towering height over me confirms that I'll have more of Him than I asked for, as there was twice as much of Him than I could hold. A double portion of equipping will be mine during the time of judgment and post-wrath, which now approaches America. And, praise the Lord, all for His glory! And, yes, I'll be fired up with the Holy Spirit to minister the Word, hope and comfort to many during the chaos through the Word's strength and the Holy Spirit's power.

The animal is figurative of the self-sufficient lost world which is totally absorbed with the cares of the flesh, and who secludes itself from the Light. "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest (for fear that) his deeds should be exposed." (Jn. 3:19,20) It feeds on the crumbs of life rather than feast at the table of God's Word. It represents the lost world which dwells in a hard, cold (symbolized by the cement slab) and dark environment, rejecting the Son of God. It wants nothing to do with Him, as evidenced by its hiding from Him. "I am the light of the world." (Jn. 8:12) The world is hostile toward God and His Son—the Light and the Truth. Do you not know that friendship (compromise) with the world is enmity (hostility) with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (Jas. 4:4) Its carnivorous character reveals how it covets and devours its neighbor and his meat—his possessions—through lies, deceit and murder, bringing judgment and condemnation upon itself, while rejecting the meat of God's Word—truth, justice, mercy and eternal life. "Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they have practiced deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips; whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. Their feet are swift to shed blood; destruction and misery are in their ways; and the way of peace they have not known. There is no fear of God before their eyes." (Rom. 3:13-18)

Saints of God, I would now like to call your careful attention to the dream described above. The timing of this dream came as I was in the midst of composing this commentary, and is not coincidental or intended just for me. This dream is also for the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, as symbolized by the crowd Jesus walked in the midst of while personally talking with each individual. Notice that He also personally approached each one of them to minister His response to their prayers and petitions just as He came and approached me in response to my prayer and petition moments earlier. Many of you—the redeemed of the Lord—have consecrated, sanctified, dedicated and surrendered your hearts and lives to Jesus to serve Him as He calls upon you. (Sadly, many others of the redeemed have not done so, or else their lifestyle—which is engrossed in the lures and pleasures of the world—and their words and behavior would reflect it. They crucify the Lord anew daily. (Heb. 6:4-6)) You have also placed all your spiritual petitions before Him, expecting Him to fill, equip and keep you throughout the approaching times. Many of you have, and are receiving, revelations in various ways from the Lord as to what lies ahead for the Church in America shortly.

For those of us walking close with Jesus, a supernatural power, strength, boldness and peace will take hold of our hearts and minds in the midst of all the chaos, and WE WILL NOT FAINT in the midst of death, sorrow and adversity around us. Jesus is, and will continue to be the strength of our hearts, minds and lives. But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint. (Isa. 40:31) We will be supernaturally empowered with the Holy Spirit and encamped with divine protection. Oh, fear the Lord, you His saints! There is no want to those who fear Him. ... But those who seek the Lord shall not lack any good thing. (Ps. 34:9,10) A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. ... No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; for He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. (Ps. 91:7,10,11)

Notice the angels surrounding the lamb in the clouds. We have angels all around us (His sheep) now, yet imagine the legions of angels around the Church during the time of judgment and wrath. Do not lose spiritual sight of them at our side to minister safety and protection to us.

On August 30, 1976, at approximately 9:30 PM, I was born again by confessing, through prayer, that I was a sinner. I asked God to forgive me of all my sins, and embraced Jesus, His Son, as my Savior. I gave Jesus my heart and life, and asked Him to be the Lord of my life. Later that night, four angels appeared around my bed as I "slept." (I was heavily involved in the occult and witchcraft at that time.) I laid there alone on my back, watching them in the dark all night long while they stood gazing down at me without moving or saying a word. There was such a deep peace around me! I would roll my eyes and head to watch them, but did not say a word either. They were beautiful, and bathed in light. They were neither male or female. They wore white robes, were approximately six feet in height, had beautiful fair complexions, light hair, and were quite serene, yet vigilant. They did not have wings. When I woke up in the morning, I was totally "refreshed" and felt like a "brand new" person! Note that the Lord's immediate priority was to show me His angels who would always be with me to protect me. He once again brought that to my attention in this dream which showed two angels around a lamb. I share this with you, the saints of God, as a strong word of comfort for the times ahead. The angels will minister to the flock of the Lord Jesus Christ. Be encouraged!

Through the Word, the Lord has revealed to His Church that we will be amply supplied with more than we can imagine is available to us: the power of prayer, the Word of God in our hearts, the Name of Jesus, authority over the enemy, the Blood of Jesus covering us, the power and seal of the Holy Spirit upon us, the angels encamped around us, and the Lord Jesus with us, strengthening our faith. What else do we need during the judgment? We shall be supernaturally protected! My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:19) We are to keep our hearts and minds focused on Jesus at all times now, and during what lies ahead of us. His presence and strength shall equip us with the power of the Holy Spirit to go through the fire without burning. "When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you." (Isa. 43:2)

I share this word from the Lord with you, my brothers and sisters in Christ, to comfort and exhort you to persevere. But one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. (Phil. 3:13,14) Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith ... (Heb. 12:1,2) No weapon formed against you shall prosper ... (Isa. 54:17) The Lord God is my strength. (Hab.3:19) God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear ... (Ps. 46:1) In God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. (Ps. 62:7)

Beloved of the Lord Jesus, receive great peace, strength, comfort, and clear and distinct understanding with confirmation through this testimony, that many confusing and sometimes painful spiritual battles which you have fought and endured throughout your life, as well as some other battles, have been divinely ordained of God to PREPARE and QUALIFY you to ENDURE and to STAND. For the Lord your God is testing you to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. (Deut. 10:3) The appointed time is almost here when you will finally stand straight, tall, prepared, qualified, strong in the power of God's might, bold, wearing your spiritual armor, and readily equipped with the sword of the Spirit to do mighty battle, and to minister God's love, hope, peace, assurance, strength and comfort. Those past boot camp training exercises will have enforced you with boldness and strength, and qualified you for God's empowering of His Word and anointing of the Holy Spirit to be walking demonstrations of the power of God in the midst of the fire, and walking declarations of the Word of God during the judgment and post-wrath of America—God’s hidden army for the last days! I briefly quote a small passage from Dumitru Duduman’s "America Will Burn":

"What will you do with the Church of the Lord? How will you save the ones that will turn toward you?" I asked. He said, "Tell them this: how I saved the three young ones from the furnace of fire (Dan. 3:8-27), and how I saved Daniel in the lions’ den (Daniel, Chap. 6), is the same way I will save them." This will not be a time for the saints of God to fear because of the word of hope and comfort from the Lord through His Word—"I will never leave you nor forsake you."— and through His prophet, Dumitru Duduman! Be assured that the time is just about at hand. Jesus will be with His Church throughout God’s judgment.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints ... (Eph. 6:10-18)

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind. (2 Tim 1:7)

Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as You have given Him. And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world was.

"I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours ["Behold, all souls are Mine." (Ezek. 18:4)], You gave them to me, and they have kept Your word. Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. For I have given to them the words which You have given Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that You sent Me. I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. Now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are. ...

"I have given them your Word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one. ... Sanctify (set apart) them by Your truth. Your word is truth. As You have sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world." (Jn. 17:1-18)

"He who hears you hears Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me. ... I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions (spiritual threats and attacks) and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. ["Every tongue which rises against you in judgment you shall condemn." (Isa. 54:17)] Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven. ... Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; for I tell you that many prophets ... have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it." (Lk. 10:16,18-20,23,24)

[NOTE: I made a few format revisions as well as a few sentence structural changes in this document. No additional text of substance was added. Celia R. Okhuysen - August 29, 1998]

God Wants To Kill You!

Maria Magruder-Taylor

Have you had a tough day? Have you had a tough month? Well how about a tough year?! Does it feel like you’ve been hit by a MOOSE? (I live in Alaska!) Does it seem like you’ve been constantly under attack? Have you been persecuted by your local church lately? Have you experienced those lovely stab wounds from your brother and sisters in the Lord? Have you been so pressed on every side that you are questioning the call of God on your life? If this is you, then its your lucky day!!!! Yes, its true...YOU TOO CAN BE KILLED BY GOD!

2nd Corinthians 4:11 “ For we who live are constantly experiencing being handed over to death for Jesus’ sake, that the resurrection life of Jesus also may be evidenced through our flesh which is liable to death.”

Yup, that’s all part of the plan...they don't tell you that when you sign on the dotted line to give you life to Christ that He wants to kill you! Part of "the last shall be first and the first last" is dying... dying to self, experiencing what Christ went through. Count yourself worthy to drink from the Masters cup my friend! He has invited you to sit at His table, His table of suffering, suffering as He suffered. He suffered to the point of death and so must we, even at the expense of our own brothers and sister

Phil 1:29 For you have been granted the privilege for Christ’s sake not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer in His behalf.

It doesn't say in the bible "how many times must I forgive a stranger" ...no, no, it says, "how many times must I forgive my brother, or sister or how about your pastor"? Its usually someone close to us...those are the people that hurt us the most...those are the people who hurt Jesus too, His absolute closest friends, who He considered as brothers. Betrayed by His own kind, His own brothers, to the point of death. Stripped and beaten, lied to...you know the story. And why does He require us to go through these things? TO PASS ON TO THE RESURRECTION POWER, ANOINTING AND GLORY AS JESUS DID!

Luke 24:26 “Was it not necessary and essentially fitting that the Christ should suffer all these things before entering into His glory (His majesty and splendor)?

What did Jesus say right before He died? "Father, FORGIVE them for they know not what they do!", then Jesus died...passing ONTO GLORY, COMING INTO THE RESURRECTION POWER, where nothing, not even death can stop HIM! This is what He has called His true children into. TO DIE! GOD WANTS TO KILL YOU SO YOU TOO CAN PASS ONTO THAT RESURRECTION POWER! Amen!

Its in death He is glorified. It seems all messed up to us, but it doesn't matter. Gods ways are what matters. This is what He is doing with you my friends. DON'T BE DISCOURAGED! You are on the right track, you have not strayed from the path, you are more on the path, than you have ever before. You have been questioning the call of God on your life and God is calling you to cross this line, this line of self death to resurrect you my friend. It is there He can fulfill the call He has on your life. Once you cross this line, dying to self, watch yourself cross into the supernatural! Yes! Are you ready for the supernatural? Let go of your life, of any offenses and let God kill you. Its for your own good! He loves you so very much! God bless you my friend!

Gleaning Time

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Look before you My beloved, for harvest fields are white with readiness to be gleaned. I am calling on every member of my church, young and old alike, from the youngest child to the oldest elders to go forth in the power of My might ! Wherever you go, whatever you are doing , keep in mind your position as My ambassadors. Ask of Me, who can I touch today Lord?

I am sending you out as sheep among wolves, but if you ask, I will point out the key people for you to minister to...and as you faithfully listen and obey, the water will come forth...at first as a trickle until it swells like a giant TSUNAMI !

Acts of kindness, and one anothers, giving and pouring out of yourselves will bring in the harvest. Responding in opposites to the world's ways of responding will reap great rewards. If someone uses course gesturing...show them love. If someone refuses...let your heart be broken and not hard....weep and cry for the lost as I do...and I will set them free, just by your having minimal contact with them. The fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change my mind. I said I would bring a REVOLUTION in the streets, not just a renewal or revival...but a very great AWAKENING. It will be violent indeed for those who refuse me. Judgement will be swift to the unbelieving in and out of My church.

But, I WILL FLOOD the earth with My GLORY. And every knee will bow, and every tongue confess that I AM the LORD. I AM THE LORD OF THE HARVEST. I AM THE LORD OF HOSTS ! OPPOSITION is working, but I AM BIGGER THAN THE OPPOSITION ! MY WAYS ARE NOT YOUR WAYS !

Go to the prisons, go to the sick and infirm, go to the old, go to the single parents and fatherless children, go to the widows and orphans... Raise up the foundations and streets....Take authority in MY NAME and call things that aren't as though they were ! USE FAITH , and SEE WHAT I WILL DO !

This is not a revolution of stars and fame...but of nameless, faceless people like most natural revolutions. I will use WHOM I WILL USE ! Those who take credit and are assigned positions and power to make a name for themselves will not be used like those who give to me the glory ascribed to My name ! Do not look to the old and tried ways. Lay aside all sibling rivalry....Look to the AUTHOR AND FINISHER OF YOUR FAITH ! I BROUGHT THE INCREASE TO THE CHURCH IN ACTS, NOT MEN. STOP COUNTING, AND START CARING FOR THE LOST. GIVE AND IT WILL BE GIVEN TO YOU, FLOWING OVER AND ABUNDANTLY GIVEN BACK...I WILL REFILL YOU IN ALL THAT YOU NEED. EVERY NEED WILL BE MET.

AS YOU REACH OUT TO OTHERS, I WILL REACH OUT TO YOU ! I WILL MORE THAN FULFILL YOUR WILDEST DREAMS. REACH OUT TO OTHERS OF EVERY RACE AND TRIBE. AND DO NOT LET YOUR HEART BE CAUGHT UP IN SHOWING PREFERENCE TO THOSE WHO HAVE MONEY TO GIVE YOU. (James) GIVE TO THOSE WHO CANNOT REPAY YOU. Forsake all suspicion and fear, and take in the lost to your heart and homes. DO NOT TAKE CREDIT FOR WHAT I HAVE GIVEN TO YOU.....MY COMPASSION, MY BLESSINGS, MY GIFTS. I AM THE ETERNAL RESOURCE FOR EVERYTHING YOU NEED ! LOOK TO ME FOR ALL YOU NEED! START WITH WHAT YOU HAVE,

AND I WILL GIVE YOU MORE ! WALK IN FAITH AND LOVE , AS I HAVE LOVED YOU !

I AM THE WHITE HORSE RIDER, AND I AM BEGINNING TO RIDE AND TO CONQUER, AND I WILL NOT STOP, UNTIL EVERYONE HAS HAD A DAY OF DECISION.....MULTITUDES, MULTITUDES IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION ! I will thunder from heaven and ride on the earth, thus My horsehoofs will be felt in the natural...through many and varied difficulties, yet it will bring great harvesting.

I am calling you forth My Gideons.....come and commune with me for directions for battle....come and ride with me ! Come and worship ! Come mighty worshippers and warriors, the time has come to trample down the grapes of wrath, to dance and sing aloud of Your love for ME....that the whole earth will know there is a God Who loves them. REACH OUT ! Tell them of My love and grace ! Without a preacher, how will they know ?

Isaiah 42: 13-16 NKJ The Lord will go forth like a mighty man; He shall stir up His zeal like a man of War. He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud; He shall prevail against His enemies. I have held My peace a long time, I have been still and restrained Myself. NOW I will cry like a woman in labor, I will pant and gasp at once. I will lay waste the mountains and hills (false authorities/ despotisms) and dry up the pools. I will bring the blind by a way they did not know; I will lead them in paths they have not known, I will make darkness light before them, and not forsake them !

Numbers 23:19-24 NKJ God is not a man that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent, Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He not spoken and will He not make it good ? Behold I have received a command to bless; He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it. He has not observed iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen wickedness in Israel. The Lord God is with him, and the SHOUT OF A KING IS AMONG THEM. (Not that we have no iniquity, but that it is covered in the blood of Jesus) God brings them OUT OF EGYPT; he has strength like a wild ox. For there is no sorcery against Jacob, nor is there any divination against Israel. It now must be said of Jacob and of Israel, " Oh, what God has done !" LOOK, A PEOPLE RISES LIKE A LIONESS, AND LIFTS ITSELF UP LIKE A LION; IT SHALL NOT LIE DOWN UNTIL IT DEVOURS THE PREY, AND DRINKS THE BLOOD OF THE SLAIN." ISAIAH 5:26-30 ISAIAH 31:4-5 James 5:1-8 AMP. To glean is to go gather, what no one else wanted.....what was undesirable to those who went before you....says the Lord.

Glory in Anchorage

Chad Taylor

(Sending this with overwhelming excitement! I am still charged with this experience happening just last night! I really believe this message captures the essence AND anointing of what occurred last night, I sense a genuine anointing on it to literally compel Christians into a greater realm of the harvest. So I send to you with great joy, and pray you release in the same! Blessings! Chad.) GLORY!

I am compelled by the Spirit of Lord to share this awesome explosion of Jesus on the streets of Anchorage last night! I know this a prophetic statement of the spiritual confrontations that we are experiencing and are about to engage in, and the imminent victory looming over the Church! Sit back and get ready for a dose of the Ghost!

Every Friday multiple youth groups and churches meet downtown Anchorage for evangelism training and prayer at a small Christian book store located in the center of the local bus terminal. A mecca of activity, the homeless, dozens of teens, business men returning home from work etc. etc. From 7:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. we worship and pray, then I proceed to do some activation and training from about 8 to 8:30. At 8:30 we open the doors to the public bus terminal and the youth from the streets begin to stream into the book store, as well as others from every walk of life. Teams of Christians are released as well into the area.

Last night it was moving as usual, Craig Hyder, a local youth pastor playing his guitar, the sound of worship filling the air. I saw a man standing outside the entrance to the book store listening, I stepped out and invited him in. As I was talking to this man, a fight broke out on the sidewalk outside, I immediately rushed toward the altercation. I stepped out from the main doors of the bus terminal directly in the line of fire! I began to loudly declare Jesus, within seconds the fight ceased. A huge crowd of youth had gathered to watch the spectacle.

The boldness of the Lord came upon me like a fire! I began to confront the crowd of youth and preach and declare the love of Jesus Christ. Suddenly choruses of "Satan! Satan!" Could be heard. Then from the crowd a young man jumped out at me, threatening and screaming at me! I looked him in the eye and simply said, "Jesus loves you." He screamed louder, more aggressive. Taunting and mocking the Lord. Suddenly, and just as unexpectedly, a young native boy ran up to us, and began shouting, "JESUS IS REAL! JESUS IS REAL!" In a blink of an eye the crowd had turned from God haters to confessing Him as Lord and Savior! You could hear chants of Jesus from the crowd.

Finally another Christian from the group inside came out, I said, "Get on your knees right here brother and lets release the GLORY!" We both got on our knees right there in the main thoroughfare in downtown Anchorage and began to boldly release His glory and grace! Another large crowd had gathered as we lifted our hands and prayed prostrate on the concrete! I looked up and saw three genuine witches hovering near us. One began to prophecy to me! He kept repeating, "you have been through much, you have done the things you are saying..." At this moment we got off of our knees and began to share His great grace!

At least 40 kids had gathered at this time to listen. The witches began to press us with questions like, "Your people have been hunting and killing us for generations, and you say God loves us?" I looked the leader in the eye and said, "Nobody is condemning you today, Jesus loves you." His adamant argument was that the devil was not real, that they did not believe in the devil or evil. The Lord gave me a wisdom to reply, I told him that in any warfare the greatest strategy or tactic of the enemy or foe is to make his presence secret. I told him that satan was on his shoulder and he didn't even know it. He was stunned and speechless.

As more people gathered five police men suddenly came on the scene. They were at the fringes of the crowd watching. The main cop on the beat began to pray for us! He was a born again Christian! They stood and watched and prayed! GOD EXPLODED ON THE STREETS OF ANCHORAGE LAST NIGHT!

One of the most heart wrenching episodes was a little girl no more than sixteen years old, she looked at me with all the feeling she could muster and said, "I am a lesbian, does God still love me?!" Oh God! I looked at her with tears and told her very plainly that God most assuredly did love her, enough to die and spill his precious blood. For an hour the crowd of youth pressed upon us with difficult questions concerning God and Jesus. Questions they have been longing to ask but not able. Usually not finding someone to answer them. Later the police man gathered with a group of us from the book store and agreed that the powers of darkness to be bound and gagged. God's natural and spiritual authority was released, and the demons arrested!

O Church! The love of God is bleeding for the hearts of these children! Like Lamentations 2:19, "Pour out your hearts like water for the life of your young children that faint for hunger at the top of every street..." They are dying and hungry! Anxiously waiting for someone to answer their hard pressed questions! The satanist and sorcerers like in Acts chp. 8 are just waiting for a demonstration of something, SOMEONE greater than the deceptions that hold them captive!

They need a DEMONSTRATION of His grace and power! "When they SAW AND HEARD the miracles which Phillip did..." the whole city of Samaria turned their hearts to Jesus! God's Philips are poised to invade Samaria in this hour! From Jerusalem (The church) they are going to rise up like a rushing mighty wind and invade every Samaria, (The world). And the power that they release will eclipse the false fake light of the enemy. And the captives by the billions will be set free to pursue the Most High God!

I pray even now as you read this report that the Spirit of the Lord of the Harvest would fall upon you and captivate your heart and spirit with the urgency of the hour. That you would "redeem the time for the days are evil". And blaze a trail of revival and reformation through the streets and cities of America and the world. O God, Lord Sabaoth, fall now upon your people and like a kindling, burn them with your holy desire and consuming fire for the broken and destitute. Show them the revelation that this "great and mighty army" are waiting to be summoned and mobilized on the streets and bi- ways of America. Cause your Philips, your Miriams, your Deborahs, your Pauls and Peters to awake at this critical mass, and do exploits! Cause them to "launch out into the deep and take in a great catch". BREATH ON YOUR CHILDREN EVEN NOW LORD! Quicken them with visions and dreams of harvest! In Jesus Mighty name, Amen.

GLOBALIZATION- Friend or Foe?

Doug Fortune

In this article, I make reference to the World Prayer Center and Global Harvest Ministries; I encourage you to visit their web site at <<http://www.wpccs.org>> and get linked up with the network of intercessors. Here is a little more info about the ministry:

Never in the history of the Church has it been possible to link believers throughout the world. The coordinated prayers of God's people will be concentrated on His objectives. The World Prayer Center will provide daily reports that will help prayer teams respond to rapid changes throughout the world and to mobilize believers in effective global intercessory prayer. It will collect and compile requests from every continent as national prayer centers report what God is doing and how His people ought to pray. Dr. Peter Wagner says, "We see our task as getting people in touch with one another to interactive, human web networks that are properly equipped to wage effective spiritual warfare."

keep listening for His voice!

GLOBALIZATION- Friend or Foe?

by Doug Fortune

Global communication in an instant, global trade and economy, global governing, global acquisitions and mergers, global mentalities... everything is getting bigger and more centralized...

There are those who see all this as moving towards a one-world leadership of anti-Christ and the destruction of society as we know it. However, is Christianity intended to produce anxiety over the future and a fear of the world we live in?... my Bible still says "...greater is he Who is IN ME than he who is in the world..."!

Consider these words, "...of the INCREASE of HIS government and peace there shall be NO end...."(Is.9:7); and what of Daniel 2:35 '... the Stone that smote the image became a great Mountain and filled the whole earth...', and Daniel 7:14 '...and there was given Him dominion and glory and kingdom, that ALL peoples, nations and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an EVERLASTING dominion which shall NOT pass away, and His Kingdom one which shall NOT be destroyed... the saints of the Most High shall receive the Kingdom and posses the Kingdom FOREVER...'; and what of Hab.2:14 "...the EARTH shall be FILLED with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."? By quoting the above Scriptures, am I ruling out the possibility of the judgment of God coming upon individuals or even nations?... certainly not! To be consummated in the glory of Christ for the wicked who have rebelled against the mercy of God will result in certain destruction, even the second death.

Could it be that all this ‘globalization’ we see in the natural realm is according to God’s redemptive purpose and plan? I hate to put the ‘doomsday prophets’ out of business (not really!), but I DO believe it is all for God’s redemptive purpose. Perhaps I’m old fashioned, but I believe in the SOVEREIGNTY of God, and that the adversary can only do what he is permitted to do, either by God or by man forfeiting his authority over to Satan.

I believe that God is in the process of invading this globalization for His Kingdom purpose. Take for instance, the World Prayer Center in Colorado Springs, a spiritual nerve center connecting intercessors all over the globe... much of this accomplished utilizing the world wide web. Years ago, this would not have been possible. Sure, the enemy is executing his plan for the Internet, but my Bible still says that “...the kingdoms of this world (wide web, perhaps?) are become the Kingdom of the Lord and His Christ!”... that includes the kingdom of technology! Could it be that all this globalization and centralization can actually help facilitate the Body of Christ being ‘fitly joined together’?... certainly! Isolation is one of the most effective weapons that the enemy uses against the Church. However, globalization has brought an awareness of the members of the Body of Christ in different parts of the world, and an ability to respond in prayer, encouragement, relief, etc.

I think particularly of those Christians being martyred in the Sudan, Indonesia, Colombia, (and the list goes on)... EVERY drop of the blood of martyrdom is an earnest and guarantee of spiritual harvest. Armed with the knowledge of those being martyred, we can command and decree that spiritual harvest sweep those nations, bringing multitudes into the Kingdom! You see, the heart of God is crying out for the nations, and we too must enter into that cry. Yes, we are to impact our immediate surroundings, but we must also set our vision higher... we must look to the nations! That doesn’t mean you have to necessarily get on a plane or boat and travel to the nations either (unless God calls you to!). We can have GLOBAL IMPACT from our position of being seated in the heavenlies in Christ, far ABOVE principalities and powers, as we decree the purposes and plan of God over the nations. We must gain a global mentality! For that matter, we cannot even think of ourselves as American Christians, or African Christians or European Christians... we are all citizens of the same Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus taught us to pray, “Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on EARTH AS IT IS in heaven...”; God is in the process of bringing His Kingdom to bear upon the EARTH! It is ONE Kingdom, ONE Body of Christ! Some see the globalization that’s happening, and in fear see it leading to one World religion of worshipping the beast and getting chip implants or bar-coded; if we will read our history books we will see that this has already been fulfilled in the natural (see article on THE MARK, click this link <<http://www.mpks.net/homepage/revival/apstolic.htm>>). First the natural, then the spiritual... looking only to the natural for something that has already been fulfilled can leave us blinded to the present reality of the spiritual application.

What do I see when I look at globalization and future?... “...the earth SHALL (no question about it!) be FILLED with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.”(Hab.2:14)... I see the glory of Christ filling all in all... I see a GLOBAL many-membered MAN fulfilling the purpose and plan of the Father.

God’s invasion of globalization has already begun... let’s not bury our heads in the sand, ignoring it; let’s not huddle in fear of it; rather, let us embrace globalization, pressing forward into the purposes and plans of God. Truly, all things ARE being consummated in Christ!

Glory and Joy

Linda Patterson

As you truly know Me, I life you up into a place of resting and abiding. It is in this place that you experience My joy. Many would look at you and be perplexed that you are radiant, glowing despite the situation and circumstances you are in.

I cover you in My glory and in the beauty of holiness you are a testimony of My love and power. My joy is limitless, it knows no defeat. From deep within you comes laughter and life.

As you hold My hand and trust Me, abiding in My presence I carry you through what the natural eye appears to be a trial and much sorrow. But OH My child there is only victory and blessing and a beautiful crown of righteousness awaiting you.

Yes, My beautiful bride weeping may endure for a season but your morning is coming quickly. As I sweep over the earth with My glory, the laughter and joy of My people shall arise as preparations are being made for the return of your Conquering King.

1 Thessalonians 2:19

For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? For you are our glory and joy.

2 Timothy 4:8a

Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day.

Glory Rain

Gloria Shepherd

A Vision and Word given to Gloria Shepherd-7/14/00

Golden Glory Rain Falling From Heaven Today

As I looked I saw the glory coming down from heaven in this golden rain falling that was like glistening oil rain coming forth from the sky, falling on the earth. Let the glory rain fall, oh Lord, I cried out to Him. We are so thirsty. Let us be refreshed with this glory rain that will be like a glistening golden rain that covers us with your glory.

This morning, I was awakened by the sounds of heavy downpour of rain falling on the earth. I knew in my spirit that I was hearing the downpour of his glory rain upon the earth today in the spirit. I ran to the window in the spirit, and it was a downpour of golden rain, pouring over the earth in bucket fulls. I knew it was the downpour that we had been waiting for so long coming down from heaven today. For those who have been waiting with there faces towards heaven, awaiting this latter rain of his glory to come down, they will receive this rain that I have for them. those who have been waiting with their mouths open to receive what I have for them. those who have been thirsty for this rain, they will receive this refreshing from heaven. for they have not thirsteth after the things of this world, but of the waters of the everlasting wellspring from the river of heaven. Those will be filled today with that water from heaven that glistens like the gold of heaven.

Then He said to me, remember the vision from before. He reminded me of the vision I had had of the golden rain falling from heaven. I was looking down from heaven with Jesus, and I saw this golden rain begin to fall, and it was likened to me like a golden glisten gold oil rain falling from heaven with the glory that came with it like rain. But I remember seeing all these people on the earth, that were all holding hands around the earth, like a great circle of people that went around the earth. and all there hands were up to heaven worshiping the Lord, as one, they were all one in unity, as they praised his name and were one song unto heaven. Then I saw this golden oil rain begin to pour out mightily upon these people. All the people had their faces up towards heaven because they had been waiting for this outpouring of the rains to the earth. They all had their mouths open to heaven to receive these rains in their mouths for they were so thirsty to drink of these rains. and the golden oil rains covered their faces, and they shone like the gold of heaven with his body and as it fell down from the top of their heads, it came down their bodies and they shown with the glory of God, and the world could see his glory upon those that shown with this glory oil golden rain from heaven. No man could deny his glory was upon them, and many came to inquire of this glory that they saw shining upon these children chosen for this day and this hour. Many were saved in this hour because of what God did from heaven in this golden oil rain that poured upon the children who were waiting to receive on earth.

He said to me today, tell the saints to praise me in one accord, to hold their brothers hand and to praise me with one accord unto heaven. Let there be no divisions among you that what to receive this latter day golden rain which I am pouring out from heaven. Let this day be a day of uniting in spirit and in unity of love with the brethren. Together as one, sing to heaven the new song. Then as you praise me, open your mouths expecting to receive this anointing rain, for it will not only cover you but it shall fill you to overflowing with the anointing from heaven this day. For I am raining down a great outpouring in the spirit this day, of this new rain from heaven. Come and receive what I have for you today. my children. I wish to fill you to overflowing with this new rain. Come and receive what I have for you today.

Global Revival

Chad Taylor

'Now I see says the Lord, it is the time of harvest, a time to reap has come upon the whole earth. A time of fruition and consummation, many will see it and be glad. Great earthquakes will come, not only in the natural, but it is of the Spirit I speak to you today. Great Spiritual earthquakes are about to shake the earth. The garner of harvest will be full, the threshing floor will be shaken. I will separate the wheat from the chaff says the Lord'

The Lord then showed me the places that the greatest earthquakes had taken place in the natural, would now be the places of great revival and shaking in this hour, and He said to me, 'THESE ARE THE PLACES THAT I WILL SHAKE TODAY, THEY WILL BE THE EPI-CENTERS OF WHAT I AM ABOUT TO DO ON THE EARTH. IN THESE PLACES I WILL SHAKE THE EARTH. THE REPERCUSSIONS WILL BE FELT THROUGHOUT THE NATIONS. THE GREAT HARVEST IS UPON YOU, THE TIME OF RECONCILIATION AND TRANSFORMATION.'

I began to research the history of the greatest earthquakes recorded in world history, in accordance to the word of the Lord concerning the coming revivals in these areas and the whole earth, my discoveries were earth shaking!

- 1) CHILE- 1960 - 9.5
- 2) ALASKA- 1964 - 9.2
- 3) ALASKA- 1957 - 9.1
- 4) KAMCHATKA- 1952 - 9.0
- 5) ECUADOR- 1906 - 8.8
- 6) ALASKA- 1965 - 8.7
- 7) ASSAM- 1950 - 8.6
- 8) BANDA SEA- 1938 - 8.5
- 9) CHILE- 1922 - 8.5
- 10) KURILES- 1963 - 8.5

NATHANIEL AND ZECHARIAH

I heard the Lord then say, 'In these places I will now shake the earth. No historical equation can define what I am about to do. No book ever written can capture what you will about to see. For I will now manifest Myself to those that have loved My Father, that have loved Me. I will now open Heaven like it has never been opened since the beginning of creation. The Church has been like Nathaniel, now I say to the Church, "BECAUSE I SAID TO YOU, 'I SAW YOU UNDER THE FIG TREE,' DO YOU BELIEVE? YOU WILL SEE GREATER THINGS THAN THESE, MOST ASSUREDLY I SAY TO YOU , HEREAFTER YOU SHALL SEE HEAVEN OPENED..." (John 1:50-51).

'I am blowing on the whole earth, the great harvest angels are poised for this open Heaven, this great cloud of witnesses now stands to their feet in anticipation says the Lord. All of creation groans with groanings that cannot be uttered. My church has been Zechariah, their lips have been sealed because of unbelief, but now they will be loosed with a greater revelation of this visitation. They will speak these things and the earth will stand in awe.

The winds of Pentecost will come from My mouth says the Lord. I will blow on the embers of revival and they will burn again. The old mantels will rise from the graves of the saints. They will be worn once again. Not by a few, but an army. An army "great and strong, the like of whom has never been; Nor will there ever be any such after them, even for many successive generations..." (Joel 2:2).

ESTHER GENERATION

I will visit the widow in her distress. I will feed the orphan and sit the ones in dunghills with princes. They will come from a place of obscurity and stand before kings. For a generation of Esther was born for such a time as this. They will stand before the Pharaoh and the king and declare My word says the Lord. They will bring a great deliverance to the earth. My children will dance in the streets, they will run on the wall, they will bring healing in their wake. Now is the time for all these things says the Lord!

PREPARE YOURSELF!

Chile, prepare yourself My daughter of destiny. I have heard the cries of you children, I will now stir Myself with vengeance on the injustice of your little ones. Alaska, wake up from your place of sleep, the Prince of Peace has come to kiss you! It is time to stir yourself from your bed chambers and meet Me in the streets! Arise Alaska! Let us dance in the streets! Awake O cities of the earth, the Lord has come to visit you! He has come with healing in His wings! He has come with frankincense and Myrrh, the Rose of Sharon is in season My Bride.

"I will rise now, I said, and go about the city, in the streets and the squares I will seek the One I love..."
(Song of Solomon 3:2).

YOU WILL FIND ME IN THE STREETS!

You will find Me in this hour in the hi-ways and bi-ways of the nations says the Lord. No longer will you find Me in your cathedrals and temples, you will find Me in the streets and the hedges says the Lord. You will find Me in the hidden places, and the places of the simple and the broken. If you desire Me My love! Come and find Me! Come and find Me says the Lord!

COLOR ON THE CANVAS OF REVIVAL

I am putting color on the canvas of revival says the Lord. Where there is minority I will move powerfully. I will use the simple and the ignorant, I will defy the great minds with the miracles they do. Like Stephen, they will not be able to gainsay or resist the words they speak. With the halt and the lame I will cause the deep things to be revealed. With the prisoner and the prostitute I will now open the gates of Heaven. I will pour out a blessing they cannot contain. These diamonds in the rough will now shine brighter than the sun says the Lord. They will now shine in My glory says the Lord.

MENTAL WARD AND INSANE ASYLUMS

My church will now visit the Mount of Transfiguration, they will now be transformed by My glory and power. The world will run to the brightness of their rising. Kings will come to this light. Those in mental wards and insane asylums will have the 'eyes of their understanding enlightened' they will rise as a great army in these coming days, minds darkened by the curses of many generations, will now shine with clarity and vision says the Lord. Watch and see says the Lord, watch and see...

THE TIME OF HARVEST IS UPON YOU

The time of harvest is upon you, 'wake up your mighty ones' stir yourselves up, 'do not entangle yourselves with the affairs of this life, that you may please Him who has called you as a soldier.' Prepare your house, I am about to visit you suddenly says the Lord. Prepare your altars, the Spirit of the Most High is going to visit them. The Spirit of the Most High will kindle a fire on your altars, and the lost and the desperate will come. They will tear up the roofs of religion and ritual and lower down the sick and the lame.

GET READY SAYS THE LORD! YOUR DAY OF VISITATION HAS COME! THE TIME OF TRANSFORMATION AND TRANSFIGURATION! THIS IS YOUR GREATEST HOUR SAYS THE LORD, THIS IS YOUR GREATEST HOUR...

Glory Train - Part Two

Sandy Warner

ALL ABOARD HIS GLORY TRAIN - PART TWO

12/28/99

Hi Loved Ones,

After a year of traumatic Internet warnings and wake-up calls concerning judgment and repentance, many loved ones have turned their lives away from the compromise of carnality and towards the Lord in holiness. They have chosen to let go of the world, turn to the Lord as never before and stand in the gap against prophesied judgments. As a result of these faithful ones, entire cities, churches, homes, families and individuals became sanctioned as sealed places of refuge. The fear of dark storms is under their feet, their focus is on the Lord and their hearts are earnestly anticipating His coming glory!!!

For those who have not visited my site, this week I updated the file, "All Aboard His Glory Train." It is now 33 pages long containing some very encouraging promises of His coming glory train. Files at my site are composed of misc rhema themes from people all over the world. For those not able to visit my site and print out misc files, a few booklets are available, mentioned at the bottom of this post.

The Glory Train file contains:

- 1] ALL ABOARD HIS GLORY TRAIN
- 2] PROPHETIC EXPERIENCE: THE ROAR OF A TRAIN
- 3] VISION & WORD - AT THE TRAIN STATION
- 4] VISION: THE IS TRAIN COMING TO RELEASE THE CAPTIVES
- 5] VISION: THE PIERCING TRAIN LIGHT COMING IN POWER
- 6] TRAIN TRIVIA CONNECTS TO PROPHETIC REVELATION
- 7] THE COAL AND THE RAILROAD SPIKE
- 8] HEARD THE TRAIN WHISTLE
- 9] THE SPEEDING TRAIN
- 10] GRANDMA ANNA TRAIN RHEMA
- 11] PASTOR DALE TRAIN RHEMA
- 12] SANDY WARNER TRAIN RHEMA
- 13] SHIRLEY'S TRAIN RHEMA
- 14] LINK TO BOBBY CONNER'S TRAIN VISION
- 15] PROPHECY OF THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD
- 16] DREAM: HEALING TRAIN FROM CANADA TO PACIFIC NORTHWEST
- 17] AFFIRMATION ABOUT THE GLORY TRAIN COMING
- 18] DREAM - THE SPEEDING TRAIN THROUGH OREGON

The following glory train dream was released today via several sources on the Internet and I am posting it in case you did not read it.
My prayer for you as we cross over into uncharted territory is that you and your loved ones will remain safe under the shadow of His wings. Psalm 91.

Lovingly,
Sandy

DREAM: HEALING TRAIN FROM CANADA TO PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Jim Paul
jimpaul@globalserve.net

A 1995 DREAM ABOUT A TRAIN COMING TO HAMILTON , ON

This word about an end-time train of Signs & Wonders & Healing has been slowly growing in both my wife Dianne & I for some time. In 1995 my wife was warned about the coming removal of our home church - Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship from the Vineyard Movement in a vivid dream.

The dream was fulfilled to the most unbelievable detail. As a result, we have sought God for added insight about a train encounter at the end of the dream.

At the end of this dream she saw a powerful steam train moving out through a vast field of grain. It was clearly a time of Harvest. The light on the engine was very bright. Dianne actually hid herself from this powerful train as it approached. It was a fearful, awesome experience as it descended what looked like the Niagara Escarpment on the outskirts of the city of Hamilton, Ontario. This all took place what looked to be about Christmas time.

We began to understand this dream after Bobby Connor received the Jan.8,1997 vision about the Gold & Diamond Train. One portion of the vision describes a Signs & Wonders movement that will begin near the city of Hamilton, On. (See <www.bobbyconnor.com>)

AN ARMY OF HEALERS WILL BE RELEASED

Some months ago, during our Monday Pastors Day-off, my wife & I went for a country drive. I headed west out of the city of Hamilton on my way to Lake Huron. Dianne had fallen asleep in the car. It was just me and the Lord. He began to speak to Me in a near audible voice.

"Son take note of that highway sign you just past". It was a sign for Ingersol, a town some 50 miles away. Again a little further down the road He spoke again.

"Son, take note of this sign you are now passing". It was a sign for St. Mary's, a town some 60 miles away from the city of Hamilton. After passing the second sign the Lord explained the importance of these two signs.

"Son, a great woman, Amy Semple Macpherson , with a great gift of miracle healing was born in Ingersol, Ontario, on the west side the city of Hamilton. Also a great man John G. Lake, with a great gift of miracle healing was born in St. Mary's on the west side of Hamilton."

Right there before my eyes a vast army of women & men rose upon the land and began marching toward the city. I knew then that what had been birthed near this lowly city of Hamilton was about to be re-birthed.

A miracle healing movement would descend upon this region and then begin marching to the west and around the world. This army is unstoppable. The noise of their feet was like a steam train, pounding out it's approach.

The Lord said to me "I will again birth the John G. Lake miracle healing ministry near the city of Hamilton and let it mature in the North West, where John G. Lake finished his ministry. This is Holy Ground to Me. I always finish what I begin." (Phil1:6)

Going Around In Circles

Hollie Moody

This is long, and I apologize for that. If long articles bore you, please delete this now. If you are an intercessor, or are one who has ever been wounded in a congregation, or have felt troubled in your spirit lately and have not really known why, perhaps this article may help you.

Feel free to judge this for yourself, and either accept or reject it. If you do reject it, there is really no need to inform me that your spirit didn't bear witness with it. Just simply hit the delete button.

Going Around In Circles

A few months ago, the Lord showed me myself as I was walking along a path. This path seemed to go through forests. Along this path, I was meeting people. Some of these people had faces, and others had no facial features that I could discern. I'm not sure why, but I felt the "faceless" people were those whom I have met on-line.

I was stopping and talking with many of these people. As I made to walk on, each person would press into my hand what appeared to be a small gold nugget. I would accept it, thank them, and walk on.

Soon, both my hands were filled with these small golden nuggets. I was perplexed about what these nuggets symbolized, and looked more closely at them. I was even more bewildered to see what appeared to be tiny seeds within each golden nugget.

It wasn't until recently that I felt the Lord was telling me that each of these people I had met on my path, was a type of mentor to me. Each of these mentors had taught me a lesson (represented by the small golden nugget each of them pressed into my hand). Within each lesson each person had taught me, were small seeds. I feel these small seeds symbolize the words these people spoke to me.

As I went to leave one particular person who I had become very fond of and attached to, I looked further down the path where the Lord was leading me, and I was horrified and drew back in dismay from where the Lord was asking me to go. He was taking me right back to where I had begun my journey. He had taken me full circle, and it was something I resisted in the flesh.

As many of us have, I have experienced situations as a result of sometimes perhaps hearing from the Lord. There has been times of persecution, times of great loneliness and misunderstandings, etc. Some of these times, I am sure I brought upon myself. Yet, as these times became more intense, I began to look without the walls of my particular congregation.

At the beginning of this year (2000), I became the possessor of a computer, and literally stumbled across a web site for prophecy. I read it, found links at the bottom of the page, followed those links, etc., and found an on-line "school" which taught about the gifts of the Spirit. I joined this school, and began to share with the other "students" things the Lord seemed to share with me. In my naivety, I was under the impression this school consisted of perhaps 50 people or so. I would share things of the Lord with them, they would share things of the Lord with me. My soul drank it in. I was so starved and hungry to be around people like myself, and discuss openly and freely the things the Lord perhaps revealed to me.

Little by little, certain things I shared with others at this school were shared with their friends, and reshared, etc. People began to contact me about sharing these visions, words, dreams, and / or messages with others. I had no idea that some of these people had prophetic web sites. Until the beginning of this year, I had never heard of such a thing. I always replied, to go ahead and share with others whatever they felt led of the Lord to share. I felt whatever the Lord may have shared with me, was not "mine." Since I was still in the on-line school, I thought that whatever I shared was being judged by the "teachers," and that whoever maybe read something I shared with them, would also judge it in their own spirits (whether their spirit confirmed or rejected whatever they were reading).

This year, as I have had the honor and privilege of meeting so very many wonderful people on-line, the wounds and the pain in my heart and in my mind, appeared to lessen to a certain degree. I was among people who made me feel welcomed and accepted, and who seemed to hear from the Lord the same as I did.

Then, when I had this particular vision where the Lord showed me the "end" of the path I had been journeying upon was to the same destination I had begun my journey from (the church I presently attend), all the old wounds came flooding back upon me once again. It was then that I realized, I had never really been healed in the first place.

A while after this vision, the Lord showed me myself in a jungle battle. Bullets, etc., were whizzing around my head. When I first saw myself in this war, I had no protection on. As the vision went on, I began to clothe myself with the protection as outlined in Eph. 6. There were times in this vision that I had hidden myself in fox holes and was just hunkered down, frightened and trembling, while the bullets whizzed over and around me. Then, the Lord would tell me to get back up and get back out into the battle.

Towards the end of this vision, I saw myself stumbling out of this jungle battle. I had something cupped in my hands. I was bloody, wounded, my clothing was ripped and torn. I stumbled up to the Lord and carefully handed over to Him what was in my hands. It was then, that I saw it was my heart.

My heart was wounded and bleeding. In some places, there were scabs over the wounds on my heart.

Gently, the Lord took my heart from my hands. Then, He gently began to pry and pick away the scabs from my heart. This caused fresh bleeding (of course), and new pain. I was shocked as I watched the Lord doing this to my heart. I was asking Him what He was doing to my heart, but I never once tried to removed my heart from His hands. I gave my heart to the Lord long ago, and it is His, and will always be His.

Finally, when the Lord had removed all the scabs from my heart, He reached up to His head. It was then that I saw the crown of thorns that was still upon His brow. He removed one of the thorns from this crown of thorns, and with it, He very gently, but very firmly, pushed it straight into and through my heart.

When He did this, it was as if I actually felt it. I felt like I had been pierced. The Lord left the thorn in my heart, and my heart continued to bleed.

I have pondered much on the vision of the path I was journeying upon, and also the vision of my heart being pierced by the Lord.

This morning, the Lord showed me a circle. I was walking around this circle. I had been on this circle without even knowing I was on a circle. The Lord showed me that the beginning of my journey from my congregation, was also the ending of my journey. He had taken me full circle.

"What does this mean?" I asked the Lord.

The Lord then showed me many people on their own circle. Some of these circles had deep groves in them, as if the person had been going around in circles for quite some time. Others were like me ~ they were nearing the end of traveling upon their circle. Like I had just learned myself, they were also becoming aware of the fact that the ending of their journey was taking them right back to the beginning of their journey.

I asked the Lord to open up my understanding of this vision, and of the ones He had shown to me of the path through the forest and of the jungle battle ending in my heart being pierced.

"As you have been," the Lord spoke to me, "many of My children have been hurt and wounded within their own congregations. As you did, they began to look without the walls of their congregations to find comfort and encouragement elsewhere. I allowed this. It wasn't always My perfect will for each person, but I allowed it for many of My children.

"As My wounded children walked along, I brought others into their life to teach, strengthen, and encourage and comfort them. Some stayed still on this path, others walked on when they felt My Spirit telling them to do so.

"The more My children walked on this path, the wounds on their heart seemed to fade. Some were truly healed of the wounds inflicted upon them by their own brothers and sisters. Others were not fully healed, yet experienced a degree of healing. Still others, forced the memory of the wounds far from them, trying to ignore or deny the wounds. They proclaimed themselves healed, when actually they were simply in denial.

"Every time there was a spiritual battle, though, many of these wounded ones had no protection. When I led many from the scene of the battle, and they brought Me their heart as you did, it was a heart that was still wounded, yet calloused and hardened in many places.

"In order to still be able to touch and use these wounded ones, I had to turn their hardened, calloused heart back into a heart that was tender and touchable once again. Some resisted this, and became further hardened. They felt they were protecting themselves from further hurt and pain. They were also closing themselves off from My touch and My Spirit.

"Those who allowed Me to removed the scabs and calluses from their hearts, were once again presented with the memories of past wounds. They had a heart that was not only wounded, but was also offended. After removing the scabs and calluses from their heart, to remove the offendedness they carried within them, I pierced them. This piercing was and is to remove the spirit of anger and offendedness that so many of My wounded children struggle with.

"Those who have now had their heart touched and pierced by My hand, are facing a new challenge from Me. I am asking many of those who have been wounded in their congregations, to return or to stay where they are at.

"In the days which are coming, My judgment is about to fall. Before I judge, I convict, and I forgive and restore where there is repentance. I am holding off judgment for mercy to first be allowed to come.

"I desire to use those who have been hurt, and have then been healed by My hand, to stand in the gap for the same people who inflicted wounds upon them. Many of the ones I am asking to return to where they were wounded, or to remain where they continue to be wounded, will not have freedom to speak of what I have spoken to their spirits. They will not be a public voice speaking forth My words to the congregation. Those in their midst will largely be unaware of their purpose for being there. They will be the silent intercessors.

"I am asking a hard thing of many of these wounded ones. They will be misunderstood, ignored, passed over, overlooked, mocked and ridiculed. They will know suffering and grief, and experience terrible times of loneliness and sorrow. They will feel there is no comforter for them.

"Yet I will be their comforter. I will be with them in their secret times of prayer with Me. I ask a hard thing of them. Yet, the rewards are truly great ~ SOULS.

"Those who resist, and back away from what I am speaking to them, will once again continue on the path of their circle. And, once again, there will come a time in their journey, when they will once again come full circle. Those who continue to go around and around on this circle, are those who had the deep groves you saw in their circles.

"I will not force this on any who do not knowingly accept what I ask them to do. All may either go full circle, or continue to go around in circles. Each one must decide for themselves."

As one who has been wounded, and has now come full circle myself, I earnestly covet and desire the prayers of those intercessors who know in their spirits exactly what the Spirit is saying to us. This is hard for me myself, as it will be hard for those who accept this difficult call. Perhaps those of us who answer this call to go full circle instead of continuing to go around in circles, may become a source of encouragement for one another through prayer.

Please pray for me.

In Him,

Gold Coins

ISRAEL AND THE CHURCH - A VISION OF GOLD COINS

Friday, July 14, 2000

p.s. Around two months ago I had a vision of Israel in which I saw gatherings of angels and demons around Israel, and the Spirit spoke to me and instructed me that "the battle lines were being drawn over the land of Israel". I then saw Jesus walking amongst the Arab people and they seemed to be fleeing from danger. Jesus Himself drew the Arab people under His protection and was their strong defender.

THE GOLD COINS

I saw a vision of the land of Israel and on the land I noticed a pile of gold coins. Beside this pile of gold coins, I could see an Arab woman dressed in black, the only visible part of her body was her eyes. She glanced at the pile of gold coins and immediately covered her eyes with her veil. She glanced again at the coins and this time was physically sick. The sight of the coins repulsed her. The gold coins symbolize the malady of materialism affecting the church and also her (the church's) pitiful adornment in rags of self-righteousness.

THE CHURCH HAS EXCHANGED HER BRIDAL GARMENTS FOR A TALENT OF GOLD --And a Trumpet call to Intercessors throughout the World

The Spirit impressed this thought to my mind "The Church has exchanged her bridal garments for a talent of gold". With this came another vision, and this time I saw the pile of gold coins in one half of a huge pair of scales, the other half being empty. I sensed the holy and just judgment of God was imminent and with trembling and great fear I sought the Lord's Wisdom. The scales were shown over Israel and I believe this speaks of a significant kingdom moment. It is a trumpet call to intercessors throughout the world to come and stand in the gap for the whole of Israel - the people (Jews and Arabs) and the land that God has predestined to the descendants of Abraham.

DO NOT PETITION THE THRONE OF GRACE FROM A PLACE OF SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS

Children of God, we dare not petition the throne of Grace from a posture of self-righteousness. Let us repent for the defilement of the priesthood, pleading that the Blood of the Lamb will cleanse us. God is faithful to forgive if we will but humble ourselves under His mighty hand. In so doing, He is able to exalt us, by conforming us to the image of His precious and Righteous Son. From this posture of humility, we may come before God on behalf of the church in Israel, pleading for mercy, pleading for the veil to be removed from our precious Jewish brothers and sisters hearts', pleading for our precious Arab brothers and sisters to turn from the abomination of Islam and embrace Jesus.

THE BALANCE OF THE SCALES IS CHANGED BY WEEPING

I began to cry and I asked the Lord "what should we do?". I found myself actually sitting in the empty scale basin and the tears that I wept began to fill the scale. I looked up to heaven and saw Jesus looking down with great compassion in His eyes, and He too, was weeping. As we wept together the balance of the scales was changed.

God calls us to be His prayer partners. He calls us to defining moments in history, moments that mark eternity. He calls us in our smallness to yield to His mighty Spirit. He calls us in our weakness to be vessels of His grace. He calls us to pray in the mercy for those we will one day embrace in heaven, yet may never meet this side of eternity. He is calling us at this time to extraordinary prayer on behalf of the people and the land of Israel.

PARABLE OF THE "TALENTS"

"Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on a journey. The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained give more. So also, the one with the two talents gained two more. But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money"

"After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents brought the other five. 'Master he said you have entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.' "His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'. "

"Then the man who had received the one talent came . . . So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.'

"His master replied, 'You wicked lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

"Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' Math 25 14-30

REPENTANCE FOR MISUSE OF OUR ONE TALENT OF GOLD

I offer this vision to you as one intercessor to another. I believe that time is of the essence and we (the church) must repent for our misuse of the 'talent of gold' that the Lord has entrusted to us. We have abused what He has given to us.

The Lord has entrusted us with a 'talent of gold', yet for the most part we have hidden His treasure from the world. In our hearts, we have been like the servant with only one talent of gold, for we have buried the gold of His Presence under fields of fear, and have withheld heaven's treasury from the hungry and thirsty, preferring to selfishly indulge ourselves whilst not meeting the need of others. Surely Jesus has entrusted us with His blessings in order that we would be His servants and reach out in love to a dying world? It is the Lord's delight to see His Righteousness multiplied. He calls us to live in His abundance, but to do so we must choose to be those who will give without counting the cost. We must learn to be faithful with little, in order that we are able to be entrusted with more.

I cannot bear the thought of Jesus saying "worthless servant" because I was too lazy or too complacent with the 'talent' He has entrusted to me. As His Bride we must be willing to turn from our self-righteousness condition and tendency towards materialism and instead embrace His righteousness.

God's Eunuchs

Brad Herrin

4/22/2000 - The Five-fold Ministers

God is raising up ministers in this hour to be used to prepare a Bride for His Son. These ministers must be as eunuchs in regard to the Bride, they must not draw the Bride's affections to themselves, nor must they touch the Bride in an unholy way.

Like the eunuch Hegai spoken of in the book of Esther, God is raising up ministers to prepare the bride that she might be presented to the King. Like Hegai, these ministers know what is pleasing to the King and they have been charged with preparing the virgin Bride to know how to enter into the King's presence and how to conduct herself before Him.

A most serious charge has been laid upon these ministers, all the affection and passion of the Bride must be directed toward the Bridegroom. God's ministers must be as eunuchs among the Bride, they are not to be recipients of the Bride's passion. They are not to touch her in an unholy manner. The minister is to seek nothing for self from the Bride. His needs are in God's hands.

God is speaking much through Hollywood and movies in this day, even movies that many in the church would write off as being unholy or profane. There are indeed elements in many of these movies that are unrighteous, but God's word says that His ministers are to be able to judge between the holy and the profane. They should be able to discern what is truth, even in a setting of unrighteousness.

Last night the Father revealed truth to me in the movie, "The Mummy." The movie began in ancient Egypt when Seti II was Pharaoh. He had a mistress who was beautiful and which no hand of man had been allowed to touch. Only Pharaoh's hands could touch her.

Pharaoh's high priest was Imhotep, and he violated this law of Pharaoh. Imhotep and Pharaoh's mistress became attracted to one another, and when found out, they killed Pharaoh. Pharaoh's bodyguard then put them to death. The very worst death devised was reserved for Imhotep.

The message in this movie is clear. As ministers we are charged with the preparation and beautification of the Bride of Christ. The Bride is reserved for Christ Jesus alone. The worst judgment is reserved for those ministers who place their hands upon the Bride of Christ.

The Father reminded me of Joseph when he was sold into Egypt and was placed in the house of Potiphar. Everything in Potiphar's house was entrusted to Joseph. Only Potiphar's wife was placed off limits. To touch her would be to sin against God and violate the trust Potiphar had placed in Joseph.

It is said that Joseph was handsome in form and appearance and that Potiphar's wife was attracted to him. Day after day she urged Joseph to lie with her, but he refused. Even so, God is pouring out an anointing upon His ministers, even to having the supernatural revealed in and through them. His glory will rest upon His ministers and many, even among the Bride, will find their appearance to be comely and attractive. They will urge the ministers to lie with them.

As Joseph fled from Potiphar's wife, so God's ministers must flee from this illicit affection. The passion of the Bride is reserved for Christ Jesus alone. No man must allow himself to become the willing object of the Bride's affections. As Paul and Barnabas entreated others to not worship them, so must the minister of God direct all worship and praise to the Son of God.

While Joseph was in Potiphar's house, he was responsible for all things. This included making sure provision was given to Potiphar's wife. As ministers, we too are to make sure provision is given to the Bride. However, the Bride is off limits to us. We must not touch her in an unholy manner.

Joseph was in a place of loneliness, having been rejected by his brothers and separated from his family and his home. He had suffered much rejection and this made him vulnerable to the illicit affection and desire of another. However, Joseph understood that he stood before God and that his life was in God's hands.

Even so, many ministers, particularly the prophets and apostles God is raising up, have suffered much. Many have been rejected by their brethren and some have been separated from the place they once called home. This rejection makes them vulnerable to the illicit affections and desires of others, even from the Bride. They must understand that they stand before God and refuse to receive this affection, or to lay hands on the Bride in an unholy manner. To do so will bring forth the judgment of God upon His minister.

The Bride, her passion and affection, is reserved for the Bridegroom. We are to prepare her for Him. We are to stir up her passion for Him. We are to in no way steal any of her affections away to meet a need in our lives. We are to be eunuchs in God's household. May God find us faithful in the stewardship entrusted to us. We will have our reward from His hand.

Getting Off the Kingdom Dole

Russ Walden

The Welfare Mentality Of The Church

"I'm not getting fed at church anymore...." ? We've all made that statement at times. Ask yourself a question: is the local church a food stamp office, or an employment service? Are our gatherings expressions of dependence on a priest-class/clergy or of empowerment by the indwelling Christ? Christ, or the anointing in the clergy is not our hope of glory. Only Christ in you is the hope of Glory (Col. 1:27) This is what Paul preached. It is NOT the general message of the Church today. Even our structure focuses outward to some greater source than the indwelling Christ. In service with a pulpit and pew arrangement, the unspoken statement is, "there is only one person here who has anything of value to contribute. Jesus speaks of Himself as the Bread of Life. Our pastors and ministers stand in the pulpit with great eloquence to "break the bread of life" in their teachings. is God's original intent for the church to be a bread line, a soup kitchen for the spiritually unemployed? Is the highest expression of spiritual life, to be on the "Kingdom Dole"? Paul dealt this after a fashion in his day: 2 Thess. 3:12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. (see the context in the previous verse) 3:10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. When a minister stands before the people he is giving you the bread, the JESUS that he worked for, and put forth effort to prepare and give out to those that are hungering and thirsting. And this is as it should be, with one great exception: The faces in the bread line never change. The spiritually impoverished never move from Spiritual Welfare to the Work of the Father. And sadly, the pastors, as Spiritual Social Workers, don't want the crowds to move on lest they find themselves without a job. The clergy needs the Welfare Christian, they depend upon the Spiritual Poverty Mentality in the church. The members come each week to renew their entitlement and the pastors are elated, because the generational curse of spiritual poverty is part and parcel of their job security. Is there any wonder in the church there is so much criticism of the welfare culture? As face answers to face in a glass so the heart of man answers to the heart of man.

The Father wants you to grow into a maturity where you prepare and eat YOUR OWN BREAD, and MINISTER TO OUR OWN FAMILY rather than depend on the professional priest class to provide what the Father expects you to procure for yourself.

God expects every believer to nourish himself on the Jesus that lives within his own soul. When I stand and deliver, I am feeding you MY BREAD. I worked for it, I put forth labor and preparation to give you this living bread. But God intends for you to learn how to feed yourself, and eat your own bread, to nourish yourself on the indwelling Christ in your own heart. If this is not the effect of my ministry to you, then I am a false ministry. The mark of a true ministry is empowering believers to provide for themselves and their families what the is being made available.

Ephesians 4:11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

It is not the fivefold ministry's sole purpose to edify the body of Christ. They are primarily equippers who should train you to come into the corporate meetings and in your homes and feed one another. This is the calling of every believer, not just a few. Those who will not accept this responsibility and exercise this ministry will always suffer from spiritual malnutrition. God will not allow those who will not work to eat at his table.

Remember what Jesus told his disciples after ministering to the woman at the well. He was famished and sent them to get food. In the meantime he met the woman at the well. Later, he was not hungry when they offered him food. He said, "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me..." There is a place of fullness and spiritual nourishment that the Christian Religious System cannot lead God's people to. The pulpit and pew arrangement is like the arrangement at the pool of Bethesda where the angel came to stir the waters. Only one in a thousand truly got what was available, every one else was left empty and frustrated. More and more, people who are pressing in to meaningful life in Christ are going to operate on the "Round table" principle. They will not leave the work of ministry to the elect few. They will learn to nourish themselves, and to deal the bread of life in their own hearts to the hungering and thirsting. John 6:35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

The only way to truly COME to JESUS is to place your dependence on CHRIST IN YOU, the hope of glory (Col. 1:27). You see, Christ IN ME is not YOUR hope of Glory. Christ in your pastor, Christ in the well known media minister is not your hope of Glory. The only hope of God's glory revealed in your heart and life is that personal presence of the son of God indwelling your own being from the time you gave your heart to him. Can you see this? Ministry that leaves you more impressed with who THEY are in CHRIST than who CHRIST is IN YOU... That is FALSE MINISTRY. Two men can preach the same message, but one leaves you dependent on Christ magnified in HIM while the other minister while quite forgettable personally leaves you caught up and enamored with Christ indwelling your own being.

Isaiah 58:6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? 7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out into thy house?

True evangelism is to Deal YOUR Living Bread to the Hungry. Firstly those who hunger in the Household of Faith, and then those in the world that are hungering and thirsting. Don't point them to Jesus in the pastor, or someone else. That is the Jesus you are to share, the one that you have seen and heard. Give them your bread. That is every believers ministry. If we don't work, we will not eat.

Going On the Offensive

Mike Forest

It doesn't take one very long to realize that being a Christian means that he has enlisted in the army of God and is now involved in warfare. Of course the enemy would like to sidetrack us into either giving the devil more attention than he deserves or by believing that because he was defeated by our Lord that there is no conflict that we are to enter into.

The Word of God says that we are to fight the good fight of faith. It is a good fight because Jesus has already won the victory, and we are to stand in the victory of our Lord and Savior who was manifested to destroy the works of the devil.

One of the primary reasons why many Christians are being defeated by the enemy is because to a large degree they are fighting a defensive battle. What do you think would happen if you participated in a sporting event and all that you played is defense? You could have the best defense in the world, but you would not win any games without an offense, because the offense are the ones that put the points on the board. The Christian's Armour is mainly for protection, and this Armour must be put on every day, but the Lord has not only provided protection from the attacks of the enemy, but He has also given us mighty offensive weapons in which we are not only to defend our position, but we are to use these mighty weapons to attack the enemy and take back that which belongs to God.

Back in the days when I was in school, you didn't fight with knives and guns like they do now. A very effective way to win a fight back then was to use the sucker punch. This would literally take the wind out of the unsuspecting opponent and the element of surprise would very often give the victory to the one who threw the first punch. We cannot allow the enemy to dictate the battle. If we do, we will find that our position is weakened, and we will be fighting from a defensive position. It is time that the Body of Christ rise up in the power and authority of Jesus Christ, and begin to attack the enemy and spoil his goods.

There are three primary offensive weapons that I would like to talk about: They are The Name of Jesus, The blood of Jesus, and The Word of God.

"In my name shall they cast out devils." (Mark 16:17). The Christian has been given authority over the enemy through the name of Jesus. The early church had revelation on the power that is in the name of Jesus, and it is clear that everything that they did was in that precious name that is above every other name in heaven and in earth. They baptized in the name of Jesus. They healed the sick in the name of Jesus. They prayed in the name of Jesus, and they cast out devils in the name of Jesus. It is essential that we know that we have been given authority over all of the power of the enemy, and this authority is in the name of Jesus.

There is nothing that the devil hates more than the precious blood of Jesus. The believer overcomes the accuser of the brethren by the blood of the Lamb. Our victory has been secured for us because of the blood of Jesus. No wonder the enemy is so intent in attempting to steal the blood out of our hymn books. There is power in the blood of Jesus. There is victory in the blood of Jesus. There is deliverance in the blood of Jesus. "That through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the devil, and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lives subject to bondage." (Hebrews 2:14,15).

The Word of God is the sword of the Spirit, and Jesus Christ used The Word of God very effectively against the enemy when He was being tempted by the evil one. We also overcome the wicked one by "the word of our testimony." Jesus Christ has given the church the keys to the kingdom of heaven, "that whatsoever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." (Matt. 16:19). God's Word proclaims that "the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds." (2 Corinthians 10:4). The strongholds of the enemy are being torn down as we proclaim the truth of God's Word. Jesus Christ said that "if you continue in my Word, then are you my disciples indeed, and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:31, 32).

The name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus, and the Word of God are three mighty weapons that the Lord has given to the church for the purpose of taking back from the devil all that was lost through the fall of man.

In His Love,
Mike

Gospel in the Arts

Charlene Solo

My prophecy is not like the ones on your board, it is fairly brief. I am Jewish and not currently affiliated with a church but have attended the local Open Door church in N. California. Please reconsider posting my "word" from G-d, it is most assuredly real. I do not have visions or get words regularly every week, but this is something He has told to me for the past 40 years or so. Here goes:

The coming revival in the world will be precipitated by many Jewish people through the arts - not only music but television, movies, painting, digital media, poetry, etc. The city of "Hollywood" will be re-claimed for its original purpose, to proclaim the gospel to the world. This may not happen until a certain amount of anti-semitic persecution comes to Jews in America, but the time will come. Christ will be proclaimed, not in mediocre ways, but in the most excellent. This is a "new" avenue of proclaiming the gospel that will be resisted by the "oldtime" way of the organized church. It is time to sing a new song.

The Land of Goshen, “Rings of Fire”

Scott Hofstee

www.thedaysofthunder.faithweb.com/goshenmaps

www.thedaysofthunder.faithweb.com

We have added another Goshen to the revelation that the Lord has given us concerning the place of Goshen. It is Moscow, Russia. We have added color maps of the each Goshen. Along with a more detailed explanation of the Land of Goshen. We have added as well, prophetic words that speak to these areas as well. They are all for you to judge by the Spirit of God.

Zephaniah 3:8-9

8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination [is] to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, [even] all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

In August of 1998 while in a home meeting. A sister from Hawaii, spoke a prophetic word to me. She said that I was called “to read the maps.” She said that when I put my hands on the maps the Lord would began to speak to me. At the time I really did not know what to think about it. I considered it and sought the Lord but didn’t really feel the Lord saying much. So at that time, I put it on the shelf and pondered it in my heart as Mary did when she was told that was going to give birth to the Messiah. It was at that time the Lord was beginning to call my brother and I out of our work as carpenters. I eventually felt strongly led of the Lord to quit my job by the end of January of 1999. My brother was already out and we began to seek the Lord as to what He would have us to do. The first of February the Lord began to show us a glimpse of His kingdom and His plan in these last days as it relates to the Goshens and His coming governmental order. We had not really understood what Goshen meant. The only thing it meant to me was the fact that I had gone to kindergarten in Goshen, California as a boy. The Lord began to speak to us regarding this place. First of all Goshen was mentioned as the place that Israel settled in Egypt when famine struck the land and Joseph was in Pharaoh’s house. It was the place therefore that the children of Israel dwelled in when the plagues were brought against Egypt, when Moses, the deliverer was sent to bring God’s people out of Egypt, which is a type of the world. The Lord used this as a type for the place in the wilderness, described in Revelations 12:6 and the woman spoken of in that whole chapter. There is no rapture brothers and sisters. It is a manufactured lie from the enemy. There is the coming of the manifest sons of God, spoken of Romans 8, specifically verses 19-25, Revelations 12, and Isaiah 66. These are not revelations to all but it is not taught in much of the organized church. But the Lord has always had a remnant that has known. Prior to the Lord revealing it to us by the Spirit, we were of the pretribulation rapture camp. Looking for an escape in the storms that are coming. But when the Spirit of the Living God began to show us the truth, we knew that He had always had a plan to take the earth back and manifest His resurrection life in a people in these last days. Our God is not afraid of lucifer. He was created with intention of using him for evil. Many will not like that but it is spoken very clearly scripture in Isaiah 45:6-8, Isaiah 54:16, Ezekiel 28:15-16, John 8:44. Him manifesting his evil makes the revelation of our God and our Savior all the more profound. It was all planned before the foundations of the earth. He is going to bring us back to the Garden of Eden. The Lord began in the early days of March 1999 to lead me to maps of the world and began to show me Goshens. I began to look for confirmation of what we were seeing and hearing by the Spirit. I stumbled upon a line in the "Shepherd's Rod 1999" from Bob Jones. He said on page 12 of the revelation,

"The coming apostolic ministers will be as a pillar of cloud by day and the anointed prophet will be as a pillar of fire by night. Each will provide a canopy of protection through the Holy Ghost, even as Israel was protected during the judgment of Egypt. The shelter of Goshen will become apparent in the coming season. This year will actually see the beginning of the captivity for Egypt and the plainly defined provision for God's people."

Bob Jones, Shepherd's Rod 1999

The Lord also brought me to a copy of a map of the United States that the Lord showed Nita Johnson in a revelation a number of years back. As I put the Goshens down in relationship to what the Lord showed her in the revelation she had titled, "Prepare for the Winds of Change." They all seemed to be located outside of the areas she saw as being judged. You may look at this document at Bill Somers, End Time Prophetic Vision

I believe that there will be twelve Goshens. As of this date I have seen eight. They have been shown to me as "Rings of Fire" and have modeled the compartments of the temple in this respect. They will have a place that is fifty miles in radius around the epicenter of the Goshen, that will be as the Holy of Holies and the area out side of that area will be as the inner court. I believe the outer court will be given over to the Gentiles as mentioned in Revelations 11:1-2. The Lord began to speak to my wife first about the "rings of fire and then He gave me a word for it as well. They are posted here.

A Word through Kamilla Hofstee on March 11, 1999

My glory is coming as a crown. My glory falls as rings of fire. The clouds are parting for My glory to descend upon those I have chosen to carry it out into the world.

A Word through Kamilla Hofstee on March 18, 1999

The rings of fire I bring, will burn so brightly, all will see. Some will look away because they can't stand the brightness. Others will flock to it, like moths to a light. My love shines brighter than the sun. It will reach out into the darkness and snatch people from the one who seeks to destroy. Ones we thought not.

A Word through Scott Hofstee on June 13, 1999

Behold the rings of fire, My people! Behold the place of My presence! Behold what I do in this hour! For now the hour is at hand when I bring My government to this earth. Now I bring the establishment of My Goshens. I call now to My people, come out from among them and be separate. For now I establish those places in the presence of your enemies, to take you through the flood of the enemy. Come forth, people of God and hear the words of My prophets, for they shall lead you to these places in the days ahead. You must heed them, for I do nothing lest I tell My servants first. (Amos 3:7) My people, those who will hear, are about to come into healing, they are about to come into new life. For what I bring is new life. Resurrection life. It is not fully understood at this time, by My people, but I AM about to reveal it as never before. You are about to see and experience a newness of life that has never been seen. It will reveal the places of darkness and fill the places of your life with Me. For I AM the resurrection and the life. Behold My fire, My people, for it comes to consume, it comes to purify, and it comes to make a way in the wilderness. For these rings of fire, will be a place in the wilderness, for she, whom I desire most. She for whom My heart yearns for. She for whom I gave My life. Behold the protection of My beloved. For I AM jealous for her. He who will move against her moves against Me. For the darkness is falling but so is My light but My light will cause the darkness to fall into the abyss, never more to rule the earth. It is the hour of My given ones, My people. It is the hour of My chosen ones. They will come forth now. It is the time to make My name known throughout the earth. For am I not the God of the earth and are you not My people?

Brothers and sisters in the Lord, the time has come for the revelation of the kingdom to come forth. Will you refuse to accept it because it does not fit into your preconceived belief system? Or your denominational position? We are all about to be introduced to the Lord of the Earth. We are about to realize how little of the kingdom that we really knew. We have trusted supposed “men of God” who had all the formal training and charisma but did not have a revelation of who Yeshua Messiah is. We have all tried to fit Him into our box and say there is no more revelation to be revealed. This is nonsense and it is exactly what the enemy of our souls would have us believe. For us to believe that we will ever completely grasp the magnitude of who our Lord is, is nothing more than vanity and arrogance. The Goshens revelation is the hope of God’s people in the perilous times ahead. It will be where He establishes His kingdom at first and then the His witnesses (His manifest sons) will finally end up in Jerusalem to repeat what happen the first time, when Jesus was crucified. It will be proof that our Lord was able to manifest the fullness of what He did when He died and was resurrected. Only this time it will be in fallen men. Praise our God! For He is coming and every eye will behold Him for they will see Him as He is. Blessings to you as you look at these pages. If you have any questions please feel free to contact us at our email address: shofstee@spkn.uswest.net Blessings to all in the name of our Lord!

God's Suddenlies

John Kilpatrick

Not long ago, as I was preparing to preach in a church up north. I felt the Lord impress upon me these words.

"What I am about to do, I am going to do suddenly."

When I heard this, I thought of judgment; but immediately thereafter I thought of breakthrough. I believe that God is moving the church into a season of suddenlies. He wants to get us prepared for this special season. I believe God is going to move in quick, rapid, sudden activity in regard to the promises of His word.

There are things that He has spoken to your soul and dreams He has put in your heart that you have not seen come to fruition. There are things that you know are in the will of God but you can't understand why they haven't come to pass yet. God says, "For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth." Romans 9:28.

He is going to do it quicker than you thought. This means that He is not going to do it by your ingenuity or by your works but rather by His righteousness. Some of you have gone through struggles, fought battles, stood toe to toe and nose to nose with strong demons for many years. You have been battling, yet you are still holding on to the promises of God. It has been a long night and a weary journey. You are so burdened and so belabored that you have lost the expectancy that our God can move swiftly and suddenly. You have asked God, "How long must I wait until the answer comes?"

GOD IS ABOUT TO RISE UP!

Don't lose courage and don't lose hope because God is about to rise up and do a fast and speedy, sudden thing! He is the author and finisher of your faith. What God has started in you, He will finish. Jesus is in an intercessory posture at the right hand of God just for us. God is still on the throne! Don't lay your hand to the promises of God and try to force what God has told you.

There are some things God has promised that he wants to let lie dormant in your life. Proverbs 13:12 says, Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh it is a tree of life." The heart becomes sick when it says, "I thought I had a promise from God. I thought I had a word from God." As time goes by, your heart begins to grow weary and get sick and it causes anxiety to set in. Your spiritual pulse increases so that you can foster some kind of energy to try and bring it about the expectations of your soul on your own. Please be careful because all that leads to is more problems like it did with Abraham and Sarah. You need to wait on God to bring it forth in righteousness. Isaiah chapter 10, God delights in reminding us of four things that He did quickly.

FOUR THINGS DONE QUICKLY

These four things have a tremendous influence and impact on our lives today because we go through the same things.

(1) Isaiah 10:23 says, "For the Lord of Hosts shall make a consumption, even determined in the midst of all the land." Verse 26 says, "And the Lord of Hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb..." Midian, at the rock of Oreb, is the story of Gideon. The Israelites were oppressed by the Midianites for seven years. Every year at harvest, the Midianites would gather by the thousands, come down and scatter Israel to the mountains and steal their harvest. Where was Israel's blessing after all the long hard work?

It seemed that Israel's blessings were being aborted. "Aborted blessings" are blessings that have been sabotaged by Satan. So many people in America have labored long and hard for the harvest but are driven back to the mountains by the enemy who comes in and reaps their harvest. Indeed, God is going to let us reap our dreams. In conjunction with the realization of your vision and fulfill your call without it destroying you.

CAN'T REMEMBER WHEN YOU WERE LAST FREE?

(2) "As His rod was upon the Red Sea, so shall He lift it up after the manner of Egypt." Isaiah 10:26.

When Moses got to the Red Sea, he had a people with him that could not remember when they were not in bondage. Israel was a nation of slaves. They had never handled weapons or fought in battle. They were not skilled in archery nor had they handled a spear or wielded a knife. They were slaves. Yet, after their deliverance, they became some of the most skilled soldiers in the world. I am waiting to see what God can do with the church when it gets totally free from the world and it's bondage. The Lord says, "There are so many people in my house that I have saved and cleansed from their sins, but they cannot remember a day when they have truly been free."

TWO AND A HALF MILLION PEOPLE SAW SUDDEN VICTORY

When Moses lifted his rod over the Red Sea 2 1/2 million people who had never known anything but bondage saw victory for the first time in their lives. Many of you love the Lord and respect Jesus and don't want to go to hell, but you have never experienced freedom. I tell you, God is about to do a powerful, sudden thing in America. A nation of slaves is going to say, 'Glory to God! Our victory has come.'

(3) Isaiah 28:21 says, "For the Lord shall rise up as in Mount Perazim..." David had just been anointed king of Israel. He was finally in the position that God had for him when the Philistines came to seek him out. God is saying, "When I begin to fulfill something powerful in your life, something that you have been believing me for years, it will always be tested by an adversarial act."

Hell is not going to sit by and let you come into what God has for you without a fight. Perazim means, "a rapid breakthrough". It means that God reverses the natural order of things as He did with Jacob and Esau. It is a divine reversal in order that you may be blessed.

GOD'S STRANGE ACTS

(4) "He shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act" Isaiah 28:21. I believe it is time for strange things to occur. It is not time for the predictable. At Gibeon, there was a man by the name of Joshua who had made a commitment to be a defender of the people of Gibeon. He got into a battle with the enemy and was outnumbered. Joshua began to overcome the enemy but the sun started to go down.

The Bible says that Joshua called out to the sun (that is strange) and commanded it, "Sun be still!" I believe that God longs to see us obtain the victory so much that He is willing to go to any extent just for us to relish and enjoy our victory. God has seen us defeated long enough. God is telling you in no uncertain terms that He has not forgotten you!!! He is going to visit you and fulfill what He said He was going to do in your life. In days to come, the Holy Spirit is going to revive in your heart the things He has promised you. A spirit of expectancy is going to come over you. The Bible said, 'Believe the prophets, so shall ye prosper' 2 Chronicles 20:20. God is going to come back and revisit you. Believe that word and let God resurrect some things in your life that He promised you.

He is already bringing some things to your mind that He promised you a long time ago. Don't give up too quickly. God is about to move in a mighty way. The church age started suddenly in Acts chapter 2 and the church age will end suddenly with the catching away of the saints (1 Thessalonians 4) If God starts the church age suddenly and ends it suddenly, doesn't it make sense that He wants to do some suddenlies in the meantime? I strongly believe that the greatest days of the church age are right before us. EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED!!!!

Government Of God

Doug Fortune

Is. 9:6-7 “...and the GOVERNMENT shall be upon His shoulder... of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end.”;

Col.3:15-16 “...and let the PEACE of Christ rule (govern) in your hearts... let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom...”

Government... when we hear that word, many of us think of laws and taxes and hierarchies of officials appointed by men. Church government... when we hear that word, unfortunately many think of laws and taxes (of course we call it giving) and hierarchies of officials appointed by men. Now don't get me wrong here, I DO understand functional authority; we must have order and organization in the church. Many problems in the church are a result of inaccurate understanding of functional authority; i.e. the false clergy/ laity system, or the role of a 'pastor', or the absence of apostles and prophets. Before we can sort out these 'functional authority/ government' issues accurately, we must first turn our eyes to a higher government.

The word that is translated as 'government' in Isaiah 9 is misrah; it comes from the word sawraw, which is a primary root meaning to prevail, to have power. The word translated as 'rule' in Col. 3 is brabeuo, meaning to govern, to prevail. Now if governing means prevailing, then obviously there is something we are prevailing against... and we must understand what IT is, before we can prevail against it!

“...we do not war after the flesh... to the pulling down of strongholds, casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God...”(2Cor.10:3-5); or as the Amplified Bible says, “...we refute arguments and theories and reasonings... and we lead EVERY thought and purpose away captive into the obedience of Christ.” I believe that what we are to prevail against are the carnal mentalities of the Adam nature. Eph. 6:12 also tells us that we wrestle “...against principalities, against powers, against rulers of darkness...”; in order to prevail or govern we must understand how spiritual entities operate within the bounds of spiritual authority.

Evil must have an entrance into the earth and this is found through the iniquity and sin of man. You see, a principality is really a demonic spirit that operates through a 'principle' that MAN gives authority to, '...whatever YOU bind (that is, declare to be legally binding) on the earth shall be bound in heaven...' (Mt.16:19). We bind on the earth who we ARE in the earth and what we DECLARE in the earth! The way you defeat a principality is by establishing via your LIFESTYLE, your very presence, a higher 'principle'. Principalities, powers, demonic forces only have authority in the realm of the SOUL (or the natural realm), and only as man gives them entrance by operating in those 'principles' of darkness. We defeat them as we live from the realm of the SPIRIT, a higher realm of authority... we are literally bringing the Kingdom of heaven (the spiritual realm) to bear upon the kingdom of this world. This happens NOT by shouting at a demon, but rather by walking as the manifestation of Christ in the earth... warfare automatically erupts as we walk into the situation by reason of our very presence, or actually the presence of Christ IN US. THEN we can shout at that demonic force! This is the government that must be established first... the governing of the SOUL by the SPIRIT and from this position of being under and within the authority of Christ, the SOUL under the authority of the SPIRIT, then we declare the Kingdom of God on earth.

You see, the government is upon His shoulder, and WE are His BODY; so as the Body of Christ, the government is upon OUR shoulder also. Now, I don't know what's on your shoulders, but the thing on my shoulders is my head... I must have an accurate mentality in order to govern or prevail. I'm not talking about just having made mental ascent to an apostolic concept either, I'm talking about our SOUL being governed by our SPIRIT, taking on the MIND of Christ.

You'll notice that the verses we are working from speak of PEACE closely tied to governing and prevailing... my friend, if you are always stressed out, then you are not living from your SPIRIT. Much of our stress stems from uncertainty and worry, which is based in fear. Fear can be a powerful controlling influence in a person's life, and yes, even in their ministry. Thousands of 'Christian' books are sold each year that produce fear and anxiety over the future... is this really the plan of God? Some stress comes from over-commitment, trying to do 'too much for God'; spiritual burnout is rampant in many ministries today. Zoe SPIRIT Life is submitted to and always aware of the sovereignty of God, and that it is His plan and His work in us and through us. Yes, we must cooperate but it is His work... we do our job, not someone else's and certainly not His job!

Once this understanding of His sovereignty and His peace has been established in us, then we can approach issues of functional authority and governing. You see, the Kingdom or government within us determines the kingdom around us... until the one is established, the other will not function properly. Having established this foundation, let's explore a bit of functional government... specifically the role of the prophet as they relate to the apostle/ leader/ pastor (or for most churches, the leader they call 'pastor', however inaccurate that title may be; for illustration purposes I'll use the term pastor/ leader. In most cases, true pastors are not very good leaders, and true leaders are not good pastors, they are a very different function. Also, I'm not saying that prophets are never leaders, many times they are, I'm just dealing with the spiritual perception aspect.)

Keep in mind that Christ is your Head, NOT another man or woman and that "... there is only ONE mediator between God and man, the Man Christ Jesus..."(1Tim.2:5); but we also must submit to one another in love, especially in matters of functional authority. In most churches (inaccurate as it may be) the person called pastor is ultimately where the buck stops in matters of functional responsibility (when something is wrong, they get the phone calls). As a leader, they are the one who takes the information they receive and distribute it to the different parts of the Body to get done what needs to get done, a bit like the brain in the human body. (Ideally this is not just one person but a plurality of leadership, that's another subject though.) The prophet is a bit like the eyes and ears (I'm not saying prophets don't have brains... I ARE one! sorry, that's my attempt at humor)... they have spiritual vision and hearing; they provide vital input to the brain. Now a brain without input is either sleeping or watching TV!... unfortunately, this is the case in many churches; they are asleep or being entertained. The brain must receive and submit to the information provided by vision and hearing... likewise, the pastor/ leader must receive the prophetic. Now, not everything your eyes or ears perceive is useful or pertinent information, that's for the brain to decipher. So if you tell 'pastor' something and he/ she doesn't do anything about it, don't get too bent out of shape. The functional responsibility is theirs not yours, you just REST in the sovereignty of God, knowing it is now between 'pastor' and God. Now unless you've established the government WITHIN that I spoke of at the first of the article, you'll probably find it impossible to rest in the PEACE of God's sovereignty. You may take matters into your own hands and try to force or manipulate 'pastor' into doing something; then government turns into anarchy! Many prophetic people go through life frustrated and stressed because 'the leadership won't do what I tell them, and I KNOW I heard God!' ... this is an inaccurate understanding of government.

If YOU happen to be the pastor/ leader, even though the functional authority and responsibility lies with you, if your eyes and ears (the prophetic) keep telling you something, then you need to listen! Don't REBEL against the vision and hearing that God has provided through the prophetic, otherwise you'll end up in a spiritual vacuum of sorts (without prophetic input)... thinking everyone around you is rebellious, when in fact it is a reflection of your OWN rebellion against the government of God. Obviously I am speaking of proven prophetic people you know, not just anyone who claims to be a 'prophet'.

If as pastor/ leader OR prophet you are truly established in the government of the SOUL by the SPIRIT, prevailing against inaccurate and carnal mentalities, then you will be able to submit to one another in love... resting in the PEACE of the sovereignty of God. Let the government of God be firmly established in the earth!... and remember, we bind on earth who we ARE in the earth! Come, Thy Kingdom... be done, Thy will... on earth as it is in heaven!

God's Presence in the Temple

Roseanne Harney

(Haggai 1:3-15) I am watching a woman who is folding clothing and straightening up her home. I can see her in the bathroom and she is hanging up fresh clean towels. She stands back to see if they look straight, I can see that there is much thought and care behind her actions. Warmth and joy seems to fill the room; it is God's presence.

She turns to leave then glances back in the mirror and admires how nice things look and feel. She leans up against the wall and remembers the past. Memories of great pain and loneliness; were now replaced with great love and joy. How grateful she was to God, for the people that He had brought into their lives. The more that they were fed the Word of God, the more that they learned to trust and understand God's love for them. Now they had peace and contentment and were walking on the right path of God for their lives.

As they began touching God through prayer and learned to trust in Him, they learned to keep their eyes on Him and not the situations around them that looked so bleak and hopeless. They sought the counsel of the Lord for the situations that others told them would never change. God taught them how to pray for one another and He taught them how to pray for their children and for others.

God brought Christian's into their lives that showed them that the world had taught them how to succeed. They had worked all their lives to do well, but God wasn't in the center of their lives. Their lives were out of order, time that was needed to build a solid foundation with God and family, were nonexistent. Their home was like a Hollywood set, it looked great from the outside, but on the inside there was an empty shell of darkness and depression.

By being taught to press into God they learned God's principles from a life-giving church. (Deut. 11: 18-25) They stood firm on His foundations, and began to pray for miracles and asked God to redeem the time. They asked God to know Him, and He began to teach them about love and Christ's character and how to treat family and other's. As they prayed, Christ interceded and changed their hearts and they learned to forgive and let go of the past. Hope was seen again and the time was redeemed, and God restored their marriage.

As she stood in the bathroom remembering the past, she looked up and said a word of thanks to God. Praising Him and giving Him the glory for His great love that now filled their home. (Psalms 78:1-7)

The fine details of our lives are important to God. Our characters must be strong in the Lord. Do you cherish His temple or have you neglected Him? Putting God first in your life, instead of work and other things leads to God's blessings. But if you don't even care about knowing the details in His life, you aren't going to see His provision and have your needs met. Wrong priorities in life hinder prayers from being answered and can cause dreams to die.

I would encourage each of you to examine your relationship with God, and be strong in the Lord. Begin today seeking His face and be encouraged to hold fast to His promises which are in His Word, they are life-giving.

Blessings,

Great Times ?

William Hawkins

July 31st, 00

I am Sorry !

What I see and hear from the Lord is NOT "Great Times"; at least not in the sense most seem to believe.

I see a great harvest, which is taking place over most of the world, with the exception of here in the USA.

I see according to the certain and sure word of the Lord in HIS book, the Bible, that just prior to the end of this age there will be a great falling away from the Faith and the Gospel that was given by Christ to the Apostles.

Awake oh Sleeper, that day is upon us!

The "CHURCH" has fallen away from her first love and is desperately seeking to be unseen in the world by being exactly like it in every way.

Awake oh Body of Christ! and come out from among them. You can not change them and give thanks that you will not be judged with them.

The "Body" of the Lord can and MUST love the sinner; but, that same Body must, NOW, hate the sin and no longer tolerate and condone it in our midst.

Awake oh "CHRISTIAN"--How shall we call ourselves by that name when we have statistics of DIVORCE as high and higher than in the world. When we have Physical and Sexual abuse in the Body as high as in the world and when "CHRISTIANS " are ashamed to tell their neighbor about Jesus.

WHAT is coming will indeed separate the wheat from the chaff as the wind of Gods Holy Spirit blows across this land and searches each mans heart.

Oh , GOD, let us begin to address the unholiness of Christ's body from the Pulpit, from the leadership and from those that sit in the Pews.

The world must see a unity in the true body of Christ. The worlds must see a Body feverishly in Love with Jesus, with NO reservations.

To those who want to be "Christians"; by all the right words, looks and moves, my advice is simple and complete in one word:

R E P E N T !

My God, My God how you must cry at what you see that passes for Christianity today.

Your Body allowing same sex marriages and then promoting some of those to the Pulpit.

Your Body condemning the Holy Spirit and HIS Gifts.

Your Body looking to the world for direction, rather than Your Spirit and Your Word.

I sit at HIS feet and I feel the heartache, the pain and the coming judgment. I see in HIS face the Love He has for us and also the stern look of Justice that will surely come.

Seek HIM now while there is still time, because that is one commodity we are rapidly running out of

Amen.

Green Pastures

Paul Jobe

Jobies7@aol.com

Yesterday I had the following vision.

First, I saw a huge wrecking ball that was hitting old cathedrals. As the ball hit the walls and demolished them, almost instantly a new structure came in behind which was very flexible, functional and beautiful.

The Lord said, "Now the time has come for Me to fulfill My Word to Jeremiah, 'to root out and to tear down, to rebuild and to replant.'" I am continuing to demolish the old man-made structures and build My church the way I want it built.

Next, I saw a battlefield in which both sides were fighting as armies did hundreds of years ago with pre-gunpowder warfare (swords, spears, and arrows). The two armies were the present-day church and the devil's horde of demons. I saw different divisions on the church side, some of which were self-willed and did not consider themselves to be a part of any army other than their own. They called out, "We don't need anyone else!"

I watched one of these divisions that was led by a man on foot called a "pastor" who had a small group of sheep with him. The demons encircled him and quickly slaughtered both the pastor and the sheep. I was reminded of the verse, "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered."

At the same time, my attention was drawn to two men on horses who were only about fifty yards from the battle between the pastor and the demons. These men had swords and strength and enough experience to defeat the enemy, but were not permitted to do anything about the slaughter. They had the names "apostle" and "prophet" on them. When the demons began to attack the pastor and his sheep, these men became very agitated and their horses began rearing and snorting. There was an invisible barrier which separated them from helping called "Lack of Acceptance." The apostle and prophet shed many tears as they watched this scenario take place time and time again. Some pastors and their flocks had no weaponry at all and were easily killed. The apostle and prophet could do nothing but watch the horror from behind the line. If they drew their swords or flexed their muscles, it brought them only more frustration, so eventually, they stopped striving and waited patiently.

Over to the side was a group of people praying for the barrier to drop so that the pastors could receive help.

Once this barrier was eroded enough to move past, the riders on the horses drew their swords and rushed into the battle, slicing demonic hosts as they rode toward the pastors and their flocks. They moved from one skirmish to the next, systematically pushing back the enemy and setting the pastor's sheep free.

Some pastors and their flocks who had not yet entered the battle watched this take place and decided that it would be wise to have their own apostle and prophet to fight with them. These who were so aligned entered into the battle and advanced very quickly, cutting through the demonic ranks. These pastors had the ability to not only win battles, but actually plant fields and vineyards which were once the bloody battlefields of the past. These fields were called "Green Pastures" and provided such a rich crop that the sheep could graze and be cared for by the shepherd-pastors with no fear of demonic onslaught. New sheep would periodically arrive at these havens and quickly grow up in the rich environment. Such sheep would mature quickly and learn how to care for other sheep. Some would become shepherds themselves while others would be called to other assignments.

There was much emphasis placed upon the Green Pastures and it remained in the center of the function of the army. The apostle and prophet horse riders continued their military duties on the perimeter to ward off enemy attack, but the focus of most activity was upon the shepherd and his sheep.

God's Spiritual Marine Corps

Terry Spencer

February 16, 2000

I was with a crowd of friends and all of us were riding around in a suburban type vehicle. We were stopped by a man in authority almost like in a work place environment. He began to search our vehicle for drugs and found some. It was almost like we were being set up. He began to test us to see if we were on drugs by blowing some kind of smoke in our face. I knew that I would not test positive because I hadn't done any drugs in a very long time. We were very clearly being set up.

The scene changed and we were all in the Marine Corps going through basic training. Having completed basic training, we were all marching out of camp up this hill. The group that I was with, the same people as in the beginning of the dream, were out in front of the company, we were all moving as one and I remember thinking "all for one and one for all." All of a sudden the rest of the company turned on us and began firing on us. One pointed a bazooka at us and was going to fire and we all took cover. Under heavy fire, all live ammo, I noticed the man with the bazooka fired into a concrete bunker and injured the ones that were in there.

Then the scene changed and the commanding officer who had trained us took on our leader in hand to hand combat. He had been previously trained in the martial arts and was our most powerful soldier. The battle was fierce and we knew that this was not a game. It was kill or be killed. In the end the commanding officer took a large drill and drilled right through the center of the soldier's head killing him. As the dream ended I sensed that the rest of our group had circled the commanding officer and moved in on him to take him out.

The Lord said "This group is the new breed of prophets." I originally thought that the evangelists were the front line ministry of the end times and in some sense they are, but in the old testament it was the prophets who confronted evil nations, kingdoms and people. The Lord says "No, that it is the prophets. They are the end-time Spiritual Marines Corps, followed closely by the apostles then the evangelists, pastors and teachers. They will even be turned on by the ones who had trained them and turned on by their own close brothers and sisters. Guard the anointing. Watch carefully. Discern with My eyes and My heart who is for you and who is against you. Become a God-pleaser and beware of a man-pleasing spirit.

Many of the new breed of prophets have been set-up by God and called out of the world into the ranks of the end-time Spiritual Marine Corps. The training has been intense and the war is about to begin and for some it already has.

But the most dangerous weapon of the enemy is that our own will turn on us and try to destroy what God has gifted us with even before we get to the real battle. In some sense this is the real battle and until it is conquered there will be no further battle.

Will we be destroyed by our own leaders and those who trained us? Will we allow the fear of man, the opinions of man and the man-pleasing spirit to steal our position in Christ and our end-time ministry? We must beware that the battle first comes from within our own ranks and nothing is to be taken for granted. Everything in our lives must be tested and submitted to God. We must allow God to scrutinize every relationship and be obedient to lay down what is not of God and hold close that which is of God.

As the soldiers who were in the concrete bunker thought that they were safe from the enemy, we must not rest on the safety of the physical or comfortable places that provided our protection in the past. Be obedient to move when God, our True Commanding Officer, says move and stay put when He says to stay put.

In 2 Corinthians 3:6 the Word says that the letter kills and the Spirit gives life. As in the hand to hand combat with the commanding officer at the end of the dream, God says "The letter has been drilled into us, but it will kill us if we do not walk in the Spirit." We must go beyond our knowledge, the training of our natural minds and the realm of the physical, enter the spiritual realm and walk with God as never before in order to accomplish what God has called us to do in these end times.

Blessings In Christ,

Terry Spencer

Giving Up Isaac

Jo Cotter

Genesis 22:12

And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

Do you have a promise from the Lord that you have nurtured for a very long time, but which still has not yet come to fruition? Do you sometimes wonder just how long you can continue to believe if God does not move soon on your behalf?

That's how I felt as 1999 drew to a close. Another year gone by (another decade. . .century. . .millennium!) without my Isaac being birthed. The dream that God had given me - the very promise He had gifted with unquestionable clarity - was being delayed again, and I did not know if I could continue to believe in the face of yet another year passing without my dream coming true.

I was heartbroken - plain and simple. All I could do was weep for what was not.

It would be nice to report that in the last few seconds of 1999 the Lord came through and delivered on the promise, but that is not what happened. God asked me if I would be willing to sacrifice my Isaac; to pour it out as a freewill offering to Him.

He then showed me an image. I saw myself climbing a mountain, a knapsack strapped to my back. Inside the knapsack was the promise God had given me a decade earlier; my Isaac that was still waiting to be birthed. The Lord showed me that this knapsack was what had made the climb feasible. It had given me the strength to press on when life seemed impossible, and without hope. For 10 years I had nursed it; nurtured it; wept over it; yearned for it; tried unsuccessfully to birth it; laid it down; picked it back up. Now, however, I had come to a place in my Christian walk where I could go no further with that knapsack strapped to my back. What had previously been a blessing was now turning into a burden. If I kept it, my ascent on the mountain of God was over. To continue climbing I would have to lay it down; lay aside the very promise that had gotten me that far.

The choice was an easy one to make.

Many of you also have an Isaac still waiting to be birthed. A promise the Lord has given you that no one can take away. And many of you are also still waiting.

Some of you will see your Isaac birthed this year. Some will continue to nurture it. A few - not many, but a few - may also be asked to lay your Isaac aside. For those few, be assured that the blessing God has waiting far outweighs anything you might be asked to give up.

Genesis 22:16-18 tells us:

By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

May the Lord empower each of us to obey His Voice, even if it should mean laying aside our dream.

The Isaac that the Lord gave me back in 1989 was a manuscript entitled The Double Harvest. (You can read about it on the web site under Books.) For 10 years I have waited to see it reach publication.

On January 2, 2000, the Lord said, Give it away. Freely you have received, He reminded me (Matthew 10:8). Freely give.

If after reading the excerpt on the web site you would like to receive the book, simply send an e-mail with the words The Double Harvest. God bless you this New Year.

Prophetic Words for August 2000

Gunnar M. Johnson

August 5, 2000

The new day has dawned and you will see it shine brighter as you fully enter into it. I have not forgotten you but the waiting time has been necessary. It is there that you mount up with wings like eagles and you will run and not be weary. I Am turning the hearts of many to me as well as to one another. What has been hidden will be disclosed for all to see. There will be healing results from this exposure. You are a watchman upon the wall to declare my truth and to sound the alarm. The sleeping city is to be awakened and made ready for my coming. There are multitudes ready to flock to where my presence is fully manifested. You are on the threshold of what I Am bringing into being for this time. The enemy has sought to sift you but I have overcome his attacks upon you. Be patient as I put the final touches to the great awakening! Your faithfulness will not go unrewarded. I Am setting everything in order and no one will be left out of the great outpouring. It will come like a tidal wave washing over the nations. There will be no partiality in it for all will be affected by it. I Am building up my forces to handle all that will be happening. What you have sown in love you will reap a hundredfold. The trumpet is sounding, which will gather my people together for the final assault on the remaining strongholds of the opposition. I will set the lonely in families where they can be nurtured. Changes are going to be the order of the day as my Kingdom comes among you. My Holy Spirit will speed up what he has been doing. Seek my face even more in devotion and worship! It is there that my glory will be seen in the purity of my love for you. I Am breaking the last bits of your pride and selfishness. I Am reforming you after my character and image. It will be the work of my loving Spirit in you. You are learning to trust and depend upon me beyond your own understanding. Now, you will be able to receive what I have for you!

Love,
JESUS

I have broken through the dividing walls so now the rest will follow through to my end time purposes. Do not worry or be anxious about what is taking place. I have already made provision for it! I Am cutting loose the offending forces so you will walk in my freedom. The truth of my mercy will be readily accessible to the whole earth so many will come to believe in me. You are to stand your ground covered with my armor. The sword of my Spirit will be in your mouth and on your lips. Declare the hope of my righteousness for all to receive.! Apart from me you can do nothing but with me all things are possible! Proceed on those things that are revealed to you and be patient about the rest! Keep your focus on me at all times for even in pain I will be honored. I Am turning things around and you will be amazed at the outcome of your present circumstances. Many are being called and they are responding with true joy. I Am parting the way before you as you move on in my Kingdom. The weapons of the enemy will lie shattered at your feet for I have triumphed! I will saturate you more and more in my Holy Spirit. He will complete the work that I have begun in you. I Am marking your life with signs and wonders that will confirm my authority in you. You are destroying the works of the evil one for my anointing is upon you. It will not be for you to see but by those who will enjoy their deliverance. My Words that I speak through you are filled with my power and light. My glory is about to fall wherever hearts are hungry for me. The dry places are only to make you ready for the flood of my Holy Spirit on the earth. He will pour through present channels and then make new channels for himself. My manifested presence will be available in ways never before experienced. Trust in me with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding!

Love,
JESUS

The privilege of my suffering is for the worthy in my Kingdom. All my promises are yes and amen for those that believe in me. I Am fashioning you as an instrument of my peace and mercy for others to receive. Keep your hand in my hand for I will lead you on to victory. Your fruitfulness will increase in the days ahead as you draw closer to the righteous Father. He loves you with a powerful love, which no one can deny. I will show you new and marvelous things to come in the days ahead. Your focus upon me is your hope of glory. I will bring you through to a great and open place where my glory rules. You will also find much freedom there to worship and rejoice. The past is rapidly fading in the distance. You are on to a new day with me. It is a time of open doors that will bring you to prosperous results. I Am bringing everything together in one wonderful climax that will explode in your lives. Your partnership in heaven and on earth is assured. What is done above will come down into your reality of time and space. The winds of change are growing stronger as my Holy Spirit takes supreme command of your life. He is bonding us together in a deeper and deeper dimension of relationship. You will experience my joy and declare my truth forevermore. I Am about to release you to the work I have planned for you. It will bring you to places you have never been as well as a return to others. You will walk in a new level of commitment and anointing. All that you will be doing will honor the Father and please him immensely. It will come from my Spirit who has free reign in you. The brokenness you have experienced has prepared you for what I will be doing with you. You have learned to depend upon me despite the circumstances. Your heart has been obedient and your manner favorable toward me.

Love,
JESUS

It is the time of breakthroughs as my Holy Spirit steps up his earthly campaign. You my children are in the vanguard of these efforts. I Am planning new strategies for you and I Am giving you fresh insight into carrying out what I have for you to do. Your horizon is getting to be lighter and brighter all the time. I Am increasing your expectations for what I will be doing in the near future. While you rest and wait on me, I Am preparing many things for you. This is the time to renew your strength in me and to be building up for the time ahead. Listen carefully to what my Spirit is saying for he has the heart of the Father! My wisdom is being poured into you as well as fresh revelations of my truth. You have come through a time of testing, which will stand you in good stead for your calling in me. All things do work together for good for those who are called by my Name. Many are in the valley of decision, trust my Spirit to lead you in the right direction! Keep your focus on me for I hold your life in my hands! Nothing happens without my place in it. I Am revising your value system upward and I Am fulfilling my purposes through it. The time for action is approaching as the plan of the Father is in motion. There will be a season of great prosperity as I fill your storehouses in readiness for what is coming on the earth. The winds of change will begin to blow harder with greater intensity. I Am bringing my people back to some basic choices before they can move on to the next phase of my Kingdom's coming. What has been hidden will be brought to light for healing and cleansing. It will take place in a smooth and harmonious way. I have set the enemy aside for the moment until I have re-established my people in their rightful position. This will be a time of great contrasts but be assured it is all under my control!

My living Word has triumphed mightily in your life. You will be a sign that speaks volumes to those that see you and see how I Am working in your life. The challenges have been met and overcome. You will experience more and more the renewal of your mind and soul. It will direct the attention to me of those who witness it in you, so that I might transform them as well. I have formed you as a vessel for my purposes alone, this is why you cannot go your own way. I keep turning you into the wind of my Spirit so he can carry you in the will of the Father. You have sown much for my Kingdom without even understanding it but I will open your eyes to see the results of your labors. Your faithfulness has come because of the heartfelt arrangement we have together. I came to live in you and I found a place ready for my occupation. My Holy Spirit had prepared you for it long ago. You will be proceeding with me as my Spirit takes you from glory to glory. The dead cannot be tempted so the fleshly life has been slowly killed. It is not complete but you have come a long way. The heavens will declare out majesty over the earth and all the systems of this world will bow before us. It is in your personal response to me and by your acceptance of your place in my Kingdom that you will bear much fruit to honor my Name. My loving favor is yours and it colors all that you do. The tricks and treacheries will no longer touch you. I Am lifting up my people to be a reflection of my truth and values in the land. Even those who do not yet believe will be impacted by what I Am doing with you. It is all to the glory of the righteous Father. You will march beneath the banner of my love under the command of my Holy Spirit. He will lead you on to victory. The trumpet will sound in many and varied ways bringing the whole earth to attention. Look up and see my salvation coming on the wings of the cherubim. My mercy seat will be stretched out before you!

Strike while the iron is hot for I have chosen this time for my victory! I Am destroying strongholds to the right and the left of you. What is in front of you will topple of it's own accord. What is behind you has disappeared into the past. I Am summoning you up higher for my purposes. You will come through the suffering stronger than you have ever been. You will have totally changed your perspective on everything that is going on. Fear has gone out the window and my prosperity is flooding in. The occasions of celebration will be increasing as you see me set the captives free. Things will be happening spontaneously all around you. You will walk under a glory cloud of my presence wherever you go. You have started a new work in my Name, which will increase beyond your fondest dreams. The trumpet has sounded, which will never call retreat. The battle is over in the heavenlies and the victory is complete. Keep your heart humble before the loving Father for your dependence is fully based on him. We alone are your hope of glory! Let go of all pretensions and rely fully on my strength! The partners in the growth of my Kingdom will be increasing in gigantic proportions. The nations will also come flooding into my Kingdom. There will be no tribe, tongue or people where my voice is not heard. The will of the righteous Father is being fulfilled daily. You are an integral part of what I Am doing on the earth. Follow my Holy Spirit as he leads you forward into the glorious tomorrow I have planned for you. The time of my coming is drawing near but that is my business. You are to be obedient to what I Am revealing to you! The shadows will flee away at the coming of the light of my truth. Speak as one anointed by my Spirit to declare the wonders of our majesty! You will see beyond the curtains of time into the very face of the Almighty one who loves you!

The broken promises will be restored. I Am doing a complete healing of body, soul and spirit. I Am reaching down into the heart of things to bring total victory to your lives. Wait and watch with expectant hearts for what I Am doing among you. There is a fresh wind of my Spirit blowing across the land that will cause many things to happen. My people will be stirred up with a zeal for what I Am doing. Those yet to believe are being made hungry and open to receive my love for them. I Am searching out the lost and touching the depths of their lives. I desire to produce the fruit of righteousness wherever I can. You are bearers of my light of truth for many to be able to see in the middle of their darkness. Never fear for I Am with you my wonders to perform! Even the lightest touch of my hand will produce miracles. I waste no opportunity to glorify my Kingdom. It is a place of love and acceptance. I Am planning many things that my Father has given me to do. It will greatly impact what you are doing as well as influence all that is going on around you. You may feel you are facing impossible situations but they are easy for me to resolve. Trust me and let me have them! You are an instrument for good in my hands. Catch the flow of my Spirit and let him carry you wherever I will to take you. I will lay it all out before you so you can take part in what I Am doing. My peace is in you and it will sustain you in whatever you face. You will be crossing over into the fast lane and moving ahead at a phenomenal speed. You will be building on the foundation I have prepared. Even your building will be under the inspiration of my Holy Spirit. I will lead you to the threshold you will need to cross when the time is ripe. You will see many people transformed by my mercy and kindness. Key into what my Spirit is declaring to you for he is our presence and strength with you!

The lightning of my presence will continually flash across your horizon for I Am with you forever! Trust what I Am doing on your behalf even though you don't understand it! You will see what I have been doing when the work is complete. Now be obedient to the leading of my Holy Spirit for he will guide your steps! Open doors of opportunity will be there when the time is ripe. Enter into the flow of my Spirit for he will easily carry you to where the Father wants you to be. There is a broad horizon where many things can take place. It is a season of soaking in my light and in my rest. I Am renewing your strength like the eagles so you can soar on the wind of my Spirit that is coming. I have orchestrated a whole symphony of things that you will enjoy and will find great pleasure in doing. It will extend the outreach of my Kingdom and fill many lives with fresh hope. Slowly I Am turning things around so you will not be overwhelmed but find peace for your soul. Occasionally there will be radical events that will increase the tempo of what is happening. It will be according to the will and order of the righteous Father. The anointing that you have by my Spirit will sustain you under all circumstances. Just follow the leading of my Spirit and carry out what he commands! Where I guide I will provide and that more abundantly than you can ask or imagine. I hold you in the palm of my hand and there you can rest secure. Press on with what I show you and do not be distracted by what is going on around you! There is much yet to come before the final day arrives. I Am gathering the lost into families of my making. I Am restoring the good fortunes of my believers. You will have favor in whatever you are doing. You will prosper in all things for they are under my covering. Look ahead with joyful anticipation as I heal your past. Set your face like flint for the glory of my Kingdom!

The doors are opening quickly and the way is being cleared for you. Trust my favor and obey the leading of my Spirit for you! Enter into the flow that comes from above and let it carry you to the destination I have for you. I Am parting the waters of confusion and distraction. You are to proceed in the plan I have for you. The time is ripe for the fulfillment of my promises to you. I will prosper your efforts and I will supply all your needs. You will no longer suffer lack in any area of your life. Your faithfulness in taking care of what I have already given you will be doubly blessed. The changes I will be making will be coming fast and furiously. They will be for the best and they will produce many thanksgivings to the Father. You have honored me with your giving and with your obedience. I will in turn honor you. I will judge the heart for I alone know what is truly there. Be aware that no one escapes my scrutiny. The eagles are ready to fly as my call goes out across the earth. You will soar with them in the power of my Holy Spirit. You will see my mighty army stretched out before you. The banner of my love will be unfurled over them. They will draw tribes and nations to me. The sifting is over for now and now the growth begins. I Am building you together with my people to be a building where my Spirit dwells in the fullness of his being. There the righteous Father will be worshipped and adored. My love will flow from one to another. Hearts will be restored and bodies healed. It will be the year of jubilee, as the slaves of the evil one are set free. Many will see the reality of their condition and they will cry out for deliverance. I will answer them with my hope and mercy. You will stand in awe before the revelation of my goodness. My truth will impact even the most rebellious souls. I Am seeking all who have been sealed by my Father! Love, JESUS

The light of my truth is growing brighter and brighter for all to see. What has been hidden is being disclosed more and more. Be open to what is happening but be discerning in all matters. I will reveal what is necessary for you to know. Trust in me and do not rely on your own understanding! I will care for you and provide for your needs. I will even add blessing upon blessing to it. You are a subject in my Kingdom and under the command of my Holy Spirit. He will not lead you astray for he will keep you in the way everlasting. Creatures of habit will be shaken as the changes that I have planned begin to occur. The will of the righteous Father is what will be taking place. He alone rules all things and nothing escapes his attention. There are some dramatic realities about to be unveiled before the world. Many will be called to make some radical decisions in the days ahead. No one will escape what is taking place. Everyone will have to deal with some basic questions in their own lives. You who have been called to press on will find open doors waiting for you. They will be clearly marked for you. Do not hesitate to act when the time is ripe for you to do so! Catch the wind of my Spirit and soar into the great heights I have chosen for you. Put your hand in mine and let me take you through to the ultimate destination. The fire of my Spirit is also coming to welcome the establishment of my Kingdom among you. It will burn up the accumulated debris of the ages and it will purify the motivations of my believers. Day after day you will see my miracles happening as well as experiencing the wonder of my glory in your gatherings. The sea of eternity will pour over the passage of time and cover it forever. You began in faith to appropriate my majesty over you and soon you will see it face to face. The sounds of heaven are even now penetrating your present existence! Love, JESUS

I Am breaking down the walls of division and establishing relationships of my making. Keep your heart and mind turned toward me! Do not neglect the gatherings of the saints for I Am there with power and light. Focus on the intimacy we have together in my Holy Spirit! Run with the wind not against it. I Am creating new wineskins for the fresh outpouring of my Spirit. I Am setting many things in order on the inside and on the outside. My presence will sustain you in every situation and circumstance. Remember to lean on me and not on your own understanding. My working is always a mystery to the human mind. Time and again I will surprise you by what I Am doing. I have put a flow in your life that cannot be daunted. My hope springs eternal in you and is communicated to all you meet. You are a catalyst of sorts stirring up my people to greater exploits in my Name. I Am prospering you in every endeavor and action you will take under the guidance of my Holy Spirit. The time of waiting is drawing to a close as I release my eagles for their appointed tasks. Many will gather where you are to receive the assignments I have for them. You who are fathers to the faithful will transfer the mantle of inheritance that I have placed upon you. There will be no striving on your part for everything will come together as the righteous Father has planned. You will see the open door that I have for you ready and waiting. It will be a clear and obvious step that you will be taking. It will lead you far beyond your present circumstances. Proceed as my Spirit leads you for he has everything under control. The shattered dreams are about to be restored in unexpected ways. Seek my face in worship and obedience! Hold to the faith I have placed in you and let it have the desired effect in you! Love, JESUS

Word received January 19, 2000

Hear my voice and believe what I Am speaking into your heart! I Am focusing your attention in a new direction and my Spirit is guiding you in it. Proclaim to those who have ears to hear what I Am revealing to you! Always follow what I give you for it will be a benefit to you and to others. The days are coming when my Word will not be heard or listened to when it is disclosed. These will be trying times for many but you that have hidden my truth in your heart will prevail. The clouds will bring the rain you will need to produce a great harvest. Get ready to step forward into the arena I have prepared for you. Continue to bow down before the Father with sincere worship and complete obedience. They will always flow together. The trumpet will sound and the time of preparation will be at an end. Move out into the fields of conquest turning the world upside down! It is the age of my Kingdom when the reign of my Holy Spirit is fully established. Set your sights higher than they have ever been! I Am calling for a radical transformation of my people and I Am releasing my power in them. The fire from heaven will burn up the hay and stubble in your lives. It will also inspire you to mighty exploits in my Name. I Am overthrowing the obstacles that have been raised against you. Receive my orders and act on them as my Spirit directs you! He knows the goals I have set for this time. You will ride out the storm when it comes for afterward you will come into your own. Your success in doing so will confirm my favor with you. You are to tackle the projects I set before you and bring them to completion. There will be a great many things happening at the same time. You will clearly see your way through all of them. Great darkness will surround the earth but my light will shine in spite of it! Love, JESUS

Word received January 26, 2000

The truth of my love is breaking through to the hearts of people everywhere. I Am tearing the veils from their eyes that they may see me. It is through your prayers that you are bringing this to fruition. I Am anointing them with a power that cannot be stopped. Rejoice and be glad for it is the Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom! Focus your attention on me and hear my call to you! I have chosen you for mighty exploits in my Name. They will honor the Father and bring joy to his heart. Be ready to step into the position I have established for you! Do not be confused by the rivalries around you for they will come to nothing. The new day that I have promised will be a completion of all that I have been doing up until now. My Holy Spirit is moving among you and he will carry out the will of the righteous Father in you. Hold on to him and be obedient to his direction! He will reveal all you need to know about what is happening. There is a cutting edge to what I Am bringing to you, which will herald my coming. It will establish new precedents for worship in my Kingdom. The old ways will be sorted out to make room for the new. Some things that will be taking place will have no previous examples for comparison. It will be truly new wine seeking out new wineskins. Your reliance upon me will increase in order to know what to do next. I Am looking for yielded vessels who will be filled with my mercy and grace. My blood has cleansed you. There is a road ahead of you, which few have traveled. It is the holy way of my righteousness. There will be peace for all that travel there. It will bring hope for a brighter tomorrow! Love, JESUS

Revelation 15:1-4
Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received January 27, 2000

You have seen the handwriting on the wall as my Spirit has revealed it to you. He will also show you my strategy for dealing with what you have seen. The plan of the righteous Father is being carried out everywhere. There is a growing expectation among my people for what I Am bringing to the earth in the coming days. Keep your heart pure by being open to my scrutiny at all times. The enemy seeks to sow seeds of despair but remember I have overcome the evil one. Trust in me above all things and do not lean on your own understanding. I have begun a new focus for your life and I Am working you into it. The troubled and the broken in heart will be healed, while the self-righteous will lose all they have. What is not of my making will not endure the storm that is coming. The wind of my Spirit will blow on the justified and the unjustified. To one it will bring joy and to the other it will bring conviction. Remain steadfast in your relationship with me for I have triumphed mightily! Place your cares and concerns in my hands for I will meet them with my mercy. Many are called but few have chosen to follow my way. Your obedience to my commands is to be your only concern and the rest belongs to me. Come to me for we will reason together and share in the good things I bring. It is time for you to gently stand in my authority, governed by my love as expressed by my Holy Spirit. Kindness and generosity will mark your journey as well as power and deliverance. I have placed you where you are and I will direct you according to the will of the heavenly Father. You will herald my good tidings to my people and you will open the door for many to draw closer to me. Enjoy our times of intimacy together. Rejoice in the worship of the Almighty Father and in the increased growth of my Kingdom! I stand at the door of the world waiting to come to them! Love, JESUS

The rebellion is broken and now the fulfilling of my promises will be manifested. You have turned a corner in your life with me and I Am rejoicing over it. My anointing will give you a freedom to exercise the authority I have given you. You are an overcomer who will stamp out the works of the evil one. The wiles of man and demons will wither at a glance from you. My love flows in you like a river of life that will carry many into the eternal sea of my mercy. Be prepared in your heart for what I will command you to do! My Spirit will reveal it to you and his power will equip you for carrying it out. The yoke of bondage is destroyed and you are ready to move on in the work of my Kingdom. Do not trouble yourself about titles or position for they have no part in my plans. I will direct your steps and you are to obey my leading. My Spirit in you will give you discernment at what to choose and how to act. The attacks of the enemy are finished for awhile for I have interceded on your behalf. Now is the time to enjoy the victory and to make good use of the opportunities I have for you. The reaper is about to overtake the sower for the harvest is coming quickly. Keep in the flow of my Spirit for it will bring you to the fulfillment of my purposes for you. I will satisfy your every need in abundance. My Word and wisdom will come out of your mouth when it is necessary. Those who hear will be encouraged to go on with me. You have grappled with the forces of darkness and you have won for I Am with you. Indeed, I have done it! Trust my goodness to complete the work that I began in you! The journey is not over even though much has happened. I will turn the world upside down through your prayers! Love, JESUS

The trumpets will sound and the drums will roll for the time to march has come. You will advance into the enemy positions and take command of the land I give you. The radical events that are coming will change the direction of your calling forever. Those who look back are not fit for my Kingdom. What lies ahead is far greater than anything in the past. The time of preparation is at an end as you step into the positions I have created for you. They can only be approached in humility and submission. Those who loudly proclaim their own conditions are just clanging cymbals and empty vessels. I establish my people as I will and they are known by all who encounter them. It is not in your striving but in my appointment. I chose you, it was not your decision! It is only by your obedience to my Holy Spirit that you can find your rightful place in me. It is my anointing upon you that fulfills the will of the righteous Father. It is by my love and mercy that you serve him. I know my own and they know me for they clearly hear my voice. There are pitfalls that the enemy has placed before you but my Spirit will lead you around them. Take hold of the banner of my truth and lift up the torch of freedom in my Holy Spirit. The hungry will come to me seeking the bread of life. The wounded and the hurting ones will flock to me for healing and deliverance. You are going to experience an amazing turn of events. The multitudes will come shouting for me. My Kingdom will be filled to overflowing. Those of a sincere heart will not be denied. I Am finalizing some things in you as I put the finishing touches to the Father's plan. I Am working everything out so do not be anxious about anything! My peace will always triumph and I will do it! Take the opportunities that I give you and trust me to complete them to my satisfaction. My day is dawning and my glory will fill the earth! Love, JESUS

Prophetic Words for February, 2000

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received February 3, 2000

I have broken through the barriers that would have held back the full release of my Spirit among you. The river will flow until it bursts through the banks of convention and tradition that seeks to hold it in check. Out of the center of your being will come rivers of living water, which will wash away the collected debris of time. In my Holy Spirit there is liberty and joy forevermore! Those who yield to my Holy Spirit will experience him in all the fullness that I give. Seeds that have been sown will break through the hardest ground. You will see a harvest where you least expect it. I Am flooding the earth with my glory and the light of my truth will drive back the darkness. Be attentive to my voice for I have directives for what I want you to do! I will be doing a new thing among you, which no one has ever seen. Draw closer to me and let me fill you with all good things. I will be enhancing the times of worship and I will bring healing in the middle of it. You will hear the shouts of the saints echoing from mountaintop to mountaintop. The valleys will be filled with my presence as well. The trumpets will sound and the drums will beat as my people come together. There will be a unity among my believers that nothing will disturb. You are my appointed, anointed for I have called you from the womb. I knew you before there was even a thought in you of me. Rejoice that you have come to know me! I will deepen your relationship with me in the intimacy of the quiet moments we have together. The communion of the fellowship of saints will grow into a mighty army. You will be a conquering force moving into new territories that I will give you. Stand ready to step out in faith as my Spirit commands you! He will bring you the orders of the righteous Father. Look with great expectation for what is dawning on the horizon. I Am with you my wonders to perform for they will be a sign to the nations.

Love,

JESUS

John 7:37-39 Gunnar M Johnson

There is breaking going on and healing with it. I Am restoring and reconciling my people. I Am removing the barriers that the enemy has raised up between them. I Am destroying the opposition to my truth and my will is prevailing in every situation. What you see is only the tip of the iceberg. What is really happening is not visible to the human eye but you will see it with the eyes of my Spirit. You will understand it with my mind. It is only in my Spirit that the true nature of things can be apprehended. It is by my Spirit in you that the revelation of the Father's will can come to you. It is by trusting in me and not leaning on your own ability that the wisdom you will need will be made available. I Am working all things together for good and I Am changing things for my purposes. When the wind of my Spirit begins to blow in earnest even the unbelievers will be touched by it. My work is not finished until the full complement of the faithful is brought into my Kingdom. I Am adjusting schedules and situations to suit my plans. Be prepared to move in the direction I give at the time I have set for it! There will be many things happening simultaneously throughout the earth to fulfill the commands of the righteous Father. Tyrants will fall and nations will be raised up. Prison doors will be opened and those who have been accused because of my Name will be set free. My light will dawn and the shadows of oppression will be lifted off my people. Wars will cease as whole tribes and tongues are drawn to me. Much hangs in the balance as my message is circulated in the most out of the way places. Hearts that have been hardened will yield to my love as portrayed by my people. Those who have fled from my presence will turn again to me. My hope will spring anew in their lives. I Am shattering the face of evil among you. There will be a new and fresh expression of worship to the heavenly Father. It will rise out of the anointing of my Holy Spirit upon you!

Psalms 37:3-13

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received February 18, 2000

Time is running out for there is an end in sight. Many are entering the valley of decision to choose the direction for their life. There are doors of opportunity opening for some and closing for others. There has been a waiting time but now it is time to move into the position of authority I have planned for you. You need to yield to my rule in order to enter the victory I have won. Search out my truth and follow it to end! The changes that are coming will deeply affect you as they bring you to the very edge of your existence. There will no longer be room for compromise. There is only one way to go it is the one I lead you to. Be settled in what I give you for it is the will of the righteous Father! Draw closer to me as I guide your steps for your day has come. Come to attention as my Spirit speaks to you for he has my mind as well. Enter into his flow for truly my yoke is easy and my burden is light. Keep your focus on the purposes of my Kingdom and leave the rest to me! Approach the throne of the Father with joy and gladness. Let my worship fill you with all good things for I Am releasing my presence among you! My Holy Spirit will strengthen you for mighty exploits in my Name. He will carry you on the wings of eagles to the farthest reaches of the universe and back again. Get ready to go where he directs and to speak as he gives you the words. Act on his command alone! My Kingdom may not be of this world but it is in the hearts of those who believe. I have sowed the seed for the great harvest that is coming. You will be in the very center of it. You have been faithful in the small things I have given you now you will enter the larger arena. The latter glory of my house will be far greater than the former.

Love,

JESUS

Ephesians 4:15-16 Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received February 19, 2000

The trumpets will sound and the drums will beat the call to assembly. I Am gathering my people from the north, the south, the east and the west. They will come like a mighty army to do my will under the command of the Holy Spirit. You too will stand with them as one commissioned to carry my anointing to all that would receive it. I Am removing the barriers in your path and tearing down the strongholds of oppression in my people. You will proclaim my liberty to all that would see it and appropriate it. Flocks of eagles will be born in your midst. They will fly to the four corners of the earth at my direction. In your worship of the almighty Father you will mount up to heights never before experienced by men. It will be like the ladder of angels reaching into the very throne room of the highest heaven. It will happen as you bow before me in deepest humility and surrender. You do not seek a name for yourself but to honor my Name wherever you go. Signs and wonders will follow you as you declare my Word in the fullness of my Spirit. I Am setting everything in order according to the plan of the righteous Father who loves you more than you realize. Let go of the trappings of the world and be dressed in my robe of righteousness. Even the angels are rejoicing over what I Am doing with you. There will be no division between heaven and earth as my glory is released among you. You will encounter my power from on high with a greater impartation than you have ever known. My sovereign rule will reign supreme over you. You will enjoy my peace and bask in the sunshine of my joy. Mourning and grief will flee away in the light of my presence with you. I have established my Kingdom, which will continue forever. It is in my Kingdom that you will discover the fulfillment of your calling in me. It is in the anointing of my Spirit that everything will come to completion. Be ready to be faithful in all that I show you!

Love,

JESUS

I will bring things to your attention when it is my purpose to deal with them. Until this happens proceed as I have already directed you. Remain constant in your dedication to the plans of my Kingdom that I have disclosed to you! There are many changes coming some in the near future. It is important to refresh yourself in me by prayer and reflection. There is a need for a Sabbath rest on a regular basis. The enemy may attack at any time but in tiredness you are more vulnerable. The goals of my Kingdom are fulfilled by my Spirit working things out in you and through you. He is both the one in command and the power that enables you. Rely on him in what you have to do and trust his wisdom in all things! There are many challenges coming for you but my Spirit will make you equal to them. Put aside jealousy and bitterness, allowing my love to guide your actions! I see the heart and I will give you truthful discernment. You will know what is of me and what is to be disregarded. Your thinking will be informed by what I put into your heart. It is there that your decision processes will be governed. Be prepared to take radical action when called upon to do so by my Holy Spirit! I will supply what you will need to accomplish them. The times are fluid as the plans of the righteous Father are being implemented among you. There is nothing-locked in place as his new creation is being revealed. All kinds of seeds are beginning to blossom and the fruit is not far behind. Wait and watch as my glory passes before you! I have set you in your position for such a time as this. Receive the encouragement from those I send you for they are confirming what I Am saying to you. Move carefully as I direct your steps! Neither hold back nor rush ahead! It is in my peace that you will find your assurance and security. Be confident in what I give you!

JESUS

Colossians 3:15-17 Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received February 25, 2000

My anointing is destroying the yokes of bondage everywhere. I Am pouring out my Holy Spirit like a mighty flood never before seen on the earth. There will be a driving wind that will catch you up and bring you to a new place in me. It will result in many radical changes that will have ever widening circles of influence throughout the earth. The world itself will be deeply moved by what will be happening among you. Many who have become lost will return. The multitudes that the Father has given me will come crowding into my Kingdom. The very structures themselves will be reconfigured to care for them according to the plans of the heavenly Father. Things that never seemed to work will have tremendous results in my Kingdom. The efforts of man will pale into insignificance. My people will come into their own and they will see the harvest I have promised come to pass. You too will discover fresh avenues of endeavor by my Spirit. He will open vistas of opportunity that you never even dreamed possible. The new wine of my Spirit will intoxicate you as you worship and give honor to the almighty Father. Be prepared to be stretched in your faith and comprehension of the things of the Spirit! I have sown the seeds of righteousness even when the enemy was sleeping. He will be amazed at how many there will be with you in these last days. There is a growing groundswell of my presence with my people. The commitment of hearts and lives to my purposes will be phenomenal. All those who are coming in from the darkness will be on fire for me. The weights and burdens of the years will fall off your shoulders. The broken will be made strong and I will fulfill your hopes and desires beyond your greatest imaginings. The sword of my Spirit in your mouth will be a powerful weapon for good. Let go and throw yourself into what is happening!

Love,
JESUS

Amos 3:7-8 Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received February 26, 2000

The fire of my Holy Spirit will strike like lightning in your midst! There will be immediate results in the lives of those it touches. Addictions and oppressions that have troubled you for years will be removed. I Am cleansing my people so they can reflect my love so others will be drawn to me. I Am opening channels of communication where there were none. I will bring a fresh understanding to what it means to be a new creation in me. Many misunderstandings will be set right so your unity will be declared before the nations. It will be the work of my Holy Spirit producing his fruit in you. The climate for hearing my truth is changing as I have plowed deep into the hearts and minds of people everywhere. The efforts of humanity will fail and they will call upon my Name for deliverance. I have been building my Kingdom in your hearts but soon it will be revealed for all to see. What the Father has done in heaven will now appear upon the earth. It will shatter the human categories and release a new song among you. Empires will topple and I will raise up a holy nation not made with hands. It will be established in your hearts by my power and mercy. It will not be from the earthly realm for it will come down from above. It will shine forth in humility and freedom. It will flow out upon you like a river carrying everything before it. You will be part of it carrying my banners in a mighty victorious procession. The troubled in heart will come flocking to me and find healing. There will be a gentle strength in all that come under my anointing. You will fly with my eagles to great heights of intimacy with me. You will experience the splendor and majesty of your Heavenly Father. You will be joined by his love in a relationship that will not be broken. The winds of change that are coming to the world will pass you by as you are hidden in me! Love,

JESUS

II Corinthians 5:16-21

Word received February 29, 2000

The light of my presence is breaking through to more and more of my people. You may not know all the chosen but I do. I will reach all that the heavenly Father has given me and I will not lose any of them. There are changes of perspective coming for you. It will reveal a new understanding of what I Am doing among you. It is imperative that you keep your focus on me so you will not be distracted by what is happening around you. Your dependency on my Spirit is primary. You can enlist the support of others but I Am the chief source for all your needs. Be subject to my Spirit in all your endeavors for he knows the will of the Father! Troubles will bubble up around the earth and they will be opportunities for my mercy. The multitudes can be touched by my love by my sovereign action. I Am not limited as you are and you are not as limited as you think. The power of my Spirit flows in the veins of my Body of believers. He will break out through you into the darkest places of the universe. I Am enlarging your vision and I Am removing many of the hindrances to my message. I have prepared the ground for the great outcome that the Father has planned. You will walk on the high places with me watching as I turn the fortunes of my people around to victory. Greater will be the blessings of my people than ever before seen on the earth. The struggles and efforts of man will fade away. What I Am establishing is eternal and it will carry you far beyond what you can see. You will be like the eagles rising higher and higher as the wind of my Spirit carries you onto your destination. The trumpets are sounding as my call goes out to the nations. Rise up my remnant and take hold of your destiny! Wield the sword of my Spirit cutting through the obstacles that the enemy has put in your way! You will march together in the unity of my Holy Spirit on to everlasting triumph!

Prophetic Words for March

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received March 4, 2000

I have broken through to the hearts of people everywhere! I Am destroying the works of the evil one and my Kingdom comes in my glory. My Holy Spirit has been at work in you and in those I have called from the beginning. Look up for your salvation draws near and the ground has been prepared for the harvest. I Am separating the wheat from the chaff as the fire of my Spirit falls on the threshing floor. The reaper will overtake the sower as the time of my coming draws near. Be ready to grasp hold of my garment for healing and deliverance. Surrender your lives to me in worship and devotion! All that you are or ever will be belongs to me. It is the way of my Kingdom to be totally joined to me for I Am the very air you breathe. I fill your lungs with life and your lives with dedication to the righteous Father. You are to live for me and for the glory of our heavenly Father. The earth is my footstool and you are to rise above it. The flashing lightning of my sword in your hand will defeat the enemy at every turn. Come my people and enter into the fullness of the victorious life I have for you. The lies of the enemy have clouded your minds and crippled your walk in me. It is when you die to self and your own agenda that you will come into the triumphant life I have for you. You are to be held captive by my love and to be a prisoner of my hope. I Am setting you free to be caught up in the wind of my Spirit that is blowing across the earth. The whole creation belongs to the Almighty Father and he is directing the destiny of the nations. Submit yourself in prayer to the will of the Father! Do not sell your inheritance in eternity for the foolishness of the moment. I have greater things for you than you could ever imagine. Turn to me and bow your knee for I will lift you up to the highest place!

Love,
JESUS

Fly with me among the eagles where you will see beyond your present circumstances. I have much to show you and I Am widening your horizon. Up until now you have only seen the base of the mountain. You will now soar above the clouds on the wind of my Spirit. Hearts are turning to me and their hunger is increasing. Soon you will see the floodwaters carrying the multitudes into the safe havens I have prepared for them. There will be radical transformations of people before your very eyes. Even the despairing will gain hope as the time of my coming draws near. The fallen will be raised up and come to the knowledge of the truth. You are in for some amazing surprises in the days ahead. I have set you up for such a time as this. Your status will be changing as my Spirit begins to move in greater power among you. I Am troubling the waters of the world to stir up a deeper desire for what I Am releasing in you. You are crossing over to a whole new way of serving the righteous Father. You have been struggling with what I Am birthing in you. Allow me to do my complete work in you! Letting go of everything is to receive everything I have for you. I Am canceling debts and multiplying benefits. There is a time for standing apart so I can impart what I want to give you. I Am slamming some doors shut as I Am opening other doors. All that you have gone through has been preparation for what is waiting for you. As you relinquish your claim to fame I will make a name for you. There is a movement afoot that will carry you far beyond the limitations of your own vision. It is there that I will supply all your needs and increase my anointing upon you. The unity that my Holy Spirit is building will reflect the coming of my Kingdom. You are about to enjoy a great time of prosperity in everything that concerns you!

My new day is dawning on the horizon and my light is spreading. Be encouraged that I know your needs and I Am working out the details of your life! Trust me to fulfill the will of the Father in the center of everything that is happening! I will show you great and wondrous things in the days ahead. I Am bringing my eagles together to impart my plans for their future. I will also give them a fresh anointing of my Holy Spirit to carry out my mission to the nations. The whole earth will be shaken by unforeseen events that will be taking place. Place your trust completely in me for I alone Am your hope of glory! All that you see around you is temporary and will not leave a lasting impression. My Kingdom is forever and this is where you are called to serve. The container is not to be confused with the contents. The treasure gives value to what carries it only as it fulfills this function. Rejoice in the message not in the messenger, yet honor the person as my creation but nothing more. All are foremost in my esteem and love as I have come for their rescue and redemption. Seek them out as I direct you for salvation's sake. Yet it is only the righteous Father that you worship and serve! Your meaning and joy are made complete in me. Follow my Holy Spirit as he leads you into the fulfillment of my Kingdom! Do not build spheres of influence for yourself, everything must be done according to the will of the Father and for his glory. I will put you with those that I have planned for partnership in my endeavors. You will know them by my presence with you. I Am sorting out people and things for the great times that are coming. You have a part to play in it, be patient until it arrives. I Am bringing my people out of their confusion and apathy. I Am crushing their rebellious ways. Your hearts will become single-minded under the command of my Holy Spirit in my glorious Kingdom!

My eagles are gathering in the high places of my designation. I have prepared the ground for the harvest of my Spirit. He is the one who is making the way for my Kingdom. His anointing is upon you to declare the favorable year of my blessing. I Am turning things around and restoring what was lost. I Am also adding to it far more than what was lost. This is the time for which I have called you. Yield to the directing influence of my Holy Spirit in you! I have given you a mouth to speak on my behalf in high places and low ones. Be obedient to my leading and do not fear the consequences of what I give you. I have overcome the enemy and he has no part in you. Proceed as I lead you out into the fullness of my promise! You are proclaiming my freedom for all to receive. It will come flooding over my people in every place that I have called them. The broken will be healed and filled with my mighty power. Those who have been newly rescued will be caught up into a great passion for me. Every crack in the armor of the enemy will be taken advantage of and turned to his defeat. I Am inundating the land with my promises and mercy. I will no longer tolerate mediocrity for my excellence will have its way. You are about to experience the amazing revelation of my goodness. Signs and wonders will be appearing everywhere. They will not be contained in your gatherings but will spill over on the starving and hungry earth. Every extremity of man will be ripe for the picking in my Kingdom. The whole creation has been trembling in anticipation of what I will bring to it. I will be expanding a hundred fold and more of what will be happening among you. My vision will have no limits for you and even your shortcomings will be used for the manifestation of my glory. Bow down before the righteous Father in profound worship and humble obedience!

Word received March 21, 2000

I Am working everything out for the good of my Kingdom and the prosperity of my people. Follow my direction in everything that you undertake. I have a plan that is hidden in your life but is being carried out by the will of the Father. Trust me that I will complete the work that I have begun in you! Do not yield to the temptation to doubt or to avarice. Be obedient to my call in you! I Am opening doors of opportunity for you at just the right time. Do not fear but believe in me and rely on my love for you in all circumstances! I have set things in order for you to follow as I lead you. My Holy Spirit will keep you on the right track. Listen for the voice of the Father for he is speaking in your heart. It is from there that the thoughts flow into your mind and mouth. I have redeemed your body, soul and spirit so I can benefit you in all areas of your life. I Am removing a critical spirit from you and I Am giving you a forgiving heart in return. You will discern what is going on and I will give you the wisdom to deal with it. I Am removing the scales from the eyes of many so they will clearly see my purposes for them. Each one will reach one and then another and another. I Am building my Kingdom in your hearts and lives. I will also complete it at the appointed time. Do not speculate on what has not been revealed to you but act on what has been shown to you! You will see signs and wonders of healing and salvation wherever you go. The outpouring of my Spirit will bring a release of all that I have for you. I Am destroying all the weapons that have been formed against you as I bring you into the victory I have won for you. I Am interceding for you so you can stand in the gap for others. I Am raising up prophetic worshippers that will erect the Tabernacle of David among you. Get ready to assume the position I have set for you. It will be my doing from beginning to end!

The way is now clear to move into the place I have prepared for you. My grace and favor have established the hope in you. I Am opening the doors of opportunity as the season of my visitations are about to begin. My sovereignty will prevail in every situation. Trust me and place your future in my hands! What has been accomplished in the past will be part of what I Am building for tomorrow. My Kingdom may seem small at the beginning but it will flourish into a mighty and awesome body. My holiness is appearing in the hearts and lives of my people everywhere. There will be task forces of my Kingdom sent out to every corner of the earth to complete what I have begun. The gatherings of eagles will increase even as my tabernacles of worship are developed in many places. Across the whole face of the earth my Spirit will cast a shadow of my righteousness. The Father's love is at the center of it as he reclaims his creation. Sow seeds in whatever form for I will bring a bountiful harvest. Rest in the assurance that I Am with you in all your labors. You will always seek my face in obedience, worship and prayer. Continue to join together at every opportunity for there I will build you up in my Spirit and truth. The fire of my Spirit needs fuel to burn even as you need his fire to produce energy and power in you. This is why the Spirit and the Bride say come for they are joined to one another. My Spirit is the life force that flows in your spirit for salvation. He is the expression of the Father's love. Many pay lip service to my Kingdom but their heart is far from me. It is time for my people to rise up and be counted as a mighty force in the earth. I Am changing directions in my working in the world. Be attentive as I reveal my plans to you! Listen to and follow the leading of my Holy Spirit! He moves on the heart and then the mind. I Am releasing the gifts of my Spirit in greater measure to carry out the tasks of my Kingdom. Yielded hearts make mighty vessels to carry my glory!

I have a vision for freedom for all that believe in me and follow my leading. Take up the cross of truth that I give you and declare it to one and all. I Am anointing you with boldness to speak out what my Holy Spirit is giving you. I Am building the bridges of understanding that will bring many into my Kingdom. Focus on me and search out what I have for you! It comes in faith and trust in my love for you. It is built on your personal knowledge of who I Am in your life. I have redeemed you from the evil one and I Am transforming you to receive the fullness of my hope of glory. What you will have from me will make a radical difference in all the areas of your life. There are times coming, which will test the souls of people and make them fit for my Kingdom. I will purify you with my holy fire, which will ignite your zeal for my Father's house. It will be a place of prayer and worship for all people. It will host the gatherings of my eagles as they are commissioned for their mission. I have already set you apart for the purposes of my Kingdom. You will have a portion in the wonderful things that I will be doing. Your prayer time has been the cauldron of preparation for what is coming. It is there that our hearts have been knit together in the fervor of the Father's blessing. You will begin to see the missing parts fall into place as the time of my visitations draws near. I will sovereignly impact the hearts and lives of many that have been waiting outside my gatherings. They will come in as partners in this great Kingdom venture of reclaiming the Father's creation. You will all stand on level ground before me. It is my grace and mercy that has made a way for all of you. Count no one out until the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Appropriate for yourself the gifts and weapons that I have already provided! Speak in the power of my Holy Spirit for he will penetrate the hearts of those who hear! The door is open for all to come in!

Love,
JESUS

The fire of my Holy Spirit is about to fall on all my people everywhere! It will ignite your worship of the righteous Father and inflame your zeal for my Kingdom. What I have promised in my Word and through the mouths of my prophets will soon appear on your horizon. Sowing the seed of my truth will produce a harvest of freedom for all that receive it. There will be a clash of giants in the netherworld, which will produce great confusion among the forces of darkness. The enemy will become his own worst enemy next to me. Meanwhile my light will spread across the earth causing everything else to stand in sharp contrast to it. You however who know the truth will be set free forever. Come and gather around me in joyful celebration! Hearts are turning to me and many are being delivered from bondage. Seek the moments of quiet intimacy with me for it is there that we become one! The stronger the bond between us the greater the possibility for unity among my people. I Am the center of the wheel from which radiates the connection between my people. The closer you come to me the closer you will come to one another. It is the working of my Holy Spirit that produces this restoration. He is the outpouring of the love of the almighty Father for all that receive him. Walk in the anointing I have given you and follow through with it in all that you do! Even as I Am the same yesterday, today and forever so should you be faithful in your calling in me. Guard your heart from dangerous entanglements and keep it focused on what I give you! The wind of my Spirit is changing direction and it will move you in a new way. Significant events are occurring in the world community, which will produce great upheaval on the earth. I Am breaking through in the middle of it for I Am orchestrating the final outcome. Proceed with what I reveal to you and do not look back! What is coming will more than compensate for anything you may have lost in following me. I will prosper you in the things of my Kingdom. What matters there are love, joy and peace in my Holy Spirit!

Prophetic Words for April, 2000

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received April 1, 2000

My truth is setting you free one after another. What is hidden will be unveiled for I Am working out my purposes in all things. The power of my Holy Spirit is coming to you to do mighty exploits in my Name. Yield yourself to me for I will bring you to the high places where my eagles gather. There is a time coming, which will see everything turned upside down. There will be no security apart from me for the chaos of the world will destroy everything that is not from me. Be prepared to be fully obedient to what I Am giving you! You will go where I send you. You will speak as my Spirit speaks to you. You will stand where you are if this is my command to you. Projectiles of fire will strike the earth and only those who are covered by me will escape their destruction. The light of my presence must shine in your hearts for it is there that I Am building my sanctuary. You will receive an anointing that will break every yoke of bondage in your life and it will empower you as a mighty warrior for my Kingdom. You need to make a full commitment to my will and to take up the cross of my salvation. I will give you the vision I have for you. My Spirit will reveal the understanding of it when it is time to know it. Rest in me and trust my love for you but do not wait too long to follow my leading for you! There are changes coming, which will bring a revelation of my true righteousness. It will not be what people think it is for my ways are higher than your ways. Come to me with your whole heart. Enter the worship of the almighty Father with complete abandon! Flow in the river of my Spirit for he will carry you into the future I have for you. The sound of my trumpet has been calling to you but you have not been listening. It is time to forsake your foolish ways and come to me. My kingdom has come and it is coming, receive it for yourselves!

The place of meeting has been prepared and I will honor it with my presence. The latter glory of my house will be far greater than the former. It is a house of prayer for all nations and it will prosper because of it. I Am restoring relationships and making connections that will last. I Am also your shield and buckler, which will hold off the evil one. The sword of my Spirit is in your hands and in your mouth. You will strike with precision against the forces of darkness. I will turn everything to good, whether you believe it or not. I Am accomplishing the will of the righteous Father! You are about to cross a line from which there is no turning back. It will take you to the fulfillment of your calling in me. The years of preparation have made you ready for it. Proceed on this new road as my Holy Spirit guides you for he knows the ultimate goal of all things. Do not look for affirmation or confirmation from others just follow my leading wherever it goes. Many that have fallen away will come back corrected and ready to be led by my Spirit. Those who have lost their way will be coming back in greater numbers. Those who have been lukewarm will receive a jolt of my zeal, which will radicalize them. Seed that has fallen through the cracks will suddenly come to life. I will visit people on their beds of pain and draw them back to me. Open wounds will be healed and wayward spirits redirected. It will all be happening at the same time. You will be amazed and awed at what will be taking place. The vision of the Father for this time is being carried out. Evil has had its way too long and now it is my time to disclose my working on the earth. My Spirit will uncover his face for you to see his presence with you. The hidden things are now coming to light. My Kingdom will triumph for my cross and Resurrection has made it so!

The screaming eagles are soaring to the heights as they are circling in their appointed positions. They are ready to strike at the very center of the enemy's strongholds. My Holy Spirit is going to give you many demonstrations of his power at work among you. It is time for the people of my Kingdom to stand up and be counted worthy in my Name. There is a mighty move of my Holy Spirit coming to the earth as the dawn of my new day appears. Look to the heavens as you lift up your hands in worship to the almighty Father! He is worthy of your thanksgiving and praise. The poor you will always have with you but I have overcome the world and I will be their provider. There will be a release of my gifts and anointing that will overwhelm you with the wonder of my love. I Am empowering you to carry out the orders that my Holy Spirit is giving you. You are going out under his command armed and ready to conquer in my Name. My Kingdom comes in power and light, which will drive back the darkness of suspicion and fear. Get ready to experience the majesty of our presence when you come together in prayer and worship. The restoration of my tabernacle is for this very purpose. The waves of my glory will roll over you and spread out until the whole earth is covered by it. People will fall before me everywhere in true repentance and reception of my love. It will flood the land until every corner of it will be committed to me. The healing signs of my mercy will be apparent to everyone. No one will be left out of the opportunity to come into the fullness of my joy and peace. It will surround you on every side until every tribe and nation is reached by my message of hope. Then the stage will be set for my appearing. Now is the crucial time for you to be fully surrendered to my love and obedient to my will. It is with me that all things become possible and the gates of life are opened to you.

My light is shining brighter and brighter as it drives back the darkness. I Am sending my truth like a spear into the heart of the dragon and his serpents. I Am giving you the sword of my Spirit to cut the captives loose. The hammer of my Word will break the chains that bind them. The gatherings of my eagles are increasing in number and in frequency. I Am joining them together as a force to be reckoned with in the days ahead. You will be empowered by my love, which does not fail. You will overcome by a genuine expression of integrity and humility. You will be given a prophetic vision to follow to the completion I have determined for it. Everything serves as grist for my mill to produce my good purposes on the earth. I will give you wisdom and discernment for every task. The position I have placed you in is under my authority and has my seal of approval upon it. Be obedient as my Holy Spirit directs you! He commands your allegiance for the fulfillment of my Kingdom. The enemy will try to dissuade you but he has no claim on you. You have been washed in my blood and your relationship with the righteous Father is complete in me. Your strength is renewed as you worship him in honesty and trust. It is there that we meet at the eternal mercy seat. Guard your heart from the lies of the evil one and keep your eyes fixed on me! The cross has become a sign of triumph because of the Resurrection transformation. I have given you the freedom to joyfully enter into my gates with thanksgiving and praise. The fire of my Spirit is about to emerge on the horizon. It will release a zeal for righteousness on the earth and a thirst for intimacy with the heavenly Father. Open doors will release me into the center of your meetings. You will experience our majesty face to face!

It is for freedom that I Am releasing my Resurrection power in you. You are breaking out the captives from their dungeons of death and despair. You will raise the dead from their hopelessness and restore in them my abundant life. The crash of the thunder of my voice will be heard everywhere. The lightning strikes of my truth will ignite the fires of liberty. The tomb will be empty, as I have raised you from the deadly ways that have kept you in bondage. I Am removing the grave clothes of self deception for I Am bringing you face to face with the reality of my message. You are no longer sinking in the quicksand of your rebellion. I have placed your feet on the solid foundation of my living Word. I Am instilling in you a hope that will take you to the end of your journey. Enter into the glory I have prepared for you as the fullness of my presence surrounds you like a cloud. Let your hearts be open to receive what the loving Father has for you. There will be dreams, visions and manifestations of my Holy Spirit never before seen on the earth. Satan is under your feet as my Resurrection has lifted me up to the right hand of the Father. Today as you come to me with your heart and soul I will begin something new in you. The past will have been left in the grave and the open door that I have set before you is waiting for you. My cross has triumphed in the very blood I shed there for you. The veil that separated you from the merciful Father has been torn away. You can behold his majesty and compassion. Take hold of my hand and let me lead you into the mighty victory I have won for you. The shadows that have covered your mind will flee away as you see me face to face. The darkness will disappear in the light of my presence. Celebrate my Passover of gladness and dance in my joy! Lift up the trumpet and sound the call to follow me. Worship the Father with all your heart, strength and being!

My trumpet has sounded and my forces are advancing on the kingdom of darkness. I Am releasing my power in you to carry out my will for today. This is the day of salvation for myriads of people everywhere. I Am setting them free from the bondage of their souls. My Word of truth will disclose the lies and will set them free from them. I Am calling you to liberty in my Name for I have already defeated the enemy. His delusions are being exposed and disposed of by my presence with you. Be prepared to take action as my Spirit directs you! I Am ready to open the doors of the dungeons where many have been imprisoned for generations. My light will penetrate the shadows and restore the oppressed to their rightful place in me. My thunder will be fearful to some but you will know that they are the drumbeats of my approaching victory. Get set to move out in my triumphal procession that will draw people to me. They will see the joy and gladness of your gatherings, which will build the desire for it in them. Walls are beginning to crumble all around you for my day is coming. Always center everything you do on me and my purposes for your life! Hold on to my revelation to you at all times. It will be the hope that stands you in good stead at every turn. You are in the flow of my Holy Spirit and he will be carrying you further than you have ever gone. What has been happening up until this time is barely an introduction to what is coming. Continue to climb the mountain of my glory in your worship and jubilation! It is there that you will find the moments of disclosure and satisfaction. Faith without evidence is dead for I Am a doer of my Word to you. Trust me with all your cares and fears for I have already made a way out for you! There is an exhilaration and enthusiasm waiting for those who have entered my Kingdom with all their heart!

I have finished the race, I have completed the work now enjoy what I have given you! Be appreciative of it as you worship the loving Father in Spirit and truth! Hold no one accountable except to me for I Am the final arbitrator in all things. Continue to flow in the stream of my Spirit, which comes down from the very throne room of heaven. Cast aside the debris of this world and move under the anointed direction of my Holy Spirit. Catch the wind of my Spirit under your eagle's wings and soar to the places prepared for you. Sow the seed I have given you and withhold nothing I have shown you. Be bold in love and patient in wisdom! I Am raising up my end time servants to carry out the will of the righteous Father. You do not walk alone for I Am with you and I join you to others who carry my Spirit in them. You are not all the same for I have given you different gifts to serve my Bride. Learn from one another as to what I have placed in each one. My hope is not a matter of striving but of receiving. The impression and direction I have for you is one of my design. You access it by being attentive, listening for my voice as I choose to speak to you. I Am rolling back the burdens of the years and giving you a fresh lease on life. Your ways will not be my ways until you surrender them to me. I do not punish but I allow correction to take place. Your discipline is from my mercy and favor toward you for I will strengthen you in it. I Am settling many of your questions and doubts without you realizing it is happening. I will confront you with the truth when it is necessary but I have many ways of working things out. I will give you pictures of what I Am doing but their meaning can only be discerned by my Holy Spirit. Reach out when I tell you and then only in the direction I show you. A loving heart only happens when it is touched by my love. It results from my place in your life.

I have broken through to you in the power of my Holy Spirit. He is making my Resurrection take place in you. I Am alive and you are alive in me. My Spirit is present in your inner person from which my healing travels to all parts of your being. I Am impacting your thoughts, feelings and actions. When you give yourself to me you are mine and I Am yours. What troubles you have become my concern and I will liberate you from them. I Am transplanting the will of the righteous Father in you for he is truly God. What you have served before was often your own empty desires or the bondage of the evil one. When you taste and eat my truth you will be set free from the lies you believed. I have given you a great treasure from which you can draw for every need. My prayer through you is the connecting link to the heart of the heavenly Father. It is his will being done as you speak as my Spirit directs you. The strongholds of false understanding are coming down in your life. I Am giving you instead a passion and zeal for the wonders of my Kingdom. Yesterday's goals have fallen flat and today is a fresh beginning in what I have promised you. Approach it with an open and expectant heart! I have twisted the wiles of the enemy back on himself. You are in my protective custody as you journey forward into the joy I have prepared for you. You will find yourself in a wholly new environment of my making. Hold nothing back, turn everything over to me the good, the bad and the indifferent. Consider thoughtfully how great is the goodness that our Father has toward you. He is making a way for you where there was none. He is opening a future hope that will give meaning to what is happening to you. It is the personal experience of his love that is transforming your life. It is a matter of believing what I Am speaking to you. Be delivered, be inspired and be filled with the presence of my Holy Spirit!

Prophetic Words for May 2000

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 2, 2000

I will bring you up to a high mountain where you will experience my glory all around you. It will be in the presence of my Holy Spirit who carries you beyond the limitations of this temporary time. I will show you my handwriting on the wall that proclaims what is coming. Be prepared for any action that I call from you! Know that my power will be in it and my wisdom directs it. There is a flow and harmony to what I do for this is the source of my peace in you. Be attentive to the words I speak in your inner person where I live by my Spirit. It is there that my communication begins before you hear my voice in other situations. My truth will be confirmed over and over again as you set it at work in the daily events of your life. I Am also portraying it on the large screen of world events. I Am involved in the whole creation to reveal the purposes of my Father the creator. There is still time for many things to happen that will determine the future outcome of everything the Father has planned. You by virtue of your faith in him are touched by all that he is doing. You have a part to play in the greater scheme of things. Each person is precious to him and he will go to any lengths to reach them with his love. Be precise in what I give you to speak! Hold back nothing and add nothing to it. Rest in me and trust my will for your life! I Am seeking to make people complete in me by my mercy and forgiveness. There is still much I have to teach you but all in due time. Now enjoy what I have already made known to you! Follow the leading of my Holy Spirit for he will guide you in my perfect solution. Walk in my confidence and boldness for I Am with you! I will guard you from the enemy as you proceed on the mission I have given you. The will of the righteous Father is being done in your life and he will see it through to the final completion!

Word received May 5, 2000

My eagles are gathering in the face of the storm, which will lift them higher and higher. It is the time for the release of all my servants to their appointed calling. Those who have been anointed for their tasks are carrying out my mission across the earth. It is not by fame but by the flame of my Spirit burning brightly within you. My Spirit is causing a great groundswell of my believers to rise up in the fullness of my glory. The tidal wave of my wonder is about to break over you. It will bring restoration to all that believe in me as well as deliverance from the works of the evil one. Cast your burdens upon me and leave them there. I Am setting you free for the sake of the righteous Father who believes in you. I Am proclaiming my liberty for all to receive. The sound of it will ring from mountain to mountain and out across the valleys. It will spread from sea to sea until the whole earth is filled with the presence of my love. Stop your murmuring and follow me for I Am tearing down the false barriers that the devil has placed between you. You will be one people under my command. I will be your Lord and your God. The rule of my Kingdom is firmly established and no force of darkness can stand against it. I Am crowning you with boldness to carry out my purposes in the land. Let go of your petty jealousies and be joined to one another. No eye has seen or mind has conceived what the loving Father has planned for you. His will stretches far beyond the limits of your vision. It is time to yield to the full direction of my Holy Spirit. Surrender all of your capabilities and liabilities to me. The trumpet is sounding for my people to come together in my Name. The stage has been set for the final preparations of my appearing. I Am linking you in a chain that cannot be broken. My voice will echo in your heart wherever you go!

The way has been set for you to follow and my Holy Spirit is guiding your steps. There is much waiting for you in the days ahead. I Am healing and prospering you far beyond your greatest expectations. There is a great wave of my Spirit coming. The ground has been broken up and seeded for the rain of my Spirit to fall. You have been prepared for what I Am going to do. Rest in me and do not lean on your own understanding! Trust my judgment in all things for I Am bringing everything to completion. Seek my face in worship and prayer for there we meet in sweet communion. There is a hope and a future for you! All that you ask in my Name will be accomplished according to the will of the righteous Father. I Am breaking off the hold of the enemy upon you. I have shattered the curses spoken against you. I have nailed them to my cross. Proceed with the daily tasks I have given you and leave the rest to me. The times and events are in my hands so do not become anxious over them. You are moving step by step in the things I have determined for you. Stand ready to act on what I give you when I give it to you. There will be seasons of refreshing before this takes place. I have established my Kingdom and nothing will prevail against it. Weigh thoughtfully what you see and hear for many things need to be sorted out. My truth will be clearly seen at all times. I Am releasing my signs and wonders to awaken my saints as well as draw the attention of the lost. Both are necessary, as the time grows short. I Am also gathering my eagles to impart to them a fresh vision of what is to come. Then you will fly swiftly to the destination I have planned for you. Your shout to the heavens will be one of victory as I now usher in my millennium. It will be a fruitful harvest that you will joyfully gather into my storehouses. You will be my eagles wheeling and soaring over it all. There will be a joining of hearts and minds in true unity. It will be the passion of my Holy Spirit that does it!

Love.

Psalm 103

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 16, 2000

I Am opening the windows of blessing to cover your needs and to fulfill my desires for you. Open doors of opportunity for my Kingdom will be appearing everywhere. Each day will be an adventure as you follow after me. Listen for my voice in the usual and unusual places. Put your hand in mine and I will lead you on to victory. I Am prospering you in ways you never even thought possible. There are radical things happening all over the world, which will shape the events of the coming days. They are a result of my Father's will being done among you. Lean into the fresh wind of my Spirit that is starting to blow across your life. My hope will always be a sustaining force for you. The enemy may raise some issues for you but I have covered them by my gracious favor. They will be turned to my purposes. I Am setting you free to enjoy the best years of your life. I have called you and anointed you for my glory. My presence is at work in everything that concerns you. You are holy for I have separated you to myself. You are living in my righteousness for it is my gift to you. Do not strive in your own efforts, just enter the flow of my Spirit as he carries you forward in my everlasting joy. Cast your burdens upon me in prayer and leave them there. You will only have them as long as you hold on to them. Consider how I dress the earth in beauty without any effort at all. I will make provision for you as I extend my call to you. New beginnings are rapidly approaching. You will step into a totally different dimension of your service to me. Change is too limited a word to describe what is coming. There will be bridges to cross and mountains to climb all for the plan my Father has set for you. It will happen quickly and easily. It is for real freedom I have set you free. Situations and circumstances will fall smoothly into place. It will be a reality of my making. I Am joining you to a network that will transform the very fabric of your existence!

Ephesians 1:11-14

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 24, 2000

The light of my truth is dispelling the darkness of evil and preserving those lost in sin. I Am setting them free by my message of hope that flows from your lips. Call out to me and I will answer for I love you all. Focus your attention on me and do not be distracted by the whirlwind around you. I Am putting things in order and I Am establishing your priorities. Hear my voice and follow my direction for you will find everything complete in me. Enter my rest and allow my Spirit to carry the burdens of the day. He will cancel what is not of immediate consequence and he will restore everything that is. I Am revealing knowledge and wisdom on how to deal with the troubles of this life. I Am about to release the blessings I have held in store for you. I Am opening new channels of my grace for you. I Am working out many things that you are not aware of at this time. You will see the end results of my activity. Stand ready to proceed on what I give you to do and follow my leading in carrying them out. The times of my visitations are near and I Am increasing the prophetic activity among you. All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. I Am also imparting it to you. You will be speaking on my behalf under the influence of my Holy Spirit. The power of my presence will transform everything and everyone around you. The Bride is being prepared for her wedding day, which is coming quickly. It is difficult to see this with human eyes but with the eyes of faith you will know it is true. I Am doing many things simultaneously but you are only required to participate in what I show you. I Am reaching across the whole spectrum of humanity to carry out my purposes. I will complete what our Father sent me to do. I will give you more than you can handle so you will depend upon me and others to complete the task. Signs and wonders will accompany you as you remain in the anointing I have given you!

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 27, 2000

The signs of my triumph are about to be manifested among you! The truth of my message is about to impact you with great power. The trust I have placed in you is about to be realized to its fullest extent. The world is moving into greater and greater confusion as the enemy takes his final shots. You who believe in me will discern the light from the darkness as my Spirit moves in you. There will be major confrontations with the evil one but by my Spirit you will come out the victor. The lies and arguments formed against you will fall to the ground. Seize the moments I give you and enjoy them to the maximum. They will stand you in good stead as you move on in me. The sound of the horsemen is drawing near as the final conflict is being formulated. The wind of my Spirit is picking up and it will blow away the cobwebs of deceit. My glory will descend upon you like a cloud filling the place where you gather. None will be able to stand in my presence for the weight of it will carry you to the ground. It will be my goodness and mercy resting upon you. It will dispel the lies and bring you into a freedom never before experienced. Your thinking will be changed as well as the direction of the rest of your life. The corrupted foundations are crumbling of their own accord. Only what the Spirit has built on the solid rock of my salvation will stand the test of what is coming. Those who have watered down the faith with the value systems of the world will be sadly disappointed. I have come to give you true life and that abundantly. Sow what you will and reap the harvest that comes. It is not your strength or wisdom that counts but what I do with your life. It is not your ability or accountability that matters. It is my faith in you that is active in my love that accomplishes my will. It is the result of a surrendered heart that has met me. It is my righteousness that connects with the righteous Father who loves you more completely than anyone else can. Stand in my hope! Love,

JESUS

Colossians 1:9-14

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 30, 2000

I Am speaking to the hearts and minds of people everywhere, even those who don't really know me. I Am reaching out by my Spirit to draw them to the Father. What the enemy meant for evil I will turn to good in carrying out my purposes. I Am crossing borders and going through barriers to make the Father's will known. The Kingdom of my love will be expanding in every direction and among all peoples. I Am working out the plans I have for you as well. Do not become anxious only trust in me for I Am accomplishing much on your behalf and for those around you. Watch with an expectant heart for my glory to be manifested. It will come like a rolling cloud covering the whole earth. The shadows that have covered your mind will dissipate in the light of my presence. Healing will truly be the children's bread as well as for those who are willing to receive it. Need will triumph over doubt. You will soon see what I have stored up for you. It will be far more than you expect. Continue to seek the depth of my intimacy as you meet together! I will touch and change the lives that come in contact with you as you follow me. It will result in a spontaneous combustion in their hearts. You will experience the awesomeness of our majesty as you worship and follow the leading of my Holy Spirit. It only takes two or three to release the flood of my river with you. I Am targeting many unknown places with my revival power. There are small intensive fires happening all over the earth, which will connect into a large conflagration. I Am burning up the lies and deceptions of the evil one with the release of my revelation truth. What doesn't work will be replaced by what does. I Am also removing the blockage to the full outpouring of my Spirit. Get ready to receive your own marching orders as the time of my coming draws near. My people have been fragmented but they will become one before my time is completed. Believe what my Spirit is speaking to you!

Colossians 1:27

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received May 31, 2000

The shaft of my light will fragment the darkness as it enters your heart. Be ready to receive as well as give for I love you too! Open hands in worship are a landing field for my Spirit. He will endow you with power to carry out my will on the earth. My Kingdom has come to you by faith and it will come to all that are open to it. I Am healing lives with my abundant blessing. The challenges that come are opportunities that I send for my purposes. It will not be in your strength but by my Spirit that all will be accomplished. I Am restoring what has been stolen from you and adding much to it. The holiness of my presence is covering you as you follow my directions. Move on with your life and let the dead bury their own dead. I Am touching many with my anointing and they are beginning to flow in the fullness of my Spirit. He is leading all of you on to the great victory I have determined for you. Keep your heart focused on me and do not lose sight of what I Am doing with you! You are on the threshold of a mighty move of my Spirit that will shake the very foundations of the earth. False idols will be toppling all around you. Do not fear the future for it is all in my hands. I Am moving things around to set them in order for the final outcome of my strategy. Your sons and daughters will be coming fully into my Kingdom where my love rules. Wait for the open doors that I have for you! They will be ready for you when the time is ripe. Trust me explicitly in all things and leave the results to me! As you have cast your bread upon the waters of life it will return to you in significant measure. I will not hold anything back from you. All that will be happening will be my doing alone. Enter into my rest!

Hallelujah report: My wife Zelma has been rediagnosed as having lyme arthritis and not rheumatoid arthritis by a lyme expert at Boston Medical Center. This is good news as it is curable by anti-antibiotics, which may take up to eighteen months. It is still an adverse drug reaction, which will still require legal action. Thank you all for praying, please continue to do so.

The light of my love is breaking down the walls and barriers that have held people captive. I Am bringing freedom everywhere I go. I Am meeting with you in the quiet places and in the gatherings of my rejoicing believers. I have broken the contacts with the evil one and I Am surrounding you with legions of eagles. Wait with faithful expectation for my glory to fall upon you! My presence will fill the sanctuaries where you meet and then it will follow you into the streets. I Am building into the world an anticipation of what I will be doing there as well. My vision is for the whole earth to come alive with the new sound from heaven. My grace and the expression of it will be coming in fresh and creative ways to reach the lost. The former things will pass away as they are replaced by radically changed manifestations of my truth. I Am orchestrating a move of my Spirit that will transform all of life as you know it. It will make many things obsolete. You who have my mind will already be moving ahead in it. The sound of my drumbeat is drawing closer as my armies are forming all over the earth. I Am building line upon line and arming you with spiritual weapons that will take the enemy totally by surprise. The forces of darkness are trembling at the sound of my Word echoing in the hearts of believers everywhere. The sifting that the enemy has been doing is almost over and my people are just about ready to step out in boldness and power. The relationships that I have been establishing will be linked up in a marvelous manner. You will be amazed at the connections that will be revealed among you. Rest in me for it will be my doing from beginning to end! I will give you my wisdom and knowledge for my purposes. Many casualties of past warfare will be healed and will take their rightful place with me. Get ready to receive what I have for you for I Am your all in all!

Word received June 6, 2000

My mercy is flowing like a river washing over you. I Am freeing you up for my purposes and the growth of my Kingdom. I have chosen you and pulled you out of the fire of condemnation. My joy is filling your soul and my peace is stilling your mind. Obstacles are falling as my light increases in you. My hope has taken charge of your inner being. Signs and wonders from above will reflect my love within you. Time and time again I will refresh you until everything is put to rest in me. Every day you will see my triumph played out in your life and in the lives of those you touch. It will be seen in the simple things as well as in the more significant ones. Take no concern about tomorrow for I hold your future in my hand. I will provide as I guide your steps from this time forward. All that you have seen is just a prelude to what is coming for you. I Am calling my people to attention as I awaken them from their sleep. The enemy has gotten away with too much and I Am now reclaiming what is mine. You will all come into your own as my healing of life's hurts are completed in you. The tragedy of it all is that so few trust me above everything. I Am who I say I Am and to believe in me is to walk in victory. I Am transforming hearts as I conform them to my truth. The revelation comes on the inside as the presence of my Holy Spirit takes up residence there. The lost will be found and those who belong to me will be returned to me. The enemy is helpless before me as I control his destiny. The authority of my Name is in your mouth as the power of my Spirit moves through your hands. It all begins in the heart where the feelings, emotions and will find their true meaning. My blood cleanses the lies you believed so you can freely give to those I send you. The promises of the Father are yes and amen in me. Today you are a goal accomplished by me!

I Am fulfilling the vision I have set for you! My Holy Spirit will carry it out down to the smallest detail. I Am doing the signs, wonders and miracles that were promised. Every Word from my mouth will bear the fruit that was intended for it. My Spirit brings it into existence. Receive and believe the truth that I Am planting in your heart! You are a mighty warrior in my Kingdom and a servant of the most high God. You are accomplishing much as my Spirit works through you. You cannot see where all the seeds have fallen or the harvest that they bring. Trust me to bring everything to pass as my Father wills it! You are carrying my light into the dark corners of the souls that I Am presenting to you. Be open and obedient to the directing of my Holy Spirit! He knows the heart and where the need is. Contrary to what you think the world is hungry for a true representation of my Spirit. This is why I Am releasing a fresh revelation of my activity among you. Continue to worship from a grateful heart for this honors the Father! Broken dreams will be replaced by a new vision from above. Stumbling and grumbling will come to an end. I Am firmly placing your feet on my path of righteousness. You will see by my Spirit and walk by my Spirit for he alone is your strength. The false teachers and prophets will fall by the wayside. It is my anointing that will carry the day and destroy the opposition to my will. Grasp the significance of what I Am doing and see it for what it is! I Am turning everything in the right direction. Get ready for a flood surge in the river that flows from the heavenly throne room! It will catch many up in it and bring others to a greater sense of my presence. The demons tremble at what I Am releasing on the earth. It will get the attention of many people and draw them into my Kingdom. Your status before the Father is as a child of his right hand. You will be blessed beyond belief!

My truth is setting you free as you hear my voice. Follow the direction that my Holy Spirit gives you for he knows the way I have set for you. The darkness is being dispelled as my light dawns brighter and brighter. My hope springs eternal in your heart, as you trust me beyond what you can see. The occasions of confusion will become less and less as you move on in me. Radical change will be the name of the game in the days ahead. Appropriate for yourself the vision that I Am giving to my people. You are all one in me no matter what it looks like on the surface. Be prepared for the great onslaught on the strongholds of the enemy. They will fall as your shout goes up to heaven. I Am training you in the new spiritual weapons I Am providing. There is a growing edge to my revelation. Believe and receive what my Spirit is doing today! I Am involving you in the strategies I have for this time. You are only to follow the commands of my Holy Spirit! He will show you what to do, so do not act until he tells you so. Then move as he guides you! He is in charge of your life as you have surrendered it to me. Yield him right of way in all things! His great power will be expressed through you in signs and wonders for all to see. His Word is mine and the Father's, so speak it as he gives it to you. Lean into his wind as it blows and soar with it like eagles. It is his strength that will make you most effective. Let my mind access yours for it will unveil the will of the righteous Father. You will not be acting alone for I Am raising up a mighty army of faithful followers. You will be set in order according to the plan of the Father. He is the one who distributes his gifts as he wills. He will provide in those things he decides. Do not neglect meeting together where you can enjoy the intimacy of my presence. Worship will be the desire of your heart as well as the expression of your lips. You will enter the holy of holies as my glory descends upon you!

I have sent you to speak on my behalf in my Name peace, hope and freedom to this generation. Trust me to empower you to carry out the calling I have given you. Follow the leading of my Holy Spirit for he is my commander on the earth and you are my warrior people. The troubles you have seen will be turned around to honor me. Focus your attention on what I Am revealing to you and let go of the rest! Sow the seeds in tears and reap the harvest in joy. I Am canceling out the assignments of the enemy against you. Even the curses have been broken. Now surrender your heart fully to me. Join me in the glorious adventure I have for you. The path will be level as you walk in the power of my love. I will show you visions of what is to come, so you can prepare my people. The prayers of my believers will result in many victories both great and small. Put your hand in mine and I will gently lead you to the places I have prepared for you. They are many and varied. I will meet all your needs no matter what they are for all are important to me. I will exercise my healing through you to touch the deep places in my children. The wounded will be made whole. Their grief will be turned into dancing. There is more to come for I desire to complete my Kingdom's work in you. The gatherings of my believers will increase as I bring them to the truth of my mercy. The holiness that I have established in you will manifest among all that follow me. It is a separation to my goodness and my pleasure. I Am partnering you with many of like spirit. See my light is dawning and the multitudes are appearing on the horizon. Extend your vision of my tent for the latter days will be far more glorious than the former. Do not measure the future by the past. I Am building new things as the fresh wine of my Spirit is being poured into new wineskins. The weapons that have been formed against you lie broken and scattered at your feet. Rise up my beloved for I Am coming soon!

The light of my truth is challenging the darkness and piercing through it. My glorious victory is now appearing in the hearts and lives of many that are being cleansed from the works of the evil one. I Am producing a people of one mind with me who will take charge where I have placed them. Open doors of opportunity will be present wherever you go. I Am pushing back the enemy on every front and sending him to flight. The wind of my Spirit will come roaring through to cleanse out the old and make room for the new. Situations that seemed impossible will fall before his onslaught. There will be divisions of separation as my followers move forward in my Kingdom. Some may be left behind for the moment but may find another chance awaiting them. Yet when my call comes to you, enter in what I have for you! It could be dangerous to presume there would be another. This is the day of salvation be glad to receive it! Count it all joy for I will always have the last word. Take your direction in what I speak to you by my Spirit, whether it be a still small voice or a Word in season. When the final trumpet sounds, there will not be time enough to prepare. Seek my face now in worship and prayer! Be open to whatever my Spirit reveals to you! Your wounds are being healed and the traumas you have faced will be overcome. Set your face like flint to follow after me! I Am bringing you to many open places where my freedom reigns. Do not calculate my blessings, just enjoy them with grateful hearts! You will be experiencing the overwhelming goodness of the loving righteous Father. He will pour it out upon you without measure. The fire of my Spirit will spring up in you with zeal and love never before seen on the earth. It is the year of my favor with many answered promises. You will have great peace in the events that will be taking place!

I Am working every thing out for your best interests. Trust my wisdom and my ability to care for you! Sow my seed in love and watch it take root. The fruit will quickly follow for the growing season is becoming shorter. Many who choose their own way must be released from your preoccupation. Know that my sovereign purposes are being carried out in all circumstances. Ahead of you lies a future filled with wonderful possibilities. Open doors will be beckoning you. Still listen for the direction of my Holy Spirit before you enter them. My signs and wonders will be present wherever you are called. They will not only confirm your message but they will carry out the purposes for which I sent them. Some will be healing and deliverance, while others will result in great blessings for those who receive them. I Am also establishing my character in those who spend time with me in worship, prayer and commitment. My Holy Spirit is marching on in the fulfillment of my Kingdom among you. The scales will fall from the eyes of many that have refused to believe. The harvest of souls is on the increase in spite of what it may look like to you. I Am deepening the quality of your relationship with me and with others that are called by my Name. The radical nature of what is happening will take your breath away. The triumph of my truth over the lies you have believed will be phenomenal. The scattering that has taken place is over and now begins the building up of my Holy Spirit temple. Gatherings of my faithful ones will experience a fresh outpouring of my glory. Consider how well I have provided for you in the past, know that it will be even more so in the days ahead. Love, trust and obedience go hand in hand. The terror of the night will be replaced by joy in the morning. Your record of successes will be added to in even greater number. The will of the righteous Father is being done in your life by the power of my Holy Spirit. Rest in this assurance!

Truly you have become like the eagles for I Am transforming and renewing you for the days ahead. I Am empowering you with fresh strength for what is coming. I have told you that I will be doing a new thing and now it begins. The old ways are passing away to make room for what I will be doing among you. The whole earth will be filled with my glory and you will enter it with your whole being. I Am faithful in all things and I Am establishing this faithfulness in all my people. You will soar like eagles in the powerful currents of my Spirit that will be sweeping across the earth. Many are seeking their own way and their own methods but they will quickly come to an end. Those who have run from my presence will be caught up in it again. Trials and tribulations will drive them there. I Am setting my people in order so they can obey the commands I give them. There are conflicts and issues but I will answer them all. The satisfaction of my counsel will meet all your needs. I Am sowing the fire of my Spirit in all my believers. I Am bringing them all to the same place at the mercy seat of my love. I will no longer tolerate divisiveness for I Am establishing the unity according to the plan of the Father. I Am healing and sealing you in my Holy Spirit. He is creating a covenant people under his reign. He will reveal my truth and enable you to live in it. It will be my doing from the first to the last. Listen for the new sound from heaven as it begins in the beating of the drums and is completed in the sound of the trumpet. I Am calling the nations to account and I Am separating the sheep from the goats. My arm is not too short. The power that will be manifested by my Spirit will truly amaze you. The enemy will not be able to stand against the authority I have given you in my Name. It is seasoned by my love and always carries this mark on it. Hear what my Spirit is speaking to my people!

Prophetic Words for July 2000

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received July 7, 2000

The fire of my truth is descending upon all that believe burning up the chaff and releasing the fruit. What is about to take place has no precedents to measure its meaning. Only follow the leading of my Spirit and he will guide you into perfect peace concerning it. I Am washing away the debris of the past and opening a new day ahead of you. I will process your feelings and make them part of my graciousness. Keep your heart focused on me and do not let the circumstances impede your progress in my Kingdom. I Am declaring freedom to you and to all who will take up my cross. What I have in store for you will be a greater blessing than you have ever seen. It will turn you around to a totally fresh way of determining your actions. My Spirit is being poured out far beyond measure or comprehension. I Am loosing the hounds of heaven on all who have not responded to my message. Those who have grown cold or even lukewarm will be stirred up. I Am tearing away the scales from your eyes so you can see me more clearly. I Am calling you to a personal intimacy with me that will overwhelm you in the experience of my love. My faith in you will produce mighty works in my Kingdom. It will increase the fruit of the Spirit in you as well. Shattered lives will be put together as my Spirit flows through you. He is the source of harmony in your life as well as the power to make things happen. You do well to wait on him and to listen for the rustle of his wind moving over you. It is an area where your trust in me must be total otherwise you will hinder what I Am doing. The voices from the darkness are being silenced. Hold on to my presence in and with you for that is where my glory is revealed. Seek my face with dedication and devotion for I Am opening the heavens to pour down my goodness upon you. You will enjoy prosperity never before seen on the earth. It will be my doing and my mercy! Love,
JESUS

Radical transformations are coming fast and furiously. Change will be normal as my Holy Spirit takes command of your total life. He rules with wisdom from the Father as my love fulfills all your needs. I Am building your expectation for the spectacular and the unusual. You will experience signs and wonders you never thought possible. Open doors into fresh opportunities are coming your way. It will all be my doing from beginning to end. I will prosper you beyond your fondest dreams. You are coming into a time of new beginnings and great fulfillment. Sow my truth wherever you go and those who have ears to hear will listen. My seeds will find the smallest opening to take hold. In time you will witness some of the fruit of these plantings. Continue to rest in me and to allow my hand to do a complete work in you. The direction of your life is moving into a different dimension. You will reap a harvest that I have set for you. Some of you have entered in, yet much of it is what I Am adding to it. Move out in the boldness I have kindled in you by my Spirit! Be confident that you are hearing from me! I Am bringing revelation after revelation to your conscious understanding. I Am renewing your mind daily in the truth of my Kingdom. I Am strengthening you in body, soul and spirit. I Am increasing your learning in matters of my Spirit. He is filling you with his presence so it will overflow on all you meet. The growth of your wisdom through me will be phenomenal. It will touch great numbers of people who are being drawn to me. I Am healing your wounds and rebuilding your lives. The flow of my Spirit is increasing as his wind begins to blow from a new direction. Much of what has been taking place lies hidden below the surface. When the time is ripe, it will be manifested for all to see. The whole earth is hungry for what I Am revealing in these last days. Be ready for where my Spirit leads you!

Wake up for the eagles are flying and the new day has begun! What you have been waiting for is beginning to take form for it will be my creation through and through. Shattered lives will come together and my healing power will be released through my faithful ones. Be prepared to take the initiative when I call you to action! I have placed many treasures in you to be distributed as I lead you. Keep my Name high and lifted up before you as the train of my presence fills your temple. The goal of my purposes is to fill my Kingdom that my Father has given me with those he has chosen for redemption. There are still many who need to hear my voice and follow me. I seek the hot and the cold but the lukewarm I spit out of my mouth. Many are called but few are chosen for the fear of total surrender is too great for them. They prefer their own ways to my way. I know the heart so I know my own. My Spirit is accelerating his activity among you and he will be producing mighty exploits in my Name. I rule in the heart with love and mercy. I tear down the strongholds of defeat and despair. I Am renewing minds and transforming lives. What has been sown in love will produce a great harvest. Take the time to rest in me and to allow me to replenish your resources. My wisdom is giving birth to radical ways of serving in my Kingdom. I Am reproducing myself in my people throughout the earth. There is no boundary or barrier to the moving of my Holy Spirit. He is striking fire wherever he goes. Open doors are awaiting him and all that wait upon him. There is a groaning and travailing before the actual appearance takes place. I will show you a glimpse into the future I have prepared for you to strengthen your hope in these times. Each person will be counted for more than one. I will be soaking you in the waterfall of my presence. It will be the day of my majesty!

Word received July 15, 2000

The fire of my Holy Spirit is about to rain down on all that believe in me. It is a cleansing fire and a fire of inspiration, which will prepare you for what lies ahead. My Spirit is the source of your understanding and the implementation of my will. You cannot accomplish anything without him. Yield to my Holy Spirit and give him the primary focus in your life for he is my presence with you! The strongholds of dead thinking are about to fall with a mighty crash. I Am building anew from these old ruins. The foundation is my creation and it is what I have established in you. I Am cursing the bitter roots that have grown up in you. Turn again to me with your whole heart surrendering all your human efforts to me. I Am causing a great upheaval, which will overturn all the deceitful lies and false prophets that you believed. My Holy Spirit is about to come upon you like a tidal wave carrying everything before it. You will be flooded with my light and love, which will transform you as reflectors of my glory. Wholesome acts will proceed from your hands and troubled hearts will be stilled in me. You are about to pass through a rite of passage into a position of radical accomplishments. My Kingdom is processing you for a future of the Father's choosing. Bow before him in an attitude of totally abandoned worship, forgetting yourself and all that exists around you! It is there that you will discover the fullness of our intimacy with you. Many needs will be met there as well as doubts and questions answered. It is the entrance into the Promised Land of my Spirit. It will be disturbing to those who will not come but that is not your concern for I will deal with them later. Proceed in the direction that my Holy Spirit leads you for he speaks for the righteous Father! This is not a time of adjustment but a season of brokenness. The potter is forming the clay for his vessels of honor and anointing!

There is a sound from heaven that will sweep across the land! It will set the eagles flying to the destinations I have set for them. The wind of my Spirit will be stirred up until it blows with gale force intensity. Doors of opportunity will be flung open as the fresh and new begins to come through to my people. What is coming will have no roots in the past for it will be the new creation of a loving Father. The radical nature of it will totally stun this generation. Hearts will be accessed as never before and the flood of the multitudes into my Kingdom will begin. My holiness will rain down from above and the world will be touched by my love. You will fully surrender your lives to me and humble yourself before the righteous Father in a complete act of worship. My Holy Spirit will gather you up into the holy of holies where there is no time or space. You will stand and watch me crush the enemy under your feet. His defeat will become a virtual reality. Trumpets will sound and the drums begin as my people start to move across the face of the earth. They will be activated by the full revelation of my glory. You will comprehend the light of my truth and there will be no darkness left in you. I will break every attachment to the past and forge a fresh beginning for you. The walls you have tried to build will disappear in a flash before the coming of my presence. I Am restoring hearts and embracing lives with the affection of a gracious Father. There will be the explosion of a thousand delights as my Spirit weaves his way among you. There will be an expression of our majesty never before experienced by humanity. The gates of my Kingdom will spring open before you. It will not be an act of mind or will but of a total immersion in me. See for yourself the will of the Father who loves you without measure!

The fire is coming and the fire is here! My Holy Spirit will lead you to the place of sacrifice where you surrender all to me. The chaff will be burned up and the rest will be a sweet aroma to the nostrils of the righteous Father. All will be complete in me for I have stood with you in all that is happening. Relish my presence with you for I have come to enjoy you forever. We will indulge in sweet communion with one another. Death will have no significance for you dwell in the life of the Father. There is no sense of time or place with him. You will count it all joy for nothing can separate you from my love. It can only add to the wonder of your faith. It is all a test of your faithfulness toward me, which will increase throughout the generations that follow me. You have cast your bread upon the waters and it will come back multiplied with my blessings. I Am about to show you a fresh vision of what I Am doing on the earth. Let go of the human understanding that has been promoted as truth. I will reveal to you what is the mind of the Father in all matters. Proceed as my Spirit guides you and rest in the confidence of his hand upon you! Many things that people have believed will be challenged by the reality that I bring. Keep your heart and your mind focused on me for I Am the way for you to travel. There is much that I have yet to show you but all in good time. I Am steeping you in the oil of my anointing so that all you do will be my doing in you. The clash of power among the nations is coming. The scene is being set for the final events of these last days. The emptiness in the lives of people is being exposed so their hunger and thirst will increase. When the time is ripe, they will come flocking for the bread that is without price and to drink from the fountain of living water. It has all been planned for and provision made ready by my Father who sent me to you!

My eagles are beginning to soar to new heights where I Am sending them. The wind of my Holy Spirit will be carrying them higher and higher. It will be my presence that will lift you up until you reach new levels of excellence that I have prepared for you. The tide is turning and the glory of my Kingdom is being established among you. You will be playing your part in the exhalation of my Kingdom. What is above will now settle down upon you. The righteous Father in his infinite wisdom has designed it all. Seek my face in determined worship and prayer! Devote yourself to the speaking of my Word as my Spirit manifests it in you! You will be receiving revelation after revelation, which will astound my people and all that hear. It will quicken their inner being and increase their zeal for my Kingdom. The radical shift that is coming to my Bride will awaken those who have fallen asleep and will impart to the world a desire for salvation. I Am working all things to the good according to the will of the Father. His love for all people will be experienced in a fresh way by believers and by those who will believe because of them. The blind will see and the deaf will hear as the lame begin to walk. Trust me and do not limit what I can do by your own understanding! I will restore the weak and increase your strength for the days ahead. Press into me with your whole heart for I Am your hope of glory! There will be increased visitations by my messengers as they carry out the purposes of the Father. The separation between heaven and earth is growing very thin. You will see more and more of the realm of my Spirit. He is giving you fresh insight into your role in my Kingdom. The past is finished and what is coming is all that matters. You will be enjoying a new freedom and authority in me!

Revelation 1:4-6

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received July 28, 2000

I have come to set the captives free by speaking my truth into their hearts. I Am unveiling my presence before you as you seek my face with a sincere and humble heart. The times and seasons are in my hands for I know the end from the beginning. Be prepared to act at a moment's notice when my Holy Spirit calls you! He will make a way for you where there was none. He is opening the sluice gates to allow my living water to rush through upon the parched land. The harvest is almost ready to be gathered into my storehouses to be safe from the gathering storm clouds. The doors of my making will continue to open to you. You are to enter them with the assurance and confidence that they are there for you. It is my plan and vision that you should prosper in all areas of your life. My solid foundation has been made ready for the tabernacle I Am building there. This will be the sanctuary of my Holy Spirit made up of living stones of my called out ones. The dry bones are clicking off one another until they reach their rightful connection. You will no longer be floating around in a haphazard condition. I Am setting you in a purposeful order under the command of my Holy Spirit. He will breathe new life into you as you rise up into mighty army of my followers. The steps you have taken have only been the beginning of what I have in store for you. What has been hidden will be revealed for all to see. I have been transforming you under the cover of anonymity. When the time is ripe, you will come to the proper place I have designed for you. The glory of the latter temple will be far greater than the former. The tent ropes will extend beyond the horizon. I will fill you with fresh revelation as the final preparations are being made. The heavens are open to you as you faithfully worship the Father with a sincere heart. Keep your eyes focused on my Kingdom for there you will find fullness of joy. The sign of my victory rests upon you!

Prophetic Words for September,

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received September 2, 2000

My light is dawning and the darkness cannot overcome it! My truth is penetrating hearts and setting the captives free. My abundance is about to overwhelm you with my goodness. There is a freshness of my Spirit coming to declare the new day I have promised. Doors will open and the glory of my presence will come flooding in where my people are gathered in my Name. Abandon yourself to the exhilaration I bring for it is the heavenly Father smiling down upon you! Guardian lies that have kept you from experiencing the fullness of who you are will be broken. You were created for fellowship with me and to enjoy the favor of my love forever. The trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised from the graves of despair and hopelessness. It is a season filled with promise and wonderful opportunities. Grab hold of it and clasp it to your breast! I Am filling you with the new wine of my Spirit, which will intoxicate you with zeal and enthusiasm for my Kingdom. The creative juices of my Spirit are being released in you. There is a revelation of my truth that will establish you in my freedom. The waiting is over and your time has come! I Am saturating your days with joy and gladness. My plans for you are coming together. You will experience the transfiguration of my glory as it surrounds you like a cloud. The waterfalls of heaven will pour over you drowning out the death cries of the evil one. Your worship of the righteous Father will move to a new level of intimacy and richness. The wind of my Spirit will catch you up and carry you to places you have never been. It will be in the Spirit and it will be in the reality of your days as well. What has been accomplished is far beyond your comprehension for you have left it all to me. Come dancing and shouting as you enter into the presence of the one who loves you! Seek my face for I will tenderly care for you there. You have chosen the better way by the Spirit of my righteousness!

The sound of liberty is being heard throughout the land as my Spirit begins to release his power among you. It is a call to renew your trust in me and to definitively follow my leading. Doors are opening for you to fulfill what I Am been preparing you for in this time. Listen for and obey what my Spirit is speaking to you! The depth of my vision is beginning to unfold before you. This is the start of something very big as I guide you into the future I have planned for you. Much has been spoken now will be the realization of what it means. appropriate it for yourself for you are to be a recipient as well as a transmitter! There is a wide and open expanse upon which I will be painting a whole new picture. The shadows and darkness will disappear as my light shines upon the scene. Hearts are being changed in the twinkling of an eye and whole lives are being transformed. It is no small thing that is happening. Setting people free from their lies will affect everyone around them. Consider carefully what I Am revealing to you and take it to heart! My Kingdom is about to burst out into the open for all to see. Even those who have been blind to what I have been doing will be deeply touched. I Am reclaiming my own right out of the grasp of the enemy. Even the fire you have gone through will leave no indelible marks. It has served my purpose and that is all that matters. You are free to move as my Spirit leads you. I Am stripping away the false exteriors so people can become real as I have created them to be. I Am toppling the strongholds raised by human endeavor and demonic activity. My truth will come as a prevailing force in every circumstance and situation. Catch the wind of my Spirit even when it reaches gale force! You are in a triumphal mode and all that you undertake in my Name will prosper. The response to what I Am doing will result in phenomenal victories.

The fire of my Holy Spirit is coming with passion and life. My truth is overcoming the evil one and destroying the lies. Your partnership with me is growing in power and light. Be prepared at all times to give a good account of your relationship with me! My love will flood your being with joy and gladness. Follow the leading of my Spirit as he moves you into the greater exploits I have promised. Continue to sow my righteousness wherever you go. I have taken you out of harms way and I will always do so. I Am starting up some things, which will amaze you. Watch and see my hand touching those around you! I will gather my people into those places I determined for them. Across the hills and through the valleys the multitudes will come flocking to my call. I have placed you in the center of my will and I will fulfill my purposes in you. It is all grace and favor for I Am working out your salvation. The times are changing rapidly and it is the beginning of a new day. Walk in faith under the banner of my victory. Seek my face in worship and devotion for I Am there for you! The wave of the future will be my Holy Spirit covering the earth. He is setting things in order for these times. Let me take you to the high places where we will enjoy one another in the intimacy of our love. My Spirit will guide your steps and supply your needs. He will keep your focus on what truly matters. The walls are falling and I Am restoring what has been lost. My eagles are being prepared to mount their attack on the last strongholds of the enemy. You are part of this company for I have chosen you. I Am the one who bridges the gaps in your life. Trust me with everything that concerns you for it is all part of my interest as well!

Love,

JESUS

Revelation 5:6-10

Word received September 8, 2000

The cloud of my glory will cover you and my Holy Spirit will fill you beyond measure. My Kingdom comes with power and light, which redeems the lost and sets the captives free. I will speak my truth into the hearts and lives of those who come to me. I Am freeing you from the lies that have dominated your existence. Open doors will confront you and opportunities that will bring glory to the Father will abound. Trust my Spirit to lead you through them as well as to give you the provision to carry out my purposes there! The timing of things that are happening are part of what the Father is doing. He knows when to act and when to wait. He will show this to you as well. You have stepped across a hidden threshold and have entered another phase of my plan for your life. It will be totally new so you can not look to the past for guidance in it. Receive my grace, believe my mercy and follow through with what I give you! There are significant things happening in the people around you as well as in my people everywhere. Listen for my voice and hear my Word to you! I Am speaking in many and varied ways so be attentive at all times. I Am making appointments with many people to meet me personally and be impacted powerfully in their lives. I will change the direction they have been going as they willing follow after me. There will be a harmony and peace as you enter the flow of my Spirit. What seemed difficult at first will become smooth and easy. I Am targeting groups yet unreached by my message of hope. You will see many of them finding a relationship with me. They will gather with you to worship the Heavenly Father in a real attitude of humility and devotion. You will be joined together in the growing edge of my Kingdom upon the earth!

Word received September 12, 2000

The light of my truth is shining brighter and brighter as my people embrace it for themselves. I Am restoring what was lost in a new and more favorable way. Let go of the past as you enter this fresh beginning. I Am saturating you with my love and the wisdom of my Spirit so you can clearly discern what lies before you. I Am setting my people in proper order according to the will of the righteous Father. I Am doing it! You are to prepare yourself for what I Am doing by letting go of preconceived ideas and old ways of thinking. It is a totally new thing that is happening on the earth. It is untouched by human hands or human sensibilities. It is clean and pure dropped down from the Father of lights. Keep seeking me above the clutter and confusion! My directive will bring you straight to the objective of my purposes. You have already passed beyond the limitation of the past and there is still further to go. Search out the vision I have for you and allow my Spirit to hone it to perfection! Relying on my Spirit is relying on me and it is the only way it can be accomplished. The waiting time is when I Am fitting things together without your interference. Many seek to step ahead of themselves before their time and they will find grief for their souls. However I will use this too to prepare them for when it is the appointed time. Now move only as my Holy Spirit guides you! Listen more and only speak when I command you to do so! My Word on your lips will always be a Word in season. It will go right to the heart of things. I trust you as you have trusted me. I have built a relationship that cannot be broken. We have met heart to heart and one day it will be face to face. When in worship you come trembling before the Gracious Father in the awesomeness of the moment, I will step into the center of it. My Holy Spirit will bind us together for a season of pure ecstasy. It will be the fresh anointing!

JESUS

Psalm 52:8-9

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received September 14, 2000

I Am turning things around for you and for all who come to me with willing hearts. I will prosper you as you follow me into the future I have prepared for you. Radical changes will come quickly as my Spirit freely moves among you. I Am breaking the old bondages so you can fully enter into the joy I have for you. I Am exposing what was hidden so I can heal and restore the wounded ones. All is not what it seems to be, trust me to show you the truth! There will be occasions when nothing seems to be happening outwardly but much is taking place inwardly. Be ready to go wherever I lead you! There is much to be done before the end but take one opportunity at a time. I have already scattered the forces of darkness so they cannot mount a concentrated attack on anyone. The evil structures are already crumbling of their own accord. Seek my face diligently in your prayers and devotion! I Am there sustaining you for what you will be encountering. Fear not and do not become anxious for all must answer to me! The wheat is sown and the tares are stimulating their growth for the harvest. Remember that all things work together for good for those who are called by my Name! Take each day as it comes allowing my direction in it. Prepare what you can and leave the rest to me. I will show you what measures you should take when it is appropriate. Just continue as you have in the flow of my Spirit. He will carry you through to the fulfillment of my will for you. The call of my Kingdom is being extended far beyond the limits of your understanding. I Am working out the plan of the righteous Father throughout the earth. What I Am doing with you and with others has global dimensions. Every door you go through will bring you closer to the place I have provided for you. Get ready to experience the most incredible events ever known to humanity!

You are the target of my affectionate love for I have rescued you from the pit and you are mine. Receive it for yourself, believe in it and share it with others! I Am enfolding you in my arms and gathering you to me breast. What we have together is deeply personal and intimate. This is what the Father created you for in his image, which is reflected in our embrace. Into this relationship flows the fullness of my Holy Spirit who floods you with loving power. You are being saturated by my presence as you travel the roads of my Kingdom. I will keep you out of harms way unless it serves my Kingdom for you to be there. I will still shield and protect you in it. There is more at stake than you realize even in the most casual encounter. I Am working miracles in and through you. You will never completely perceive what I Am doing. Just trust and obey for that is the heart of my Kingdom! I Am sorting out many things and I will separate the sheep from the goats. It will be my decision alone! There are many yet to come into my sheepfold for I Am the good Shepherd. The significance of what I Am doing will be revealed to you from time to time. My glory will surround you like a cloud as you are caught up in the awesome worship of the Heavenly Father. No eye has seen or ear has heard what I have in store for you. Contemplating our majesty as it unfolds before you will take your breath away. Be still and enjoy it for it is our gift to you! You will not remain the same for my Spirit will transform you for a whole new way of life. Things of the past will be resolved as you come into your own. Broken promises and failed dreams will be replaced by a fresh vision of hope. Wounds will be healed and scars will lose their sting. Lies will be replaced by my truth, which will set you free. Rest in my Spirit for he will lead you into the greater things I have promised!

The outcome of all things is in my hands so that all things will work together for good for my beloved. They are in far greater number than you realize and the potential of more is far beyond your reckoning. Trust my love and wait in faith for the great outpouring of my Spirit on all peoples! I Am slowly drawing in my net so none who are chosen will be lost. You are called to follow my leading in all that you do. Focus on my Kingdom and leave the results to me! I have much to show you in the days ahead so be patient until the revelation comes. I have promised you will go from glory to glory for that is the will of our Father for you. Prosperity will follow your footsteps as you take my yoke upon you. It will be easy for it fits you perfectly and I will carry it with you. The design and plan I have for your life will bring joy and gladness to all you encounter. My light is in you and it will dispel the darkness of fear and ignorance. Prophecy as my Spirit directs you for it will carry the seal of my power upon it! Cast your burdens upon me in prayer and I will lift them from you. My Spirit is restoring you in all areas of your life. What you will share with others comes from the abundance I have placed within you. Total surrender to me brings total victory for all to receive. You are part of the fellowship of believers who have been faithful to my calling. You will experience this partnership in all that you undertake in my Name. I Am establishing my people in a visible unity throughout the earth. The hidden things will be disclosed and brought into the light of my truth. Seeking the fulfillment of my Kingdom will become the priority of your existence. The gatherings of my people will become the scenes of explosive expressions of my presence with you. You will be caught up in the wonders of our majesty. The veil between heaven and earth will be parted for a moment. Trust me in all of it!

Prophetic Words for December 1999

Gunnar M. Johnson

Word received December 3, 1999

The fire of my Holy Spirit is coming to burn up the chaff, to warm the heart and to inspire zeal in my people. The enemy has sought to sift you but I have overcome him as I interceded for you. There is a turn around coming as my Kingdom impacts your lives more and more. What the enemy meant for evil I would turn to good. Do not lose heart in what is happening to you for greater will be my blessings upon you. Always follow the leading of my Holy Spirit for he will guide you in my truth. There is a shaking going on as I remove the hindrances from your lives. I Am bringing you to a new place in me where you will be strengthened and empowered for mighty works in my Name. I Am joining you more and more to me. You will discover a profound depth of understanding in the ways of my Kingdom. The wisdom and comprehension that my Spirit is giving you will be phenomenal. You will wield the sword of my Spirit with a fresh joy and greater abandon. You will not be bound by any false illusions or fear of retaliation. You will step forward into the battle with confidence in the victory. You will see the enemy melt away before the Word of testimony from your heart. You will release the power of my blood sacrifice wherever you go. I Am blunting the enemy attacks on you until they fall away to nothing. I Am healing you and delivering you from all demonic activity. I Am nailing the curses spoken against you to the tree of my redemption. My Spirit is bringing you into a freedom that will affect everything you do. Your worship of the Righteous Father will become an ecstatic experience of wonder and joy! The beauty of my holiness will rain down upon you in ever increasing waves of our majesty. Your surrender to my love will overwhelm you with my goodness and mercy forever!

Love,
JESUS John 14:12-17

Your hope of glory rests in me for I Am the Resurrection and the life for all that believe. I Am bringing a radical transformation to my people where you will be filled with my love and mercy. I Am setting many things in order as the time of completion draws near. Many will come to faith in me as the signs and wonders of my presence are manifested among you. It is my Kingdom that is appearing in the power of my Spirit. He establishes my rule in your hearts. You will not lack any good thing for my generous Father is the source of all your provision. He cares for you out of the bounty of his heart. Your needs will be met in abundant blessings. Get ready to receive what I have prepared for you in this time. The healing will come in full measure to those who ask for it. My grace will supply all that is necessary. The enemy is defeated and my blood seals his fate. Everything will be refreshed according to my time and purpose. While you wait upon me with an open and believing heart, I Am building my Kingdom. All the hopes and fears of the ages are fully met in me. What my creation has been groaning for will be revealed in due time. The entire universe stands holding their breath in anticipation of what I Am doing among you. Search out those moments where we can meet together in deep, deep communion. It is there that I Am imparting more of my Spirit to you. It is from there that my people are fed with the bread of life. There is an intertwining of our hearts and my will as well. There is much that is ahead of you for the latter days of my house will be far greater than the former. My hope in you is an expectation for greater things than you have ever imagined. The flow of my Spirit is carrying you to a magnificent conclusion of all that there is. Put your hand in mine as we walk together into the tomorrows that the Father has planned for you. Trust him above everything!

The battle is won and you will see it complete at the rising sun. The strongholds will have been targeted and destroyed. My peace will reign and healing will be transmitted to everyone. What the enemy intended for evil I will transform to a greater good than you could imagine. I Am about to shower down blessings that will wash away every tear. Stand ready to receive what I have planned for this time. Everything will come together in perfect harmony as my Spirit takes complete command. You are about to step into my vision for your life. It will carry you far and it will produce much fruit for my Kingdom. What you have learned in adversity will provide great wisdom for those who are going through theirs. Keep your focus on me for I will not let go of you. I have not turned my back on you and you will see the extent of my miraculous touch on everything that concerns you. You have been faithful in the midst of everything that has been taking place and you will receive your reward. Faith has results for those who keep it. The keys to the Kingdom have been put in your hands to liberate those held captive by the enemy. Speak out my truth, no matter how you feel! My Word in you is a powerful weapon, which will counteract all that the opposition throws at you. I have destroyed his works and I continue to do so through my people. Bow down before me and worship at the feet of the gracious Father who loves you! He is worthy of all your allegiance. The proof of it will be seen as the signs and wonders fall upon you. This part of your journey has been hard but necessary. It has proved you as nothing else could. The gold of your faith has been refined in the fire of circumstances. Now you will see changes come and the restoration begin. My holiness will triumph over everything. All that has been taken will be returned in abundance. You will walk under the banner of my love and flow in my peace. My joy will renew your strength. My hope will sustain you in the face of all odds. My victory has begun within you!

Deep is calling to deep as the long night of waiting comes to an end. The light of my truth is beginning to dawn and my promise is close to fulfillment. Get ready to receive the new day I have for you. The turbulence around you is an indication of what is starting to happen on the earth. There is a radical transformation coming for all that believe as my Spirit is about to visit you in ways you have never seen. He will come from a direction you do not expect and he will impact you like a meteor. The enemy has a vague awareness from the signs that have been taking place but he is more in the dark than you are. I Am revealing myself to my prophets who see beyond the limits of human comprehension. You will speak the utterances that my Spirit will give you! He will empower your words and actions with a supernatural quality. You will even stand amazed at what will be coming from you. You will see my Kingdom beginning to take shape out of the mists of confusion that will cover you. Nothing will be haphazard for everything will play a part in what I Am doing on the earth. Your purpose is to remain quiet before me so you can clearly hear my voice and discern what I Am saying to you. Let go of your judgments and proceed as my Spirit directs you. He has access to the master plan of the Father and you are part of it. Submit to the righteous Father in holy worship and do not rely on your own understanding! Take authority in my Name over the works of the evil one. He has to yield to you as you do so to me. The trumpet call is sounding in many and varied ways. It is calling up the forces of light to stand at attention. The time to act is not far off when my eagles will be released to their designated assignments.

The way of my righteousness is clear for all to see. It is the path of victory sealed in my blood. I Am pouring out my Spirit upon you in a flood of light and power. I Am calling out to you and I Am touching your heart. I Am framing you with the glory of my presence. I Am giving you a fresh lease on life as the new day dawns upon you. Follow me into the tomorrow I have planned for you! You will see my goodness in the land of the living. Rest in me and let my peace nourish you! I will bring all things together so that even the darkness will yield before me. Across the skies you will see my signs appearing and you will know that the time draws near. The hope of creation is about to be fulfilled. Bow down before the Father for he will lift you up to the highest heaven! You will be entwined in my love forever for my Kingdom rules in your heart. Draw closer to me and hear my Word for you today! There is much more ahead of you as the latter days of my house will be far greater than the former. Wait with joyful expectation for what will be revealed in these last days. The heavenly host sees your faithfulness to me and they rejoice with me over it. Continue to walk under the command of my Holy Spirit for he will lead you into the places I have prepared for you! Soon there will be a mighty rush of the wind of my Spirit as he blows across the land. He will gather up the lost and bring them into my Kingdom. He will clear out the debris from this generation. He will restore my people to their rightful position as the head and not the tail. Those that are asleep will wake up to the truth of my message. They will turn from their wicked ways and follow after me. Each one will know me for themselves. I will come and dwell with them in the fullness of my majesty. Get ready to receive what I have promised!

The light of my love is dawning all around you as the angels sing praises to the Father in heaven. Look and see as the clouds roll back and the way opens for my face to shine down upon you. My Holy Spirit is about to bring a sound from above that will carry far and wide. It is the new song that will transform hearts and bring release in the lives of those that believe. Seeds that have been sown in tears will spring up like oaks of righteousness. Fields that seemed empty will suddenly be filled with a harvest of joy as the multitudes come crowding into the Kingdom. The fruit of my Spirit will increase in your lives as you answer my call. The shadows will part and you will see the magnificent results of the showers of blessing. The enemy of your souls has been defeated once again and my triumph will be revealed. The depths of your heart will be touched and out of you will flow rivers of living water. My well within you will spring up to eternal life. My hope will overcome all fear as I raise your expectations for what lies ahead. Some doors may close while others are opened for you. The prevailing wind of my Spirit is beginning to blow. It will carry away the accumulations of time and bring freshness to the gatherings of my saints. The beauty of my holiness will transform your worship into a glorious expression of your hearts to the Almighty Father. The fellowship of the faithful will find new meaning in their faith as they gather in my Name. I will dwell with my people and they will experience the fullness of our majesty. Signs and wonders will appear heralding the coming of my Kingdom. Each of you is precious to the Father as he pours out his mercy upon you. Some will receive it with joyful exultation and others with thoughtful reflection. All will be touched by my peace. There will be many decisions to make in the days ahead and I will guide you in them. The groundswell of the wave of my Spirit is beginning to be felt as the day approaches when all things will come together in him.

The light of my truth will strike terror in the enemy. He knows his defeat and his destruction is imminent. I will release the full manifestation of my Kingdom and the world will discover hope in it. Many will come flocking to me and my presence will fill the gatherings of my saints. You will worship the righteous Father in the fellowship of my Spirit and the genuineness of my joy. Healing and prosperity will belong to all that believe in me. I will enfold you in my everlasting arms and I will establish my grace in you forever. Take courage in my victory and declare it with all boldness. I Am releasing my eagles and they will swarm across the end time skies. They will carry my deliverance far and wide. The challenge of my Holy Spirit will come and shatter the remaining chains of false tradition. You will be free to rejoice in the full revelation of my glory. You will bind up the wounds of the ages by my everlasting love. There will be a restoration of the tabernacle of David in the hearts of my people. You will abandon yourself to the total experience of my Holy Spirit. He will rule in you as I reign over you. Your commitment to the Almighty Father will be overwhelming to see. The dawn of my day will come like a thief in the night when you least expect it. It will burst forth on the horizon in a spectacular show of signs and wonders. The whole universe will be moved by what will be happening there. Lives will be touched by awesome fear as these things begin to take place. The nations will bow before me and every tongue will praise my Name. You will see it all come together in a harmony never before seen on the earth. You will be my standard bearers in the midst of all of it. My faithful ones will enter into the rightful places I have prepared for them. My remnant will come into their own. There will be a time of phenomenal celebration as my Spirit is poured out on all flesh. It is the time ordained before time began!

Hear the sound that is coming from heaven! It is the sound of the trumpet, the tolling of the bell, the beat of drums and the new song that I bring. Listen as it sweeps across the universe and changes the direction of everything that exists. It is calling to you to bow down and worship the Heavenly Father. It is reaching into the center of your existence to make a place there for me. It brings the light of my truth to bear on all that is. All of life lays stretched out before me and nothing is hid from my eyes. It is time to yield all of yourself to me and not hold anything back. There will be a cataclysm of events that will culminate in the revelation of our majesty for all to see. I Am probing the hearts and minds of all who exist to bring clarity to the soul. The Kingdom of my Spirit is established among you and his rule is taking charge in your life. Be obedient to his leading for my love and wisdom will always cover it! Proceed with the matters at hand and do not be overly concerned by the human agendas around you! I have chosen to prosper you in the inheritance of the gracious Father. He has much to share with you and he will show you wonderful things in the year that lies before you. You are entering the new millennium with a wealth of knowledge and wisdom. Take nothing for granted and be thankful in all circumstances! The wind of my Spirit will blow with gale force tearing away the cobwebs of false traditions. Be attentive to my Spirit as he brings you into fresh expressions of my righteousness! He will give you a new direction and meaning for your life. He is arming you with mighty weapons to carry out the commands of the Almighty Father. It is a time of hope and great expectation as you wait upon me. You are standing on the threshold of the great outpouring!

End Time Prophetic Vision

Habakkuk's Prayer

Chad Taylor

"O Lord I have heard your speech and was afraid; O Lord, revive your work in the midst of the years! In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy..." (Habakkuk 3:2).

The name Habakkuk means "embrace." Habakkuk did not stand afar off at the fringes of Israel and prophecy destruction like a spectator waiting for the gun to go off! No! He embraced Israel and pleaded for her repentance and petitioned for the Lord's mercy to triumph over His judgement. God took Habakkuk from a place of imminent defeat, "O Lord, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear?" (1:2). To a place of faith and victory, "The Lord God is my strength, He will make my feet like deer's feet, and He will make me walk on my high hills..." (3:19).

Even in the midst of certain invasion and captivity Habakkuk glimpsed beyond the temporal into the eternal and saw God's mercy and faithfulness. In his fear and flesh he finally comprehended, "But the just shall live by faith..." (2:4). Today in the midst of national turmoil and governmental intrigue, a prophetic chorus will rise from the din of defeat to herald a Greater. A greater Power, a greater Glory, a greater God. One that is not bound by elemental and human limitations, but "He that is in me is greater than He that is in the world..." (1st John 4:4).

Habakkuk saw a greater glory than that which was present in Israel. He saw something on the horizon that eclipsed the present distress and destruction. Once he saw it he exclaimed, "For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea..." From the sackcloth and ashes had risen a vision of a greater day, a greater time, when the Lord of Hosts would visit His people and restore His glory to them. If we are to prophecy with any eternal effect and impact, we too must see beyond the veil of fears and current affairs and see Him! See Him high and lifted up! Transfigured and like lightning! It is only from that place of revelation will we ever have the understanding to pray with Habakkuk, "In wrath remember mercy..." (3:2).

Fear no longer gripped Habakkuk's heart. Fear no longer influenced his ministry and words. He had come to the divine conclusion, "Though the fig tree may not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines; Though the labor of the olive may fail, and the fields yield no food...Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation..." (3:17-18). In his temptation he saw His salvation! In derision and confusion he glimpsed God's salvation! He was not ruled by fear but faith! A person who prophecies from fear and intimidation only breeds the same. One must glimpse the high places, walk with hinds feet, and breathe the rarefied air of Heaven. Then he or she will bring His glory in their wake and declare with Habakkuk, "His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was filled with His praise..." (3:3).

Modern day prophecy must come to this place of inspiration. Where their words and declarations are not influenced by fear but faith. Faith in a God that transcends all current predictions and prognostications. A God "that loves the world so much that He gave His only begotten Son. That whoever would just believe in Him would NOT perish but have everlasting life..." When our hearts are ruled by that kind of love, when our ministries are ablaze with that kind of passion, then our words and decrees will not bring hopelessness but rather like Paul, "...we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God." (Romans 5:2). We see and hope for a greater glory coming! We expect and anticipate a greater and more glorious hour to visit us! We grasp as did all the prophets, "The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of Hosts..." (Haggai 2:9).

The glory of God will be our hope and our anchor. Our mainstay and our Rock. "That we no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine...but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head - Christ." (Eph. 4:14). We will walk the earth in a knowledge of that glory "as the waters cover the sea". We will not be influenced by "wars and rumors of wars". But we will comprehend what it meant when Jesus prayed, "And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one." We will be like Him. "...being transformed into the same image from glory to glory..." (2nd Cor. 3:18).

Only then will the masses of pierced and tattooed bodies heed our words. Only then will the derelict and heretic come to His feet to be washed. Then, and only then, will the unloved and unlovely open their hearts and minds and be saved. As long as we parade our own personalized doctrines and treatise they will perish as we prophecy. We must get a hold of His heart! His glory! His willingness to redeem even the most decadent of people or place. God is not standing over the nations of the world with a hammer of judgement, but rather a hand pierced and bleeding, aching for His people to grasp this kind of Love, and pour out to the earth like He did as they lifted Him up. The promise still remains true today, "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself..." (John 12:32).

Harvest Bride

Linda Patterson

My beautiful remnant Bride, the time has come to gather in the Harvest.

All Heaven watches in awe and wonder as you step forward from that place of rest dressed in the glorious splendor of My unity, love and grace. Yes, as you truly know Me, it is from that intimate place of rest and peace that I send you forth.

Keep focused on Me, don't waiver from the call My golden army of light. I spread you forth as a glorious canopy across the nations. Many shall be drawn for rest, shade and sustenance to gather around My tree of life.

Hearts have been prepared and are waiting expectantly for the good news you will share, that the Prince of Peace is coming and will wipe away every tear. The sound of joy and laughter shall echo across the earth, as the standard is lifted jubilantly in song and praise to Me.

There is ease and rest in the Harvest, as you are united in Me. For together we go to call others forth to an eternal destiny.

How To Avoid Persecution

Mike Forest

MForest585@aol.com

I have spent much of my life trying to find the easy way to do things. After all this is the American way, isn't it? We are looking for ways to succeed and make it in life quickly and easily with the minimum amount of trouble or problems.

The problem is that we bring this philosophy into our Christian life. We want instant results, instant sanctification, immediate answers to our prayers, immediate success in our ministries. To our dismay we have found that our way and methods to instant success are not God's way at all. The Lord's way is the narrow way that is filled with pressure, and there is no easy way to achieve success in the kingdom of God. The way of the cross is never easy, because it goes contrary to what we naturally want and desire.

One of the paths that God has chosen for us to walk in that we often resist is the path of persecution and rejection. Who really enjoys being made fun of for their beliefs? We all want to be liked and to be accepted by others.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we have been called to follow the Lord, and our Lord was despised and rejected of men. Jesus was rejected because He wasn't of this world, and had only one desire and that was to please His heavenly Father and to do His will. Because of this, Jesus was hated by the religious establishment of His day, because (The Light) exposed the darkness and hypocrisy that many of the religious leaders were walking in.

"If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you. The servant is not greater than His Lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep your also." (John 15: 18-20).

I am truly thankful for the freedoms that we enjoy as citizens of the U.S. But these freedoms should never be taken for granted, because the enemy has been working for many years now to steal the freedom that we have as Christians. When prayer was banned from our schools, one of our most precious freedoms was taken from us. The enemy is at work this very hour to silence Christians. The news media and press are to a large degree being used by the enemy to come against the Christian faith. All that one has to do is to quote the teachings of Jesus, and you will be labeled as a bigot and intolerant. On Friday night, Primetime Live ran a segment on a 12 year old Jewish boy that was converted at a Baptist youth rally. Things were twisted around to make it look like the boy was pressured into receiving Christ. Then the pastor and youth minister were interviewed, and were made to look intolerant for believing the Word of God, and saying that Jesus Christ is the only way to the Father.

I don't know if you have noticed it, but there is an increased pressure being put on Christians to water down the Word of God and to compromise. One doesn't have to go out of his way to pick a fight with another that opposes true Christianity. A Christian that merely lets his light shine and speaks the truth of God's Word will be criticized and labeled as being narrow minded and intolerant, and this would be expected from unbelievers, but much of the persecution is coming from people that call themselves Christians, but in reality only possess a form of godliness but deny the power of God.

There is a sure way to avoid this persecution and ridicule and that way is wrapped up in one word, (compromise). By keeping our mouths shut when we should be proclaiming God's truth is a sure way to avoid persecution. By seeking to be accepted by everyone, we won't have to worry about offending anyone and will keep ourselves from being criticized and ridiculed. Much of the compromise in our lives is nothing more than the fear of man. We fear man more than we fear God. Who is it that we are really wanting to please? The pure fear of God in our lives will deliver us from the fear of man. If the enemy cannot stop you through persecution, he will often try to neutralize you through flattery and the praise of man. Jesus Christ said these words that were true of Him, and as His followers should be true of us. "I receive not honor from men, but I know you, that you have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name and you receive me not; if another will come in his own name, him will you receive. How can you believe, which receive honor of one another, and seek not the honor that comes from God only?" (John 5:41-44). Throughout history, when the enemy saw that persecution was only causing the church to grow stronger, ("the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church") his tactics would quickly change into making Christianity acceptable to the masses. Becoming a Christian now becomes the popular thing to do. When the world embraces Christianity, we can be sure of one thing, and that is that this is not the Christianity that Jesus Christ taught, but this is a counterfeit of true Christianity. This counterfeit Christianity teaches the justification of sin without any change or responsibility to be put on the sinner.

Jesus Christ said that "Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." (Matthew 5:10-12).

Jesus said that we are blessed when we suffer for righteousness sake. The enemies plan is to make us offended through persecution to shut us up. God's plan is to release His glory and anointing through us in the midst of any persecution that we are going through. One way that the world sees the basic difference in a disciple of Christ from the one whose profession is in word only is the way that he reacts to afflictions and trouble. When we are the same in good times as well as bad times, this is a witness to the world that Jesus is real. "Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That you might be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world." (Philippians 2:14,15).

"And who is he that will harm you, if you be followers of that which is good?" (1 Peter 3:13). "But and if ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be ye troubled." (Vs. 14). "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason for the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." (Vs.15). "Having a good conscience: that whereas they speak evil of you, as evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ." (Vs.16). "For it is better if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing." (Vs.17). "For Christ also has suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit." (Vs.18).

Harding Prophecy

Jan Brophy

Prophecy given to Oscar and Jovita Harding

By: Jan Barry Brophy

Homer, Alaska 1998

I saw you; Oscar pulling a cart made of wood, with large wood wheels like used in Europe years ago. You were hooked up to the cart by two thongs, or wood poles attached to the body of the cart, that you held to your sides with your hands and you were moving along a flat road. The cart was full of all-fresh fruits and vegetables, just mounded up full, and very colorful, of every beautiful color. And Jovita was sitting on top of the mound throwing the fruits and vegetables to what looked like a wall of people behind the cart also moving forward. As I looked I could see that the people were in a great line stretching out straight on both sides behind the cart and very deep with people, all looking forward and moving forward. The ones directly and right behind the cart had their hands reaching out and catching the fruit being given out by Jovita.

This is the fruit of your labors in the Lord Oscar and Jovita. As you are partners and laborers together with the Lord Jesus Christ in intercessory prayer and your ministry in the Holy Spirit. Giving first to the Lord than to the people. Giving to the people, hungry for the Lord and in need, the fresh fruit and nourishment of the Lord. You are in unity with one another, a team working with your God giving out the goodness and blessings of the Lord Jesus.

Prophecy given to Oscar and Jovita Harding

By: Jan Barry Brophy

Soldotna, Alaska May 2000

I see an extension of the vision that I gave you Oscar and Jovita a couple of years ago. The vision is the same with the cart filled full with multicolored fruits and vegetables. The cart is now stopped and you Oscar are not attached to it but standing along side the thongs that you use to pull the cart and you are looking back and up at Jovita in amazement, and she is on top of the mound of fruit standing, arms and hands lifted up and looking up to God in great joy. Around the cart are many, many people dancing and swirling in great joy before the Lord in a circle moving in a circle continuously around the cart. And I see above the cart a white-bluish cloud and I know that there are angels present in it. It is the glory of the Lord coming down just above the cart. Awesome! As I look the wall of people behind the cart are still there. It is a great wall of people in a great line going far into the distance on each side, all looking forward. Many people deep, a sea of people, but none ahead of the cart, all looking forward as though moving forward.

I believe that this is a time of great joy and a break though in your ministry and too it is a time in the body of Christ of out pouring that has been going on for a few years now. A time of the presents of God, of freedom, drunkenness in the Spirit, holy laughter, and of praise and great worship. That the worship is yet to be seen and revealed what it will be like. In pureness of heart, spirit and truth, clean hands and a pure heart in total surrender to God. That means with no other desire but to love Him who gave His life. Too, holiness, His holiness that will be revealed greatly in the body of Christ, inside us. It will be His life lived in the believer and His holiness present. A time of great glory to the Lord our God. His kingship revealed, His fatherhood respected and revered. We will know Him as Father, as He truly is. His headship in the body of Christ will rule. His rule and His rule alone. He may even walk among us as He appeared to the apostles after His ascension to glory. The brotherhood in the body of Christ will be manifest. I believe the sons of God will walk in and out of heaven, like ascending and descending on Jacobs ladder so to speak. Too, this is a time when the enemies of God will wonder what is this that they see, even the spirits of the devil and religious folks will look on in amazement not knowing what this is. Their power to oppose will be defused, they will watch with mouths agape, stunned in spirit. Yes it may be amazing and awesome to you Oscar and Jovita, but you will understand and enter in for you are right in the middle of it. You are a part of this move of the God. For the Spirit of God is with you.

The next scene is like this: You Oscar are still by the cart in front as before now you are facing out away holding your bible open and reading from it with the pages turning. Too, you are dressed in a dark suit that you did not have on before, with no tie. The cart is stationary as before but Jovita is prostrate on top of the mound of colorful fruit and vegetables on her back. You are out in the Spirit of the Lord my sister. All around the cart are many people on their knees and on their faces in repentance calling out to God. And all around the cart the ground is wet, all wet with the flow of tears. These are different people than the scene before and too there maybe some of the others. The Glory cloud and heavenly host are coming down closer to the cart now, getting closer above the cart, pressing down. But now I notice that this cloud is now moving in a circular motion as to form a whirlwind. Awesome! The great wall of people has not changed but to me seems to have gotten deeper, a great sea all moving forward as though they know nothing of the cart except those directly behind it, as it is in their view as they all are looking forward only. As I continue to look I see now demons running as fast as they can from the people around the cart all in a straight line three hundred and sixty degrees running for their life as to speak away from the people and the cart.

I believe this is a time of great repentance in the world and in some parts of the body of Christ. This is a move of God to bring great deliverance, a time when God alone is going to bring His repentance to the people, a time of great healings and deliverance. Only in true repentance to God is there great deliverance. The tears will flow in the streets, in the homes, in the churches, in every place of the earth. None will escape this presence and wake up for it is the Lord God of heaven that is moving, they will all hear and they will all know of the Lord Jesus Christ and His redeeming grace. All inhabitants of earth will know. The tears will flow in the streets, tears of repentance not of sorrow, not of guilt, not of condemnation, not of shame. But tears of true repentance, than of thanksgiving to and from the heart of God to bring forth salvation unto the people. Tears of repentance and acceptance of their great and wonderful savior for his love and forgiveness and eternal life given them, for his great love toward them.

Yes you Oscar and Jovita are a part of this. I see you moving into more and more of your calling to proclaim the word of God and doing the works of God. He working in and through you to His glory. And fully yielding to the power of God as though you are out and under the Spirit of the Lord. I believe the Holy Spirit says: "Some or part of this entire vision may manifest after your time here is over and you are in glory, or it may come quickly my son and daughter. But that the work that I am doing and will do through you now and in the years to come will be a part of this great move of God. I am using and will use you! You will be given the time to proclaim the word and will of the Lord, Oscar, and you will stay in the same labors as before Jovita. Expect to move into all that God will do through you to His glory. For He is with you to do His good pleasure and will watch over it to perform it. Continue to seek my glory. If you will always humble yourself before me I will hold back no good thing. Be hungry and satisfied not. Seek me early, while I am upon you, drawing you. I will be your portion and reward my son and daughter."

Now I see a close up of you only Oscar standing in thongs of the cart hooking yourself back up to it. And you are having trouble fastening the latch on your right side. I see a form that is larger than you by your side taking the latch from you and hooking it up for you. It is God. It's the Holy Spirit. And He is saying to you "I am your helper". I have never seen the Holy Spirit nor His form; this is the first time. I know that this is God.

Now I see you in the vision Oscar, close from the waist up. You are in the same suit with your hands lifted up to God looking unto Him. Eyes open, blessing Him. And it is raining. Getting you drenched. Absolutely soaking wet, big drops of water all over you, yet your face is as the sun shining on it. It is the glory of God on your countenance. You are looking up blessing God. Awesome!

This is the rain of God, a new rain, a flood, and a flood that washes everything everywhere. The rain is as silver glistening from the light from above, sparkling glory, pure, holy, fresh, and new. It is thick like oil almost, but yet its is rain. Beautiful, wonderful rain from above. Heaven is overflowing, her buckets are being tipped and poured out. What wonderful lovely water. Fresh living water, giving to all from above.

Now all is gone and I have that sense of it being gone. The cart, the time, the place, the people, yet it still remains, only different.

Now the vision has changed and I'm looking across the earth, low hills, trees, vegetation, I view the horizon. The sun is rising slowly. Its bright red orb just cracking the earth's line, coming up. It is quiet, very still, and yet light, though the sun is not up yet. I can here water dripping off the leaves of trees as after the rain. Just a drop here and there. But the smell is fresh so fresh and clean. It is a pure smell. I see no buildings, no man made structures or roads, and no people, and I know this is earth as though it was the garden in Eden. The peace of God is here. It is new. This is a new day. This is a new day as it is a new age or time, a new earth. This is all I see and understand about this vision, all I know about it. But in my heart I believe this is the end of the moves of God, as we the sons of God understand these things in our time on earth. What is here is all new. Never breathed, never seen, never walked in, not a word or sound from the lips of a man, never touched by the sons of man or the sons of God. Fresh! Awesome! I do know by the Spirit of God in me this is the "Dawning of a New Day", a new Time. We know that God has given to us His Son, who is life, and that life is eternal life, the life of God. Where He is we may be also, that He has prepared a place for those who love Him and look for His appearing.

This is the end of the vision.

Men of Harlech

Bob Neumann

Dear Bill,
something "dark and foreboding" has been stirring since the first of this year. I did not send this to you because at the time I was really struggling to understand what was going on myself. I have been corresponding at flowing with what Bill and Marsha Burns, Marty and Kimi Sayers, Harley Hickling, Judy Curmi, and Priscilla Van Sutphan have been sharing. I think that is the real goal of being in SCRIPTURAL UNITY.....HARMONY is the more accurate term. I know you are probably swamped with stuff.....please forgive me "dumping" a whole lot more in a short time. I pray that you catch a bit of the "scent" I have been chasing.... it is exhilarating....and unsettling at the same time... dog just got a little "zap" seems like I got a wake up notice a wile back and never responded....I guess I'm gettinggggggg ssssllllloowwwwwww.....

Subject: Men of Harlech

SHEMUEL, I have a word for you My son. I say "Shake off the dust. Rise up. I have set My intercessors to war on your behalf. That which has been hindering you has been broken." I call out to you "SHEMUEL come, now ! Come again into the Valley of Vision. I will renew you strength and I will take you higher. I said I will lift you up. It is for such a time as this that I have called you. Get up dog ! We are not only not finished yet We are just about to begin a New Day.

This came to me at 11:45 PM 1/1/2000

With Love and Prayer

Marty Sayers

I guess the problem is I have not felt to much like SHEMUEL.....of late.

but in the last few days without internet and TV and other distractions I got pulled back into the fight.... as seen with my posts to the watchman/seer sight....which you now have. but while I was forwarding these to you I had one of those Deja Vu again things.....but no HIGHWAYMAN...

now things this flaky give me chills....remember a year ago when we went through this....

well here goes.... I began hearing the song Men of Harlech in my spirit. freaked me out. has been awhile since the heavens have opened to me. and there I was in battle dress and Alice pack 12 gage in hand. I was going through a building dark/smokey/with a horrible stench..... and I was singing this song. Welsh battle song. a song calling to withstand the attack. against larger number.... here are the words.....if you get chills don't blame me.....

Men of Harlech stop your dreaming Can't you see their spear points gleaming see their warrior's pendants streaming
To this battle field.
Men of Harlech stand ye steady
It cannot be ever said ye
For the battle were not ready
Stand and never yield.
Through the hills surrounding
Let this war cry sounding

Summon all to Cambria's call
The mighty force surrounding.
Men of Harlech onto glory
This shall ever be your story
Keep this fighting words before ye Cambria(Welshmen never)will not yield.

now I was not in any open field....any trench....it was inside..... and I heard one simple sentence.....and things went wild..... "MY FATHER'S HOUSE IS A HOUSE OF PRAYER AND THEY HAVE MADE IT A DEN OF THIEVES" and then things got vividly graphic. details are not important....

cleansing the TEMPLE is not going to be easy because of the "stuff" that has resided there. BILL...MARSHA....this is the job ahead.

as I even write this I have another "old" song I am humming....it might be more familiar but it has a line that when I came to it I thought for a second to delete this whole post but I was told not to. it has been a long time since ABBA has spoken. and there is a warning I need to send. "BEWARE, THE SNARES HAVE BEEN LAID EVEN IN THE HOUSE THEY CLAIM AS MINE. ANTICIPATE THE TRAPS AND MOVE WITH CAUTION AS YOU MOVE WHERE THE ENEMY THINKS HE COMMANDS. BE VIGILANT AND FOCUSED FOR THE FAINT WILL PRECEDE THE ATTACK. STAND AND BE STRONG FOR I HAVE ARMED AND TRAINED YOU FOR THIS TIME."

and for the song and the line that "zapped" me I think it will be obvious.

The minstrel boy to the war is gone,
In the ranks of death you'll find him;
His father's sword he hath girded on,
And his wild harp slung behind him;
"Land of Song!" cried the warrior bard,
"Tho' all the world betrays thee,
One sword, at least, thy right shall guard,
One faithful harp shall praise thee!"

The Minstrel fell! But the foeman's steel
Could not bring that proud soul under;
The harp he lov'd ne'er spoke again,
For he tore its chords asunder;
And said "No chains shall sully thee,
Thou soul of love and brav'ry!
Thy songs were made for the pure and free
They shall never sound in slavery!

This, for those who can receive it, is in reference to "the three potent practices and the three Holy Names," mentioned by Rabbi Yisrael Ba'al Shem Tov at: <http://www.Inner.org/balshem/balshem.htm>

THE THREE MOST HOLY NAMES AND THEIR MEANING* (As given by revelation.)

- 1) Abba (Father): *YaHaVraHAM
- 2) Logos (Son): *YaHVahShua Ben-YaHaVaH
- 3) Rauch HaKadosh: (Holy Spirit): *YaHVahShammah

Illumination:

- 1) FATHER (Representative: Mozes) Creator, Source of ALL: Center and Circumference; Pure Thought, Pure Will, Pure Consciousness, Pure Light; Radiant Righteousness; Eternal, Self-Existent: Center of the Universe; Ruler (and Measure) of the Universe: Source of ALL Life, Love, and Moral Law (Torah and Divine Order).
- 2) SON (Representative: Yahvahshua) Mediator, LOGOS, WORD: COMMUNICANT: LORD
The Theophany who wrestled with Jacob and re-named him Yisrael. Messiah: Savior, Deliverer: Ben-Yosef/Ben-David. The Second Adam: Both Creator (WORD) and New Creation, in hypostatic Union: Deity in (within, among) Humanity.
- 3) HOLY SPIRIT of the Living G-D (Representative: Eliyahu) Breath of G-D. The Omnipresence of G-D, - "The Ever-Present One." Administrator and Executor of The Power and Will of El Shaddhai, - ONE with the Father and the Son: YaHaVraHAM and YaHVahShua. - The Mysteriamtremendous: The Fire of His Holiness: HIS Presence, - seen or unseen, felt or unfelt, known or unknown: THAT, along with the THOUGHT and WORD of The Father, Which Creates and upholds all things thru the Power of His Love, Will, and Infinite Knowledge and Wisdom.

Thought, Word, and Spirit : These Three are ONE: Co-Eternal, Co-Creative, Co-Existent as ONE Holy HaShem: The L-RD Almighty: The Holy One of Yisrael.

May the L-RD Most High prosper Israel in the knowledge of His Will and Way.

Restore! Restore! O L-RD, and raise up the remnant of Thy people.

Hast Thou Not Seen My Hand?

Jo Ann Glasco

Hast thou not seen My hand
moving in your behalf Picking up there a little - here a little to widen and make plain your path?

For you see "I'm a God who changes not And My mysteries unfold from the Testament of Old.

I've brought you to a place where you can do nothing but seek My face
I'll pour out on you My Spirit and reveal My knowledge to all men who will hear it.

Make known My ways in front of all men
As you become My guided light
This is done, of course, by yielding to My great might.

Rest in Me as you watch Me perform
The visions that I've given to you
Rejoice as I bring true
the revelation of the Spiritual Jew.

Hold fast - Stand true!
As the winds blow and the fires burn
Perfection will be the ultimate for you.

Think it not strange that I've brought you to this place
For it is time to bring My judgments on the human race.

My ways will be made perfect in you this hour
For I long to transfer to you
My glory and My power.

Hearken to Me - Look to Me!
for the signs of the times will be displayed for all men to see.
There will be no doubt what this great shaking is all about.

I love you, little children;
Step up to a higher place in Me
For you will feel My heart beat
And I will blow My breath on you
And you will be consumed with My zeal.
All of this to make My finished product to become real.

Look to me for you will see these great changes brought by My hand
You will not fear as you listen to My every command.

Place both of your hands in Mine, and I will lead you to Mt. Zion
For there you will have the perfect view
To watch all My sayings come true.

Hated

DanRoot

May 3

If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. John 15:18

Jesus often warned and demonstrated to His disciples that if we would follow and love Him, we would be disowned and hated by the world. Unfortunately there are many within the church today who do not have the love of our Heavenly Father towards those still caught and lost in the world's thickets. Since our human as well as Kingdom tendencies are to want to be accepted, received and loved; we must constantly be alert. We must never be lulled into worship or fellowship experiences that cause us to forget what we once were---very lost! Nor can we forget our purpose here as the Church: to perfect and prepare the body of Christ and find the lost to add to her!

Because many do not truly know the love of God, those walking close to the LORD will be rejected for not matching worldly people's expectations of how God and His people "ought to be." One ministry partner and evangelist recently told me that she found herself very alienated from both a group of Christians and the pastor in a church because of intolerance she heard expressed against worldly people. The church she was attending had become a haven of "safety" from unlovely people and turned into to a harbor of suspicion, gossip and resentment towards the unsaved! She had found herself in a "lost" congregation that thought it was saved! Instead of strategies on how to reach the lost, the conversation and attitude towards unbelievers had become one of gossip against the lost ones who needed finding! These Christians had forgotten that our battle is NOT against flesh and blood but against the principalities and powers of darkness that rule people who are not walking in the light! (Ephesians 3:10; 6:10) They need the truth presented with divine apape love and power so they can be delivered. They need prayer and intercession and faith so that the powers of darkness will not ultimately consume them.

Summary

Are we weeping "between the porch and the alter" for the lost? (Joel 2:17) Or are the fellowships we affiliate with, acting like the pious Pharisee who was pleased with his life because he was "not like other men." (Luke 18:11) Who are we? Are we living like the redeemed of the LORD, seeking out others so they can kind find eternal life too? Or are we carrying on like the "grateful dead." We were once lost but now we are found! Is this our true attitude? Do we care enough about the lost to feel sorrow and urgency to action as illustrated by Jesus' three examples of how the Father in Heaven feels about His lost ones?

In Luke 15, the LORD teaches us with three examples how the Father feels about the lost. The first is about lost sheep. After leaving the 99 sheep for the one lost sheep, the Shepherd says "there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent." The second parable is about the lost coin. A widow loses one of her 10 precious silver coins so she "searches the house carefully" until she finds it. The third example is about the lost son. The father is so overjoyed to see the return of his son after many days away that he "throws his arms around" his boy and celebrates his return. In each of these three stories, Jesus mentions celebration. There is so much joy in finding what and who was lost that friends, family and fellow workers are called to join in the celebration of a returned animal, a coin and a family member.

Regardless of our ministry focus, let us each reflect on what the Author and Redeemer of eternal life says to us about Heaven's attitude towards lost people. Let's have the same humility, compassion, mercy, urgency and obedience demonstrated by the shepherd, the widow and the father. May your day of search for the lost be carried out with the same intensity of purpose as the Son from above lived His daily Life to "seek out and to save that which was lost."

His Coming Glory

Sandy Warner

PREPARATION FOR DIVINE VISITATIONS--

THREE VISIONS OF HIS COMING GLORY CLOUD -

Compiled by Sandy Warner
SWauthor@aol.com
www.thequickenword.com

It's been a couple of weeks now since I returned from a Bob Jones, Bobby Conner & Larry Randolph conference. At the conference I received an experience of a visitation from the Lord's glory cloud and want to share it with you. I believe the experience and the environment in which it happened is a Word of the Lord for us all.

HIS COMING GLORY

This Pacific Northwest conference gave wonderful promises of the Lord's coming glory and that was very encouraging. Among the Words given, Larry Randolph said that the Lord was getting ready to visit His people. He said this would be individual and personal visitations, (rather than corporate visitations, for those would come at a later time) and many would see angels and even Jesus!

REPENTANCE AND INTERCESSION

However there was a strong theme from each of the speakers of a need for the circumcision of our hearts, repentance and a return to holiness. At the end of one such meeting, there was a call for repentance and intercession over the sins of our forefathers. There was weeping and mourning at the altar. (Joel 2:11-18) I was repenting over identified generational sins passed down in my family blood line.

Afterwards I felt empty and saddened at the sins and I heard the Lord say, "I forgive you. I forgive you. I forgive you." I knew it was for the 3 generations I had been praying about and His forgiveness put the matter to rest and I was comforted. I had been especially concerned about this being passed onto future generations and knew that it had been broken in Jesus Name.

SANCTIFY YOURSELVES

Immediately following, Pastor Dale Howell announced He felt impressed that the Lord was saying, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow I will visit you." (Joshua 3:5) He suggested that we would not waste away if we forwent the trip to Denny's after the meeting, but instead kept the same heart and quietly returned to our rooms to seek the Lord. As I quietly left, I noticed the walkway and halls back to our rooms were filled with people all walking in silence. This in itself was a work of the Lord. As I silently climbed into bed I noticed that the clock said 11:56 PM. I realized that it was 4 minutes until "tomorrow" and

ONLY 4 MINUTES UNTIL TOMORROW

I felt the Lord was going to visit me, just as Pastor Dale had said. My parting words to the Lord before falling into an exhausted sleep: "Lord it's only 4 minutes until tomorrow. Please come!"

I was not disappointed. At 4:45 I was awakened with a vision. I saw the cloud of the Lord rolling in on the same glory train tracks I had seen in previous visions. This cloud was moving like the speed of a train down these tracks. I perceived that the train was inside the cloud and being covered by the cloud. Since 4:45 AM was quickened to me as important, I immediately thought that 4:45 represented Ezekiel 44:5, although I could not remember what the passage said.

HIS CLOUD

As I lay in bed quietly worshipping the Lord, I realized His cloud was in the room. I literally breathed the vapor into my nose and lungs. I began to breath very deep as Bob Jones had suggested in an earlier meeting, and then after a while the humid vapor turned into strong incense. It was the same smell of incense that I smelled at Mahesh's Watch at a conference last year when the Lord had opened my sense of smell.

While I was smelling His incense, my right hand had a surge of His power go through it, then it began to tremble. I heard the Lord say, "Lay it upon your shoulder." I remembered that Bob Jones had said that the shoulder represents the government of the Lord. (Isa 9:6) It was quickened to me that the Lord was about to place His right hand of power upon the shoulders of those whom He has called into His divine government or rule. I felt that the right hand also represented His 5 fold ministry being endued with His power and going forth in His authority.

It was impressed to me that this vision and prophetic experience was somehow related to the environment of the conference meetings: the need for circumcision of our hearts, repentance and a return to holiness, as well as the Word, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow I will visit you." However it was not until a few days later, after I had pondered the experience and interpretation, that I found time to look up Ezekiel 44:5. The passage fit exactly.

EZEKIEL

Ezek 44:4-9 4Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; so I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell on my face. 5 And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary. 6 Now say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, let us have no more of all your abominations. 7 When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it--My house--and when you offered My food, the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations. 8 And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you." 9Thus says the Lord GOD: "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

FOR ADMONITION AND WARNING

The life stories in the Old Testament were written for our admonition (or warnings), even for our time today. (I Cor 10:11) They teach us as parables or examples of what He is wanting to teach us in our time. The above Ezekiel scripture clearly tells us those who may enter His Presence. If you note, verse 4 said that the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord. His Presence is waiting to fill us! However He will not fill our temples when we have uncircumcised hearts that feed upon unholy things.

A PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE WITH THE CLOUD

On 5/13/97 I had another experience with His cloud. I heard the Lord say, "A matter of time." Then I saw a 3-D cloud coming to me. It was hazy and I could see through it. Somehow I recognized that He was inside the cloud and I cried out, "Jesus!" Like a magnet, the cloud came immediately into my pores all over my body. It was like being quickened in all of my cells. I heard Him say, "Cloud. I AM with you. Follow Me." Although I literally experienced His cloud coming into my cells, since I had heard just prior to the vision that it was a matter of time, I believe this was a promise of what was literally to come. We will literally be experiencing the Presence of His cloud, not just in visions!

THE LORD'S THRONE ROOM

Annie Schisler, a missionary in Uruguay had numerous trips to the throne room 30 years ago. In her visions, she experienced many aspects of Him in His glory cloud. With her permission, the following is one of her visions.

Note that the Lord spoke to her in "now" language, which is customary to prophets. He is not limited by our slow sense of time. It is so easy to get our prophetic time mixed up because of this. However, I really do feel that with the pieces of the puzzle written in this post, (and more that I do not have space to record) that the time of His visitation is VERY CLOSE. He is hovering over our heads and waiting to visit us and fill us with His glory!

THE CLOUD DESCENDS [quoted from Annies Visions Book One, page70]

Again I was taken into the realms of the Spirit and lovingly welcomed by the Lord. After covering me with His love He especially told me that I need not have any fear because He would not abandon me. Then He showed me Himself as the Glorious Cloud of Fire and Light. The Cloud was the most excited and exceedingly exalted that I have ever seen it save in anger and wrath, but this time He was not in His wrath. Mighty power and all kinds of rays and emanations were upon all sides. In a most marvelous and tremendous manner He was filled with violence and activity yet it was not in wrath. I cannot describe at all what He was like in the Cloud.

Then there came out from Him in a huge wave something that appeared to be His very own self in mighty glory and in the Cloud yet He did not leave His high place in the heavens either, yet He did. He was in so much activity and moved about over the heavens that opened below Him.

This great wave of Himself in the Cloud also descended with tens of thousands of mighty angels down towards the earth. It did not descend slowly nor softly but in great haste and speedy activity. When it was as yet some distance from the earth it hovered there for a while suspended over the heads of the people, but they did not see it nor did they know it was there. And there it rested.

After a while this other Cloud that was Himself - so much so that it seemed that He had partly left the heavens - became again very active and then with another speedy movement it descended again. This time it went clear on down to the earth and was covered from my view.

NOT BY SURPRISE

Then He spoke saying, "This which you see will not take my loving sons by surprise because they are waiting for it to take place. They are already knowing and have been advised and are waiting for Me to come to them in love, for they will love My appearing." He also said that His hour had been fulfilled and that it was now the time that these things must shortly take place." [end quote]

We have so much to look forward to! May we search our hearts and ask Him to cleanse us from the sins of compromise and mixture.

[For those interested, I have had the books of Annie's Visions for many years and have been greatly blessed and enriched by them. Books 1 & 2 are now reprinted and available to purchase at my site, books 3 & 4 will be available in a few months. There is also a 49 page file at my website of visions and rhema about His coming glory train from people all over the world. For those not able to get to the site, a 78 page booklet is available for sale.]

He Shall Come Into His Temple

Mark Wattenford

August 10, 2000

The command of God will come out of Heaven and He will make the crooked places straight. The time is short. "Behold, the Glory of your God shall come to His Temple and these stones that He has set shall live in the LIGHT OF HIM. Behold! The Lamb of God and the King of Glory has come into His Temple - SUDDENLY. These are the days of Noah returned. The anger of the enemy is kindled hotter against the saints because he knows even more so that his time is short. Behold! The angels of God are poised in Heaven holding sickles in their hands ready to gather up the tares of the earth into bundles to be thrown into the fire. Look and see the great mercy of God poured out for us as He gathers all that is His into His Storehouse. We shall all be clothed in His Glory - like the stars in Heaven each according to the portion God has given them. The word of the Lord that has gone forth from Heaven is His Proclamation that He is going to His Temple and HIS Glory will "fill the Temple!"

"Behold, them that shall rise from the grave," sayeth the Lord. "Israel is a nation again as I declared would be from long ago and they are the apple of my eye and I am turning my eyes again to the land that I love. LOOK! Israel is the fig tree that has sprouted and is a sign that ALL that is MINE is being brought UNTO ME. I come with My reward with Me and to them who have believed - I shall reward them with crowns of life and of glory."

Thus sayeth the Lord - "I am coming out of My chamber, dressed as one going to His wedding, and with a mighty shout will I call for My Bride and she shall come to Me. I have purified My people seven times in the fire and behold, what I bring forth is gold that has been purified, until it is translucent - so that it is MY REFLECTION that you see when you look upon them! Look! I have called a multitude of prophets upon the Earth to declare with one voice the end of the age. Look at the pure word of My Spirit that I now bring forth in the earth and it shall NOT be mixed with any unholy thing. Behold! The vessels I have chosen in this time, how they are not the choice of men. Look! I have taken a weak vessel to go forth in MY STRENGTH. Behold the vessels that were scorned of men and of the religious how I place in them the Wisdom of My Ways, and they will be called, "THE ORACLES OF GOD." Look! All the prophets of old are looking on in anticipation of all these things."

"Take heart My people, for even though one may die in Me, yet SHALL HE LIVE. You cannot know even a little bit of what I AM is "going to do." LOOK! at the great darkness that is coming over the earth and look at how men do not perceive it even now coming down. They choose darkness and in darkness they will be caught. Listen, I have told you, this is not judgment prepared for them that believe as Noah and his family were not appointed unto wrath, because he was a righteous man and how much more so those appointed unto glory who are washed in My blood? As Noah was shut in the Ark, so shall I lead you into where I am and I shall shut the door. They that are outside shall bare the wrath stored up for them, but the darkness shall not enter in where I am, and that place of safety you have - IN ME."

"Pray now for Israel. That ALL Israel may see, that their eyes may be opened and that they may see and hear the truth!

FOR I AM TRUTH..... I AM THEIR MESSIAH!"

Heavenly Fire

Sean Clarke

Acts 2:1-4

"...And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared cloven tongues like as of fire, and it lay upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost."

Many years ago when I was in a gymnasium with about 150 non-believers, I was playing the song Amazing Grace on my guitar when tongues of fire filled the entire gym. You could feel the power of His presence! It brought such conviction! You knew that the Living God was present. Hearts started to melt. You could see tears coming down the cheeks of many. There was conviction but there was also a feeling of such love. There was no feeling of condemnation, but acceptance. It was as though the heavens had opened and the Lord was just stopping by for a visit, just to let everyone know that He was for them and not against them.

I was 21 years old at the time and had never seen this before! I didn't know what to do. My pastor and his wife were across the table from me with their chin's hanging about a foot below their shoulder's. Their eye's were as big as golf balls. I felt such pressure to bring an explanation to this visitation I had never experienced. All I could do was sing Amazing Grace, and sit in awe at the manifest Presence and Power of God Almighty in our midst.

Since that time I have seen the fire again and again. The results are always nothing short of awesome.

One thing I could never figure out was, "why fire"? I wasn't familiar with the fire of God biblically speaking. I'd never heard anyone speak of the fire of God except when it came to fire and brimstone and eternal punishment. It was hard to think of the fire of God as being a cleansing agent.

One and a half years after my experience in the gym, I remember taking a friend's brother out for coffee. There the Lord showed up in just as before. Brad was a backslider before we got to the coffee shop, but left that place with a filling of the Holy Spirit and just as on the day of Pentecost.

The Holy Spirit had come upon me powerfully before Brad could even sit down. I became very bold and spoke with confidence. He just sat and listened as I told him about the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that was taking place in these last times and the soon return of Christ.

I was now speaking in the word of knowledge fluently. I was telling him what he was feeling and where. I was describing to him how the Holy Spirit was filling him up starting from his belly and moving upwards to his head. He shared with me afterwards saying that all that I said was correct.

All of a sudden to both of our amazement, tongues of fire appeared in the air between both of us. We couldn't see our faces clearly through the tongues of fire. There was suddenly this overwhelming feeling of ecstasy like nothing on earth could ever match. We watched in awe as the tongues of fire seemed to dance before us.

It has been visitations like this that have made me feel a lot like Moses must have felt when he saw the burning bush and looked again realizing that indeed the bush was not consumed by the fire at all.

The bible says that "the Lord thy God is a consuming fire even a Jealous God!" It's true!

God is also a loving God and "as a consuming fire he shall destroy " our enemies.

But when He appeared to Moses as fire in a bush, he did not consume him. "A fire goes before Him, and burns up all His enemies. The hills melt like wax at the presence of the Lord. The Lord reigns." Guess what?! We are not His enemies! Hell was not prepared for us! It was prepared for Satan and all his demon buddies! "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. Who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death!" "The Lord is that Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is there is freedom!" Freedom! Where He is, there is freedom. Where He is not there is bondage, sickness, depression, oppression, cancer, ulcers and every other curse that is written in the law. Guess what?! You are no longer under the law of sin and death that comes as a result of sin. We are under the law of the Spirit of life where there is freedom. It's called grace and it's free of charge to the believer. Christ paid the price on our behalf. If we had to work for it, then it would no longer be a gift.

His fire goes before him and burns up all His enemies! His enemies are your enemies and visa versa. So His fire is for you, not against you. We don't need to fear this fire of His presence which is so powerful that Nahum said, "The mountains quake at Him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at His presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein." (Nahum 1:5) That's verse 5 but in verse 7 He says, "The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knoweth them that trust in Him." And verse 13, "Now I will break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds asunder."

Praise the Lord! His fire will be poured out upon His enemies and if those enemies have put a yoke on any of us, the same fire here will destroy that yoke! It is the yoke of our enemies and our enemies are His enemies. "The anointing destroys the yoke". The fire of God is His Power Anointing.

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego all went into the fiery furnace because they refused to "worship any other God's" and they had another walking with them in the fire. The only thing that was burnt in the fire, besides the soldiers that put them in there, was the rope that bound them! and I believe this is what the fire of God is doing for His children today.

I remember just recently receiving the word of knowledge over someone who had a yoke of bondage over their shoulder's. Each time the demon tried to come out of him it would hit its head on the yoke. That's called bondage. Then, under the leading of the Holy Spirit, I put my hand on his shoulder as if to be grabbing the yoke and I said, "I lift this yoke off you and throw it to the pit where it belongs. Now you can come out you demon, in Jesus name. I then placed my hand on the man's lower spine and the fire that was on my hand forced the demon up the man's spine and right out through his neck and out his mouth. He coughed and spit them out. This all happened in about 2 minutes. There was no battle and two demons came out just like that because of the Lord's presence as fire and through the operation of the word of knowledge.

Jesus said, "Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am gentle (meek) and humble (lowly) in heart, and you will find rest (relief and ease and refreshment and recreation and blessed quiet for your souls." (Amplified version) [Jer. 6:16]

One occasion I just stood up to go and pray for a man to be free and before I could stand up, a person on the other side of him felt a strong cold wind go by. Her eyes were closed at the time. She said it made her hair stand on end and her coat lifted up off her backside. She could feel the demons leave this man before I even got close to him. At that time again, my hand was burning hot with the Lord's presence as fire.

This is the glory of God. It is His manifest Presence. It is the Lord visiting His people.

The Bible says, "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil." (1John 3:8). His manifest presence destroys His enemies and His enemies are our enemies and visa versa. The devil is the enemy of God. The devil is our enemy too. God manifested His presence in power to destroy the devil. We also need the manifest presence of God in power to destroy the devil. Nothing less will do. Romans 1:4 says, "and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead."

Just quoting versus will do no good, nor will it do any harm. But unless those versus are being backed up by His manifest Presence and Power, they are totally useless. Totally. No if's and's or but's about the matter.

The prophets of Baal called on their god all day and jumped up and down and yelled and quoted all day to no avail. Elijah simply followed the voice of the Lord and he called down fire from heaven and it came. He didn't call and get no results like the false prophets of Baal. Fire came when he called.

If we are going to see victory over our enemies, then we need the manifest presence of His power just as Elijah. The fire of God's presence coming down and consuming His enemies.

I recently had an open vision of a large group of people. They were all gathered together in their little clicky groups as they were observing one woman start to run screaming in fear. They thought for sure she had gone crazy. I knew that wasn't the case. I could see a tall demon that looked like a white ghost chasing her around and growling at her. I then boldly called out to the people to get their attention. Once I had it, I explained to them what was happening. I could hear them begin to quietly mach me. The Holy Spirit was leading me. I then said to the people, "listen, I will prove to you that what I say is true. Jesus is going to set her free when I take authority over this demon and command it to go."

I then did just that and to my amazement as I was commanding this demon to go to the pit, about 50 other demons came out from behind all the surrounding trees and were carried away by a great gust of wind, up over the trees and then down over the ridge like they were being sucked up by a great vacuum. Immediately I heard and felt an enormous explosion. It was so incredibly loud! There was a great flash of light and the earth shook violently. I then came out of the vision.

Two days later I received a phone call from a friend of mine who is an ex-Satanist. He used to be involved in just about everything that wasn't good and has many bad connections with people such as the Hell's Angels. He said to me, "Sean, I've been experiencing such rage and anger lately, more than I ever I'm realizing how little control I have over it. I think that I'm possessed and I want to be free."

For the previous five years I had always been there for my friend when he called. When things started to get better he seemed to be overtaken by the temptation of his past and never got totally free. This happened over and over again. I knew all the time that he was possessed but the opportunity never came up where he wanted to accept this.

There was something different about his attitude this time. "The Lord is that Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is there is freedom." I felt in my conscious the witness of the Holy Spirit. I also knew that I've been experiencing a greater flow of the anointing since the last time I talked with this fella.

I suggested to him that I would come over and if the power of God's presence showed to set him free, then so be it. But if His presence didn't show up, then so be it. He agreed to this. I could see that the Lord didn't want him to feel threatened or pressured in any way.

When I arrived at his house, he met me outside where he could have a smoke. We simply talked about cars for ten or so minutes then went inside where we sat in the living room with his wife. There we talked about life in general and then I shared some testimonies about what the Lord is doing around the globe.

Suddenly! The Lord seem's to enjoy showing up suddenly. It's like He's saying, "Surprise!!!"

Suddenly, I felt fire on my hands and I was going into a trance. I said to my friend, "I wonder if I could just do something different here for just a second. I'm feeling the power of God all of a sudden and I'd like to take some authority and give some commands." He agreed.

I then took authority and gave some commands to the demons, simply telling them that they were coming out. I said to my friend, "What are you feeling right now?" He said to me, "All of a sudden I feel like smashing my head against the wall and this is not me." I comforted him that the Lord was present with power and he would be ok. I see that we need to be confident in the Lord at all times. If someone like my friend thought I was not confident, he could have broken down. He was feeling rage trying to manifest itself in him.

Again, suddenly! The room filled up with tongues of fire in such great measure that I couldn't even see my friend anymore. I couldn't even see the sofa chair I was sitting on. I felt like I was on a pedestal and I was going to fall off.

Then suddenly my friend started to frantically swipe at his nose as though a Bee just went up his nose. When I asked him what was happening, he said that he felt something icy cold come out his nose leaving the tip of his nose cold. At the same time he was sweating from the heavenly fire that was present in the room.

My friend was delivered! He is still feeling free. "The Lord our God is a consuming fire." Amen.

Hear & Obey

Linda Lamon

1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. John 10:1-5

Do you know His voice? Whose voice do you listen to? What does it mean to hear His voice? After all, Jesus no longer walks among us in the flesh, so how can you hear His voice today? We are believers by faith and not by sight. The world will tell you that hearing voices is a sign of mental instability. Well that would make Jesus unstable to say the least since He said He spoke only what He heard! He also said that if you knew the Father you would know Him since He and the Father are one and the same. It is essential in your walk with the Lord that you learn what it means to hear His voice and obey that voice. This voice will rarely if ever be an audible voice. Even in the Bible audible voices are rare. Yet over and over you read the words, “the word of the Lord came to....” “the Lord spoke to ...”

How does God speak to His children? How do we know what voice to ‘listen’ to? In the times we live in this is of primary concern or should be for every born-again child of God. How can you walk with Jesus daily if you do not recognize or hear the voice of your Lord, your shepherd?

Here are a few questions for you to ponder.

When you pray who does all the talking?

When you have serious issues to decide and bring them to the Lord in prayer, how long do you wait for an answer?

How do you know you have an answer?

Do you believe that the Father will speak to you?

Do you ask questions of the Lord and receive multiple answers in your mind?

Is there confusion in your mind when you are trying to make decisions because multiple solutions or answers run wild through your mind?

Are you afraid of hearing the wrong voice?

Do you want the answer to the question, “Can I really hear God?”

Have you ever thought that you had heard God, then when things seemed not to work out doubted yourself and God?

Is this important to you?

If you have answered yes to question ten, keep reading. If you have answered no to question 10, keep reading because you have much to learn.

The title Hear and Obey is what living in Christ is all about. Hearing, and Obeying. Jesus said that His sheep hear His voice and follow after Him. There is no qualifying this, His sheep hear His voice. It is a statement of fact not a question. There are many ways that we ‘hear’ the voice of the Lord. The first is through the Word of God.

The first chapter of John teaches us that the Word is God and Jesus is the Word of God. He is the fullness of God expressed in bodily form. The written words, the ‘logos’ of scripture, are the means we have of understanding God Himself. Just as Jesus and His life teach us about God, the written words teach us God and His ways. So often though we end the discussion right here. There is another kind of word in the Bible, it is called ‘rhema’ in the Greek and it means expression or spoken words. This is what makes the Logos come to life in our lives because it is living through the Holy Spirit. In the movie “Jesus of Nazareth” there is a scene that takes place in a synagogue in Capernaum where Jesus is teaching the people. He talks about the law being alive not just mere words written in stone. He tells the people that God wants to write the law in their hearts, that the law is alive and changes and brings change in the hearts of men. It is one of my favorite scenes because though not a literal portrayal of any passage of scripture it is an accurate depiction of what it means to be saved, to be born again. God promised over and over in the old testament that He would take away their hearts of stone, give them hearts of flesh and write His laws in the hearts of His people and that He would be their God and they would be His people.

The people of Israel should have been able to understand just exactly what was being said. The entire gospel from Genesis to Revelation is about this process. Like so many of us though, the Jews interpreted these promises in the light of their own understanding and desires rather than just accepting and learning what God really was saying to them. They became caught up in their own sense of destiny, thinking that God was going to simply exalt them as a nation and most of them, not all, missed the true meaning of Jesus’s presence on earth. He didn’t fit their notion about what their promised Messiah would really accomplish. They wanted a physical King and ruler so that they would be the greatest nation on earth and missed the fact that they needed a redeemer to save them from their sins. They only wanted the Glory.

It is imperative that in learning to hear and know the Lord that we do not interpret Him in our own understanding but truly learn to seek His truth and His ways. Our ways are foreign to God and in actuality our ways are enmity (enemies of) God. So even in reading scripture we must learn to ask God to unfold the truths to us or we will be guilty of missing Him just as the children of Israel did 2000 years ago. This may seem rather hopeless to some by now. Truly it is far from hopeless. We are not without help. We have the Holy Spirit, if we belong to Christ.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. 15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. John 16:7-15

It is because of the Holy Spirit that you will be able to hear, recognize and learn of the Father. He is our Teacher, our Guide, Comforter, and the one that convicts of sin, righteousness and judgment. He is called the Spirit of Truth and without Him you do not belong to Christ. Never forget this. He doesn't draw attention to Himself but rather draws us to Jesus and the Father. This is a profound and marvelous mystery. He shows us Jesus. No one comes to Jesus except the Holy Spirit draws him or her. So once you understand this basic principal you are ready to answer the questions we pondered above.

When you pray who does all the talking?

If your prayers are just a one way conversation, you to God, you need to learn the principal of "being still and knowing that He is God." You will hear His voice only if you stop talking long enough to listen.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah? 2 Kings 19:11-13

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. Psalms 46:10

Prayer needs to be a conversation, you talk and listen in conversation. A person that monopolizes a conversation is considered rude. How rude are you to God because you do not have the faith to believe that God is real and that you can or even should be hearing Him as well as talking to Him. What? If our Father is not going to talk to us then how will we be better off in worshipping Him than the Buddhists that worship an idol of stone? Stone doesn't talk...Our Heavenly Father does!

Perhaps you don't listen because you fear listening to the wrong Spirit or you are just ignorant. Let the Holy Spirit open your mind and help you to understand. You must believe that you can hear Him in order to do so, for if you don't believe you will receive nothing.

When you have serious issues to decide and bring them to the Lord in prayer, how long do you wait for an answer?

Wait for an answer? Most of you are just shooting off your prayer requests and never even thinking to ask the Lord what you should do or how you should be praying. You decide what you want the Lord to do and then just tell Him. Like He is some sort of “short order cook” and will prepare your order if you will just send it to Him. You aren’t asking for yourself, perhaps you are asking for someone else but you fail to say ‘Lord help me to pray your perfect will in this matter. Teach me your ways that I may walk in your truth’. No, we have it all figured out and we just go about ordering God to fulfill our desires and wishes, forgetting that these might be the very opposite of His plans but not even bothering to ask if He has a plan. You must learn to expect an answer and accept the answer. Trust Him to prevent the enemy from deceiving your mind. Your mind is perfectly safe from the assaults of Satan if it is focused and fixed upon Him.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. James 1:5-8

When you do not live by this scripture in regards to prayer and asking God for guidance, believing that He will answer, you make Him out to be a liar. Your refusal to learn to listen is evidence of your lack of faith. He said He would answer...so wait for the answer. Don’t jump off and try to solve the problem or find the answer in your own reasoning. Wait for Him to tell you. Until He gives you the answer, do nothing, don’t decide. He said He would answer, act like you believe it and wait for the answer. He will never answer too late. You are just too impatient to wait or haven’t learned how great His answers are.

I have an example for you. Someone I love very much and have prayed for his salvation for many years, turns a deaf ear to me these days. So I wait for the Lord to tell me what to do. Recently he sent me an email that was forwarded by someone that claimed that Christianity and Jesus are just myths adopted from Mithraism and other pagan religions much older than Christianity. It grieved my heart very much and I wanted to refute every lie in the article. I prayed and cried but the Spirit said don’t do anything. That was hard for me. I would die to save this persons soul. Silence seemed hard.

Then I received an unsolicited email sent to me and everyone on the to: list of the original email from the one I love, that wonderfully disputed and witnessed the truth to everyone that had received that email. I could not have answered so powerfully, effectively, or with the authority of this author because I lack certain historical knowledge. My heart sang though for the Lord answered my prayer and sent the response needed. I pray it will bring forth the fruit the Lord intends. He is Lord. When I wait and listen and then obey what I hear, I am never sorry, never wrong, and receive ten times the blessing and joy I would get trying to do things my way. His ways are better than my ways and I am learning to trust in that.

How do you know you have an answer?

There is a necessity to test the answers you hear. A necessity to know the voice of the Lord from your own internal voice and the voices of our enemy, Satan and his unholy demons. How will you learn to recognize His voice over the voice of another spirit? Simple, Hide His word in your heart. Read it and re-read it and ask Him to speak to you through the word. This will train your mind to know His voice. He will never contradict His own word. He will not give you consent, for example, to commit adultery. It is against His word. He will not guide you into sin, rather He will deliver you from evil and temptation. Your own flesh will deceive you but if you will hide the scripture in your heart it will keep your feet on the right path.

Psalms 119:11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Psalms 119:105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Psalms 12: 6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

When I was a very young woman and newly filled with the Holy Spirit I was exposed to the “name it and claim it” type of faith teachings. I was young, desperate and alone, having been abandoned by my husband with two babies. I decided that the local grocery store that gave away a $100 jackpot was something that the Lord would give me to meet my needs. I prayed and asked the Lord to give it to me and told everyone that I would win it. I did enter the drawing and I truly believed this was going to happen. I named and claimed it and never doubted it. Yet the money went to someone else, even another person named Linda! I was devastated but I knew that this had to be my mistake. God doesn’t make mistakes. I cried to the Lord and asked Him how long He would just let me keep falling on my face with my faith, He very plainly told me that He was not in the business of destroying my faith but in the business of building my faith. By that I knew that it was my presumption that brought the damage to my faith, not His faithlessness. You see I never asked Him what I should actually be praying for or to show me what He wanted to do I just asked for what I thought I needed and He gave me what I really needed. He taught me a valuable lesson in learning to ask Him what I should do. Faith prayers of that type are only going to work if He tells you to claim something. He told the children of Israel to claim the land of Canaan but they were afraid, their unbelief in God’s power to conquer a relatively primitive place like Canaan after what He had done in delivering them from Egypt, was a tremendous insult. It cost that entire generation their inheritance in Canaan.

Have faith. Believe that God will answer and you will know as surely as you know that day and night will continue that He will answer you. If you listen, He will speak and you will hear and know the truth.

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Isaiah 30:21

Do you believe that the Father will speak to you?

Without faith, a commitment to believe with all your heart, you cannot please God. You will not hear His voice if you don’t believe that He will speak to you. You must choose to believe. Choose to Hear. Believe His word. Faith begins by choosing to believe. Belief in God is not accomplished by a preponderance of evidence but rather is the evidence of a heart that longs for the truth and knowledge of God. It is work to believe in Jesus Christ. He said it is the work of God. No one makes you work in the Kingdom of God. You either work to believe or you are tossed and turned by every wind of change. Ground yourself in the Word of God and anchor your soul in the Holy Spirit, there is no other foundation to build your Christian walk upon. It is not about rules or denominations or opinions. It is about Jesus Christ and knowing and following hard after Him. That means with your whole heart, mind and all your strength. Make a commitment to follow Him and He will draw you to Himself.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Hebrews 11:6

For some of you this is going to be too simple, you just won't get it, you want it to be much more complicated. Believe that God is, He exists and He answers (rewards) those that diligently seek Him. I can't improve upon that statement. It is the foundation of all your ability to hear God.

Do you ask questions of the Lord and receive multiple answers in your mind?

Here we are back to the main issue of James 1:5-8. You must believe, rebuking and refusing doubt. Verse 8 is very interesting. 8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. The word translated 'double minded' literally means two spirited. You have multiple answers because your heart is in bondage to demonic forces and you have not purified your heart and mind. Repent and allow the Lord to cleanse your heart and He will give you an undivided heart so that you will hear only His voice. I have battled this myself and I know the power of God to set our minds free and give us victory over all the strongholds that Satan and sin capture us in. Deliverance is not just for the really bad people it is for everyone. We have all sinned and come short of the Glory of God. Every one is subject to bondages and God is willing to cleanse every one of us.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.
James 4:7-10

When I was first Spirit-filled and learned of deliverance there was no doubt in my mind of how much deliverance my husband needed. His demons were running amok in those days. When I sought to pray for him and sought deliverance for him, God delivered me. He revealed my own faults and bondages and continues to deliver me and keep me free. God is faithful. My husband just left. I am not going into a treatise on the deliverance ministry but it is real, you need it and if you will seek God He will give you what you really need; His power to overcome and break down every bondage and stronghold in your life. Purify your heart, humble yourself before Him. Don't say, not me, I'm ok. He that claims to be without sin is a liar and the truth is not in him. 1 John 1:10.

Is there confusion in your mind when you are trying to make decisions because multiple solutions or answers run wild through your mind?

Go on or re-read number 5.

Are you afraid of hearing the wrong voice?

Trust in Him. He is able to keep that which He has saved and it is in Him you need to trust not yourself. Never trust in your own ability to have faith or believe. Trust in His faithfulness to His word and to you.

Do you want the answer to the question, "Can I really hear God?"

Having read this far, you now can say yes or no. I want to know. His word teaches that you can and in fact must be able to hear the Lord if you are His. If you are not hearing Him and following Him then perhaps you better start at the very beginning and ask "do I really know Him at all?”.

Have you ever thought that you had heard God, then when things seemed not to work out doubted yourself and God?

This scenario can mean many things.

One-you are asking and trying to listen but are perhaps not grounded enough in the word to test what you hear. Keep studying, praying and believing.

Two- Doubt is still a part of your life. You must work on truly believing, without wavering, rebuking every doubt and fear.

Three-Perhaps the Lord is trying to teach you as He did me to listen more carefully and pray His will in every situation rather than being presumptuous in your prayers.

Four-You have interpreted what God spoke to you in your own reasoning and have heard but not understood what the Lord was telling you. For example: When the Lord began to deliver me from all the bondages in my life, the man I was married to hated me. He hated everything I was and everything I did. I, being raised to believe that marriage is sacred, believed with all my heart that God would heal my marriage and make things right. In this process of deliverance the Lord told me to let go of my husband even unto death. I feared at first that He might actually be going to kill my husband. I prayed long about this but the Lord just said “Let go”. Finally I did this. It was three years after our divorce that I finally understood that what the Lord was saying was ‘as unto death’. When a person dies and grieving takes place the hardest thing to learn to do is to accept that they are not coming home, not coming back. That was what He meant, my husband would leave and not come back. I had to let him go, and not wrestle with the Lord over him. I finally did really let go and the wounds have been healed and God is Lord in my life.

By interpreting what I had heard or rather mis-interpreting I slowed the healing process for a long time. Don’t evaluate, just listen and when you lack clear understanding wait for Him to make it clear. He will, for He has promised to do so.

Is this important to you?

I pray that you are saying a resounding yes. For here is the real crux of the matter, without the ability to hear you cannot obey. Jesus said “If you love me you will keep my commandments”. If you are His and love Him you must first of all hear the commandments in order to obey them. This can be the written commandments and also the breath of the Holy Spirit moving you to do His will. The second part of this is about obeying. First hear and then obey. The first without the second is useless. The second is impossible without the first.

Throughout the Old Testament I have been completely amazed at the many times people hear the word of the Lord but refused to obey it. Time and time again Israel fell away from God to follow after false gods or disobeyed and lost their blessings by doing so. Saul did this and lost the kingdom. God appeared to Solomon and gave him what ever he desired and Solomon was the greatest of all the Kings in Israel. Yet Solomon turned away and it cost him ten tribes.

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. 12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father’s sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. 1 Kings 11:9-12

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: 1 Kings 11:28-31

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only. 1 Kings 12:15-20

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense. 1 Kings 12:25-33

I have read this story over and over and am still I am always amazed at the plain and simple foolishness it reveals in the hearts of men. Even after having the prophecy fulfilled for Jeroboam and him being given ten tribes to rule, he learns nothing. God is not able to keep the kingdom for him that He has given to Jeroboam, no, Jeroboam must somehow prevent the people from going to Jerusalem to worship so he institutes his own state religion in order to “bind” the kingdom to himself and thereby guarantees that he will lose it. This is exactly what we do when we try to do things our own ways instead of seeking to know the Lords ways. We guarantee our own failure. Many times I see in scripture that God more or less overlooks or forgives men for their sins and failings. Murders, lies, stealing, all are forgiven and often consequences even not realized. I can find no evidence that men are spared the consequences of allowing anything to supplant God in their worship or heart. He will not share His rightful place with anyone or anything else. The first and greatest commandment is to love the Lord your God with all your heart and all your mind and all your strength. No other gods before Him. He must be first. He never takes a back seat in our lives nor allows us to displace Him with anything else.

This is the message that John the Baptist brought to the nation of Israel. Repent, put God first, make straight the way of the Lord, so that He can come to you. He went throughout the kingdom of Israel calling men to return to the Lord and make Him first in their lives. To leave behind their own ways and learn His ways. Jesus brought the same message and they rejected both John and Jesus. Killed them both. Yet even this is the plan of God. His plan to continue to call us to Him and teach us His ways so that we will walk in His truth.

For months and months, perhaps even years, the Spirit has warned us to prepare our hearts and lives, making Him first in all things. Give up loving the world and the things of the world. The Y2k problems have awakened many from a complacent slumber and caused them to re-evaluate their goals and objectives in life. It certainly did so in my life. I warned everyone, have no fear, just make sure that you can hear and obey the Lord. Now people are acting like they must have made a mistake, perhaps they stored food, water and made life changes and altered their pattern of living. None of this matters unless you are following the voice of the Lord. There is prudent reason to always live a life of preparedness. Prepare to meet your maker. He may call you home tonight. Prepare to meet emergencies and disasters and do not live with your head stuck in the sand, oblivious to the world and signs of the times. Hear the voice of the Lord and obey.

Now if you have done this, why are you questioning yourself? Your job was not to question and interpret but to obey. Continue to obey, don't be like Jeroboam and start trying to "fix" things yourself. Just keep on the path the Lord has put you on and trust that all that you have done is for His purposes and His timing. Never turn back. Have you come so far, walking in obedience, to now say ...oops, I must have missed something. Trust in your ability to hear Him because He is faithful, not because you are good at hearing. Remain steadfast in your convictions and walk therein. Jesus is coming for His bride and His work is not going to end.

This last week as I fasted and prayed for the coming turn of the century and a new millennium I sought God's mercy and face. We are fragile creatures dependent upon His mercy. I believe He has shown mercy and grace. Yet I am sure that I am not done in learning to produce a more self-reliant lifestyle. I will continue on the path He has set my feet upon. I am grateful that the water works, the heat works and also the electricity. I am grateful that I can still write and communicate with my friends around the world. I do not believe it is over, only beginning.

During the midst of this fast, on Friday, I became very ill. For three days I ran a 102 fever and hurt and coughed and just really wished I could just go home. Monday morning my fever broke and I am recovering. While lying ill watching the world party away its life I heard the Lord say, "Just let them party on". I remembered the scripture that says (in Linda paraphrase) "just let them be what ever they are".

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Revelation 22:10-12

A more appropriate scripture I cannot think of. Just as it was in the days of Noah. The world parties on, oblivious to the path of destruction it is on. We as God's children must not be like them. Yet I know many nominal Christians are out there, going on with life as usual and this "not even a speed-bump event" will add to their complacency. They reap the fruit of their complacency in spiritual blindness. God keep us from complacency, deliver us from our blindness. Open our ears that we can hear. Give us willing feet and ready hands to do your will. Not our ways but yours Lord. Keep us from turning now and being sucked up into the complacency of the world but keep our hearts burning through the power of your Holy Spirit.

Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Trust in His word. Keep your mind and heart stayed upon Him. You didn't miss Him if you truly sought His will. He just hasn't brought the fulfillment of what He is doing in your life yet. Keep on the path He has put you on. If you truly have wandered away, repent, return, He is waiting for you with outstretched arms to comfort, heal and repair your breached walls. Jesus loves you and all the peoples of the earth. Never doubt that or His faithfulness to you. As I have pondered the present, the past months, the frenzy, and then the apparent toothless Y2k bug, I am reminded that things are not always as they seem. Life is going on and that just means we have more time to hear and obey.

In my life I have lived without electricity, in a tent, and in many different circumstances. Jesus has never failed to meet my needs. He will continue to do so. I will continue to follow Him.

This song rings throughout the world. Never forget who is in control and what our end is, the promises. Mountains represents all powers and authorities in the earth. The seas are all the peoples of the earth. Consider the fact that one day the whole earth will be filled with the Glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. What can prevent Him from fulfilling His purposes?

Shout to the Lord

words and music by Darlene Zsech

My Jesus, My Savior
Lord there is none like you
All of my days I want to praise
The wonders of your mighty love
My comfort, my shelter
Tower of refuge and strength
Let every breath and all that I am
Never cease to worship you

Shout to the Lord , All the earth
Let us Sing
Power and majesty, Praise to the King
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar
At the sound of your name.
I sing for joy at the work of your hands
Forever I'll love you, Forever I'll stand
Nothing compares to the promise I have in You

Shout to the Lord

Hear The Wind Blowing

Bill Burns

January 9, 2000:

Can you hear the wind blowing? Have you not heard the sound of the trumpet? Have you not heard My voice beckoning unto you today? Come! Come! Come unto Me. It is written that I shall revive you and lift you up into My heavenly presence. You must understand the times and the seasons in which you live. This is the season or preparation for those who will walk in the fullness of My power. This is the season of preparation, for now you must come unto Me willing. Now you must take up your own cross and deny yourself and walk before the Lord of the whole earth. When I spoke to My servant, Abraham, the terms of the covenant were simply this: walk before Me and be obedient. This is the hour that the angels of glory have longed to look into. These are the days that the prophets of old could not view, yet there was a yearning in their heart for the knew that even after these things, the things that I spoke to them, there was yet to come the Day of the Lord. There was yet to come the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit on those who would be obedient unto Me and walk before Me. The gates of heaven and the windows of heaven are open unto My people in this hour. Over the very balconies of heaven the great clouds of witnesses are cheering you on. They are watching you with a longing heart, for if they could choose to be on the earth at this time they would yet come. I declare that I have saved the best for last. In this, the end of the age, the water is being changed into wine. All that is required of you is that you become a new wineskin that I may fill you to fulfill My purposes in the earth, in this time, and in this season.

From Marsha Burns:

January 10, 2000:

What is this ominous feeling? I say to you, My children, heads up! Many of you are focused on your circumstances, relationships and troubles. And, it is dirty business. I seek a people whose faces will turn to Me, whose hearts long for Me. But, many of you are concentrating on your own flesh desires and on getting your own way. Many of you draw near to Me with your mouth and honor Me with your lips, but your heart is far from Me. Therefore, that ominous feeling is your sense of the oncoming storm. I will send a whirlwind to blow away the debris and to get your attention. Your words to Me have been nothing but the wind because your heart is still wicked and selfish. You have sown the wind, and you will reap the whirlwind. Be zealous therefore and repent.

January 11, 2000:

Prepare for release and change. I have called you out and am sending you forth to accomplish My purposes. Yet, I cannot send you encumbered with all that binds you and keeps you from being available to do My will. Give up your fantasies that keep you from walking in reality. Give up all bitterness, resentment and pride. Refuse to be a victim by wallowing in hopelessness and self-pity. Rise up in My strength and power. Release yourself to My purposes. I am pulling out the stops that have hindered your progress. But, first you must let go of the past. Philippians 3:13-14, "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

January 12, 2000:

What is this that I see? You feel isolated and alone with no one to care or share your heart with, no one to understand. This is a ploy of the enemy to plunge you into loneliness and depression. He wants to immobilize you by bringing you to a place of hopelessness. But, I say to you, I am your hope and your exceeding great reward. Come to Me, for I have not pushed you away nor banished you from My sight. I have a plan and purpose for you, and I will restore you to vitality if you will only come. Do not hide in the shadows of self-doubt; come into the light. Rise up and shake off the dust of rejection. Refuse to be thrust into darkness and despair. Hebrews 12:11-15, "Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled."

January 14, 2000:

Flow! I say, flow in the streams of My Spirit. I am speaking to those who used to move freely in the realm of the Spirit and delight yourselves in the life of My Spirit. You walked unhindered in the joy of My presence. But, religious spirits have shackled you and caused you to be as barren as winter, and your streams of life have frozen like a mountain stream in winter. You must come into the sunshine of My love and the warmth of My presence. Come to Me in purity of heart. Come, let us commune together and enjoy fellowship. It is in My presence that life will begin to flow again like the spring thaw. Come!

January 15, 2000:

Put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Lift up your voice in praise and give the enemy no ground in your heart. A dark shadow of gloom has settled over My people to silence their worship and steal their joy. Refuse to allow despair to have a place in your life. Rise up in warfare against the powers of darkness; resist the devil, and he will flee! Be alert to the tactics of the enemy to sting you and cause spiritual paralysis. Refuse the temptation to depression; shake it off. Also be watchful, for the accuser of the brethren, that spirit of the anti-christ, has also been loosed against My people in an effort to silence My witnesses and bring judgment against My prophets. I say again, rise up and be strong in your Lord and in the power of His might!

Heavenly Court In Session

Ching Co

April 15, 2000

BEFORE THE KING'S COURT

Last week, I received a letter from a friend informing me that he and his family will be bringing their case before the King's court for resolution. And in this line he was calling on his spiritual family to join them if we felt led by the Lord. He then informed us of the specific time and date for their court meeting before the Great King and Judge.

As I was standing and praying with them on that day, In the spirit I felt like I was inside an actual court setting. As I listen to the plaintiff (my friend) present his petitions before the King, I found myself saying "amen" to every point that he raised.

PREPARING MY PETITION FOR THE KING

Many days following that time, I find myself being gently nudged to review my own situations and prepare my own petition and to bring them before the King for His resolution. I found myself remembering many events not only in my life but even those that affects my family, our city and even our nation being brought to mind. And I began to noticed that as I was remembering and reviewing them and presenting my case point by point, I also sensed that a heavenly secretary was taking notes of all that I was thinking in my mind and speaking forth with my mouth as I can see scrolls being unrolled before me.

FREEDOM IN PRESENTING MY CASE

What struck me was the freedom that I felt in speaking and presenting forth my case. I can see the enemies from afar but they were not allowed to intrude while I was speaking. Words and pictures just flowed out freely as I pour out myself before the Judge.

The whole process lasted for several days and in the end I did find myself physically drained. Although I was feeling tired physically, I also sense a great release in my heart and spirit knowing that it won't be long before the King and Judge will give His decision concerning my case and the judgement will be quickly carried out.

A GREATER APPLICATION

I felt the Lord impressing to me that what has just happened to us is actually happening in a greater scale. That many of His children are feeling the same way this season. And that in the coming days, the Holy Spirit will continue to bring back to our mind many events which has taken place in our lives and even those around us that affects us and as we recall them, the heavenly secretaries are busy compiling them for us.

We must not be afraid to bring all these before the Lord as openly and honestly as we can. Let us ask forgiveness when led to do so. Let us demand compensation when led to do so. Just flow as the Holy Spirit will led you what to say and to claim.

Many might feel hesitant to open up their memory bank, especially those events that have been especially traumatic and painful, but the Lord is saying that He has us covered and we will notice that the stings of the past will not be there this time.

GOD IS FOR US

The Father knows that we stand before Him, not on our own merit but because of the Righteousness of Jesus in us and as such we are secure in our position and the verdict is already known.

But all these need to be formalized even before the heavenly courts and this is what is taking place this season.

THE PURPOSE FOR THESE

These acts are prophetic in nature. And as we follow God's leading, in so many ways this opens the door for the actual release and manifestation in the physical of all that has taken place in the Spiritual.

Like Zechariah, we are God's chosen High Priest. The enemy has in the past been accusing us before the Father and even oppressing us in many ways. But the Father is putting an end to that vicious cycle and thus He has set His Heavenly Courts in Session. And all those who love Jesus are encouraged to come boldly and to present their case before the Righteous Judge.

What the Father did for Zechariah in Chapter 3, He will be doing also for us.

The Father will rebuke Satan and will affirm that we are His chosen ones. (verse 2)

The Father will forgive us and take off all our filthy clothes and put rich garments on us. (verse 3-4)

The Father will give us charge over His house and His courts and will established our place among the chosen ones. (verse 7)

The Father will make us to be a blessings to our neighbors (verse 10)

THE FATHER'S PROMISES

Psalm 9: 7 - 10

The Lord reigns forever; He has established His throne for judgement. He will judge the world in righteousness; He will govern the peoples with justice. The Lord is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. Those who know your name will trust in You, for You, O Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Psalm 11:4

The Lord is in His holy temple; the Lord is on His heavenly throne. He observes the sons of men; His eyes examine them.

PRAYER

Thank you Heavenly Father for executing your judgment against our enemy and for coming to our aid. Truly soon we will taste and see of Your goodness. In You we rest our case. Amen!!!

In His Service,

Hell Will Not Prevail

Hollie L. Moody

On October 9th, 2000, (which was also Yom Kippur), I felt the Lord showed the following to me. After praying and seeking the discernment of a few people I know and trust, I feel the following vision concerns Jerusalem / Israel not only in the natural, but in the spiritual.

What is occurring in the natural in the nation of Israel in this day, I feel is what is actually occurring in the spiritual in the Church, and will occur in the future in the Church. While the focus is mainly on the natural, outward, signs of what is happening today in Israel, I feel this may have distracted us from seeing clearly in the Spirit what is actually happening in the Church spiritually. This is a critical time in which we should be striving to hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. We need to see with our inner, spiritual eyes and not just with our outward, physical eyes.

Hell Will Not Prevail

The Lord showed me His hands holding a book. His left hand was holding the book, and His right hand was slowly turning the pages. As I watched the pages turning, it appeared to me that the book was divided into chapters.

Eventually, as one page was turned, I saw that it was the last page of a chapter. It appeared to be the next to the last chapter in this book. When this last page of the chapter was turned, the hands paused. I became aware of a very intense silence. It was the sort of a silence that precedes a momentous event.

I began to look around to see what was possibly going to occur. I saw four large angels in the sky. They were standing in a position as of a large square. Each angel was holding out their arms, as if they were blocking something or someone.

Behind the two angels on the right, I saw other large angelic beings, but I somehow sensed that these were demonic angels. The demonic beings were holding what appeared to be a large rolled up scroll. This scroll looked like a very dark carpet, rolled up. I saw that the demonic beings wanted to unroll this dark scroll over the earth, but the four angels were preventing them from doing so.

Then, I saw myself up above the earth. I was looking down, and I saw small points of light here and there upon the earth. They looked like small flames. As I watched, the small lights began to come together and form larger pools of light.

After this occurred, the four angels stepped aside and came together. When they did this, the demonic beings holding the dark rolled up scroll, dropped the scroll. The scroll began to unwind and spread over the face of the whole earth. A darkness and a dimness began to spread over the earth. When this happened, I felt a smothering sensation come over me.

The four angels lifted up into the sky. I watched them, and saw as they disappeared from my sight. As I continued to stare upwards into the sky, it was as if the heavens opened up. I saw as groups of angels began to step through this opening in the sky.

One group of angels had trumpets in their hands. Another group of angels held bowls in both their hands. I also saw the Lord, and He was holding the same book in His hands as I had seen at the beginning of this vision. (When I say I "saw" the Lord, more than actually "seeing" Him with my physical eyes, it was more like I "knew" in my spirit that it was the Lord.)

The Lord stepped to the forefront of the groups of angels holding the trumpets and bowls. He opened the book back up to where He had left off with the last chapter (where the silence had fallen). Once again, He began to turn the pages of the book. I saw that almost all the pages had already been turned.

The Lord and the angels were gazing soberly at the earth. I looked to see what they were staring at. It was like my sight narrowed down to one point on the earth. I somehow knew that I was gazing at Jerusalem.

There were armies gathered all around Jerusalem, and also completely surrounding the whole nation of Israel. I could see further out across the seas and the land and the skies, and saw that more military forces were headed towards Israel.

There was intense fighting going on within Jerusalem. Smaller battles, but just as fierce, were also taking place in other sections of Israel.

Then, I felt a trembling in the ground. I watched as Jerusalem began to shake. The ground began to split open. I felt that this was an earthquake that I was witnessing. The city began to fall into sections.

I then heard and felt a tremendous blast coming from within Jerusalem. The effects from this blast spread outwards over all of Israel, and out to the seas, lands and skies. I watched as huge tidal waves formed and the ships in the seas capsized. Airplanes fell from the sky. The armies on land that were converging on Israel, seemed to just disintegrate.

At the same moment, the Lord gave a great shout. I turned and saw that there were warring angels that had appeared around the Lord and around the angels holding the trumpets and the bowls.

At a command from the Lord, these warring angels gave a great shout, and hurtled down towards Israel, and began to do battle on Israel's behalf. The Lord did not join in this battle. Those which remained of those who had come against Israel, were driven backwards and fled. Israel was saved, yet it was a devastated shambles.

After this happened, the scroll that the demonic beings had been rolling out over the whole earth, was completely unrolled. The earth had a dim appearance. There were still small flames and groups of flames burning at spots on the earth (I felt these were saints and churches), but it was as if the flames had been somehow subdued.

Then, I felt a trembling under my feet, and watched as a temple began to emerge from the ground. This new temple was situated upon a hill. It was so awesome, and majestic appearing, as to be almost indescribable.

I am sure that each person who may read this vision, will feel a particular interpretation within their own spirits. Some will say this only concerns Jerusalem / Israel in the natural, and is what is occurring today. Others may feel that this only pertains to the spiritual church. The rest may feel this isn't from the Lord at all.

I feel this is perhaps both physical and spiritual. This is portraying outwardly through the city of Jerusalem / the nation of Israel, what is occurring spiritually in God's Church.

I find this a vision of hope and trust and faith. To me, it reassures me that God will have a Church. (Matthew 16:18 ~ "And I say unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.")

The book I saw in the beginning of this vision (the turning of the pages, the end of a chapter), could signify a change in season, or a dispensational change. One chapter is drawing to a close, and another one is beginning. This could mean that we are now coming into the final season of God for this Church age.

There are four seasons in a year, and I saw four angels. This could signify, once again, imminent change.

The scroll which appeared as a dark, rolled-up carpet could symbolize efforts to smother the Church, and to put out the small flames of light I saw. These small flames could represent the Word and Truth.

A trumpet in scripture speaks of warning, of calling to assembly, of preparing for battle and a Divine proclamation. God is speaking to the Church, and those with ears to hear have got to start listening. I do not think it is a declaration of war, because the battle is already won, but in some way it could be likened to a declaration of war... and I feel it is, "Enough is enough".

The references to the bowls could be either blessing or judgment. These blessings or judgments are ready for distribution. God's blessings and judgments are being prepared to be poured out.

The armies / warfare that I saw in this vision is the battle, perhaps, between good and evil. Some may feel this portrays Armageddon. At first, I wondered that myself. When I asked the Lord, He reminded me that in this vision, He did not join in the battle. This is significant. In the Battle of Armageddon, the Lord does join in the battle.

The fact that the Lord did not join in this particular battle, seems to indicate to me that the Lord wants us to rise up and do the battling. With our spiritual eyes and ears opened, we will become aware that we are not fighting this battle alone. We have help from above. (Ephesians 6:10-18.)

Here Come the New Evangelists

Bill and Vicki Camp

Bill's Dream 10-21-00 (Short pre-amble: Walter, the "leader" in this dream has been a spiritual father to us over the past 9 years, even though he and his wife Bev live in New Zealand, and we in the U.S., so that our times together have been limited. We love them dearly. Therefore, Walter may represent himself, as well as leaders/fathers today, in Bill's prophetic dream.)

In the dream, I believe I was in N. Z., but only because of Walter. I'm not really sure of the location of the setting of this dream.

There was a large one story facility (building), not a house, but rather similar to a school or office, with class/office type rooms inside. The outside grounds were simply spectacular with a huge lawn, beautiful tall trees, and all this overlooking a lake. Beautiful Sunny day.

Walter seemed to be the caretaker at this place, and of these wonderful grounds. He was mowing the lawn. There were a group of about 25-30 of us here also, folks of different colors, & ages. A few of these folks I recognized as friends of mine from my own youth. A couple of friends -- Mike D., and Bill Mc. who both died as young adults, in the reality of my past. Thus, they were young still in the dream of course, whereas I myself have just turned 60 yr.'s old this month.

Inside this facility building Walter has a black box/contraption (?) that is called a blessing box, about the size of a handheld vacuum cleaner. We all take a turn breathing into Walters blessing box. There is a huge Holy Spirit inhaling in this, and we are blessed and full of the joy of Our Lord from this activity !

We then go outside onto the wonderful grounds and congregate together at a central point on the lawn. Walter, who is directing us, then has us all turn around to face outwards. (we are not in a circle exactly, but rather just grouped very closely together). Walter then instructs us all to lean backwards, against each other. This involves some small trust to do - trust that you will not fall over backwards. And sure enough, this is so, as we all lean backwards and rest upon each other as we are clumped together..... heads thrown back, we look up. The beautiful trees and sky ... and Walter tells us then to begin turning together, en masse - we do this. Most of us, have arms extended up, as we are praising God together and turning. The joy of the Lord and presence of Holy Spirit in and upon us is very thick and wonderful -- and I feel and experience this in the dream. It is wonderful.

Walter tells me that this great experience and blessing we're all having together praising The Lord, would not have been possible, unless we had first partaken of the blessing box, inside the building.

Of our group of 25-30 people, about three of the young people present (teenagers or early 20's) then want to return to the inside of the building to breath more of the blessing box. I'm not sure if they should be doing this? But Walter gently assures me, " It's O.K. let them go,....we just will keep an eye on them."

A neighbor on the adjoining property, now has a problem - their truck is stuck on a steep hill. We all proceed over to help the neighbor get the truck out of this rut. Upon arriving there, we see that a few of the young adults of our group have beat us to the rescue (!), and are pushing the truck up the hill very rapidly. At the front of this truck is a horse harnessed pulling, and the 3 young folks are in back pushing. They seem to be going at a "speed" ..seems at least 20 miles an hour. Quite miraculous to observe!

Lastly then, I am back inside the original building and looking out a window where I see Walter again mowing the grass. I notice there are patches of lawn he's either missed, or just still has to complete mowing..... end of this dream.

Just before awakening (may relate to this above dream and may not, I'm not sure?) in a dream I was with some people. One said, "What shall we eat?" Someone else said, "Don't eat the Haggis (spelling?), eat the 'finnen haddy'....." I awoke still full of Holy Spirit joy and anointing, and laughing as well, about this last hearing (Haggis, as in the Scot sheep stomach meal, and I believe 'finnen haddy' is some kind of Fish dish, as in Haddock stew w/.fins and all ? I'm not sure of this last but that is what it meant to me as I heard it spoken.

Bill -----

some interpretation given: As well as being a huge bless to Bill, this prophetic dream may speak to some of Walters ministry, and in this may also speak to God's plans concerning "leaders" & "Teams", as well as to the up & coming new Evangelists.....

The building and grounds are representing Walters spiritual leadership ministry, as in teaching (facility/building like a school),

"....the law was our tutor (schoolmaster) to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor (schoolmaster)." Gal. 3:24,25 - NKJ

.....and then on to Walter's leading/bringing folks together into great blessing through unity (the outdoor grounds), ... shown here as smaller groups of 25-30, perhaps representing apostolic/prophetic, or five-fold "Teams"... which then leads on to God's work for this time, in success.

Part of Walter's caretaking ministry is in the cutting the flesh off folks ('all flesh is as grass'), that folks might then move in the Spirit, and in trust and unity together. As Bill's dream closes he observes (seeing prophetically through window) that Walter has more yet to do in this ministry out to folks (still some grass patches to mow) -- in other words, Walter is not done yet !

Also, I feel that the blessing box represents an expression of the 'renewal' that we and many others have partaken of in recent past years. Walters 'blessing box', represents a one-on-one individual working in folks, of The Lord. A time of 'cutting off of the flesh' (grass) and of good healing and filling, thus equipping, with joy and Love given from Our Lord, to each one, through an individual personal work.

BUT now God's thrust, as depicted in this dream, may be shifting to that of relationship with one another [folks leaning upon one another] which will bring even greater joy in Holy Ghost and book of Acts type accomplishments, in team ministry, and which is shown in Bill's dream as coming about very quickly (miraculous uphill pushing speed of 20 m.p.h.)

"...that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. And the Glory that You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one. I in them, and You in Me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me." - Jn. 17:21-23

There are several portions in this dream, referenced to 'young people'. Whether in chronological years (teens - 20's), or just ones who are spiritually young adults of whatever physical age at this time, I'm not sure ? -- could be both.

They are first depicted in Bill's old buddies from his own youth, in this group of folks.

They are next depicted, even though now spiritual young adults (i.e. not 'babes'), wanting & needing to leave the group and 'go back' to the joy box - or the one-on-one individual dealings with God (which they need more of, as Walter knows and recognizes), as opposed to the greater corporate group blessing of Our Lords thrust at this time, outside upon the outdoor grounds.

Finally they are depicted as running ahead into a rather miraculous move of service to 'neighbors'. The stuck truck may represent a ministry of Evangelism, or the Evangelist ministry being unstuck and moved up and out at this time....., that these young adult ones will play a vital part in -- along with the great move of Holy Spirit who pulls and leads (strong horse) in this "move", ...for harvest.

I believe the curious closing words Bill heard before awaking, are a prophetic clue to God's message in this dream, concerning the "Teams" and the young adults (Evangelists in the making)....., haggis-meal (stomach, or ministry concerning our 'self' and spirit = stomach) will be done with and we must eat of the 'fish-dish' meal, representing Evangelism, and the office of Evangelist being restored (stuck truck being moved out and up). As Jesus said to young apostle Peter, '... I will make you fishers of men...' = catching fish (people)..... His Harvest.

Walter as the leader, and Bill and some of the others in this smallish, now intimate gathering of 25-30 folks, may represent those more mature in their walk with The Lord, who will be the backers and foundation (apostolic prophetic team, which follows behind to the neighbors) of and for these powerhouse 'younger ones' ... Here come the new Evangelists !

The group turning together en masse and praising The Lord in thick anointing and joy, may represent this new direction of 'relationship one to another' in HIS Body in smaller groups, that God is depicting in Bill's prophetic dream. In other words, the turning together may represent a changing move/emphasis of God at this time unto very close personal 'relationships', demanding of unity & trust as "One", offered as praise to Our Lord.....a preamble and firm foundational team-work accompanied by joy and strong anointing to then release the Evangelists for HIS Harvest of souls.

He will Make a Difference

Becky McLendon

There is a Christian song that is about 20 years old or more with the title... "What a Difference You Make in My Life" It is true that the Father; makes thing DIFFERENT for us through His Son. But when we go into the Hebrew meanings of the word DIFFERENCE it goes beyond our English limitations of the word.

In relation to Y2K and other fearful topics floating around, I picked up a quote from a prophetic group yesterday and tied it in with some things from Exodus.

God would say to His people: "It is not Y2k I am concerned about, but Y - O - U!!!"

The word concerned here does not mean WORRIED, but rather a sense of intimately caring for every provision and detail of our lives in both the GOOD times and in the BAD times. Through the chapters in Exodus involving the plagues the Lord said consistently to Moses I WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

The first occurrence is in Exodus 8: 22, 23:

"And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth. And I will PUT A DIVISION between My people and thy people: tomorrow shall this sign be."

PUT A DIVISION in this case means make a distinction. We are a called out separated people. God has drawn a line of distinction and the world will know us by the DISTINGUISHING factor...that Christ lives IN US the hope of glory. And because of that we LOVE one another and DWELL in His secret place.. under the shadow of His wings.

Exodus 9:26 says:

"Only in the Land of Goshen where the children of Israel were, was there no hail."

Exodus 10:23:

"They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days, but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings."

Exodus 11:7 says:

"But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the Lord doth PUT A DIFFERENCE between the Egyptians and Israel."

The expression PUT A DIFFERENCE comes from the Hebrew word PALAH, meaning "to distinguish, put a difference, show marvellous, separate, set apart, sever, make wonderfully." So anytime the word refers to "showing anything as marvellous," setting apart, or being wonderfully made think of PALAH...God's putting a difference between His people and the world.

Exodus 12: 13, 14:

"And the blood shall be to you as a token upon the houses where ye are, and when I see the blood I will pass over you and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt. And this day shall be unto you for a memorial and ye shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout your generations: ye shall keep it as a feast by an ordinance forever."

Can we trust this God who MAKES a difference between us? Emphatically yes!!! No matter what modern day plagues come our way remember HE MAKES A DIFFERENCE IN OUR LIVES!!! And the world WILL marvel and say what hath God wrought.?

How Long Will You Falter

Catherine Brown

I received this on Yom Kippur. I pray it will be a blessing to the Church.

THE VISION - THE RIDER ON A WHITE HORSE

I looked and there before me was a rider on a white horse, and His name was the Word of God.

And there also I saw a beast with many heads and its heads rose up in defiance of the Word of God and it rose as a dragon and it spat fire from its mouth and nostrils. And its head split in two and the two smaller heads, one a crocodile and the other a serpent came forth and it became a three-headed monstrosity, and it was an abomination in the sight of God. The Lord took His sword and smote the beast, and there were many at His side.

And the Lord spoke to my spirit and said:

"SEE, I AM RAISING AN ARMY FOR WAR!"

MULTITUDES IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION

I saw multitudes, multitudes in the Valley of Decision. (Joel 3:12-16) I saw angels with swords drawn and they were executing the judgement of God in the Valley of Decision. Others were not judged but were translated from the Valley of Decision into a heavenly chariot and found themselves by the side of Jesus.

The following are the words the Lord then impressed to my spirit. I spoke in tongues for the entire time that I scribed this vision and the prophecy that follows. I have not experienced this Holy Spirit phenomenon in this particular manner before. I cannot normally speak a different language and write at the same time, and I believe that it was divine revelation and interpretation being simultaneously poured out by the Spirit of God that enabled me to do so.

HOW LONG CAN YOU SERVE TWO MASTERS?

"I am releasing the Spirit of Elijah, for the Elisha's cannot go forward without the mantle of Elijah. They shall be covered in Grace and Wisdom. See also, I am dealing with the Spirit of compromise. You cannot serve two masters, and I say to you My people, "How long shall you falter between two opinions?" (1 Ki 18:21)

GRACE FOR REPENTANCE, RECONCILIATION AND RESTORATION

I am demonstrating My great Mercy among the nations; My Grace is upon the church for repentance, for reconciliation and for restoration. I am assembling the many parts of My army from the ends of the earth and from every nation they shall come.

BROKEN VESSELS DISPLAY GOD'S GLORY

New vessels from brokenness shall display My Glory. The Glory outpouring is coming to My people. It will light the heavenly places, and the darkness will be exposed. All deception and corruption will be exposed. The shadows will cease to be a hiding place for the things of the world.

HOW LONG SHALL YOU FALTER?

Separate yourselves unto Me My children, for I cannot send you into the world and to the lost, until you have learned that you cannot serve two masters. How long shall you falter? (Mt 6:24)

HOLINESS AND INTIMACY - THE ONLY WAY FORWARD

The Way forward is the path of Holiness. It is lit by the brilliance of intimacy with the Father's heart. Warriors you cannot be, until you learn to yield to My Spirit. Until you put all other idols on the altar before Me and confess that you have wandered from your First Love, and then you will be washed in the Blood, then you will see the Priesthood restored to My Body. Your first duty is to minister unto the Lord your God. I Am God and there is none like Me. I am Everlasting to Everlasting; I know the beginning and the end. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last.

RID YOURSELVES OF THE SPIRIT OF THE WORLD

Set yourselves apart from the ways of the world, and I shall purify and cleanse your hearts, and once you have been purified and cleansed and washed in the Blood, then and only then, shall I send My Bride forth as the Bride who is as terrible as Banners, (SoS 6:4) and My Son shall lead this Army for His Name is the Word of God, and every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. And the world shall see the Glory of God revealed through the Church, when she is thus purified.

ISRAEL AND ISHMAEL UNITED

And Israel shall come in and the sons of Ishmael shall come in, and see the two will become One, for did not the sacrifice of My Son accomplish the division of walls? (Eph 2:14-18; Ro 11:25-27; Gen 21:11-13)

UNPRECEDENTED APOSTOLIC POWER TO BE RELEASED

And great power shall be entrusted to the purified. To the purified, the anointing that is with the Word of God shall be given. Signs and wonders as yet unseen will be seen in the nations of the earth, and it shall be a testimony to My Glory. (Mt 24:30-31)

IDOLS WILL FALL AND JEHOVAH WILL BE PRAISED IN THE NATIONS

In the Himalayan Mountains and in Pakistan, great idols shall fall, and the Light shall be lifted for all men to see (Jn 12:31), and those who are in darkness shall see their Saviour and their hearts will respond. In Thailand and in Mongolia the Buddhist and the Hindu shall turn their eyes towards God, and Jehovah, the Great I AM, shall be praised in the nations.

HOW LONG SHALL YOU FALTER BETWEEN TWO OPINIONS

And I say again to My Precious Bride, how long shall you falter between two opinions? (1 Ki 18:21)

Amen October 9th - Yom Kippur Year 2000 Catherine Brown

Have Faith in Me

Press on Through!!!

Wayne MacKay

As I was praying today for our church, I felt the Lord was impressing on me to Worship Him. For all of us to worship, Jesus. That we are to keep our eyes focused on Him and not our surroundings. The things that are happening to each and every one of us are little in comparison to the blessings and the Glory that we are going to be seeing, if we keep our eyes focused on Jesus. I felt that the Lord is building FAITH in us right now.

I Saw that the road of commitment/ mediocrity to Jesus has been very wide. Like a boardwalk that was a mile wide. And people could stroll along and not worry. In the past century the path has gotten narrower and narrower. It is now becoming like a balance beam. People are trying to stay on the "fence" and not make a total commitment. But that time is coming to an end. I saw Jesus blowing on the people on the balance beam (fence), and many were resisting and trying to keep their balance. Some blew off and tumbled to the ground but were not hurt or harmed in any way. Next, I saw that when they had picked themselves up, there was still turbulence all around them. Jesus was there with them and telling them to look at him. Some did and as they looked at Jesus and surrendered to Him in their entirety, it became very calm around them. However, if they took their eyes off Jesus and their surroundings, then the turbulence started again until they focused their eyes on Jesus. Then I was reminded of Matthew 14:28 - 33.

Mat 14:28 "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." Mat 14:29 "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. Mat 14:30 But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" Mat 14:31 Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?" Mat 14:32 And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Mat 14:33 Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Peter had faith and looked at Jesus. However, when he looked at his surroundings Peter lost the faith that he had. Jesus then saved him and put him back in the boat.

Jesus is saying to us. Have faith in Me. I am the author and finisher of everything. I will provide, I will take care of you, each and every one of you. Just surrender ALL to ME. I want you to look at ME only. Don't look at your circumstances. Just praise Me that I am taking care of every situation and every one of you each and every minute and second of every day. Know My Love. Know My heart. Know ME. Embrace what you are going through for I am here for you and I will carry you through your circumstances. And they are just that circumstances. They are nothing for Me. Can I not do miracles. Can I not put $10,000 in your bank account today. Can I not heal you of that ailment. Have faith little ones. Have faith. For that is what I am building in you, the FAITH that can move mountains. Just keep your eyes focused on ME!!! For My Love for You - yes each and every one of you - transcends all.

I Love YOU, MY CHILDREN, Jesus.

Press on through!!!

I Just wanted to submit some things that the Lord impressed on me Monday night. We were on our way to church for prophetic activation at 7:30 p.m. This trip usually takes about 50 minutes with light traffic and we left late at 6:45 p.m. We have to travel about 75 klms, about 2/3's of it skirting Toronto going east and then heading north to Newmarket for the last stretch. This night we could see a thunderstorm all along the way on the north side. We kept hoping that we could make it to church before the storm hit. However, as soon as we turned north the first drops hit the car. After about 10 klms it really started to come down. I've been through many storms in my life and this ranks among one of the worst. As we were traveling it got worse and worse. People were pulling over on the side of the freeway to wait the storm out. But for some reason the Lord told me to keep on going forward. It was raining so heavily that we couldn't see the road, our wipers on high and still only seeing about 5 feet in front of the car. We heard hail hit our car and the thunder of the storm. But Jesus just kept telling us to press on forward. After about 10 minutes the rain slowed down to a heavy downpour and after about 5 more minutes we came out of the storm and saw bright blue sky among the clouds. It was still thundering and lightening was striking all around us, but we were in Newmarket. The strange thing was that we made it on time to the church at 7:35 p.m. Worship had just started.

For the last 24 hours the Lord has been speaking to me about this trip. He said that all of us have to go through storms (trials - tribulations - testing etc.) in our life. We look up and see it coming sometimes and we really don't want to go through them. Sometimes we even change our course so we don't have to go through it. Yes I had thought on this night that maybe we should turn around and go back, but the Lord kept telling me to go forward and press on.

The next interesting thing was when the storm really hit us, there was hail. I really don't like hail because it causes damage to the cars. So I prayed for protection over Evelyn and I and the car. Even though we heard the hail hitting the car, after we got to the church there were no dents, marks etc. on the car. In fact, when I started out the car was rather dirty. We now had a perfectly clean car, as if I had just washed it. The Lord told me that when we go through these "Storms" we will come out on the other side and we will feel refreshed and He will protect us going through. Sometimes it is just like taking a shower and getting all the dirt off and feeling very clean.

He also told me about the cars on the side of the road. Most of the people pulled over onto the side of the road to wait out the storm. But the Lord told me to press on through. The people on the side of the road probably had to wait about 40 minutes or more for the storm to pass. Yet we passed through it in about 15 minutes. What the Lord impressed upon me is that much of the body is waiting by the side of the road. Waiting for the "storms" to pass by rather than pushing on through. We get frightened of our circumstances and would rather just stay put when the Lord is really trying to prod us on. To get us moving, because if we wait, we just have to wait longer. But if follow the Lord's leading and push on through the time is much shorter.

The next thing He told us is that if we would have turned around, He wouldn't have given me these lessons to share. The blessing that we and others received at the church would not have happened. Also that He got us there in HIS timing, not a minute too early or not a minute too late. That by following Jesus and His leading we arrived safe, and at the right time.

The bottom line was by not turning around, by going through the storm, by not stopping, we arrived in the Lord's timing and were BLESSED in many ways.

I feel that this is a word for the body.

Don't look at the storms in your life. Don't look at the circumstances. Don't look to the left or to the right. Look into My face. Look into My eyes. I will guide you every step of the way. Even though things look black and you feel like you will never make it through the storm. PUSH ON THROUGH. I am there to help you. I am there to hold your hand. I am there to protect you. I just want you to PUSH ON THROUGH. Many of you want to sit and wait and say Lord I'm scared. Don't be afraid My children. For I will not let you be harmed. I will guide your every step. Just PUSH ON THROUGH. Know that I am preparing the way for you.

Hope this blesses you as much as it blessed me.

Love & Blessings,
Wayne

His Glory Will Spring Forth

Deborah Gliebe

June, 2000

No matter how hard hell begins to hit, God is going to supernaturally spring forth the Glory, and it will happen in so many spots, so fast when this new movement begins to spring in its' fullness. That no matter how fast Satan and his cohorts of hell go to extinguish it, as soon as he begins to do battle and win at one point, the Holy Ghost will roll over cities and begin to come into other places, and undo the evil in that place.

You will see whole houses of Mormonism given over to God. Whatever they do in the temple, don't ask me. But I see a temple in my spirit, and I see that God pours His Spirit, in His Grace. You say, "Those Mormons, they don't deserve it." DID YOU? They deserve God just as much as you. In fact they are probably seeking Him, and God is going to show up. They are going to get filled with the Holy Ghost and come out shining, whereas some of the religious churches have been playing in religiosity and don't have the true fruit, these people that just had a real encounter with God are going to be like 76 years old woman suddenly saved, saying, "I was just there, I was just. . . and, I got GOD!!!!" And, at 76, she is going to be running to her neighbor's house, ringing doorbells saying, "Do you want Jesus? I GOT JESUS."

You will see hearts in men fail them and people drop dead behind pulpits, right in the middle of their church services. God is going to take out some ministers that have defiled the lamp stand. And have been preaching the gospel but not by His will or His word. They have been under a wrong controlling spirit and God will remove those people. And God will supernaturally bring forth a remnant willing to pay the price.

Evil: You will see child molesters trumpeted in the future. And you will see gay atheists and activists come forth to protect the molesters. Saying these (the Christians) are haters. Oh God! And it will give appearance, like where the scripture says, "What is good will appear evil and what is evil will appear good."

You will hear about -- and some of you will actually be in the midst of -- total, full out, angelic visitations. Where the angels of our Lord Jesus Christ so visit a place that fire appears over the meeting halls. And the news media will catch this in actual photography. It will be trumpeted in the newspaper in the future.

And you will see the flames, because these angels are right there. And believe me because some of you are saying: "Man that is way out there. Can this be?" God says take it to My word. In My word, when the church got filled with the anointing and the Holy Ghost, actual tongues of fire appeared over them. And this is going to be done, in such significant manners, that when these churches, that are having these spectacular signs happen, virtually hundreds and then thousands of people will visit as the Lord will use the news media to trumpet the events. And even though some will put a negative connotation toward it, "I the Spirit of the living God will throw My flame and fire on it in their hearts." And many will come just to see out of curiosity and will be swept, by the multiple thousands, into salvation, because of His great grace and His loving mercy.

You will see in the future, and hear of, entire households getting saved in one night, at a service one evening. There will also be such an anointing to preach the true gospel on TV. It will not only be Christian television, it will be the other news stations that will partake because of the healings, signs and wonders, that there will be whole television hours. Like they give an hour to this report and an hour to that report. (like, "60 Minutes") There will be television series by the hour that I, the Spirit the Lord Jesus Christ, am going to do.

And people will be walking out that were carried in dead, that are alive; "Saying, JESUS IS LORD". And because of those signs and wonder and testimonies, thousands upon thousands of people will come. And there will be Nations that will fly people from other Nations; Nation to Nation. It will look like Holy Ghost holocaust going on. Because so many people will be flying back and forth, saving and giving up even inheritances to fly over to other Nations to see and test and taste the glory of God. People will so empty out things and accounts! They will even take savings and inheritances to get the gospel out. Some will literally walk into a church, having brand new cars, and the Holy Ghost so compelled them to give unto His name sake, that they will take their keys and throw them at the pulpit. And people, and ministers and ministries will roll out with brand new cars. That day you will see.

There will be entire teams, such as football teams -- (I am seeing a football team) coming to the Lord and kneeling at the cross when they thought they were going out to play a game. They will have a Holy Ghost encounter through one evangelist that stands and preaches to them in a restaurant. And every single soul will be saved and they will come out weeping. When they go to the football or basketball place to do what they were going to do, instead weeping will consume them and they will prophesy and they will give alter calls and entire stadiums will be touched and many saved.

There will be people that are greatly known that will stand side by side by these unusual signs and wonders that have been won by Christ and they will then trumpet Christ. And will say, "You need to know Him! You need to know Him! You need to know Him!" They won't even have a message that makes much sense. It will be so simple.

That because of who they are and the personalities that they are, they will literally lead hundreds of thousands to Christ, because people know these people and love them and embrace them and because of that, because of that, they will draw in many, many, many multitudes to salvation. Such as: (I will give you an illustration) if Lucille Ball, which was on "I love Lucy," if she would have trumpeted Christ, virtually thousands, who knows how many people, would have accepted Jesus, just because they loved Lucy. Do you understand what I am saying?

There will be mass healing crusades, that in the midst of the meeting, suddenly, as the guest speaker gets up to speak, the Holy Ghost, without any forewarning will suddenly, actually, fall in the building. And it will interrupt the entire service and people will fall out, and the Glory will hit the place and people will come up healed. There will be new parts grown on people, as we have seen in the Spirit, multiple, multiple miracles. That is why God is going to turn the world upside down in these end days. And virtually there will be children that were punk rockers, that have spiked out hair, have razor sharp edged stuff and has all kinds of stuff hanging off of them, some of those kids will get so touched under the anointing, they will get up, grab a microphone, give alter calls and thousands of people will get saved because of the anointing.

There will be people that have never sang before in all of their life, that will get up under the anointing and begin to sing gloriously, to the Glory of God, and in their song they win souls to Christ.

There will be people that will be translated into other Nations as they are walking down the road conversing with another. God will instantaneously catch them on the way and they will be over in another place to minister the gospel.

There will be people with broken bones in hospitals but as people go in to lay hands, they are instantaneously corrected under their hands. And people and physicians, they will call into the rooms to see what happened. To see what signs and wonders happened and they will want to know the beginning and the end of the matter and many of them will get saved and begin to weep, saying, "This could not have been done unless God be with them."

There will be children with deformities that have come out of the womb totally deformed, in wheel chairs, some of them for years. And God will literally, by the passing by in the shadow of anointed apostles, prophets and evangelist, will begin to heal some of these and begin to put them in their right state of mind and grow bones in places.

There will be these things that will happen. The end is very near and the hand of God has to come down in a miraculous way to shake up a church and wake her up and say, "Jesus is coming and His angels are with Him." And, He is coming soon. Are you prepared to meet the Lord?

God is so going to shake the Nations.

"I am coming soon. I am coming soon." And the Holy Spirit is saying, "Get ready to give me everything that you possess and think is yours, give it to Me. Give me your whole hearts, not leaving any part out and I will give you My very best, which is an unequal portion for your own life. I will put My Spirit in you to do My will and My way. Only do not look for another. Do not look to others. Look to Me."

God wants our hearts solely in Him. That we do not look to a man, we do not to a ministry; we look totally to Jesus Christ in every way.

And some of you have gotten off track because you have looked to people. And God is saying, "Oh I allowed that, so that now you can look to Me. So that you can understand, I am the one doing all of this."

His Great Love for You

Bonnie Barbey

Many of us recently have been struggling. It is almost like we are in the birth canal somehow trying to get out, or in a cocoon trying to break free, or even some of us feel like we are trying to give birth to a breach baby who is not coming out till God Himself turns the child.

There have been many words from God sent out warning of us of this and telling us not to despair, but that His great deliverance is at hand and we are indeed being birthed into a whole new way of life; a life of victory, power, and total dependence upon Him. I have recently found myself crying out to God in the pain of this struggle that I am insignificant, no one special even to Him, that I am just one of billions of people He sees in a huge crowd.

Two days ago, God spoke to me about this and after reading again what He spoke, I realized that many of us need to hear this right now. I pray God's blessing upon you as you read the following. Bonnie Barbey

Child, the battle has intensified. Satan sees what I am about to do and is throwing everything he can at you. Rise up in the midst of it and laugh in his face. He cannot stop My hand from moving, from stretching forth and bringing new life, new power, new anointing, and new ministry. He cannot stop Me!

He is nothing compared to Me and has never been anything. He rose up, full of his own glory and thought himself God, but he never had a chance of winning. He only thought he did. He took many angels with him, but not through his power, but through deception.

It is the same today. His power is nothing to me. But he continues to gather by deception. Do not be deceived. Focus on My promises and call him a liar, a cheat, and a fraud, for that is who he is. I am the God of all truth, the God who fulfills His promises, the Mighty And Awesome and Terrible God of Hosts, Lord of Heaven and Earth, Ruler of all that is. And know this. You feel small and insignificant and lost in a vast sea of people all of whom I love.

This is not how I see you. You are a precious stone, a priceless treasure, beloved and beyond replacement to Me. I do not see a vast ocean of people crying out to Me. I see you singly, hear you whisper, count your tears, watch your every movement, discern your thoughts. There is nothing about you hidden from Me.

I do not simply notice you once in a while. I am intimately involved in every moment of your life. You are not insignificant. You are not one among billions to Me! You are not a speck of dust or a grain of sand on the beach. I love you with an everlasting love, and I long for you with a consuming passion.

I guide your steps. I prepare your path. I light the way before you. I will never fail you. Put these words in your heart and meditate upon My great love for you. Sing My songs of unfailing love. Breathe in My love. Let it be your food, your drink. Before I formed you in your mother's womb I knew you and loved you, and I will love you for all eternity.

Hastening His Second Coming

Heriberto Gonzalez

We all know our Lord Jesus must remain in heaven until "the times of restoration of all things" as God promised long ago through his holy prophets. (Acts 3:20-21). In the other hand we also know His bride has to look forward to the day of God and "speed" its coming living holy and godly lives. (2 Peter 3:11-12).

Our Lord is asking us now: Do you really want to speed my Second Coming? Are you daily saying to me along with my Spirit "Come!""?. I think we all know the answer. If we really want to be obedient "hastening" the coming of the day of God, we must be permanently participating in His process of restoring all the things.

His process of restoration includes mainly three important issues:

- 1) His Gospel preached in the whole world. (Matthew 24:14, Mark 16:15)
- 2) The preparation of His Bride. (Revelation 19:7, Ephesians 5:27)
- 3) The restoration of Israel. (Acts 1:6-7, Romans 11:12,24-27)

This is what I am hearing God is saying to His Church now:

PREACH MY GOSPEL

I am calling each and every one of my servants to move out of the synagogue. Do not wait anymore closing yourself in your own selfishness. GO OUT quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring into my kingdom the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. There is room yet for my saints of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. GO OUT into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

The time is short. Synagogues are becoming for many of my sons and daughters spiritual jails. They are conforming to this world, and are apathetic, indifferent, and trust in their own strength. My Spirit will beat so strongly against religious systems and programs that you my people will find yourselves uncomfortable into the synagogues. The only way to continue will be to give up and allow my Spirit to take you OUTSIDE to fulfil my commission.

Yes, my faithful servants, behold, I have give you for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Remember, when you makest any event in my name, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind; and you shalt be blessed; for they can not recompense you; for you shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

My loved ones, bring multitudes into me, so that the world can see the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see; let me heal them and take them into my kingdom.

My loved bride, MOVE OUT of the synagogue. My Spirit and his anointment is by now moving to my servant's houses, to my son's work places, to open theatres, to wide parks and gardens, into the highways, streets and hedges all over the world.

IMPORTANT NOTE: I made an exhaustive study of the book of Acts looking for the PLACES where signs, wonders, miracles, visions, dreams, tongues, prophecies and other supernatural events from God where manifested. To my surprise I found just one instance in the whole book of Acts where that kind of event took place in a Temple or Synagogue (Acts 22:17-21). Besides this case (which was a private message to Paul) all of the supernatural events where manifested in other places (HOUSES, PRISONS, STREETS, ROADS, ALONG THE WAY, OPEN PLACES, IN A SHIP, ETC.). This study gives us an idea of the purpose of God to our lives. He wants us

OUTSIDE of our churches preaching the Gospel so that He can confirm His Word with signs, miracles, wonders and other supernatural events.

PREPARE MY BRIDE

I am calling each and every one of my sons and daughters in these final days to be used in preparing My Bride. Do not wait anymore for any other call. Look at my servants Israel, Joseph, Moses, David, and Peter. They were feeding other's sheep.

The coming harvest will be so abundant that only a great army of shepherds around the world will be able to gather it and sustain it. You must care for my new sheep, so that the fruit remains, and so the deceiver does not snatch away the seed of my Word. Do not act like Jonah did, fleeing from my Call, closing yourselves in your own selfishness.

My Spirit is breaking your cold and apathetic hearts, so you can see My glory, so you can receive my Call without repentance. Remember, I have given you the glory my Father gave me, that you may be one and be brought to complete unity to let the world know that My Father sent me and have loved you even as My Father have loved me.

Feed my lambs, feed my sheep, feed my flock, that is my Call. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when he cometh shall find so doing.!

I am calling each and every one of my sons and daughters in these final days to prepare to be used as my PROPHETS. Yes, each and every one of you my sheep. On my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in these final days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. Remember, I am Yeshua the Lord God of the holy prophets.

I am calling each and every one of my sons and daughters in these final days to be an INTERCESSOR for those, which shall believe on me through you. Yes, I also want you to be TEACHING to my sheep to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.

Do not follow signs anymore; Let signs follow you. In my Name you must cast out devils; in my Name you must lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.

LOVE ISRAEL

My loved ones, do not be arrogant toward Israel, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you. Do not be conceited, but fear. For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

The day is coming when all Israel will be save and I want you to be part of his restoration. You must share with them your spiritual and material blessings. I tell you the truth, whatever you do for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you do for me.

This is what the Sovereign Lord says to Israel: "See, I will beckon to the Gentiles, I will lift up my banner to the peoples; they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders. Then you will know that I am the Lord; those who hope in me will not be disappointed. I will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; I will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.

O Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, you descendants of Abraham my friend, I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said, 'You are my servant'; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand, and I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

"I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me- just as the Father knows me and I know the Father-and I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd." John 10:14-16

Higher Ground

Bill Burns

September 8, 2000

The Lord says, I am about to bring My children to higher ground. I am bringing them up to the pastures in the green meadowlands where the grass has not been fowled, where there is still feed to be received, feed that will sustain you, where the cool waters flow. You can come to the place of comfort; you can be nourished and refreshed. You can come to the place where you know Me in the heart of the Father where we are bound together as one, you and I, for My purposes. My purposes are your purposes, for I have predestined you according to that purpose, and I am now leading you into the next phase, the next level. It is higher ground where you can be one with Me in My purpose, in this hour, for such a time as this. And, you would ask Me why? Because it has already been predestined, for I have a day, and I have an hour for all things. In that season and day of that unveiling all you have to do is be in unison with Me, and I will lead you forth into the places that I have prepared for you. I will reveal your destiny to you, and it will unfold before you. Then, you will say, "WOW! My God has done it again."

I say unto you, the next six months I am declaring a war against the enemy, and I am going to use you as My battle-axes. For, there are powers of darkness that are rising up even in this moment. They have sent their scouts out and have watched and seen your hearts. They have seen the anointing that I have brought upon this house. They know in part the plans that I have for such as place as this, a place of small beginnings. They are gathering themselves together in high places to come against you and try to steal from you that which I have purposed. I am raising you up as warriors. You will become My weapons of war under My covenant. You will go forth and strike the enemy. I say, you have purpose for the next six months. Take the ax and go. Go. Go. Go. Go up like Jonathan went up. Do not be afraid of the enemy, for when he gathers, I will strike him.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

September 9, 2000:

You have heard it said and seen it written that if I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto Myself. I want you to realize that when you lift Me up, you are not lifting up a historical figure. For I am the Head and you, My church, are My body. So, to lift Me up is to lift up and exalt the Body. Every time you encourage and honor another member of My body, you are honored and lifted up. But, I say to you, that every time you discourage, tear down, and slander those who belong to Me, you not only debase the Body, but you deny Me.

September 10, 2000:

I say to you, My people, that I am commissioning you to go take the land. You will take the territory with attitude infused into the spiritual atmosphere. The enemy is working to re-establish his environment over territory that you've already taken. Don't give in to his works of negativity and evil. Do not allow him to take dominion over you. I have set you to establish spiritual authority. Stand against this invasion. Occupy what I have given you. Don't yield to prevailing attitudes; brace yourselves against this prevailing ill wind. Establish your position in My glory, My presence and My power. Protect the anointing!

September 11, 2000:

Watch out! The enemy has brought discontentment, discouragement, and disappointment as a temptation and seduction to get you into self-pity and self-focus. Do not yield to this temptation, for it will only reveal your shortcomings and bring condemnation. And, I say, that fear is the open door through which the enemy has been able to bring torment to your mind , and you will have to stand against all manner of fear -- fear of failure, fear of rejection, fear of lack, fear of loss. Rise up in My strength and sufficiency, for I will never leave you nor forsake you. I will bring you through this test in perfect peace if you will keep your mind on Me.

September 12, 2000:

I am bringing you to a place of a new beginning. Old things have passed away, and yesterday is gone. What's done is done, whether good or bad. Prepare yourself with excitement to move forward in the things of My kingdom. Seek My glory by which I have given great and precious promises. Leave the past behind, and set your face like flint to go up to your place of destiny. For, surely I will lead you and direct your steps. I will establish you in peace and guard your safety. Your journey will not be without testing, but I have taught you well, and victory is assured. 2 Peter 1:3-4, "As His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

September 13, 2000:

Two words: divine connections. I speak this to you so that you will be alert to those I am bringing across your path and into your lives. There are new relationships to be formed for My purposes, and some of them will seem very unlikely in the natural realm. And, I am giving you opportunities to break down old barriers of prejudice so that your relationships are not the product of your personal preferences but rather the result of My intentions. Also be aware that some old relationships have fulfilled their objective will no longer be as significant as they once were. Prepare your hearts for this shift, for this will not be the result of desires of the soul but a moving of My Spirit. I say, this is a time of preparation, for I tell you, "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."

September 14, 2000:

I had a dream of going to a Seventh Day church. It was wonderful! We had so much fun in the presence of the Lord; there was great joy and liberty in the fellowship, but I also knew that others would not have approved of our attending this church. In fact, an article came out in the local newspaper telling that we had been found in this church, placing us in a position of being ridiculed and rejected. During the course of my dream I discovered that this church was separated by a corridor into two groups in different rooms. The group we had been in fellowship with was incredible, but I made my way down to hall to find out about the other group, all the while thinking that it was such a shame that they all weren't in the same room. When I entered this room, there was no joy or presence of the Lord. They were complaining and grumbling against those in the first group. It was very oppressive, and I couldn't stay there.

Upon awakening, I realized that God is moving among His people to gather His saints where there will be peace, unity, and one accord and where the presence of the Lord will bring joy and liberty. But this moving of His Spirit will be misunderstood by those who are bound by tradition and the previous standard, and they will persecute and rise up against this new spiritual environment and miss God's purposes and find themselves without His presence.

And the Lord says: Beloved, if they persecuted Me, they will persecute you. But, I say to you, count it all joy because you are in the company of the redeemed, and I am about to pour out My Spirit in unprecedented ways. For this is the Third Day of Christ and the Seventh Day of God, and I say it is both the day of restoration with resurrection power and a day of judgment, which will first begin in the house of God. Do not find yourself in opposition to My work.

September 15, 2000:

Both in the natural and in the Spirit this morning, I could hear the cry of the eagle, and I knew it had prophetic significance. So, I asked the Lord, and He said: Listen to the call of the prophet, My people. It is time for you to come out of hiding and obscurity and to rise up with wings like eagles to fulfill what I have called you to do. It is no longer appropriate for you to be earthbound when I have called you to fly. You can no longer deny the call of My Spirit to come up higher. Why have you been so discontent? I say to you, it is divine discontentment, for I am calling you, whistling for you, to leave the old places and come into the place that I have prepared for you to fulfill your destiny. For indeed, when you fulfill your destiny, you fulfill My purposes. Come then; tear your old beggar's garment which represents your season of being unproductive, for I have a new mantle for you. Come without hesitation.

September 16, 2000:

I will speak to you through every available voice. Some of these voices will be little children whose speech is yet undeveloped. Normally, you would not take the time to listen or strain your ears to understand what may seem to you to be unintelligible speech. But, I say to you, sharpen your discernment and listen closely, for I will use unlikely candidates to quicken your heart to new revelation of My work on the earth at this time. Haven't I said that I will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children? And I ask you, aren't the children the most pure hearts? For they have not yet learned guile. Don't despise or brush off even the most casual conversation, but be alert to a quickening of your spirit that will witness My expression. I will use even the most insignificant vessels for My purposes, but those who operate in pride and have yielded themselves to a haughty spirit will miss the precious simplicity with which I will bring instruction.

Luke 1:17, "And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

Hidden In His Pavilion

Hollie Moody

I felt the Lord showed me four different fields, in four different stages of production.

In the first field, there were people who were working by hand. They were digging up large rocks and boulders. Other people were removing the rocks and boulders. The people appeared to be straining as they dug up the rocks and boulders, and as they removed the rocks and boulders from the ground and carried them away. The earth in this field appeared hard and dry.

After the rocks had been removed, the field was plowed by someone on a tractor. I watched as the dry, hard-looking ground was overturned by the tractor. The tractor left behind deep gouges in the earth. The freshly turned earth appeared dark and moist.

When the tractor was finished plowing the ground, more people came into this field and began to spread seeds in the gouges the tractor had left in the earth.

When the seeds had been planted, the people left. For a while, there appeared to be no activity in this field.

In the second field, I saw plants beginning to grow. There were people in this field who were tending to the growing plants. The sun was shining brightly and hotly upon these people. They appeared hot and sweaty and tired, yet they continued to work, and to water and weed the field.

In the third field, I saw the crops being harvested. The scene was one of intense, yet methodical, activity. The people were rushing around helping to harvest the field. They all appeared to know exactly what they were doing, and were very thorough in their work.

When the field was harvested, it was set on fire. I watched as the stubble left in the field burned. When the fires went out, the field appeared black, and very unattractive to the eye.

In the fourth field, I saw no activity, no laboring, no planting, no harvesting. The field was empty and idle.

Next, I felt the Lord showed me myself. I was standing. There were also people standing around me. Suddenly, the ground moved under my feet. Startled, I glanced down. I saw that the ground had shifted. I looked around at the people around me. The ground had shifted under their feet also. We all appeared to be nervous and uneasy. I wondered what was happening.

Then I felt I saw the Lord taking us one at a time, one by one, into some type of enclosure. (For some reason, the word "pavilion" came to my mind.) We were by ourselves in this enclosure. We all appeared unsure of what was happening to us, or why we were where we were.

There was no one to talk to in this enclosure, and there appeared nothing to do.

I stood still in my enclosure. I saw beyond my enclosure to the Lord and wanted to ask Him why He had isolated me, and put me in this enclosure. Before I could ask Him any questions, I heard Him speaking.

"If you leave, you will have no part in the new work for which I am preparing you," the Lord said.

I glanced around and saw that some of the people had made as if to leave their enclosures. At the Lord's words, some of the people stopped and remained in their enclosure. A few, however, left.

"Why are we here, Lord?" I asked.

"I am preparing many of you for a new work," the Lord replied.

"What work is that?" I asked the Lord.

"I will reveal to each person what I am calling them to do," the Lord replied. "Some of them are already understanding and comprehending what I am now doing in their life, and will be doing in their life, and why I am doing it."

"I have shifted many of you and moved you out of your present fields of labor. The ministries many of you were engaged in, I am removing. I will replace it with another, new, work."

"When?" I asked the Lord.

"When you have made yourselves ready and are prepared," the Lord replied.

"How do we do this?" I asked the Lord.

"Through prayer," the Lord replied. "I have placed many of My children into a place of solitude with Me. It is only My voice I desire them to hear. The more time they spend with Me, listening to My voice, the less likely they will be to hear the voices of those who would deceive or confuse them. This will be a time of loneliness for many of you. It will appear that you are doing nothing, and accomplishing nothing for the Kingdom. Those of you who have been busy working and laboring for Me, will at first find this season of inactivity almost unbearable. As you pray unto Me and seek My face, then and only then will I begin to reveal to each of you the new work I am calling you to fulfill. Stay still in the place where I have brought you. Trust in Me. I will perform a good work in you."

As I pondered and prayed about this vision, I began to grasp how for many of us, the Lord is causing us to be as the four fields I first saw in this vision. Just as there were stages in the development of the four fields I saw, there have been stages of development in all of our lives, and in our ministries or callings.

Now, for many of us, the Lord has caused the ground to shift beneath our feet. He has led us aside to a place in Him of seeming inactivity. For those of us who have an intense desire to be about the Father's business, this is almost unendurable.

Yet it is in this place of seeming inactivity, in this "fourth field" if you will, that the preparation is being made to begin the work for a great harvest.

If you are one of those who now finds yourself separated from what you had been doing for the Lord, and are maybe discouraged by this, be encouraged that it is quite possibly the hand of the Lord that has led you to this place. Through prayer, ask the Lord to reveal to you if you are perhaps being prepared for a new labor, a new work, a new ministry.

While everything in your life may appear to have shifted, one thing always remains constant. And that is the Lord's presence in our lives. He will never leave us or forsake us. Trust yourself to Him. Allow Him to keep you hidden in the pavilion in which He has placed you.

In Him,
Hollie L. Moody

A pavilion is a covered place, a tent or a booth.

It is a place of refuge. (Psalm 27:5 "For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.")

It is a place of being kept. (Psalm 31:20 "Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.")

It is a protective covering. (Isaiah 4:6~~ "And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.")

His Coming Glory

Dan Luehrs

May 17, 2000

Jesus came to me as I was sitting on a dock by the lake; His presence came upon me. For about a week I had not been able to get into His presence very well, but that night He came powerfully. He came to me and said, "Do you want to go up higher?" I thought, "there is more?" He said, "Yes, My glory!" Then I said, "Yes, I want this." He said, "Follow me!" After this a messenger came with a container of water. Then Jesus said, "Cup your hands." As I did the angel filled them up and Jesus said, "Now wash your face and eyes and ears." Then the angel filled my hands again and Jesus said, "Now drink!" I said, "what is this?" He said, "My cup." Then I knew what this was about.

And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She said to Him, "Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right and one on Your left." But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to Him, "We are able." "My cup you shall drink; but to sit on My right and on My left, this is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father" (Matthew 20:21-23).

Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath; the cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not drink it" (John 18:11)?

Many of us want to come into all that the Lord has for us, but are we willing to drink from His cup of suffering. "If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us" (2 Timothy 2:12).

Stanley Frodsham prophesied this word in 1965. "Understand these two things and meditate upon them solemnly: the persecution and the darkness shall be as great as the glory, in order to try and turn the elect and the anointed ones from the path the Lord has laid down for them. Many shall start, but few shall be able to finish because of the greatness of grace that shall be needed to be able to endure unto the end. -- Understand that the way toward the glory is fraught with great danger, and many shall fall to the right and the left; many shall camp on lesser ground.

If you would like the rest of this word go to my websight and look in dreams.

If you find yourself suffering needlessly today do not fear, God is leading you into His Glory!

His Heart Has Ever Reached Out

Priscilla Van Sutphin

His heart has ever reached out to people in mercy and compassion.

His sacrifice ever remains to accomplish reconciliation of God to men. Why is it that men find it so hard to grasp the meaning of His sacrifice or to believe in it's reality ?

Isn't it because of selfishness ?

We want to be masters of our own destiny instead of having to die to our own opinions, ideas, dreams, not realizing that what He has for us will give us a greater inheritance; one that is eternal !

His way is not always easy, but there is joy and prosperity of HEART in following Him. If we love Him, we must obey Him and ever seek to enter into intimacy with Him if we want to communicate And maintain healthy relationship with Him.

Just as a married couple begin getting to know each other and continue to grow in their knowledge and love for each other, we must seek to continue in our first love with Christ. When this first love is strong, so will our relationship with our mate be strong, and out of our love for Christ and receiving back love from Him, will we have love to give to others.

If we don't spend time with Him - we get spiritually SPENT and instead of looking to Him for what we don't have to give, we act in the flesh. Everything we are and have comes from the Father above who gives liberally to all men.

If we try to justify (rationalize) ourselves to God or men , we overlook the sacrifice made for our sins. And then there no longer remains a sacrifice made for our sins. So Christ set an example of defenselessness so that we might not justify ourselves before men, but that He might vindicate us, having already made the ultimate sacrifice for our sins. The chastisement that accomplishes our peace was upon Him.(Is. 53) This peace which surpasses all understanding is available to us if we look to him for it. Just as little children look to their parents for hope, encouragement, love and direction, and correction, we must be like little children, wholly dependent on Him.

Think how it feels when you are not obeyed by your children or sought out after for advice. Don't you feel slighted ? Hurt, or even rejected at times? And doesn't your heart ache for them when they don't listen and make mistakes that cost them, or cause them harm? Likewise, Father God feels when we go our own way, or do what WE think is best rather than seeking our direction and guidance from Him personally.

You read the word and do well to do so as My will is never inconsistent with My word. Many boast of Christianity meaning relationship, not religion, yet you run from spending time with Me; From seeking real relationship. My heart aches for relationship with YOU ! I've said My yoke is easy and My burden is light, yet you carry it yourself, or you run to others instead of Me first !

COME TO ME when your heart is weary. COME TO ME when the load is too heavy for you to bear alone. My shoulders are not too weary to carry it ! BE STILL and know that I AM God ! My love for you is from everlasting to everlasting. My LOVE NEVER FAILS! TRUST IN ME ALONE !

Healing in the High Places

Bryan Hupperts

October 12, 2000

Healing in the High Places

Hi, SheepTrax!

While praying, the Lord showed me a representation of the United States of America. Immediately, I could clearly see two strong exceedingly dark and bloody pagan altars at opposite ends the country. One was in Washington, D.C., and the other over Hollywood, California. I sensed there was also a financial altar over New York but it was excluded from this vision.

As I was pondering these altars, these spiritual "high places," I felt the Lord say, "Now watch what I will do." And I began to rejoice because I sensed their wickedness being overthrown. And as God raised up Gideon to throw down the altar of Baal worship in Israel - to bring a season of national deliverance - so He is now raising up leaders who will throw down the high places of corruption and wickedness in both the entertainment industry and in national politics.

I have long believed that America was coming under the stern judgment of God. My prayer was that in judgment, God would yet remember mercy. I believe God will bring healing to the entertainment (media) and to the political arena but somehow I sense we will still bear the lashes of bitter financial judgment.

I once had a vision of an empty and ravaged grocery market, the shelves had been raided and stripped down to the dust. Only recently did I understand that this referred not only to my local grocery store, but to our national financial markets. One day, panic is going to hit and people are going to raid the markets leaving them virtually bare.

Anyway, to understand the concept of the high place, remember that the ancients believed that the higher up into the heavens you could travel, the closer to the gods you would become. Even the Lord is referred to as the "Most High." That's why many high places, places of worship, were strategically located on high hills and mountains. Even in the building of the Tower of Babel, the impulse was to make a way for man to reach into the heavens. Genesis 11: 4, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens."

Regarding Hollywood: Psalms 78:58, "For they provoked Him to anger with their high places, and moved Him to jealousy with their... images." Hollywood is the center of moral filth that has flooded the earth. Even as God flooded the ancient world but spared Noah, so now God is now going to flow in mercy through these fountains (the media) to flood the world with the knowledge of His Son. The ancient flood produced death and destruction. This flood of righteousness will transform television sets and the theatre houses of the world into altars where repentance and godly sorrow for sin will sweep untold millions of souls into the kingdom of God.

When a high place of pagan worship is cast down, it is necessary to build an altar to the Lord and worship there. 2 Chronicles 14:5, "(Asa) also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him." When God visits Hollywood and Washington with His presence, we will know a measure of peace (though I sense it will be the kind of supernatural peace you have going through a fierce storm, and not the lack of deadly storms).

It is my firm conviction that the days of the United States are numbered but that we will do God's good purposes until our final hour. One last time God is going to flood our political arena and center of media with His glory. Ezekiel 6:3, "Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys: 'Indeed I, even I, will bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places;'" and again in Ezekiel 16:39. "I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines and break down your high places."

For the wicked who rule and worship at these high places, hear the somber warning of God: repent and be healed!, or inherit the curse of Leviticus 26:30. "I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you."

I believe we are headed for a financial shipwreck on order of the shock and disaster of the sinking of the Titanic, and yet believe that God will flow through our media and political system to both declare the Gospel of His Son and bless the nations one more time. The Lord will stand enthroned over the high places of Hollywood and Washington before he comes. Amos 4:13, "For behold, He who forms mountains, And creates the wind, Who declares to man what his thought is, And makes the morning darkness, Who treads the high places of the earth--The LORD God of hosts is His name."

Hitler Is Coming

By Nita (LaFond) Johnson

In November of 1998, I ministered in Mobile, Alabama. During my stay, as I was praying, I was looking Out over the ocean and into the sky. Suddenly, I saw a tsunami appear, then immediately disappear. Following the tsunami a face appeared in the sky. It was the face of Hitler etched in the clouds. I gasped with a stare. Then I asked the Lord what was He telling me. I immediately heard several voices cry out in Unison: Hitler is coming! Then the face began to change until it became the very face of Satan. I pondered what I saw and since have thought about it often.

Then in October, 1999, I had a vision. In this vision I was driving down the road in my car. I knew the government was watching my every step. I noticed that on the license plate in the left hand corner was the date February. In the other corner were the numbers 2320 printed in Small figures. Under the numbers was my last name, also printed in small letters. Beside these two was the city in which I was living, likewise in small letters. Then across the license plate in large letters and numbers was my license plate number. My every move was being monitored. I felt fear as I continued traveling, toward my destination. I knew I was heading for a secret meeting and eventually would have to leave my car to arrive undetected.

Then I saw a newspaper. On the front page was a donkey that resembled the democratic symbol and a meat? eating dinosaur. The dinosaur was poised to devour the donkey. The headlines read: "The American dollar down? the Euro-dollar taking over." I believe the reason the Euro-dollar is depicted by a dinosaur is because it comes out of what is known as the Old World or Old Roman Empire. This will preface war. This heightened control over Christian activities, higher levels of persecution from within our own government and the fall of the American dollar, I believe will preface war.

Finally, in November of 1999, I had another vision. I saw Hitler and his army coming upon America to take over and to occupy our country. In the vision, because of the vision I had about Hitler, I began running around trying to alert everyone I could to the impending danger. However, everyone with whom I talked Would just say: "Oh, our government wouldn't hurt us." Then I saw another vision within my vision. In it I saw the angels of the Lord flying around in Cuba, whispering in the ears of Yahveh's people, both Christians and Jews, warning them to flee. But each one the angels warned Would say the same thing people were saying to me. So, I then would say to the people:

"The angels of the Lord tried to warn the Cuban people as well. But no one would listen." Now look, so many years later, all they have suffered. Propaganda was being spread to lull the people to sleep. But, then I knew as soon as they no longer feared danger, the attack would come. Consequently, I continued trying to warn everyone I could to get ready and even flee if they felt a need to. Still no one would listen.

In the fifth chapter of Jeremiah, we read that Yahveh is going to send Judgment upon the nation of Babylon. His warnings are strong and it seems like there is little hope. Verse 24 says the judgment is being sent because Babylon strove against the Lord. Verse 25 says He opened His weapons of war and called the enemy against her because she did not recognize the Lord. In verse 28 He says to heed the voice that says to flee, for Babylon surely is coming to destruction. Yahveh is going to deal with Our pride and our rebellion. We must flee, whether we are told to flee by entering deep into Yeshua and living a holy life, or we are told to flee by leaving, America. We must, as Christians, turn our hearts to Messiah with all our might and turn away from the world. There was a strong sense that this would not Come for possibly another seven years. I believe We can stall this judgment for even longer if we just will repent. When I say repent, I mean to repent of the sins of our forefathers, as well as contemporary sins of this nation and the Church in America. Yeshua does not want to destroy this nation. He loves America. America has been a haven to the Jews and to other people groups who have found life unbearable in other lands. Further, we have sent missionaries to the farthest reaches of the earth. However, all of our works does not negate the need for purity and holiness. If we do not repent, He will have no choice but to send destruction. He will let Hitler arise out of his hiding place in the form of whom ever is sitting upon the thrones of Russia and China, and America will find herself under enemy, occupation. Yet, the Lord will take care of those who love Him and obey Him, living a Holy life before Him.

His Kingdom Comes

Karen Palermo

Received 2/29/00

Do unto others as I would says the Lord. Be bold, be strong in My might. The day of My beckoning is come.

There is much to be done for My kingdom to come, and I Am preparing a people even now. Many have left that which is lifeless and dead. Many are crying out for deliverance and restoration.

I Am about to unleash a mighty move of My most Holy Spirit. The enemy will fear and tremble as he beholds all that is about to come forth from those that I call My own. I have begun this move even now, and the Wind is about to blow upon those throughout the World.

Those that are to be a part of this will move as My Spirit leads. Do not go ahead of Me or My plans, but stand still until I would say go. The time upon you is one of the strictest obedience. I must use a people who would be willing to obey Me at all costs. For truly the enemy would take every opportunity to his advantage.

Deliverance of great proportions are about to take place.

Those in captivity will be released.

Those in sin will be forgiven.

Those in shackles will be set free.

Those being hindered are about to cross over mountains with great ease as they move in My faith.

Those in despair will be filled with joy and new hope.

Those the enemy holds in oppression will be completely freed and restored in Me.

Do not be shaken or distraught over what you will see, for this will come about with much adherence to My word. I Am moving with great power and force throughout the land, and that which I am about to do will be unlike anything man has beheld.

Be prepared to know Me as never before. Watch Me unfold My mercy and goodness out upon those I call My own. Oh, the time is come for Me to move out and with great intensity. Oh, how I have longed for this very day.

Many will fall, but will arise in Me anew. Many will fear due to misunderstanding within their own hearts and minds, but they will see again and know that this is truly their Lord and Savior, the Mighty Warrior, the Lord of hosts that is working. Many will rise up to fight against My chosen ones, but will fight to no avail.

The battle is upon us and the time to move out is come. Mount up and ride with the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. For He who is righteous and merciful and full of truth is leading the way.

What a glorious day this is!!

Hope Deferred

Bill Burns

August 14, 2000

For several months now my night watches have occurred at 3:00 a.m. I have been awakened several times at this early morning hour with the word of the Lord coursing through my spirit.

I believe that the Master has chosen this time because it points to the third day of Christ in the church. Again, on Sunday morning, I was awakened at 3:00 a.m. with the words "hope deferred" and "prisoners of hope" running through my spirit.

At this point, I got up and went to sit at my desk for understanding. The Lord began to speak to me about the many of His flock who have been wounded, and His desire to restore them. We are about to enter into the fullness of the third day, and Hosea 6:2 tells us that after two days He will revive (restore) us.

He then told me that many will miss the third-day blessings because they have not received the things that they have "hoped" for, and they are, therefore, not in a place of faith to receive the third-day anointing and the blessings that come with it.

Proverbs 13:12, "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, But when the desire comes, it is a tree of life."

The word "deferred" means to be drawn out. This would mean that hope has been lost because of the length of time that has occurred in which many have not yet received the manifestation of previous promises, words, or expectations. This condition has caused a heart sickness (broken or in some cases hardened).

The Lord is telling us that we need to renew our faith according to the desire that was created according to His promises. When desire returns, then we will again be like a tree of life watered by the Spirit.

The other scripture the Lord gave me was : Zechariah 9:11-12, "As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to the stronghold, You prisoners of hope. Even today I declare That I will restore double to you."

This speaks of restoration. Many have been made prisoners of hope deferred. We are told that if we will return to the stronghold (of our faith in Christ) and have our hope renewed, then we shall receive a double portion. The double portion speaks to me of the old promises (desires), but it also speaks of the blessing that will come with the third day of His power.

Hosea 6:1 tells us to "come and return to the Lord." We need to return to our position of desire in Christ, have our hope renewed, and then He will heal us and bind us up and carry us forth into the third day. The third day represents the power of His resurrection (day of His power--Psalm 110:3).

Philippians 3:10-14, "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

Hosea 6:3 also tells us to "know" Him -- to pursue the knowledge of the Lord, for the time of this third-day visitation is established (a set time), and He is coming to us as the rain of the Spirit.

Brethren, it is time to have our broken hearts mended and the fallow ground of our hardened hearts broken up if we are to be able receive the rain that is about to fall--a double portion, the former and the latter rain together.

Let us, therefore, lift up the hands that hang down. Let us cast off the weariness that has overtaken us. Let us forget those things which are behind us. And, let us press on in faith towards the high calling. Let us reach forward into the third day and receive His touch. The Master is waiting for us to renew our hope in Him, and He will then restore us! Oh, praise His wonderful name!

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

August 13, 2000:

1 Corinthians 13:11, "When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things." It is time to grow up, My children. It is time to come into the unity of faith through pure doctrine. Only by speaking the truth in love can you grow up in all things into Christ. I say to you, put away all evil speaking, conjecture, and presumption. Speak only the truth to one another. If you are unsure of what the truth is, speak nothing at all. Haven't I said in My word that if you lack wisdom, ask? So, if you don't know the truth in a particular circumstance, ask! For, conjecture and presumption issue forth from a haughty spirit. Be still and know that I am God.

August 15, 2000:

I had a vision this morning of a man sitting in a wheel chair with his arms bound with ropes. And the Lord said, the enemy has come to not only to hinder your walk in the Spirit but to also tie your hands so that you cannot do My work. He has been able to do this work against you because you have lost hope and have felt helpless to do anything about your situation and circumstances. A spirit of infirmity has been sent against you to debilitate you. And, I am reminded of the following scripture verses: Acts 3:2-7, "And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple; who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms. And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, 'Look at us.' So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. Then Peter said, 'Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.' And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength." And, the Lord is saying to you who have been lame and have had your hands tied, rise up and walk. Shake off the bands that the enemy has disabled you with. Rise up in new hope. Is My arm shortened that I cannot deliver you from such a predicament? If you will only rise up in your spirit man and kick off the limitations that you have accepted, you will receive new strength to walk out of this place of restriction.

August 16, 2000:

My people, the storms have raged around you so that you have learned to survive in high winds and adverse conditions. You have braced yourselves against the pressure and learned to shout over the noise of the onslaught. But, I am asking you to quiet your souls and discern the times. For, soon the winds will cease and the storms will have blown through, and when they cease, you must rest and be refreshed. If you do not discern the conditions around you, you will continue to brace yourselves as you anticipate pressure, and you will still be shouting when only silence is appropriate. Come into My secret place and abide under My shadow, for I am your refuge and fortress, your place of safety. I will cover you. Come, be still and find refreshment for your souls.

August 18, 2000:

I speak to those of you who find yourselves in a confidence crisis. The enemy has been reminding you of your shortcomings and speaking to you about what you cannot do. He wants you to fail and to even call yourself a failure. For, in this way he can disable you and keep you from being a vital force in My kingdom. However, these are lies and he is a liar. I said in My word that you can do all things through Christ which strengthens you. Come out of that place where you are trying to accomplish things through the strong arm of the flesh, and step into the anointing where you are the hand and I am the glove, and I can do through you My perfect will and accomplish My purposes. Rise up out of that place where the devil has put you down and caused you to be a victim, for I say you are never a victim, but you are victorious, for I always lead you in triumph.

August 19, 2000:

Don't be surprised as I begin to reveal to you things in your heart that must be dealt with. In fact, I'm going to make you consciously aware of attitudes and behavior patterns that run contrary to My Word. These are things that have hindered your walk with Me and have kept you from the liberty of the Spirit that you desire. You will be amazed to find that you are actually getting free in areas that seem to have always been there and have seemingly been part of who you are. But, as you abide in Me and I in you, there are some things that just have to go because they are not consistent with where you are going and what I have in store for you. As these opportunities surface to make choices for the "dross" to be skimmed off, be careful that you don't ignore the chance to be changed by trying to conceal the dark places of your heart. Yield to Me as the purifying fires burn.

Hold Fast To My Promise

Doug Patterson

April 4, 2000

Be encouraged My people for you have entered into the final hour of your purpose. Your ministry is only a moment away so hold fast to My promise. For a white horse is running down the River of Life. Jump on the back of this stallion and ride into the wind of My Spirit where My life and refreshing will rest upon you.

Know that even the enemy has set himself against My plan and purpose for you. His plans are to bring heavy pressure and discouragement upon you, to thwart and hold back the full blessing from the Throne Room. But as you endure this test, as you stand through the pressure and the fire that the darkness has lobbied against you, I increase the blessing. I increase the provision. I bring you into a greater and stronger call. Nothing shall be taken away.

If I have spoken a word of promise to you, surely it will come to pass. For in the power of My people is the spirit of creativity. You are able to birth a ministry, an outreach, a church. You are able to speak forth My word with great power. Be aware that the devices of the one set against you is trying to hurry you through pressure and attack to produce an Ishmael. It shall look like the real thing and give pleasure in its infancy and its young growth but it shall have seeds of flesh throughout and will be an irritant all the days of your life.

So know that I am helping you, I am comforting you and you are coming into a remnant call as a remnant bride to do a remnant work. Don't settle for hastily moving into second best thinking that you are going to assist or help Me. Stand still and see the deliverance and the salvation of your God take you into the full promise and the full blessing. For it is going to be the day of apostolic release and the lion shall lay down with the lamb.

Holiness

Shelly Mathis

18 January 2000

Repentance. Consecration. Holiness. These are the cries of My Spirit being voiced through My prophets, for My Bride is embarking on the Seventh Day -- the Sabbath rest. The Sabbath rest is abiding and walking in the fullness of My Spirit and Power, and these three are required of you to enter in.

Repentance: I am calling for you to turn away from those dead things that defile your temples. Cease all manner of evil, compromise and hypocrisy! Your "religion" is dead. The noise of your own works and self-efforts clamor in My ears and are detestable in My sight. I command you to cleanse your temples and leave behind your own self-righteousness.

Consecration: I am calling for you to separate yourselves from the unclean and walk by faith in My righteousness. Cease striving. Cease heartless service. Cease fueling the flesh. Dedicate your lives for My purposes and use. Touch not the unclean thing and I will receive you.

Holiness: I am calling for you to be spotless and blameless in every facet of your being. I am holy; therefore, I require you to be holy. And I am the God who makes you holy.

Do you hear the seriousness in My voice? Those who refuse to enter into the rest of walking in My Spirit, thus ceasing from their own works, will be cut off. If you continue to religiously strive in the flesh to conquer the flesh and honor Me with your lips but not with your hearts, you will not be able to enter into My Sabbath Rest.

Walk before me in purity of heart.

"The LORD then gave these further instructions to Moses: Tell the people of Israel to keep my Sabbath day, for the Sabbath is a sign of the covenant between Me and you forever. It helps you to remember that I am the LORD, who makes you holy. Yes, keep the Sabbath day, for it is holy. Anyone who desecrates it must die; anyone who works on that day will be cut off from the community. Work six days only, but the seventh day must be a day of total rest. I repeat: Because the LORD considers it a holy day, anyone who works on the Sabbath must be put to death." Exodus 31:12-15 NLT

Hold Tight

Carylann Hartley

HOLD TIGHT and Be Prepared for CHANGE

There is a day and it is near at hand -much nearer than you realize- that MY people will minister with Power and in Love and Truth. Eye has not seen nor ear has not heard all that I have in store for My people. Prepare, for the time is short until there will be such change that you will not understand how it could have happened so quickly. Times are going to be much harder for some and for others they will seem easier than what has been for the last few years. It is not because some are good and some are bad but because I have a plan that can only be fulfilled in this way. Do not try to understand what I am about to do but rather lean on Me and HOLD TIGHT. Those things that you think are unshakable may have to be shaken for you to be in the place that I am calling you to be Do not be surprised at anything but know that I Am in control. Do not fear and do not try to move forward in your own strength. I Am about to close one door but another will open at a time that seems most inappropriate.

It is not by accident that this is an election year. My elect will have new power and authority to go forth in boldness and reach the people that are willing to hear and obey. I Am a God that does not change and My ways are still Holy. I am calling My people to a new and deeper walk of Holiness than they have ever known. Step forward and know that I Am with you! Do not let your hearts be troubled or your minds rest on the things of this world.

I Am doing a new thing. I Am going to release a power and authority in some that you will not know and have not heard of but they are Mine and I have been preparing them for many years. Step forward and take your position in My Army - My Body. There is a special place for each of you but you must move into it. I will not take you there until you are willing to give yourself wholly to Me. Are you ready to do that? If you are not then I can not use you to do what is needed for My army to advance. All my soldiers and warriors must be in position if you want the next move of God that you have been praying for. Let Me have full control and be prepared to move ahead when I say to move. Those that are willing to do this will soon be in new territory but remember that I am with you and I Am in control as long as you let Me be.

HOLD TIGHTLY to Me as I take My army into the Battle that will prepare My Bride for the coming days. Do not let go! HOLD TIGHT!

Holy Fire

Sharolyn Baldwin

I shall rain down My Holy Fire upon you. Yes! My Holy Fire shall rain down upon your heads. You shall go forth as liquid fire, spreading out into and across all Nation's. Yes! this is that, you have surely been waiting on. My Children, you must get prepped for it, you must get in one accord with each other. Is this a surprise for you? Have you not read, they were in one place in one accord? Then My Fire fell. I Am longing to hear the resounding voices of My Children, all across this land saying, "He has anointed me to go forth." Yes, many have been waiting, but now is the time approaching. Do not get weary my children, for the time is now even approaching you and you will truly see even more than what you have envisioned in your hearts, till this day. Do not let doubt engulf its self round about you and let not fear have a place to come in. For truly I say to you My Warrior Bride, if your eyes were to be opened to see, you would see a Heavenly Multitude Of Hosts all around you. I have made the way to keep all the enemy's tactics under your feet My Children, use My Word against every attack he throws in front of you. Do you not know, that fear is his #1 method? It's his vehicle to move you, so stop it there. You already have been given The Authority To Use My Name, just use what I've already given you! If you can, Only Believe!!, he fears.... You, My Children.

No Lack In Christ

Sharolyn Baldwin

NO LACK IN CHRIST

MY CHILDREN I HAVE NO LACK

My children are not to be in any bondage. You are not to live in lack. Do you see Me as a God of lack ? The enemy of your soul would have you to believe so. No !! My children. Come up higher than that. You are the children of the Great I AM, The Father of Light's---The Creator Of All. I AM that I AM. You are My children, would I give you less ? Do not believe the enemy when He tells you such lies. You are not to be in bondage to this world system of debt and just getting by. Do not believe this lie. There is much to be done and it can not go forth out of lack but must come forth out of My fullness. Just ask for the provider to rise up within you and cancel debts. To bring forth the plenty---the more than enough. That My kingdom would advance. My Gospel must be preached around this world. I have many waiting in the balance to hear what I have to say.

Lack and struggling or getting by, is not My Plan. The thief would have you believe that's just the way it is. Maybe I'm not suppose to have more than I have, and I'm ok, I'm comfortable and after all I'm not hurting. Maybe I should just be thankful for what I have. This is the enemies lies. Yes! My children, you should be thankful for what you have but don't just stop there and rest. I have much bigger plans. Come to Me and repent for believing such a lie. Ask to see my dream then call it all in. IT IS TIME!!!

The Time Is Now Sharolyn Baldwin

The Time Is Now.....Will YOU TRUST ME ?

My Children, can you not trust me, even now, after all this time ? Do you still not trust My Heart for you ? Come to me and let me do this work in you, so that you can be filled with more of me, only then will the greater anointing come on you and you will then see the greater works I spoke of be done through you. But My child, it can only flow through clean vessels. Only this one thing I require of you. Be obedient, let it come up and show it's ugly self...repent of holding on to it and be willing to let me cut it away....TRUST MY HEART OF LOVE FOR YOU. I paid the price for you and I won the battle for you! Now is the time to give it all to me. I have your Spirit, now give me your body and soul as well. Now is the time to let me clean it up for you. Most are truly willing but I wait for your obedience, to come with the bad and the ugly parts and let me remove them from you also. Then I will truly remove all the dross that has held you back, from experiencing ALL the FREEDOM that I paid for. To have My Bride With Me now and for eternity. For this freedom is what belongs to all my Children to walk in...In all it's fullness!...In Me. I will truly clothe you in my Glory and you will truly be anointed to go forth in My Love and everyone I bring before you will truly know, that this day... The Kingdom of God Is at hand, yes ! even at the door. Do not be ashamed or try to hide it any longer. Bring it before me and let Me deal with it. My Children....Trust Me...I truly do love you...Unconditionally. I won't turn away from you or abandon you, as many of you have experienced from others throughout your lifetime. Trust Me, I Love You now and throughout all eternity. Come, give me your hand as well as your heart and walk with Me. Sit with Me and share your thoughts with me. Die to self and love Me as I Love You.

Is that possible, you ask ? Yes My Child, it is possible. Are you willing to die to yourself and let ME fill you with MYSELF and Love through you ? If so, yes you can love as you are loved.

Sharolyn Baldwin

This is a scripture that we need to let get down into our heart's, until the light of it's truth, becomes a Rhema word in us.

HEB 4: 12-13.....For the Word Of God is living and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword. Piercing even to the division of our soul and spirit and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. One last thought. The Lord is our hiding place and our Shield. We can not push down and hide the ugly stuff, whatever it might be in each of us, any longer. We can no longer worship The Lord Our God and let our flesh be god too. And that is what we are doing, when we hold on to the ugly parts that surface from time to time and let our flesh deal with it by letting ourselves to continue to be our own hiding place and our shield. Because we then have become our own god and protector. Like it or not, the ugly stuff in our lives, that keeps surfacing, is in us. We have to see it for what it really is and be willing and obedient in releasing it to God, repent of the sin, of holding on to it and letting ourselves be our own little god. Then and only then will we be totally cleansed and can be filled up to overflowing with and in Him to do the greater works and see his whole Body of believers become One Body in Unity with Him as the Head of us all. (ONE IN HIM) Before we as His body can become one with each other, we have to become One With Him.....No double mindedness. We need to repent of this also, because we allow ourselves to walk in double mindedness when we have made little gods of ourselves by holding the ugliness in hiding and won't let His light shine on it and cut it away. The good news is, He loves us unconditionally and is waiting with open arms to forgive, cleanse, heal and cut it away from us. So we can as His Children, truly walk in the Whole Freedom, He Bought and paid for. For His Child - His Bride

May we all experience the Love-Power & Freedom, In HIM

In His Love, Sharolyn

Holiness is a Must

Frank Sandford

franksandford@hotmail.com

Speak to My people. I have seen all their deeds, I have witnessed the evil in their hearts, and I have grown weary of this defiant sin. My people are to be a holy people, set apart, and consecrated by My blood to Me.

Search your heart, search your motivations, search deep within. It is time to lay the axe to all that is not of Me. It is time My people be a holy people. It is a time to march out to spiritual warfare clothed in My holiness and My armour.

It is time to stand for Godly principles and to defy those who preach and practice evil. It is time to let the world see how I bless a holy people.

It is time to turn away from the sins of the fathers. It is time to come to Me in full repentance and to be forgiven and set free.

I am shining the spotlight of holiness into your life. As the light touches something evil in you, bring it to My cross be cleansed and forgiven by My blood.

The more you bring to Me, the more I will show you. The more I show you of your sin, the more you repent and I forgive, the closer we (you and I) will become and the holier your relationships with people will be.

Do not think, "This is my secret sin and not even God knows, and if He does know it is not really that big a deal." MY PEOPLE, SIN IS SIN. I know all about you and you have no secrets from Me.

I have put My people into relationships so that they might help each other deal with sin in their lives. Seek out trustworthy servants of Mine in whom you can confide and who will help you to bring your sin to My cross to be nailed and left there forever.

My people, holiness is no longer an option; IT IS A MUST. I require A holy people to stand for Me in these evil days.

Hundreds Of Prophets

Paul Jobe

HUNDREDS OF PROPHETS TOOK THEIR POSITIONS IN THE TRENCH -FOCUSED ON ONE THING!--A vision through Paul Jobe

Paul's email: Jobies7@aol.com Forwarded by John L. Moore Wed, Mar 8, 2000

I recently had a vision that has stuck with me strongly and would like to share it with you:

TRENCH WARFARE

In the vision, I saw a large company of prophets in trench warfare. Each prophet was dressed in fatigues, but each had a different uniform.

Some had helmets, some had camoflague caps. They seemed to represent the different prophetic camps. Although I could make out no specific prophets, I got the idea that they were all on the earth now.

SUDDENLY . . . A COMMAND

Suddenly, the Lord of Hosts gave a command to aim ahead at a target. In what appeared as a wave moving from the horizon to where I was standing, hundreds of prophets took their positions in the trench with their weaponry.

The sound of the guns being cocked, tripods being set up, and these warriors taking their positions down in the trench was like huge waves hitting the rocks on the seashore. Prophets both young and old responded instantly to the Lord's command as if expecting and anticipating such an event. The seriousness and skill of warfare was evident on each face.

THEY HAD THE ABILITY TO FOCUS ON ONE TARGET

They had the faces of resolute soldiers who were well-trained and methodical in battle. They had a great ability to focus and concentrate on their target without making a sound. A great respect for their fellow soldiers was also evident.

Their weaponry was as varied as their uniforms. Some had the old bolt-action rifles from WWII, some had semi-automatics, and some had bazookas. Then I saw what they were focused on.

ALL FOCUS ON ONE HUGE DEMON

Several hundred yards in front of the prophets was a huge demon called "Death." Death was black and lumbering around, looking for more people to consume. He seemed oblivious to the prophets, focusing more on his appetite than anything else.

THE LORD HAS THE KEYS TO DEATH AND HADES

"And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as a dead man. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying, 'Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades.'" (Rev. 1:17-18)

Hotspots

Ray Hughes

Four "hotspots" targeted for intercession

Recently the Lord has solidified the vision and purpose of our ministry through several dreams, visions and prophetic words. As we have been seeking Him to draw us to "hotspots" in the spirit - key locations in our nation that are on the verge of spiritual breakthrough - He has targeted four specific cities. Over the last few months, we have been primarily ministering in the Florida panhandle - specifically, in Jacksonville and Pensacola. With the Thunder in the Bay conference, we accomplished significant success in the spirit for Mobile, Alabama, and the surrounding Mobile Bay. In January, we are scheduled to minister in New Orleans, Louisiana. This is no fluke.

In June, the Lord gave Ray a dream involving warships coming into the waters of the Florida panhandle. The rugged warships weren't filled with clean-shaven marines in uniform, but ugly, gritty, Viking-like warriors. With the ships came a sound - a war cry of utter aggression. Floating in on the same winds guiding the ships into the coast, the sound was carried into the bay and flooded across the land. As in all wars, however, there came resistance.

The Lord showed Ray in the dream the resistance was from those within the church who could not accept this as the next move of God. They would not accept the new raw sound, and through this, diminished its power and effectiveness. The Lord desired to restore the warrior aggression to the church through this sound coming into the bay, but many refused it.

This is not to say anyone who does not immediately adopt a militaristic sound and adorn themselves in camouflage is missing God. Thank God He knows our hearts. He alone is the author of this sound - not man. And though we cling to various musical "styles" that we now identify as aggressive and war-like, even this can change according to the move of the Spirit. This dream should be taken, as every dream, as a word held up to the Light of His words and as a token - a sign - of his continual guidance of His children.

From this dream came an added urgency to proclaim the Lord's word as we ministered in Jacksonville and Pensacola during August and September. The release of the prophetic in the current Brownsville Revival was both exciting and overwhelming. We are honored to be a part of what God is doing there, yet we know that God has more. He desires to sweep over this nation with revival - with turning the hearts of His creation towards Himself.

The prophetic words concerning how and where God will move out from the Brownsville Revival are plentiful. But as grand as these words can get, each of us must respond in obedience to what God has called us to individually. As a ministry, we are excited to see God line up such a clear target before us for this time.

If you observe a globe, New Orleans, Mobile, Pensacola and Jacksonville all fall on the 30-degree north line. While this was discovered as God unraveled the places we would minister, the importance of this area has been confirmed by numerous other signs and prophetic words. Hurricane Georges strategically struck cities along this parallel.

During the Thunder in the Bay conference, Bobby Conner spoke of this line as the Hamilton Line - a name the Lord had revealed to him in a vision which ended up being what the 30-degree parallel was called generations ago. Years ago, the Lord gave Bob Jones a word about Highway 10, a road that runs across this line. Even more interesting, on the other side of the world, the 30-degree line cuts through the nation of Israel.

We don't say all this to form a new denomination believing in the "power of the 30" or anything like that. We lay this before you as a sign to intercede for these cities. We submit this to you: that these four cities, as primary gates for the Southeast region, have the opportunity to release the new warring sound of God through His people. God desires to shine His glory into every inch across the face of this earth, whether it's a "hotspot" or not. But when He targets a certain area and makes it known through the prophetic, it is a sure sign to intercede. Just as the Lord has swept over Brownsville with a spirit of repentance, may He call back the wandering hearts to Him across this line and cause entire nations to turn their faces towards Him. It's time to pray and intercede for these cities like never before.

Houses of Ill Repute

Joseph Herrin

(bherrin@hotmail.com)

I have a growing and terrifying witness in my spirit that God is very soon to bring judgment upon the structure that most people recognize as "Church" and "Christianity" today. I am aware that most believers are not aware of the depths of God's displeasure with this system. It is all they have known and it feels comfortable and few have been able to gain enough distance from it to see it objectively and to ask the probing questions that need to be answered.

Is this system something that God has patterned, or is it of the pattern of fleshly man? Are our myriad "houses of worship" the fulfillment of the mind of Christ, or are they the result of centuries of creeping deception? Has Christianity strayed from the model of discipleship and the purity of mankind relating directly to God, with no intermediary? Have we adopted patterns that fulfill the lust for glory, recognition, and esteem of a portion of the body we call ministers, encouraged and egged on by a lukewarm mass of Christians who found discipleship to be too demanding, so they opted to join the false classification called "laity?"

Is our current building and sanctuary focus the result of God's desire, or is it the result of covetousness, competition, and corruption? Are the forms we have adopted producing passionate believers who discern the voice of God for themselves and who live crucified lives, being conformed to the image of Christ, or does our structure hobble and place impediments in the way of those who would seek to advance to maturity and intimacy with Christ?

These and many other questions need to be asked and answered. Few, however, even discern the need or relevance of asking such questions. They may sense that there are a few problems in the Church, but they believe it can be patched up and made acceptable to God. They don't realize that God is about to vomit the whole stinking mess out of His mouth. They will wake up one day and say, "Why God? I didn't even know you were upset."

It is said that history repeats itself. This has certainly been true of the people that God has chosen to bear His name. Israel repeatedly strayed from God, invoking His displeasure, wrath, and judgment. They would straighten up for a period of time only to go through the same cycle again. They were once again at low ebb when Jesus Christ appeared on Earth as a man. They had no idea that their religious structure was in any way abnormal or offensive to God. They assumed it was God's pattern. But the leaders and disciples of this false structure were so deluded that they did not even recognize the day of their visitation.

Jesus came to them as prophesied and they did not recognize Him. Instead, they accused Him of being a son of Belial and they rejected Him and sought to kill Him. We say that we would have acted differently and we would never make the same mistakes, but the day of our visitation is upon us and we have a religious system and structure that looks awfully familiar to the one that rejected Jesus at His first coming. Our focus is once again upon buildings of wood and stone and services conducted in sanctuaries where the people are once again divided into clergy and laity. We once more have no clue that there is anything wrong with our structure and, unless the body of Christ wakes up, we will not recognize Jesus at His second coming. History is ripe to repeat itself.

In the scriptures Jerusalem is used as a type of the people of God. I fear that we are about to witness the re-enactment of the following words.

Luke 19:41-44 And when He approached, He saw the city and wept over it, saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things which make for peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes. "For the days shall come upon you when your enemies will throw up a bank before you, and surround you, and hem you in on every side, and will level you to the ground and your children within you, and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation." (NAS)

Answer this question with all discernment and honesty, "Do you believe that those in the church age are not as prone to commit the errors as those in the Jewish Religious System preceding the time of Christ?" Think about this. Why did Jesus threaten to remove the candlesticks of certain churches mentioned in the book of Revelation, unless perhaps they were straying from His design and purpose? Why did Paul have to confront Peter for his hypocrisy, unless perhaps he was already being influenced by the spirit of religion while the church was but newborn? Why did Paul ask the Corinthian church,

2 Corinthians 11:3-4 But I am afraid, lest as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ. For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, you bear this beautifully. (NAS)

Answer again with all discernment and honesty, "Do you believe that there might be the tiniest bit of a chance that in the last 2000 years that the church has deviated from what Jesus had in mind, being led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ, and that an abomination might have been created, an abomination of idolatry involving buildings of wood and stone, and the worship of men in their gilded houses of worship with their vaulted ceilings?"

We need to apologize to the people of Judah, Jerusalem, and Israel for we have judged that we would never commit their errors, yet we have followed their same pattern. What was written in the Old Testament was for our instruction that we should not repeat the same sins as the people of old. Look, however, at the following passage from Ezekiel and shudder as you see the offenses we have repeated.

(Portions are from the NAS and The Amplified Bible, with author's notes in brackets [])

Ezekiel 16

Then the word of the LORD came to me saying, "Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her abominations, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem, "Your origin and your birth are from the land of the Canaanite, your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.[This equally applies to the church which originated in the land of the Canaanite and which has gentile members.]

"As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing; you were not rubbed with salt or even wrapped in cloths. "No eye looked with pity on you to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you. Rather you were thrown out into the open field, for you were abhorred on the day you were born. [The Jewish Religious System abhorred the new Christians from their inception and sought to put them to death.]

"When I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you while you were in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you while you were in your blood, 'Live!' [The church was birthed through the blood of Christ and continued in the blood of the martyrs, but God caused it to live and thrive.]

"I made you numerous like plants of the field. Then you grew up, became tall, and reached the age for fine ornaments; your breasts were formed and your hair had grown. Yet you were naked and bare. "Then I passed by you and saw you, and behold, you were at the time for love; so I spread My skirt over you and covered your nakedness. I also swore to you and entered into a covenant with you so that you became Mine," declares the Lord GOD. [The church is described as the Bride of Christ and many allusions are made in this passage to this relationship, and to her preparation.]

"Then I bathed you with water, washed off your blood from you, and anointed you with oil. "I also clothed you with embroidered cloth, and put sandals of porpoise skin on your feet; and I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk. "And I adorned you with ornaments, put bracelets on your hands, and a necklace around your neck. "I also put a ring in your nostril, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. "Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your dress was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil; so you were exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty. [Compare to Revelation 18:6 and 3:18 to make the connection to this description with the church. Rev 18:16 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls... Revelation 3:18 I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich, and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed...]

"Then your fame went forth among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect through My majesty and splendor which I had put upon you, says the Lord God. But you trusted in and relied on your own beauty and were unfaithful to God and played the harlot (in idolatry) because of your renown, and you poured out your fornications upon anyone who passed by (as you worshiped the idols of every nation which prevailed over you) and your beauty was his. [Are not the idols of this nation; materialism, comfort, ease, prosperity, fame, entertainment, etc., found in what we call "church" today?]

And you took some of your garments and made for yourself gaily decorated high places or shrines and played the harlot on them - things which should not come and should not take place. [What have gaily decorated buildings to do with Jesus' design for the body of Christ? The Jewish Religious System of Jesus' day was full of factions, sects, and splinter groups, each in competition with one another. They all built their own buildings to have a name for themselves and to attract the people. The buildings became more ornate and elaborate as competition matured and the people came to expect such structures. Have we not repeated this same pattern?]

You did also take your fair jewels and beautiful vessels of My gold and My silver which I had given you and made for yourself images of men, and you played the harlot with them... [This describes the ministers of the body. Note that the verse says, "the vessels... I had given you." Ephesians 4:11 states, "And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers..." These were given to the body of Christ. Also note that in II Timothy 2:21, Paul instructs Timothy in this way, "Therefore, if a man cleanses himself from these things he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work." Paul describes Timothy's ministry to being a vessel of honor. So we see that God "gave" "vessels" to the body of Christ, but the body has made images of men out of them to play the harlot with them. To see a further description of how she has played the harlot with them read the article "The Phallic Church" which was posted on May 14th.]

Moreover, you have taken your sons and your daughters whom you have borne to Me, and you have sacrificed them to your idols to be destroyed. Were your harlotries too little... [This speaks of disciples being made and being led to slavery to the same idols that the spiritual parents worship.]

And after all your wickedness - Woe, woe to you! Says the Lord God - You have built also for yourself a vaulted chamber (brothel) and have made a high place (of idol worship) in every street. At every crossway you built your high place (for idol worship) and have made your beauty an abomination (abhorrent, loathsome, extremely disgusting, and detestable); and you have made your body available to every passerby and multiplied your idolatry and spiritual harlotry... [Does this description of "vaulted chambers" not describe the prevailing architectural style of the buildings which the church constructs in such profusion today "in every street" and "at every crossway?" Has the body of Christ discerned that this infatuation with buildings and the idolatry that is practiced inside of them, and the harlotry between ministers and congregations, is "an abomination" to God?]

Behold therefore, I have stretched out My hand against you, diminished your ordinary allowance of food... [The word of God is the food of the body of Christ. A famine for the true word has occurred because the body does not want to hear the truth.]

Moreover, you multiplied your harlotry with the land of trade, with Chaldea, and yet even with this you were not satisfied. [Someone has described Christianity in this way, "What began as a movement in Jerusalem, became a philosophy in Greece, an institution in Rome, a culture in Europe, and a big, wealthy enterprise in America, but God is coming back for a movement."]

How weak and spent with longing and lust is your heart and mind, says the Lord God, seeing you do all of these things, the work of a bold, domineering harlot, [The church is weak and spent today. Where is the power and glory of God? Where is healing? Where are miracles? Where are those who boldly entrust their lives and their care to an almighty God? The church has no strength because she does not know the almighty One. She has spent her longing and lust on other pursuits.]

In that you build your vaulted place (brothel) at the head of every street and make your high place at every crossing... [Again, this describes the buildings that have become the focus of Christendom today. Vaulted ceilings and steeples match the description God gave of these "high places."]

Therefore behold, I will gather all your lovers with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved with all those whom you have hated; I will even gather them (the allies you have courted) against you on every side and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness, making you [spiritual] Israel, an object of loathing and mockery, a spectacle among the nations. [Judgment is the portion of the Christian Religious System of this day. The Jewish Religious System and all of Jerusalem was destroyed in a similar judgment in AD 70. Her buildings were torn down so that "not one stone remained upon another." Even so, God will judge the abomination that the Christian Religious System has become. Heed and tremble at the words of Romans 11:17,18, 21. "But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the rich root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches... for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you."]

And I will judge you as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged, and I will bring upon you the blood of your divine Husband's wrath and jealousy. [There should be no doubt that this description is pertinent to the Bride of Christ who is betrothed to her "divine Husband." Paul even uses the word "jealousy" in the following verse. II Corinthians 11:22 "For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, that to Christ I might present you as a pure virgin."]

And I will also give you into the hand of those your enemies, and they will throw down your vaulted place (brothel) and shall demolish your high places of idolatry; they shall strip you of your clothes and strip you of your splendid jewels and leave you naked and bare... And they shall burn your houses with fire and execute judgments upon you before the eyes of many women spectators (the nations)... So I will make My wrath toward you to rest and My jealousy shall depart from you (My adulterous wife) and I will be quiet and will be angry no more.

These, and many more things are in this one chapter of Ezekiel 16. I would encourage you to read it and take it to heart. Prophecies are abounding about the terrible day of the Lord which is coming. "For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And if it is with difficulty that the righteous is saved, what will become of the godless man and the sinner?" (1 Peter 4:17-18).

Jerusalem is a clear type of the church and she is often compared to Sodom. It is time to flee Sodom. God is calling to His children to come out of her. Some must be dragged from the city as Lot was because he had grown comfortable there. Is not the same true for many in spiritual Sodom today? Consider.

When Jesus came the first time, He did not attempt to patch up or repair the existing religious structure. He began anew. At His second coming He will do the same. Many are looking for Jesus to come and validate the structures they have adopted and their place in that structure. The Jews were expecting no less when Jesus came the first time.

Jesus' pattern was to raise up a new structure according to His divine pattern. He called His chosen ones out of the old system and then He judged the old. This pattern is being repeated even now.

For 40 years the new existed alongside the old and war was waged as the old tried to exterminate the new. However, the new was preserved by God and the old was judged and destroyed completely. Today God is calling His children out of the old structure. A civil war in the church has been prophesied by many. The old will try to destroy the new divine pattern God is raising up. God will preserve the new. It will prevail, and woe to those who are caught at the moment of judgment in the old system.

Don't wait! Get before God now and begin to ask questions you haven't asked before. Ask God to reveal His pattern for the body of Christ. Don't delay. I am not sure of God's timetable. I don't know how long the war has already been raging, but it is surely raging at this moment. I don't know how long until the judgment falls. Heed the following words and apply them in a new light.

Luke 17:28-32 "It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building; but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all." "It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed." "On that day, let not the one who is on the housetop and whose goods are in the house go down to take them away; and likewise let not the one who is in the field turn back." "Remember Lot's wife." (NAS)

Flee from Sodom. What is the house that you should not return to? Could it be the vaulted houses, brothels, that Ezekiel describes? Don't take anything with you when you leave there... and don't look back.

How Will You Be Brought Forth?

Suzin McNeill

A Dream

Three nights ago while dreaming, I was coaching another woman through birthing. The baby's head was out. (The head represents the birthing of CHRIST, the third seal.) It was time for the last big push of the shoulders. (This push was one for strength.)

As this babe was birthed there was no mycodium as with most babies. There was only very red blood. The baby was whole and perfect, a man child.

I wiped the blood off his eyes and then lifted him up way above my head toward GOD and twirled around with him before handing him to the mother. There was such a force of joy birthed with this one, who was whole.

(What can I say about this dream, except, that which I see and hear?)

Oh Israel, [My people], you are to come forth in joy, for you have denied the birthing for too many seasons. You have been heavy laden with the grief of your own dying. You have eaten and have drunk from My cup but, you have refused to bring forth and birth that which I've called you to birth.

I, The LORD have sought through the villages and have found others, to help bring forth My precious sons. Shall a willing surrogate replace thee in My heart, asks The LORD?

Will you bring forth after your own works and not birth My planted seed? Israel, you wander in streets and say you seek yet, you find only the gold for fools, for you have been blind sided with the cares of your own ministries above My ministry through you.

A babe has come forth from among you and in your dancing and joy you have forgotten the reason of your celebration. How far from Me, you wander. Shall I go from your camps of revelry and seek those quietly waiting upon Me, by The Door of My sanctuary?

Israel, it is the time of birthing but put ye not aside My babes, nor leave them for others to raise. Unite Me with My people. Seek Me, your FATHER as never before.

There is much travail to bring forth My anointed ones... Seek Me with your whole heart. Cry out and breathe in for I, The LORD send you new breath and new life.

How Desperate Are You?

Wendy Twine

How desperate are you for My love, My intimacy, and My glory? Are you growing weary of people, places, and things not satisfying you? Why do you think that is? It's because I am causing a holy discontentment to rise with in you.

I desire for you to become desperate in being intimate with Me as the Bride was with the Bridegroom in Song of Solomon. When I came to her bridal chambers she was satisfied being in her bed until I left. When I left she smelled my fragrance and became desperate in being with Me.

Are you willing to rise from your "bed" and seek me out? I'll tell you, if you do, you will not be disappointed. My love for you is deeper than the deepest ocean, My love is brighter than the brightest star, My love is higher than the highest mountain and more intoxicating than the strongest wine. Come drink of my love. Let Me alone satisfy you with My tender embraces. For I am desperate for your love, and you will find that I alone will satisfy all your desires.

PRAYER: Lord forgive us were we have looked to other people, places, and things to fill us and satisfy us instead of you. Lord help us to be so desperate for your presence and glory in our lives that we could say like the Apostle Paul, "I am determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified." (I Cor. 2:2) In Jesus Name, Amen.

How Long Have I Cried

Katie Jordan

Thus Saith the Lord; July 15, 2000

My beloved people I ask you, how long have I cried out to you and how long have I beseeched you to let go and give ALL TO ME? The days grow short as time runs out. If you are truly Mine and sensitive to My Spirit you understand this.

I told the Israelites that they were hypocrites if they could discern the signs of the weather but could not discern the signs of the times. ARE YOU AWAKE AND ALERT AS MY WORD SAYS YOU MUST BE? YOUR NATION IS UNDER JUDGEMENT. Her sins have reached to the highest Heaven and yet she still claims to be Mine. She says, "I am rich and have need of nothing", but in reality she is poor, blind, naked, and wretched. Your nation alone has murdered untold millions of innocents. She exports murder and pornography. SHE EXPORTS HER SIN!

Only a remnant of My people have awakened to the horrors that your nation has committed. Do not cry out to Me, "but the temple, but the temple is here so God will not destroy us"; for this is what My people Israel said, and what happened there? The sins of your nation have outdone all other nations on earth. I would not be a just GOD if I turned back My judgement. The arrogance alone in your nation is enough to bring judgement.

Remember that My Word says, I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I WILL HAVE MERCY AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I WILL HAVE COMPASSION.

I appeal to My body - all who are Mine, to stop procrastinating and get your hearts and desires off the world and all worldly things. I have cried out to you for so long but I see very little difference in your individual lives or in your church lives. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL YOU SEE THE BLACK CLOUD THAT WILL SOON COVER YOUR LAND. If you are not already yielded to Me completely then you will not learn to yield under duress.

Again I say, DO NOT PROCRASTINATE, BUT YIELD ALL TO ME NOW.. TODAY IS THE DAY OF SALVATION. I NEVER PROMISE YOU A TOMORROW. OPEN YOUR HEARTS TO ME NOW AND LET ME FILL YOU WITH MY LOVE FOR WITH MY LOVE COMES WISDOM. ALLOW MY SPIRIT TO FILL YOU FOR THEN MY SPIRIT IS ABLE TO KEEP AND GUIDE YOU.

How God Tests His Own

John L. Sandford

TIME FOR WISDOM, COUNSEL, AND INSTRUCTION

Lately many Christians have complained to us that prophets have come and have laid on them great prophecies of grand ministries to which the Lord is calling them, but nothing has happened--except that everything has gone in reverse, and trials and tribulations have befallen them! This morning the Lord made it clear to Paula and me that it is time to bring some wisdom and counsel for the comfort and instruction of His people.

LEARN TO DUCK!

First, whenever the Lord elevates you through mighty prophecies-duck! If the word is truly from Him, He must prepare your heart. Through humbling and testing, He will cleanse you of those things that would defile the ministry or prevent its execution as He intends, as He builds into you a reflection of His character and a willingness to rely solely on Him. The subsequent time of suffering means He has chosen you and trusts you to let it work its full weight of glory in you (2 Corinthians 4:17)!

WAIT FOR CONFIRMATION

Second, quickly humble your heart. Wait for confirmations. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established" (2 Corinthians 13:1b, NKJV). The Lord may confirm instantly, or wait a great while. Do not act until He confirms. Please hear it again, do not act until he confirms. The Devil may be tempting into presumption, but at the same time the Lord will be allowing that in order to reveal to you any weak spots in your ability to be humble and obedient to His counsel. Humbling your heart is vital, because Satan copies all things, knows the Word as well, and can send his own confirmations, which are just as false as the promises!

CAN YOU KNOW FOR SURE?

How are you going to know the difference? There's no guarantee you will! But you don't need to know for sure--it's not your knowing that will bring it to pass, it's the Lord's faithfulness! For this reason the Scripture declares that the beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord.

Proverbs 8:12-17 says:

I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, And I find knowledge and discretion.

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way, And the perverted mouth, I hate.

Counsel is mine and sound wisdom; I am understanding, power is mine.

By me kings reign, And rulers decree justice.

By me princes rule, and nobles, All who judge rightly.

I love those who love me; And those who diligently seek me will find me.

FROM ONE WHO HAS BEEN THERE MANY TIMES

I have been down many blind alleys that I thought had been definitely confirmed. Here are a few signposts that can point to pitfalls ahead.

IF YOUR HEART LEAPS

1) If your heart leaps with joy and you feel elevated and can't wait to do whatever is prophesied, watch out. The prophetic word has appealed to your flesh. Pride is rising.

This doesn't mean the word may be false, but it does mean your flesh is in the way! For a good example in scripture of the breaking and humbling process after an exalted prophecy, take a look at the story of Joseph, beginning in Genesis 37. God gave him two prophetic dreams that he quickly and unwisely "shared" with his older brothers.

They already hated him because he was their father's hands-down favorite, but these dreams, which showed them bowing down to him, were the limit; they sold him into slavery, letting their father believe he was dead. This might be where many people would figure, "Well, that's that! Must have been a false word, 'cause look at what's happened now!" or "Look what the devil's doing to poor me. Where's God when you really need Him?" But no, through years of patient and loyal servanthood, God prospered Joseph, and he was given more and more responsibility and trust.

End of story? Nope!

SUFFERING FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS

Now he had to go through years in prison-falsely accused by his master's wife because she couldn't break his integrity and get him to sleep with her. First he suffered for his own thoughtlessness and lack of wisdom; then he suffered for the sake of righteousness! When God gave Joseph those dreams, did He expect him to behave in a mature and restrained manner? Was it ill-timed? Did Joseph blow it? No to all of the above. God's timing is perfect, and knowing Joseph's character as it was, how it needed to become, and just what it would take to get it there, God gave him a true word. In due season it came to pass just as He'd shown that it would, and Joseph was able to walk uprightly in it because God had done a good work in him.

"HELPING" GOD

2) Flesh is sweaty and tense. If you've been gripped, you may feel mightily stirred to act, and become possessive and defensive about "your" ministry. A true call received with maturity will be accompanied by a sense of peace--and a willingness to lay it all on the altar! Watch out for the ways your flesh (and the devil) will prompt you to "help Him do it." It's easy to do too much and it's tough to wait on the Lord, whose timetable is certainly different from your own!

DAVID, A GOOD EXAMPLE IN PROPHETIC FULFILLMENT

A good example in scripture of someone with a huge word spoken over them who did NOT try to get ahead of God's timetable is the young shepherd boy named David, whom Samuel anointed as King of Israel, at God's instructions, in I Samuel 16. Did he get to ride into Jerusalem on his high horse and depose King Saul, who had fallen from God's favor? No, he came under the existing authority, first as the royal harpist, to sooth Saul's torment, then as the royal armor bearer, and then as a fugitive, running for his life from the jealous and unbalanced king, whom David refused to kill even in defense of his own life. What David and Joseph both understood was that in order to be given authority, one must be willing to come under authority-and that authority may not always be friendly, understanding or "fair"! A lot of flesh has to die for this to happen!

LOOK FOR GOOD CHARACTER AND A SENSE OF "YES"

3) Look closely at who is giving you that wonderful prophecy, and who is confirming it. God can give a true prophecy through a rascal, but the chances are slim. If the prophet's character doesn't manifest Jesus' nature, be very skeptical; that won't be a sign of lack of faith on your part, but only prudence, which the Lord will approve. But remember, even if this word has never before occurred to your conscious mind, God has already been at work in your spirit, and a true word from God, no matter how surprising, will, at the same time bring with it a sense of "Yes, this is real."

LISTEN TO THE WARNINGS AND WOUNDINGS OF FRIENDS

4) True friends will often give you hard words; "Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but deceitful are the kisses of an enemy" (Proverbs 27:6). Job's comforters may applaud and encourage you to plunge ahead full steam (they want to bask in your glory, proud of and idolizing you - and are also among the first to turn to rend you when things go wrong). Set yourself to hear the reproaches and warnings of friends. "He who hates reproof will die" (Proverbs 15:10b). On the other hand, don't be a people pleaser who turns from a true calling just because trusted friends don't approve. Paul didn't decide not to go to Jerusalem when Agabus prophesied captivity if he went and friends pleaded with him not to go (Acts 21). If a command has been clear and confirmed, obey it no matter what, always remembering to remain attentive to the leading of the Holy Spirit for how and when, in order to keep from stumbling!

GOD WANTS YOUR SUCCESS

Something to remember-and take comfort from--when talking about testing: God isn't sitting there correcting your exam papers like some stern and legalistic school master; He wants you to succeed, and will do everything to cause you to succeed. Everything that you'll allow Him to do, that is! Life is full of tests: anything from having to perform the Heimlich maneuver for the first time on a stranger in a restaurant (should I do it? what if they decide to sue me?) to being asked to give $X for a worthy cause (this'll mean having to trust God for my Visa payment/phone bill/next meal...shall I/shan't I?) to being willing (or not) to leave the last cookie on the plate for someone else! In God's economy, tests are to show us where we are, how we're doing and where we're lacking-He already knows. So sometimes we have to get caught with egg on our face, or flat on our face, in order to see where and how we need to die to self and look to Him.

PARENTS UNDERSTAND THIS WITH CHILDREN

If we but think a moment, this isn't too hard to understand. How many times have our children pestered us to do something we knew wasn't good for them, until we finally we let them go do it, knowing that, at this point, the freedom to learn by a mistake is worth a thousand words; they'll have to learn the hard way what they couldn't accept from us in the form of advice. Sometimes that permission is only a test of their common sense, and they decide that, being free to make their own decision, now they really don't want to do it after all. But if they do have to learn the hard way, we're still there, loving them and willing to help pick up the pieces-if asked. God is a far better Father than we, and acts in the same way, only infinitely more wisely.

"WHAT ARE YOU TRYING TO DO, LORD, KILL ME?"

So. You've been given a glorious prophecy. What do you do? Lay it on the altar. If it's a true word, when the time is right, God will give it back to you. It won't be easy, and if you find yourself crying out, "What are you trying to do, Lord, kill me?"...just remember, the answer is "Yes."

All scripture quotations are from the NASB, except where otherwise indicated.

House of YHVH

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Ephraim and Judah,

Over the last couple of weeks and especially around the time of Yom Kippur, we have watched the social order in our country begin to disintegrate. Israeli Jews and Arabs have taken to the streets in violent confrontations, not to speak of the tense situation in Judea, Samaria and Gaza and on the Lebanese border. In addition to that, the Arab heads of state will soon gather for a summit on the Arab Israeli conflict. In some of those countries we have seen demonstrations and a growing number of other incidents like the terrorist bombing of an American warship. But even more graphic was the brutalization yesterday of two Israeli soldiers and the burning of an ancient synagogue in Jericho. The frenzied elation of beating on a human body over and over was brushed off as psychological frustration, by the president of the United States. My friends, if that is all that is seen behind that madness we are in deep trouble. It is being said that if the Palestinians had their own state, they would make peace with Israel, but what about the rest of the Islamic nations? Do they not have their own states? Why is the populace in those nations also having violent hate-filled demonstration with the burning of Israeli and American flags? It is not because they are aligning themselves with the Palestinian cause; that is only the excuse. The deeper meanings are biblically based and are sovereignly watched over by an Omnipotent Creator. Have our leaders forgotten that peace goes hand in hand with love, and that hatred and peace do not make good partners?

In the midst of all of this, I kept hearing the word "distraction". It dawned on me that in the days of David, Ezra and Nehemiah, who were all involved in YHVH's work of restoration, the enemies managed to distract the workers from restoring or building the house of YHVH.

Twenty-two years ago, while in a discipleship training program, I had to memorize scriptures. One such scripture that really spoke to me was 1 Cor. 15:58: "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord". In the course of meditating on that scripture the little word OF spoke out like the voice from a burning bush. I suddenly became very puzzled and asked in prayerful thoughts: "What is the work OF the Lord? Lord what is it that you are doing? I see around me a lot of work FOR You. But is this the work "OF" You?"

Over the years YHVH has been slowly revealing His work to His workmen. Because we see through a glass darkly, it can be a slow process of revelation. But as we perceive from the Word, He is building himself a dwelling place. As we know, if a house is to be built it must be built on a rock solid foundation. The rock bed is the Creator Himself, "For I proclaim the name of YHVH, ascribe greatness to our Elohim. He is the Rock, His work is perfect; for all His ways are justice, A God of truth and without injustice; Righteous and upright is He" (Deut. 32:3-4). "No one is holy like YHVH, For there is none besides You, Nor is there any rock like our Elohim" (1 Samuel 2:2). The bedrock on which the foundation is laid, is the Holiness, Righteousness, Faithfulness, Justice and Truth of our Elohim.

The foundation of His house is the apostles and prophets (of Scripture). The chief cornerstone Yeshua, who is also the foundation, was taken from the bedrock (Elohim). "Thus says YHVH: 'Behold, I lay in Zion a stone for a foundation, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation'" (Isaiah 28:16). The Apostle Paul, addressing those who have been called out from the nations, writes: "Having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Yeshua the Messiah, Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit" (Eph 2:20-22).

The house cannot be restored until the foundation has been completed. In other words, we must have a full picture of what the apostles and prophets, along with the chief cornerstone, have been revealing to us. I believe this is what drew me to read about the restoration work that has been recorded in Ezra, Haggai, and Zechariah. As I read these books over and over, the one major theme that became apparent to me was YHVH's determination to lay the foundations and restore His house, while the enemies' objective (then and now) was and is to keep that from happening. I believe, as many of you know, that the "House of YHVH" and the "house of Jacob" are one and the same. This conclusion I have drawn from the writings of both the prophets and the apostles. For example Luke 1:32-33: "He [Yeshua] will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; Adonai YHVH will give Him the throne of His father David. And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end". In whose house was He to set up an everlasting kingdom? In what house was He to sit on the throne of His father David? Over which house did His father David rule? In the 'foundation stones' of the Prophets it is recorded: "And now YHVH says, who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Jacob back to Him, so that Israel is gathered to Him... Indeed He says, `It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel...?' (Isa. 49:5-6).

In the return and restoration during the days of Zerubbabal, the foes endeavored to discourage and frighten the workers from doing their job. They would even hire counselors against them to frustrate their counsel (see Ezra 4:4-5). Even to the point where the workmen would say: "It is not the time for the house of YHVH to be built" (Haggai 1:2). Is this situation comparable to the one in Israel today? During those most difficult days YHVH sent two prophets, Haggai and Zechariah to exhort and encourage the remnant that had returned, under Zerubbabel and Joshua, to finish laying the foundation and to build the house. "Then the prophet Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. So Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them. (emphasis added)" (Ezra 5:1-2).

I strongly believe that there is a remnant of both houses of Israel that has returned to the land and is called and gifted for the task of completing the foundation and building the House as prescribed to the Branch . "Then speak to him, saying, `Thus says YHVH of the armies, saying: "Behold, the Man whose name is the BRANCH! From His place He shall branch out, and He shall build the temple of YHVH; yes, He shall build the temple of YHVH. He shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on His throne; so He shall be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both [the kingly and priestly of the Melchizedek order]" (Zech. 6:12-13). We all have been grafted as branches into the Messiah who is the "shoot and the branch" (netzer and the tzemach) , and are therefore intricately involved in His work.. "Therefore let your hands be strong, you who are listening in these days to these words from the mouth of the prophets, those who spoke in the day that the foundation of the house of YHVH of hosts was laid, to the end that the temple might be built. ...for it will come about that just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel (Ephraim) so I will save you that you may become a blessing. Do not fear; let your hands be strong" (Zech. 8:9,13).

Do not let all these distractions discourage you, but, rather, seek Him for your portion of the work in the restoration of the House of YHVH (the house of Jacob). Thank you again for being with us at such an awesome and glorious time as this. Have a blessed outing in your succa, but remember this feast is prophetic and a shadow of things to come. Hag Sam'ach and Shabbat Shalom, Shevet Achim

Indeed, how great and glorious will be His house, when the brothers (the sons of Jacob) sit or dwell together in unity, in the restored succa of David.

Holy Spirit Teaches All Truth

Rose Everett

God has promised us that His Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth. Indeed, as we ask Him to open our spiritual eyes and show us the deep mysteries of His Word, He is faithful to do so!

I don't know about you, but after receiving Jesus as My Savior, I understood what the New Testament was talking about, but basically, the Old Testament remained a history lesson. I could not understand what much of the Old Testament had to do with my salvation. It has taken many years and much study, but I'm finally able to receive some revelation from The Holy Spirit about how the Old Testament is a type of Christ and contains the New Testament, tells about the Messiah.

Many of the things spoken of in the Old Testament don't seem to have much meaning except on a natural level. However, as The Holy Spirit opens our spiritual eyes, we are able to see that everything contained in the Old Testament has deep spiritual significance, and all of it relating to Jesus Christ!

A good example of this is the golden pot of manna spoken of in Exodus 16:11-31. On the surface, we see that the manna was the Bread from heaven upon which Israel fed for forty years in the wilderness. God provided for them when they couldn't! Manna is named after the first impression the people had when they saw it on the ground. The name 'manna' means "What is it?" The characteristics of it were as the taste of oil. It came during the night with the dew, and was white, round and sweet as honey to the taste (Numbers 11:7-9). All of the people were responsible to gather it early in the morning for themselves, and no one could eat for another

Now, here is where revelation from the Holy Spirit comes in: spiritually speaking, the Manna symbolized the nature, character and sustaining power of the Lord Jesus as the Bread of Life. Jesus is that Bread of heaven who was anointed with the oil of gladness. Jesus is sweet as honey and as fresh as the dew to the partaker (believer). He is indeed the True Manna (John 6: 31-58). All must eat of Him or die. No one can eat for another. He is the source of life eternal. He sustains His people in the wilderness journey.

There is also something else to be gleaned from Scripture. There are several more observations about Manna that I want to mention. 1. The Manna stopped when Israel entered Canaan. (Joshua 5:11-12). 2. There was no Manna on the seventh day of the week, but there was twice as much on the sixth day (Exodus 16:25-26). 3. There was no Manna in the Ark of the Covenant when it was taken to Solomon's Temple, it's permanent resting place (I Kings 8:9). All of this tells us that NOW is the accepted time, NOW is the day of salvation. There will be no need to preach the Gospel in the Ages to come. We won't need to partake of Jesus then, because we will be with Him!

The Lord Jesus Christ is the Golden (Divine) Pot of Manna. He is the Bread of eternal life. If any eat of Him they shall never die! Those that overcome will be once again given the "Hidden Manna" that was preserved in the Ark (Revelation 2:17).

Praise God, the Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth if we will but ask Him!

Hard Times Pressing In

Nita Johnson

On Oct. 24th 1999, the Shekinah glory of Yahveh appeared to me like unto the sun whiter than the brightest light. I saw flames of glory flashing out from within. He spoke to me these simple but wonderful words. "Keep your eyes upon My glory in the midst of your trials, then you will come through them made in the image of My Son." Then the vision came to and end.

Those were His words. He imparted to my heart the knowledge that His words were for the body of Christ to help you through the difficult days ahead. Hard times are pressing in, and Yeshua has a purpose for the storm.

By the time you receive this newsletter, we are already going to have a pretty good idea about the impact of Y2K. Regardless of what happens in your geographical area, it won't be the last of the trials that will accompany the year 2000. Many of you have already begun months and even years of severe trials and are simply holding on with what little strength you feel that you have until the trials are over. For you it must seem very difficult to think of more trials.

Before I continue, I want to encourage you that there is coming a greater grace than we have experienced heretofore. When that grace is imparted, even difficult times are made much easier.

Back in the eighties I can remember visiting a young lady who was a mother of two precious toddlers. Her parents and husband invited me to her home. She was dying of liver cancer and had only days to live. I sat beside her bed hearing the most horrendous story of a Doctor's failure in detecting the cancer that by now had consumed her body. He wouldn't run the appropriate test to determine the possibility of cancer even though she had recently had surgery removing cancer from her stomach area. Three months after the doctor's refusal to test her, she finally went to another doctor due to the severe and increasing pain she was in. He tested her and found cancer in her liver. I won't go into all the details, but I will say that the second doctor told the parents that had she had detection soon enough she wouldn't have been beyond help, and her life could have been spared. As it was by the time he saw her it was too late to do anything but make her as comfortable as possible for the time she had left.

I prayed for her and the family, then went my way. Once in my automobile I wept for the whole family. I could hardly bear to think of those precious toddlers crying in the night for a mommy that would never again hold them.

I told the Lord please, of all the trials you ask me to go through, please don't ask me to go through a trial where I have to watch my daughter suffer like that. I couldn't bear feeling so helpless in the sight of so much pain.

Well, my Dear Friends, that is exactly what I have gone through with my daughter. She was operated on for Cancer twice in the last five years. In the last three years she has had seven more surgeries, thankfully none have been for cancer. But the pain she has gone through was no less than what I saw and heard in that little mother's face back in the eighties. I felt just as helpless as we went from doctor to doctor seeking help. Surgery after surgery, always finding the problem, removing it, and later being subjected to a more severe problem and more severe pain wondering if there would ever be an end. I didn't have to suffer the pain of losing her to death. But we all, including my grandchildren, have suffered living with the unknown while her pain level continually increased. Traveling in the ministry has been unbelievably difficult. I wanted to be with Ricci and to nurture my needy grandchildren. I have had decisions to make and sacrifices to endure. I never would have thought I could make. I have wept tears of deep pain when Messiah would speak to me and tell me that it wasn't time for Ricci to be healed and to trust Him. Still, I never forget that He chose the trail. Nearing the end of it now, I can say His grace has been sufficient. It has been sufficient for all of us. I still believe in the need for the cross to enter into the life of every Christian for the purpose of refining us and making us into His image. In fact, I believe it more now than ever. We have also received much comfort through the body both from my daughter's local church and through those of you who have phoned and or written to us to give your love and pledge your prayer support.

Yeshua spoke to me in a vision while ministering in Mobile this year. In the vision, I saw a table setting fit for a King. I asked the Lord what it was that He was saying. Then the words appeared on the plate: The secret face of Elohim! Well that was kind of exciting, but what is the secret face of Elohim I wondered. The next vision came and with it a Psalm. The secret face of Elohim is suffering, the compassion He carries for each one of His own and the deep love that moves Him to let us suffer. You cannot separate one from the other. Where there is suffering, there is His compassion and love.

Isaiah said that when we are afflicted the Lord is afflicted. He feels every one of our hurts and our sorrows. He bears them in His own person. I once told Him when I was face to face with Him, that I didn't want Him to hurt like I was hurting. He responded that He would have it no other way. Yeshua loves us so much that no amount of sorrow is too great for Him to desire to bear with us.

Still He never brings us through seasons of suffering just for the sake of suffering. According to Romans 8:28-30, Messiah's purpose is to make us into His image. Through suffering we can be conformed to His likeness if we will just keep our eyes upon His glory. By keeping our eyes upon His glory, we recognize that He is always in full control especially when we feel so out of control. His grace is ever so gently seeping into our souls as we sit at Messiah's feet in prayer and in His Word. He strengthens us and helps us when we can't help ourselves. We have many questions, and His grace teaches us the answers to those questions as we wait upon Him and learn to trust Him. As we turn our eyes upon Yeshua and off ourselves we find the wonders of His person being revealed to us and slowly becoming apart of our innermost nature. Romans 8:28 also teaches us that all our suffering is redemptive. Our heavenly Father will not only redeem it to our good but to the good of others. He is always dealing with many people generally while dealing in the life of one specifically. Paul said in II Corinthians 1:6 that we suffer affliction so that the consolation we received in our affliction can be poured out to minister to another in their need. Thus Messiah refines many in the refining of one.

Hard times are coming. However, they are not being sent for our undoing. As we seek His face in the midst of our trials we will find His glory. As we behold His glory we will be changed into His image. His truth will become real to us. More than this it will begin to be our life and our sustenance. It will become so much apart of us that we will be changed into His image. As a result of my trail with Ricci, there is less of me, and more of my Messiah in me and hopefully being seen through me. His goal is being realized as I continue to seek Him alone.

Humility

Doug Fortune

“Let this MIND be IN YOU, which was also in Christ Jesus. He humbled Himself and became OBEDIENT unto DEATH, even the death of the CROSS. Wherefore God also hath highly EXALTED Him.”(Phil.2:5,8-9).

I used to think that humility was a matter of continually dying to self, continually placing my will upon the altar, thinking of myself in terms of how sinful I was compared to the holiness of my Father, thinking of myself as LESS than other people (you can esteem others without debasing yourself), not telling other people if God had used me to do something extraordinary. I think you get the picture. Many sincere Christians would agree that these are admirable traits of humility. Do you see the focus though?. MY dying, MY sacrifice, MY faults, MY image, MY works. this mindset has little to do with true humility, but it looks very spiritual. I believe that most who pursue this type of mindset do so out of pure motives (I believe I did), but with an inaccurate understanding.

Jesus Christ is our example in humility and the verse we just read gives an accurate definition humility: He humbled Himself and became OBEDIENT unto DEATH. True humility is OBEDIENCE unto DEATH, whether that is figurative or literal death. Primarily for us, this speaks of death to the Adam-sin nature, but also with a possibility of physical martyrdom. The emphasis cannot be on OUR continual dying to self, sacrificing OUR will, debasing OURselves, as this can easily lead to the pride of false humility. because the focus is inward, on US.

Our focus and mindset must be on the fact that IN Christ we are ALREADY crucified, dead and buried! Someone who is already dead does not need to continually die; the life we live is His LIFE being lived through us. The one who is crucified in Christ and living the RESURRECTION life has no will other than that of the Father. The one who is dead in Christ is made the RIGHTEOUSNESS of God in Christ, “.for He made Him to be sin for us, Who knew no sin.” (2 Cor.5:21). To walk in TRUE humility, our focus must be on HIS death and resurrection Life in us, HIS will, HIS righteousness. Obviously, we must allow this to be lived out within us. we can’t think we’re the righteousness of God and live like the devil in open sin and rebellion, then we’re only fooling ourselves.

True humility is not about US, it is about Christ IN US. My most humble effort still has the stench of pride, because it is MY effort. You see, Christ has already provided a humility for us to walk in. it is called being ‘conformable unto HIS DEATH’. Jesus said, “I can of mine OWN SELF do nothing.” (John 5:30), yet people were healed, delivered, even raised from the dead in His ministry. Did this cause Him to be lifted up in pride?. no, because He understood that it was the work of His Father.

Let me get to the real issue. I believe that the church is seeing the dawning of a new day where miracles, signs and wonders will be the rule and not the exception. Those with an inaccurate understanding of true humility will have a difficult time transitioning into a season of manifest power. You see, religious humility that is a product of man's effort says you must figuratively get 'low' and 'stay low' to remain humble. Interestingly enough, God says that when you humble yourself, He will EXALT you (James 4:10; 1Pet.5:6). True humility can handle being exalted because it understands that it's NOT about the individual, it's about the corporate Christ anointing. it's ALL the ministry of Christ, no matter how and who it comes through! If I have the idea that it is in any way MY ministry, or MY church, or even MY life and I see a measure of success, then I can take credit for part of it. God will SHARE His glory with NONE! If I understand that I am DEAD in Christ and it is His LIFE being lived in me and through me, THEN He is able to do abundantly above anything I could ask or think! Then He is not limited in what He can do through me.

Are you walking in a false humility of your efforts?. are you continually dying?. is your focus on your sacrifice? Know that Christ has already provided His DEATH. He came that you may have LIFE, zoe, HIS very Life, HIS mind, HIS humility. and yes, to be EXALTED and seated at the right hand of the Father in Christ in HIS power. As we begin to walk in true humility, we WILL see the 'greater works' Jesus spoke of. Let us embrace the FINISHED work of the CROSS. HIS humility. HIS death. HIS burial. HIS resurrection Life in us. HIS exaltation and position at the right hand of the Father, with US being found IN HIM!

Hunger and Thirst for God

Linda Lamon

*11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.
12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.
13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29:11-13*

Where is God? Where is He to be found? Who is calling upon Him and why do we claim to have heard Him when nothing changes around us? For over a year I have visited church after church. I came to see if the power and presence of God was in the assemblies of those that call themselves Christians. There is much talk about God but so little real evidence of His presence in the lives of most of the people that I have met. I have found a few wonderful souls here and there, scattered few and far between where there was an instant bond, an instant knowing that here is a sister or brother in Christ. I have been seeking the face of God in my life for many years. The need to find Him and to be with Him grows stronger and stronger. My longing for Him increases. My hunger grows daily. This seeking has totally changed my life. The purposes for which I exist have changed. Yet the question remains, in our lives and in the “church”, where is He? I do not want to offend anyone but I am wondering how can we say we have met God on Sunday morning or Wednesday night or any other day or night if that encounter does not literally change us?

When Moses encountered God in a burning bush, it literally changed him, physically, spiritually as well as emotionally and changed the course of his existence. When David called upon the Lord, the Lord answered him. When Jonah prayed and repented, God restored him and gave him a second chance. When Elijah prayed, fire fell from heaven, or the rains ceased. When Mary Magdalene encountered Jesus, her love was so great it saved her. When Peter encountered the risen Lord, he discovered forgiveness and spent the rest of his life serving the Lord. We ‘encounter’ church and act as though we have been in the presence of the Living God. There is a problem with what people are professing and what reality reveals.

We claim to be healed but we are still seeing the doctors. We pray for miracle healings but we go to the physician and expect that miracle through modern science. We say that we love God more than anything but our lives are often entangled in the ways and thinking of the world. Jeremiah has the answer. We can’t find God because we are only half-heartedly, or maybe even barely, interested in doing so. There is a sense of helplessness in the lives of God’s people, a sense that things are definitely out of control and that even prayers don’t mean much. Most of our prayers mean nothing, they are just noisy gongs going off but perhaps make us feel like we have actually ‘done’ something. We can only find God when we seek Him with our WHOLE heart. When everything that is in us longs for Him, there is a possibility of finding Him.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. 1 Chronicles 28:9

1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Isaiah 55:1-11

David tells Solomon that if he seeks the Lord, he will find Him. Isaiah exhorts us in verse six to seek the Lord while He may be found, while He is near. His ways are not our ways, in fact there is no comparison. Our thoughts are not His thoughts. How do I know if the Lord is talking to me? I have thoughts that are not my own. They are a long ways away from my own reasoning. When I reason, I pray that the Lord will guide my reasoning for truly my ways have brought me nothing all the days of my life but grief. I want to know His ways, to walk in His truth and to hear His voice that I may become an obedient servant. I will forsake my own thoughts and ways and return unto the Lord for therein is mercy and grace in abundance. His word will produce in me the fruits of righteousness. Seeking Him gives me an understanding that changes the goals, dreams and direction of my life.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things. Proverbs 28:5

That has to be one of the most profound statements in the entire Bible. They that seek the Lord understand all things. We understand nothing. I speak of the collective we, of those that are calling themselves, Christians. We seem to have forgotten or never known what it means to seek God. The source of all understanding and wisdom is not at the university, it is not at the church, not at the Sunday school, not in books or at the psychiatrists office. The source of understanding and wisdom is in the Lord God Almighty, the creator and King of the universe. Yet we are spending all our efforts and time educating ourselves, ever learning and never coming to the knowledge of the truth. For this knowledge is tied up in a relationship, in a communion with God Himself. Why are we so foolish to think we have answers. Yes, we can quote scripture, so can Satan. Yes, we can pray and make beautiful music, so can the pagans of the world. Yes, we can give to the poor, build beautiful buildings, support the ministry of others and so can any other non-profit organization in the world. What makes us different, if there is any difference?

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. Hosea 10:12-13

There is the description of trusting in ourselves. We plow wickedness, reap iniquity and eat the fruit of lies. We trust in our own righteousness and the pastor, the leaders, and the people in charge! It is truly time to seek the Lord until He comes and showers righteousness upon us. His righteousness not our own! Stop telling the world of the power of God when sickness, disease, injustice, murder, rape, theft, lies, abortion, corruption and all the sins and crimes of the world are still unrestrained. When the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is mitigated and unable to change those that hear it, it is not just the listener that has the problem. Those that are proclaiming this 'gospel' have no evidence to support their claim that God is among them. I wrote, last, of the signs of power that are to follow those that believe and was rebuked by a man that declared that in the end times people will believe in signs and wonders. My point was, that we are to seek Him, to seek the Father and Creator, not signs and wonders. However, we are liars if we say signs and wonders do not accompany the true Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We don't see genuine miracles because we don't really believe in Him. I say this as plainly as I can, if you are praying for miracles you are part of an adulterous and wicked generation. Pray for Him, seek His face. We don't really believe because we are not seeking the Lord with our whole heart for, without a doubt, when we seek Him with all that is in us, He will turn to us and cleanse us and heal us and deliver us from all our bondages and iniquities.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live: Amos 5:4

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. Jeremiah 6:16

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Matthew 5:6

Hungering and thirsting for righteousness involves desiring His presence with a passion that cannot be denied. "As the deer panteth for the water so my soul longeth after Thee." Longing to see Him in all of His power, strength and glory. Neither you, or I, deserve such a blessing, yet I, for one, cannot live without Him in my life. I must find Him or die trying. I surrender all that I have, hope or dream, in order to simply catch a glimpse of Him. To taste and see that the Lord is good is a blessing beyond all the gold, silver, or possessions of this world. I have renounced the world and all its ways and pray daily that He will deliver me from the snare of the fowler that would capture me and ensnare me in the ways of the world.

All to Jesus I surrender, all to Him I freely give. I will ever love and trust Him; in His presence daily live. I surrender all. Teach me your ways oh Lord, that I may walk in your truth. Give me an undivided heart that I might fear your name. For you, Oh Lord, are a shield for me, a strong tower from the enemy. Oh friend, as you read this, Heed the call of the Lord and return unto Him. Seek His face until He is found for surely He is waiting for us to turn away from all the things that we love and seek Him first, second and last. Seek Him alone. He alone should be our heart's desire. Do not fall into the trap the Israelites fell into and mistake your ways for His ways. Do not be rebellious and refuse to submit to the cleansing and chastening of the Lord. Seek Him first and seek His ways. Seek His kingdom and His righteousness. Confess that you don't know His ways and stop trying to think for God. Learn to listen and obey. Learn to trust completely, in ways you never even thought about. Learn that His ways are better and higher than your own.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 5:20

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Matthew 11:27-30

Cast off pride, self-importance, self-righteousness and all the things that are binding you and give up all of yourself, all that you love with utter abandon into the hands of the Son and thereby to the Father. There is a popular Christian song that sings about giving up your life in order to take it back again. Nonsense, give it up and leave it given up. Do not think to gain back what you have totally surrendered to the Lord, how foolish can we get! What we give up we leave there and never take it up again but allow Him to live His will and life through us. God will not accept such bargaining from us. He gave up everything, His throne and eternal crown, His life, His blood, everything for us, yet you want to give to Him only in order to receive? Something given over to the Lord in the Old Testament was often completely destroyed, thereby preventing one from coming and taking back what had been given over to God. If you cannot give something in your life up to God then that is your master, not Him. Let Him be Lord and Master. He waits for you now. There is none like Him in all the earth. Do you really want God in your life? Do you really want to know Him? Then seek Him with your entire heart and you will be found by Him and filled with Him. Such Glory!

He is Well Pleased With You!

Sharon Marks

7-20-00 My children let not your heart fail for those that would turn aside. For I am sending a cleansing fire to burn up the chaff; a wind to blow away that which is not rooted in Me; a quaking to shake loose all who would stand against My anointed. Children, in you I am well pleased, for you have remained steadfast in times of great tribulation and persecution. Look not on what has left but on what remains; in these chosen you will bring many nations to My Son. This is a time of shaking and of cleansing for the time is too short before I gather My children to Me. I will not contend with those who are unforgiving, who turn aside so easily with every dissatisfaction. Who rise up against those I have chosen. Many are the trials you have been through and there have been times you spoke to Me and said "I can't, I can't do this any more, "it hurts too much" but My children still you journeyed on and still you raised your sword even when you felt it was too heavy to wield. Hear Me, My children, for this day I set before you a suit of armor I have re-enforced with My glory and a sword I place in your hand that shall never grow heavy but one that you shall wield with great strength and power, for My word is buried in Your very being and shall be a force that cannot be reckoned with.

Now the time has come when you shall rise up in what I have purposed in you, NOW you shall go forth with a power and authority only few have known. For you are My chosen servants to bring My people to harvest. Neglect not the gifts within you, draw on them and from Me. Gird your loins, stand fast, think not on what was, only on what is, in Me. Give no more place to things that take your eyes off of Me; to things that the enemy would use to distract, dissuade, and to weaken you. I am your strength and I will raise a standard for you and I will contend with all who contend with you. This battle is not yours but Mine children. Do not take upon yourself to do what I alone can do. Lean only on Me and stay steadfast in all I have purposed. You shall prosper and you shall be made stronger in this. For I am the God of all and there is none like Me! I will that you be obedient to Me alone and to Me only will you give place to. You are My children and in you I AM WELL PLEASED!

Isaiah 55:5-6

Laura Metze

Sept 2, the Lord spoke through a word, "Tell the Nations" I was obedient in sending it out through E-mail and speaking it to as many who would listen.

Sept. 20 started the call to pray and fast, my first day in doing this the Lord gave this scripture, and I believe it goes along with the "Tell the Nations" word

Isaiah 55:5-6 Surely you shall call a nation you do not know, And Nations who do not know you shall run to you Because of the Lord your God, And the Holy One of Israel; For He has glorified you.

Seek the Lord while He may be found, Call upon Him while He is near.

Tell The Nations

Their cry is being heard-the battle is won for a time there is a release of Power upon my people

I will soon be doin' a New thing, there is a call to heal the sick and set captives free, in this time

My Spirit is being released, poured out in spurts upon my people freeing them from binding chains upon them and their families salvation is upon us, it's a call, it's a cry, Shout it to the Nations Bring my people forth into the world ministering to all, the poor the sick and the hungry

Feed them with what you know

My Grace is upon them and is sufficient for their needs, the downtrodden

After receiving this word, I did not study it, or ask for an interpretation. I believe when God speaks it can have different meanings for all of us.

Now what I've experienced and you've experienced with God will be different too.

POURING OUT IN SPURTS-- I believe that to mean those who are really seeking His face, in worship, prayer, praise are being touched by His Presence, there are many in the body of Christ who have never experienced, His Glory, (like shaking, trembling, the anointing light, the oil, the flakes of Gold, visions of angelic warriors)

THEIR CRY IS BEING HEARD- For years we've been seeking God, for Renewal, Revival, we know the Lord is attentive to our prayers.

THE BATTLE IS WON- We know the end of the book of REVELATION- the ultimate victory is in JESUS

FOR A TIME THERE IS A RELEASE- In the book of Joel 2:28, and then again Acts 2:17-21 the word says, and it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. We are entering this, but the church is not there yet, so for now until He pours out completely on all, only those who are seeking and wanting His Glory are receiving. This is my observation from what I see in the body of Christ where I live. Not everyone is seeking the Holy Spirit and many are turned off, because it breaks tradition in the service.

Joel 3:18- And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drip with new wine, The hills shall flow with milk and all the brooks of Judah shall be flooded with water; A fountain shall flow from the house of the Lord and the water the Valley of Acacias.

FEED THEM WITH WHAT YOU KNOW- Jesus is our source. People are crying out for tangible experiences. Share testimonies, you can pound someone with scriptures all day, but if they don't have the knowledge to receive the word, it's not going to get them saved either. You can lead the horse to water but, you can't make him drink. Just give them Jesus, real life, things that have happened experiences. Touch their emotions, and then pray for them. I've learned you can't force anyone to Christ. The Lord has to call them to Him,. When we draw near to Him, He draws near to us.

I spent years as a Christian, but I knew absolutely nothing on how to have a personal relationship with Jesus. I believe the body of Christ is full of this today. I spent years, saying Father, Son and Holy Ghost, but I was never taught about the Holy Spirit. And praying, was the hardest thing for me to do, because i always heard such big words in prayer. and I didn't realize you talk to God as a friend. The body of Christ is going through a major shaking and learning period. The Lord is shaking us to our foundations and then rebuilding us, teaching us and growing us up again. Because somewhere along the way we forgot how to be children.

If your church is in the River, this is wonderful, many of our churches are struggling and so divisive in songs to sing, many churches are struggling each week. It's the 3 generation struggle in the church I attend. How can the Spirit move freely in this situation He can't, and He doesn't. It must sadden His heart, to see His children fussing about people in the congregation raising their hands to worship Him. Or bickering over a hymn or a Praise Chorus, who are we trying to please, God or man. How can full salvation come upon His people when we have all of these manmade problems within the walls of His temple. So maybe we need to focus our prayers for unity of the Body of Christ and then I believe this shall follow every knee shall bow, and tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the Glory of God.

I Am The King Of This Land

Stephen Hanson

"I AM THE KING OF THIS LAND"

Nov. 11, 00

1SA 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

1SA 8:19 But the people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We want a king over us. [20] Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles." 1SA 8:21 When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD. [22] The LORD answered, "Listen to them and give them a king."

"Look and watch around you, and tell Me, what do you see?"

"You see a nation and a country that is in confusion, because of these things in the political process. But be patient, for I AM working behind all of this. There is the government of God, and there is a process that has a process much higher than the one in this land. I AM Commander-in-Chief. Do not forget that. I AM in control of everything that is happening. Why do the nations rage and why is there tumult upon the earth? I say, do not fear, nor be ye dismayed. "

"What is in a leader, you might say. Remember how I chose my servant David. Remember that the people wanted someone who would take them to a higher place. Saul was a man who was good in battle but poor in the things of the Spirit, and the people were without a shepherd when he was in office. He hated David for no cause. He went to the witch at Endor to seek help there as well. Do not look to the political process. Come up to the mountain and present your prayers there. I will hear them, if you humble yourselves and pray. Come to Me, and hear Me. You have come to a mountain that you need not fear. Offer sacrifices of true and repentant hearts. "

(The Lord showed me someone who was reading a newspaper. I watched as the pages were leafed through and various articles and captions were looked at. Then I noticed that directly behind me was a King. It was the King of Kings and He held a scepter and seemed to be pointing to various things in this newspaper. He had on a beautiful crown and there were as stars upon His head and His robe. He sat upon a throne and was seated in the office as King of the land. He watched carefully as it were, but remained calm and awaited what would happen; although He knew what would happen.)

"Do not worry about the captions and the things you read in the newspapers. I AM the King of Kings, and I will execute judgment upon the land. "

Stephen Hanson

I Am About To Unleash

Frank Sandford

My son, I am about to unleash devastation upon this nation. Just as I did in to Israel, I will do to this nation (Amos 4). False Gods, murderous conduct, man' unholy love for man, hatred - all of these are calling out for Me to take action. The blood of the unborn will no longer be unavenged. There will be less than a season before disasters begin.

Look for great storms to wrack the East Coast, look for crop destroying droughts and great tornadic storms to rip through the middle of the country, look for great earthquakes in the mountainous regions, and look for high and powerful tidal waves on the West Coast.

During all of this, I will be a shepherding God to those who know Me, to those who listen to My voice, to those who follow the prophetic, and to those who will stand as a lighthouse and guide the lost and hurt to the shadow of My wings.

The devastation I am bringing is not punishment, it is a wake up call to those who have been spiritually asleep, to those who have turned away from confronting evil. I will have a steadfast people who will be My servants in the whirlwind.

Just as the children of Israel went through the plagues of Egypt, so will my TRUE church go through the coming maelstrom.

I am raising up holy men, who will step forward to lead this nation - not for personal gain, but because I have given them a servant's heart.

AS I unleash devastation, do not let things happening around you to divert the eyes of your spirit from Me. I LOVE MY PEOPLE AND I WILL PROTECT THEM.

In God's love, I am Frank Sandford

I Am Your Source In The Beauty of Your Holiness

Mary Koons

Therefore do not worry and be anxious, saying, What are we going to have to eat? or, What are we going to have to drink?, or, What are we going to have to wear?

For the Gentiles wish for and crave and diligently seek after all these things; and your heavenly Father well knows that you need them all.

But seek for (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom, and His righteousness [His way of doing and being right], and then all these things taken together will be given you besides.

So do not worry or be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will have worries and anxieties of its own. Sufficient for each day is its own trouble. (Matthew 6:31-34)

I AM YOUR SOURCE Mary (Koons) Wattenford

August 23, 2000

I AM is your SOURCE - and your PORTION..... I bring "MY LIGHT" into the darkness, "HEALTH" into diseased bodies and minds, and "WEALTH" into poverty and lack! What other portion would you have? The world "kills" by its desire to "have things..... to be somebody.....to look better than your neighbor!" Yet - My Word tells you to SEEK FIRST MY KINGDOM - and then "all these things" - your needs, your provision - I AM will supply. Tomorrow has enough "turmoil and heartache" in store, why do you continually seek to look ahead to it? Let each days troubles be sufficient for the DAY.....and do not try to "figure out" what I will do to smooth the path ahead of you for the next.

I AM YOUR SOURCE - when you look to the world, you find idols and idolatry.....you find harlots and harlotry, misery and those who "make miserable." My Word tells you to LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF - yet, most do not even know the names of their neighbors.... And they ridicule, slander or even perpetrate evil against their OWN brothers and sisters.

A true heart is one that is not weighted down by the "cares of this world," but one that calls and cries out to me for OTHERS..... to uphold those who are lost and hurting. A true heart is one who is not looking out to its "own interests and even it's own beliefs," but seeks MY INTEREST and MY WILL in all things. A true heart KNOWS "WHO" has the POWER to bring all things in line with MY WORD... I AM is the WORD made "manifest" upon this earth.... Before this world was framed - I AM! Before anything was made, I - the Master Builder was laying the foundations of it. By My Word - were the worlds framed! Yet still, so many fear what "tomorrow holds," so many forget "faith" and listen to the lies of the enemy and walk in the "FEAR" of what "might be!" Faith is the substance of things "HOPED FOR...." the EVIDENCE of things "NOT SEEN!" In ALL THINGS you are to be conformed unto My likeness - to emulate ME. Did I walk in fear that My Father would not accomplish what I SAW "HIM" DO? Did I not move in the compassion and love of the Father? Did I allow the lies of satan to interfere with what the Father wanted done? Does My word not say "and He healed them all!"

Those who KNOW ME to be their source - know they will be asked to suffer....even as I did - they KNOW they will not be above their MASTER. But can you STILL praise ME through the suffering? Can you STILL "have hope for what you can't see?" Can your heart be stayed on ME - even when everything around you appears to be falling apart and the enemy is whispering in your ear? I chastise those I love as any Father would - to show them where "correction" is needed... but MY LOVE for you is so great - I do it gently when that heart is, in truth, seeking to find MY WAY. But - for those who seek their OWN WAY - and whose hearts are turned away from ME, I remove My Hand of protection and allow the enemy to do as he will, so "that heart," will TURN AND COME TO ME..... and SEEK ME and find "MY WAY!" I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE..... When you seek ME with all your heart - with all your mind - with all your soul - I WILL BE FOUND.....for I "desire" to be known by My Children. I DESIRE to lead them in the WAY that I AM has set before them. A way where "I" become their SOURCE in every circumstance, every trial, and bring them VICTORY because they have remembered MY NAME and will not look to any other.

A trial is never desirous as you are enduring it - suffering is never something you seek - but in those trials, and during the suffering I AM WITH YOU; I will never, NEVER - NO NEVER! leave you or forsake you. I AM perfecting MY glory within you and allowing the enemy to no longer hinder what I AM is doing in your life. UNTIL you reach the point where he can find "NOTHING" in you to accuse or cause pain or raise doubt. Then, will I TRULY have become your SOURCE for all things - and NOTHING WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR YOU!

In The Beauty of Your Holiness
Mary (Koons) Wattenford

In the beauty of Your Holiness - no pride can enter in,
There is no wealth - no status, for ALL will know they've sinned.
In the beauty of Your Holiness - we fall upon our face
For in the beauty of Your Holiness - ALL know this "IS" their place.

Names and what "you've" accomplished are NOT important here,
For admist HIS fire all will see - what you "truly" have held dear.
In the beauty of Your Holiness, O Lord, we quake in reverent fear, Ashamed of our pitiful naked, sin-filled flesh, enwrapped by heartfelt tears.

In the beauty of Your Holiness - the angels sing your praise,
And the seraphim and cherubim proclaim the wonder of your grace.
In the beauty of Your Holiness - where all LOVE AND TRUTH do dwell,
"Our" hopes, "Our" dreams, "Our" worldly pursuits - begin to quickly pale.

In the beauty of Your Holiness - your consuming fire is seen,
Its fiery golden rays amid your brilliant light - admits no one unclean.
OH! To see your dazzling beauty, the scepter in your nail pierced hand.... is to know that only through and by your blood - will any ever STAND!

In the beauty of Your Holiness - the "cloud" upon us falls,
And burns and cleanses through and through, and melts our every wall.
In the beauty of Your Holiness - we seek NO OTHER God,
For in the beauty of Your Holiness - there is NO GOD - but "ONE!"

In the beauty of Your Holiness - our vision becomes so clear, of how wrong we are to think we could EVER be held so dear,
As to "earn our way" within your gates, and make what YOU paid seem less,
For none will ever pass and see - save faith! - the beauty of Your Holiness.

Inner Court Christianity

Russ Walden

Priesthood of the Believer. This is a term that gets thrown around quite often but do we really know what it means? The truer implications of the priesthood of the believer rock the very foundations of what men have called the church and what we refer to as the CRS (Christian Religious System). Glance over the following verses before continuing:

1 Pet 2:5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

9 But ye [are] a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

Rev 1:6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him [be] glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Heb 7:17 For he testifieth, Thou [art] a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

Heb 5:10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. 11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. 12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which [be] the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat

Years ago at a meeting in Clairmore, Oklahoma the Lord began to show me some things about the priesthood of the believer that I could hardly grasp at the time. The teaching prevalent at the time was that God was restoring Apostles, Prophets, and Teachers to the body of Christ. I had heard a minister say that God restores these offices in the reverse manner in which they were lost. The apostle was lost first in the second century, then the prophet, then the teacher. Hence we saw the TEACHER restored in the 70's and the PROPHET restored in the 80's and we were at that time looking forward to the APOSTOLIC ministry to be restored in the 90's. Which in some measure I can see happened. What God dealt with me on at the time was "What then"? Is an apostolic order or an ecclesiastical order the infrastructure that the Father would use as the underpinning for his economy for eternity?

Look in the garden. In the garden of Eden what was the "order" that the Father established? Was it not a familial order? When he revealed himself to man it was in the context of FAMILY (i.e. Father and Son). If you do a study of the priesthood of Melchisadek (which I don't have place for here) you will find that the order of Melchisadek is the basis for what some call the patriarchal "dispensation" we see in Genesis from Adam to Abraham and so on.

So the CHURCH as we know it, is not the "end all be all" fulfillment of the purpose of God EVEN at its HEIGHT, let alone the corrupt politicized monstrosity called the "church" today. So how do we go from here toward the emerging economy of God in our day?

First and foremost we must take RESPONSIBILITY for ourselves and for others. Cain was the FOUNDER of Godless religion. And one of the primary characteristics of that spirit is "am I my brother's keeper?". In the CRS today we relegate the care of our children, our spouse and our brothers and sisters in Christ to the "pastor" and thence we go about our lives, unhindered by any messy, complicated obligations for those around us.

The responsibilities and prerogatives we have relegated to the "ministry" are the RESPONSIBILITIES WE HAVE before the Father. Regarding husbands for instance: God hasn't called the PASTOR to care spiritually for your wife, (to the degree she may need spiritual ministry) he has CALLED YOU PRIMARILY to that ministry. But husbands leave that to the pastor and then get mad at the CHURCH when their wives wind up in adultery. The first adultery was that of the HUSBAND who abandoned his wife to the care of strangers. You wouldn't let another man take care of her sexual needs, why are you letting someone else take care of her spiritual needs which are so much more important?

The same applies to children. It is not the church's job to train our children. We know the scriptures say that God blessed Abraham because he "trained his children". But, this doesn't fit into our western mindset or lifestyle. In true Victorian fashion we want to leave these tedious, challenging tasks to subservients, while we go about our lives focusing on ourselves. Hence we have the evolution of the ABOMINATION we fondly call the "CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD".

Priests: All are called to serve not just a few, or a special class of leaders but ALL God's people are called to service IF THEY WILL HEAR HIS VOICE. That is the key. You can't fulfil your purpose outside of hearing the voice of God. In the Old Testament God's purpose was to raise up the entire nation, not just ONE tribe to serve him. And the condition, or PRIMARY focus of that priesthood was HEARING THE FATHER'S voice. But the children of Israel were not prepared to walk with the Father as MOSES did (in that FACE TO FACE relationship Num. 12:1-7 speaks of.) Glance over the following verses:

Ex 19:5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth [is] mine: 6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These [are] the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Num 11:27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. 28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, [one] of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. 29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD'S people were prophets, [and] that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

But the people rejected the invitation for FACE to FACE relationship with the Father. Are you on speaking terms with your father? Today, those who say too often "God told me" are subject to ridicule and rejection. It is a heartbreak today that the NORM is NOT TO BE on speaking terms with the Father, and those who talk with God are considered weird, off base and dangerous. Perhaps they are dangerous. To the status quo. To the religious foolishness that goes on in the name of the Lord but has nothing to do with his Spirit or his Kingdom.

Ex 20:18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw [it], they removed, and stood afar off. 19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

These people feared that level of intimacy with the Father. They thought they would die. And they were right! The old man, everything in you that is NOT of the Father WILL DIE in that FACE to FACE encounter with the presence of God.

So because of their fear, there came about in Israel a class of men of the tribe of Levi who served before the Lord and before the people in the office of the priesthood. The place of service was the tabernacle, which was a type of the church. In the tabernacle were two courts: the Outer Court and the Inner Court. In the outer court both priest and non priests alike mingled and carried out particular activities. But in the inner court were the fire of God burned, and the presence of God lingered, only the priests could enter.

The clergy / laity system of Protestantism and the Priest system of Catholicism are cut out of the same cloth. The word "Nicolaitan" in the New Testament is a compound to the two words where we get "clergy and laity" The word clergy has a root meaning of "sacred" and the word laity has a root meaning of "vulgar or common". The dualism in Christian culture is not of God, was not ordained of God or in his primary of first purpose for his people. It was allowed because of hardness of heart. The Father always encouraged and affirmed those moving away from this view and model for worship.

Rev 2:6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate... Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. 15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate..

The Outer Court Christian and the Inner Court Commitment Those in the Inner court are producers of the ministry.

Those in the Outer Court are consumers of the ministry. Which characterizes your walk with God? Then change. Set aside the religion of childishness and become a disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. A man, a woman of God. He is calling you from the marginalization of the outer court, to an inner court experience with him.

Outer Court Inner Court
Natural Light (Academic Knowledge) Spiritual Light (Personal Revelation)
Self-centered God-centered
Occasional Visitation Constantly Abiding
Focused on Negatives Focused on the Father
(altar, laver, walls) (Ark, Altar of Incense, Lampstand)

One of the great problems in Christianity is that ecclesiastical leaders have promised Inner Court blessings to those who only have outer court commitment. Then when it didn't work out the people became offended and fell away. Leaders today tell you, "you can't be a missionary, but you can send your money and it is the same thing". They foster in the people a DEPENDENCE upon the PASTORAL CASTE rather than pointing to what Paul called "Christ in You the Hope of Glory". Jesus condemned this generation of religious leaders as false prophets and deceivers:

Matt 24:11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. 13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

Where does this place leadership? Many would object to these things saying we are advocating the dissolution of all structure and leadership in the body of Christ. Not so. The early church operated in this dynamic and held its leaders in an ESTEEM SO HIGH be comparison to our day as to be considered CULTIC. We should and must venerate, submit to and honor our leaders. But only in the context of God's purpose of raising up men and women fully activated in their CALLINGS AND GIFTING BEFORE GOD.

Eph 4:11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

Church leaders are equippers NOT performers. They are enablers, not facilitators. Their role is to raise up an army, not an audience.

Examples of Failure to serve:

- a. Gideon - where are the miracles (and therefore sat under the oak tree feeling sorry for himself.
- b. Gehazi - compromised for personal gain (and lost out on Elisha's anointing and mantle)
- c. John Mark - went not with them to the work (and was part of dividing a great ministry team in Paul and Barnabas)
- d. Peter - what shall this man do? (and was rebuked by Jesus)
- e. Martha - service was *cumbersome to her, and therefore did not glorify God. Service kept her from what she really wanted to do and it wasn't to sit at the master's feet. *(to be drawn away, or distracted)

A great impediment to walking in the calling of God is a great sense of lack. Lack of time, lack of energy. Our plates are full and we can't keep up with the everyday matters, let alone adding on the work of God as a daily responsibility. We must see that there is a REST in God that only those who proactively approach their walk with God may find. The REST and PEACE of God doesn't come to the passive, but to those who LABOR to ENTER IN.

The Rest of God is only available to those who enter into the Father's labor

Heb 4:11 Let us *labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

*The word "labor" here means to : be diligent 2, give diligence 1, be forward 1, labour 1, study 1; 11 1) to hasten, make haste 2) to exert one's self, endeavour, give diligence

Luke 17:20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: The blessing of God don't come by hearing, or by attending, or to the passive. The Kingdom of God is only activated in those who are about their Father's business.

The Father has requirements upon those who serve before him:

Ezek 44:9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that [is] among the children of Israel. 10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, [having] charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. 12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. 13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy [place]: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. 15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: 16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

You can see from these verses that the INNER COURT is a higher calling. The church has been 1500 years focused on itself and its needs, and the people. Many preachers say this, "Its all about the people". I beg your pardon. The church is about MINISTERING TO THE FATHER and following his leading on a daily basis. That will involve people surely, but the FOCUS of MINISTRY is not PEOPLE but the FATHER'S WILL. And in the FATHER'S WILL, there will be needs met that will never be addressed by traditional church activities.

What is your service? If you don't know, I want to invite you from the Outer Court to the Inner Court. Is there something hindering you? Then take your instruction from Ezekiel and remove the idols from your heart so you can go from being a minister in the outer court, only dealing with negatives, and with the human element, and enter in to minister unto the Lord.

Identity

Doug Fortune

“Who am I?”... the age old question asked by teen-agers and middle-agers alike (I won’t say which category I’m closer to, but you can probably guess!). There is something deep within us that needs identity, we seem to need to know who we are to function well. Those who lack a sense of identity usually are somewhat unfulfilled in life. May I propose that the Church at large is in the midst of an identity crisis?... and this identity crisis is ordained of God!

What really determines our identity? Some would say that it is determined by our family heritage (blood-line) or life experiences (environment) or a combination of these. In the natural realm, the realm of the SOUL, this is probably fairly accurate, but should these factors determine OUR destiny? Remember, identity is closely tied with destiny; it’s difficult to become that which you cannot identify with.

Let me get right to the point; the God-ordained DESTINY of the Church and us as individuals is to be a habitation for God, a place for Him to dwell and manifest Himself. With this destiny in mind, we cannot allow a natural heritage and environment to shape our identity. Our identity MUST be IN Christ! Most of us don’t have any problem with this concept when it comes to eternity, but we struggle with the idea of it being a present reality. Yes my friend, even the present reality of our identity must be IN Christ for us to fulfill our destiny. Our identity must be determined by who God says we are, and our mentality must reflect this because ‘...as he thinketh in his heart, so IS HE...”(Pr.23:7).

For some, their heritage and environment in the natural is quite awful; perhaps their whole family is ungodly and abusive and perhaps their natural environment has been hell on earth. We must understand that when we come to Christ we are now of a different heritage, we are sons of God, of the blood-line of the King of kings; we now have a different environment as we are now seated IN Christ in heavenly places... this is true whether or not our physical circumstances change. THIS is the identity that allows us to enter into our destiny as a habitation for God. This is why I say we are in the PROCESS of receiving a NEW soul, a NEW mentality, a NEW identity (it IS a process, it doesn’t happen instantaneously). Obviously God is not literally and physically doing a brain transplant, but we are receiving a new mentality that understands that our TRUE identity is IN Christ as a present reality. We begin to think His thoughts, His will becomes our will, we begin to feel His emotions... the old mentality / identity which may or may not have been scarred by heritage and environment is being replaced by His mentality / identity. You may choose to call this process I’m describing as inner healing, I won’t argue with you, call it what you like. I will say that if your FOCUS is on Christ, His thoughts, His will, His emotions, then you are on the right track... your identity is being formed in Him. To me, this seems to be more of a RECEIVING something NEW rather than healing something OLD, but this is perhaps more semantics than anything.

My concern is when our identity continues to be based upon our natural heritage and environment; this can keep us from our destiny. Remember, we bind (establish spiritual authority) on earth who we ARE and what we DECLARE in the earth. If we are one who has been wounded and scarred by heritage and environment and we journey back to re-live those wounds and express or 'give voice' to those emotions, then by that act we bind (establishing spiritual authority) who we ARE and our DECLARATION from the place of that wound, which is the realm of the SOUL. It is the ACT of re-living and expressing the emotion, giving voice or declaration from an OLD identity that concerns me. (I would not place going back and repenting of unrepented sin or generational repentance in this category at all, as I believe they are valid avenues to receiving new identity.) Conversely, if you can see the origin of your pain, see your pain being borne in Jesus Christ on the cross with you crucified IN Him, see it crucified- dead- and buried in Christ; THEN see yourself resurrected in the NEW life of Christ with a NEW identity and a declaration that IN Christ you are made whole... THAT is entirely different. Can you see the difference there?... it's a matter of identity! This is not ignoring the pain (denial accomplishes nothing), it is an active reckoning it IN Christ.

Identity is SO crucial because it largely determines whether we fulfill our destiny. This is why I say that the Church is in the midst of an identity crisis... for too long our identity has been bound in the natural realm, the old SOULISH realm of the mind, will and emotions. This identity MUST change in order for us to be the ACCURATE manifestation of Christ in the earth. My friend, God's ultimate destiny for you is not just to be healed of the wounds of the past (and present) to always be a 'recovering victim', rather it is to bring you to wholeness IN Christ that you may live as the manifestation of Christ in the earth... the permanent habitation of God.

So, who are you?... does your present mentality of your identity facilitate the manifestation of your God-ordained destiny? Let us continue to press forward in receiving our NEW identity IN Christ.

I Do Not Grow Weary

Lesley Murphy

I have been sensing the Lord speaking into my spirit today and felt he wanted me to share this with you. I submit this for your consideration, discernment and judgment....

"To those who have been seeking Me for so long and are trying to not grow weary in the seeking.... press in.

To those who have been asking Me for a move for so long and feel I have moved in a different direction.... press in.

To those who have sighed in an almost sigh of resignation, fearing that you cannot continue to wait for Me... press in.

I tell you... I DO NOT GROW WEARY and I want to take your weariness from you. I don't grow weary to keep speaking into your spirits. I don't grow weary to gather you up unto myself each day and continue to hold you close and to continue to speak words of comfort into your weary souls. Press in.

It is always seeming darkest before the dawn. It's always seems most tiring before the end of the battle. The wait is almost impossible before the answer comes. You are at the 11th hour. Do not turn back now. Do not hang your heads in resignation. Do not despair. DO NOT SHELF THAT WHICH I HAVE PUT IN YOUR HEARTS. Your desires are there by my hand. Do not take your desires from your hearts and place them out of reach "for another day" because TODAY IS THE DAY OF THE LORD. Today is the day of your rest. Today is the day to enter in. Oh hear me and respond to me. Be encouraged to walk that one more step because that one more step is what brings you even closer to me and to the things I have promised you.

Know that I am a seeing God and I have seen your weariness. I know where you are walking. I know the dryness of your trek. But in this season of dryness there comes the rain and in this season of dryness there comes the fruit. In this season of dryness there comes a multiplying of the goodness that I have promised you. Do you know that I am strengthening you in your weakness? All I have called you to do is press in. I have not called you to run wild and try to break down walls in your own strength. I have called you to press in. This pressing in is in waiting in me. This pressing in is in lying at my feet seeking my face. This pressing is in waiting, waiting, waiting. It is hard for you to wait. I know this. But this is what I have called you to do. I am reminding you AGAIN to just wait a little longer. If you would just look and see the clouds forming in the distant sky then you would know that the promises are forming, being fulfilled, coming.... press in and wait. Press in and wait.

Trust me. In your pressing in your strength, which is my strength alone, will grow and keep and sustain you. Press in. Press in."

Humbly submitted Lesley Murphy

CLINTON ADMINISTRATION / 106TH CONGRESS

PRESIDENT MAKES LATE NIGHT CALLS TO ATTEMPT WASHINGTON BARAK / ARAFAT MEETINGS - President Clinton asked Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat and Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak to meet separately with him at the White House to attempt to find grounds on which to restore calm to the violence-wracked region. Over the weekend, Barak announced that the peace process was "on hold" while Arafat publicly urged him to "go to hell," and called upon Palestinians to continue their intifada (militant uprising). Over 140 are dead in the month-long conflict. An Arab Summit ended with a broad condemnation of Israel but with a surprisingly moderate conclusion that war must be deterred. Meanwhile, Prime Minister Barak expects an immediate challenge to his government when the Knesset, the Israeli Parliament, reconvenes this Sunday. Neither Arafat nor Barak have agreed to President Clinton's proposal for Washington meetings. Continue to pray from Psalms 2 and Psalms 76:1-3, 12. To receive emergency Israel and Middle East prayer alerts, e-mail PrayMidEast@aol.com.

PENTAGON PLACES U.S. FORCES ON HIGH ALERT IN TERRORIST THREATS - The Pentagon put American installations on highest alert yesterday in the nations of Turkey, Bahrain and Qatar for fear of terrorist attacks. The Pentagon says there is specific intelligence that terrorists may be targeting those installations. CBS news said "The alert status, known as Condition Delta, is equivalent to being placed on battle footing." Pray for the men and women who serve our nation's interests on foreign soil. Pray that those who go to do evil would find their every effort thwarted.

NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY WARNING ARRIVED TOO LATE - The NSA issued a top secret report on the day that the USS Cole was bombed, warning that terrorists were planning an attack in the region, according to the "Washington Times." Independent investigators want to know what could have been done to prevent the attack.

SPENDING BILLS DELAY ADJOURNMENT AGAIN, STEM CELL RESEARCH ACT DROPPED - With no adjournment resolution in process, the U.S. Congress is under pressure to finish three spending bills by midnight tonight, or to pass day-by-day continuing resolutions to keep the government "open." Three spending bills are still in process, but only one, a mammoth $350 billion bill to fund Education and Health Services, is still hotly debated by White House and Congress. The bill still contains the CHILDREN'S INTERNET PROTECTION ACT (H.R. 4600), which would require any libraries receiving federal funding to install filtering software on computers that are accessible to children. A bill to legalize STEM CELL RESEARCH was withdrawn and will wait for the next session of Congress. A SMUT FILTERING BILL that would mandate blocking pornographic sites from access by children failed in committee after testimony that current technology does not accurately filter pornographic sites.

CAMPAIGN 2000

MANY CANDIDATES FACING DOWN-TO-THE-WIRE CONTESTS; MANIPULATION, FEAR-INDUCING DISTORTION, BIAS, FALSIFIED REPORTS AND DIABOLICAL TECHNIQUES INCREASING - Campaign 2000 is truly a picture of how our nation is divided and "hanging in the balance." Many races, including the presidential contest, are "too close to call." Political party strategies and tactics, rhetoric, media reporting and rallies are becoming distorted, angry or hateful in spirit, biased and manipulative. While heightened and carnal emotions and extremely partisan positions must be expected and are a normal occurrence in the political arena, the implementation of hateful, perverse and diabolical techniques is "unmasking" the spiritual contest and warfare going on in the unseen realms. (Ephesians 6:12)

Christians are often naive or fail to discern and realize that various very wealthy and articulate personalities in the network news media, Hollywood and entertainment industry stars, Secret Society and New Age leaders, corporate global elites, the heads of pro-abortion and militant homosexual and lesbian lobbying fronts, are really secular "false prophets." Yes, they are all men and women that Christ shed His blood to ransom and redeem, but, in the present moment, they are under a counterfeit anointing and are being used for corrupt, controlling and destructive purposes. In some instances huge sums of money, bribery, seduction and control are being exerted to influence and if possible, literally buy or otherwise procure election outcomes. The "powers" of mammon, the occult and witchcraft are operating "big-time" in Campaign 2000. These "powers" are coupled with "rulers of darkness in high places" and function in tandem with lying spirits and spirits of anti-Christ always working to resist the "anointed ones" and "the anointed way" against the Word, the Way and the redemptive direction God would intend our nation to travel.

But, the Church in the place of prayer can and must proclaim the finished work of Christ and affirm that He has stripped and vanquished all principalities, powers and rulers of darkness. (Colossians 1:12-20, 2:15) What are other biblical "kingdom" prayer positions we might take at this critical time?

THAT THE LORD ANOINT, SUSTAIN AND PROTECT HIS APPOINTED "VOICES" IN EACH CAMPAIGN, from national to state to local the men and women who are appointed to speak truth to the body politic, "the people," bringing them into understanding and reasoned perspectives from differing political working philosophies, so that the citizenry can vote according to the dictates of an objective and biblically informed conscience.

THAT THE LORD GRANT PUBLIC PLATFORMS AND OBJECTIVE MEDIA EXPOSURE TO HIS APPOINTED STATESMEN, MESSENGERS AND PUBLIC SERVANTS.

THAT THE LORD "CONFOUND AND CONFUSE" THE TONGUES OF HIS ADVERSARIES. Psalms 55:9; 64:8; and that He resist and annul the attempts to deceive and control being made through "false prophets" in the media and society.

THAT THE LORD DELIVER THE PEOPLE FROM THE POWER OF MAMMON, WITCHCRAFT, INTIMIDATION, THE FEAR OF MAN, AND DIABOLICAL MANIPULATIONS.

THAT THE LORD EXPOSE AND THWART TACTICS OF FEAR, BRIBERY AND COERCION, and that spirits of deception, lying, fear, control and the occult be bound.

THAT THE LORD GRANT AND CULTIVATE AN ATMOSPHERE OF LIBERTY in the fear of God at the voting polls and in the voting booths; that "the people" are free to vote according to the dictates of their conscience.

THAT THE LORD NOT ALLOW OUR SITTING PRESIDENT TO VIOLATE THE WORD OF GOD CONCERNING JERUSALEM AND THE JEWISH PEOPLE. (Zechariah 12, Jeremiah 33)

THAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL COVENANTAL UNITY OF OUR NATION BE PRESERVED.

IFA CALLING FOR A NOVEMBER 5 - 7 "ESTHER" VIGIL WITH CONCERTED PRAYER THROUGH ELECTION DAY - It is becoming increasingly evident that concerned Christians will need to remain engaged in watchful, concerted supplication and intercession through the close of the campaigns and the whole of Election Day, Tuesday, November 7th - time zone by time zone across America. IFA would appeal to pastors to consider opening their church facilities for a 24-hour or at least dawn-to-dusk prayer and fasting vigil on Tuesday, Nov. 7th. While it is excellent that Sunday, November 5th is now set to be observed as a nationwide "Pray...For Election Day," we cannot afford to let down our prayer guard when Sunday ends. Those Christian households who are functioning as "Lighthouses" in their neighborhoods are asked to gather and pray for "their neighbors" before and on Election Day. Prayer partners and individual intercessors are exhorted to "stand in the gap," and to fast and pray as the Lord directs. The potential destruction and severity of the hour that is facing "the people" of America can be likened to that facing the Jewish people. Since Esther is a type or picture of the Church, the Bride of Christ, His intended Queen, then like Esther and Mordecai, let us humble ourselves and yield to be servants to "the people." Like Esther, let us make careful personal preparation and then go in before the King. (Esther 4:1-5:3) Through the blood of Christ we have privilege, audience and invitation. Like Esther, let us be humble but bold, for these words of the King are written: "Ask what you will, up to half the kingdom."

LIEBERMAN EXCOMMUNICATED FOR STANCES ON ABORTION, HOMOSEXUALITY - A rabbinical court in Brooklyn, New York, has excommunicated vice presidential candidate Joseph Lieberman, according to CNSNEWS.com. "While claiming to be an observant Jew, Lieberman has been misrepresenting and falsifying to the American people the teachings of the Torah against partial birth infanticide, against special privileges and preferential treatment for flaunting homosexuals, and against religious intermarriage of Jews," the court stated. The court says it represents the Jews of Brooklyn and perhaps as many as 150,000 Orthodox Jews.

ACROSS THE NATION

NATIONAL PRAYER COMMITTEE CONCERT OF PRAYER RADIO CAMPAIGN - Intercessors are asked to pray for the success of a campaign that would make -minute prayer spots available to all Christians by year's end.

WHITE RIBBON AGAINST PORNOGRAPHY CAMPAIGN OCTOBER 29 - NOVEMBER 5 - Americans are urged to wear a small white ribbon on Sunday, October 29th in support of decency in America. During WRAP 2000 (White Ribbon Against Pornography 2000), Americans are urged to write letters to the presidential candidates (form letters can be found at the WRAP Web site), congressional leaders and to their state Attorney General to ask them their stance on anti-pornography initiatives in their areas. To get more information, see Web site www.Moralityinmedia.org and click on the white ribbon.

LIGHT THE NIGHT OCTOBER 31 - In addition to alternative "harvest" parties sponsored by local churches, many Christian families are now "lighting" their yards and homes in special ways and using the annual Halloween night of neighborhood "trick-or-treating" as a time to welcome neighborhood children and parents, to pass out tracts, and to offer to pray for their felt needs. "Light the Night" is sponsored by March for Jesus. See Web www.mfj.org for more information and tips.

IVORY COAST ELECTIONS END IN UPRISING - GUEI FLEES - Two days after General Robert Guei disbanded the National Election Commission and declared himself the winner, Opposition leader Laurent Gbagbo has taken power and Guei has fled to Benin. Tens of thousands are demonstrating in the streets. Pray for violence to subside and for peace to be restored.

INDONESIAN CHRISTIANS FACING DEATH - Church leaders in Ambon, Indonesia, believe that 100,000 Christian refugees are about to be besieged by Islamic jihad fighters, according to "Religion Today." The refugees are crammed into 10% of the island. Catholic Bishop Joseph Tethool said "If there are no ships waiting to evacuate them, they will be forced to choose between Islam or death."

SUPPORT FOR PERSECUTED EAST INDIAN CHRISTIANS SOUGHT - The American Christian Coalition is holding a National Conference on October 28 in Washington, DC, to form a national coalition of East Indian churches to counter the persecution of the Christian minority in India. SUSPECT ARRESTED IN NATIONAL ZOO SHOOTING SPREE; POLICE URGE GANGS AND YOUTHS TO REMAIN CALM -

Two days after a shooting spree left seven youth injured at the entrance to Washington National Zoo, Police are holding a 16-year-old suspect who they say was the lone gunman. Monday night's violence caused police "gang workers" to spread out over the city, urging gang leaders to remain calm and not to retaliate. Pray for the city of Washington and for all the youth who live there. Pray for the breaking up and subduing of gangs and the establishment of order and self-control in the lives of citizens, in their homes and in public places.

LAFAYETTE PARK MAY 4th USE GRANTED TO HOMOSEXUALS RATHER THAN NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER -

Each year since President Reagan signed the National Day of Prayer (NDP) into law a decade ago, Lafayette Park, across the street from the White House, has been the gathering place of prayer for the President by prayer leaders, pastors and hundreds of Christians on the Wednesday afternoon or evening before the Thursday, National Day of Prayer. This year, NDP coordinator Darleen Paglialonga reports that when NDP organizers tried to reserve the park a year ago they were told that it could only be reserved six months in advance. Six months later, when they again contacted the National Park Service, they were told that it had been reserved a year earlier by homosexual activists who will be conducting a rally and Millennial March. A NDP pastor's luncheon and prayer time have been substituted.

PRESIDENT CLINTON PUSHES HATE CRIMES LEGISLATION AS GAYS ARRIVE -

President Clinton made a strong push for Hate Crimes Legislation just days before over 200,000 gay demonstrators are expected to descend on Washington for an annual gay rights parade. The President would add offenses motivated by sexual orientation, gender or disability to the list of hate crimes already covered under federal law. He also would give federal prosecutors the option of pursuing a hate-crime case if local authorities failed to press charges. The Republican National Committee called the current push a political ploy.

SENATE MAJORITY LEADER CALLS FOR HEARINGS IN ELIAN CASE -

After Attorney General Janet Reno failed to satisfy a meeting with Senate Democrats and Republicans that the Justice Department's use of force in the Elian Gonzalez case was warranted and appropriate, Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott announced hearings would be held next week. Senator Connie Mack (R-FL) said "I am deeply troubled and horrified in fact that our government would use armed force in a family home to remove a six year old child at gunpoint. Are we going to allow our government to use the kind of force that was used in order to settle a legal dispute at a point of a gun and not raise a question about it? â€œâ€œ it is an overreaching of the power of government."

PRAYER AND FASTING CONTINUES TODAY AS COURT HEARS BOY SCOUT HOMOSEXUAL CASE -

The U.S. Supreme Court is hearing oral arguments today in the New Jersey Boy Scouts vs. Dale case. The justices will decide whether the Boy Scouts of America, traditionally held to be a "private" organization since it is privately funded and meets in homes as small groups, must permit homosexuals to serve as Scoutmasters. Bible believing Christians across the nation have been encouraged to engage in prayer and fasting during this time. Justices normally meet, vote on decisions, and assign the writing of majority and minority opinions on the Friday following the presentation of oral arguments.

SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE PARTIAL BIRTH ABORTION CASE THIS WEEK -

The Supreme Court heard oral arguments yesterday in Stenberg Vs. Carhart, a challenge to the state of Nebraska's right to ban partial birth abortion. Some news sources report a divided Court, as Justice Antonin Scalia referred to the "horror of the procedure" while Justice Sandra Day O'Connor wondered "is there no exception for the health of the woman?" Concentrated prayer is called for as the Justices reach their decision this week.

EASTER SUNDAY "OSL" PRISON OUTREACH ANOINTED AND FRUITFUL -

A special "Thank You!" to all of you who offered prayer for the Easter Sunday Operation Starting Line (OSL) prison outreach in Delaware. The Sunday afternoon OSL "kickoff" event saw a larger turnout of inmates than initially expected. Maximum, moderate and minimum security residents were released to attend. Hundreds of prisoners received Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior in response to presentations by Chuck Colson and Franklin Graham. Hundreds more - "the Church inside" - also separated from their fellow prisoners to openly show their faith and allegiance to Christ. They also pledged to demonstrate the love of Jesus to their unsaved prison "neighbors" and to work to win them to Christ. A "holy hush" and anointing fell over the entire gathering as the believing prisoners knelt for blessing and "commissioning" by those of us from OSL who were in the "yard" with them. The presence of God was profoundly evident. Permission was also granted to OSL teams to evangelize the Delaware Juvenile Correction facilities on Monday. OSL teams presented the gospel in 13 Delaware facilities throughout the week leading up to Easter Sunday. Pray for the follow-up Bible studies, prayer groups, grounding in the faith, discipleship and mentoring that will now occur. You are also invited to join the OSL Prayer Team to receive periodic prayer alerts on the upcoming OSL outreaches as they occur in each state over the next five years. The next OSL campaign will occur in Michigan June 9-18. You can enroll by writing e-mail at PrayOSL@aol.com or via the new OSL Web site www.operationstartingline.net

Inter-Faith Meeting

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

I'm holding back sending the weekly letter, at this time, until the visit of the Pope is complete. I hope all of you are following the events closely, as there are some very significant things happening. We have written in the past about the three monotheistic religions reconciling, at least at some level.

I want to pass on to you this observation of a protestant leader living in the land, who had been invited to the interfaith reconciliation meeting.

Shabbat Shalom

POPE & CHIEF RABBI MAKE PEACE; MOSLEM CLERIC SPEAKS WAR

Since I heard the news that Pope John Paul II was coming to Israel, I looked forward to the Interfaith event where he would address the religious leaders residing in Israel. After all of the good things he has said about Israel, the Jewish people, Judaism and reconciliation, I wanted to hear what he would say in Israel.

Getting Jews, Christians and Moslems in one auditorium, sitting beside one another in the volatile Middle East, was no easy feat. Yet, the Pope managed to do it.

I received my invitation and went to the event last night as one of a select group of religious leaders in Israel to witness this event.

When the Pope arrived, he was escorted by Israel's Chief Rabbi Yisrael Meir Lau and Moslem cleric Sheik Taisir Tamimi, who heads the religious courts system in the Palestinian Authority. Once seated, I realized that I was witnessing a truly historic event that I would remember for a long time.

A well-orchestrated interfaith program was presented with youth choirs from the Jewish, Christian and Moslem community singing selections. Rabbi Lau spoke first and made some very gracious statements and seemed genuinely happy to see the Pope again.

Then, the Moslem cleric spoke, but instead of speaking of peace, brotherhood, and love of one's fellow man, he delivered a fiery political speech in which he leveled accusations at Israel, which he referred to as "The occupier," calling for an end of Israel's strangulation and abuse of Jerusalem residents. Tamimi cited examples of home demolitions in the capital and made reference of the 1994 shooting attack in the Cave of the Patriarchs by Dr. Baruch Goldstein in which 29 Moslem worshipers were killed. Tamimi called for the establishment of the State of Palestine with Yassir Arafat as its president to help wipe away the injustices. He was effectively calling upon the Christian community to join the Muslims in a Holy War to oust the Jews from "occupied Palestine."

The audience was struck by shocked silence, which was only broken by the Jewish co-emcee, who simply got up and said that the statements were not in the spirit of the evening.

Then, the Pope got up to speak and he made a brilliant address that was broken several times by applause of approval. He was warm and genuine and really put out the palm branch of reconciliation. At one point in his speech, he brought up the golden rule. "Each of our religions knows, in some form or another the Golden Rule: 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.' Precious as this rule is as a guide, true love of neighbor goes much further. It is based on the conviction that when we love our neighbor we are showing love for God, and when we hurt our neighbor we offend God. This means that religion is the enemy of exclusion and discrimination, of hatred and rivalry, of violence and conflict. Religion is not, and must not become, an excuse for violence, particularly when the religious identity coincides with the cultural and ethnic identity. Religion and peace go together!"

The Pope's speech was followed by what was supposed to be the three religious leaders planting a olive tree of peace together. However, just before this, Sheik Tamimi, the Moslem cleric, walked out, leaving only Rabbi Lau and Pope John Paul II on the stage. In any case, Rabbi Lau and Pope John Paul II did plant the tree to warm affirmations from the audience, including the Moslem participants who were seemingly embarrassed by the fact that Sheik Tamimi walked out.

In the end, it was seen that Rabbi Lau and Pope John Paul II were the heroes of interfaith reconciliation and peace, and Sheik Tamimi was only there to speak of war.

As I left the hall and walked to my office, I was glad that I went. Even though the Pope does not represent the Protestant community, he is a Christian who has gone out of his way to make some very strong and direct statements on behalf of Jewish-Christian relations, forgiveness for the sins of the Church, affirming the right of the Jewish people to their ancient homeland, and recognizing that Christianity and Judaism have much to share with one another. Even though I am a Protestant, I was proud to be a Christian and hear the affirmations of the Pope, who spoke as a leading representative of the Christian world. I wish that the leaders of most Protestant denominations would make the same declarations. (Clarence Wagner, International Director, Bridges for Peace, March 24, 2000)

End Time Prophetic Vision

In The Fullness of Time Part II

Nita (LaFond) Johnson

Full Redemption

There is coming to the remnant of the people of Yahveh, a full redemption in this life. Shaul (Paul) said in I Corinthians 15:22 & 23 the following:

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

The word translated "coming" is the Greek word Parousia and means "His coming Presence" It doesn't seem to speak of His coming to take anything or anyone away, but coming to be present. When His Parousia comes, there shall be a full redemption for the waiting remnant.

What does this mean? Yeshua has appeared to me and spoken with me about this many times. As He shares He not only allows me to hear what He is saying, but allows me the privilege of experiencing what He is attempting to teach me. During one of those experiences, Yeshua let me see and comprehend certain parts of His nature and character, after which He put His arm around me at the waist. When He did, it seemed as though the very essence of who I was went down - down and out my feet. It was like someone pulled the cork out of the bottom of a bottle and the liquid, which had been held by the cork, began to empty out the bottom until the bottle was entirely empty. That is what happened to me. It seemed my very person-hood was being emptied out of me. I felt no love, joy, anger, or sorrow. I was emptied of myself. When the emptying was completed everything that was going on inside the Lord began to fill me, thus, I too experienced all that He was experiencing. His nature and character filled every part of my being. I was not experiencing human love, but divine, nor was I experiencing human happiness or joy, but divine. This joy was like an artesian spring bubbling up continually. The love, was not a mushy type of love, but solid and strong like a rock. I was filled with His gentleness, His goodness, His kindness. The nature and character of Yeshua was filling my mind, my heart, and my soul. He was living His life through me. It was so wonderful! I had never experienced anything like this before. My sin nature was gone, and in its place was His divine nature. This is the state of full redemption. It is Messiah in us, the hope of glory. It is being reconciled to live in the prefall condition of soul and fellowship with Yahveh. Yeshua then asked me if I would like to live in that place with Him. He called it "union." That is where I have been heading ever since, as are others who are looking for His parousia. (His appearing)

The soul that lives in the state of full redemption, or in full sonship, or full union, are Yahveh's mature sons. They are those who are made in His image. To see them is to see a reflection of Yeshua Himself. They are meek, as He is meek, humble, as He is humble. Yeshua said, "To see Me is to see the Father. I always do the will of the Father."

Those who are in full union will be said to reflect the Father's image in such a way as to represent His very person on earth. To see one of them will be to see the nature and character of the Son of God. Further, they will always do what He tells them to do. They will walk in a perfected obedience to the will of the Father. Their love and devotion to the Father will be equal to the Son's love and devotion when He was here on this earth.

Melchizedek

They will come forth from their hiding place bearing the garment of Melchizedek, which in appearance is like unto the garment of the High Priest. In late spring of 1999, I was taken to heaven to be instructed about this magnificent garment. It is extraordinary in its beauty and unmatched in the authority that is given to the believer who bears it. But, only those who have been completed in Messiah will bear the full revelation and authority of this most privileged garment.

I want to briefly describe the garment and its meaning. First, they will bear the robe of blue. This robe is royal blue in color. The color represents the ministry of the prophet.

Second, is the ephod, which was multicolored. The colors were gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and white or fine twined linen. The gold represents the apostolic ministry, the purple - the kingship mantle, the scarlet – the office of the priest, the blue, the prophet and the white symbolizes the ministry of the Spirit which officiates the offices found therein. The ephod bears the breastplate of judgement. Upon this breastplate are the twelve precious stones representing the 12 tribes of Israel. In addition, the ephod carries the two onyx stones, which are born in pouches of spun gold. In the New Covenant it speaks of the Church, which was purchased by way of the cross and therefore covered with His golden splendor. And finally, the Urim and Thummim are carried on the breastplate. The Urim and Thummim represent the voice of Yahveh, which will be released through these very select prophets in these last days.

Those who bear this mantle will operate in revelational gifting knowing the times, seasons, and purposes of Yahveh concerning people, nations, and the Church, such as Messiah Himself bore.

If you would chance to sit under their ministry, you would hear them give people’s names, dates of birth, names of loved ones, and other such pertinent information. In ministering to heads of state, they would be privileged to information that would stagger the mind of their hearer. Yahveh would be willing to give these servants the plans needed to stabilize war torn nations or nations whose economy had been broken to relate to the leaders of these countries. If the counsel were heeded, then Yahveh would effect His purpose and bring the nation into healing. They will be allowed to see the future with crystal clear clarity. They will not be like today’s prophets who prophesy in part, seeing through a glass darkly. Like Samuel, Yahveh will not let any of their words fall to the ground.

The last piece of the garment is the turban, which reads “Holiness unto the Lord.” They will bear this for they will be totally separated unto Yahveh. They will have no part in the world, and the world will have no part in them. Their mind will be Yeshua’s mind; His heart their heart. He will be living His life out through them. As Shaul (Paul) said, “It is no longer I that liveth, but Messiah that liveth in me. Further, by Yeshua and His cross, I have been crucified to the world and the world to me.” These individuals will be fully owned by the Lord, hence “Holiness unto the Lord.”

These anointed vessels will be unlike anything we have ever seen before. They will bear the meekness and humility of Yeshua Himself. For this reason they will be spoken of as the “crucified ones.” Upon their emergence, they will have passed through a fiery furnace that is ordained for none but these sacred vessels. The fires will be so intense that it will take an extraordinary grace to endure this fiery affliction for which they have been prepared all their lives. Through this most sacred trial they will be expunged of the sinful nature and will be purified of all self-interests arising from the self-life. When they arise from this furnace of affliction, they will bear the nature and character of Messiah in love and gentleness. Yeshua said, “The evil one comes and he has no part in Me.” The same will be true of these holy men and women. They will be a gift of divine love from the Father to His Church.

Many of these men and women will operate in all four ministry offices, the apostle, the prophet, the kingship and the priestly anointing. Some will flow in two or three. But whatever the case, it will be for the building up of the Church in love.

As to the apostle, he will operate in the powers of the ages to come, with such authority and might as will beggar description. He will speak creative words, rule the elements of nature as Moses did, plant Churches and will be used by Yahveh to restructure the Church, putting ministries that are out of order in their proper place. This will make the body strong for the times ahead. Further, they like the prophets will be taken behind the veil to see and hear the plans and purposes of Yeshua for the world, His Church and Israel.

The prophets will be people of great valor such as we see in Elijah and John the Baptist. They, like the apostle will bear the Kingdom government and will facilitate the release of the era of manchild, wherein the body will flow in the power and authority of the Head as it was meant to be. Again, they too shall operate in revelational gifting, creative words and the powers of the ages to come, for the building up of the body in love.

The Kingship anointing will be granted to rule over the higher principalities and powers and the affairs of Yahveh in the earth. They shall rule the kingdoms of the world with the rod of iron according to the design and will of Him who has called and anointed them. Their word will stand as though the King Himself had spoken.

The priestly anointing will be given in this higher level for the purpose of intercession and reconciliation of the nations, that whoever will may come.

Through these lofty vessels the true Gospel will be sent forth free from error and corruption. Hence, will follow the healing of the nations by divine love and incorruptible fire through which all will pass in this final hour.

The Ark of His Presence

Once fully adorned the High Priest would enter into the Holy of Holies to minister before the Lord who dwelled over the Ark of the Covenant. This is also a picture of things to come. The Lord is in the last days going to open the testimony of Yeshua Messiah hidden in the Ark. The words best depicting this graphic and powerful release is “The revealing of the Fatherhood of Yahveh, through His Son Yeshua Messiah.” This He will do by revealing His Son as the chosen Messiah, redeemer of the Church and Israel, and judge of the whole earth. There is such high and holy revelation of Messiah that has been sealed away, held in reserve for the last days Church, and it will be released in this hour. To experience these holy revelations is to experience ever increasing fullness of the covenant. The Church will be amazed at the minute and foundational elements of the covenant that we now walk in, as we begin to enter into what is about to be revealed, and manifested on the earth.

The Ark of the Covenant not only represents the revelation of Messiah, but it also represents the power of God amidst His people. The Church, Israel, and the world have yet to see the manifested power of God as it can be. Though we know in our understanding that He created all things, and that He holds the worlds together by the power of His Word, still, seeing His creative power is something entirely different. It can be truly astounding. We will see the creative power of God in an unprecedented way through His people. The halting and the lame, the withered and the maimed will be healed. Further, we will see miracles with the elements of nature and inanimate objects. Signs and wonders that will stagger the mind will occur every day. The sick will be healed and the dead will be raised all to the glory of the Son. Those who have been prepared will be given the power of the creative word.

This brings me to the next point. We will behold His glory and the glory of His kingdom. The glory of the transfiguration of our Lord will be made manifest in these last days to those for whom it has been prepared. As Moses beheld the Father’s glory so will many in His Church. Many aspects of the kingdom of Heaven that were once hidden will be revealed in these last days. All this together will take the Church a quantum leap higher into the life of the Spirit and the manifested glory.

THE VIRGIN CHURCH

The restoration of the Ark of Covenant will signal the unveiling of the virgin Church. These will be the hundred and forty four thousand depicted in the book of Revelation.

And I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of the sounds of many waters and the voice of the sounds of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of Harpers harping with their harps. And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts and the elders: and no man could learn that song but hundred and forty four thousand, which were redeemed from earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. Revelation 14:1-5

One hundred and forty four thousand is simply the number of the Bride. Those who are part of this bridal company will be pure as a virgin bride. She will have passed through the purifying fires of the Spirit of the Holy One (Ruach HaKodesh) and will arise as a chaste bride filled with divine love and humility. The sin nature will be dead so she will be found without guile. Her heart so pure, will resemble the fire through which she has passed. Upon her head will be her Father’s name, that none will know save He Himself. She will rule and reign with Yeshua while here on this earth. Therefore the Scripture in Ephesians 2:4-7 will through this devout bride be fulfilled. To her will be given the secret of the ages, and the treasures of the Kingdom to come, a gift held in reserve for edification of the Church in these last days. She will bear the glory of her divine Spouse as none other this side of heaven. Where she, is the Ark of the Testimony will be seen manifesting itself in full power and glory as allowable this side of heaven. Through her the everlasting Gospel will be spread throughout the whole earth. She will be comprised of Jew and Gentile alike. Through her we will see the glorious effulgence of the one new man.

She will be known as the mother of the true Church, the earthly image of the New Jerusalem, which is in Heaven.

This new creation will be full of the wisdom of Yahveh, the seven spirits of Elohim (God) being given to her for the enrichment of the Kingdom.

In a most wonderful visitation of Yeshua, I was allowed to experience life deplete of the sin nature and filled with the seven Spirits of Elohim. I walked in a totally different sphere of existence. I no longer thought about Yeshua. Yeshua filled every part of my being and thought through my mind. I walked in His wisdom, His knowledge, His fear of the Lord. I lived in His power and might, and His Spirit filled my very soul. His humility and meekness filled my heart and mind. I knew that anything I would say and believe would happen. For instance, if I said to that mountain, “Be thou removed and be cast into the sea,” I knew it would occur just as I said. Therefore I was careful to say and do only what I saw Him say and do.

I have been given the gift of the seven spirits of Elohim already. However, I have not yet been submerged into the total life of the Spirit of Elohim such as Yeshua walked in. In this total submergence is the full release of the seven spirits of Elohim. This will constitute the power and life of this new virgin Church. All the old nature will have experientially passed away. The new life of Yeshua will reign supreme in this full expression of Yahveh to the dark world.

NEW EXPRESSIONS OF THE OLD

We will see the old mantels come to know life in this New Jerusalem. The Mantels of Moses, David, Joseph, Elijah, Esther, Boaz (the Kinsmen Redeemer) Stephen, Paul, etc. will return with an elevated power and authority. In fact, about every Old and New Covenant mantel will be restored to the Church in this last and epoch days move. This will make this one new man, consisting of Jew and Gentile a heavenly marvel upon the earth. The Fatherhood of Elohim will be made manifest as never before through this powerful tabernacle of glory.

The mantel of King David will usher forth the mighty men of David full of power and glory to purify the Church. Then will come the worship, unity, wealth, and glorious miracles ordained to flow from this magnanimous presence of Yahveh in the midst of His people. By this awesome display of Yahveh the eyes of His people Israel will be opened. Like Jonah coming forth out of the belly of the fish, the Jew will come forth out of the nations ready to speak the oracles of Elohim to a lost and dying world. They will bring up the rear in glory and great splendor, like stars born in due season carrying the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

End Time Prophetic Vision

If We Don't Lose Heart

Francis Frangipane

River of Life Weekly Summary November 10, 2000 Pastor Francis Frangipane
<http://www.inchristsimage.org/>

IF WE DON'T LOSE HEART

Worn Out Saints

"And he will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time" (Dan 7:25). (NAS)

The prophet Daniel warns of a time when Satan, through the antichrist, will wear down the strength of God's saints. This end time battle reveals a pattern that is actually occurring today: Satan seeks to wear us out through delays ("alterations in times") and in compromise to God's word ("alterations . . . in law").

The final effect of what seems like never ending delays is that the believers are worn out. Do you know anyone who is weary with their battle? Are you yourself weary? I know many who seem trapped in situations which should have been remedied months and even years ago. Yet, the battle continues against them. Situations and people, often empowered by demonic resistance, stand in opposition to the forward progress of God's people. As a result, many Christians imperceptibly make incremental adjustments to this resistance until a quiet oppression weighs heavily upon their souls.

This battle to wear out the saints may be rooted in conflicts with children or spouses; perhaps it is a health issue or some unresolved division within their church, yet on and on it goes. Like a skilled and masterful thief, the enemy daily erodes the joy, the strength and passion of many Christians.

Yet the scale is larger than our personal struggles. Consider the conflict in Israel or the elections in the USA. How long will these things drag on? Satan's plan is to drag them on until Christians grow weary and stop praying. Satan is the dragon whose goal is to "drag-on" the battle with draining, wearying delays. He persists until we wear out, give up and quit praying. Without our intercession, he then releases hellish consequences into their unhindered course.

Additionally, as situations stretch beyond reasonably expected conclusions, weariness of soul can also exacerbate the original situation, leading to fleshly reactions or just over-reactions, which also further resolution. We lose patience, eventually seeking relief rather than victory, thus compromising the standards of God and conscience.

PERSEVERANCE

There is a reason the Book of Revelations mentions the word "perseverance" seven times. Over and again we see those who persevered, overcame. It is one thing to have vision, another to have godly motives, but neither will carry us to our objective: we must also be prepared to persevere.

The root of the word "persevere" is the word "severe." We must face the fact that, en route to our victory, things may get severe. It is with severe faith, severe or extreme steadfastness, that we inherit the promises of God (Heb 10).

James tell us, "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have {its} perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (Ja 1:2-4).

Endurance. Perseverance. Steadfastness. These are the qualities that breed character, that transform the doctrine of Christlikeness into a way of life. "Let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect . . ." The key to perfection, to a life "lacking in nothing," is perseverance.

WEARINESS OF THE MIND

"But I'm weary," you argue. Yes. Part of the weariness is from faulty thinking in our thought life. If we knew the battle was going to take as long as it has, we would have prepared for more realistically. Every building plan will probably take twice as long as we assumed; every virtue, will take a year not a month to be worked in us. It may take twenty years for our loved ones to be saved. If things happen sooner, we can rejoice, but we have only prepared ourselves for the easiest of breakthroughs, not the ones that cost us time and tears. Satan manipulates our unrealistic expectations, which he then uses to wear us out.

When I travel, I pray and trust God for divine help and often I am rewarded with perfect flights with no delays. Yet, I have also learned to accept that I will occasionally arrive later than I expected. I am not shocked when there are flight cancellations and delays; I anticipate them. While others are anxious, I'm more calm, trusting God. My peace enhances my witness of Christ when I speak to people who, standing near me, are anxiously waiting.

Some may argue, "Isn't that unbelief to expect delays on flights?" I don't think so. I think it's wisdom. Wisdom is not the enemy of faith. I have found that if I don't trust God and relax, I become anxious, fretful and distracted. Worse, I have found that the Holy Spirit will not descend and rest in power upon a man controlled by circumstances.

Jesus' spirit stayed in abiding peace, yet still He accommodated delays as part of life's package. He was often delayed by the huge crowds or urgent needs of the people around Him. People died waiting for Jesus to show up. Did He become anxious? No, He stayed focused on the Father and, without losing His trust in God, simply raised the dead, even when He arrived late.

At some point we must accept that God knows when we are being delayed and that He has a miracle conclusion waiting, in spite of the extra time we've spent getting to our destinations. One dear pastor I know had labored long and hard with a new building project, but it was constantly being delayed. It was scheduled for completion in September, then rescheduled for December, then January, and then February. Finally, with weariness in his voice, he called and asked if I could join him for their dedication. It was set for the first week of March.

"When exactly do you need me?" I asked. He answered, "March fourth." Suddenly, the Holy Spirit illuminated my heart. God had chosen this date prophetically, I told him. The Lord wanted that church, as an army, to "march forth" into their destiny. In a flash, the weariness weighing upon him was gone and joy and a sense of destiny swept his soul. The delay wore him out, but the delay had a purpose.

Dear ones, let us persevere. We just don't know what the victory will look like when we finally break through. Consider Joseph. Betrayed, enslaved, slandered and forgotten, he had to endure to reach his destiny. But when the time finally arrived, never in his most wild dreams did he imagine the outcome would be so great or wonderful.

What we become to God is more important than what we do for Him. Our struggling, praying though we have been delayed time and again, deepens our character. Maintaining our standards when pressed, finding grace when stretched, makes us true men and women of God. The Almighty One is in control. He knows how to take what was meant for evil and transform it into something good, even using the devil's own devices to bring him down. God has something wonderful in store for us otherwise the enemy would not be fighting so intensely. Indeed, scriptures tell us that Satan rages worst when he knows his time is short (Rev 12:12).

CHARACTER BEFORE BREAKTHROUGH

Returning to Daniel, God gave him another vision of the end of the age. Here's what he wrote, "I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them . . ." (Dan 7:21). This is the battle: we feel war storming against our souls and we feel overpowered. But the prophet said the overpowering continued only, ". . . until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom (Dan 7:22).

There is a principle here that, understanding it, will lead to victory in your battle. There will be a time, inevitably, when we feel overpowered. Yet, if we endure, if we climb higher into God, if we refuse to lose our trust in God, a time will come when the "Ancient of Days" enters our circumstances. Looking at our newly developed character, He will pass judgment in favor of our cause. God looks at our character, forged in the fire of overpowering delays and battle, and says, "Good, this is what I was waiting for."

So, whether you are praying for this country or standing for your children; whether your cry is for the lost or for simply the end of some local or national conflict, remember the words of Paul: "Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we shall reap if we do not grow weary" (Gal 6:9).

If You're Discouraged

Nola Smith

IF YOU'RE DISCOURAGED--GET BACK INTO THE FIGHT!

God has said much to us about prophetic and servant evangelism in the last five years. He has also raised up intercession in the Church as never before, resulting in more instances of His visitations to people groups and areas we call contemporary "hot spots". Whenever this happens, the people of God are unsatisfied with the results, always wanting more, much like the rich man who can't get enough money.

Unlike greed, this is a GOOD discontent because it keeps us praying and sharpens our desire to be effective vessels of God in and to a fallen world. If we don't give up on all fronts, we WILL see the promise of continued outpouring in the world such as it has never been seen.

THE OTHER SIDE OF "GODLY DISCONTENT"

If spiritual discontent or greed for more of God motivates us to continue to pursue God and the lost, then the enemy must look for another way to wear down the saints. One way He does this is to use the same motivator to discourage us: the godly discontent. How he does this is by introducing weariness and discouragement, sometimes through a focus on the souls that do NOT respond to the gospel, to those who do and then fall away. He "amazes" us with those who don't respond to the prophetic voice, to signs and wonders and miracles, or to the goodness and kindness of Christians. He, being the accuser of the brethren, will minister false accusation.

THE ACCUSER'S "ENCOURAGEMENT" TO US

He, [the accuser] will direct the accusations against our heart's motives, our sins and weaknesses, and the times that we did not obey or fully obey God. He will say, "this is why your sister, mother, son, neighbor, coworker have not come to God - you have not been bold (kind, obedient, prayerful) enough, and you never will be....why don't you just settle back into complacency again, relax, go back to the way you lived as a believer before you took up the challenge, it's just too hard and nobody listens anyway. Just sit back, pray some, read the Word some, go to church, love your family, teach your children and wait for Jesus to come...you know, like you used to!!"

Truly, that would be less challenging, less confrontational, incur less personal suffering and require only minimal obedience and attention to the Spirit's voice. Additionally, it's just not fair to invest like this (in the spiritual) and seem to get so little back (in the natural)!

If you haven't heard this little nagging voice, you are either in a place of overcoming victory (write me and share the joy) or you aren't putting much of a dent in the kingdom of darkness. If, like me, you're somewhere in between, you've probably been tempted to listen to these thoughts in the last several weeks and you've thought about "slacking off".

FEEL LIKE YOU'RE THE ONLY UNRIGHTEOUS ONE?

Before you feel like you're the only righteous man or woman left and nobody listens to you anyway, I'd like to challenge you to - think of God.

I'll bet you think that if you could only more clearly demonstrate God's love and power, people would SURELY be drawn to Him, and then wouldn't they just NATURALLY want to get to know Him better, and then most CERTAINLY wouldn't they trust Him?? Isn't that how it happened with you? So it must be that you just aren't doing something right, because people are rejecting you and rejecting the Word of truth, right?

Maybe, but not likely. Before you give up and believe that handling all this rejection is just too much for you, I'd like to invite you to - think of God.

THERE IS ONLY ONE RIGHTEOUS

Contrary to our high opinion of ourselves sometimes, our God is the only RIGHTEOUS ONE. He is the perfect teacher, the perfect parent, the perfect counselor, the perfect judge. He is the perfect giver, the PERFECT evangelist, the perfect pastor, the perfect healer, the perfect administrator. He is no respecter of persons, sends rain on the just and the unjust, is merciful to the unmerciful, protects those undeserving of protection, extends the lives of those who deserve to die. He is His own evidence.

This great and PERFECT God also experiences rejection each and every day by those He lives for, and those His Son died for. Daily He is slandered, lied about, persecuted, blasphemed, ridiculed, belittled and betrayed. This has been going on since before He created man: Even before Adam, there was one who was close to Him, who beheld His beauty continually, communed with Him, was intimately loved and cared for by Him, promoted and blessed beyond measure by Him - spoke to Him face to face and was part of the 'inner circle' of heaven with God. Yet this one betrayed Him and took 1/3 of the heavenly creatures away from God to follow himself. I imagine it all started with a seed of distrust and a sprinkle of evil suspicion.

SATAN BEGAN TO BELIEVE A LIE ABOUT GOD--THE SAME LIE HE TEMPS YOU WITH

Satan began to believe a lie about God - about God's motives, about His character, about His love, and about His plans. Even with ALL the evidence in front of him to the contrary, even with all of His personal experience WITH God that denied any resemblance to this lie, he began to believe it. Believing one lie always leads to believing another: Soon he began to believe that God didn't want the best for His creatures and that someone could lead them better.

Not long after, he began to believe that "someone" was himself. He created a following and challenged the Creator of the Universe - reduced to the actions of the fool that he became, and suffering the punishment of the same. Jesus experienced the same thing - Judas was exposed to Jesus for three years, daily. Jesus did not do a single unselfish thing toward Judas, and was as much His friend and companion to Judas as to every other disciple. Judas saw all the same miracles, heard all the same teachings, observed all the same wonders and bathed in the same manifest Presence of God. Yet he began to entertain suspicion and distrust, and to believe lies about the Christ that included him in His "inner counsel"! Eventually Jesus experienced the greatest betrayal of all by this one that should have known Him, but chose NOT to know Him truly!

MAKE ME LIKE YOU, LORD

If you have prayed, "Oh Lord, make me more like Thee", and have, for that prayer, experienced greater submission to the voice of the Holy Spirit, greater victory, answered prayer, deeper intimacy and revelation and the deep, abiding peace that only comes from righteousness found in Him, you have experienced the "first half" of your journey in obedience. It's likely that you have also experienced at least SOME of the second part of the journey - the rejection and the suffering. Jesus said we would, and then He gave us the cure for the feelings and temptations that would follow suffering - He gave us the command to REJOICE AND BE GLAD!!

APPLYING PRESSURE AGAINST THE ENEMY'S KINGDOM

Saints, it is time to increase praise and apply more, not less, pressure against the enemy's kingdom. Praise and thanksgiving truly ARE the wings that bear the Christian back up to the seats in heavenly places with Christ! There is a new anointing for praise and thanksgiving, and an invitation by the Holy Spirit to go deeper and higher with your personal and corporate praise!

It is time to accept misunderstanding and rejection as the common experience of the believer, for it is the common experience of God Himself, and of His Son. God does not feel insecure when He is rejected - He is confident about His true motives, His clean conscience, His true love, character and ability. He is not rattled or anxious or nervous. And He is not deterred from His purpose to spread the good news and to love all men equally.

SCATTERING SEED EVERYWHERE

Jesus, in the parable, said that the sower scatters the Word on ALL the soil-types....he doesn't worry about the condition of the soil or whether it responds, he just scatters good seed WHEREVER he goes. Even the harvest itself will always have both tares and true wheat growing up side-by-side until the end. If we worry about the condition of the harvest too much, we'll stop sowing seed and we'll give up working in the fields. Our job is not to focus on the condition of the soil or the integrity of the harvest - we are only called to sow seed and work in the fields, and to be no respecter of persons in the process.

PRESS THROUGH---REJOICE!!

When you feel discouraged, when you feel blue, when you want to give up, instead - press THROUGH! Begin to rejoice and give praise to the Lord. Clap your hands and jump and shout about what you DON'T see yet. Thank Him for the honor and privilege of carrying the good news throughout the earth as He enables you to do so. Thank Him for letting you do what little you have done. Ask Him for more. But don't give up, and let's stop murmuring and complaining like the generation of Israelites who died in the wilderness. Be like Joshua and Caleb - truly, my friends, the enemy is like a grasshopper in our sight, and we were born to kill giants!

If You are Awake

Katie Jordan

Thus Saith the Lord;

I would have you be MY BELOVED PEOPLE. I would have you be My peculiar people set apart, SET APART TO BE MY OWN. I would have you be those upon whom the seed fell on good soil and produced a hundredfold.

Be very certain that you are not among those who, while seeing do not see and while hearing, do not hear and understand. Do not be a people whose hearts have become dull or who have closed their eyes to see not and their ears to hear not. DO NOT ALLOW MY WORD, MY SEED TO FALL ON FALLOW GROUND.

I expect My vineyard to grow and mature and produce much good fruit, yea, an abundance of fruit.

Look in upon your own hearts and be certain they are fertile soil. The enemy is trying hard to cause all the seed to be wasted. He tries very hard to cause your hearts to be so full of worldly problems and cares that they become a jungle of weeds. DO NOT ALLOW HIM TO DO THAT. FIND MY PEACE, FOR MY PEACE STRANGLES ALL THE WEEDS AND LEAVES FERTILE GROUND TO RECEIVE MY GOOD SEED.

If you are awake and alert you will realize what the enemy is trying to do in your life and you will cast him out in My Name. REMEMBER THAT HE ALWAYS FLEES AT THE SOUND OF MY NAME.

Oh My people, you should be mourning, and weeping, and repenting over what is happening in your nation. ARE YOU? Do you remember in Ezekiel I told the angel to mark those who were weeping over the terrible sins of their nation? Those whose hearts were truly broken as Mine was broken were My people and were marked by Me. I told them to kill all who did not have My mark. I LOOK UPON THE HEART. IS YOUR HEART BROKEN AS MINE IS BROKEN?

If Your Eye

Joseph Herrin

“If Your Eye Causes You to Stumble...” Joseph Herrin (6-12-2000) joseph@heart4god.8k.com

Matthew 18:9

"And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and throw it from you. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, than having two eyes, to be cast into the fiery hell." (NAS)

I have a brother-in-law who is a pilot and he told me about some training he went through in order to earn his rating to fly airplanes by instrument control. There are two broad categories of pilots; those who are VFR Visual Flight Rated, and those who are IFR Instrument Flight Rated.

The VFR pilots are not qualified to fly planes in many types of inclement weather. They have only proven their capability to fly a plane when they can see clearly out the windshield. They require conditions of good visibility to take-off, land, and fly a plane. If visibility is poor, they cannot fly.

IFR pilots, however, can fly in even extreme weather conditions. They are not limited to seeing out the windshield to navigate. They have learned to operate by the input received from the airplane's instrumentation.

As my brother-in-law was earning his IFR qualifications he had to don a hood that blocked forward sight and only allowed the pilot to look down at his instruments. While wearing this hood he was required to fly the plane demonstrating that he was not reliant upon the view through the windshield in front of him.

I have not questioned him in depth about this, but I imagine that the first time that many pilots don the hood and attempt to fly by instruments that there is a fair amount of fear to deal with. When one has been used to receiving visual feedback of what is ahead of them, it must come as a shock to have this stimuli removed. The temptation to peek, or even to remove the hood must be formidable to many pilots. As with many things, this would undoubtedly become easier with experience and practice, but initially it would be daunting.

This equates well to the current experience of many of God's children who are being taught of God to walk by faith and not by sight. God has many of His children in very earnest training at this time. He is removing from them a dependence upon the flesh, the mind, and the physical senses. He is teaching them to walk according to the spirit as they are led by the Spirit of God.

The scriptures are full of descriptions of the last days, and it is clear from these descriptions that those who are walking by sight will not survive unscathed. It is those who have learned to walk by the direction of the Spirit of God who will not only survive, but prosper and do exploits. The days will be such that visibility will be severely impaired. If you have not been qualified to navigate by the spirit, you will be grounded in the days ahead. An indication of this is given in the following scripture:

Isaiah 60:1-2 "Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For behold, darkness will cover the earth, and deep darkness the peoples; but the LORD will rise upon you, and His glory will appear upon you." (NAS)

What happens to people who have been accustomed to walking by sight when they are thrust into darkness, especially deep darkness as the verse indicates? They become disoriented. They lose their bearings. They are unable to function. Many become terrified.

Other descriptions of the last days state that everything that can be shaken will be shaken and that men's hearts will fail them for fear (Haggai 2:6, 7; Revelation 6:16). What could this shaking entail? We are given indications that earthquakes, floods, famines, pestilences, wars, invasions, economic upheaval and many other such things will occur to an extent which the world has never witnessed previously. The very things that many people cling to for stability, comfort, and direction in their lives will be cast down.

Who will be able to survive and prosper in such a day? It will be those who have hidden themselves in God and who have learned to walk by what the Spirit of God is speaking to them, ignoring the report of their physical senses.

One of the major news stories of last year was of the death of the son of one of our former presidents. JFK Jr. died in a plane crash and this incident, which held the attention of the media and the nation for weeks, is of prophetic significance.

JFK Jr. was piloting a private plane on his way to the wedding of a friend. Your spiritual ticker should be dingding already with this imagery. He was carrying both family and friends along with him on the plane. JFK Jr. was only Visual Flight Rated, he was not qualified to fly by instrumentation. When he took off weather conditions were good, as was visibility. However, as he approached his destination conditions deteriorated rapidly. A dense fog arose and visibility dropped.

It was reported that what happens to many pilots in such conditions is that they lose the ability to determine sense of direction. Particularly, they become confused as to whether they are climbing or descending. This is apparently what happened to JFK Jr. and he crashed into the ocean. It was further reported that even experienced IFR pilots had difficulty navigating on that particular day, but they were able to successfully land due to their ability to fly by instrumentation.

Prophetically, JFK Jr. represents both the nation and many ministries today. Vehicles typically represent ministries in dreams, visions, and similitudes. A vehicle is a device that carries people to a destination. This is true of ministries. Jesus gave ministers to the body to take them to maturity and to the fullness of the stature of Christ.

Today, many ministries appear to be both high flying and moving forward rapidly, but many of the ministers sitting in the cockpits are flying by sight. When conditions deteriorate suddenly, both the ministers and those who have climbed onboard with them will find themselves disoriented and will be in peril of perishing. It will be true of these that “their eye caused them to stumble.”

Due to the tragic death of those onboard the plane, it was reported that the wedding they were going to attend was delayed. This also has prophetic significance. Jesus is anxious to come back for His Bride, but her failure to walk by the spirit is delaying the event and this failure will cause many to perish.

I previously mentioned that God is training many in this day to walk by the spirit. This is uncomfortable, and even terrifying at times to those who have been accustomed to relying upon sight. It is common for the Spirit to be reporting that we are going in the right direction, while our senses are reporting that we are heading for a crash. At these times we are tempted to panic and to ignore the voice of the Spirit, but to do so would be tragic.

God is speaking to His children to “keep the hood on.” Don’t give into the pressure to peek or take it off. The skills that you are learning will put you in good stead for the coming days. In this way you will not only preserve your own life, but you will be used to bring many others to their destination safely.

It Is Finished

It is finished. A new day is coming!

A PARALLEL EVENT

Yesterday morning, my husband and myself brought our eldest son to the airport as he was on his way to Munich, Germany to start work in that country. All day long I felt like something inside me was being cut-away and there was a void in my heart. I initially thought that I was just missing our son but the feeling continue to linger on even up to this point.

While I was praying about this, I can picture in my mind a hospital scene. It was like I was in an operating table and somebody was operating on me. I can see the hands of the surgeon and he seem to be cutting away so many things from me. I felt uncomfortable but at the same time, there was like feeling of relief sweeping over me. That relief comes from my full confidence in the wisdom and ability of the surgeon working with me. I know that he knows what He is doing and that all these is for my own benefits.

IT IS FINISHED

This morning, during my quiet time. I was reminded about Jesus while He was hanging on the cross and He said these words. " IT IS FINISHED." (John 19:30) After that, I felt led to read these words from Philippians 3:12-16 which says, " Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do; FORGETTING WHAT IS BEHIND AND STRAINING TOWARD WHAT IS AHEAD, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. Only LET US LIVE UP TO WHAT WE HAVE ALREADY ATTAINED."

GOD'S MESSAGE TO US

Out of these events and verses, the Lord began to weave a beautiful message to me. And as I was basking in them, I felt the leading to share these for I felt that these are not exclusively for me but is meant for some in the body of Christ who are finding themselves in the same place that I'm standing in today.

THE FINISHED WORK

Following in the footsteps of our wonderful Savior. Many of God's wonderful children has been walking in roads filled with dying to self. Difficult events, overwhelming circumstances and acts of obedience to the Father's leading has marked the path that we have walked and so many of us today are feeling just like Jesus hanging on the cross and saying to the Father, " It is finished." We are at that point where we have already given it our all and there seem to be nothing else that we can do or give at this point.

BEHIND THE SCENE

We may not see it, but great things are happening in the Heavenlies. I felt led to read from the account of the gospel of Matthew about this event and these were some of the impressions that I got.

"And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He gave up His spirit. At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split." (Matthew 27:50-51)

This very moment as we too shout our last to the Father. He too is shaking the earth on our behalf. He is breaking loose the last thread that prevent His blessings from being poured out on His people. The enemy is trying desperately to make us believe that things are getting worse instead of getting better and THIS IS A LIE.

The shaking in the Heavens is parallel to what we felt in our body and heart as the Great Heavenly Surgeon is also cutting away from us the last barriers that holds us back from entering into the glorious inheritance that He has prepared for us.

A LITTLE MORE TIME

God is saying to us. " My Precious children. A little more time. Don't panic and fear not. It is Me creating the void inside of you. For I'm preparing to fill you up with more of Me. This is the final surgery that I'm doing in you. Please bear with Me. Trust Me for I know what I'm taking away from you. My scalpel will not hurt you but when you come out of My table, you will be more beautiful than ever. Let me finished what I've started in you."

PRAYER OF SURRENDER

"Father, we surrender everything to you. All that we've been trying to hold on to whether negative or positive. Cut them from us, empty us completely of everything that is human and fill us completely with the new oil which you have prepared for us. The pure oil of Your anointing. Let them flow unto our deepest being. We longed for You O Lord, so much that our hearts just feel like bursting forth. Thank you for the beautiful reconstruction work that you are doing in us. We rest in You this day. Help us not to fret but teach us how to be still in You. We love you Father. Thank you dear Lord Jesus for showing us the way. We know that resurrection will come after this dying. We are looking forward to rising gloriously. We know that when we come forth from our burial caves, we too will be changed. Precious Holy Spirit, continue to hover over us. Be like a canopy and cover the places where we are now. Cover everything too that concerns us, whether family, ministry, business and everything that matters to us. Blow your gentle winds upon our way. Refresh our soul as we wait for that new glorious day. Amen!"

May all to whom these words are meant received them and may your hearts rejoice as mine is rejoicing right now.

Blessings,

It Is Raining All Over the World Now! Pt.2

Stephen Gray

Greetings Dear Saints,

INTERNET ENCOURAGEMENT

Truly one of God's greatest blessings to missionaries is the Internet. I know God has used it in our ministry to inform thousands and encourage us. All in all He has used it to strengthen and encourage the body of Christ. I have been overwhelmed at how God has used it again this year as many have responded from all over the world. I also have had some who have been engulfed in God's glory as they read the e-mails (amazing!). Others have responded with new cries of hunger. Each of these responses has truly blessed us. Some have asked about the glory and how it will impact the church.

One recent e-mail I received shared a dream about a city and gold colored clouds descending over that city. When the Lord told us last year about how He would use men and women to release His coming glory I asked for a scriptural confirmation. The Lord led me to Isaiah 66:19, "I will set a sign among the nations and they will proclaim my glory to the nations." Moses not only asked God to show him His glory but Moses also carried God's glory off Mt. Sinai in sight of the Israelites. Jesus even prayed for the glory to be upon all believers in John 17:22.

THIS VISION IS HAPPENING NOW

I wrote the e-mail, "It Is Raining All Over the World" because in the Spirit I saw a picture of actual rain falling. Sometimes these vivid mental pictures can be prophetic calls to prayer. This picture I knew was a current event that was happening now. The glory is available to God's people now. As we have traveled America, and now in Africa, our team has witnessed God's glory being poured out. Why are some being touched by the glory and some not experiencing the manifested presence of God? I do not claim to understand all God is doing, but I offer these observations which I hope will help those who desire to enter into God's glory.

FROM GLORY TO GLORY

First, the glory we are talking about is more than just His presence. If you are saved and born again because you have surrendered your life to Jesus, then you are indwelt by His presence through His Holy Spirit. However, this outpouring we are calling His glory is the physical manifestation of His tangible presence. We may react to His presence by falling, weeping, repenting, trembling or other signs that were also experienced by the Old Testament priests as the glory came upon the tabernacle where they ministered. The most dramatic result of this glory is what Paul talked about in 2 Cor. 3:18 -- we are changed as we go from glory to glory. The original Greek word for "changed" is "metamorpho", and the verb tense indicates that the writer is being changed AS he is writing this verse. Paul was being changed as he wrote 2 Cor. 3:18.

CHANGING US FOR THE HARVEST

What has caused this glory to be poured out now? This seems to be a sovereign move of God to change His people quickly as the end time harvest approaches. I believe that the glory has always been available since Pentecost. Certainly the early church walked in it. Then, as man and religion took over the church, God was given less and less control. When the people of Israel no longer had control of the Ark of the Covenant they lost the glory in the temple. Our churches are being controlled to a large degree by man, through religious rules and traditions that are not mentioned in scripture. We have church members that depend on their denominational beliefs instead of knowing what the Bible says, or forming their own beliefs based on proper study.

THE NEED FOR THE GLORY

Jay Grimstead (a Christian researcher) says only 10% of the Body of Christ is properly equipped to complete the Great Commission. Discipleship is a rare subject in most churches -- when scripture COMMANDS us to make disciples. Another Christian researcher, George Barna, says the church is losing 80% of those won to Christ because of a lack of discipleship. The church is in transition and Jesus has come to change it.

In John 17, Jesus prayed for unity among all believers -- but man divides and calls it good. We read in Isaiah 29:13, 30:1, and Hosea 10:13 that God does not look kindly on man doing his own thing. God will allow such rebellion but withdraws His glory and power.

As you can see, we have lost His glory (or manifested presence) because of our idolatry and rebellion/independence. You can be a wonderful person and serve God and still be doing things without totally depending on God. Studies have shown that the average church leader in America spends an average of 15 minutes a day with God. How can we call that seeking God or be able to follow Him? What does that show us about the average Christian in America today? I know, because I lead several discipleship groups in America when I am home. We are trying to add God onto our life like another appointment. We have lived this way for so long, we think nothing about it. It is sin and we must repent.

RADICAL OBEDIENCE IS THE KEY

My prayer is that we Christians would awake and come to the realization that the only way to change this trend and have God release His glory in your life is to repent. Then you must begin to truly seek Him. Spend quality time in the mornings in prayer and begin to study the word. If we will begin to seek God and commit to move into a place of radical obedience, then you can experience His glory. If you will fall on your knees with a heart crying out for Him, He will hear you. It is not cheap -- it costs everything. Jesus said, "Take up your cross and follow me." If you will do that, you will walk in His glory.

The problem is, idolatry blinds us and we cannot see how far we have fallen. Many of the prayers being offered up for revival is nothing more than asking God to put His glory into dirty vessels. He will not do that! You may need to get to a corporate meeting where God's glory is being manifested. We have a group in Mobile, Alabama that meets every Saturday night where God is touching and changing His people. I know there are other places as well. Some come and are not touched and leave blinded by self-motives, self-agenda or because they are holding onto offenses. Unforgiveness is one of the biggest blocks to His glory!

"HOW WILL YOU RELEASE YOUR GLORY?"

"There does seem to be an impartation of God's glory through the laying on of hands. Our team here in Africa is walking in this manifestation. I also know that the e-mails have been used by God to impart His glory, which has happened throughout revival history as accounts of God moving has been reported. I asked the Lord once, "How will you release your glory?" He told me any way He wants. He desires to do it through earthen vessels.

We must pray and ask God to reveal not only our sin, but also the sins of our churches and nations. God has shown me America will move into revival. The only factor will be how low He has to take us to give up the idols and self that have closed us off from His precious glory.

It Is Time!

Judy Curmi

8-5-2000

IT IS TIME, time to lay everything aside and follow me totally, with all your heart. It is no longer a time to equivocate. It is no longer a time to sit on the fence. It is no longer a time to watch from a distance. No, it is time to enter into my Presence and my promises for you. It is not a time to lose heart. It is not a time to go back or quit.

It is your turn at bat and I want you to hit a home run. I want you to hit the ball out of the park. No longer will I allow "bunts" or "base runs" for my children. It is a time for HOME RUNS. It is a time for MULTIPLE SCORES at one time.

Don't you know you are in the bottom of the 9th inning? Don't you know it looks like the enemy is ahead? Yet, YOUR bases are the bases that are LOADED. YOUR home runs will easily take the victory.

Are you keeping your eye on the "ball?" That is, are you watching your King intently, ready to instantly FOLLOW His instructions? If you are, then you will hit the ball farther than it has ever been hit before! You will score beyond your wildest imaginings!

Don't give up! Don't quit! The enemy is not at bat! YOU ARE! NOW IS THE TIME. NOW IS THE HOUR. Get ready to follow through on your swing! GET READY TO RUN WITH THE HORSES.* THE HOUR IS NOW!

Love, Daddy

*Jer. 12:5a If you have run with footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you run with horses?

1 Ki. 18:41-46 Then Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is a rushing sound OF HEAVY RAIN. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink.

And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bent himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees. And he said to his servant, Go up now, and look towards the sea. And he went up and looked, and said, There is nothing. And Elijah said to him, Go again seven times.

And at the seventh time, he said, Behold, there is a little cloud like a man's hand rising out of the sea. And he said to him, Go up, say to Ahab, Mount your horse, and get down before the rain stops you.

And while he busied himself here and there, the heavens were black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab till he entered Jezreel.

Israel My Beloved!

Chad Taylor

Israel My beloved, My first born! Have you not heard the cries of your children? The cries of restoration and reconciliation? A time of great controversy is about to grip the hearts of your countrymen. A time of controversy and rumor. A time when the mothers will weep for their children and the children for their fathers. A time when the nation will tremble and quake. A time of peril and sword. But I tell you O Israel, I have succored you! I have prayed for you! And the prayers that I prayed so many years ago are about to come to pass O Israel!

"And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one... Father, I desire that they also whom You have given Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me..." (John 17).

O Israel My beloved! In this hour you will look to Heaven and cry, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" But I say to you O Israel, My beloved! I have not forgotten you! I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands! I have written My covenant on the fleshly tablets of My heart! O Israel, in this time of your testing, when the threshing floors will be full, I will show My self strong on your behalf. And what the devil has meant for your evil, I have meant for your good! I will not forsake you O Israel, I will not leave you.

Go cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the Lord, 'I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothal, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. Israel was holiness to the Lord...' (Jeremiah 2:1).

O My beloved Israel! In this hour men shall sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you! I have interceded for you! You will not perish forever, you will not fall forever, I will lift you up and you will shine like you have never shined before! You will run like you have never run before! I will turn your mourning into dancing says the Lord! I will turn you mourning into dancing and your tears to shears! You will lay the harvest of nations at My feet O Israel. You will restore the ruins of many generations. You will repair the breach. If you do not faint you will reap. In your distress and perplexity O daughter of Zion, do not fear, I am here says the Lord, I am here.

"When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against Him. The redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob, says the Lord..." (Isaiah 59:19-20).

O My beloved! This is the reckoning, the consummation of all things. This is that great and terrible day. This is the acceptable year of the Lord, and they day of vengeance of your God. To console those that mourn, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning. This is the day that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Your sons and daughters O Israel shall prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your handmaidens shall sing the song of Deborah in this day says the Lord. A day of reckoning and reconciliation. A day of famine, and a day of fire. A day I will deliver your sons and daughters. This is that hour says the Lord. This is that hour.

"Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace...And they also, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again..." (Romans 11).

Prepare yourself O Israel. A time when I will shake the heavens and the earth. A time when I will burn with an unquenchable fire. A time when I will consume the wood, hay, and stubble. A time when 'I will purge the sons of Levi as gold and silver. That they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness.' This is the hour that I will walk through your streets with a winnowing fan. I will burn the chaff. I will burn it up says the Lord. I will set those that are Mine aside. They will not be harmed in the flame. They will not die. Not even the smell of smoke will be upon their garments. I will preserve them in this time of famine says the Lord. I will keep them.

"For behold the day is coming, burning like an oven, and all the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble. And the day that is coming shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts... But you who fear My name, The Sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings..." (Malachi 4:1-2).

Imminent Departure

Celia Okhuysen and commentary by Paula Cavu

30 Dec 1999

I was in uniform with a flight crew at an airport and was aware that I did not have much time left to myself. I told the other in-flight purser that I'd be on time for departure as I wanted to pick up something at the Duty Free Shop. I left the crew, and when I arrived at the Duty Free Shop, I saw a large beautiful painting of cats with a blue background, and became interested in it. However, I quickly realized that the shop was too crowded with people and would not get the attention I quickly needed. Instead, I decided to proceed to the aircraft.

Next, I found myself in the passenger lounge glancing through a newspaper which I had previously bought. I quickly sorted the newspaper, selecting only sections of interest while laying aside the other sections. Somehow I got the impression that it was a New Jersey newspaper. I now became aware of the short time left in getting to the departure gate. I glanced around at an almost empty passenger lounge. There was only one person left. It was a woman who sat fast asleep while leaning over to the right with nothing supporting her. She was approximately sixty years of age, her complexion was olive, and she wore a black scarf over her head and tied under her chin. She was also dressed in dark peasant style clothing. I quickly left the passenger lounge without the newspaper and walked toward the departure gate.

As I arrived at the gate, the ramp agent quickly picked up the phone and told someone that I had arrived. I glanced at my watch, and it was exactly two minutes before departure time. (I cannot recall the time.) I quickly ran down the ramp as the passenger lounge door closed behind me, and when I boarded the 747 aircraft, the ramp agent slammed the large aircraft door closed and locked it from the outside.

Gen 7:
*15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein [is] the breath of life.
16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: AND
THE LORD SHUT HIM IN.*

All the passengers had boarded by now, and I quickly met up with the other purser who gave me a passenger count in both First Class and in Economy Class. The First Class section had more passengers than there were in Economy. I was startled, and asked her if she was sure of the count. She repeated the same passenger count (I cannot recall the exact numbers, but both class sections each had some twenty plus passengers) and I quickly proceeded into the First Class section which I would be working during the flight. After stowing away my coat and shoulder bag, I went into the galley area and looked for my crew bag. I saw many other crew bags but did not recognize mine. (As a former In-Flight Purser, I know that regulations require that crew bags be stowed away in other locations in the aircraft and not in tiny galley areas where there is no such room.)

Next, I found myself outside as I quickly inspected the grounds which surrounded the aircraft. Strange as it may seem, I had opened the aircraft's left forward door, and without stepping out onto a ramp, I found myself walking on firm ground. The aircraft was supposed to be airborne, as I was keenly aware that it had taken off and the pilots were now flying and navigating the aircraft with a computer. Yet, it was sitting flat on the ground with the landing gear retracted into its storage compartment. The engines were not making their typical whining, whirring noise, but were silent. Otherwise, I could not have walked near them due to their strong suction power while in operation. As I walked about, inspecting the immediate grounds all around the aircraft in pitch darkness, I noticed smoldering ground patches throughout the entire surrounding areas. They had the appearance of smoldering orange-yellowish embers. Although it was nighttime and quite dark outside the aircraft, I could clearly distinguish the color of the soil as I bent down and scooped some of it in my hand to inspect it. It was pitch black, and not its usual dark brownish color.

I returned to the aircraft, and surveyed all the activity taking place while the aircraft was supposedly airborne. Some flight attendants were busy quenching the few passengers' thirsty needs while other flight attendants were setting up the meal carts in First Class. With the few passengers in Economy Class, no meal carts were necessary as the meal trays would be hand carried. Galley attendants were busy in both galleys preparing the meals.

However, by now I had become deeply concerned about the smoldering ground patches outside the aircraft, and decided to return outside. The smoldering ground patches had increased in number and size. Suddenly, one of the patches erupted with flames, instantly engulfing a large portion of the left ground area a short distance away from the aircraft. I quickly returned inside the aircraft and grabbed a fire extinguisher. I ran outside with it, pulled out the release pin and began pulling the trigger to release the CO2 (carbon dioxide) as I aimed at the growing flames. I quickly put the fire out and proceeded to run throughout the entire grounds surrounding the aircraft, aiming at all the smoldering patches and putting them out as well. The CO2 bottle was quite a large cylinder in my arms. Strangely, however, it was light to carry and easy to handle. I made a thorough search of where the fire had broken out to insure that it was completely out. Upon making sure that it was and that I had also put out all the other smoldering patches, I returned inside the aircraft with the CO2 bottle.

In the next scene I was with my husband at a hotel. We had arrived at a crew layover hotel, and I became aware that I had left my crew bag at Customs. I told my husband that I'd have to try and pick it up as some of my personal things were packed in that bag. I had a smaller bag with me that contained only a few toiletries. Then, and for some unexplained reason, I decided to forego the idea of picking up my bag at Customs.

Luke 17:

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and HIS STUFF IN THE HOUSE, LET HIM NOT COME DOWN TO TAKE IT AWAY: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

I was aware that I would be deadheading (traveling as a passenger while in uniform) on American Airlines, Flight #9, which would be departing at 9:30 from Gate 19. I told my husband to go ahead without me, and that I would meet him at the gate. I decided to return to the passenger lounge I had previously been at to collect the newspaper I had left behind. I then found myself in the passenger lounge walking toward the newspaper which was still there in one of the seats. A different peasant woman, also wearing a dark scarf tied under her chin, was going through the newspaper, but when she saw me approaching, she quickly withdrew from the newspaper.

I picked it up and discovered that with the newspaper there was a TIME Magazine with a front cover of two men. The cover picture was divided into two halves which displayed one man's face in the upper half of the cover with a line drawn across the cover and the other man's face displayed in the lower half. Both men were foreign statesmen. I recognized the man pictured above the lower man as the current leader of China. I did not recognize the other man pictured in the lower half of the cover. The magazine title "TIME" was printed in bold red letters, and the magazine cover had a red border all around the cover.

I looked at my watch. It was now 9:05. I became aware that I did not have much time to spare, yet quickly decided to pick up my crew bag at Customs after all. I abandoned the newspaper and magazine and quickly hastened to pick up my bag. I glanced at my watch again. The time was now 9:15. Again, I decided to forego my bag and hastened to the airline's ticket counter to pick up my boarding pass.

The lady ticket agent was on the phone, and as I stood at the counter waiting for her to get off the phone, suddenly two other flight attendants, wearing another airline's uniforms, hastily walked up to the ticket counter to my right. They both had fair complexions, were of average height and weight, had short blond hair down to their necks, and wore light beige uniforms. (My uniform was medium blue.) Their crews' hats were also the same beige color. They were just as rushed as I was. It seems that we were to be on the same flight together, and they wanted to pick up their boarding passes too.

The agent got off the phone, and gave us our boarding passes and told us to quickly proceed to Gate 19 from where Flight #9 would be departing at 9:30. With that, we quickly walked through the crowded passenger terminal to the gate. The other two flight attendants were fast walkers and no matter how I tried to stay close behind them, they kept getting farther ahead of me. I kept them in sight while I continued on toward the departure gate.

The next thing I knew, I found both flight attendants outside in the dark night, walking around in circles within a chain linked fenced area. As dark as it was, I could clearly see that they had become confused without light.

Matt 15: 14

Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

When I saw their mistake, as well as the mistake I had made in following their lead, I quickly turned to the right and began climbing up some type of large boulder while panting quite heavily. I used my hands to cling onto the boulder's crevices and protrusions as I crawled my way up. The other two flight attendants began following me.

Matt 16:

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

I climbed to the top and opened a door. As I entered, with the other two flight attendants directly behind me, I was instantly at the same ticket counter as before. The same lady ticket agent urgently told us that we were supposed to be on board Flight #9 by now at Gate 19 for a 9:30 departure while pointing out the direction to the gate. She told us to hurry as it was almost departure time. We quickly ran throughout the now empty passenger terminal toward the other end of the terminal. (Dream ended.)

COMMENT BY PAULA

Celia, this dream seems to constitute a warning and instruction to Christians that the coming resurrection rapture, which is portrayed in this dream as the imminent departure of the air plane, is almost upon us (2 minutes before departure time). The New Jersey newspaper that you were reading in the passenger lounge could be depicting the fact that the message of this dream is for the Church (New Jerusalem).

It is time to put away desires for the temporal things of the world as symbolized by the painting of the cats at the Duty Free Shop and the crew bag which you finally decided to leave at Customs. The timing for the rapture is perhaps related to the time when China will dominate the news media (TIME magazine with the dominant picture of the Chinese leader). It will also be the time when judgment shall be upon the earth (black earth and smoldering embers) and threaten the Church of the Rapture. It is God's end time apostolic and prophetic anointing and ministries which shall keep the Church of the rapture from being consumed by judgment (the dreamer extinguishing the embers). This also agrees with your mention of number 9 being the number of judgment.

The two women with peasant clothing and dark head scarves who were sitting in the passenger lounge and presumably missed the flight most likely portrayed churches in spiritual poverty whose spiritual covering is from the kingdom of darkness (dark scarves).

The two flight attendants who wore a different uniform from yours and who led you into the dark and into confusion most likely speak of churches who are not of God's apostolic and prophetic anointing and are therefore not taught and led of the Spirit. Being the dreamer you are of this anointing so that the churches who will ultimately be led of the Spirit in God's end time apostles and prophets will receive the quickening of the direct revelation of Jesus (rock that was climbed). Hereby, many churches will be saved.

Increase And Acceleration!

Doug Fortune

These are days of INCREASE and ACCELERATION! Have I not said that of the INCREASE of My government there shall be NO end? These are days of ACCELERATION, for I am bringing the 'kairos' appointed time to bear upon the 'chronos' natural time... I am bringing a maturity in My chosen that is beyond natural years. For I WILL have a people through whom I can manifest the FULLNESS of My glory... I am birthing them into the earth even now!

These are they which are truly born FROM ABOVE, born FROM Christ, and Christ born IN THEM. These are Life-giving Spirits, birthed of the Seed of Christ, the Man-Child that will bring My government to bear in the earth. Have I not decreed that the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of the Lord and His Christ? And shall I not gather all things together in Christ? Have I spoken, and shall it not come to pass? Indeed, I AM sounding forth the trumpet throughout the earth, releasing the substance of that which I shall bring to pass. I AM watching over My prophetic spoken purpose to bring it to consummation.

Shall I not have a MAN in My image and likeness?... and shall that MAN not rule the nations? YES!... the MAN Christ Jesus, of whom many members fitly joined together make up the Body, under the Headship of My Begotten Son. For I am bringing MANY sons to manifest the glory of the Father through the Son.

Is this a thing too hard for Me?... am I not able to consummate the seemingly impossible? Indeed, it IS My purpose and plan from the beginning, and I AM accomplishing that which I have purposed! I am causing an acceleration of strategic events, strategic revelation, and strategic joinings that are releasing the spiritual substance necessary for the advancement and ultimate dominion of My Kingdom in the earth. I have decreed it, I have set it in motion, and no man can stop My purpose from manifesting in the earth.

Set your face toward INCREASE and rest in the ACCELERATION that I am effecting, for this shall NOT be by YOUR power or might, but by MY Spirit in MY zeal through you! The FULLNESS of 'kairos' time is coming to bear as I fill all in all, consummated in Christ.

Letter from India

Jaya Sankar

Forwarded by Chad Taylor

(Blessings Bill! This is a recent email from a faithful and powerful pastor in India! I have been corresponding for some time, see pics here:

<http://www.televa.com/~destiny/JAYA.htm>

I know this posting would stir the saints and encourage the brethren over seas! Blessings Bill! Chad).

LETTER FROM INDIA

Jaya Sankar

Greetings in Jesus name.

I give thanks and praise God for His faithfulness to keep His promise towards His children. There is no power that can defeat the children of God because there is no power greater than His.

I am glad to share few things regarding the birth of new church today in an interior village namely "Mosampalli" of Andhra Pradesh India. This village is 80 miles away from my home. This village is situated in the midst of hills and surrounded by the jungle. There are about 2000 people live in this village. Their main occupation is depending on the forest for their livelihood, and also keeps sheep. This is one of very backward areas of our province. These are the tribals and their religion is animism. They worship idols and trees as well as their departed souls. Toddy (palm-wine) is their favorite drink. Their culture is entirely different the culture what I live in our town. In deed these people are much arrogant and hardhearted towards the gospel.

One year back our Lord put me burden to reach these people with gospel. Respecting His calling I began my ministry among them with help of one of my coworkers namely Viswasa Rao (English meaning-man of faith). In the beginning we really faced much opposition and people did not care our talks. Even they terrified us and warned us with harsh words as not to visit again them with new god. We did not loose our faith in the promise and power of God.

My coworker lived in another village namely Sankhavaram and used to visit them every day. In the mean while I also visit these people from time to time. There was a real spiritual war in that mission field. At last our Lord enabled us to win their favour and they began to heed our talks. God did some miracles among them as answer of their prayers to show His dynamic power. I have wonderful testimonies of this ministry. Women were so receptive to hear the gospel and power of God. By the grace of God today (February 28, 2000), 10 people were baptized by the pastor. B. Jaya Sankar. Praise the Lord. It is a great miracle in that village. With this 10 believers a new church is born in our land. Of course there is still much opposition going on in this village through satanic influences and deeds.

I request you to kindly pray unceasingly for the following requests:

- 1 Pray for these new believers to grow in the faith of Jesus Christ.
2. Pray that these new converts could be empowered and motivated to share the gospel to the villagers.
3. Pray that these new converts will stand firm against the demonic activities and demonstrate holy and godly life in front of others.
4. Pray for a prayer shed to be constructed for Sunday service in this village.
5. Pray for the salvation of village so that remaining people recognize and realize Jesus is real saviour and God supreme than their idols (gods).
6. Pray for our missionary brother Viswasa Rao who is striving for God's kingdom among these tribals.
7. Pray for the surrounded unreached villages in that forest to be reached with gospel.

Dear brother Chad Taylor, this is a brief report of planting of new church. I am not a good writer to explain things better way than this. I will be praying and planning a small gospel crusade in this village in next month to encourage the new converts.

Please continue to pray for our ministry and its needs be met. I will be always thankful and grateful to you for your partnership and cooperation.

Looking forward to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

B. JAYA SANKAR(India)

In Due Season

Bob Neumann

To those with ears to hear.....

For the last 5-6 months we have been in "draught" conditions in South Florida and throughout much of the North American continent many have suffered from the lack of rain. What is interesting is the fact that those not facing problems of "lack" have been dealing with floods/flooding. Spiritually I have watched the "draught" and "famine" for many months. Most people who "trust" in man never noticed the "lack". They turned on their faucets and water was there. No need for the "average citizen" to check the 'reservoir' or measure the "well". Water is cheap and plentiful...only it is neither.

This last two weeks I have kept hearing the phrase "IN DUE SEASON" in my spirit. And each time I hear THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT speak my spirit grabs whatever THE WIND blows. Over the years I have "stored up" for the time of famine that now covers this land, but was not really aware of the fact.

For you see.... man lives, according to KING JESUS...

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

The first witness was Matthew...the second Luke.... for those who need more....

Deuteronomy 8:1-4

1 All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years. (KJV)

The question is whether obedience to HIS COMMANDMENTS is ever noticed when we "talk" about "THE WORD" or "THE BREAD"? Amos said clearly "the famine" in the land would be of "hearing" THE VOICE OF GOD. Theoretically if you do not "hear" HIS VOICE than you have NO WORD(S) to "feed" on. In the realm of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT this is taking the generality of famine and taking it to the personal level of "spiritual malnutrition". When the natural body is "starved" it's "resistance" is down. Susceptibility to "opportunistic" infection and disease increases exponentially. We see it all over the "church", but no one can "diagnose" it because it is politically incorrect to say anything about "THE CHURCH" that is not comforting, edifying, or just plain "cute" to the ears of the spiritually "deaf".

Paul in Romans brings up this issue.... if anyone would notice.... by discussing "hearing" as well as "preaching/speaking" and the twin issues of believing and faith...

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

Faith comes from "hearing" THE WORD OF GOD....but who is hearing GOD during the famine?

Funny that Paul in Romans is quoting from Isaias 53 and 54.... why.... BECAUSE NOT ALL OBEYED THE GOSPEL.... so "hearing" requires "obedience" to become faith. Without obedience there is nothing but "lip service" which a MOST HOLY GOD really hates.... check HIS WORD.

Funny thing "FAITH".... HIS WORD places it with "obedience" and "condemning the world".... IT IS WRITTEN...

Hebrews 11:1-10

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. (KJV)

Above are 10 well quoted verses.... and a lot of WORD.... STRONG MEAT FOR THE HUNGRY.... faith and obedience are the requirements to "please GOD".... very simple.... not at all complicated. But to begin you need to HEAR HIS WORD TO YOU.... no way around it. The question that begs to be asked of "the church" is whether you really believe that sitting in your "pews"/"seats" you have found "THE CITY WHICH HATH FOUNDATIONS, WHOSE BUILDER AND MAKER IS GOD"? Have you "earned" HIS REWARD HE PROMISED to those who "diligently" seek HIM? Then you must see yourself as 'a good and faithfull servant' and feel relaxed about everything?

Funny how "IN DUE SEASON" pops up in the strangest places.... LIKE MATTHEW 24...

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Funny how those "WORDS" jump out at me and sear my spiritman each time I read it. To give them "meat in due season" is the job of the "wise and good" type of servants. Likewise being "smited" is the reality when encountering "evil servants" who sit with drunkards. David wrote about sitting...anyone remember?

1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

Ugly word "scorn", it appears 3 times in the New Testament....

Luke 8:49-56

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done. (KJV)

Mark 5:40

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying. (KJV)

Matthew 9:24

24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. (KJV)

All three gospel accounts of the raising of the girl from the dead point out that JESUS was "LAUGHED" at to "scorn" HIM. He was mocked as a liar and a fool. Everyone knew the little girl was dead. Everyone knew nothing could be done. UNTIL HE SPOKE AND SHE HEARD AND OBEYED.... even when dead.....

Even "dead" we can hear HIS VOICE and "obey" THE WORDS HE SPEAKS. THE WORDS OF LIFE....

How could anyone "mock" the KING OF GLORY? Easy, they never "heard" HIS WORDS. Jude warned us and gave sound advice...

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

So what spirit might they have? Paul tells us...

1 Timothy 4:1-4

1 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: (KJV)

Months ago I was "rebuked" by THE LORD because I had offended "many". I was "chastened" because I had to "learn" some hard truths. It is not good to hold offense. It produces no fruit worthy of a HOLY GOD. When JESUS told Simon Peter to "FEED MY LAMBS.... FEED MY SHEEP" it was to care and protect the weakest. That is the job of those called to serve. But those who "serve" must be fed...or they will start eating the sheep. That is why "good and wise servants" give meat to their fellow servants. The problem is few are servants.... few were meant to be. Because few "hear" clearly...

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

"strong meat" is not for lambs.... certainly not for infants and children.

Yet "in due season" meat portions are to be given to those who hunger for more than "the milk of the WORD".
Everything comes "in due season"...famine and sword.... meat and rain. Both situations have been set forth IN THE WORD. Can't have one without the other.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.
3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
5 For every man shall bear his own burden.
6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Insight Into Enemy Camps

Pat Gregory

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus:

I want to share what the Holy Spirit spoke to me a week or so ago.

The Holy Spirit spoke to me saying "OBSERVE" different areas of the world where you see "WEATHER PATTERNS" that cause devastation. He said these are "HOT SPOTS" with "FAULT LINES" where the enemy has setup "CAMPS," major strongholds ruled by satan's princes, over regions, nations, and so on.

I know this is vital, so we need to OBSERVE these areas as we become aware of them and TARGET them in intercession. God is giving us crucial information into the enemy's plans and camps. Please don't take this lightly.

Websters definition of fault (as in fault line) in part is: a defect or point of defect in a circuit, which prevents the current from following the intended course.

Army of God, arise, and war in prayer, destroying the enemy's plans, and strongholds, declaring God's plans be established.

In His Love,
Pat Gregory

Interceding for Africa

Alison Papenfus

I am grateful to Trish Perkins - maforga@usa.net, who, together with her husband, Roy, lead the Maforga mission near Gondola in central Mocambique - Trish has provided me with some magnificent insight into the prayer needs of the nations of Africa.

Trish was on a flying visit to Johannesburg, and as she talked I grabbed a keyboard and got down as much as I could! I have edited it out, and checked it with her - but as is so often the case in Africa there is detail here which might take months to check back. If I have misspelled anyone's name - or misquoted anyone PLEASE let me know and I will happily publish a correction! If you can add detail to what is here PLEEZ let me have it.

INTRODUCTION Not so very long ago participants at any prayer meeting believed in "shot-gun" prayer - spray prayer-pellets in every possible direction and hope that at least a few of them may do some damage to the work of the enemy.

Gone are the days!

Intercessors are increasingly aware that we need God's direction before we pray, while we pray, and in moving forward in prayer; prophetic people know that it's immensely difficult to sow the word into ground that has not been ploughed with prayer. Africa is on the verge of Renaissance. But what sort of Renaissance will it be? Renaissance means new birth. Will it be a new-birth into the values of the past - witchcraft, idolatry, cruelty and graft - or a new birth into the Kingdom of God, where Jesus is Lord and his bride is his glory?

It is prayer that will decide the future of Africa. God help us all - we hold the fate of nations in our hands.

ZIMBABWE In 1980 when Robert Mugabe came to power in Zimbabwe it became known that the independence movement had been supported strongly by the spirit mediums amongst the Shona tribe around Bulawayo. During the independence celebrations Mr Mugabe was handed a ceremonial axe as a symbol of his ownership of the nation of Zimbabwe as well as his being invested with spiritual power to maintain control of the nation. Until now this has been acceptable to the people of the nation - but now there is a rising discontent with the status quo. Local intercessors fear that the nation could be on the verge of civil war, and are asking for hands on prayer teams in strategic regions to undergird the Zimbabwean intercessors as they wage a battle for the nation.

The Prayer Networking movement in Zimbabwe is led by Langton Gatsi; in Harare Nicky Ferreira leads a daily intercession team for the nation

ZAMBIA The President of Zambia, Mr Chiluba, is a born again Christian, who after his election proclaimed that Zambia was a Christian nation. Despite his best efforts it has become abundantly clear that it takes more than the commitment of a leader to transform the spirit of a nation - it takes the passion of the people as well. Intercessors in Zambia are calling for support as they pray into a spiritual transformation in the lives of the people of the nation; there is a sense that the people were liberated from evil principalities, but when they saw things improving asked the same principalities back! It will take both repentance and commitment to God to break bondages in this nation.

NAMIBIA There are two centres of population in Namibia, divided North and South by the Namib desert which covers most of the area of the nation. Intercessors from Namibia are aware of an intense vulnerability in the nation to evil influence, and have asked for support in prayer as they battle this. They see war on their northern border (in Angola and Zaire) and fear further involvement in war. (Alison's note: I believe there will be a move to unite the prophetic and intercessors in this nation later this year, and would ask for prayer into this move of God)

NIGERIA Dr Uodofia from Nigeria is highly influential among business people and senior politicians in his nation, and actively leads intercession for Nigeria and West Africa.

CAMEROONS Dr Fomam from Cameroons is Prof of Agronomy in Cameroons. He has established 600 churches in the area and trained them in disciplined prayer life. He believes in accountable prayer - for every prayer request he expects an answer, and keeps records of the answers received. He sees Christians as servants who should not engage in activity without the instructions of the master - the church is qualified to pray when the Lord gives the instructions on how and what!

His incisive almost intellectual teaching style rivets the local people, who stay to pray instead of eating; he is not afraid to challenge people about the extent of their commitment, in a recent conference he spoke about people who sit in the back row - they are observing what God is doing, rather than participating - and those observing are holding back those who pray. He moves powerfully in word of knowledge and believes that judgement begins at the house of God! One of the great curses of the African church has been the tolerance of values and traditions which are hostile to the Kingdom of God. Give thanks for a man who speaks out fearlessly against this.

UGANDA AND SUDAN Laban Jumba (Uganda) is outspoken about the call to Ugandans to pray. He says Ugandans learned to pray because their lives depended on it under the regime of Idi Amin. Jumba was ministering in Northern Uganda (on the border with Sudan) where there has traditionally been much witchcraft and idolatry. Over a period of time Sudanese rebels had abducted 10 000 schoolgirls from school hostels and took them back across border for soldiers in Sudan; the parents approached Jumba to seek God to intervene, and Jumba told them to repent and turn to the Lord. Then they interceded for the girls. When the Ugandans prayed for the girls they knew they would have to go and pray in Sudan - so they sent a team of intercessors on the back of a truck to pray - after this the girls began to return; to date 8 000 of the girls have escaped and returned to their parents walking through the African bush.

The Sudanese people speak Arabic and the nation is under the control of Islam. The Ugandans began to ask the Lord why this should be so - the Ugandans do not speak Arabic, and the language difference makes it difficult for the Ugandans to reach the Sudanese. The Lord showed them that the Sudanese people are those who can take the Gospel to Islamic nations - because they speak Arabic. Jumba has helped to organise prayer teams which are penetrating Sudan; there is a request for international support for those teams as the work is both touchy and risky.

IDOLATRY, WITCHCRAFT AND THE CALL OF THE AFRICAN CHURCH John Mulinde (Uganda) believes that now is Africa's time to travail - and Dr Uodofia (Cameroons) believes that it is now or never. Mulinde says that over generations the torch of the Gospel has passed from one nation to another throughout the world, and each nation has a chance to bring their emphasis. People have looked at Africa and said "what can she offer?"

Africa has been more deeply involved in idolatry and witchcraft than any other area of the world. African Christians have more knowledge on combating evil and deliverance than any other group of Christians - and this is the calling of Africa - to share the knowledge they have and the victory they have won in this area with the world.

Langton Gatsi (Zimbabwe) adds that this the last lap - there will be no second chance - the African church has to run the race now because God is calling us to a last stand.

AN AFRICAN PILGRIMAGE Elizabeth Jordaan (South Africa) an intercessor who has carried out research into the spiritual roots of idolatry in Africa. During her research she traced the practice of idolatry and witchcraft in Africa to the red people - the bushmen. It seems that they brought to Africa the deification of rain which originated in Mesopotamia.

As the bushmen migrated South through the Rift Valley (Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania, Malawi) they built altars and placed paintings on rocks and in caves. At the site of the paintings the bushmen would go into trance dances taking power from rock paintings; the bushmen shared this rite with African tribes (notably the Zulus) who in turn used the altar and painting sites in the same way.

In the paintings the Eland (an African buck/deer) symbolises the ability to provide rain, and is central to rain ceremonies. Female animals symbolised soft rain, male animals speak of violent thunderstorms; Some of the painted animals have white lines around them symbolising the spiritual power that can emanate from these animals when people lay hands on the painting to receive power

Africa is cursed with deserts, yet in the middle of the Kalahari Desert are rock paintings of hippos - who live in water! Clearly the area had not always been desert. The idea developed that idolatry and witchcraft (of which the painting was evidence) had turned a verdant land into a desert

Elizabeth prayed for Bushmen Christian leaders who would repent on behalf of their ancestors for the involvement of the Bushmen in idolatry and witchcraft at the altars and sacred sites. Just as this move was developing National Governments in Southern Africa began a move to restore ancient lands to the bushmen so that they could re-learn the trance dances and teach them to others! It is no coincidence that this move occurred just as the call to repentance from witchcraft and idolatry was developing.

Three bushmen Christian leaders were called to go with Jordaan on the journey and John Moyo from Mocambique joined the team together with a number of others from different African nations. The team travelled from the Southern-most tip of Africa (Cape Argullas in the Western Cape of South Africa) northwards along the Rift Valley to Uganda. At Olduvai Gorge (Tanzania, site of the archaeological finds of the Leakey family) they were moved by the intense spiritual powers around the place. At Jinja (source of the Nile in Uganda) they prayed for an outpouring of the spirit of God upon Africa. As they went they were sensitive to the need to perform prophetic acts both to nullify the power of the enemy and to liberate the power of the Spirit of God - particularly at the altars and gates visited along the way.

The full journey took several months, and left the participants drained. To date there is no external evidence of the overall effect of this journey, but the participants believe that they have fulfilled the will of God as far as they understood it at this time.

CONCLUSION Southern Africa is beginning to surface after a deluge of flood water. The lives of over a million African people have been changed for ever in a few short weeks. As we pray into the needs of Africa know that a deluge of the Spirit of God is imminent. Its effect can be channelled by prayer; as we understand the will of God and pray into his purposes we lay the foundation for the rebirth of Africa - a new birth, not by water, but by the Spirit of God.

Inlet of Transition

Jack Frost

I grew up in Florida living a few blocks from the Atlantic Ocean and even closer to the river known as the Intracoastal Waterway. Every day was spent on the water, surfing or fishing. I loved to wade the oyster beds in the river fishing for trout, spot-tail bass, flounder, and snook. But it was the ocean that captivated my heart most. The river seemed so limited, while the ocean, so boundless.

Growing up in a troubled family, it was the sea that became my source of comfort and rest. By the age of 23, I stayed at sea a week or more at a time, 50 miles from land, captain of commercial snapper and grouper fishing boats. The wonders I've seen in the deep blue: the whales, 15-ft. sharks, 30-lb. snappers, 400-lb. groupers, blue marlins, and the serenity of a still calm night with the stars in heaven revealing God's glory. The open ocean, with gulf stream blue waters, captivated me! It became the passion of my Soul! I lived for the sea and was willing to die for it, as some of my friends did during the 50 to 60 mph winds and 20 foot high seas that winter storms produced!

A river, flowing towards the vast wonders of the ocean blue, must first pass through the churning, often dangerous currents of the inlet mouth. The "river of God" is entering into this inlet of transition. It is beginning to flow out from the confined area, where the riverbanks hold back the rushing waters, into an open sea, where our vision is unlimited and God's glory revealed beyond our wildest dreams. "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him" (I Corinthians 2:9).

As long as you are steering your vessel on the river, initially it seems much safer than the ocean. The waters aren't too deep. You can still see shore and easily get off the boat when you are uncomfortable with things. There are not as many risks involved in the river, but you can never be at complete rest because you cannot leave the helm unattended. Your eyes are on every sandbar and your mind strives to calculate the channel around the next bend, or you may run aground. It takes a watchful eye to navigate, for the river can be laden with much traffic and commerce. Sometimes you get fogged in and have to throw anchor and wait things out in fear of some impatient navigator, whose vision is limited, running you down.

The dangers of the inlet can be more frightening. Currents are strong. Hidden sandbars shift from week to week. Fishing vessels often clog the inlet mouth. The tide may be too low to cross the sandbars. The river, can be a busy, restless place where you rarely find a moment's peace.

When a sailor breaks out of the restricted area of the river and inlet and into the open sea, an unexplainable joy fills his soul. Ah, the open expanse of the deep blue sea! That is where God reveals His deepest wonders. That is where you experience perfect peace. After crossing the sandbars, the vessel is put on auto-pilot and steers the course on its own, for rarely does another vessel impede your way. You walk up on the bow and gaze at the horizon and feel a heaviness lift from your soul. You're leaving behind the distractions, noise, and pressures of life. Soon, land is far behind and you find that you are the only vessel in sight. All of the voices that disquieted your mind before and sapped your strength, no longer seem significant. The crew hardly speaks to one another. It is an unspoken, understood thing. Each is experiencing the euphoria that comes when a sailor or fisherman loses sight of land and all its diversions and has the open sea before him. It is now only you, the sea, and the Creator of this awesome, natural cathedral. Your soul has found its place of rest. You are free from the chains that bind! You have been created for this place, this moment of deep communion. "Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business on great waters; they have seen the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep (Psalm 107:23, 24).

For my wife and me, the river of God has taken our lives and ministry from a dry riverbed to a small, gently flowing stream and turned our lives into a rushing torrent. Our hearts have been captivated by the Father's love. In return, we are more fervently and passionately in love with Him. God's graces and gifts are being released through us.

There are fresh visions and revelations. Others, seeing the wild ride we are on, are being drawn to climb aboard the vessel with us as we navigate the river together downstream towards the boundless sea of the Father's love. Yet, there have been many dangers on this river, and we've run aground more than once. Our vision seems to easily get fogged. We often get so preoccupied with staying within the flow of the channel and meeting all the needs of those on the journey with us that we lose sight of the place of rest in the ocean of the Father's love. How our souls long to cross over the inlet of transition and to constantly rest in the Father's love. Oswald Chambers understood our journey well: "The greatest competition to your devotion to Jesus is your service to Him!"

Whom did God have more trouble with Nineveh, or the man of God through whom He wanted to speak the message of repentance and forgiveness? I believe it was Jonah and the motives of his heart! When the man of God got his heart attitude right, the city of Nineveh was more than willing to repent. Where did God take Jonah in order to help him clearly hear His voice and change the focus of Jonah's heart? The sea! Revival in our cities should not be a problem when the motives of the hearts of God's leaders are purified in the ocean of the Father's love.

We, especially pastors and leaders, are in the inlet of transition today. We've had quite an exciting ride on the river of God, but He is taking us into deeper waters where greater wonders and glory exist. But first we must journey through the bumpy and often dangerous swirling currents of the inlet of transition.

The greatest danger point of any pregnancy and new birth is the moment of transition, as the baby enters into the narrow passageway of the birth canal. As we complete this transitional period, we will break forth through the inlet into the open ocean and its wondrous depths. We will begin to experience, in greater ways than we have known in the river, "the breadth and length and height and depth" of the Father's love and enter into His rest. In this vast expanse of His love, with no effort or striving on our part, our unconscious motivations will be purified in His love and revival will break forth in many cities. "The fruit of righteousness will be peace, the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence forever. My people will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest... How blessed you will be, sowing your seed by every stream..." (Isaiah 32: 17-19).

HOW DO WE MAKE IT THROUGH THE TRANSITION SAFELY

First, inlets are often rough, so make sure everything is in its proper place or it may fall overboard or break. It is in the inlet of transition that God most targets our unconscious areas of pride, self-love, self-reliance, and counterfeit affections. Areas of fleshly wisdom that God's grace previously covered will be exposed in greater degrees. Over and over, we may find our own ideas, opinions, and subjectivity overflowing. Even a strong will can lie hidden behind even the most gentle of voices. These "presumptuous sins" must be brought to the light and dealt with before we break forth into the ocean and find deeper rest in the Father's love. (Psalm 19:12-14)

Secondly, traversing an inlet requires your greatest focus. Nothing brings our spirit man into focus more quickly than prolonged prayer and fasting. This is perhaps the greatest time in history when Christians' most intense battlegrounds, especially leaders, will be in the realm of the soul. "Is it a fast like this which I choose, a day for a man to humble himself... to loosen the bonds of wickedness... and break every yoke?" (Isaiah 58:5, 6) This will be a year when greater grace will be given in the realm of prayer and fasting. "Fasting burns out our selfishness. It is the foundry in which we are purified. Its fires refine our faith; its flames separate the base impurities from our true character in Christ; its hot blasts purify our hearts" (Lee Bueno). "I personally believe there are some things that are in the will of God that He wants us to have, but we will never attain them unless we combine fastings with prayer" (Derek Prince).

Thirdly, safely crossing rough inlets requires a quiet confidence and dependence upon skills learned in past experiences at sea. There can be no fear, or you panic at the crisis moment. I speak daily to many ministers from around the world who are in the midst of the river of God. Many are tired and weary. This is the place where dependence upon the Father is easily lost as the weariness leads to anxieties and insecurities and faith diminishes. My wife and I are in the best place we have ever been, relationally and spiritually, yet we hear God calling us into a deeper rest. Therefore, we plan on taking three months this year where we minister to no one and aren't preparing for the next sermon. We just want to grow more secure in resting in our Father's love and spend time playing with Him as His little children. We know it will be preparation for us entering into deeper realms of glory that lie ahead. (Hebrews 4:9-11)

Fourthly, in the inlet of transition, we must learn to "wait" on God. In rougher inlets, you have to sit and wait on the larger swells to pass and look for an opening when you can get safely across the bar. I've seen impatient captains try to rush through and the swells lift the vessel high and then it falls, slamming their propellers into the sand. They are left helpless, without power, the journey aborted as they are towed back to port. When we wait extended periods on God, He acts on our behalf. Every few months I try to enter into solitude and just sit all day and wait for God to come and renew my strength. He reveals His wonders during these seasons of waiting. If we act without waiting on God, then He waits on us to enter His rest before He acts. It is in the waiting that our strength is renewed and God's power increases. (Isaiah 30:18; 40:29- 31: 64:4)

Charles Swindoll best described the posture that Father is calling us to in the inlet of transition:

SIMPLICITY

SOLITUDE

SUBMISSION

This year is a time of preparation for the outpouring of His wondrous love to a lost world. We are to simplify our lives and ministries by spending seasons separating ourselves from all the voices of need for the purpose of waiting on the Father. Waiting is a sign of absolute dependence and submission. There is no more valuable time spent in the day than the time spent waiting on God! This is the position where we experience the displacement of self by the enthronement of God. This is the place of humility where God is all and self becomes nothing. Our hearts are being prepared for the boundless ocean of His love that lies ahead!

Innocence

Ron McGatlin

Innocence of Christ

Jesus said, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. Mat 10:16 NIV

In this first century of the new millennium the Body of Christ is awakening to the reality of innocence. It seems we may have sought to be as wise as a serpent or shrewd as a snake and missed the Lord's instruction to be innocent, harmless, and pure.

Pastor Steve Gray of the Smithton Outpouring / World Revival Church said something that touched me deeply. He said, "Jesus is more real to me today than ever. As He has come nearer and nearer and I have had an even better glimpse of Him. I have been shocked — not by His fire and power but by His innocence — a pure and innocent lamb that has never sinned — completely pure and innocent."

At the core of our Lord's matchless glory, His fire, and His power, is His heart of innocence -- completely and totally pure -- not even a hint of uncleanness nor a speck of disobedience to the Father. He is the completely blameless and harmless innocent lamb of God. In this time of outpouring, as His presence is more known to us and we become more intimate with Him, we are glimpsing more of His true character.

Heb 7:26 NIV: Such a high priest meets our need—one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

The very center of His matchless glory, power, and authority is His absolute perfect innocence and purity. As only a perfect gem without inner impurity or flaw can perfectly flow the pure light without distortion, only perfect absolute innocence can flow the pure light and power of God. Any impurity or flaw would produce distortion and become harmful when the light and power of God is increased.

We desire to be like Him to be in the presence of His glory and to flow His unlimited wisdom and power bringing healing, restoration, renewal, reformation and revival to the world. But we are not like Him and cannot do these things because we are not innocent like him. Our man focused preaching and lukewarm lifestyles mixed with cares of this life and desire for things of the world are not innocent like him. Our zealously to protect and defend our narrow view of the very limited doctrines and religious forms we cherish, causes us to become harmful and we are not innocent. Doctrinal wars and debate over form do not flow from a heart of utter innocence. Striving against brothers, back biting and gossiping are not from a heart of innocence and are not harmless and pure. Even our best is often not innocent like Him.

Phil 2:14-15 NIV: Do everything without complaining or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe.

While church members debate and actually get into fist fights in the church over whether to use hymn books or an overhead projector, and while churches split over selecting the color of the new carpet and other such foolish strife, the world starves for the reality of God to show forth the pure and innocent heart of Christ.

While political church leadership attempts to cover its impurities and defend itself and friends and attacks others to protect a position of power over people, the prisoners of the pew starve and die for lack of real food from God. They are given only fake food. That plastic stuff that looks so real in the restaurant window but has no nutritional value and cannot really be eaten.

As we experience His innocence, our pride and self strength melts and our hearts are broken because of the impurity and defilement of our lives contaminated by self living and bad religious training. His glorious presence comes down as we give ourselves to Him in corporate praise, deep adoration of worship and focused prayer. Entering intimacy of His presence begins to reveal His innocence and our hearts are broken by the depth of his purity and innocence. Our lives are exposed to us and we feel as if we have walked into the perfect palace of purity in our dirty work clothes. We begin to understand the parable of the guest entering the wedding feast without a proper wedding garment.

Our hearts weep and tears flow as we see the innocence of our husband and recognize the uncleanness and unfitness of our lives to become the Bride and enter into further intimacy with the innocence of God Himself. Our bodies crumple to the floor and we cannot even open our eyes as our inner parts convulse with sorrow at our inability to enter into the fullness of intimacy with Him. In this deep repentance we feel great changes occurring as things are ripped out of our innermost being leaving gaping holes to be filled with His love and innocent purity.

Eventually we arise from the floor to lift our hands and hearts to Him in wonderful adoration from renewed hearts. Joy burst into our souls as we realize we are more like Him now than we were moments ago. The process continues as we are becoming the prepared Bride for the innocent Lamb the roaring Lion of God.

We have no pride or fear and will no longer remain in the pew as prisoners of religion. Revolution is inevitable as we enter into the glorious reality of the presence of God Himself and all tolerance for religions bondage of traditions and man centered doctrines leaves us. There is great love for God and His people, especially those remaining in the bondage of religious political systems. But there is no loyalty to the systems which may have retained a facsimile of the truth but have brought great perversion and distortion to the truth of the pure innocent Christ and His potential Bride.

Integrity

Bill Burns

Prophetic Utterance through Bill Burns:

May 7, 2000:

The Lord says, as My Body comes forth without spot or wrinkle, I am demanding a position of integrity. There are some in My Body who have made promises, who have made commitments to do some things that you have not carried through with. This has become a stumbling block and hindrance to you, and is blocking the blessings that could be coming to you. How would you like it if I did not keep My promises to you? How would you like it if I did not maintain My position of integrity by doing what I promised to you? I say to you, keep the commitments you have made to each other and to Me. Let your yes be yes and your no be no. Some of you need to return what you have borrowed. Do what you said you would do. Take care of things left undone and be about the Father's business.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

May 8, 2000:

What is this I see? Is it not a cloud of despair and trouble? Some of you have come to believe that the sunshine of My peace and blessings come to everyone else but you, and that this cloud of darkness follows you wherever you go. But, I say to you, that I am no respecter of persons, and I have not singled you out to test you and try you beyond your ability to stand. You have allowed your heart to be troubled and afraid. I have called you to great expectation, but there is a vast difference between expecting and projecting. Instead of living today and bringing glory to My kingdom today where you are, you have projected yourself out into the future where you cannot live either there or here. And, a spirit of fear has moved in to take its place in the gap that you've created between here and there. Your thoughts are now taken up with worry, fear and anxiety of what might happen. I say, this is a great evil and produces great darkness. Repent, therefore, and come out into the sunshine of My love, for surely I will bless you and direct your steps today. And, I will cause you to bring glory to My kingdom where you are. I will establish your heart in peace if you will only release your unknown tomorrows.

May 9, 2000:

Beware...the enemy has sent a spirit of infirmity and defilement to weaken you in body and soul. But, haven't I said that My strength is sufficient? Rise up in My strength and power and shake yourself free from this attack. Resist the devil and he will flee! Let Me wash you with the Word. I tell you today, that many of you are experiencing back pain that has come out of nowhere. I tell you that this is an attack of the enemy against your body. But, I also tell you that some of you have taken on a burden that does not belong to you. You are carrying a burden that needs to be brought to Me and left with Me. If you could do something about this situation, you would have already taken care of it. You cannot; I can. Let me relieve you of this heavy load.

Mat 11:28-30 "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

May 10, 2000:

Yes, I am leading you to higher ground and bringing you to a place undefiled. But, I cannot take you there until you have gained the victory where you are. For indeed many nations have gathered against you with a hope that you will be defiled and with a heart to see your demise. They will rise against you once more with a vengeance, but they do not know My thoughts, nor do they understand My counsel. I have made your forehead like flint and have armed you with a strong bow. I have caused your feet to be shod with bronze, and your enemies will be broken in pieces. I say to you, fear not, for I have a plan and a purpose that cannot be thwarted. Your enemies will look upon your triumph and know that the Almighty God has been among them, and they shall be greatly ashamed.

May 12, 2000:

I have called you to do extraordinary things in these extraordinary times. I know that you don't feel equipped or prepared to meet the challenges ahead of you, but I didn't call you to come prepared or equipped. I called you to come, to make yourself available to Me. I called you just as you are. Come, then, with a heart that is willing to do what I have set before you, and trust Me to do in and through you what you are not able to do alone. I will go before you to make the crooked places straight. I will remove the hindrances that have been put in the way of what I have called you to do. Have I not said that you are My battle ax, My weapon of war? I have fashioned you and molded you as an instrument designed specifically and efficiently for this very hour. Arise, then, and go forth without fear or trepidation, for I am with you. I am the hand; you are the glove.

Isa 40:3-5, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD; Make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill brought low; The crooked places shall be made straight and the rough places smooth; The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

May 13, 2000:

Once again, I am shaking everything that can be shaken. Just as you would shake a dirty rug to separate the rug from the dirt, am I shaking My people again. There are those who have called themselves Christians but have defiled My servants with bitterness and anger. And, to those of you who have risen up in pride and counted those that I have called and chosen as your enemies, I will turn you upside down and shake you. And, I say, that it is for your good that I do this, for if you will not forgive others, I cannot forgive you. I admonish you to release and forgive those who have wronged you, those who you have disagreed with. For, you will not be able to progress any further until this issue is dealt with.

Proverbs 27:22, "Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, yet his foolishness will not depart from him."

Interceding For The Lost

Hollie Moody

The following is something I experienced Jan. 28th, 2000 / 8:15 pm):

I saw the Lord sitting on a large white throne. A long long line of people were gathered before Him. I was standing to the side observing all of this. I was bewildered by the fact that all of these people had no face. Where their face should have been, there was just a blank. Each time a person came before the Lord, He would open up a book and read out of it all the things this person had done. Everything was recorded; and the Lord read the whole book from beginning to end. Every person in this particular line was being judged, and condemned to hell. Each time the Lord would tell each person they were condemned, the person would begin to scream, and cry, and beg the Lord for just one more chance. The Lord had tears rolling down His own cheeks, but would shake His head, telling each person they had had plenty of opportunities to repent and live for Him. This went on for quite some time. Finally, the Lord looked over at me, and asked me, "Why aren't you doing anything?" I was confused. "What would you have me to do, Lord?" I replied. "Pray," the Lord replied. So, I began to pray, but not really with any fervency. After a short time of this, the Lord turned to me with concern and said, "Look at these people. Really look at them." As I did so, their faces came into focus. They became people I knew vaguely. They were acquaintances. I began to pray a bit more fervently for them. After a time, the Lord turned to me again with stronger sternness, and said, "Look at these people once again." Now the people became friends.

"You must pray harder, " the Lord admonished me. I began to pray a bit harder. But still, the long line of people would come before the Lord, He would read them their life's story from their own personal book, and then be condemned. Once again the Lord turned to me, this time in anger. He was still weeping over the souls who were being condemned. "Do you really understand and comprehend what is happening here?" the Lord asked me. "Behold !!!" Then, a hole opened up behind the long line of people. I glanced towards the hole. There was an awful darkness coming from it. I heard screams, and shouts, and wails, and moans coming from the hole. "Go and look," the Lord commanded me. I didn't want to. I was scared, but it was as if a hand were at my back forcing me to the edge of this black hole. When I reached the edge of this black hole, I glanced down in it. Then, I drew back in terror and horror. I could see down the black hole. It appeared to be a long, descending tunnel.

I could see a seething, roiling mass of people at the bottom of this hole. They were so crowded together they appeared to have no space between them at all. There were flames, and a red orange glow coming from the bottom of this black hole. I smelled sulfur (like matches). I saw fire and flames. I felt the intense heat of the fire. I saw maggots crawling all over the bodies of the people at the bottom of the black hole. The people were on fire, yet were not being consumed by the fire. But, they were screaming out in agony and pain from the fire. They were looking up towards the opening of the black hole. Their hands and arms were raised upwards. They were shifting and moving restlessly like huge waves. And they were screaming. Screaming for deliverance, for mercy. But there was no mercy. There was no deliverance. I drew back from the edge of the black hole in terror and horror and despair.

I turned back towards the Lord sitting on His throne. He was still reading from the books. Now I saw a large, endless stack of books piled next to His throne. And I knew that every one of the people who those books were written about, were going to be condemned. I looked at the long, endless line of people gathered before the Lord, waiting to be judged. Now, I saw every face clearly. They were my friends, my family, my relatives. And they were being condemned. And I saw them being cast into the black hole, and I heard them as they screamed as they fell down the long tunnel. The Lord turned to me, with tears streaming down His cheeks, and said, "Now pray." I began to weep and scream out to God to have mercy on these people. As each person was condemned, I ran to the edge of the black hole and tried to pull them back out of the black hole. I would grab their hands and arms, and try to hold onto them. But they would slip from my grasp. I was beside myself, trying desperately to keep these people I loved from going down the black hole.

I reached out and grasped onto the Lord, then reached down with my other arm into the black hole to try and grab people out of the black hole. "Let go," the Lord told me. "If I let go of you, I'll go into the hole myself," I protested. "Let go," the Lord said again. I let go. It was as if unseen hands were holding onto me. I laid down next to the edge of the black hole, reached down inside of it, trying to grab a hold of and grasp onto the people who were falling down into the black hole. I felt like I myself was being burned from the fire and the flames. At times, I felt as if "claws" reached out from the black hole and struck at me. I felt burns on my arms, and saw scratches appear on my arms. I was weeping, and calling out to God for the deliverance of these, my loved ones. I was begging God to have mercy on my loved ones, and to not condemn them to the black hole. "It's easier to pray for the lost when they are your own loved ones," the Lord said to me. "Remember, all the lost are My loved ones. I want My children to begin to pray for these, My lost children, as you are praying for them now. I would raise up a generation of intercessors to stand in the gap for My lost children. These intercessors will feel the heat of the battle, and be burned by it. The forces of hell will come against them, and attack them. Yet, I will be with them, and will hold onto them. Now will you pray?"

Into the Flow of My Spirit

David Clements

I Am taking you into the flow of My Spirit. You need to cease from all striving and resisting of my Spirit. Be as a leaf laying upon the ground. Be in a state of rest with no resistance. I Am the Holy Wind that is blowing about you and upon you. You thought that the wind that was buffeting you and rearranging you was the enemy. It was and is not. I Am the wind, the wind of Fire that is purging you and sealing you. I Am a consuming fire the wind you feel is my breath. Just as I breathed life into Adam and made him a living soul, so it is that I Am making you live.

A windstorm of fire is upon you that will consume everything in your life that is not me. This is my doing, your doing is to stand and be changed. When I Am finished you will be a leaf of Gold. I will fit and join you into my tree. I Am the tree of life for I Am the Way and the Truth.

Watch now as I bring an assembly for I Am assembling an army of Holy warriors. A warrior church that will plunder the enemies house and set the captives free. My Church will be a purified House of Gold, a refined and finished House. When finished it will be a House of Praise, Prayer, and Prophecy. A place of signs and wonders. A place of Love.

To my servants I say this; Stir my people and provoke them with the Gifts that I have placed within you. Provoke love with an open display of love . Provoke my people to love one another. Love them that they might love others. If you love me then feed my sheep truth and not compromise.

Love is what I Am and all that I Am bringing. Love is the weapon that will win every battle.

I Am the weapon for I am Love. I Am a destroyer of darkness, bondage, hatred, sin and much more. I Am destroying and creating at the same time. As you die to yourself I am bringing resurrection power to you.

Let me consume you. Let me change you. It is within your power to stop me for if you resist me then I will back off. Therefore you must surrender to me, open yourself to me. Seek me for change, love me as I change you. Beside me there is no other. There is only emptiness and darkness outside of me.

I Am the Light. I Am the Truth. I Am the only Way. There is none other. I Am. Stop resisting and enter into the flow of me I Am the river.

In Unison

Mary Koons

May 01, 2000

Two nights in a row last week when I opened the Word - I opened it to the same spot. This being the case, the second night I started paying REAL detailed attention at what the Lord was trying to show me. The passage is in II Chronicles 5 and both nights my eyes fell on the same verse. (All scriptures from the Amplified Translation).

And when the priests had come out of the holy place (for all the priests present had sanctified themselves - separating themselves from everything that defiles) - without regard to their divisions:

And all the Levites who were singers, all of those of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, with their sons and kinsmen, arrayed in fine linen, having cymbals, harps, and lyres stood at the east end of the altar, and with them 120 priests blowing trumpets;

And when the trumpeters and singers were in unison, making one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and other instruments for song, and praised the Lord, saying, For He is good, for His mercy and loving-kindness endureth for ever, THEN the house of the Lord was filled with a cloud,

So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the Lord filled the house of God.

(II Chronicles 5:11-14)

God inhabits the "praises of His people..." as the above verses show. These passages give us a "real idea" of HOW God's glory will come again! The priests were sanctified, having separated themselves from anything that would defile them - and all in "fine linen," signifying their being set apart for Holy service. (Exodus 28). There were 120 priests blowing trumpets - which led me to think of the Book of Acts and the Upper Room. And finally - ALL the priests who were blowing the trumpets - and the singers were IN UNISON - making "one sound" of PRAISE - THEN, the house of the Lord filled with a cloud of His Glory!

I turned to Acts 1 curiously wondering just how much of the passage from II Chronicles would correlate to it.

(Beginning in v. 13)

And when they had entered [the city], they mounted to the upper room where they were indefinitely staying - Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the [son] of James.

All of these with their minds in full agreement devoted themselves steadfastly to prayer, [waiting together] with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

Now one of those days Peter arose among the brethren, the whole number of whom gathered together was about a hundred and twenty.

(Acts 1:13-15).

Verse 14 tells us that their minds were in "full agreement" - IN UNISON then - in prayer, the apostles, the Lord's family and the women who had ministered to Him. All together there were about a hundred and twenty people gathered.

And when the day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all assembled together in one place,

When suddenly there came a sound from heaven like the rushing of a violent tempest blast, and it filled the whole house in which they were sitting.

And there appeared to them tongues resembling fire, which were separated and distributed and that settled on each one of them.

And they were all filled - diffused throughout their souls - with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other (different, foreign) languages, as the Spirit kept giving them clear and loud expression (in each tongue in appropriate words).

(Acts 2:1-4)

The Amplified Translation notes that "there came a sound from heaven, like the RUSHING OF A VIOLENT TEMPEST BLAST," - a "Trumpet" sound perhaps? It was violent enough that the passage states, "it filled the whole house!" Again, all of the one hundred and twenty were assembled - and from Acts 1, we know that they were IN UNISON. ALL of those assembled received "tongues" resembling fire - and from the Holy Spirit - they were all filled - diffused throughout their souls.... The "glory of God" - by and through the Holy Spirit diffused them all - and "clearly and loudly" they began to speak. So clearly and loudly in fact that we find in verses 5-7, a multitude came together astonished at what was going on!

In the "dedication" of David's Temple, as told us in II Chronicles and in the "dedication" of the "New Temple" which NOW resides in New Testament born-again believers, the similarities are striking. The "key" is apparent to what caused the GLORY to come from heaven to reside among men - being IN UNISON.

Unison as defined by the Webster's Dictionary is:

- Harmony
- Concord
- Identity of pitch

In Unison is defined as:

With all voices singing the same note at the same time Sounding together In agreement

If we who are so eagerly awaiting the manifestation of the sons of glory - TRULY want to experience our own "personal" dedication of God's Temple residing within us - then we need to be singing - the same note at the same time! Not be "out of agreement," or "seeking OUR own way," - but IN UNISON - Praising the LORD!

To reinforce this - the Lord led me BACK to the passages in II Chronicles. After I'd done so I felt a strong "nudge," to get out my Bible Dictionary to find out what the three names listed in verse 12 meant. They are listed in this order: Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun.

- According to the dictionary Asaph means "He collected....."
- Hemen means "faithful....."
- And Jeduthun means "praise....."
- He collected faithful praise!!!

Therefore verse 12 reads:

And all the Levites who were singers, all of those [who] He collected [for] faithful praise, with their sons and kinsmen, arrayed in fine linen, having cymbals, harps and lyres stood at the east end of the altar, and with them 120 priests blowing trumpets.

May we ALL be FAITHFUL IN PRAISING HIM!!

Invasion Of Planet Earth!

Paul Gervais

"The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell within." Psalm 24:1

"For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." Habakkuk 2:14

"And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes (knowing no man after the flesh, refusing to walk in the sense realm), neither reprove after the hearing of his ears (a prophetic perception)..." Isaiah 11:2-3

"The Lord thundered from Heaven, and the most High uttered his voice. And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them." 2 Samuel 22:13

"Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth. He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth. After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard." Job 37:2-4

"And His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning..." Daniel 10:6

"And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning..." Zechariah 9:14

The Vision!

A heavy Cloud was fringing the Eastern Seaboard, while smaller pillows of condensation continued to increase in both volume and intensity, worldwide. As I observed that unstoppable Presence, mighty lightning bolts sporadically emanated from each formation of Mist, striking cities, towns, states and entire nations.

Multitudes ran from their homes, lifting up holy hands toward Heaven, where a torrential downpouring appeared to be washing away all forms of deception and negativity...from emotional and physical disorders to perceptions of sin, shame, guilt, unworthiness, doubt and wrong thinking. Spiritual cataracts instantly dropped to the ground. Bodies were struck by an infusion of life. Disease could not survive this supernatural onslaught.

A collective shout spontaneously rang out! "Yes, I can see! Jesus truly has done it all. What has been my heartcry for years is here...a revelation of Who He is in me and the great exploits that can be realized through Him."

A fresh understanding, relative to the magnitude of God's love and Covenant, resulted in a mighty shaking as Believers exercised their rights and privileges in Christ. Hell quaked in the wake of this massive display of Power. Hospitals and mental institutions emptied. The dead were raised. A positive conviction of sin and righteousness abounded, setting scores free to do business for the Kingdom.

A Vapor (Glory) was overshadowing this entire planet, mixing with a Glow, which totally dissolved darkness and evil of all forms. Sickness, poverty and death immediately fled the Bright Shining as that Pillar became the directional focal point of the Church. Denominational differences didn't seem to matter any longer. Utmost priority was on dispensing the Unction, His Presence, a move that would rapidly add untold numbers to the Lamb's Book of Life. Old things had passed away. All became new!

Hollywood was spectacularly impacted by this invasion from Outer Space. Dad effectively worked in men, women and children to will and do of His good pleasure. Actors and recording artists, some of whom were very well known at that, originally gifted with a myriad of talents, no longer desired to proceed forward in their current secular modes. Instead, they were strangely warmed by Papa's love, knowing that what each had longed for over the years was finally arriving, a living, giving, visible Creator, predisposed to show favor.

Oh, what a love affair was transpiring. Talents were used to worship, praise and glorify Him! Those in the music industry ushered in intense and prolific manifestations with voices and instruments of exultation.

By the millions, destiny was discovered. A lifting up of the Savior produced an Atomic Explosion of the miraculous. Buildings could not house the vast numbers wanting more of the Master. For the first time in history, a one-on-one knowing of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit was the norm, an unparalleled intimacy. Satan's impotency and unveiling rendered him helpless. His stealing, killing and destroying spree was significantly halted by an Army of Soldiers that moved in sync with the General's orders...those nudgings and promptings. The Bride had become One in direct answer to the Master's prayer. Thousands of demons were set to flight. Restoration and reconciliation removed each spot and wrinkle.

With all that, the Spirit of the Lord came unto me, saying...

Fear Flees!

"So many in the Church have been held back and paralyzed by lying spirits, the strongest of which is fear, faith's bipolar opposite. My Word is clear when it comes to Heaven's remedy. In the last days, knowledge will increase, particularly in the arena of Covenant. No longer will the Book merely be a collection of powerless words. With this Cloud of Life will arrive a comprehension of Dad's salvation to the uttermost. Beloved, I am not walking in any form of intimidation. What does the Bible say about Me? Your God is the Author and Finisher (perfecter) of faith...yours! Has it not been written that the Glory of the latter house will be greater than the former? Sense that Divine stirring on the inside...less intimidation, a healthy dissatisfaction, more boldness. Those occasions in the Throne Room serve to intensify the revelation...that dream, vision and high calling. Prepare to venture forward with unprecedented Power and a heightened assurance of My will. Destiny is becoming clearer. Fear will not survive that which I have begun in you. Sickness, poverty and death are no match for this promotion in the Body. Rejoice! Watch fright take flight! The best is in the process of becoming flesh (tangible)!"

A Fresh Anointing!

"Dear Child, contemplate the Great Commission and mandate associated with My Word...Matthew 10:8. When granting the Church that charge, Daddy could never have been more serious. For years, the Bride has failed to embrace and understand the significance, as well as magnificence of this plan. But all that is about to change! There is a revelation in the land. Fully preaching the Gospel and being approved of God invariably involve the miraculous, leading captivity captive, healing the sick, raising the dead, casting out devils. I am not speaking in a parable, but literally! During this present and final sweep of the Spirit, the Bride must come into full maturity. A hungering and thirsting planet will observe Papa's hand on the Youngsters and quickly, fearfully run to them (and Me), cognizant of how each Cell is alive with My Life. Freely dispense in response to bowels of compassion. What is observed in the heart, likewise do in that Name, which is above all others. Dad's hand is heavily upon your walk and call. Take full advantage of My yoke-destroying, burden-relieving Anointing. Multitudes hang in the balance and are dependent upon the Family's obedience."

Invasion Indiana

Chad Taylor

For I see an invasion in Indiana. An invasion of righteousness. An invasion of truth and revival. Even as the corn comes into fruition this next year, so shall My purposes come into fruition in you Indiana. I will renew your strength and bring refreshing from My presence.

Even this next year you shall prosper. I will show you an abundance and a latter rain. Your children will be heard singing and praising My name. They will return from the fields as David, dancing with all their might. I will give them the first fruits of revival and renewal. They will run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

I will reveal My heart within your borders, a place of refuge, a place of strength. Prosperity is written above your doorposts O Indiana. Prosperity is written on your doorposts. You will be the lender not the debtor says the Lord. To many nations and lands your charity will be seen. They will look to you and be glad.

A river will be seen in your city streets. A river of revival flowing deep. Teenagers will carry the banner of Christ through your streets as soldiers once carried the flag of Indiana. I will reconcile father and son, mother and daughter. I will heal the wounds of wars and battles. I will heal the land says the Lord. I will heal the land.

Prepare your hearts, prepare your hearts. For the day of the Lord is upon you O Indiana. You will be a pillar of strength in a country tested. From you will come the issues of life. Men will find rest in your borders. Those in authority will find rest in your homes. From you will spring prosperity.

In the year that King Uzziah died

Cliff Gadbois

January 6, 2000

These are things that the Holy Spirit laid upon my heart throughout the day of December 31st...

Isaiah 6:1a

In the year that King Uzziah died...

I was wondering what this meant the Holy Spirit took me to the story of King Uzziah in

II Chronicles 26...from the narrative we find that “ he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord...”(v4) but later on, however, we find that “when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the alter of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men: And they withstood him Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee Uzziah to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God. Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.” (v16-19)

This has a double meaning for the days ahead...first, that self and works of the flesh are being struck with leprosy so they can no longer occupy any “thrones” in our lives...so that Jesus may take His rightful place in any areas of our lives which are not yet surrendered to Him...

I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Second, as a warning that we are to keep our appointed places within the body of Christ or we will be in danger of burning “strange fire” before the Lord (that which He has not appointed) and will be punished accordingly, as were the sons of Aaron who were guilty. I want to clarify that Uzziah set his heart and will against the Lord to that which he was not appointed to do, and this hardening of the heart is where the danger lies.

Also the Holy Spirit laid upon my heart to wary of temptations in the coming season, and to especially study the ways in which Satan tempted Jesus in the wilderness: Matthew 4: 1-11, Luke 4: 1-13...and to remember that regarding temptations...

1 Corinthians 10:13

No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

Hebrews 2:18

Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Hebrews 4:15

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are yet was without sin.

The reason for the trials, tribulations and temptations that many of us have been going through, and will go through during the coming season, are all refining and preparation for the “commissioning” into ministry. All of us are “called” to a particular ministry but it is not until we have been “chosen” or commissioned that we begin to walk in the true power and authority of the ministry that we have been created for.

Galatians 6:9

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Also in this we are especially to seek the “Full Counsel” of the Lord; some are still ‘picking and choosing’ parts of the Word while ignoring others and this will always lead to deception.

The Holy Spirit also laid upon my heart that false prophets are multiplying and we are to test them according to the Word of God, by their fruits, and to be especially wary of those who will not submit to Godly authority.

Matthew 7: 15-20

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

John 10: 1-14

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

End Time Prophetic Vision

Intercessory Occurrence

Ray Aguilera

Occurrence given to Raymond Aguilera on 3 May 2000.

During prayer, my prayer language began to speak strange and unusual sounds.

Sounds I had never heard before. I could feel the Power of the Holy Spirit come upon me, and at the same time, I could sense this incredible war in the spirit. All I know is - it has something to do with George W. Bush, the Governor of Texas, who is running for the President of the United States.

There is something strange going on in the spirit world, for my body was left totally shaken, tired and wasted after this strange prayer.

End Time Prophetic Vision

Ireland and Wales

Kathie Walters

The four-year-old joyful girl, representing the church in Ireland -- made the Lord laugh!

Kathie Walters

Note from Kathie: This is not THE word for IRELAND -it's part of The word because, as the Scripture says, "We know in part and we prophesy in part." This is the part that God showed ME. --Kathie

AS I PRAYED FOR BELFAST

When I started to pray for Belfast it seemed as though I was looking down upon some roof-tops in a "downtown" area though not the main part I don't think.

TOO QUICK TO BELIEVE, THEN SPEAK NEGATIVE THINGS

There were some office buildings and further back there were some older brick warehouse type buildings. There was one building on a corner that was higher than the other buildings. I saw a black cloud that seemed to roll around the rooftops from one roof to another - a spirit of oppression. There were people in the buildings that seemed to act like a magnet for this cloud. I believe it was negativism that attracted the cloud.

Like a religious spirit that made people quick to believe negative things and then speak negative things. God wants to release a spirit of Faith so the joy will be released . Joy is a great evangelizing tool.

INTERCESSORS, RELEASE THE SPIRIT OF GOOD NEWS!

Get the prophetic intercessors to release the Spirit of Good News which is our inheritance. In Isaiah 44:3 God says 'I will pour water on him that is thirsty and floods upon the dry ground.'

THE THIRSTY WILL BE FILLED

How do you qualify? - all it says is you have to be thirsty!

GALWAY - KILLARNEY

I then saw some areas west - Galway down Killarney and I saw spirits of fantasy and superstition- but there was more openness to the supernatural, which is both good and bad depending on if the power of God is being released through God's people.

DUBLIN

Then Dublin I saw prosperity but then distraction and diversion. Then I saw some people on the street begin to look up toward heaven and some drops of rain were falling on their faces.

THE HUNGRY ALSO FEEL THE RAIN

They smiled because they were being blessed. I especially saw an older man who had been hungry for a long time. I believe he represented the ones who had been around for awhile in the church - this man seemed to have held back from some things because he wasn't sure about them - but nevertheless he was hungry and he felt the rain - and he was so happy.

NEGATIVISM ONE OF THE GREATEST HINDRANCES

One of the greatest hindrances to God's move in Ireland is negativism in the church- and a critical spirit which creates hardness. God is a good God - He loves Ireland and the Irish people -

A SURPRISE VISITATION FROM THE LORD

In the middle of transferring these words from my note-pad to the computer, I had a surprise visitation. I suddenly found myself looking into a room.

In the middle of the room, sitting on the floor, was a curly-haired girl who looked about 4 years old. Her hair was red and she was playing with some learning toys. She was quite spirited and lively and something about her made the Lord laugh. He was laughing at the antics of her Irish character.

I found myself laughing too! She was by no means grown up and definitely lacking in some graces, but God was seeing her potential and He loved her very much. As I was watching her, this girl, I felt such a love and joy over her. When we see what God sees - the natural, judgmental thoughts seem to be washed away.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND

If we could only see each other as God sees - there would be no strife and criticism of one another. The girl represented the "church" of Ireland. I know we like to think of ourselves as being "mature" but I think sometimes we mistake our knowledge for true spiritual life!

THREE KINDS OF RAIN--

SOFT RAIN

Then I saw a soft rain falling and lots of green - we need the soft rain and it IS a promise. Then Lord told me that the soft rain comes as a result of heartfelt prayers. It is also a preparation.

SWEEPING RAIN

Then I saw sweeping rain - The Holy Spirit gave me a scripture about this kind of rain. Proverbs 28:3 "A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain. which leaves no food.." The sweeping rain is a kind of judgment brought about by the oppression of one man to another. I'm not sure what this means as far as Ireland is concerned but I felt the leaders would know. There obviously needs to be repentance about this . I'm sure there has been some. I'm sorry to be vague, but the Lord just didn't show me anything more about it.

[Note from Steve Shultz: The Lord often purposely gives only a part because it is HIS intention that the hearers of the Word SEARCH their hearts and search out the matter. The very searching and seeking is a process ordained by God to bring about much good in relationships and situations.]

THE LATTER RAIN

Then I saw heavier rain - latter rain. I got another scripture, Zechariah 10:1 "Ask of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain .

It says "ASK of the Lord Rain -" Jesus said, (Mark 11: 24.25) "Whatever you ask for in prayer, believe (and be confident) - that it is granted you, and you will get it." The only hindrance is qualified in the next verse. . "unforgiveness."

Elijah heard the rain by the Spirit - he heard the sound of the abundance of rain before it rained 1 Kings 18.

With many blessings

Kathie Walters

Note from Steve Shultz:

The LATTER RAIN is highly necessary before a GREAT HARVEST can come. Kathy pointed out that the Lord said we and IRELAND are to ASK!!!

Just as with Daniel, the prophet. . . First Daniel studied and understood what the Lord was saying prophetically. Then he repented and then he spent a GREAT DEAL OF TIME ASKING THE LORD TO DO THE VERY THING THE LORD HAD SAID HE INTENDED TO DO.

THIS IS OUR PRAYER AND OBEDIENCE MODEL:

(1) HEAR THE PROPHETIC WORD OF THE LORD

(2) REPENT FOR AND ON BEHALF OF OUR SINS AND THE SINS OF OUR FOREFATHERS

(3) ASK FOR THE VERY THING IN PRAYER THAT THE LORD HAS ALREADY SAID HE WANTS TO DO.

The Ship Of Wales

Kathie Walters

Kathie Walters: As I was praying and seeking the Lord, I prayed for Ireland. Then I saw Wales. . .

A SHIP THE SIZE OF WALES

It was as if I was looking down on the whole of Wales, north and south. All of a sudden it seemed as if I was seeing underneath Wales. Below the earth, I saw a huge, huge ship the entire size of Wales. It was not a new ship and it had one huge sail and one smaller sail. It began to rise up through the earth and at this point it was not like a picture vision, but it was if the ship filled my room.

As the ship slowly rose up - it seemed to pass through the earth, upward, until it settled over the top of Wales. It covered the whole length and breadth of north and south Wales.

AN OLD COMMISSION TO REAP AND GATHER A HARVEST

The Holy Spirit impressed on me that this ship represented an old commission given to Wales in the last revival. It was a commission to reap and gather a harvest and to take the gospel to other nations. (The ship crosses oceans and seas).

A RELIGIOUS ABORTION

The commission, I believe started to be fulfilled but was aborted by the religious spirit and strife.

But as people have sought God - to please Him and re-dig the wells - the great commission given to Wales by God is also resurfacing. Sometimes when people pray to re-dig the Wells, etc. they have in mind to re-dig only the blessings, which is great and wonderful. But, the blessings are attached to obedience to the commission. At this point in the vision, I began to get oil and then little pieces of white gold on my hands - then this word came . . .

THE WORD OF THE LORD TO WALES . . . "YOU ARE ALSO CALLED TO 'GO'"

"You are blessed - you are dear and lovely to God, you are welcoming and hospitable to those I am sending - but you are also called to go!

You also have a destiny to the nations of the earth - for I have given you much - I have shown you much of my love and My glory and you have felt my tenderness toward you.

WALES, WILL YOU SHARE WHAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED?

Will you take what you have received and share it? Will you go? As you do there will be an increase of the manifestation of My Presence and the blessings of the Lord will fall and rain on your land. I will release in great measure the spirit of unity, which brings peace and prosperity.

In the rejoicing that comes when I am in the midst of a people, you will see new businesses come into the land and raise the economic level as well as the spiritual and moral environment of Wales. For Wales will be a shining light and many people will come to her shores. This is My desire for you - Rise up to your calling - don't allow the little foxes to bite your heels, be watchful that spirits of contention and division don't devour your purpose. You are a precious ornament in my crown." ----- Kathie Walters, Good News Ministries, Macon GA

Isaiah Chapter 1

Russell Walden

2/25/00

Isaiah 1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, [and] Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The vision of Isaiah...

Isaiah SAW the things that he wrote about. He was not giving his opinion. He was faithfully conveying to us what the Father revealed to him. The word "vision" means "to see, perceive, look, or behold" - as a seer in an ecstatic state.

Isaiah's name means "Jehovah HAS saved" (past tense). So many of the things Isaiah saw, he spoke of as having already come to pass. Particularly the Messianic promises.

So he is a prophet of the FINISHED WORK.

It is Isaiah who saw the "Lofty one that inhabits eternity". Eternity is not a place of infinite time, but a place of timelessness. There is no time in eternity, only the infinite NOW.

Therefore Isaiah prophesied without distinguishing the END of a MATTER from its BEGINNING.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

Isaiah doesn't start out speaking to the children of Israel. He speaks to the EARTH and to the HEAVEN. The LORD that said, "Light be" and the elements obeyed him, is speaking again to the elements, lamenting the frowardness of his children.

"I have nourished and brought up children"

The word "nourish" tells us that the LORD caused us to GROW, to BECOME GREAT. He PROMOTED US, and MADE US POWERFUL and MAGNIFIED US.

Religion makes men small. Religion says "I am a worm". Religion rebels against God, seeing him as a great demeaning force in the earth. But the testimony of the FATHER is that his true purpose, however perverted by the Prevailing Religious System, (PRS) is to nourish us, magnify us, make us great. We magnify him by receiving his nourishing care of us. Bible humility is not saying "I am a worm" but saying I am who he says I am ... and I can do what he says I can do...."

Because of failure to understand this great Altruism on the Father's part, the people of God rebelled and rejected his care. There word "rebel" here literally means "revolt" coming from a root word to "march". This speaks of a people who have made an organized effort to controvert the purpose of God in their nation and their lives.

As shocking as this is, even more so is the reality that they did this in ignorance. Ignorance is no excuse however, because they were not without witness. They simply chose to ignore the prophets, the teachers that God sent to them, and to raise up a leadership and a religious system after their own purposes rather than humbling themselves to God purposes and plans.

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: [but] Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

Both the ox and the ass are beasts of burden. The Lord extended to the Israelite liberty from the burdens of paganism, human sacrifice, and selling their daughters into temple prostitution.

But they rejected the liberty of the Spirit and the economy of God under Aaron and chose to return to the idols of the land.

If Jehovah had rather brought heavy burdens upon the people, and forced them to suffer torments in his name, robbing them of their substance and their children, they would no doubt have been more faithful and not forgetful of their master.

Instead they took the longsuffering of the Lord as a license to sin and decadence.

The did not consider (or discern) the consequence of their actions or the witness that the Father had left them.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

The phrase "gone away backward" carries a sexual connotation. The picture is of a heifer in heat, backing against a tree or any available bull.

They forsook the intimacy the LORD extended to them and have gone whoring after other gods, after a culture and a lifestyle that did not reflect his purpose or his thought.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

The diseased spiritual condition of the nation was complete, there was no more point in remediation.

The word faint can also be interpreted "menstrous". The debauchery of the prevailing culture in Israel had reached complete saturation. There was no purpose in speaking correction.

This is true of religion in our day. On the whole, Christianity is a failed system, become a religious expression far removed from the heart and thought of the Father. Is this what the Father sent his son to bleed and die to bring forth? A corrupt, politicized monstrosity?

Consider the Jewish Religious System in Jesus' day. Is Christianity today significantly different than Judaism in Jesus day? And they crucified the Lamb of Glory! How might we as a religious culture respond to the Lion of Judah today when he appears?

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head [there is] no soundness in it; [but] wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

The Lord would have "mollified" the wounds of his people with "ointment", or anointing. But they would not. They rejected the anointing and chose to comfort themselves in idolatry. How like Religion today. The anointing is rejected, and we seek to comfort ourselves in big buildings, high powered orators, and religious organizations possessed of a life and vitality fully separate from the life of God.

God could die and the activities, services, and committee meetings of the Christian Religious System would go on as scheduled. Because the life and expression of the CRS has nothing to do with the UNCTION from the HOLY ONE that should be our total dependence and daily breath!

7 Your country [is] desolate, your cities [are] burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and [it is] desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

What is the fire that burns in the CRS today? It is the fire that Jesus spoke of in John 15:1

15:1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. 2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every [branch] that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. 3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. 5 I am the vine, ye [are] the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. 6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast [them] into the fire, and they are burned.

We live in a day when those who have no root in Christ, who have not security or identity in HIM are being gathered as fuel for the religious kingdoms of MEN.

The people of God are overthrown by strangers. Strangers to God's purpose. These are those referred to by Jesus in :

Matt 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? 7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. when he said, "depart from me, I never knew you...."

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Who is the Daughter of Zion? Zion was the highest point near Jerusalem. Zion means "parched place".

The Daughter of Zion is the corporeality of God birthed in the dry place.

The remnant of God is present, but is isolated, surrounded by spiritual devastation and ruin.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, [and] we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

The ramification of this statement cannot be stressed enough. But that the Lord had retained for himself a righteous remnant, a holy seed, Israel in spite of all the promises of God to her, would have vanished from the earth as Sodom and as Gomorrah.

Likewise today the decadent CRS. Unless the Lord has reserved for himself a small remnant this entire experiment in grace would have come to nothing.

Grace mixed with a decadent Religious System rife with division, warfare and egotism, is a failure, for it becomes nothing more than a license for wantonness.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

Revelation calls Jerusalem "spiritually Sodom and Gomorrah". Is he talking about natural Israel only?

1Cor 15:46 Howbeit that [was] not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

If the natural city became Sodom, it only did so as a type of an apostasy yet to come in Spiritual Israel, the Church, the CRS.

1Cor 10:11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

God's dealing with Natural Israel are a reflection and a foreshadowing of his dealings with Spiritual Israel, the Church, the Christian Religious System.

11 To what purpose [is] the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.

This decadent culture was exacting and liberal in their worship of the Lord.

Today members of the Clergy/Laity menagerie offer the Lord their blood, sweat and toil, but he is FULL of our consecration! He is FULL of our missions efforts. To what purpose is it he asks?

We've lost our primary focus. His presence is not longer our priority. We've taken the Religious Culture that bears his name and turned it into a self sustaining society of hypocrisy.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

Who has required us to tread his courts? The answer is obvious, but you will never hear it in a church building. The Pastor's club has required it of us.

Why we can't forsake the assembling of ourselves together, on pain of losing our souls!

What is the true motivation?

Looking at the corruption of the Lord's house in Malachi's day, the Lord cries out through the prophet:

Malachi 1:10 Who [is there] even among you that would shut the doors? neither do ye kindle [fire] on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

The cry of God's heart is that someone who names the name of Christ would love Him enough to simply shut the door on Sunday. Cancel services until further notice, send the people to their homes to find a place on their knees crying out for mercy until the Great Refiner comes to settle upon us and cleanse us from all filthiness of spirit and flesh and then fashion us into a corporeality that suits his purpose and pleasure.

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; [it is] iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Our worship, our intercession, our feasts and assemblies are an intolerance to the Father. Why? What's wrong with going to church? What's wrong with hymn books or worship courses, or all night prayer meetings?

The sin is that they have become an end in themselves. God could die and they'd simply shake the tambourine a little louder. There is no sensitivity to God's presence. Those who would foolishly stand to speak for the Father are dismissed out of hand by a Clergy/Priest class whose highest priority is maintaining the status quo.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear [them]. 15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

The blood guiltiness of a lost world stains the hands of the so-called Church.

Even in their missions efforts and evangelism, they only accomplish making more hypocrites such as themselves.

Matt 23:15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

Wherewith shall we wash?

Hebrews 10:22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

The Water we need here is found in Eph. 5:26

Eph 5:26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

This is the Water that cleanses every aspect of our lives.

2Tim 3:16 All scripture [is] given by inspiration of God, and [is] profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

The word of God thoroughly furnishes us with the example to follow. Anything in our lives or our religious culture that is not reflected in the scriptures should be held in high suspicion. Where does the Word furnish us with a Clergy/Laity distinction? Where does the Word furnish us with the Stain Glass monstrosities of the day? Is it that there were no temples in the first century? On the contrary. They made a point that their investment were in relationships, not real estate. They spent their resources on people, not property.

The first century economy of God lived in the rarified atmosphere that produced living men who in their lifetime were acknowledged to have written holy scripture. This shall come again to the earth.

2Pet 3:15 And account [that] the longsuffering of our Lord [is] salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; 16 As also in all [his] epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as [they do] also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

Relieve the oppressed. Judge (in favor of the Fatherless). This isn't just speaking of natural orphans. But those who don't know their Father.

Today you are a crank if you say too often, "The Lord told me..."

The norm today is a "child of God" who isn't on speaking terms with their Father. But this is the product of years of abuse and suppression by the Clergy / Priest class. They want to be the voice of God to you! They want to be your covering and your conduit to the word of God and the voice of God.

Therefore if we are to judge in favor of the Fatherless, we must condemn and forsake the clergy / laity distinction and resist it with every fiber of our being.

And the glorious outcome will be a people who have reclaimed their heritage in the economy of God:

Hebrews 8:10 For this [is] the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: 11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

God originally purpose not to set apart a priest class, except for the hardness of heart in his people:

God's original intent was :

Exodus 19:6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These [are] the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

But because of unbelief and fear a priest class was formed to the detriment of every generation since:

Exodus 20:19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. 20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not. 21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God [was]. 22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

"Let Us" reason together... Jesus didn't die to relate to you through a religious system, or a priest or pastor.

He wants and desires direct exposure in your life and that is his means to deliver you from the iniquity and darkness that will never lift from you as long as you keep the clergy and the CRS between you and your God.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: 20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken [it].

What is the sword which shall devour us? The sword of the Lord, the sword of his mouth, whose judgments will expose our dead religion and hidden iniquity.

The word devour means "to burn". This is what happened to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus:

Luke 24:31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. 32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

The fire of the Lord only burns what is not of Him. If that is where your investments are, then it will be hell to you and destruction. But if your investments and affections are in Him, then the sword of the Lord will burn in a glorious epiphany in your life.

21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

In Jesus' day, King Herod ruled in Jerusalem, who feigned worship of the coming Messiah, in order to slay him at his birth. He slaughtered hundreds of infants, willing to sacrifice the emergence of the Messiah in order to maintain his position and power.

Herod is a type of modern day leaders, and the Clergy/Priest class. John the Baptist came to tell him he couldn't have his brother's wife.

Even today, the Clergy takes prerogatives with the Bride of Christ that belongs only to the bridegroom. And if there is any birth of new life and the Spirit of God in a community it faces all out resistance unless its manifestation is guaranteed to fill the coffers and pews of the local church.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

Wine represents the outpouring of the Spirit. Water represents doctrine. Jesus would turn the water into wine, but the CRS has inexorably tied the move of the Spirit with correct doctrine. If a "revival" or something good happens they tie in and qualify it as justifying their doctrinal position, and thereby condemn every one else.

Silver is a type of the redemptive work of Christ. The CRS accepts the work of Christ on the Cross, buy forever links it with church attendance, tithing, submission to pastoral ministry, etc., etc.

Isaiah 64:6 But we are all as an unclean [thing], and all our righteousnesses [are] as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

The CRS mixes the filth of religious performance with the righteousness that Christ died to provide. They can't help it. This is the only tactic they can employ to keep people in check, under control, and their resources on tap for building their little kingdoms.

23 Thy princes [are] rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

This state of affairs will not be allowed to go on forever.

The CRS of our day as the JRS of Jesus, day has set itself culturally as an adversary of God's purposes.

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

People cry out today, "where is the hand of God?" The hand of God is manifest in the restraining force by which he resists the campaigns, intercessions, and efforts that in any other generation he would have blessed, multiplied and poured out his spirit upon.

This is a great manifestation of God's power and restraining force.

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

What were the first judges in Israel? Was it not in the days of Samson, Gideon, Deborah, and Barak?

The Lord in time to come is going to bring forth a great corporate expression of his TEMPLE upon the earth. But in lieu of that, in the interim he is bringing us to a time very difficult to navigate that we see in :

Judges 17:6 In those days [there was] no king in Israel, [but] every man did [that which was] right in his own eyes.

The kings and religious dignitaries of the CRS are going to be judged by God and the spiritual geography is being reduced to its most common denominator in preparation for the emergence of our DAVID the Son of God himself who shall manifest himself beyond our imaginings in his corporate power and personal glory in the earth.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners [shall be] together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

The writer of Hebrews tells us:

Hebrews 12:29 For our God [is] a consuming fire.

When the Lord comes to restore his people to his purpose, that will be the days of heaven on earth to the righteous, but it will simultaneously be hell for the transgressors, the religious and the sinners and ungodly.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

The oaks and gardens speak to us of the Christian Religious System that shall be Judged even as its shadow in Judaism was judged in the first century.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

The works of the religious clergy / priest class shall fade into ignominy, and the gardens of idolatry that call themselves the "churches of the living God" will dry up as a garden without water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench [them].

The fire that comes will be a consuming fire to the CRS but it will be a fire of Glory and for a defence to the Remnant that the Lord has reserved for himself in this day.

I Saw A City

Dumitru Duduman

[NOTE: This is the first of the last three visions/prophecies given to Dumitru Duduman as it appeared in the December 1999 HAND OF HELP Newsletter, <http://www.handofhelp.com>]

Vision Received April 12, 1997

I was on a large plain, it seemed to go on forever. I couldn't see the edges, but I know I was somewhere very high. The clouds seemed so close to where I stood that if I reached out, I could touch them. I began to look around insistently, but all I could see was this plain covered with beautiful grass that was all the same height. The sky was calm and beautiful and there was a feeling of peace in this place.

There were no buildings, no trees, no flowers, just the earth and the sky. As I continued to look around me I saw a change in the sky. The clouds began to roll to the sides and I saw a city come down from the clouds. It continued to descend until it reached the ground where I stood. I was amazed by what I saw and I began to study it intently. I have traveled this world a lot, but I have never seen anything like what I was seeing.

The entire structure was so beautiful that it took your breath away. It was all white and it shone so brightly that one could barely look at it. It was so large that if I stood at one corner and looked to see the other end, I could not. As I was trying to find an entrance into this place I studied the walls and couldn't make out what they were built from. It seemed that it was built as a whole, all from one giant mass. There were no bricks, there were no cracks in the walls, there was no mortar.

As I stood, to my left there was a building that was very tall, and smaller buildings continued along the wall. It seemed like the entire city was under one roof. Although the buildings were different, they were connected between themselves.

As I continued to look, I saw the stairs that led to the entrance and they shone brighter than anything I've ever seen. They were gigantic, as was the wall that surrounded the city. No one would be able to force their way into this place. I don't know what sort of material it was built from, but I got the impression that those inside could see out. Wanting to find out what waited inside, I began to climb the stairs. I didn't get very far, because I heard a powerful voice which drowned out everything else. "Stop!" Even if I would have wanted to continue walking I could not. It was as if I was paralyzed. "Tell My people that their worship toward Me must be not out of fear, but out of love. Of what use will it be to them if I would tell them when the final hour will strike? What they must do is worship wholeheartedly. I have already sent them a guide. They have My Word. In My Word it has already been revealed that I will come as a thief in the night. Tell them that concern over tomorrow should not be found in them. They must be faithful, and fight the good fight. Love Me as I have loved them, living in love. Behold, destruction is fast approaching but I will not hesitate to be protector for My chosen. Those that sow mercy shall receive mercy from Me. Tell My people not to worry about the seasons, but meditate on how they will stand before Me. Urge them to prepare for the day when I will show my power. Look!"

When I turned I saw a small child that was trying to climb the stairs. He tried but because he was too small he could never make it to the next step. His laughter, however, echoed throughout like a bell. Even though he kept falling he showed no sign of sadness but just kept trying. "Did I not leave you this parable as an example?" Then everything disappeared. - Dumitru Duduman

I Seek You

William Hawkins

Saturday 05th, February, 2000--7:20 P.M.

Let the church listen and hear my words and draw near to me.

I AM becoming what I AM becoming and My church is not becoming what I have set before her.

YOU come to MY house with your hands open for blessings, but your hearts are closed and far from ME.

YOU seek me late for healing and for material things; but YOU deny ME your love.

YOU seek the "THINGS" of this world and yet you leave the "THINGS" I give you untended.

YOU seek MY FACE, but refuse to hear the words from MY mouth.

YOU seek for MY outstretched hand, but do not take the offerings I have given YOU..

YOU seek everything about ME but, the one thing I long for YOU to seek..

YOU seek to satisfy YOUR longing for LOVE everywhere but from ME..

MY love is given to YOU freely, I attach NO strings, No controls, No obligations, No rules, No laws, No time limits, and No risks and yet I still guarantee the end result.

All I ask of YOU, is to love ME as I love YOU..

Weekly YOU are in MY house, but not for the purposes I have set forth.

I seek YOU to come to Bless ME.

I seek YOU to come to LOVE ME..

I seek YOU to come and make MY house what I have called it to be, A HOUSE OF PRAYER.

Corporately, MY house is to be a house of Prayer;

Individually, YOUR body MY Temple is to be a house of Prayer..

To find the things that truly matter;

The things that will last for eternity;

Listen to these words and do them;

and I shall come to YOU;

and MY GLORY shall come upon YOU;

and the Light of MY GLORY shall dispel the darkness;

and indeed the Light of Truth shall set YOU free...

COME and Try ME says the Lord; and see if I will not do ALL I have spoken..

Amen

Imparting the Mantle

Doug Fortune

Ever since Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses on the door of the church in Wittenberg in 1517, the Church has been in the process of reformation and restoration. This reformation and restoration is working to bring forth a glorious Church (ecclesia - called out ones) without spot or wrinkle (Eph. 5:27); a corporate expression of the Body of Christ manifesting "... the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ's own perfection, the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ..."(Eph.4:13). This process of "building up Christ's Body" (Eph.4:12) seems to be one that is accelerating; there has been more advancement of the Kingdom in the last 100 years than the previous several hundred combined. Each generation or movement (movements are formed as a particular truth is restored) has not had to start from ground zero, but rather has built upon truth that was previously restored; it has been line upon line, precept upon precept. If we are wise in the Kingdom we are "...like a householder who brings forth out of his storehouse treasure that is new and treasure that is old, the fresh as well as the familiar."(Matt.13:52)... (Emphasis on TREASURE; old error is still error!) This is the double portion principle we see with Elijah and Elisha; Elisha didn't just receive two doses of Elijah's spirit, he received that PLUS Elisha's OWN portion. To equate it mathematically (strictly for illustration purposes) we would say he received the spirit of Elijah to the third exponent; $Elijah \times Elijah \times Elisha = Elijah / Elisha$ to the third power!

In this we see not only an exponential effect (multiplying) but also a synergistic effect; synergy being defined as two or more unique forces that when combined produce an effect far greater than the sum of their effects when separate... each horse pulls one ton individually, two horses can pull five tons, you get the idea. If the church can embrace this principle, I believe we can see dramatic results. Younger individuals and ministries (such as mine) must lay down any pride and seek the mantle of wisdom and the spiritual substance of mature ministries and individuals (however, I'm not saying we must employ their same methods in ministry). Like Elisha, I believe we must actively pursue the mantle... like Jacob, actively pursue the blessing. Obviously, we are not seeking to be spiritual look-alikes or merely mimic them; what we must be open to and seeking is the deposit or REVEALation of Christ that is resident within those of maturity.

I've recently become acquainted with Dr. Bill and Nadine Smith of Christ as Life International; their ministry has spanned many decades and many nations, even prophesying over high ranking government officials of many nations. (Dr. Bill was doing the works of an apostle when I was still in diapers!) They attended one of our conferences and as I walked by them the Lord instructed me to stop and ask them to pray over me. I was very blessed and encouraged as Dr. Bill prayed and prophesied over me. I recently spoke at one of their conferences in Texas and an apostle from Lesotho, South Africa whom Dr. Bill had spiritually fathered told of how the Lord instructed Dr. Bill to place his suitcoat on this apostle as he prayed for him... resulting in a great increase that apostles ministry over a period of time. From that moment, I earnestly sought the suitcoat! (Obviously it wasn't the suitcoat I was after, as it didn't fit and wasn't even my color!... just a little humor...). The last session I preached, Dr. Bill called myself and two others to the platform, and placed his suitcoat on each of us as he prayed and prophesied over us... I wept and bowed under the power of the Spirit.

Now don't go running around looking to try on everyone's suitcoat!... do you see what I'm getting at?... it is the exponential synergy of imparting the mantle! If you are the elder man or woman of God (yes, I did say woman), don't go tossing your suitcoat on just anybody, either. But I believe there is great power released BOTH ways as the generations are actively joined like this. Yes, the generations are joined any way in one sense, but this ACTIVE imparting and joining produces greater blessing and when this happens in the context of RELATIONSHIP, there is a much greater blessing still. Established ministries cannot view younger ministries as 'less than' or as competitors in the spiritual marketplace. Elder individuals and ministries need not fear that God will put them 'out to pasture' as they begin to impart the mantle either... I believe there is an exponential transfer BOTH ways as we see the ministry of Elijah being perpetuated through Elisha and then John the Baptist and now an entire company of last day Elijahs.

Consider also Heb.11:39-12:1, speaking of many heroes of faith, "...they did not receive the fulfillment of what was promised, because God had US in mind... so that they should not come to perfection APART from US... we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...". Do you see the connective joining there?... we are sharing in the spiritual substance of restored truth revealed through those who have gone before us, and they in turn, share in the spiritual substance of Christ revealed through US. Let us not criticize past movements or ministers, for we are sharing in their substance... neither let us worship them as idols. Mind you, I'm not saying we cannot discern possible error from the past and learn from their mistakes; part of the apostolic mandate IS rooting up and tearing down, in order to build. Speaking of rooting up and tearing down, we must also engage in this concerning the walls of division we've built between generations and those of different giftings (I'll even include gender and prejudice in this, also). As we actively tear down these strongholds of the mind and PURSUE the exponential synergy of impartation of the mantle, I believe we will see exponential INCREASE in advancement of the Kingdom of God in the earth. "For just as the body is a unity and yet has many parts, and all the parts though many, form only ONE body, SO IT IS WITH CHRIST..."(1Cor.12:12); the days of the 'one man (or woman) show' are over... THIS is the day of the CORPORATE generational many membered expression of Christ in the earth!

Let us press forward... let us exponentially draw from the spiritual substance of the revelation of Christ in older generations... let us release the synergy of the joining of generations, giftings, and gender. Let us actively move into the FULLNESS of the Christ.

ELIJAH'S MANTLE
Shelly Mathis

"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse." Malachi 4:5-6

The spirit of Elijah has come! He is here in the land uniting as one power the spiritual fathers with the spiritual sons. I am now moving the spiritual fathers to cast their mantles upon the shoulders of their spiritual sons, even as Elijah cast his mantle upon Elisha. So, to the Elishas of this day, I say that it is time to take up the mantle of Elijah. You are the Sons of Glory that will manifest My power and glory to the whole earth, fulfilling the prophecy of Joel:"...A people come, great and strong, the like of whom has never been; nor will there ever be any such after them, even for many successive generations." (Joel 2:2b) Yet, you must follow the divine process to receive the double-portion anointing that will be available to you. I am requiring you to be as Elisha and sacrifice upon the altar of your heart every place of comfort, provision, and self-rule that you have known until now. Count the cost of this high calling and be willing to abandon everything of old. You will then walk in the path of your fathers, serving them in humility while being trained to be a son. You will learn obedience by the things which you suffer. And your faithfulness will reap great rewards, for then you will behold My glory and receive the double-portion anointing.

"...Then Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him. And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, 'Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.' And he said to him, 'Go back again, for what have I done to you?' So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and boiled their flesh, using the oxen's equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant." I Kings 19:19b-21

It Now Begins / Spirits Of Darkness, Beware!

Harley Hickling

It Now Begins
Harley Hickling

July 20, 2000

Last evening, as I sat in my garden enjoying the refreshing from a light breeze following a very hot and sticky day, the Spirit of the Lord came upon me and He said: "Son of man, prophecy to your nation." I responded "Yes Lord, what is it you would have me say?" I then saw in my mind's eye Jesus standing beside His Throne, his gaze looking out across our land. The view then zoomed in to a close up of His face and I looked into his eyes and what I saw in those eyes I found to be quite unsettling for his eyes spoke of great sadness, anguish, and yes, even anger.

I then heard the Spirit of the Lord say to me:

Sadly your nation is little different than was Israel during the days they were ruled by Kings. Israel was a very religious nation with a very religious people and so is America today. There were times when My people Israel worshipped me with all their heart, yet seldom could they go even one generation being faithful to Me before they started whoring themselves off to the likes of Baal and Asherah, setting up abominations, groves and high places, worshipping that which was not of me. Doing all kinds of abominable things and believing in their hearts that their many religious activities were good and proper for they had taken to worshipping that which was created and in the process relegating the Creator to a place of unimportance, believing He didn't even care. In those days I would send My prophets to those both high and low, calling them to come back to me. Sometimes a King would respond and repent and following his lead a fresh wave of love and respect for Me would sweep through My people. Yet usually within one generation the Asherah poles would return as My people once again turned their backs upon Me following after that which tickled their fancy as their hearts once again grew cold towards Me.

America today is also made up of a religious people, yet how many of them are truly seeking after Me? In truth sadly, relatively few. Religions of every kind abound everywhere competing with Me for the heart and souls of your people. Deceiving and religious spirits are everywhere leading multitudes astray and away from that which is True and Good. The New Age worship of today is little different then the worship of those of old who pursued after their Baals and their Asherim, worshipping the Creation while denying the Truth of the Creator. The worship of materialism also causes multitudes to turn blind eyes toward Me when I call them to come unto Me. Likewise the worship of self moves among your people closely in step with the spirit of materialism. As a result more and more people find less and less of Me to integrate into their lives depriving themselves of that which could bring meaning into their lives. As a result multitudes sense an emptiness to their lives, living out lives that often seem to be spinning uselessly in the wind. Even well established religious systems purporting to be Christian are doing all manner of things that vex Me. Yes, the gospel should be preached to all who are lost, including those who identify themselves as gay or lesbian. Yet where in My Word have I ever stated that it is a worthy matter to ordain those who are still practicing these abominable lifestyles into places of leadership in My church even including the positions of priest and pastors. What kind of pastor would sanction marriages between homosexuals? Certainly not one who has My brand upon him. Such unions are an abomination and should not be occurring in My church. But then again, all manner of evil are being pursued by many in leadership positions. Pastors committing adultery, both in secret and openly, yet are retained by their congregations and by their denominations even when their sin is found out and acknowledged.

This kind of conduct is now being accepted with the wink of eye by many of those involved, including the congregations. This should not be occurring in My church for have I not called My pastors to Holiness? Why do these pastors remain active in ministry, many of them still even living in sin? Is this acceptable Holy conduct unto their Lord? Can they be forgiven? Yes, but they should seek out other employment for they have set a terrible standard before My sheep.

Pastors everywhere are guilty of dumbing down their congregations. They achieve this by encouraging their sheep to feed only at their hands, to listen too and to feed on only that pabulum which they the pastor present for the pastors themselves are totally ignorant of that which is meat and is worthy for consumption. This is not unlike the blind leading the blind and it should not be. In this respect many of My sheep are guilty of turning over way to much responsibility and authority for the control and the proper conduct of their own lives unto others. Multitudes of My sheep are scurrying around everywhere, seeking out the latest sign, seeking out with itchy ears, listening to a multitude of voices from a multitude of sources telling them what they must do and how to go about doing it, believing in so doing that they are pleasing Me. This should not be! And if you are not seeing angels in your churches or in your prayer closet or you are not experiencing newly formed gold fillings or falling feathers, so what! Should these experiences be the major focus for your walk with Me? Of course not! In their quest to find Me many of My sheep do indeed believe they are finding Me when in reality many of them are often following after seducing and deceiving spirits, spirits which are in reality taking them even further away from Me. Does not My Word direct My people to study and to show themselves approved... rightly dividing the Word of Truth. Yet how many of My people are following this dictum in America? Pitifully few! But those who are, are giving the enemy a fit!

I have sent My prophets throughout your land with this message: Repent and return unto Me and I will make out of you a Holy people, a blessed people. Yet, as in the days of old, few have heard My prophets and even fewer have repented and turned unto me. I have sent forth My Prophetic Word time and again speaking forth My great concern for the pitiful Godless state of My church in your land. Many of these same prophets have also repeatedly addressed the moral state of your nation and how your nation is now being weighed and is being found sadly lacking as well. For the most part these warnings have been ignored, even laughed about by many. But I tell you now, just as in the days of old, even after repeated warnings were ignored a time finally came upon Israel when judgment could no longer be put off. As it was then so it is again today. I will no longer be ignored! I will no longer be mocked! I will no longer be put off! Church in America, My fire is now being poured forth upon you and that which will remain when My fire is withdrawn will be far different then that which now is for that which is not of Me will no longer remain. Nothing but Gold will remain.

America. It is only a matter of time for you as well for The Whirlwind begins!

Believers. I will pour out My power upon you and cover you with My Glory as never before! Nations will be blessed by you as you go forth in faith and in obedience to My Word!

Spirits Of Darkness, Beware!
Harley Hickling

July 20, 2000

The Spirit Of The Most High speaks forth:

Oh, for large numbers of you spirits of darkness, your days are numbered and you shall not escape the judgment that has been put off for all these many years. Many of you are smug and full of yourselves, not at all unlike the evil one whom you serve. In your smugness and in your ignorance you will be totally caught unawares of that which I have been preparing for you. Even that which is being brought forth here you will chose to ignore for that is the way of you who find your satisfaction in performing evil unto My most precious creation, mankind. This is especially true for you who have been granted authority in high places.

For what I have prepared to come against you and to extract justice from you, are My Servant Warriors, a special breed of warriors that I have been preparing in My Crucible of Holiness. Even now these warriors are completing their final preparations and soon they shall be receiving their battlefield commission, ready and fully prepared and equipped to serve Me in bringing about justice against you for all the evil and destruction you have orchestrated against My beloved. When the King of Kings and Lord of Lords directs this band of warriors to go forth on the attack, they will be totally seeped in My Anointing, fused with My Power and covered in My Glory, fully armored and brandishing My Rod of Iron from which authority you can not escape. The first you will see of these warriors will be when they are suddenly standing in your face, accompanied by a host of angels, taking complete authority over you, for these warriors will be given your names, your locations and your positions of authority as well as a brief of that which you have done that marks you evil in My sight. Instantly upon meeting My Servant Warriors you will truly understand what the word dread means for you will be slammed by that dread which emanates from the power contained within these My true and faithful servants. Do not even attempt to bargain with My servants for they will grant you no mercy and show you no regard. What they will show you is the direct way to the Abyss where you will be confined until your day of judgment before Me.

Spirits of Darkness be prepared for the very worst you can imagine for it shall soon be upon you. Your strengths and your powers will evaporate instantly as My Servant Warriors take authority over you. You who have taken such great delight in creating fear among people everywhere shall suddenly discover fear personified within yourselves. A fear so great you will be only able to gasp, for words will forever leave you.

Again I say, spirits of darkness beware!

Israel and the Presidential Campaign

Chad Taylor

The conflict in Israel is in direct relation to the conflict in the presidential campaign in the U.S. A great shifting in world power is taking place in correlation to world harvest and revival. "The heavens are suffering violence..." which is manifesting in the natural. Israel and America are a mirror image of one another in the Spirit. The struggle for leadership in America is reflected in the violence and bloodshed in Israel. One battle is in the spiritual realm (U.S.), the other is in the natural or seen by the human eye (Israel).

Once the presidential campaign is over, the storm will begin to calm. It will not be the end of it, but it will have a peace effect on Israel and the surrounding areas. Pray not only for the peace of Israel, but also for the revival of America which will have direct impact on the peace of Israel.

This conflict in world powers is only the shifting of the spiritual plates as would happen in an earthquake. Violent shaking, then the aftermath of that violence, a settling. From this shaking I will begin to shake not only the earth but the heavenlies as well. The aftershocks of this will be felt all over the planet in revival and harvest. The plates of world power are shifting, setting the stage for world harvest. I also hear the word "California." There is an authority at this time to pray for California and to pray against catastrophic earthquakes that threaten to destroy many.

Ezekiel 37 will now come to pass. When you pray, call forth Joshua, call him forth from the wilderness and the shadow of Moses or the law. Call forth Joshua to take his rightful place in Israel. Moses' time has ended. It is time for the Joshua army to arise in Jerusalem. Bind the power of the law and loose the power of grace, and be confident in this one thing, where sin, (or the law) abounds, grace does much more abound. Grace does much more abound. My grace IS sufficient in this hour.

Do not pray for the thorn to be removed from Israel as Paul prayed, but pray rather for My grace to abound... I am walking beside you, and like the two on the road to Emmaus, I will open your eyes and give you revelation to the things you are now doing and saying. I will open your eyes to see a greater host of heaven surrounding the city. A great host that are poised round about Jerusalem and the world.

Now I will show you a mystery, for in this bloodshed will come vindication, revelation and habitation, I will come to dwell with My people in a way that they have never experienced. This will be a prelude to My coming in the sky. A taste of My eternal grace and glory. For where I am so will My Bride be also. Israel is a mirror image of the spiritual. In this season of unrest is a great door of utterance opened to the church to bind and loose, to command and conquer, to overcome and occupy. PRAY!

Pray for the Joshua spirit to take hold of the heart of the church and to possess the land. And when you pray for Jerusalem, pray for the nations of the world that will surely feel the aftershocks of this shaking in renewal and revival. See if I will not cause even this to work together for the good for those that love Me and are called according to My purpose.

Watch the white house, for in it you will see the desire of your heart. In its halls and rooms will echo the sounds of repentance and revival. Lincoln and Washington will be seen once again even as Elijah and Moses were seen with Me. A time of transfiguration is coming to America. A time of great grace and revival. The margin between church and state will drastically narrow and the river of God will be seen flowing from the capitol steps. The eagle of liberty will fly once again in America. The eagle of liberty will be seen in the hearts of your children's children.

Interesting Vision

Angela Sommer

Apr 23, 2000

On Thursday night, during our prayer meeting, I had a vision of the presence of God, like I never had before.

We sang a few songs, because we were extremely distracted by noise and thoughts and other stuff, I can't even put my finger on exactly what was going on.

We then started to pray and people were bringing their petitions before the Lord. I had the distinct feeling that something was wrong. We were petitioning the Lord, but not in the right place.

So I just decided to wait and see what God wanted from us. I started to receive a vision of us as we were praying:

People were sitting in the courtyard of the temple, on the dust, with their faces on the ground. They were like lowly servants or slaves before a grim master, bringing their petitions and hoping to get his attention and audience, hoping to be heard. They did not even dare to look up at their master.

I saw gates, like the gates of thanksgiving in the temple, where they had entered.

In front of them was a huge door, that had a veil. The veil was white and was made of a very light material that was flowing in a breeze, like a curtain on a warm, sunny summer day. The door seemed to beckon. There was no one in the courtyard, except the petitioners.

As I was looking on that scene, I thought: I want to go through that veil; I don't want to stay in the dusty courtyard. I did not know what to expect on the other side but I said: Lord, I want to come in behind the veil. As I said that I entered through that veil.

As soon as I was on the other side, I found myself on a beautiful, green meadow, with flowers and amazingly green, long grass.

The Father was there, and people, adults and children, happy and content, playing and singing in the meadow. He took my hand and started to walk with me through that meadow to a road, that was glistening as gold and we walked towards a city.

The city was made of houses and towers and walls and gates that were shining in the sunshine. Behind it were snow-capped mountains. The scene was stunningly beautiful. Everywhere I saw people.

They were happy and content, as I have seldom seen people. There was great peace and joy in that place. I walked holding the Father's hand all the time, like a little child.

Finally we arrived at the city. He took me up the streets and as we went He kept telling people: "Look this is my daughter Angela" and they waved at me.

We came to a place with a big room and a desk. It looked very exquisite, all laid out in dark wood, but it was very bright and beautiful. The Father sat down at the desk and went about His business. Sending angels here and there, and doing things a ruling king or governor would do. I just stood by Him and watched Him. Then He said it was time to go.

He took me back out of the city and back to the green meadow, to the place where the veil was flowing in the breeze.

He said to me: I want you to go back through that veil and bring others with you to this side.

I started to protest, because I did not want to leave this beautiful place, but He said to me: "You can come back here any time you want. But there are many others that don't know that. So go and get them and tell them about this place. They can come too."

At that point I went back through the veil and stood again in the dusty courtyard. I just wept looking over the people there feeling their lostness and despair, not knowing that God's real presence was so different from this. I did not feel that these people were unsaved.

Then I realized that I had not seen the person that had led me through the presence of God and the Lord said to me: "You were with the Father; no one has ever seen the Father."

Firmly in His grip,

Psalms 139

1. O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.
2. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.
3. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.
4. Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD.
5. You hem me in--behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me.
6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
7. Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?
8. If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.
9. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea,
10. even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.
11. If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,"
12. even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

"What is there in a name? What is there that a name would represent? Does not a name signify the person? Each of you, my people, has a name; and I know each of you by name. Before the beginning of time, I knew you, and I had a place for you. Your names were written down in my book. "

(I saw a picture of a little girl who was sitting down, reading a book in her lap, and looking though the pages.)

"I knew you when you were little children. When you used to read stories about Me in Sunday School. I was there when you went to school. I was there when you were left out of the games that children play. When you looked out the window and thought about other things, I was there. I was there when you were in your adolescence. When you had difficult decisions to make, I was there. When you left your adolescent years and were alone, I was there. All the times you were searching for the answers, I was there. When you looked for Me in a sunset, I was there. In times of sorrow, I was there. When death had passed by you, I was there. In the midst of confusion and chaos, I was there. On your wedding day, I was there. When you said things to your spouse that you shouldn't have, I was there. When you lost your job, I was there. When you and your wife went separate ways, I was there. When you were left alone with your children, and no husband, I was there. When you came back after your many years away from Me, I was there. When you stayed away from Me, I was still there. When you sought to find answers to life's questions in a glass of wine, or in a drug, I was there. When you cried out to Me from the bottom of your despair, I was there. I was there, and I heard those cries. When you walked though the darkness, I was there. When you were alone with no one else around, I was there. When you sinned, I was there. "

"I was there through everything that has happened. Your coming in and your goings out. I will be there and you will stand before Me on that last day. And you will look into my eyes and know that I have always known you. Just as you have a name, so have I. As day unfolds to day, so another day unfolds of Me knowing you. As I have known you, so I ask you to know Me. Then you will know Me as I AM. We will walk through this life with our hands clasped together. I pray that we would be one even as I AM one with the Son. So would you know Me as I AM known? Come into the inner court and know Me."

(The Lord showed me a priest who was standing near the altar. On this altar was a book guided on the sides and the pages, and as I looked, it opened up into another book, and another book, and yet, an other book. They seemed to flow and spread forth as the priest was looking at it.)

"Stand there in my presence and I will blow upon every part of you. Let my priests come before Me and serve Me. This is my charge to you who would come before Me. And then my revelation will flow from one to another."

Buried With Me So That You Would Be Raised With Me

Stephen Hanson

April 22, 00

9. He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, though he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth. Is. 53

25. He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification. Rom. 4

4. We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. Rom. 6

"Is there a death that my servants would be willing to enter into for Me? Are you willing to be made into my image? Are you willing to have been buried with Me so that you may be raised with Me? For I died for you so that you may be raised with Me. I was wounded for your transgressions, and I was assigned a grave for those I knew not. I entered into death so that I would be made alive, and to make you alive as well. I did not sin but I took on your sins. I bore them so that you would not need to. As I bore the cross and endured the pain, so would each of you need to do. You are not worthy of Me unless you pick up your cross daily and follow after Me. "

"In this life you will have tribulation..."

(The Lord showed me a rose, which was lying down. I looked at it, and it had several thorns going up and down the stem, while at the top, there were beautiful pink petals. Then my attention was drawn to the petals. As I continued looking at the petals, they opened up continuously in the center.)

"But I ask you to look beyond the thorns and the trials of this life. For the life that I give far exceeds anything that you go through in this life. I have come to give you life and that more abundantly. Do not focus on the trials, but focus on the end result. For they are designed by Me to bring you into my image. Sons of God....be of good cheer, for you will reap and you will triumph. You will gather much and reap much. The plants will grow and mature and bring forth new ones. Your ministries will reap where you have not sown. A great net is being sown for gathering into my kingdom. The last harvest is ready to be gathered in. While you are gathering souls for my kingdom it is also a time for training and teaching. For it is time for the perfecting of the saints. It is time for maturity, and it is time for brotherly love."

"Will I come back for a church without spot or wrinkle, or will I find you fighting amongst yourselves? Be not as little children, but be as kings and queens, for you will reign with Me."

I Will Build My Church

Terry Mengle

As a pastor for 24 years I think I am allowed, qualified and even required to say that the Body of Christ in this country is in a mess. For the most part, we have not really changed our cities, our society or our country. The Church that turned the first century world upside down has lost its' power. We have dabbled and put our hopes in politics thinking to change our society.

Meanwhile, millions of babies are put to death each year, we have a mass epidemic of sexually transmitted diseases, drugs and pornography are dragging us down into darkness and death, and hundreds of thousands of precious souls die and go to an eternal hell each year while the church plays its' religious games and observes its' religious traditions. We are unconcerned that the neighbor who lives across the street and his kids have never heard the story of Jesus- don't even know who He is! We would rather be arguing about whether women should be in ministry, whether you can lose your salvation, whether tongues and prophecy is for today, who is orthodox in their theology and who isn't, what kind of government should the church have, just who is the whore of Babylon, just what news event will usher in the Antichrist, and when the Rapture of the Church will really occur.

I have read where Jesus said in Matthew 16:18, "...I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." I've compared Christ's vision of the church crashing down the doors of hell and snatching out it's captives with the reality of the powerless church today and have cried out with real anguish, "How are you ever going to do it, Oh Lord?"

One day He answered my question with, "I WILL BUILD.... MY CHURCH!"

**I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH!****

He explained that He would destroy those works of the church which were not His and which got in the way of His purposes and others He would totally ignore as useless. He declared that He, not us, would build the church and emphasized that He had the right to do the building, since he bought it and owned it. He would not reason or argue with anyone about ownership. He declared that judgment and change was coming to the house of God.

A Recent Example:

I recently attended a (I don't want to call it a common conference) holy convocation in Kremmling Colorado. The first thing I learned was the area topography. In this valley meet three rivers (the Muddy, the Blue, and the Colorado) to form one mighty Colorado which in turn flows south to carve out the beautiful Grand Canyon.

One of the things I have learned is the saying, "As in the Natural, so in the Spiritual." Meaning that often what you see occurring around you in the physical world is foreshadowed or mirrored in the spiritual world.

What was seen in the spiritual at this conference was a convergence of various streams of the church into one functioning and powerful river of creative force. The Lord built the spiritual environment for His people to come together for His building purposes. Some of those attending had been forcibly removed, by the Lord and/or circumstances, from denominations. Many came from denominational churches. Many found ministry expressions outside their denominations.

Some of these people came with Word of Faith distinctive, some came with an emphasis on deliverance, some were River people looking for deeper depths in the Lord, some carried with them a desire for restoring prophecy, and some came with a vision for restoring proper fivefold ministry government in the church. We were all made to flow together by the power of the Holy Spirit into appreciating and benefiting from the prophetic voice of the Lord and the government of God.

What many of us came to realize was that we had been easily compelled into the purposes of God to accomplish His will because we worshipped Jesus passionately and gave ourselves to Him wholly. We discovered a liberty or freedom from the need to push forward our selves, our agendas, our distinctive and our traditions. We felt the blessings of unity. We were going somewhere in God! And we knew it!

We look forward to seeing what the Lord of this River of unity carves out and creates. Will these streams united eventually carve out a masterpiece of God's purpose? We feel the growing anticipation of faith and His presence.

You should be looking for the building of the Lord. A. W. Tozer once said: "Find out what God is doing in your generation and go join Him in it." Ask Him where to go and with whom you should join in His work. Be sure you have joined His work and not man's work. Love him wholly, lean not on your own understanding and He will direct your path. When He leads you to it-go jump in and be blessed.

Use Psalm 133 as a gauge of whether you are in the right place or not: "Behold , how good and pleasant it is for the brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down on the edge of his garments. It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded the blessing - life forevermore."

I Will Rejoice

Francis Frangipane

DELIVERANCE FROM MISERY AND GLOOM

September 28, 2000 For two weeks we've discussed possessing a thankful, rejoicing heart. To some, such a goal seems like an unscalable mountain, yet this is exactly what the Lord desires to give us.

Our problem is that we are focused on our problems. We enter our day with our countenance darkened by the gloom of unbelief. We wonder why the non-Christians don't run to give their lives to Christ. Perhaps the obstacle is not what exists in their hearts, but what is in our own. Yes, we accepted Christ as Savior and gave Him our sins, but have truly given Him our lives?

Our gloom belies our trust in God The Lord desires to rescue us from gloomy, unbelieving attitudes. He wants us to cancel our plans to be miserable and submit ourselves into His loving, wonderful hands. This is why I'm fighting for the best life you could possibly have. I'm fighting powers of darkness so you experience the fullness of joy.

WHY SO SAD?

Even in a world where spiritual darkness is increasing, the Lord plans something different for us. In fact, He orders us, "Arise, shine; for your light has come." He tells us that His literal glory, which is now abiding within us, will "appear upon" us. The result? "Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising" (Isaiah 60:1-3).

What does it mean? What we see of God's glory is the outraying manifestation of His presence. But His radiance is actually the unveiling of His goodness. Consider: when Moses asked to see the Lord's glory, the Lord responded, "I Myself will make all My goodness pass before you . . . I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion on whom I will show compassion" (Ex. 33:18-19).

So, God's glory is His unfathomable goodness. When Scripture says, "the glory of the LORD will rise upon you," it is actually saying the GOODNESS of the Lord will be seen upon you. In other words, in contrast to the uncared for world under judgment, you will be seen as one chosen to reveal how good God is!

God's goodness, like a morning dawn rising at the end of a night, is increasingly going to be manifest upon us at the end of this age. With all my heart I believe we are entering days where both the visible radiance of God's glory and the overwhelming effect of His goodness will manifest in the true church. We'll see more of the good things of God: more of His healings, more of His miracles, more of His provisions and more of the power of His love. These won't be isolated elements or events, but a stream of wonders that will cause the world to marvel at the Lord's goodness upon His people.

SO REJOICE!

Paul wrote, "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!" Why should we rejoice? For "the Lord is near." (Phil 4:4-5). He's not talking about the second coming; the Lord is near now in our spirits. He's saying that you're not isolated from God. Rather, God is at hand. He goes on with the very familiar recipe for gaining God's peace:

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God (listen to this), which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Phil 4:6-7).

Paul describes the peace of God as surpassing all comprehension. Then the apostle writes in Eph. 3:19 that "the love of Christ surpasses knowledge." Do you understand that? The enveloping presence of God surpasses your mind's analytical powers to figure out the world around you. See, it doesn't really matter if you don't have all the answers if you truly have God and can trust Him! The peace and love of God transcend and surpass the realm of the mind.

People may ask, "Why are you so happy especially given your difficult circumstances?" You respond: "I can't tell you why, I just know, in spite of my battle, I'm fully loved by God. He's in charge of me and my future." 1 Pet. 1:8 says, "...you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible..." Add it up and see how much we have: peace beyond comprehension, love beyond knowledge and joy beyond our ability to express and articulate.

There is a spiritual realm of joy, peace and love we can abide in that's far more wonderful and expansive than the tiny realm of our analytical thought life. Probably ninety percent of our battles exist in our minds. I am not saying we shouldn't think or consider things, but if we are not simultaneously living in the spiritual realm of joy, love and peace, our fight is filled with futility. God wants to coax us out of these tiny realms and bring us into the realm of His full presence where His joy, love and peace abound.

CURSED OR CHRISTLIKE?

God had many blessings planned for Israel, but He also warned that curses awaited them if they embraced sinful attitudes of life. In the summary thought of Deuteronomy 28, the Lord explains, "So all these curses shall come on you . . . because you did not serve the Lord your God with joy and a glad heart, for the abundance of all things; therefore you shall serve your enemies" (Deut. 28:45-48).

Listen carefully: They weren't cursed only because they disobeyed God, but also because they did not serve God with joy and a glad heart. If I ask my kids to do something and, though they do it, they murmur and complain, it is offensive. You see, obeying with a complaining attitude is not obeying, it's complaining.

We must make the choice to rejoice. Too many of us are cynics. Cynicism, contrary to popular opinion, is not a gift of the Holy Spirit. A cynic is a habitual doubter. He is nearly always negative, expecting the worst, and probing for the worst when there is nothing negative visible on the surface. Ultimately, a cynic will always discover something that confirms their expectations.

I am saying that God is good, and even when things are not good, He works them for our good. If you believe this is true, your faith in God will relieve you from a host of dark and dangerous attitudes. God is Who He says He is. Even if we don't know all the details along the way, we trust that He is good.

He Who is perfect can make something wonderful come out of what was just average or even misguided. That's where my peace comes from: God's abilities and His goodness. This is where the peace beyond comprehension comes from; here is the source of the love that surpasses knowledge. God Himself is the reason for my inexpressible joy!

". . . all things have been created by Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together (Col 1:16-17).

Not only is Christ the agency of creation, but in Him "all things hold together." Now listen: Just as the Lord holds creation together, so He can hold our lives together as well. Maybe you don't know what to do next. How are the bills going to be paid? What will the future look like? Maybe your emotions are stretched and strained, and you don't know what to do next. You can't hold it together, but God can. Trust Him. He'll hold it together. He'll keep you right in the center of His love.

I WILL REJOICE!

Paul is in a jail when he writes the church in Phillippi. The prison he was in was horrific, and he had done nothing to warrant being there. Yet, when he writes he uses the words "joy, rejoicing or glad" over a dozen times. Consider: he has every reason to be miserable, yet he makes the choice to rejoice. He says, "... Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice" (Phil 1:18).

My heart tells me that Paul's declaration wasn't directed to the readers as much as to those forces of darkness that had stolen his freedom, his comforts-everything, but his heart for God. It was as though he were telling them, "Look, you took much, but you are not going to get my joy!"

If the enemy can take your joy, he'll also take your strength. Soon, you'll find yourself struggling with sin, not because you were evil, but because when you lost your joy, you lost your ability to resist the enemy. "For the joy of the Lord is your strength" (Neh 8:10).

Paul couldn't have know his letter would become part of the Bible. He's just writing to fellow Christians. But when you trust God, focus on God, and magnify the greatness of God, then even your time in jail can be sanctified and used to glorify the Almighty.

I Will Restore The Years

Sandy Warner

3 Visions and a Broader Look at Restoration

VISION - THE CATERPILLARS In the early 80's, I had a vision of a massive army of crawling caterpillars climbing over mountains and valleys. Everywhere they touched left a trail of slime, and everything the slime touched left a gaping hole. I saw gaping holes in people. In a closer view I saw the army come upon a school. There were trails of slime in the hallways, on the ceilings, on the floors. It was seemingly impossible to get away from the slime. I was told the only way to avoid being touched by the slime was to exercise. I saw a group of people in a classroom vigorously doing calisthenics! It was quite unusual to see, but these people were being protected from the slime. As I stepped outside, the caterpillars were now gone but I could see the devastation they left behind.

The Lord gave me the following scriptures which are self explanatory and interpret the vision.

Acts 24:16 KJV And herein do I EXERCISE myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God, and toward men.

Joel 1:4 KJV That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

Joel 2:25 KJV And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

VISION - RESTORING THE SHIP In May of 98 I had a trance vision where I heard intercessory music going on behind a curtain. It was a medley of two songs. The first song was "Behold He Comes." The words were: "There shall be wars and rumors of war. Nation shall rise against nation. Because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. There shall be earthquakes, pestilence, distress of nations! Famine, signs in the sun, moon and stars!" The song turned into the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" with the words, "Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord. He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored. He has loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword, His truth is marching on." [Words from Behold He Cometh! By Jerry Kirk (1967) and Battle Hymn of the Republic by William Steffe (1852)]

While the music was playing, I saw an old vessel that was being resurrected from years and years of being buried in the earth. I realized that we were going backwards through time and I saw the layers of dust and dirt peel away and the ship appear as though it was rising above the rubble. As the ship appeared, it looked decayed and as I continued to watch, I saw the layers of rust and decay disappear and it returned to its brand new condition. It was now sitting on top of the earth looking brand new.

Behind the intercession curtain, I saw a clock on a wall and I knew it had something to do with the countdown to Y2K, and was told that there was a computer time chip that could be inserted that would help us go back in time and do this same thing to the ship. As I watched a repeat, the ship seemingly rose from the earth, and I realized that a blast of wind was blowing very, very hard upon the ground and blowing away layers and layers and years of dirt. As it blew away the layers, it made it appear that the ship was rising from the earth. This had happened the first time, but the first time was through intercession. This second time, I could see that the wind was a strong blast and appeared to literally happen.

However, the chip was left in a tad too long and the stripping process took it back to an elemental stage that looked like the primer coat of paint. It was a stage just prior to completion. I was somewhat alarmed at this. I woke with the impression that if the enemy had his way, he would try to take advantage of the stripping process and tear away what the Lord had restored.

These are the scriptures the Lord gave me at that time: And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. (KJV Isaiah 61: 4)

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: (KJV Amos 9:11)

After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: (KJV Acts 15:16)
